

Source: The Daily Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
Tuesday, May 5, 1885

Ontonagon - The Miner chronicles the completion of the bridge across the west bank of the Montreal river, and that all bridges between that point and Ashland are finished, while but 13 miles of grading remains to be done to have the line ready for the iron through to the lake.

✓DSS&A

" - Bridges