

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
May 7, 1887

Saturday

Negaunee - Thursday morning A. Watson, general superintendent and William Orr, general freight agent of the DSS&A arrived in the city in a special car. They were accompanied by their predecessors, John Hornby and A. S. Parks. The managing officials were making a tour of inspection of this portion of the road. Nearly the entire day was spent on the M&W branch, near which the "east range" mines are located.

✓ DSS&A Ry.
M&W Ry.