

Source: The Mining Journal
September 24, 1887
Marquette, Mi.

Ishpeming - Marshall Scully and a policeman or two will hereafter be at the South Shore depot on Sunday nights to prevent the crush of people if possible. Those who are not called to the depot by business should stay away, as they help to make it very unpleasant for those who are alighting from or getting on the trains.

✓DSS&A
Passenger