

Source: Negaunee Iron Herald
Negaunee, Lake Superior, Mi.
November 10, 1887

The DSS&A is now completed about forty miles east of Dogwood. A large supply of rails have arrived, and it is thought that there is enough material on hand to complete the work of this season.

Resigned.- C. Houle sent in his resignation as agent of the DSS&A at this place several days ago. We are not advised what conclusion has been reached by the company regarding it.