

Source: Negaunee Iron Herald
Negaunee, (L. S.), Mi.
January 19, 1888

Thursday

Sault Ste. Marie proposes to have the biggest kind of a celebration tomorrow. The invitations sent out say: "The Citizens of S. S. Marie, Mi., fully appreciate the importance of the recent completion of the MSSM&A, The DSS&A and the CPR to their city, also the completion of the great international bridge, have united in a decision to celebrate the event in a manner commensurate with its importance. Guests will be furnished entertainment and will be granted the freedom of the city. A great many gentlemen prominent in railway, commercial and political circles have signified their intention of being present. It will be a union of men who are foremost in the development of the vast northwest, and the program will be one suitable for the occasion.

MSSM&A
DSS&A
SSMB Co.