

Source: The Alger County Republican
Au Train, Alger County, Mi.
June 23, 1888

Saturday

The story is told, with some show of truth, that the telegraph operators between here and St. Ignace are obliged to keep a thick smoke on their desks in process of formation continually, in order to be able to do their work. "They say," that the night operator at Soo Junction resembles a worker in a charcoal kiln, when he goes off duty in the morning.

~~DSS&A~~

Stations - Soo Junction