

Source: Newberry News
Luce County, Mi.
June 28, 1888

Thursday

Telegraph operators on The DSS&A between St. Ignace and Marquette, run largely through the forest, protect themselves at night with smudges in order to hold the swarms of mosquitoes at a respectable distance. The night lightning slinger at Soo Jct., is in a particularly bad locality, and his smoke has to be kept so thick that he looks like a charcoal heaver when he gets off duty in the morning.

✓ DSS&A
Stations - Soo Jct.