

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
September 14, 1889

A Popular Line

The appreciation which the public manifests of the advantages offered by the DSS&A and its present excellent service, is marvelous and can only be understood by the persons who visit the trains daily and note the immense amount of travel, both through and local. The copper country people appreciate their double daily service and are loud in their praise of the management of the road. The equipment and the road-bed are excellent and the passengers can enjoy comfort while traveling over the line.