

Source: Newberry News
Newberry, Luce County, Mi.
December 1, 1888

Saturday

Our citizens should take up a collection for the purpose of securing a stove for the waiting room at the depot, as the railroad officials through a penurious spirit or unexcusable neglect have failed to put one there. As it is, now the open air is preferable to the measly cold and inadequate room to stop in while waiting for a train.

DSS&A
Stations - Newberry