

Source: Alger County Republication, Munising, MI
November 6, 1891, Friday

E. P. Wilson, long of Marquette, goes to Minneapolis as traveling agent of the Soo-South Shore Line, and he is succeeded as northern passenger agent by George W. Hibbard.

P. Hammond, formerly station agent at McMillan has resigned his position and will enter upon a mercantile career under the supervision of W. A. Cox, proprietor of the Munising Emporium. Success to you, Paul.

A vicious tramp assaulted Conductor Connolly of the South Shore at O'Brien, Tuesday evening. The brute was captured and lodged in the Marquette Jail.

DSS&A Ry.