

Source: The Alger County Reputlcian
Au Train, Alger County, Mi.
December 25, 1891

Friday

St. Ignace streets were illuminated with electricity for the first time last night and the natives were wild with joy. Wouldn't Father Marquette throw up both hands in astonishment if he could come out of his grave and see the old town now.