

[RETRALIATION AGAINST TRUNK SMASHING BAGGAGEMAN]--1891

A St. Ignace baggageman was merrily smashing trunks the other day when in an instant a big Saratoga trunk burst with flames. When the depot had been saved and the fire put out the remains of the trunk were opened. It had been packed with parlor matches and railroad spikes probably with evil intentions.

[General New column, p. 4]

[Newberry News, 23 January 1891, repr from Detroit News]

FILE: DSS&A

CJB to WP

✓ DSS&A Ry.
Passenger