DENIED BY SERGEANT.

A Statement that Brotherhood Firemen on the Central Had Been Ordered Out.

CHIEF OF THE BROTHERHOOD SAYS
THERE IS NO TRUTH IN IT.

Small Strike on the Delaware & Hudson.
Threats to Extend the Central Trouble to the Michigan Central.

THE NEW YORK STRIKE.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Chief Reed, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, said at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon: "Every fireman on the New York Central railway is ordered out by a dispatch received at headquarters a half hour ago."

Mr. Sargeant, of Cleveland, Ohio, chief of the firemen's brotherhood, orders the strike.

Three carloads of Pinkerton men left the depot at 4:30 P. M. to protect non-union men at work in West Albany and serious trouble is anticipated.

It is understood that the order received this afternoon ordering the firemen out will principally affect the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, but it is probable that it may extend to night to the other roads.

The switchmen and laborers in the upper Delaware & Hudson freight yards near Lumber street quit work this morning. Railroad men say they do not know the cause. The men claim they have detected the Delaware & Hudson officials endeavoring to move Central freight in violation of the promise made to District Assembly 246. They say they did not strike without due warning and that the strike will extend the whole length of the road before tomorrow morning. The passenger trains are all running and the strikers say they will not disturb them.

There is a large amount of perishable freight here consigned to the Saratoga hotels, which was ready to go up this afternoon. The Knights claim that the action of the Central people in bringing on a large number of switchmen from the Michigan Central yards in Chicago will at once extend the strike to the western lines of the Vanderbilt system
as a result.

At noon the Delaware & Hudson Canal company's freight and yardmen except engineers and firemen quit work as though a signal had been given to the road.

It is said the Boston, Albany & Fitchburg freight departments will strike.
Trouble is feared here now.

General Manager Young, of the Delaware & Hudson railroad, said at 3 o'clock that the strike on that road only included freight handlers, switchmen and yardmen in the Albany yards.

One hundred and fifty switchmen from the west arrived here to day, and were placed in the yards of the New York Central company at East and West Albany. The draw on the upper bridge, which has remained open since last Friday, was closed to-day. Only one freight train made any progress,
and that only one mile from Albion.

WEST SHORE FIREMEN GO OUT.

New York, Aug. 13.—It is reported that the firemen on the West Shore road have gone out and that the road is tied up.

K. OF L. MEETING IN DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 13.—General
Master Workman T. V. Powderly, J. J.
Holland, chairman of the national legislative committee and organizer of the New York Central road strike; John W. Hayes and John Devlin, all members of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, are in the city and some important action in connection with the great railroad tie-up is generally looked for. J. J. Holland and John W. Hayes arrived last night.

A. W. Wright is the only absent member of the board and he is expected soon. Mr. Powderly, in talking to a reporter, said the purpose of this meeting were of a general character only,
and that the New York Central strike might and might not come up in the meeting.

SERGEANT HASN'T ORDERED A STRIKE.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 13.—Grand Master Sargeant of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, left at noon for Cleveland, to meet with a grievance committee, but whether or not in connection with the Central strike is not known. At the national headquarters here, the positive statement was made that he had not ordered the firemen to strike. When seen by an Associated Press reporter yesterday, Mr. Sargeant said that out of the question for the brotherhood to engage in a strike as the case stood. He explained that under the laws of the brotherhood and the Federation of Railway Employees, a local grievance committee of employees must first

TRY TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE

with the employers. Failing to do so, then he would be called upon to join the committee in the effort. If no settlement was effected, then he might decide in favor of a strike and his decision would be submitted to a vote of all the members of the brotherhood on the system of railways where the grievance existed. If a majority voted to strike, he as president of the supreme council of the federation, would call a meeting of the council, which is composed of three grand officers of the Brotherhood of Firemen, Brotherhood of Conductors, Brotherhood of Trainmen and the Switchmen's Mutual Aid association. A committee of this council must endeavor to agree with the railway company before a strike is ordered. None of these steps had been taken. The Cleveland meeting may be the first step, but it is not known here to be so.

ENGINEERS STICK TO THEIR POSTS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The rumor that the West Shore railroad is tied up on account of the engineers going out has been found to be false. General Manger Toucy, of the Central road, was seen by a reporter, and said that he had just received a dispatch from General Manager Lang, of the West Shore road, saying that everything was all right at the Grand Central depot. All the engineers are at work and no strike of the engineers is likely to occur on either road.

CAUSE OF LEE'S ANGER.
NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—E. J. Lee, the master workman of the strikers on the Central Hudson system, has been angry to-day over the publication of his alleged letter to General Superintendent Voorhees. Lee denounces the letter as a forgery and says that the Knights look upon it as a last resort by the company to aid their claim that the strike is a failure.

FIREMEN STILL WORKING.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Up to midnight there was nothing new in the great strike. The firemen re still working and nearly all trains are running.

THE TROUBLE AT CLOQUET.

Duluth Militia Arrive on the Scene in Time
To Prevent Bloodshed.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 13.—A Pioneer-Press
special from Cloquet, Minn., says:
Company K, Second regiment, of Duluth, arrived at 5:50 this morning, and to the surprise and discomfiture of the strikers who are completely cowed by their presence. Their timely arrival prevented bloodshed, as the special police were becoming exasperated at the strikers and proposed to bring on an issue at once. They were fully armed and are determined men. The strikers were also armed and though reduced in numbers still were bound to create trouble.

Twenty-one arrests have been made by the specials without trouble and preliminary examinations took place today. Many of them were bound over to the district court to answer to the charge of engaging in a riot. The four Eliga brothers, blatant agitators, who have led the strikers, are in jail. This afternoon the upper mill of the Nelson company started up with a full crew of men. Three more saw mills are idle, but two of them will probably start shortly. Company K will return to Duluth to-morrow. The town is quiet tonight and no further trouble is anticipated. Many of the strikers have left town and large forces of special police are patrolling the streets and mill yards to guard against possible incendiary fires, which the strikers have threatened to start.

MOURNING THOUSANDS.

Pay Their Last Tributes of Respect to the Late John Boyle O'Reilly.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 13.—The remains of John Boyle O'Reilly lay in state in St. Mary's church, Charleston, from 4 P. M. yesterday until 8 o'clock this morning, when the funeral took place. From one end of the church to the other were stationed floral tributes radiant with beautiful colors. Many of these were so massive they partially hid from view the altar behind them. At 10 o'clock to-day, the hour set for the funeral to begin, Winthrop and Warren streets in the vicinity of the church were packed with hundreds of people anxious to gain admittance. When the invited ones and the representatives of organizations were seated, a few from the throng without were permitted to enter and occupy the remaining pews.
Crowds gathered about the windows and doors, and it took several police to prevent them from crowding into the church.

COVERED WITH WAR PAINT.

Indians Attack the Fishing Camp at Buffalo
Bay, Lake of the Woods.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 13.—A Rat Portage, Ont., special to the Free Press says: The steamer Thistle, which belonged to the Reid Fish company, has just arrived from Buffalo Bay, Lake of the Woods, and reports that a band of Indians, thirty strong, under chiefs Haw Wawson and Flat Mouth, came and cut the stele, stole the contents and forcibly took the provisions of the camp. There were only seven whites there, unarmed, and the Indians were fully armed and covered with war paint. The Indians gave the company five days to get out everything or there will be trouble. The company has been in the habit of giving the Indians the fish offal, but this recently stopped this custom and this is the primary cause of the trouble.

A DEMAND FOR RECOGNITION.

Colored Men of Kansas Want a Candidate on the State Ticket.

SALINA, Kas., Aug. 13.—A convention of 400 negroes from all parts of the state met here yesterday to decide upon a colored man as a candidate for state auditor at the coming republican state convention. Bruce of Leavenworth presided. John L. Walker, of Kansas City, Kas., was chosen as the candidate and a committee of fifty was appointed to press his claims before the convention. Resolutions were adopted demanding representation on the state ticket.

Forecast of the Weather.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—8 P. M.—The signal service reports the following as its forecast for the next 24 hours: For Wisconsin and Michigan: On Thursday warmer in eastern, stationary temperature in western portion; westerly winds.

C. Y. OSBURN, Chairman County Committee.
C. G. GRIFFEY, Secretary.
Marquette, August 8, 1890.

If Senator McMillan is willing to general the republican forces in the coming campaign there ought to be no hesitancy about permitting him to do it. He pulled the party through some years ago when it was in no such condition for battle as it is now, and with him to the fore this year there would be no doubt whatever of the result in Michigan.

Iron Mountain has given a thirty-year franchise to a water supply company, which is about to put in a plant at that point. The city will pay $9,000 a year for the rental of hydrants to start with, which charge will be increased as a matter of course as the place grows in size. The MINING JOURNAL thinks that thriving town has made a mistake in thus placing itself at the mercy of a corporation in the important matter of its water supply. Fire protection costs Marquette nothing because the city owns its own water works, and its people get better service and at a lower cost than they would if the works were owned by a private company. Any city that gives a water or lighting franchise to a corporation makes a mistake, and it is a matter for surprise that so progressive a town as Iron Mountain should have tied itself up in this way for thirty years.

In 1890, says the Engineering and Mining Journal, the percentage of all steel rails to the total track of all the railroads in the United States was only 29.1 per cent. Now it is 74.8 per cent. If the average rate with which steel rails supplanted iron ones during the last decade were continued, all the iron rails would be wiped out by 1898. But it is noteworthy that the change, so far as mere statistics of totals is concerned, has been going on more slowly during the latter part than the earlier part of the decade 1880-89. There is still a considerable amount of old iron track which figures more in statistics than in actual duty; and as this iron track is presumably subject to light wear, or is on practically abandoned tracks it will be some time before it is all replaced by steel or rusted out of even statistical existence.

There has not been the best of feeling between the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Knights of Labor since the strike of the engineers on the C. B. & Q. road, owing to the action of the K. of L. men at that time in flocking to take the places of the striking Brotherhood engine drivers. The Brotherhood men have had it in for the K. of L. ever since, and the strike inaugurated by the latter on the New York Central the other day furnished them with an opportunity to gratify their vengeance that they lost no time in improving. It was largely through the promptness with which Brotherhood men took the places of the strikers that the strike collapsed so quickly, and with so little inconvenience to the railroad company. The two organizations are even now and ought to cry quits—or quit striking. Their enmity served the railroad companies well in both cases, a fact that should set the members of both orders to thinking.

There is a possibility that the issue raised by the enactment of the Bennett law in Wisconsin will not work as advantageously for the democrats in the election this year as they have been led to anticipate. The law has not a few supporters among the voters of that faith, and if the canvass should be made on the question raised by that law there would be very apt to vote with the republicans. The controversy between the opponents and champions of the principle embodied in the law has acquired a degree of bitterness by reason of the religious aspect given it that will exert an influence on many voters more potent than their party predilections. The democrats will be likely to gain more than the republicans in the re-alignment of the voters on the Bennett law, but as they will lose as well as gain, and as they have a big majority to overcome, the probability that they will carry the state this year seems rather remote.

The Baltimore Journal of Commerce reports the market for pig iron as "singularly steady," most lots on which holders have been anxious to realize having been worked off, and further strength gained from the improving demand for structural and sheet iron and bars. The prospect for a strong market during the remaining months of the year is very encouraging to the trade, the favorable crop reports exerting a marked influence on demand.

This office is in the receipt of a bulletin issued by the census department giving the statistics of the production of slate in the United States for the year 1889, and comparative statistics of value. It appears that the value of the production that year was $3,444,863, and that $2,209,344 was paid in wages to the labor engaged in that industry. The production of roofing slate has almost doubled since the last census was taken. More than one-half the slate product for the year is credited to Pennsylvania, though slate quarries have been opened and are wrought in ten other states and the territory of Utah. Pennsylvania has ten quarries, the value of whose product in 1889 was $2,011,776. The other states in which the product exceeded $100,000 are, Vermont, $838,013; Maine, $214,000; New York, $140,603; Maryland, $110,003. The aggregate capital invested is $10,042,293, of which $7,034,481 is in land, $508,538 in buildings and fixtures, $1,178,988 in tools, live stock, machinery, etc., and $1,320,326 in cash. The average number of men employed is 5,926. Michigan is represented in the table by one quarry, that of the Michigan Slate Company, located in Baraga county. The number of squares of roofing slate this quarry produced was 3,000, valued at $15,000; the amount paid for wages $12,000; capital invested, $98,000; average number of men employed, 24.

There is more Catarrh in the section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the few years ago was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

CATARRH.
Catarrhal Deafness—Hay Fever—A New Home Treatment.
Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured. From one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.
N. B.—This treatment is not a snuff or ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay postage, by A. H. Dixon & Son, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.—Arctic Advertiser.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above.
Forced to Leave Home.
Over sixty people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call at their druggist's for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated and have headaches and an unsightly complexion, don't fail to call at any druggist to-day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Everyone likes it. Large-size package 50 cents.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, burns, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale by H. H. Staff and Son.

Miles Nerve & Liver Pill.
An important discovery. They act on the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new principle. They speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles and constipation. Splendid for men, women and children. Smallest, mildest, surest. 30 doses for 25 cents. Samples free at H. H. Staff and Son.

Anno Domini, 1919.
The Louisiana State Lottery is peculiarly an institution of Louisiana. Its interest in its charities, and the popular appreciation of the company's efforts to advance the interests of the state, are too well known to be controverted at this late day. The legislature of Louisiana, before adjourning on the 10th of July of this year, ordered that an amendment to the constitution of the state be submitted to the people at an election in 1892, carrying the charter of the company up to the year 1919. In the meanwhile the present charter does not expire till the first of January, 1895. There will not be the slightest change in the policy or methods of the company which, under the management of Generals Beauregard and Early, will be characterized by the same regard for equity and fair business dealing which have made the name of the Louisiana State Lottery Company a synonym of honesty all the world over.—*New Orleans (La.) # A ROMANCE IN CITY LIFE.

Remarkable Career of an Indefatigable Writer and Her Life Story.

Not far outside of New York city, in one of the suburbs whose shores are splashed by the waters of the Hudson, stands a tidy and attractive house as it is possible to find. Its plate windows glisten brightly in the sun, the well kept lawns are the comment of every one who rides by; in short, it is an ideal suburban home. It is occupied by a woman, not a trifle over forty years of age, with a face which still bears the marks of its singular beauty in youth. Early in life she was one of the belles of one of our great eastern cities. She became engaged to a young man of brilliant prospects and social standing; but a lover's quarrel broke off the match, and almost shattered the intellect and health of the beautiful girl. She left home, and living alone and in poverty she determined to begin a career for herself.

She had literary talent, and this she developed by writing stories. At first she made such success, but faced by starvation and too proud to return to her family she resorted to writing sensational stories for the cheap weeklies. Success began to favor her, and she soon found her stories in greater demand than she could mentally supply them. Night and day she worked with the pen, however, and for a time she was able to deny herself every pleasure and comfort, carrying ninety cents of every dollar which she earned to the savings' bank. Her goal was for a home of her own, nestled in some quiet place, somewhere away from the theatre of her youthful career, where, all alone, she might enjoy the peace and quiet for which her aching soul pined.

At the end of nine years she chose the spot where she now lives, and under her own eye built the beautiful little home which today is her temple of rest. During the process of building she kept on with her literary work, writing more industriously than ever to gain the competency on which she might live. Two years after the time she had purchased the ground she moved from her humble city apartments to her country home. From that moment till the present day she has never written a line for publication, although for a long time she has offered her large manuscript. She had accomplished the object for which she toiled so hard; and now, with a home of her own, and a small but comfortable income from her invested literary earnings, she lives in quiet and peace, her lot shared only by a young girl who runs her errands and does minor household work.

Her neighbors never see her except when she is working in her garden during the open season. Her home faces the water and looks over to the opposite shore of the Hudson. There, directly opposite to her house, began to rise, two years ago, a palatial residence, now completed, the upper windows of which often throw the reflection of the setting sun into the open door or curtained windows of the more modest dwelling of the literary recluse. The handsome home on the western side of the river is that of a rich merchant, whose wife is a well known society leader, and whose children are the admiration of their circle. The merchant knows not who lives in the trim little house on the opposite shore. The sweet faced woman, whose life happiness now is within herself and her home, is ignorant of the occupant of the mansion on the other shore. Only a few persons know the occupants of both houses, and they do not lift the veil, for peace and contentment dwell in the houses on both shores, and they disturb their tranquillity—Edward W. Bok in Ladies' Home Journal.

Ivy on the Front Walls.
European travelers visiting the United States invariably declare that the residence districts of Boston are more attractive than those of New York. There is an easy explanation to be offered for their preference for the New England capital. Boston has found a substitute for shade trees in the finest residence quarter. The long blocks of substantially built brick and stone houses there are covered with ivy trained as high as the second floor line or to the roof, as the taste of the occupants requires less or more of this beautiful screen of fresh foliage.

The absence of trees passes unnoticed when the eye is refreshed by constant glimpses of verdure on the house fronts. On the hottest midsummer days the residence streets of Boston look cool and attractive. The monotonous character of the architecture is concealed by its most graceful and luxuriant of vines. In the streets of New York there are fewer shade trees than are to be seen in Boston, and hence there is more urgent need of vine planting; but the residents here have been slow to appreciate the necessity for screening and decorating their brown stone fronts. New York streets have a bare and cold aspect. Ivy planting on a large scale is needed in order to improve and beautify the massively built residences.—New York Tribune.

Was Columbus a Jew?
Jews figure prominently in the history of the discovery of America. The plans and calculations for Columbus' expedition were largely the work of two Hebrew astronomers and mathematicians. Two Jews, also, were employed as interpreters by Columbus, and one of them, Luis de Torres, was the first European to set foot in the New World. When Columbus sighted the island of San Salvador he imagined he was approaching a portion of the East Asiatic coast, and he sent Torres—who was engaged for his knowledge of Arabic—ashore to make inquiries of the natives.

It was, probably, this Torres who was the Madrid Jew to whom Columbus bequeathed half a mark of silver in his will. Another curious fact is that it has been seriously suggested, by Dr. Delitzsch we believe, that Columbus himself was a Jew, or of Jewish birth. The name Christopher was frequently adopted by converts, while the surname Colón was borne by a distinguished family of Jewish scholars. Christopher's brother, Diego, bore originally the Jewish name Jacob, which sounds surprisingly like a Sheen Kadosh. Perhaps some Jewish scholars in Italy will make inquiry into the validity of this daring suggestion.—Jewish World.

When Handkerchiefs Were Rare.
One of the most curious notes about the early use of the handkerchief in polite society is the evidence we have in literature that the article was frequently lent, and passed from hand to hand for use.
But this was in the days when soap was unknown, and when even high born ladies of the court bathed so seldom that the practice was hardly known. We read much of the elegance and refinement of the old courtly days, but these elegances did not include many of the common refinements that the poorest people of the present day practice.—Youth's Companion.

One of the highest observatories in the world is about to be erected in Tananarivo, Madagascar. It will be in every way complete, and the site chosen for it is about 4,400 feet above the sea level.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, they lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for Ivory Soap and insist upon having it. 'Tis sold everywhere.

PROGRAM OF SPORTS.
Negaunee Will Abound in Fun and Jollity for the Rest of the Week.

An Invention by a Negaunee Man that Ought to Bring Him a Fortune.
Short News Items.

Three Days of Festivity.
For the next three days, beginning with to-day, Negaunee will indulge in the largest jollification witnessed here in over five years. Nearly every place of business in town has palm trees topped with flags standing just in front of the sidewalk. The fire-engine house is being draped for the occasion in tri-colored bunting; flags are hanging from every window, and large flags will float from the flagstaff on top of the Breitung House, the fire-engine house and from the city buildings. The Germania Aid societies will celebrate to-day, and early in the morning, or as soon as the societies from Marquette and other outside places have arrived, the various societies, each headed by its band, will march up Iron street as far as the Breitung House, then up Main street, and thence along Teal Lake avenue to the picnic grounds. A large dancing platform has been erected on the grounds, and good music will be furnished all day long for those who enjoy dancing. About 11 o'clock speeches by outside orators will be in order. The speaking will last until 12 o'clock, when abundant refreshments will be served. To-morrow the firemen begin their celebration and the fire companies from all over the peninsula are expected to be in attendance. The sports for the first day will be confined principally to town. They will consist of all sorts of athletic exercises, such as jumping, running in sacks, etc. The coupling contest, for which nearly every company is expected to enter, will be very exciting. In the evening a dance will be given at McDonald's Hall. The second day will be mostly spent at Union park where horse racing, base ball and Cornish wrestling will be in order. To accommodate the crowd which will be here for the remainder of the week, the surface of the Adelphi rolling rink will be cleared and a number of beds put in. The St. George's hall has been turned into an eating room, as has also the A. O. U. W. hall. A careful perusal of the small hand bills which have been distributed about will give one a good idea of how the time for the next three days is to be spent.

A New Invention.
Clifford St. Onge, a book-keeper in James Mitchell's general merchandise store, has perfected a cash railway which is much simpler and cheaper than the popular Lamson invention now in use. This last named system has enjoyed an undisputed monopoly for the last four years, and although well worth the rental charged in the labor it saves, the rental for the device for a year amounts to more than what it should sell for. The new invention grew out of a suggestion of Mr. Mitchell's about a year ago. It happened in this way: Mr. Mitchell, being badly in need of a system, wrote away for a price list. The return letter brought the information that they did not sell the railways, but rented them for $60 a year. Mr. Mitchell, when he received the letter, turned around to his book-keeper, who was standing near, with the remark, "I wonder if some cash railway system could not be invented which would do away with this unjust monopoly and at the same time not infringe on their patents?" Mr. St. Onge took the hint, and without ever having seen the system in use, perfected a cash railway after three months of hard labor. Nearly everything about the invention he made himself, even to the wheels on which the change box runs. There is no noise about his system nor any rubber to rot, as in the Lamson system. The chief power is in a lever of the second class, with the fulcrum at the top, and held in position by a spring near the middle. This opens out a wooden device, on a principle similar to that of a hat-rack or the spring of a jack-in-the-box, which drops the spring holding the change box in place and sends it along the wire with wonderful speed. When the cash box reaches its destination it strikes a V shaped spring, which opens just enough to let the catch enter, and holds it firmly in position. Mr. St. Onge says that all who have seen his invention work declare that it is perfect. He has one in operation in John Mitchell's store, this being the first that he has made, which works well though crude in construction. He has applied for a patent. When he gets his patent he will either sell it or enter in with some party who has facilities for placing the invention on the market.

To-morrow evening the bids for building the new hospital will be opened and the contract let. The city has already started grading a road through the MacKenzie farm to where the hospital will be built.

The employees at the South Shore depot will play a game of ball with the boys at the C. & N. W. depot Sunday afternoon at Blair's field.

The silver trumpet for which the fire companies will contest tomorrow is on exhibition at Sundberg's jewelry store.

It is of nearly pure metal and elegantly engraved. Near the middle of the trumpet is a plain, oval space, left for the name of the fire company which wins the prize.

Messrs. C. MacKenzie, N. McLeod, J. Johnson, W. Maas, and Misses Delia Winter, Tena McLeod, and Tessie MacKenzie composed a pleasant party which returned yesterday from a two week's outing at Onota.

The Pat Maloney comedy company, which appears here to-morrow night, should be well patronized.

P. B. Kirkwood left for a business trip to Chicago yesterday. He will be gone a week.

Wm. G. Mather, vice president and treasurer of the Iron Cliff Co., of Cleveland, is in town.

The Jackson and Negaunee mines paid off their employees yesterday.

Prof. Lawton, state commissioner of mineral statistics is in town.

Thousands Poisoned.
In a recent work on heart disease, Dr. Franklin Miles—the noted specialist—gives many new and startling facts. Thousands of people are slowly poisoning themselves, weakening their hearts by the use of tea, coffee, tobacco and alcohol. These are heart whips, causing it to beat rapidly thus gradually wearing it out, producing shortness of breath while exercising, pains in side and shoulder, hungry and faint spells. Finally heart failure and sudden death. For weakened and irritated hearts the press everywhere highly recommend the new heart cure discovered by Dr. Franklin Miles, which is for sale at H. H. Stafford & Son's.

By the new fast train Detroit is brought as near to Marquette as Chicago. Leaving Marquette at 1:35 p. m., one now arrives in the City of the Straits at 7:35 the next morning instead of 11:40, a saving of 3 hours and 45 minutes, the time between the two cities being 17 hours and 50 minutes.

Messrs. Wagner & Carey of this city have sold forty-five lots in their addition to the town of Crystal Falls. Ore has been found on the property adjoining the addition and the discoverer has just sold out for $55,000. As the mineral right is reserved in all sales of lots the Marquette men may strike it rich yet if the iron lie.

Mrs. Jennie Stewart made her initial bow before a Philadelphia audience and created a fine impression. She has a voice of remarkable range, well modulated and sings with perfect sense and cultivation. She has the stage presence of a Patti and the gestures of a true artist; her enunciation is perfect and her voice is possessed of that peculiar power and sweetness which thrills her hearers. She was rapturously eulogized.—Philadelphia Sentinel.

The other night an attempt was made to burglarize Watson & Palmer's store. A hole was bored in the rear door, as at Neidhart's last spring, and the lock was forced but a truck had been turned up against the door and held it firmly. Then the cellars door was opened but the would-be thieves were unable to get up stairs. It would be well for other merchants to take a few precautions just now.

By the new time card which will go into effect next Sunday, the time of the east bound train, with the exception of No. 1, will probably not be changed. No. 1 will arrive here at 1 p. m., fifteen minutes earlier than her present time. Going west, there will be a general change. The Bessemer train will leave at 8 a. m., the Republic at 9:15 a. m., the Houghton express at 3:05 p. m., and the Duluth limited at 6:08 p. m.

The South Shore sleepers having been sent on to Boston filled with Grand Army, men the sleeping car service on the Detroit and Marquette run has been very irregular of late. To-day a new sleeper will arrive and the runs will be made hereafter as usual. By the new time card on the Michigan Central the train with the Marquette sleeper attached now runs via Saginaw as well as Bay City, something many passengers will care to remember.

Some Main street property owners have taken the hint and have commenced putting down new sidewalks. When will the new ones be laid from the MINING JOURNAL office east to Front street? It's the worst piece of walk in the city, excepting always the walks in front of the Emergency Hospital, which unfortunately stands on a corner. It's high time for Alderman Pendell to commence building new walks there.

Remember the "Germania" society's excursion to Negaunee to-day and the big picnic in Teal Lake grove. Half fare for the round trip, tickets good on all trains returning. The society, attended by the Marquette City band, will go up on the 9:05 train this morning and will probably return on a special, leaving Negaunee at 8 p. m. If there are not one hundred to return, however, they will have to come down at 5:30.

It's Captain Otterson now. When that New York Aquarium car faked here Joe took it in and saw the whale. The fellow in charge eyed him curiously awhile, and then said, "Say, captain, did you ever whale?" "Whale! Good gosh, yes—whaled for years," was the ready reply. "Well, do you think you could learn what that fellow says?" indicating the "lecturer." Joe thought it would be harder than whaling, but believed he could do it. "All right, I'll write you from the Soo," was the answer, and yesterday Mr. A. J. Otterson, local freight and dock agent for the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railway at Marquette, received a telegram telling him to come on and join the show at once.

"The M. & N. Limited" is the train to take from Chicago to Marquette, Ishpeming or Negaunee.

The Prince and the Sentinel. The Petite Presse tells a funny story about the young Prince Royal of Greece.

This young man was engaged to the Princess Imperial of Germany, and immediately set out on his sparring expedition. The young lady lived in the palace of Potsdam, and the prince used to go there frequently from Berlin. At first he made stated visits, and was taken in a carriage from the railway station to the palace.

But one day he took it into his head to pay an informal visit. Dressed in plain civilian clothes he boarded a train, and on arriving at the railroad station took the first vehicle he could hire. When he reached the palace a sentinel was, of course, at the gate.

"Wer da?" growled the big Prussian. "This is I," said the prince; "the crown prince of Greece and the fiancée of the princess. Let me pass."

"You are a nice looking Prince Royal, you are! And a princess, masher, eh? Get away!"

The prince insisted and got angry. The soldier thought he was a poor crank and tried to bring him to his senses. "Now, my fine fellow," said he, "don't make a fuss. You can talk as much as you please, but I know my business. A prince, my boy, always has to be with his coat of arms and feathers and a bushel of decorations. Oh, I saw our Fritz, and you can't fool me. Now, go away!"

Noticing a lackey, the prince beckoned to him, and after scribbling a few lines on the back of a card told him to take it to the emperor. The sentinel grinned. A crazy man might fool a lackey, but an old soldier wasn't to be taken in. But what was his astonishment when he saw the princess coming to meet the poor crank and welcoming him in the most affectionate manner!

Then she took him into the palace. "Well," exclaimed the sentinel, "if a beggar man comes up to me the next time I'm on guard and tells me he's the pope I'll kneel down and get his blessing!"

They Can't Prove It. Doctors say that Americans rush too much to the fast but what they are asked for figures they can't show them.

On the contrary, the English, who never rush, and who eat as though they had all day to a meal, suffer with dyspepsia 28 per cent. more than Americans, and the average age at which business men die is 3 per cent. below the bustling Yankee.—Detroit Free Press.

A Success.—Prof. Basel's Merchant's Carnival, which took place at the opera house Wednesday evening was a success in all respects. Besides serving the business purpose of advertising the large number who attend the water treat on his spectacular exhibition of rare merit, the most interesting and enjoyable because of the grand features embraced in the grand march. Exquisite of this, however, the musical museum and other features composed an entertainment well worth the price of admission. Prof. Basel is a gentleman and a place with the respect and good-will of all with whom he came in contact here. His entertainment is entitled to the consideration and patronage of any community.—Iron Herald.

BOGUS BAND OF INDIANS

Tries to Sell $36,000 Worth of Gold Bricks to an Oshkosh Bank.

A Remarkable Story Narrated by an Oshkosh Merchant—A Wisconsin Editor Doped by a Gang of Thieves.

OSHKOSH, Aug. 13.—An Oshkosh merchant, who returned yesterday from Milwaukee, brought the following story with him: About four weeks ago two gentlemen registered at the Revere House, took supper and spent the night. In the morning they drove out into the country and returned after several hours. One of them is Mr. Brucker, a man well known among the German residents of this section and who now edits a paper in Medford, Wis. On his return from the country, Mr. Brucker sought Mr. Scriber of the National bank and told him that he had some gold to sell.

In explanation, Mr. Brucker informed the cashier that on the day preceding he had been awakened about 3 o'clock in the morning by a stranger, who represented himself to be the agent of a small band of Indians who at that time were sojourning about six miles from Oshkosh. These Indians, he said, were in possession of about seventy pounds of gold, in the form of bars, that they had mined in Arizona and wished to dispose of that they desired Mr. Brucker to conduct the negotiations, because they had perfect confidence in his honesty, having known him when he traveled through the southwest. The stranger, whose name the merchant's Milwaukee informant can not recall, stated that he had first sought Mr. Brucker at Eau Claire, where he formerly resided, and had come from there directly to Medford.

The result was that Mr. Brucker put a revolver into his hip pocket and accompanied the stranger to Oshkosh and the camp of the Arizonians. As he approached, he heard noises indicating the presence of redskins; but was not permitted to penetrate to the camp proper. He saw simply the reputed chief, and conversed with him. The gold bars were displayed and Brucker was guaranteed a liberal commission if he made the sale. In order that he might assure himself that the metal was not spurious, the chief told him to cut off some samples with his knife. He did so and brought them to this city. They were analyzed and found to be nineteen carat gold. The seventy pounds were valued at $36,000.

Mr. Scriber declined to purchase the metal and Mr. Brucker left for Milwaukee to see what he could do there, evidently having no suspicion that his Indian friends were not what they represented themselves to be.

Here the thread of the narrative is broken; but that he was unsuccessful in his attempt to sell the metal is probable. For shortly after a Chicago paper contained an account of the capture in Wisconsin of a gang of thieves who had stolen several gold bricks from a Chicago company. This may be the sequel; but, even if the rogues arrested were the "Indians," they took what seemed to be a roundabout way to dispose of their plunder.

The Oshkosh merchant yesterday broached the subject to Mr. Scriber. That gentleman corroborated the facts of Mr. Brucker's visit to Oshkosh and the proposition made to him. He said that the specimens shown him by Brucker were worth at least $25. He also said that he had it in mind to write Brucker and learn what occurred after he left Oshkosh.

The story is a very strange and improbable one, and the only hypothesis upon which it can be reconciled with reason is that a gang of thieves, with the gold in their possession and having a knowledge of Brucker's history, relied upon that to deceive him, hoping thereby to obtain the services of a man of his well known influence and respectability.

GIVING IS LIVING.

Is it worth while as the years go by And are lost in eternity's fathomless deep, To grasp all the bits that about me may lie— To crush the rose leaf, and its briar stem keep? The stars shine forever in beauty o'erhead, Their circles will grow when ages have fled, And roses and thorns shall together lie dead.

Is it worth while to keep such the words That a dear heart in silence is longing to hear? When the dark rays of shadowland lie just beyond, And 'tis time for a parting doth swiftly draw near?

Wait not, lest in waiting your life should grow old, The heart that was aching grow pulseless and cold, And the love that you cherished should never be told.

The sun's bonnet he not his largess of light, The lily's soft fragrance is breathed to the air; The brook and the river in gladness unite And give to the sea a sacrifice rare. Then launch the shadows, clasp hands with the day, And withhold not the treasures that gladden life's way.

For giving is living—and who shall say nay? —Young Woman's Magazine.

Making the Deaf to Hear. As a rule mutes are born deaf, but sometimes severe diseases in infancy destroy completely the sense of hearing. Under such circumstances even a partial recovery of hearing is extremely rare. A girl who is now 19 completely lost her hearing when 3 years old through an attack of cerebro spinal meningitis, and in consequence was brought up as a deaf mute, attending until recently the school of the deaf and dumb asylum at Fordham. Coming to New York she was placed under treatment with slight hopes of benefit. Her physicians ascertained that the delicate, nervous apparatus of the internal ear was still sound, else the case would have been hopeless. Under appropriate treatment, combined with dilation of the middle ear by inflation, improvement was soon noticed. In a month the young woman heard the ticking of a watch held twenty inches away and conversation at a distance of ten feet, and then she began learning how to talk. A month later she could hear a watch at a distance of five feet and conversation across the room.—New York Letter.

Let It Dry. Father Graham, as everybody in the village called him, was one of the old-fashioned gentlemen of whom there are so few left now. He was beloved by every one, and his influence in the little town was great, so good and so active was he. One bit of wisdom which he gave to a young friend is well worth noting.

A young man of the village had been badly insulted, and came to Father Graham full of angry indignation, declaring that he was going at once to demand an apology.

"My dear boy," Father Graham said, "take a word of advice from an old man who loves peace: An insult is like mud; it will wash off much better when it is dry. Wait a little, till you and he are both cold, and the thing is easily mended. If you go now it will only be quarrel."

It is pleasant to be able to add that the young man took his advice, and before the next day was done the insulting person came to beg forgiveness.—Youth's Companion.

A Tender Association. Dr. Jeter, when he became worked up in preaching and was the most eloquent, had a habit of putting a whine into his voice which as nearly resembled tears in the voice as possible. Once when the tears were especially strong during a sermon the good old doctor noticed a lady weeping in the audience. As soon as the services were over he hastened to overtake the lady and ask her what part of the divine word touched her to tears.

"I wasn't that," said the lady. "Have you had some deep affliction in losing family friends?" said the doctor. "I wasn't that neither," said the lady. "Well, what was it?" asked the doctor. "Well, doctor, we had a mule, and it was a good one, too. We liked that mule, and he died; and while you were preaching his voice sounded so much like that mule's that I couldn't help crying!"—Providence Telegram.

Inhaling Hot Air. It has been contended that the tubercle bacillus is killed by a temperature of 41 deg. C. (106 degs. F.), and that breathing heated air should arrest consumption. Dr. Ernst Schwald, of Jena, has made some interesting experiments on dogs to test this theory. He concludes that the air breathed may be gradually raised from 50 degs. to 350 degs. C. but that the temperature of lungs cannot be increased more than 1 deg., even by continuing the experiment an hour and a half. It is not proved that the tubercle bacilli may be destroyed at a temperature of 4 degs. or 5 degs. above the normal body heat, but even if so it appears that the lung tissue cannot be heated sufficiently to destroy the germs imbedded in it.—New York Telegram.

The Poet's Share. Dr. Holmes was in a city bookstore one day when a woman came in to purchase a book for a holiday present.

"What is the first volume shown her was the 'Last Leaf,' a poem which the author prizes as one of his dearest. "Who is this by?" asked the customer. "Dr. Holmes."

"The pictures are very nice. Did he draw them?" "Oh, no; he wrote the poetry."

"The poetry! Is that all?" "The clerk looked at the doctor, who had overheard the dialogue and was enjoying a quiet giggle. When the lady went out the doctor repeated very comically, "The poetry! Is that all?"—Boston Globe.

Few Deaths from Lightning. Out of every 2,500 deaths in the United States one is caused by lightning. This ratio has not varied materially in the last twenty years, showing that lightning rods are not of much use so long as persons are careless about exposing themselves. During a thunderstorm no one should sit or stand near an open door or window, as the current of warm air is a better conductor for the electric fluid than the cold air outside.—Boston Globe.

Came Over with the Conqueror. Mrs. Michigan Avenue (of Chicago)—I would like you to engrave my coat of arms on the seal of this ring.

Jeweler—Yes, madam. What does it consist of? Mrs. Michigan Avenue—Ah! I leave the selection entirely to you; only put a lot of lions in it and a charming dragon or two. —Jewelers' Circular.

Its Westward Progress. An enthusiasm in Boston becomes a style in New York, the proper thing in Philadelphia, an aesthetic delirium in Cincinnati, the go in Chicago, a fad in St. Louis, and dies away as a craze in San Francisco.—Munsey's.

ALL ABOARD FOR NEGAUNEE

Some of Ishpeming's Thousands Can Be Found at Negaunee for the Balance of this Week.

WHAT THE IRON MINES OF THE HEMATITE CITY ARE DOING.

Capt. W. E. Dickinson and Wife Serenaded at Ishpeming—Lecture by Mrs. Van Cott. Resolutions of Respect.

Will Celebrate in Negaunee.
Beginning to-day, and for the balance of this week, a large number of Ishpeming people will be found in Negaunee. To-day the German Aid societies of Lake Superior, organized in a "bund," or union, will meet there. The German Aid society, "Eintracht," of Ishpeming, accompanied by relatives and friends of the members and a band, and bearing aloft its handsome new flag and banner, will visit Negaunee, take part in the business of the convention, and attend the picnic. Beginning to-morrow, and lasting over Saturday, the firemen's tournament will draw a large number from here. The local department, accompanied by a band, and headed by the mayor and council, will take part in the parade. The tournament, and exercises connected with it, will afford a spectacle not to be missed by lovers of sport, and certainly not by any fireman.

News of the Iron Mines.
The Lake Angeline mine has been raised, within the past five years, to a commanding position among the large and prosperous mines of the Lake Superior iron region. The management has always been progressive, as has been shown by the adoption of improved machinery and labor-saving appliances wherever practicable. A steam shovel was bought recently for loading ore, and something of a coup has been scored by putting the machine on the dock, ready to load ore from the stockpile. It was a work of some magnitude to get the big steam shovel upon the dock, but it has been safely done, and the ore must fly now.

Diamond drill boring on the Saginaw property is about to be resumed. The present management of this property has been persistent in seeking new ore bodies, and its work has been rewarded with a very considerable degree of success. The old mine is now nearly unwatered.

The New York mine is making its first shipments for this season from that apparently inexhaustible stock-pile. The work is being done in a very ingenious manner by the aid of a combination of steam-power tram cars and pockets. The few men are now at work in the mine, but, as is generally known, the ore bodies of the mine make over onto the property of the Cleveland company at the depth of the lower workings, and there is but little ore remaining to be mined unless some new and unexpected deposit should be struck.

A new mining company is to be formed in this city, to develop a Marquette county property, early this week.

Judging from recent surface improvements at the East New York mine, the management is expecting to ship a large amount of ore next season. The East New York bids fair to develop into one of the big mines of the county within the next few years. No small mines are discovered in Ishpeming.

J. S. Lane, of the M. C. Bullock Manufacturing company, was in the city yesterday, and reports sales of mining machinery to a number of Lake Superior properties. The equipment of promising mines is now on a much larger scale than a few years ago, and there is a consequent saving in operating expenses.

The recent strike at the American mine is holding out in a manner most gratifying to the owners of the property, who stuck to it through thick and thin. The vein is over 16 feet in width at present, and is undoubtedly a permanent thing.

The Fitch mine is the newest addition to the list of Marquette county shippers, and has about 2,000 tons of ore to its credit. Owing to the delay of the railroad companies in getting branch tracks into the mine, shipments will not be as large this season as was anticipated, though the property is now looking even better than last spring. The ore is of a kind that furnacemen are always willing to take, and the Fitch will find no difficulty in disposing of all it can get out.

Shipments by Ishpeming mines so far this season are over half a million tons, and the million mark will be easily raised before the end of the season. The cash value of the product to date this season is fully $3,000,000—quite a tidy little sum.

The Riverside mine at Republic, operated by a company of which Dennis McCarty, of Ishpeming, is president, is looking better than ever before; and recent explorations have shown large ore bodies.

J. P. Ryan and others of Ishpeming, have struck ore of good quality in their explorations near Greenwood. Thomas Gorman has recovered from his recent illness and now holds an official position at the Excelsior furnace.

Delays have prevented the blowing in of the furnace as soon as expected, but it can be but a few days more before it goes into blast again.

Captain Dickinson Serenaded.
Captain W. E. Dickinson and wife, of Bessemer, arrived in the city Tuesday for a few days' stay. Captain Dickinson was a resident of this city for a number of years, and among the popular mining men who have graduated from Ishpeming mines it would be impossible to find a man more universally respected and liked than he. When it was learned that they had arrived, a committee of citizens engaged the Lake Angeline and Scandinavian band, which turned out in the evening and serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson at the Nelson house. Many of the former friends and associates of the captain called during the evening to pay their respects and it was noticeable that nearly all of the workmen and mechanics employed at the New York mine under Captain Dickinson's superintendency called for a hearty hand-shake and a few words of greeting and reminiscence. Such a reception at his old home speaks far more than a column of flattery for the character of the man.

Lecture To-Morrow Night.
Mrs. Van Cott, the evangelist who conducted successful revival meetings at the Division street M. E. church recently, but who is now in Oshkosh, will return to Ishpeming to-morrow, and will lecture to-morrow night at the church. The subject of her discussion will be "God in nature, as seen in Yosemite park, and the mammoth cave of Kentucky." The lecture will be free, and the public is cordially invited to attend it. Mrs. Van Cott is a forcible and polished speaker, and her lecture will be well worth listening to.

Resolutions of Respect.
The following resolutions of respect were passed by Beta Omicron Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, on the death of Mr. Leslie S. Ray, at Albion, Sunday, Aug. 3rd, 1890:

QUEEN CITY'S RECORD.

Eleven Candidates Pass Examination Before the State Board of Pharmacy Yesterday.

WILL HAVE THE STREET RAILWAY READY FOR THE FAIR.

Shiras After That Nomination—Will Present "Pinafore"—That Band Contest—Base Ball Matters—New Residence.

Passed the Examination.
Thirteen candidates appeared before the State Board of Pharmacy yesterday at the Hotel Marquette for examination. Eleven were successful and are now entitled to act as prescription clerks and druggists. The following is the list: Wm. D. Barnard, Manistee; Oliver C. Boynton, St. Ignace; Arthur Ellsworth, Menominee; Benj. H. Hocking, Iron Mountain; Jos. F. Hocking, Crystal Falls; Calvin C. G. Hollinger, Sault Ste. Marie; Valdemar Johnson, Ironwood; George Newton, Vicksburg; Wm. C. Royce, Sault Ste. Marie; John Rupp, West Superior, Wis., and Charles Sorsen, Red Jacket.

To-day Messrs. Jesson, Varner, MacDonald and Parkill, who constitute the board, will go down to Munising where they will meet the members of the Michigan Fish Commission and view the Pictured Rocks from the deck of the "City of Marquette," returning to Marquette in the evening. Friday they will visit the Ishpeming mines and Saturday they will return to Detroit on the steamer Japan on which they came up.

Street Railway Plans.
The officers of the Marquette City and Presque Isle Railway company are now awaiting the arrival of material to begin the work of construction upon the two lines which the company will first build. The Washington street line will extend from Front to Fifth streets and will be extended to the brewery just as soon as the Washington street sewer is pushed farther west, as the track will run in the center of the street directly over the sewer and if laid before the sewer is built would have to be torn up again. The Presque Isle line will run from Washington street up to Ridge on Front and will then cross over on Ridge to Third street, extending down that street to the fair grounds and then on by the Hawley mill to Presque Isle. The officers of the company expect to have the line in working order in time for the county fair this fall. If no arrangement is made with the city for the power to operate the line by electricity it will be a multi-electric road for the present.

New Primaries Ordered.
The readers of the MINING JOURNAL are more or less familiar with the convention episode last spring in the Pittsburgh-Allegheny congressional district now represented by Congressman Bayne, and in which Mr. George Shiras, son-in-law of Hon. Peter White, figured so prominently. Mr. Shiras, now a member of the legislature, had strong backing for the republican nomination for congress but Bayne demanded a "vindication" and after a very hot preliminary struggle carried the convention. "Tom" Bayne was vindicated by a renomination and immediately turned around and declined, passing the nomination over to a friend whose name had not been considered at all, Col. W. M. Stone.

Then there was music and the district was all torn up over the matter. The republicans down that way objected decidedly to any candidate being "rung in" on them and the result was that Col. Stone was forced to decline and to join with Mr. Shiras, who had been Mr. Bayne's competitor in the first struggle, in asking the committee to call new primaries. These have been called for September 6th and Mr. Shiras is now back there with his coat of white Stone is hard at it too, and which will carry the primaries and receive the nomination, even a Philadelphia lawyer couldn't figure out. Here's good luck to the tall man who makes Marquette his summer home. If he's as good in politics as in the woods he'll bag that nomination.

Comic Opera.
Preparations are being made for the presentation of Gilbert & Sullivan's famous comic opera, "H. M. S. Pinafore," by home talent under the auspices of the choir of St. Paul's church, Prof. George L. Johnson director. The leading parts will be taken by well known vocalists and amateur actors of the city while the chorus will be drawn from the Musical union. The first rehearsal will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Morgan Memorial chapel and all members of the Musical union are requested to be present. It is expected that the opera will be presented in about six weeks.

That Band Contest.
In relation to the item appearing in the Negaunee department of this paper on Tuesday it is but just to say on behalf of the Marquette City band that this matter was not brought to public notice in print until efforts to have it settled quietly had failed, no answer being received to letters written by the Marquette City band to the parties concerned. The Foresters' contest was held June 21st. The Marquette

City band filed a formal protest with the Foresters the first week in July because of the statements made by judges at the contest, which made it clear that the award was a "cut and dried" affair. There is no ill-feeling on the part of the Marquette City band toward the band receiving the prize nor has the intrinsic value of the prize anything to do with the matter. The protest was filed simply because when the Marquette City band enters a contest it enters to make a square and honorable effort for the highest prize and its members expect fair play just as much as they expect on all occasions to accord the same to all competitors. The band has nothing to fear in open competition with any similar organization on the upper peninsula, not excepting Calumet's justly famous band, and when it is told by the judges in a contest that it won the prize, but finds that another organization is given the tinware because of some some society feeling or understanding, there is naturally a spirited protest. If action is not taken in the matter speedily, the letter addressed to the Foresters concerning the matter will be made public.

Base Ball Matters.
Yesterday, Thorpe, Marquette's catcher, received a telegram from his father informing him of the serious illness of his mother and summoning him home. He left for New York state at noon. As the season is so near its close he will probably not return this year but is anxious to wear the Marquette uniform again next year if the U. P. league holds together. Steps have been taken to secure another catcher, meanwhile Purvis will wear the gloves.

The following will be the batting order and positions of the Marquettes in the game with Ishpeming to-day on the Ishpeming grounds: Cross, s. s. Craft, cf, Purvis, c, Riley, 3b, Cull, 2b, Berningham, 1b, Atlard, lf, Carney, rf, Marker, p.

Saturday the Marquettes play the Calumets, now one of the strongest clubs in the state, on the home grounds. Unless the weather is poor there will undoubtedly be a large attendance.

A New Residence.
H. Gregory has commenced the erection of a new residence for Jacob Dolf at No. 115 West Superior street. The foundation is nearly in, and the carpenters can soon begin work. The house will be 29x32 feet in extreme dimensions. It will have a full basement, containing cellars, laundry and furnace rooms. On the first floor there will be a vestibule front hall with staircase, parlor, dining room, kitchen, china closets, pantries, etc. The second floor will contain four bedrooms, a large bath room and convenient closets.

The front and side elevations are very pleasing. A wide piazza will run across the front and on the east side there will be a two-story bay window. The new dock has made Mr. Dolf's present home on Washington street so noisy that he has determined to improve his Superior street property for his own use.

At The New Clifton.
W. K. Stafford & Co. have at the New Clifton the finest display of china and cut glass wares ever seen in the city. Two large rooms are filled with the samples, each set being represented by one or two characteristic pieces. For instance there are seventy-five patterns of toilet sets shown and each of these can be had in several colors, sixty to seventy-five dinner patterns, a very fine line of American and foreign cut glass, ironware in lamps, candelabra, etc., and everything from cooking novelties up to art pottery. The famous wares of France, Germany, England and American are represented and the samples alone are valued at $5,000, being insured for $3,500.

Orders are filled from the samples from the immense stock in the firm's store in Milwaukee while many of the samples are themselves being sold here and will be delivered when the sale is over. All kinds of china and glassware, even to the more common grades, are shown.

The people of Marquette are very generally availing themselves of the opportunity to see a splendid display in this line of wares and the citizens of the up-the-road towns will be well repaid for the trip if they will come down and look the goods over before the sale closes. In addition to the large stock, Mr. Stafford has over 200 photographs showing cut glassware as well as illustrations of full dinner and toilet sets shown here only by a single piece.

He Knew Baby Marquette.
Yesterday Captain "Briny" Gray, as Joe Otterson, who was acting as cicerone, always delights to dub him, was looking about town while his vessel, the Planet, was discharging coal. Though not apparently an old man, Captain Gray's acquaintance with Marquette dates back nearly a third of a century. He first sailed into this harbor in 1858, and well remembers the time during the war when he lay here in the old Cuyahoga six weeks because his captain was drafted.

Attention Company G.
There will be an informal dance in the Armory Thursday evening at which all members of the company are invited to be present.
By order Board of Directors.
Marquette, Aug. 18th.

Drowned in the Oil Tank.
Last night Charles Huff, in charge of the gas works, was drowned by falling into the oil tank. At about midnight Officer Hogan, who had noticed in passing the works on his beat that no one seemed to be around, went and woke up the other man, and together they made a search for Huff, finding him shortly after 12 o'clock. He had apparently been overcome by gas and had then fallen into the tank.

Meeting of the County Board.
The county board of supervisors met yesterday to consider claims and wed through over 300 bills against the county. An adjournment was then taken to September 17th, which will be the last meeting before the annual meeting in October.
