PASSED SECOND READING.

Another Stage Reduced in Struggle for Self-Government for Ireland.

HOME RULE BILL GOES TO SECOND READING.

Tory Wind Cut Off by Closure and the Vote Was 347 for to 304 Against.

CHEERS FOR GRAND OLD MAN.

LONDON, April 21.—Upon the opening of business in the house of commons Mr. William O'Brien, Nationalist member for Cork city, asked if Mr. Gladstone had received a resolution adopted and signed by the mayor and aldermen of Cork approving the establishment of an Irish parliament in Dublin. Mr. Gladstone replied:

"Yes, I had much pleasure in receiving the resolution, all the more as I am informed that it expresses the uniform views of all corporate bodies in Ireland." Mr. T. W. Russell, the Liberal member who opposes home rule for Ireland and who represents the south division of Tyrone, asked if Mr. Gladstone knew that half of the members of the municipal council of Cork were absent when the resolution in question was adopted. Mr. O'Brien sprang to his feet and with considerable vehemence said:

"That is not a fact," Mr. Gladstone calmly replied to Mr. Russell's question, saying:

"The resolution at least expresses the feeling of a great majority of the Irish municipal councils." Mr. Gladstone added that the home rule bill was certain to pass its second reading to-night and that it would go to the committee May 5. This statement was received with cheers by the supporters of the measure.

Sir Henry James, Liberal-Unionist, addressed the house in opposition to the bill. He said that the government of Ireland would be in the hands of those now forming a majority of the Irish representatives—men drawn from the Land League and proved to be conspirators against the law. These men would take place and power with the determination to sweep out of Ireland the landlords, whom they regard as an English garrison.

"Talk of the bill as a final settlement," exclaimed Sir Henry, "it is simply a measure to enable a section of Irish agitators to deal as they may choose with the country. It is practically a repeal of the union and an epitaph upon the supremacy of the imperial parliament. Instead of being a measure of peace between the two countries it is a measure of war. There might for some time be armed peace but if it should require the interference of the military in order to enforce it where could real peace be?"

"The bill surpasses the ingenuity of man in devising proposals to bring the law into contempt. There is not a man in Ireland who would not set its provisions at defiance, neither could the judges enforce it. Had the bill been explained to English constituencies the present government could never have obtained even a limited English minority in support of it, nor would the prime minister, who is trying to pass the measure solely through Irish votes, ever again have sat on the government bench."

Sir Henry James was heartily applauded at the close by the Conservative and Liberal-Unionist members. Before the cheering ceased George Bartley, Conservative member for North Islington, rose to continue the debate.

Mr. Morley, chief secretary for Ireland, moved the closure of debate and it was adopted.

William Saunders, Radical member for the Waltham division of Newington, who threatened to bolt to the opposition, changed his mind at the last moment and went into the lobby with the Gladstonians.

As Mr. Gladstone returned from the lobby the Liberals and Nationalists rose and cheered and waved their hats. John Redmond shouted: "Three cheers for Parnell," but the only response was laughter.

The announcement that the bill had passed the second reading by a vote of 347 to 304 was the signal for more cheers and hat waving. There was another demonstration when Mr. Gladstone left the house. Crowds had gathered outside the building and as the prime minister rode away he was followed by their cheers.

CRIMINAL LIBEL CHARGED.

Secretary of State Osborne of Kansas Under Arrest.

TOPEKA, Kan., April 21.—Secretary of State Osborne has been arrested on a warrant sworn out by Cyrus Leland, charging him with criminal libel. He was released on his own recognizance, his bond being fixed at $200. The preliminary examination is set for Tuesday, April 27. Prior to his arrest the secretary submitted a report for publication, charging that W. M. Mitchell, the Democratic member of the state board of railroad commissioners, had been paid $15,000 on behalf of the Union Terminal company to decide the case of the Missouri Pacific railway against the Terminal company in favor of the latter.

BERING SEA ARBITRATION.

Mr. Carter Continues Presentation of United States Case.

PARIS, April 21.—Mr. J. C. Carter, of counsel for the United States before the Bering sea tribunal of arbitration, continued his argument today in behalf of American claims in Bering sea. Mr. Carter criticized the weak points of the case presented in behalf of Great Britain. He admitted that the United States asked for monopoly of the seas. But a monopoly, he argued, could only be injurious when artificial prices were induced by it. In the present instance that was impossible. On the contrary the monopoly asked for by the United States would encourage production and be beneficial to humanity in the same way as the laws providing for patents and for copyright.

Mr. Carter proceeded to refute the British argument that the seals devoured British fish in the waters of British Columbia. The fish in these waters, Mr. Carter said, were the property of the world. Mr. Carter quoted from the joint report of the commissioners of the United States and Great Britain appointed to investigate the condition of seal life in the North Pacific ocean to sustain his contention that pilgic sealing was wrong. The United States, Mr. Carter said, would tolerate the right of the Indians to pursue the seals for their personal sustenance but not for commercial purposes.

NOT DIVIDED IN DEATH.

Mrs. Frances Harris Kills Herself on Her Husband's Body.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 21.—Standing over the body of her husband Frances Danyke Harris shot herself through the heart yesterday. Her case was a pathetic one. Eight months ago yesterday Mrs. Danyke, a beautiful society woman of Brooklyn became Mrs. Oscar Harris and the couple after a short honeymoon moved to this city, where the husband became manager of Snow, Church & Co.'s commercial agency.

A fortnight ago Mr. Harris was attacked by an illness which at once caused serious apprehensions. Physicians determined that the only hope of saving his life was by recourse to the operation of laparotomy. His young wife was made acquainted with the desperate nature of the operation.

"Do the best you can for him," she said, "for if he dies, I shall die too, for I believe we are positions transposed he would do the same for me."

Early Wednesday, despite the efforts of his physicians, Harris died. His wife was nearly crazed with grief. Friends and relatives tried in vain to comfort her but all their efforts were futile.

Yesterday the servant went into the kitchen and while the others in the house were in another room they were startled to hear a pistol shot.

They ran to the room in which they had left Mrs. Harris. Blood was flowing from a wound in her breast. She was breathing slightly and messengers were despatched for physicians. Before they could have reached any doctor's office, however, Mrs. Harris was dead.

Mrs. Harris was twenty-nine years old and her husband thirty. The double funeral of the unfortunate couple will probably be held on Saturday.

EXPRESS CAR DESTROYED.

Heat So Intense as to Melt Gold Coins.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., April 21.—A Wells-Fargo express car coming east on the Atlantic & Pacific railway caught fire from sparks from the engine at Hancock siding early yesterday morning and as the wind was blowing almost a gale the fire spread so rapidly that the car and contents were entirely consumed. The messenger escaped injury. There were three safes in the car, each containing at least $25,000 in $20 gold pieces, a large quantity of paper currency and a lot of jewelry, watches, etc. The safes were brought here and opened this afternoon. They were badly warped by the intense heat and the paper currency was burned. Many of the pieces are badly damaged and a large number are melted together.

RIVER IS STILL SOLID.

Navigation Is Not Likely to Open Before May 1.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., April 21.—A terrific northeast gale has been raging all day, accompanied by a blinding snow storm. All telegraph wires are down and trains delayed. The weather is very cold. The ice in the river is broken up badly near the open water but navigation is not likely to open before May 1.

MENOMINEE, Mich., April 21.—The steam barge Bufham and the tug Claude are hemmed in by ice here and in danger of being crushed. The steam barge Colburn and Mills, which arrived here yesterday, were driven through the ice by the heavy wind and are more or less damaged.

MR. JUDD NOT WANTED.

Austria Declines Him Because He Was Born There.

VIENNA, April 21.—Count Kalnoky, the Austrian premier, has given notice to the American minister, Mr. Grant, that the Austrian government will not grant an exequatur to Mr. Max Judd of St. Louis, appointed by President Cleveland consul general for the United States at Vienna. Count Kalnoky states that the reason for refusing the exequatur is because Mr. Judd is an Austrian by his former allegiance and is engaged in the emigration business. Count Kalnoky has also stated that his decision to refuse the exequatur was not affected by Mr. Judd's religious belief. Mr. Judd is a Jew.

CLEANED OUT THE POSSE.

Two American Miners Do Up a Dozen Mexicans.

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 21.—A bloody shooting scrape just across the line in Mexico is reported in which Frank Peary and William Brook, miners, figured. Brook was arrested by a Mexican sheriff who started to prison with him. Brook drew his revolver and shot the Mexican sheriff dead. Peary struck another officer over the head with his pistol and succeeded in holding the posse at bay till Brook escaped. Peary was captured but on his way to prison escaped and has not been heard from since. In the melee half a dozen Mexicans were killed by the two Americans.

TWO MURDERERS ESCAPE.

Guards of Sing Sing Prison Are Certainly a Very Brilliant Lot.

MEN CONDEMNED TO DEATH ARE LET WALK AWAY.

Harris, Geoghegan and Osmond Refuse to Leave Their Unlocked Cells and Join the Fugitives.

HOW THE TRICK WAS DONE.

SING SING, N. Y., April 21.—Rohle and Pallister, two murderers under sentence of death, escaped from the prison here last night. They are both New York men. Pallister murdered Policeman Adam Kane and Rohle killed the veteran Paulsen in his Hester street apartments. Both were under sentence and were soon to be electrocuted.

It was not until 5:40 o'clock this morning that it was discovered that the murderer had escaped. When Guard Glinn entered the condemned cell building as usual at that hour he was astonished at discovering the two night watchmen locked in the murderers' cells.

When the guards were released they told a remarkable story. Guard Hulse said that at 7 o'clock last night he passed supper in to Pallister. The condemned man threw a handful of pepper into the guard's eyes. Hulse was blinded and Pallister rushed on him, took his revolver away and under threats of death forced Hulse into the cell. Taking the keys from Hulse he then locked the latter into the cell and unlocked the cell of Murderer Frank Rohle.

The two murderers then unlocked the cells of Carlyle W. Harris, Geoghegan and Osmond. They invited these three murderers to escape with them. All three refused the offer to escape.

Pallister and Rohle waited until 9 o'clock when Guard Murphy came on duty. As Murphy entered the corridor Pallister presented his pistol at Murphy's head and taking his keys away from him locked him in Rohle's cell.

Pallister took Hulse's shoes and cap away from him and put them on himself. Threatening to kill the guards if they made any outcry the two murderers climbed down into the yard and made their escape, whether by the river or over the walls was not known this morning. The terrible stormy night, of course, facilitated their escape.

As soon as the escape was reported Warden Brown sent out his men to scour the country. Both the escaped men were dressed in dark suits of prison-made clothes, not the regular convict dress. They carried with them two revolvers they secured from the guards.

The action of Harris, Osmond and Geoghegan, the three condemned murderers who refused to accept the invitation for liberty, was highly commended by the prison officers.

Harris afterward said that he saw nothing to be gained by escaping, as he was an innocent man and expected to establish his fact fully some day.

It is believed that Harris' refusal to take advantage of the opportunity to escape will have some weight with the governor in deciding his case.

FIRE BUG IS RAKED IN.

Matthew Thomet's Confession Explains Some of Milwaukee's Fires.

MILWAUKEE, April 21.—After thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of property have been consumed during a period of seven months under circumstances that pointed to incendiarism in many instances, the police have at last landed behind the bars a man who has confessed to having applied the match to six buildings. He is Matthew Thomet, an employe on the stage of the Stadt theatre. Thomet was captured tonight at one of the west side engine houses where he had gone to give an alarm after telling an officer there was a fire in the neighborhood which it afterwards transpired he set. Thomet does not admit setting any of the big fires, although he admits having set one of the numerous blazes in the theatre where he was employed previous to the one that nearly consumed the building.

CHAINED HIS DAUGHTER.

John Cole's Method of Keeping Her from Eloping.

COVINGTON, Va., April 21.—Lotta Cole, daughter of John Cole of this city, was yesterday found chained to the floor of her room and was released by Officer Kerr. It is said her father chained her there two weeks ago to prevent her eloping. Her lover complained to the authorities during the father's absence and Sergeant Kerr was instructed to free her, which he did against the protest of her aunt who was guarding her. A staple was driven in the floor under the bed to which a trace chain was fastened and the other end locked around the girl's ankle. Great indignation is felt in the community over this cruelty. John Cole is the proprietor of the Cole House and his daughter is a beautiful girl of seventeen.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

Tom Roe Expects to Wheel It in Sixty-Five Days.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Tom Roe, the well-known bicycle rider, says he will start on May 19 to ride across the continent from New York to San Francisco. He expects to make the trip in sixty-five days and will take the most direct route to Chicago, following the line of the Union Pacific railroad from there to San Francisco. The trip Roe proposes was accomplished by Nelson A. Bradley in 1890, his time being eighty-six days. Roe will be checked at every point in the ride to insure the correctness of whatever time he does make.

"PROMOTED" INDUSTRIES.

One of the things to be learned from the collapse of a group of large industrial enterprises at Lansing and the disaster thus brought on the banks there is that industries which are bolstered up by loans and managed by plungers are in the end a damage rather than a benefit to the place where they are located.

Such industries have and can have but one ending. They must finally "go to smash," carrying down others with them, and leaving to the community that expected to be benefited by their prosperity a heritage of distress and discouragement that tells heavily against it for years after the crash comes.

The young man Barnes of Lansing who involved his honored father in a heavy financial loss through his insistence on being the manager of enterprises that he was utterly incapable of successfully conducting was supposed to be doing great things for his city while he was establishing there the different industries with which he was connected in a managerial capacity, but it is now apparent that he has done Lansing injury instead, in addition to involving his father in losses that may wipe out the latter's princely fortune.

He planted in that city industries that do not appear to have been wisely located there, and all went well while the banks supplied him with money, obtained on his father's credit. But while these concerns were doing business on an immense scale, and were to all appearances prosperous, they were really losing money right along, and now the end has come, and it is known that they have been eating up money instead of earning it. This begets a doubt regarding the desirability of Lansing as a location for large industrial establishments which reacts to its great disadvantage, not to speak of the hardship to those who have lost through them that will follow the failure of the stranded enterprises.

The only industries that are of real value to a city are those which properly belong in it, and which can be successfully conducted in it in the face of any competition. "Promoted" or "housed" industries are sure to go to the wall sooner or later, and the ruin that follows in the wake of their collapse is always vastly in excess of the good they do the place where they have been established during their brief career of stimulated prosperity.

THE ORE MARKET.

In its issue for this week the Iron Trade Review gives this relative to the ore market:

The past week has been one of the quietest the ore trade has seen since the first purchases were made of '93 ore. No indication appears, as yet, that the large buyers are ready to contract and ore firms seem to be in no mood to come even half way from their figure to the proposals made to them at Pittsburg several weeks ago. The fact that the Carnegie company has contracted for Pevabic ore—possibly for the entire output of the mine this year—has no bearing upon the situation, whatever the price paid, and definite information on this point is not obtainable; the transaction sets no pace for several reasons: The Carnegie company is a large holder in the Pevabic; since it became a producer three years ago it has always taken a considerable share of that mine's product; the ore is very low in phosphorus and brings a special price. Sales of Penn Iron Mining company's ores to the Cambria Iron company, or of Lake Angelina to Jones & Laughlin's and the Isabella Furnace company, have the same significance as these Pevabic purchases—all being sales to the principal owners of the producing properties. Outside of these and the few Gogebic sales already noted, the Bessemer transactions have been practically nil; non-Bessemer have had more attention, proportionately. That is usual at the start, and this special mood of buyers has resulted in the closing out of a number of odd stocks that has been on the docks two years in some instances. It is more evident with each week that furnaces of moderate requirements are waiting to have prices fixed by the Pittsburg and Chicago transactions. Meanwhile, the attitude of shippers of ore as to charters is exactly indicated by the market. The majority of sales made thus far have been by firms that have boats of their own or are largely interested in transportation companies. In these cases shipments will undoubtedly begin as soon as boats can be loaded at upper lake docks and get through. Outside of these, however, the policy of ore shippers seems to be to let the movement of ore from above wait upon sales. Ore that goes upon the dock is apt to stay there a good while, furnacemen ordering their ore loaded direct from boat into cars during the shipping season, so as to save the seven cents that must be paid on every ton taken from the docks. Last year boats were loaded at Escanaba on April 15, and at the head of the lakes a few days later. This year the opening will be two weeks later, possibly more, from the present outlook. And after the opening, with few sales yet made, and no ore charters as yet, there are likely to be several weeks of very light movement of ore. If there is anything like the shipment this year that the present rate of consumption would seem to call for, the chances of higher freight later in the season are to be considered in connection with ore purchases. All indications now are for a weak opening on freights.

DEEP INTER-LAKE CHANNELS.

Alluding to the fact that work is to be started in a few days at Grosse Pointe near Detroit on the twenty-foot inter-lake channels authorized by congress, the Evening Wisconsin of Milwaukee, says:

It will take a number of years to complete the work, but lake shipbuilders are already anticipating the deep channels. A large freight steamer is in course of construction at West Lake Ontario, which will be capable of loading to nearly a twenty-foot draught, and the magnificent passenger steamer on the stocks at Cleveland, for the Northern Steamship company, will require a twenty-foot channel. She is to be provided with water-ballast, so that until the channels are deepened she can pass through the connecting channels and rivers at sixteen feet draught, and increase her draught to eighteen feet when she gets into deep lake water.

This steamer is an indication of the trend of the shipping industry on the great lakes, and will serve to show what will be done when the twenty-foot channels between the lakes are completed. She is 380 feet long and will be equipped with engines that it is estimated will drive her at an average speed of twenty-five miles an hour between Buffalo and Duluth. She is to do passenger service, and her equipment will be of a high order. The new steamer is the first of a fleet of six which President Hill of the Great Northern railway intends to purchase for a daily line between the ports mentioned. Each of these steamers will represent an expenditure of half a million dollars.

In connection with this deep water movement we occasionally hear of canal enterprises. Some people want the Erie canal converted into a ship canal; others want a ship canal by way of Lake Ontario, Lake Champlain and the Hudson; others still like to have Pittsburg connected with the lakes by a ship canal, so that ore could be laid down at the big iron and steel mills. A few days ago a St. Paul dispatch announced a plan of connecting St. Paul with Lake Superior by the building of a ship canal. All these schemes are visionary, as no long canal could be patronized by big steamers, because the slow rate of speed at which they would have to proceed through the artificial channels would consume too much time.

It is said that bank officers and brokers in New York are much disturbed by the report that Secretary Carlisle contemplates taking advantage of the discretion given him by the silver purchase law to redeem silver certificates in silver coin hereafter, at least while the excessive run for gold on the United States treasury continues. It is quite likely that it may interfere with the plans of some of them, but if the secretary enforces the rule mentioned it may have the effect of preventing these gentry from disturbing the business of the country as much as they would seem disposed to do. The suggestion emanating from that source, that such a step would send gold up to a premium, is not worth considering. To have the treasury run short on gold would be ever so much more likely to bring about that result.

The stocks of copper in England and France and about thereto from Chile and Australia April 15 amounted to 55,780 long tons, a reduction of 2,310 tons since April 1. Total supplies for the half-month were 2,400 tons, against 7,700 tons for the preceding half-month; deliveries 4,800 tons against 9,000. The steady diminution of stocks abroad is an indication that the time is at hand when there will be a better price for copper. The "gentleman's agreement" may do some good after all if the parties to do it will only stick to it long enough.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by the inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

HOUGHTON.

At the special meeting of the stockholders of the Houghton Copper Works held at the Douglas House yesterday morning there was quite a large attendance. Franklin Farrell, the president of the company, acted as chairman and Fred MacKenzie of Calumet was secretary pro tem. Eight thousand and twenty-eight shares were represented. Mr. Farrell voting 6,287 of them. Directors were elected as follows: Daniel H. Ball of Marquette, E. T. Dravo of Pittsburgh, R. M. Hoar of Houghton, Franklin Farrell of Ansonia, Conn., and Edward Ryan of Hancock. The board of directors then held a meeting and organized with Mr. Farrell as president and Mr. Ball as secretary. The directors will immediately make a report, a copy of which will be sent to each stockholder, so that they will know the present financial condition of the company. It was decided to sell the real estate and wind up the affairs of the company.

Owing to the stormy weather the fair given by St. Cecilia's guild at the Armory Thursday evening was not as largely attended as it would otherwise have been but all present had a most enjoyable time and the fair was a grand success. One of the leading features was the vocal and instrumental music by some of the finest talent in the county. Supper was served from 6 to 11 o'clock and it was excellent. The tables were presided over by the fairest of Houghton's young women. Music was furnished for dancing by the celebrated "Wandering Minstrels," who also sang some excellent vocal selections. Taken all in all it was a grand fair.

Yesterday noon as the train from Detroit was nearing the depot News Agent Tommy Williams had a narrow escape. He attempted to jump off before the train stopped and as he did so his coat got caught on a hook and he fell down on the platform and was dragged a distance of about twenty feet before the train could be stopped. Conductor Gibson was standing in the cars, saw the accident and pulled the bell cord in time to stop the train before anything serious occurred.

The Cyr brothers arrived here from Baraga yesterday noon and took a rest last night. A crowd gathered at the depot and had lots of fun at the expense of the baggage men while they were handling the dumb bells. They will entertain the people of Houghton and Hancock at the Armory Opera House tonight.

SOUTH LAKE LINDEN.
The front wall or east corner of the new building where the mineral is stored for shipment to Buffalo broke out Thursday night from foundation to roof. The mortar had not become sufficiently hard in the walls to sustain the pressure required of them. Superintendent Duncan and Charles Geiger, the boss mason, were down yesterday afternoon to investigate.

One of the furnaces was closed down at the Calumet smelting works yesterday.

RED JACKET.
Thursday night, April 20, is one of record for the Mineral Range railroad. The blizzard was so bad and the snow drifted so deep that it became necessary for the passenger train which leaves Hancock at 8 p. m. to go out with two engines. All went well until the train reached the Highway crossing. There it stuck in the snow and a gang of shovelers was put to work. The train was not delayed more than half an hour. Trainmaster Shields was out all night with two locomotives and a gang of men keeping the road open and yesterday morning's passenger train went through on time.

LIKE RATS IN A TRAP.

So Perished Eight Men Lost at Milwaukee's Water Works Intake Crib.

WERE UNABLE TO GET OUT OF THE AIR CHAMBER.

Five of the Six Who Got Out Were Washed Away by the Rear-End Waves.

SURVIVOR MILLER'S STORY.

MILWAUKEE, April 21.—The number of victims of the water works crib disaster has been fixed with comparative certainty at fourteen. The remains of twelve of the unfortunate men are lying at the morgue and the other two are floating somewhere in the lake. Two bodies floated ashore this morning and the other ten were found in the well and lock of the crib by the crew of the Burroughs, which went out for the purpose of recovering the bodies. Eight of the bodies were found in the lock or air chamber and two in the well around the lock. The two whose bodies came ashore and the two who are missing are supposed to have washed into the lake.

James Miller, the sole survivor, has regained sufficient strength to tell the story of the fearful experience of the men on the crib. They all sought safety in the air chamber Wednesday night and remained there until Thursday when danger of suffocation having become imminent they opened the trap door and tried to get on to the crib. Six succeeded in getting out and the others were drowned by the water that rushed into the lock. At the Emergency hospital this afternoon Miller made the following general statement to a number of newspaper men with the introductory remark that he did not desire to talk of the horrors of the past two days and would make but the one statement. He said:

"Not a single man in the air chamber, where we remained from Wednesday night until yesterday morning, knew anything about the condition of affairs on top of the crib. About 9 o'clock Wednesday night we all realized that the storm was getting very bad and between that and 10 o'clock one of the smaller engines was blown off the crib and a section of the house went out. We then became uneasy and decided to enter the air chamber for the night.

"Some time during the night the pumps stopped working and the air began to get heavy and hard to breathe. We all felt it would be death to remain in there and it was finally mutually agreed without any particular vote or formal talk that we would have to go up or soon smother. Some of the men were beginning to gasp for breath when we finally made the start.

"The trap was opened by McBride and myself, who were close together on the ladder, he just above me. McBride got out first, I second, Johnson next. Dwyer following him, Gregg next and the fellow we called Gus came last, making the six who got out. We were compelled to pull ourselves through the rushing water, which poured in the second the trap was up. Only the men who were on the ladder got out and the others were forced back by the rushing water and failed to find the ladder and so were drowned. I saw or heard nothing from below after I started to come out but had I known what was facing me at the top I would just as soon have remained in the air chamber and died there.

"A fearful wind swept us about as soon as we got on top and Dwyer was the first to fall off, falling into the lake. Johnson went next, also falling to the lake, and one by one the boys gave up and fell back, leaving McBride and myself alone. I had the wire cable wound twice about my left arm. McBride was some distance from me and I could hear nothing he said if he spoke at all.

"We saw the people wading from the shore and it was McBride who waved the signal back. Poor fellow, he clung to the life until a few seconds after the whistle of the rescuing boat and seemed to smile in hope. But a few seconds later he fell over, waving his hand to me as he went. I cannot tell just how I clung on so long, as I was nearly dead, but I do know that Olson did the best life-saving work I have yet seen and I have noticed the work of crews for years."

Following is a list of names of those who perished: William Pressner, Frank Downing, Joseph Pezot, James Murray, Gustav Loukovich, John Donovan, John Marlon, Charles Johnson, John Healy, Edward Cambren (colored), Michael Dwyer, John McBride, Peter Stevens, Frank Brown.

WILL REJECT COMPROMISE.

Little Prospect of Settling the Hull Dockers' Strike.

LONDON, April 21.—The prospect of a speedy settlement of the Hull dockers' strike is vanishing. The men are expected to reject all the proposals for a compromise drawn up by A. J. Muddella, president of the board of trade, Charles Wilson, J. H. Wilson and John Burns. The Ship-Owners' federation, moreover, is about to issue a manifesto warning the strikers that unless they return to work at once their places will be filled with non-union men.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Monetary Doubts Cast a General Gloom Over Business.

NEW YORK, April 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade will say: Monetary doubts have overshadowed all other influences at New York but have not yet greatly affected trade at most of the points. Wheat has fallen 2 1/2 cents with sales of 40,000,000 bushels here; corn, 5 1/2 cents; oil 2 1/2 cents and coffee 1 1/2 cents. Wheat receipts have been 2,600,000 bushels at western points in four days and Atlantic exports 6,000,000 bushels. Pork products are somewhat lower, though declining less than corn. In the cotton market liquidation has continued and with sales of 1,200,000 bales here the price has dropped five-sixteenths. The week's receipts from plantations are

BRYANS OWN THE TOWN.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 21.—The supreme court having decided that the land on which James City, Craven county, is situated belongs to James A. Bryan and wife the mandate of the court has been placed in the hands of the sheriff of Craven county to dispossess the 5,000 negroes living thereon. Sheriff Lane has tried twice to execute the order of the court and the negroes have refused to allow the sheriff to eject them.

Yesterday the sheriff went to James City with a posse of fifteen men. On their approach the town bell was rung and the sheriff found all the doors locked and the people assembled out of doors. Not less than 2,000 men and women were in the streets. They were polite in a personal way to Sheriff Lane himself but they intimidated the posse so that the sheriff found himself without support and he returned to Newberne without executing his writ of ejectment.

The matter has been laid before Governor Carr and he has answered that he cannot order the militia to aid the sheriff until he has exhausted the powers of Craven county. The sheriff is now summoning a large posse, including the military company of Newberne, and he intends to make another effort to enforce the law.

The latest report is that an association of negro preachers has taken the matter in hand and is trying to formulate some proposition of settlement that the negroes will agree to and that will be acceptable to Mr. Bryan and his wife.

Well I came, or rather was brought from New York into the country, but instead of dying I am a well man, nearly as well as ever before in my life. Pink Pills did it. If I was able I would, at my own expense, publish the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to the whole world and especially in New York city, where I am much better known than in any other place.

An Act of Heroism Is Followed by Dire Results.

Edward Donnelly Saves a Life Almost at the Cost of His Own—After Years of Suffering He Is Restored to Health. His Story as Told to a Reporter of the Auburn Bulletin.

(Auburn, N. Y., Bulletin.)

It is on record that upon a chilly April day a few years ago an eight-year-old boy fell into the East river at the foot of East Eighth street, New York, and when all efforts to rescue him had failed Edward Donnelly, at risk of his own life, plunged into the water and, when himself nearly exhausted, saved the boy from drowning. It was a humane and self-sacrificing deed and received deserved commendation in all the many newspapers that made mention of it. Edward Donnelly was then a resident of New York city, but his wife was Amanda Grantman of Auburn and sister of Mrs. Samuel D. Corry of 71 Moravia street, which gave a local interest to the incident. All this was some time ago and both it and Mr. Donnelly have passed out of the mind of your correspondent until a few days ago, while in Saratoga, he was shown a letter to a friend from which he was permitted to make the following extract:

"I am taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have cured me of that terrible disease, locomotor ataxia. When I commenced taking them, I was wholly unable to work and nearly helpless. I am now improved so much that I have been picking apples and wheeling them to the barn on a wheelbarrow. Yours truly, EDWARD DONNELLY, 71 Moravia street, Auburn, N. Y."

Immediately on reaching Auburn, your correspondent called at the above address and found Mr. Donnelly out in a barn where he was gridding apples and making up a hand press and he seemed well and cheerful and happy.

Moravia street is one of the pleasant suburban streets of Auburn and No. 71 is about the last house on it before reaching the country and nearly two miles from the business center of the city.

"Why yes," said Mr. Donnelly, "come into the house. I will tell you all about my case and how Pink Pills cured me, and will be glad to do it and have it printed for the benefit of others, for I am sure I owe my restoration to health and happiness wholly to those simple but wonderful pills." And then in the presence of his wife and Mrs. Corry and Mrs. Taylor, who all confirmed his statement, he told your correspondent the story of his sickness and of his restoration to health by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

"I was born in Albany, New York, and am forty-two years old. The greatest portion of my life I have lived in New York city. I was general foreman there of the P. & M. Mulgrew saw mills, foot of Eighth Street on the East river. It was on the 23rd of April, 1880, that the boy fell into the river and I rescued him from drowning, but in saving his life, I contracted a disease, which nearly cost me my own. Why, sir, I am sure I should have died long ago if Pink Pills had not saved me. My sufferings were so great that death would have been a blessed relief; but now, thank God, I am a well man again and free from pain and I can work and be happy."

"You see when I was taken with a deathly chill and soon became so stiffened and weak that I could neither work nor walk. For some time I was under the treatment of Dr. George McDonald. He finally said he could do nothing more for me and that I had better go into the country. On the first of last July (1882) my wife and I came up to Auburn. I was then in great pain, almost helpless, the disease was growing upon me and I felt that I had come to the home of my wife and of her sister to die."

"When the disease first came upon me numbness began in my feet and pretty soon the whole of both of my feet became affected. There was a cold feeling across the small of my back and downwards and sense of soreness and a tight pressure on the chest. The numbness gradually extended up both legs and to the lower part of my body. I felt that death was creeping up to my vitals and I must say I longed for the hour when he should relieve me of my pain and misery. I was still taking the medicine ('it was that of potassium'), said his wife and was being rubbed and having plasters put all over my body, but with no benefit."

"The latter part of last June I learned of the case of Mr. Charles Quant of Saratoga county, cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for pale people. I had never heard of those blessed pills before and I began to be helped. I was afflicted with the same disease with which I was afflicted, perhaps they would also cure me. So I sent to the Charles H. Sagar company, the popular Auburn druggists and chemists at 109 and 111 Genesee street, and got three boxes of the Pink Pills and began taking them at once, following all the directions closely. It three weeks time I was so improved that I was able to get up and go to work and to walk every day from No. 71 Walnut street, where I then lived to Osborne's New Twine factory, Seymour and Cottage streets—more than a mile, where I was then employed, but all the while I was taking Pink Pills.

"Then Dr. Patchou of Wisconsin, uncle of my wife, and who was here on a visit, began to take the Pink Pills; he had taken them ever since and taking them now; he has taken in all nearly 20 boxes, at an entire cost of less than $10.00 (my other treatment cost me a pile of money) and again I am well and able to work."

"In New York Dr. McDonald said I had locomotor ataxia. He treated me by striking me on the knees without giving me pain; by having me try to walk with my eyes closed; by trying to stand first on one foot and then on the other, but I couldn't do it, and so after a while he said I had locomotor ataxia and was incurable and that I had better go into the country among my friends who would make the few remaining days of my life as comfortable as possible and give me kind attention."

REPORTORIAL PENCILINGS.

Look out for "Uncle Josh" and his band of hay makers in their parade this afternoon.

Remember that a new time table goes into effect on the South Shore road tomorrow evening at 6:10.

"Uncle Josh Spruceby," who was so well received here last season, will entertain his friends at the opera house again tonight.

The street cars were crowded before and after the performance at the opera house last night, one car bringing down forty-six people; mostly ladies.

The work of excavating for H. C. Hamill's new residence on the southeast corner of Park and Front streets has commenced. Riley & McCormick have the contract.

The snow plow made its usual rounds yesterday morning. The "coldest inhabitant" has forgotten all about "old-time Lake Superior winters" in the contemplation of the winter of '92-'93.

It is reported that The Times has secured new quarters and will soon move from its present location on Superior street. It will fit up the old marble works building on Third street for an office.

A special council meeting will be called as soon as Controller Royce arrives home in order to allow the accounts now outstanding. The liquor bonds will also have to be approved before May 1.

The musical extravaganza of the "Mail and the Game Pie," which was given at the Morgan Memorial chapel on Wednesday evening last, will be repeated at the same place this afternoon at half past 2 o'clock. Admission, fifteen cents.

The Marquette Building & Loan association had $7,500 on hand at its April meeting and had many up-to-date applications for loans but has just placed the last of the amount all here at home. On Tuesday, May 2, it will be in the field again with another "wad."

Pendill has placed the genuine article, Saratoga Springs mineral water, on draught at his day and night pharmacy. He obtains the water in barrels from the Excelsior spring. The owners of the spring allow the water to be sold only when drawn through a draught stand which they have gotten up as a trademark, hence the genuine can always be told from the spurious.

W. A. Mahara's original McCabe & Young's minstrels, which appear here next Wednesday evening, will be remembered by all as a first-class organization when most entertaining plays, E. H. Maey and W. A. Mahara and only the cream of the old company are with the present show. Several new and first-class comedians have been engaged and many new features have been added and the performance strengthened throughout.

Saturday night the Grand was crowded from parquet to gallery to witness the funniest of all country plays, "Uncle Josh Spruceby," a four act comedy-drama. From the rise to the fall of the curtain the audience was kept in a tumult of laughter and applause. The play was written to show up the eccentricities and fun of an New England home, and is pictured with special scenery. The realistic saw-mill scene was about the best lately seen on the stage. Uncle Josh is one of the greatest and most entertaining plays now before the public, and would not fail to pack the Grand should it return next season--Dector (Ill.) Times.

The Second ward contains at least one youngster of very enterprising proclivities. He has only recently passed his fifth birthday and until yesterday was fairly well endowed with this world's goods, having a solid and substantial safe which contained all the two-dollar-and-half gold pieces which had passed into his father's hands for some years, all such pieces being regarded in the family as the property of "the boy." Yesterday he succeeded in working the two-figure combination which guarded the little safe and giving a gold piece to each of two or three playmates he headed up himself and all made a bee line for the nearest bakery where they proceeded to "blow themselves" in the most approved style. When the affair was discovered the youngster answered all remonstrances by maintaining that it was "his money." His father is convinced that there is too much of the "old block" in that boy's make up and will apply for one of the Marquette County Savings bank's bee-hive banks for him before unloading any more gold pieces.

YOUNG AND OLD.

They Were Sick, and Now They Are Well.

In March, April, May They Used Greatest of All Remedies.

Thousands Taking Paine's Celery Compound.

Brain Gets Food, the Blood Nourishment.

Better Than All the Ordinary Medicines Ever Made.

Spring makes important disclosures.

Spring uncovers a good deal of dirty, bare ground that the snow has hidden during the winter. Just so spring shows how thin and poor the blood has become from the confinement and cramped conditions of winter.

Something is needed to enrich and enliven the sluggish blood. A food for the nervous is needed.

Cases of nervous exhaustion, hysteria, etc., are frequent, in which the lack of proper nourishment has greatly aided in the production of these troubles.

The impoverished blood fails to nourish the nerve centers, and headaches, hysterical symptoms, and other manifestations of lowered nerve-tone soon show themselves.

Long experience has shown the necessity in thousands of cases of using Paine's celery compound at this season. Paine's celery compound has stood the test of years.

All manner of people have sent testimonials to the virtues of this compound, many well known, very many unknown, the rich and the poor, men and women, old and young. It has made them well.

Elizabeth Stahley, a most estimable lady of Troy, N. Y., tells how Paine's celery compound made her well. She says:

"At times my head ached so that I could not see. It seemed as though I would die, and death would have been a relief from my misery. Nothing helped me, nothing gave me any hope.

On the advice of a friend I used Paine's celery compound, and as a result have not had a single headache for weeks; my appetite is good, I sleep well, and I feel as though life was worth living."

Her druggist told Mrs. Votaw, of Salem, O., that Paine's Celery Compound was the best spring medicine. He knew whereof he spoke. She writes:

"In the spring my blood seemed thick and impure, and I was generally out of health. My skin was rough and my face all broken out, so that I was a sight to behold. The use of Paine's celery compound purified my blood and gave me a clear complexion. It is far ahead of sarsaparilla and the ordinary spring medicine I have used before."

One of the most estimable women in Watertown, South Dakota, is Mrs. Emma Berner, whose husband is well known in business circles all through the west. Mrs. Berner has made solemn affidavit to the truth of the following remarkable statement, before George H. Wiley, Esq., notary public:

"When I commenced using Paine's celery compound I was nothing but skin and bones, and so nervous that any slight noise would scare me and make me tremble. Since then I have used one dozen bottles of the compound, and as a result weigh 110 pounds. All my nervousness is gone, I sleep like a top, and my appetite is good. My disease was female weakness and an ovarian tumor. If any lady suffering as I did will please write to me, I will answer her."

A simple vegetable remedy that has power to cure that dread disease, paralysis, must easily conquer all disorders of the nervous system. Read the following from Mrs. Lizzie Shaffer of Stauffer, Penna.:

"I was afflicted with spinal paralysis, neuralgia of the heart and rheumatism so that I was unable to get around or do any work.

I doctored with all the doctors that I could hear of, and none of them did me any good. But I have taken eighteen bottles of Paine's celery compound, and I am doing my housework and washing, and I feel like another woman."

Mrs. F. C. Mitchell, Miss Harriet's mother, is the owner of a popular furnishing goods store in Rochester, N. Y., and a woman of the highest standing. Her words will have great weight with the reader.

"My daughter has suffered with catarrh for 11 years, caused by impure blood. I tried many doctors and everything that I saw advertised, but nothing helped her. My druggist thought Paine's celery compound would help her, and she is now taking her fifth bottle. The result is that she is cured of catarrh, after being so bad she could not breathe through her nose at all, and had to sleep with her mouth open."

There are thousands who have not yet recovered from the effects of the grip. Let them follow Mrs. Clara A. Butterfield's example, and Paine's celery compound will make them well and strong. She writes from Glendale, Mich.:

"As the result of a severe attack of the grip, followed by pneumonia, I suffered from heart trouble, and my head would nearly go wild, it was so bad. Paine's celery compound made me feel like a new woman. I am now doing my own work, and am getting all suffering ones to try your wonderful compound."

Says B. C. Crabtree of Lynn, Mass.: "I believe Paine's celery compound is a most valuable medicine for nervous prostration. I suffered very much for a long time with the above disease, and was about giving up all hopes of recovery. Sleep was something that I could not get. For ten days and nights at a time not an hour's sleep. I was suffering terribly from pain over my eyes. My business went from pain over my attention, and in fact I was fast going all to pieces. About three months ago I commenced to take the celery compound, and today I can sleep as well as I ever could in my young days. It is truly a most wonderful remedy for nervous prostration. Every family should have the remedy on hand."

THE TROUBLESOME SEWERS.

Ishpeming's Council Will Take a Final Whirl at the Muddle in District No. 1 Tonight.

WHAT CHARITABLE YOUNG WOMEN DID FOR FINLAND'S POOR.

Fine New Furnishings for Jaedecke Bros. Cigar Factory—New Millinery Establishment.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING.
The common council will hold a special meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock to definitely decide on the question of sewer construction in sewer district No. 1, over which there is some contention. Some of the taxpayers in the district have entered protests against the construction of the sewers and it is the desire of the council to satisfy them if possible before the work is commenced. A portion of the district located on high ground has a good surface drainage, and will be exempted from taxation on account of sewer construction. All the low, swampy ground will be provided with sewers, as that has already been determined on by the council. The meeting tonight will be an interesting one as the majority of the aldermen paid a visit of inspection to the district and are familiar with the "lay of the land." The taxpayers will be on hand again tonight, as they are keenly interested in the action to be taken by the council.

For the Famine Sufferers.
Three young Finnish ladies, the Misses Laura Haikka, Helma Peterson and Mary Laitola, took upon themselves the task of getting up a supper, bazaar and dance for the benefit of the famine sufferers of Finland. The affair came off at Andrew's Hall Monday evening. The young ladies named got up the supper and conducted the bazaar and dance without assistance and have the satisfaction of knowing that they netted $22.75 for the good cause as the fruit of their labor of love. The attendance at the supper and dance was unusually large and a pleasant evening was spent by all present. The money was forwarded to Finland next day by Adam Kangas. The entertainment and dance given for the same purpose at the City Opera House one evening last week netted $47. The Finnish people of Ishpeming have done considerable for the poor of their native land during the past few months. They have sent away over $1,000 in cash, which was doing exceedingly well for that nationality, considering the close times prevailing.

Fine Cases.
Jaedecke Bros., Ishpeming's popular cigar manufacturers, have just added two antique oak storage cases of the latest design and a show case of oak to the furnishings of their establishment. The storage cases are zinc lined and each department is supplied with patent moistureers. The two cases will easily hold 100,000 cigars. The upper sections of the cases are fronted with glass while the lower sections are entirely of wood. They are neatly built and very handsome.

The show case is divided into upper and lower sections. In the upper section is displayed a line of cigars for retail trade, while the lower section is used for fancy pling and smoking tobaccos. The top glass of the case is of French plate, and the front side and ends are fitted with extra fine glass. By the addition of the new storage cases Mr. H. Jaedecke, manager of the business, is spared considerable labor in taking care of his stock. With the old cases it took him about half his time transferring cigars from one place to another in order to keep them in proper condition. All that is necessary with the new cases is to charge the moistureers at certain times and the work is done. Mr. Jaedecke says he can't see how he got along without the cases so long.

In the Millinery Business.
Miss H. C. Kennedy has leased the rooms in the Anderson block formerly occupied by the Catholic club and has opened up a complete stock of millinery goods there. The location is a very pleasant one and as Miss Kennedy has an extensive acquaintance with the trade and is an artist in the millinery line she will no doubt control a liberal share of patronage. She will be pleased to meet her old friends and patrons at her new location, where she is prepared to turn out work on short notice.

Secured a Good Man.
W. J. Heath, formerly with Robbins Bros., has taken the position of undertaker and cabinet maker with Hamilton Stewart in place of Mr. John C. Ryan, resigned. Mr. Heath is an experienced workman, is popular, and will prove a valuable man for Mr. Stewart. He resigned his position with Robbins Bros. yesterday and at once entered on his duties with Mr. Stewart, as the latter was up to his eyes in work. Mr. Ryan has returned to Appleton, his former home.

Here Next Tuesday.
W. A. Mahara's original McCabe & Young's minstrels appeared at the Tremont yesterday, opening with a matinee and giving a farewell performance at night. This is a troupe of colored performers, and they give a very original and interesting entertainment, and adhere more closely to the old-time style of minstrelsy, with pure and unadulterated negro originalities, than any other company appearing here this season. Their songs and jokes and specialty features are all good.—Grand Forks News.

Mr. and Mrs. John Decaire have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their four-year old son, who died last evening at 6:30 o'clock. The child was unusually bright and was dearly loved by all who knew him. Arrangements for the funeral had not been completed at a late hour last evening.

NEWS OF NEGAUNEE.

Fourth Ward Folks Moving to Secure Better Fire Protection.

Cricket Club to Organize This Evening. Society Officers Chosen—Ranka Held for Trial.

WANT A HOSE HOUSE.

The people of the Fourth ward will shortly petition the council for the erection of another hose house, to be known as hose house No. 3.

They claim that No. 2 hose house and Company are stationed too far from the Fourth ward to permit of sufficient promptitude in getting to fires in that neighborhood, hence their desire to be provided with a hose house and company that will ensure them better protection.

The site they have in view is the mound back of Wm. Anderson's place. If the council should grant their request the place mentioned would be a most favorable one.

Some of the members of Hose company No. 2 who reside in the Fourth ward are in favor of this move and would join the new company in case one should be formed.

Will Organize Tonight. The cricket players of Negaunee who are interested in the reorganization of the Star Cricket club will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at the Inch Hotel on Silver street.

Imported Goods. There has been some talk of reorganizing the "Lime Kilns," but nothing definite has been done as yet.

Elected Officers. At a regular meeting of St. Paul's court, No. 312, Catholic Order of Foresters, held Thursday evening last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Wellette; financial recorder, Albert Houle; senior conductor, Michael Keyes; junior conductor, Timothy Demerse; medical examiner, C. F. Cochran; treasurer, T. J. Flynn; directors, M. Curley, L. Arland and L. Lauthier; representative to grand session, T. J. Flynn; alternate, Joseph Quinn.

Bound Over. Jacob Ranka, who is charged with having stolen $88 from Otto Samuelson, was given a hearing yesterday morning before Justice Primeau and was bound over to appear for trial at the next term of the circuit court.

Judge Carey defended Ranka in the preliminary hearing yesterday. A large crowd of Finlanders, some of whom were witnesses, were present at the hearing and a very lively time was had for about an hour.

Laid to Rest. The funeral of the late Mrs. William Stewart, who died at Even Wednesday afternoon, was held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Bates, this city, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Archdeacon Williams of Marquette was in Negaunee yesterday conducting a burial service.

Messrs. R. Barney and D. McCarty of Ishpeming transacted business in Negaunee yesterday.

Conductor John Stager of the C. & N. W. road was in Negaunee calling on friends yesterday.

Ira A. Clark, who has been confined to his room for several days past, was feeling quite ill yesterday.

Mrs. F. H. Harris left yesterday afternoon for Chicago where she will spend several days visiting friends.

The street cars were put in motion yesterday morning, after a few hours' work removing snow from the tracks.

F. M. Boney's foot was stepped on by his horse Thursday. Mr. Boney limps and suffers considerable pain in consequence.

Any person wanting an experienced Scandinavian dry goods clerk can find a suitable man by addressing lock box 235, Negaunee.

and Milwaukee. He will return prior to May 1, when he will move to Red Jacket, where he will engage in the photograph business.

The Ancient Order of Foresters will give an entertainment and supper at McDonald's Opera House on the evening of Decoration Day—May 30.

Staff Captain and Mrs. Brown will conduct services at the local Salvation Army barracks tomorrow afternoon and evening.

A very noticeable change has been made in Joe Andrew's store. The entire front of the building was taken out and replaced with a large display window, giving him ample room to display his nobby neckwear, hats, caps and gentlemen's furnishing goods.

W. A. Mahara's original McCabe & Young's minstrels have specially engaged the famous Gill Garry, the only impersonator of Carmendia and Lolo Fuller, at the enormous salary of one hundred dollars per week.

Mrs. E. N. Law of Baraga, national lecturer of the W. C. T. U. and president of this district, was at the Methodist church Sunday evening and by special request lectured on Monday evening.

A Finlander with an unpronounceable name was arrested by Officer Harrington Thursday. Justice Milroy fined him $2 and costs.

A few tramps who have made this place headquarters the past week need to be looked after. They are strong and healthy young fellows but are going around begging poor people for something to eat.

Over a foot of snow fell Thursday and sleighs were again used yesterday. At present indications (showing every day) the snow drifts, which are yet three or four feet high, will not be gone before the 4th of July.

The saw mill did not commence operations last Monday, as stated last week, on account of the delay in getting some pulleys. The mill will not commence work before next Monday.

Peter Fauntaire is home from Eagle Mills, where he has been the past winter, and will take his old position as head sawyer at the mill here.

C. T. Andrews of Sidaw, manager of Hirschmann & Johnston's store, was among yesterday's callers.

Mrs. N. E. Skud and children of Ishpeming are visiting friends here.

Supervisor A. G. Johnson was at L'Anse yesterday.

A. W. Malmberg was in town Tuesday on business.

Fat Enough. A Twenty-sixth ward citizen who was raising a fine hog in the rear of his residence was cited by the board of health to remove the animal outside the city limits.

Two Costly Roses. The Marchal Nell is so much like the pearl rose that it is difficult to tell the difference. It has a very short, slender stalk and generally droops. A very little rough handling will make it drop from its stem.

Robnstein and the Public. Robnstein was professor of the piano to Carmen Sylva at one time, and it was to one of her ladies that he said: "When I first went to England and was young and could play, I used to perform to empty halls. Now that I am old and cannot play, they all go wild over me and can't find a hall big enough for me to perform in."

A HOUSEHOLD REMEDY. Alcock's Porous Plasters are the only reliable plasters ever produced. Fragrant, clean, inexpensive and never failing; they fully meet all the requirements of a household remedy, and should always be kept on hand.

Gogarr's studio is now open for business. New furniture, instruments, scenic grounds, etc., of the latest designs. Satisfaction assured. E. V. THOMAS, Manager.

For a number of years I have been subject to violent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism which generally lasted about two months. On the first of this month I was attacked in the knee and suffered severely for two days, when I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it relieved me almost instantly.

PAIN AND SUFFERING.

How Little We Realize How Much There Is in the World.

It is Certain That Three-Quarters of it is Unnecessary.

And it Becomes Everybody's Duty to Stop it in All Such Cases.

We are among those who believe that there was never intended to be so much pain and suffering as the world holds.

Physical pain and suffering are often productive of mental and heart sorrows; remove physical pain and you roll back the gloom which so often enshrouds mind and heart.

We were led to these reflections by a little incident which took place recently, and which demonstrated how surely happiness follows on the relief of pain, and how easy and what a simple matter it is to relieve pain and suffering.

A gentleman by the name of Nelson Woodruff, who resides at West Mill Grove, Ohio, had never been free from pain and suffering for ten long years.

"For fully ten years," he said, "I could not get any rest, especially nights, from pain in my legs and chest and across my kidneys."

"I read what people said about being cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in the Toledo Bee, and I commenced taking this medicine."

"It has done me much good, and I am improving every day; indeed, I already feel like a new man. I had spent lots of money with doctors for my case, but they did me no good."

"I cannot say enough for this wonderful remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Such a medicine should be known all over our land, for it would save lots of money and lots of pain and suffering. I know it has for me."

It is a fact that this remedy is the surest of all pain relievers. Sufferers from weak back and backache will be amazed at the rapidity of their cure by this medicine. Nervous and sick headache it cures by restoring a healthy condition of the nerves. The pains and aches of rheumatism and neuralgia it dispels by removing the cause. Especially should it be used at this season, for it is the best spring medicine for the blood, nerves, liver, kidneys, etc. All druggists keep it for $1.

It is purely vegetable and harmless, and is the discovery and prescription of Dr. Greene of 35 West 14th street, New York, the successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scratches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. It is put up in 25 and 50 cent boxes. For sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co.

BY THE SAME OLD ROUTE.

Another Woodsman Meets a Painless Death From Gas in a Marquette Hotel.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING TUESDAY TO CONSIDER LIQUOR BONDS.

The Swedish Crown's First Annual Fred Heffernan is Luck-Peter White and the Lawyers.

FAILED TO TURN IT OFF.

Another death from asphyxiation of gas in a Marquette hotel was recorded yesterday morning when George Pigeon, a woodsman just in from Redy Bros' camps on Yellow Dog, was found dead in his bed at the Bay View Hotel by the proprietor, Felix O'Hegan. From all appearances he had been dead several hours, having failed to turn the gas off completely when he retired. Mr. O'Hegan has within the last year saved two or three guests from experiencing the same fate by detecting the odor of the escaping gas in time to break open the room of the already unconscious victim and bring him around all right. A jury was empaneled by Coroner Cray yesterday afternoon, A. J. Otterson, J. F. Neidhart, C. F. Schoch, J. W. Young and Louis Vierling being upon it. Mr. O'Hegan and a number of witnesses were summoned and the facts elicited were as set forth above.

Prepare Your Bonds.

The Mining Journal is requested by the council to give notice that a meeting will be held Tuesday evening next and to request all liquor dealers and druggists to file their bonds on or before that evening in order that they may be passed upon at the meeting.

First Annual Dance.

The Swedish Crown society gave its first annual ball in Fraternity Hall last evening, over eighty couples being present. The music was furnished by Hughes' orchestra and was excellent throughout the evening, while the refreshments were served by Mr. Sullivan of the Hotel Brunswick, who has a well-earned reputation in that line. The society is just one year old today and already has sixty-eight members. All the members wore elegant badges of blue and gold last evening, the national colors, with the lettering "Svenska Kronen, Organiserad den 22 April, 1889, Marquette, Mich."

Heffernan Gets It.

When the six-mile M. H. & O. grant was thrown open to settlement March 4, 1889, there was much question about the rights of old settlers, new settlers and flers. An interesting decision has just been given in one of the contests involving all three classes of claimants. In 1888 James Edwards applied for a filing on a quarter section west of L'Anse and built a house on it. March 6, 1889, two days after the forfeiture, Fred Heffernan of this city filed a homestead application on the same quarter and March 7 John Dillon settled upon the land. The three had a hearing before the officers of the land office here and the case went to Washington where the commissioner of the general land office decided against Heffernan on the ground that the forfeited lands were not opened for filing until May 1. Mr. Heffernan's attorney, E. J. Mapes, succeeded, however, in obtaining a review of the case and the result is a decision reversing the former decision and awarding the land to Heffernan. The case will probably be taken before Secretary Smith of the interior department on appeal by the other parties but if he sustains the commissioner, as is probable, Fred gets the land.

"Bleak House."

A splendid audience greeted Jane Coombs last evening at the opera house, every seat in the parquette being filled while there was a very large balcony. Her company is exceedingly well balanced and the play as a whole was greatly enjoyed while her acting throughout the evening called forth repeated bursts of applause, especially in the third and fifth acts where she shows remarkable strength.

High Priced Lawyers Kicking.

All day yesterday the attention of the United States circuit court was occupied by the argument upon the report of the Hon. Peter White, as master in chancery in the famous Pewabic mine litigation. After the sale of the mine for $710,000 there were referred to the master in chancery a lot of bills for services of various kinds. Mr. White rejected $136,037.72, and as the rejected bills were mostly the fees of attorneys, the arguments yesterday were especially vigorous and eloquent. The master in chancery recommended the rejection of the following claims: Thomas H. Talbot, $16,448.35 for legal services, rejected because the services were tendered to others than the company; Daniel L. Demmon, $14,502.33 for services as secretary and treasurer, because the services were rendered after the charter of the company had expired by legal limitation; Thomas H. Perkins, $5,000 for services as president of the company, same reason; Harry J. Stevens, $3,000 as solicitor, same reason; Franklin Mine company, $30,000 principal, $10,495.13 interest on money loaned, and $1,743.40 on new account, rejected because the Franklin company had no right to loan money nor the Pewabic to borrow, and the transaction was not valid; Charles A. Barnhart, $500 for assessments paid, because it is a frivolous account; National Bank of Houghton, $208.78, doubtful validity; Johnson Vivian, $8,484.44, Arno Jehnigg, $350, James H. Vivian $1,650, and Eldred Noble $609, for services, rejected because they have already been paid; Robert Morse $10,000, J. Lewis Stackpole $6,665, Charles E. Hillier $2,300, Edward Cahill and E. C. Ostrander $10,544.29 and Fred A. Baker $3,250, for legal services, rejected because services were rendered after the company's charter had expired by limitation and there was no authority to employ them. The total of the rejected claims is $136,037.72. The master reported in favor of paying Stone & Gray $605.05 for legal services as the same were rendered largely to the master. The arguments occupied all day yesterday and will be resumed today. In the court room yesterday were about a score of local attorneys to hear the arguments of the eminent lawyers involved in the litigation and there were also a number of ladies in the court room.—Grand Rapids Democrat.

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
