SILVER COINAGE STOPPED.

Mints of India Will at Once Be Closed to the White Metal.

PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY CARLISLE CONSULT.

This Leaves United States Alone and Makes Repeal of Sherman Law Even More Urgent.

GOLD STANDARD FOR INDIA.

LONDON, June 26.—In the house of lords today the earl of Kimberly, lord president of the council and secretary of state for India, stated that the Indian council had passed an act for the immediate closing of the Indian mints to the free coinage of silver.

He added that arrangements are being made to issue rupees from the mints in exchange for gold at the rate of 16 pence per rupee and for receiving sovereigns and half-sovereigns at the same time. He further said that it is intended to introduce the gold standard in India but that gold in the meantime will not be made a legal tender.

THE NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

President and Secretary Carlisle Discuss the Silver Situation.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The president, Secretary Carlisle and the financial officers of the government generally received the first authentic news of the startling action of the government of India in suspending silver coinage through the Associated Press dispatches. There had been rumors on the subject earlier in the day but they were passed by as rumors only, though their substantial accuracy was not doubted. When the report of Mr. Gladstone's announcement in the house of commons and Lord Kimberly's statement in the house of lords were received the gravity of the situation became at once apparent.

Mr. Carlisle immediately went over to the White House and for nearly two hours discussed the bearings of this action with the president without reaching any prospective conclusion as to a line of action to be adopted. The conference was renewed at the president's suburban house later in the evening and was protracted until far in the night. The circumstances are regarded as too serious to permit of any authentic expression of opinion as to the future policy of the United States until all the facts are fully digested.

This much, however, can be stated with absolute confidence, that the action of the Indian government in closing the mints to the free coinage of silver is regarded by the United States as doing away with the necessity for reconvening the international monetary conference, which was to have met again in Brussels this fall. It is not believed that this action was taken without express orders from the British government, which has general supervision and control over Indian affairs.

REPEAL THE SHERMAN LAW.

Chicago Business Men Join in Telegram to President.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The following telegram was sent to President Cleveland today, signed by thirty-eight of the leading business houses in Chicago. It is understood that several others who did not sign this message have sent private dispatches.

"To the Hon. Grover Cleveland, President of the United States: Believing that the Sherman silver bill is one of the worst factors contributing to the present depressed condition of national finances it is our earnest request that the matter be discussed at the next cabinet meeting. In our opinion the immediate repeal of this law would do more to restore confidence than any one thing and believing it to be a question of national importance we beseech your favorable consideration."

It is stated this evening that prominent merchants in Grand Rapids, Detroit, St. Louis and St. Paul have been requested to take similar action at once.

SILVER MEN HOWLING.

All Sorts of Excuses to Escape the Plain Truth.

DENVER, June 26.—The unprecedented decline in the price of silver today has created some apprehensions in Colorado. Mr. David H. Moffatt, the largest mine owner in the state, said this evening to a representative of the Associated Press: "The situation is exceedingly grave. I have wired for all my managers to come to Denver at once. Seventy-seven-cent silver mined by men paid $3 a day means a loss to the mine-owner who has not a fabulously rich mine. My idea is to propose to the men in my employ that instead of paying $3 a day they should be satisfied with two-thirds that sum until silver shall return to a fairly reasonable price. If they do not accept such a proposition I shall be compelled to shut down all my properties."

The loss that will be involved by the closing down of the hundreds of mines in this state, where directly allied with smelters and smelting, and the loss to railroads and other industries for one year will run into hundreds of millions of money. Senator Wolcott said:

"If an extra session of congress should be called today the Sherman law would not be repealed. Times are dark enough to indicate that streak of light must break in from some direction soon. This means immediate disaster to western interests but it may be a blessing in disguise if we can hold on. If we suffer, the disaster entailed to Great Britain is worse and a continued fall in the price of silver must force some international agreement. Meanwhile it is to be remembered that silver is no wise responsible for the present unfortunate condition of affairs. There are two causes leading to the present trouble. First, English colonial losses which have compelled holders to realize on American securities; second, that we buy more than we sell.

WILL TRY ADMIRAL MARKHAM.

He Was on Board the Camperdown When Disaster Occurred.

LONDON, June 26.—It has been definitely decided that Rear Admiral Albert H. Markham, who was second in command to Vice Admiral Sir George Tryon at the time of the accident off Tripoli that caused the loss of the Victoria, the flagship of the British Mediterranean squadron, will be tried by a court-martial that will sit at Portsmouth. This court will be presided over by Admiral Theobald Thomas, commander-in-chief at Portsmouth, whose son Lord Gifford was flag-lieutenant of the Victoria. Rear Admiral Markham's flag ship is the Trafalgar but advices are received here showing his flag has been transferred to the Camperdown and that he was in charge of the maneuvers of the fleet at the time the collision occurred.

The telegram of sympathy sent by President Cleveland, Secretary of State Gresham and Ambassador Bayard to Queen Victoria was forwarded to her majesty upon its receipt. The queen in reply has informed Ambassador Bayard that she was deeply touched by the message of the president of the United States.

The British cruiser Barham with Rear Admiral Markham's official report of the loss of the Victoria is expected to arrive at Port Said tonight. The report will be sent by cable from Port Said to the admiralty office here. All the survivors of the disaster sailed from Tripoli today, presumably for Malta. They embarked on board the cruisers Edgar and Phaeton.

PAID OUT ALL ITS MONEY.

When the Last Cent Was Gone the Bank Closed.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 26.—The Queen City bank, which started here a little over a year ago, closed its doors shortly after noon today. Mr. Engleheart, one of the directors, said that the suspension was due to a steady drain of money out of the bank which has been going on for several weeks. The bank paid out all the money it had, even to dimes, nickels and pennies, and when the last cent was gone the officers went out and closed the doors. Mr. Engleheart said the bank had plenty of collateral but found it impossible to raise money on it in the present financial stringency. The depositors will be paid in full. The state superintendent of banking has been notified of the suspension and will send an examiner here tomorrow. The officers are hopeful that the bank will resume. It owes its depositors over $1,400,000. The president until recently, when he resigned on account of ill health, was William H. Jackson. Since his resignation the bank has been in charge of a committee of three of its directors.

HELD UP AN EATING HOUSE.

Lone Horseman Robs Manager Perkins of $200 and Escapes.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 26.—Yesterday morning a single horseman rode up to Harvey's eating house in Coolidge, within four miles of the late attempted train robbery on the Atlantic & Pacific road, and held up Manager Perkins for $200 of private funds, after which he marched him into the eating house, where breakfast was being prepared, forced him to open the safe and took $180, making his escape easily. Two companions of the robber were waiting a short distance away on horseback who joined the robber and all disappeared into the woods. Navajo Indian trail riders have been sent out and it is believed the robbers will be captured.

HELD UP THE BANK.

Robber Gets $3,000 from Merchants' National of Moorhead.

MOORHEAD, MINN., June 26.—About 1 o'clock today an unknown man entered the Merchants' National bank and presenting a revolver at Bookkeeper Van Vliessen demanded the money. After securing $3,000 in gold and currency he was a busy man and made off. He drove to the Red River where he left his buggy and swam the river. Posses have gone up river on both sides and it is thought the thief will be caught. In his buggy when found at the river bank was found $40 in money and a box of 44 calibre cartridges.

STEEL COMPANY ASSIGNS.

Bad Debts Seem to Have Caused Its Insolvency.

CHESTER, Pa., June 26.—The Crum Creek Iron & Steel company has made an assignment. The company estimates its liabilities at $120,000 and its assets, including the capital stock, at $119,000 which would virtually make it solvent. But the assets include about $40,000 due the company from a former agent, which claim is not considered worth anything. This heavy loss and dullness of the iron trade made payments slow and suits by creditors led to the assignment. The plant, which is located here, will be sold.

CUTTING DOWN WAGES.

Sewer Pipe Works Forced to Reduce Their Expenses.

STREUBENVILLE, O., June 26.—The kiln pipe setters in the sewer pipe works have been notified of a 50 per cent. reduction in wages taking effect July 1. A general strike might follow were it not for a statement of the manufacturers that they were forced to retreat because of the low price of pipe or shut down. Other workmen are looking for a cut in wages.

Bumtious Commodore Wants to Fight the Chinese Navy—New Treaty With China Is Projected.

MARQUETTE'S NEW POSTMASTER.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The following postmasters were appointed by the president today: Michigan: LEONARD W. HOBBS, Adrian. PAUL W. GRIERSON, Calumet. LE ROY W. MIDLAM, Marquette. CHISHOLM M. KAY, Quincy. MICHAEL A. MULCRONE, St. Ignace.

A BUMPTIOUS COMMODORE.

Would Like a Chance to Fight the Fleet of China.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—"The viceroy of China is quoted as saying that he would like to send a fleet to each American manner," remarked a commodore in the navy today. "I think it would be an admirable idea. We want more ships and that would be a cheap and easy way for us to get them."

"Suppose that a Chinese squadron should make hostile demonstrations off the Pacific coast. How long do you suppose it would take us to gobble it up? A collision once arrived at it would only be a matter of a few hours or perhaps minutes. We could easily destroy the ships but it would be better to capture them if practicable."

"True, the navy of China is stronger than ours, so far as vessels are concerned, but the finest vessels in the world do not amount to a row of pins without good men to fight them. The trouble with China is that they do not know how to fight. Furthermore they are no sailors."

"It would not take us long to capture the whole of the Chinese navy. When she fought with the French a few years ago she had some excellent modern ships of war. They were all taken off hand."

"Our own navy is still weak, though we are boasting of it so much, and a fleet contributed by the Flowery Kingdom would be a very acceptable gift. If it comes over there is nothing I should like better than to have command of a squadron on the Pacific waters."

NEW TREATY WITH CHINA.

One May Be Made to Nullify the Geary Law.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—At the state department today the significant statement attributed to the Chinese viceroy, to the effect that a new treaty must be negotiated between China and the United States to regulate the immigration question, caused the suggestion to be made by a state department official that the president could thus with the aid of the senate absolutely nullify the Geary law. There would be no necessity to secure the consent of the house of representatives. A treaty has the full power of a statute in the United States and if of later date can replace it as the law of the land. The supreme court has so ruled in a number of cases but nowhere more clearly and specifically than in the Cherokee tobacco case, where the court adopts the language of Judge Swain as follows:

"A treaty may supersede an act of congress and an act of congress may supersede a prior treaty." It was exactly this that happened when the Geary act was passed for it practically superseded the most important provisions of the existing treaty and in the opinion of the state department officials there is no reason why the act itself should not yield to another treaty if the president and the senate see fit and can agree upon an instrument satisfactory to themselves and to the government of China.

RAISED PRICE OF FIRE-CRACKERS.

McKinley Law Hits the Small Boys of the Nation.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Acting Secretary Curtis of the treasury department has practically raised the price of Fourth of July fire crackers. He has decided that in assessing imported fire crackers at the rate of eight cents per pound account must be taken of the outside coverings as well as of the inside coverings, as to do otherwise would be making an allowance for tare, which is expressly prohibited by the McKinley law.

ALTGELD PARDONS ANARCHISTS.

Justifies His Action by Frantic Attack on Judge Gary.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Governor Altgeld today issued pardons to Samuel Fielden, Oscar Neube and Michael Schwab, the anarchists now serving terms of imprisonment at Joliet penitentiary for complicity in the Haymarket riot in Chicago on the night of May 4, 1886. The pardon message contains 17,000 words. The governor takes the ground that these men did not have a fair trial and the court was prejudiced. He scores Judge Gary and Chief of Police Bonfield severely.

Regarding Governor Altgeld's pardon of Fielden, Neube and Schwab, Captain W. P. Black, who was the leading counsel for the defense in the anarchist trial, said this afternoon: "The pardon will not weaken the law but will strengthen it and will increase the respect for the law in the minds of the people."

Frank Walker, one of the state's counsel in the case, said: "The only effect the pardon might have might be to lessen the fear of punishment in the minds of men like them. But then fanatics never know fear."

DAVIS' TASTELESS CASTOR OIL

Is a strictly pure Castor Oil, from which has been extracted its disagreeable flavor or emetic properties, without in any way impairing its cathartic qualities. This result is accomplished by a special process of washing, on which experiments have been made for nearly two years. A minute aromatic flavor is added, to make the oil even more palatable. It is a fact beyond question that there is no remedy known which is equal to Castor Oil as a cathartic, but its use up to this time has been limited on account of its extremely nauseous taste. This difficulty being entirely overcome in the DAVIS' TASTELESS CASTOR OIL.

COPPER COUNTRY NEWS.

Visit to Ancient Towns of Keweenaw County on Tug Cora Sheldon.

FOUL CRIME ATTEMPTED NEAR OLD PEWABIG MILL.

Willie Stehline's Body Recovered—Venturino and His Wife Have an Interesting Family Matinee.

[All communications for copper country department intended for publication should be addressed to A. F. Ister, Houghton.]

HOUGHTON.

Through the controversy of Wm. D. Calverley, secretary of the Sheldon Towing company, the writer had the pleasure of accompanying the young men of this city who chartered the tug Cora A. Sheldon for their trip to Keweenaw county Sunday. The start was made at 8:45 with about one-third the number on board that had promised to go. The wind was up a little high at the start and some of the boys thought that the old Lake Superior must be very rough but when the canal was reached it was found that the lake was just about as nice as could be and no time was lost in getting out into it. The tug rode the waves like a duck and soon proved to be a fine little sea boat and after being out for a while all settled down to have a good time. Commodore Lang was called down from on top of the pilot house where he had been giving his orders to all hands on board and with W. B. Walker sang some beautiful songs. It was then learned that the chief cook of the tug was a beautiful singer. He was ordered on deck by the commodore and sang several songs, among which was part of an Italian opera, for which he was heartily applauded. During the trip across a large breeze was sighted and the speed of the two boats was watched with great interest. They kept abreast of each other until the tug was ready to turn in to Eagle Harbor. This shows that the tug was making excellent time as the barge was a large and powerful boat.

Eagle Harbor was reached at 12:30 p. m. and all repaired to Mrs. Rice's where a bountiful and excellent dinner was served. Here Mr. Whiting and Dr. Whisler and some of their friends who had driven down from Calumet were met. After dinner this latter party and some Eagle Harbor folks were taken on board and the tug proceeded to Copper Harbor where the old fort, guard house, bakery and dwellings with their old-time fire places, also the cemetery, were visited. A number of the gentlemen went bathing in Lake Fannyho.

Here it was that one of the party was taken sick and it was thought that he would have to be carried back to the boat. Lang was appointed undertaker, Walker chaplain and a committee was selected to visit the cemetery and select a lot. Just as the committee was moving away the sick man jumped up and informed the crowd that he would walk back to the boat. The party returned to Eagle Harbor where good-byes were said and the start for home made at 7:30 p. m. Most of this part of the trip was made by moonlight and home was reached in the small hours of the morning.

As this was the first trip to Keweenaw county for many of the boys everything of interest was pointed out by Mr. Calverley. The party consisted of John C. Harris, John L. Harris, Samuel and Lassey Karger, R. B. Lang, W. B. Walker, George Des Roschers, Henry Wagner, Albert Baudin, W. D. Calverley and the writer. The weather and the trip were both excellent and those who did not start only imagine what an elegant time and trip they missed.

O. H. Shafer and son returned from a visit to the World's Fair Saturday. The Catholic school gave its annual excursion to the fair, and on the barge Pilgrim yesterday. There was a large number on board and a general good time was had.

HANCOCK.

Saturday evening an attempt at rape was made on a young lady of Ripley by some unknown fiend while she was passing by the old Pewabig stamp mill. Marshal Malherbe has his suspicions as to who the guilty party is and he is probably under arrest by the time this reaches THE MINING JOURNAL'S readers. It is thought that the fellow is a little unsound in the upper story.

The carpenters at work on the new school building are hustling. They are raising the frame now. The Finnish picnic on Portage Entry to the canal was largely attended Sunday.

SOUTH LAKE LINDEN.

Sophie, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cummings, died at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning of consumption. The funeral will be held this morning with services at St. Patrick's church, Hancock, and the remains will be buried in the Hancock Catholic cemetery. Superintendent Cummings and wife have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

The Congregational society netted $53 from their social Thursday evening. The contract for building the new Congregational church at this place has been let to James Martin for $1,400. The church is to be ready for use in about sixty days.

The Catholic church will be built on the Payne-Fisher lots on the hill. Information reaches THE MINING JOURNAL that complaint will be made against certain property holders for renting buildings to persons who are known to keep disorderly houses.

LAKE LINDEN.

The body of Willie Stehline, who was drowned at the head of the lake Saturday afternoon, was found about 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning by Ed Koepel, who was busy dragging for it while the others had gone to breakfast. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon with services at the church of the Holy Rosary. A very large number of friends attended the funeral.

Neil Lamont and son Neil and daughters Kate and Maggie, who have been teachers in public schools, left for Chicago yesterday morning. They took the steamer City of Duluth at Hancock. Peter Wagner of Hancock was in town yesterday. He has just returned

FRENCH DEPUTIES.

THEIR PALACE, CEREMONIES AND IDIOSYNCRASIES.

A History of the Chamber and the Building in Which It Meets—Scenes in and Around the Palace When the Chamber Is in Session—Two Salaries.

To Americans, who know that after the excitement of the presidential election is over there will be no change of importance for four years, these continual ministerial modifications of the French cabinet appear strange, and their effect is prejudicial to France both as regards her domestic prosperity and her international prestige. Under the directory there were two legislative bodies the "Five Hundred" and the "Ancients." After holding their sessions in various places—more or less convenient—it was decided to give them the Palais Bourbon, which had been built in 1732, but never occupied. They took possession of the building in the year VII of the republic (1798). During the preceding year the necessary improvements had been made to render it suitable for the use to which it was then devoted.

From that time, under the different titles of "Palace of the Council of the Five Hundred," "Palace of the Legislative Corps" and "Chamber of Deputies," it has always remained consecrated to the service of the people's representatives. From time to time such improvements as economy would permit were made, but it was not until 1807, under Napoleon I, that the grand staircase, surmounted by the portal facing the Place de la Concorde, familiar to all visitors to Paris, was constructed. Then it was also that the colossal statues of Justice and Prudence, Sully, Colbert, L'Hopital and D'Aguesseau were placed where they now stand. These statues, by the bye, which look like marble, are in reality made of stone and covered with a coating of white gesso.

Under Napoleon II the building was at first called "The Palace of the Legislative Corps," and the deputies wore brilliant uniforms. This caused a writer of the time to say, "He gave the deputies a brilliant costume, embroidered with gold, and at the same time withdrew their right of free speech." It was in 1814 that the name was changed to that of the Chamber of Deputies, or, as it is more generally called now, "Chamber of Deputies." But if the legislators of the year of grace 1893 do not wear gold embroidered uniforms there still remains in their ceremonies a good deal of the pomp and ceremony which usually appertain to monarchies.

The president of the chamber lives in a mansion on the Quai d'Orsay, the grounds of which join those surrounding the chamber of deputies. Before the opening of each sitting he is escorted through the long Salle des Pas Perdus (reserved for the use of members of parliament and journalists) by a detachment of infantry in command of a captain. The drums beat, and the procession is preceded by a gorgeously attired usher, who announces, "Monsieur le President."

Thus escorted, the president mounts his seat, high above the tribune from which the members speak, and immediately there is a noise of members scrambling to their seats, like schoolboys afraid of being marked late. This part of the proceedings is about as undignified as the entrance of the president is imposing. After tapping his desk with a large paper knife, or in case of much noise ringing a brass bell, the president declares the sitting open, and a relative silence is established for a moment. The formal business of reading the minutes of the last sitting is gone through, and then the discussion upon the question of the day begins. When important, everybody who is not engaged in letter writing talks. When the question before the house is of interest, silence is maintained until somebody sets the example of interrupting or perhaps insulting the speaker.

Then the scene is one which has often been described by clever writers and artists, but which must be seen to be appreciated. The ushers inside the chamber, who wear evening dress, white ties and swords, have frequently to come between excited deputies, who, but for their intervention, would often come to blows. These ushers form in reality the most conservative part of the assembly, for they, with few exceptions, grow old in the service. They are almost as familiar with the rules of the house as the president himself, and they regard newly elected members very much as an usher in a public school regards a new boy. They know that every deputy drinks while speaking, and one of them is especially told off to order from the buffet the particular beverage with which a speaker is wont to moisten his parched lips during a heated debate.

It is upon these occasions that the French chamber treats the world to some of those surprises "which no fellow can understand." What is called in France le petit jeu des combinations is played, and often a government majority of today is turned into a minority tomorrow.

The fact is, that the majority of the deputies are men who would be loath to lose their pay of 25 francs per day and the honors attached to the post of representative of the people. That is why the fear of dissolution often induces them to give a ministry a majority rather than provoke its overthrow and the crisis consequent thereon.

Two ministerial portfolios are especially coveted—those of the interior and finance—besides the importance of the posts there is an ancient custom in connection with them. The day after the acceptance of the portfolio in the grave, white necktie, sword bearing ushers calls upon each minister and hands him an envelope containing 60,000 francs for frais de deplacement, or moving expenses. If he retains his portfolio but a single day, he never returns the $12,000, nor is he expected to.—New York Sun.

HOUGHTON.

Through the controversy of Wm. D. Calverley, secretary of the Sheldon Towing company, the writer had the pleasure of accompanying the young men of this city who chartered the tug Cora A. Sheldon for their trip to Keweenaw county Sunday. The start was made at 8:45 with about one-third the number on board that had promised to go. The wind was up a little high at the start and some of the boys thought that the old Lake Superior must be very rough but when the canal was reached it was found that the lake was just about as nice as could be and no time was lost in getting out into it. The tug rode the waves like a duck and soon proved to be a fine little sea boat and after being out for a while all settled down to have a good time. Commodore Lang was called down from on top of the pilot house where he had been giving his orders to all hands on board and with W. B. Walker sang some beautiful songs. It was then learned that the chief cook of the tug was a beautiful singer. He was ordered on deck by the commodore and sang several songs, among which was part of an Italian opera, for which he was heartily applauded. During the trip across a large breeze was sighted and the speed of the two boats was watched with great interest. They kept abreast of each other until the tug was ready to turn in to Eagle Harbor. This shows that the tug was making excellent time as the barge was a large and powerful boat.

Eagle Harbor was reached at 12:30 p. m. and all repaired to Mrs. Rice's where a bountiful and excellent dinner was served. Here Mr. Whiting and Dr. Whisler and some of their friends who had driven down from Calumet were met. After dinner this latter party and some Eagle Harbor folks were taken on board and the tug proceeded to Copper Harbor where the old fort, guard house, bakery and dwellings with their old-time fire places, also the cemetery, were visited. A number of the gentlemen went bathing in Lake Fannyho.

Here it was that one of the party was taken sick and it was thought that he would have to be carried back to the boat. Lang was appointed undertaker, Walker chaplain and a committee was selected to visit the cemetery and select a lot. Just as the committee was moving away the sick man jumped up and informed the crowd that he would walk back to the boat. The party returned to Eagle Harbor where good-byes were said and the start for home made at 7:30 p. m. Most of this part of the trip was made by moonlight and home was reached in the small hours of the morning.

As this was the first trip to Keweenaw county for many of the boys everything of interest was pointed out by Mr. Calverley. The party consisted of John C. Harris, John L. Harris, Samuel and Lassey Karger, R. B. Lang, W. B. Walker, George Des Roschers, Henry Wagner, Albert Baudin, W. D. Calverley and the writer. The weather and the trip were both excellent and those who did not start only imagine what an elegant time and trip they missed.

O. H. Shafer and son returned from a visit to the World's Fair Saturday. The Catholic school gave its annual excursion to the fair, and on the barge Pilgrim yesterday. There was a large number on board and a general good time was had.

HANCOCK.

Saturday evening an attempt at rape was made on a young lady of Ripley by some unknown fiend while she was passing by the old Pewabig stamp mill. Marshal Malherbe has his suspicions as to who the guilty party is and he is probably under arrest by the time this reaches THE MINING JOURNAL'S readers. It is thought that the fellow is a little unsound in the upper story.

The carpenters at work on the new school building are hustling. They are raising the frame now. The Finnish picnic on Portage Entry to the canal was largely attended Sunday.

SOUTH LAKE LINDEN.

Sophie, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cummings, died at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning of consumption. The funeral will be held this morning with services at St. Patrick's church, Hancock, and the remains will be buried in the Hancock Catholic cemetery. Superintendent Cummings and wife have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

The Congregational society netted $53 from their social Thursday evening. The contract for building the new Congregational church at this place has been let to James Martin for $1,400. The church is to be ready for use in about sixty days.

The Catholic church will be built on the Payne-Fisher lots on the hill. Information reaches THE MINING JOURNAL that complaint will be made against certain property holders for renting buildings to persons who are known to keep disorderly houses.

LAKE LINDEN.

The body of Willie Stehline, who was drowned at the head of the lake Saturday afternoon, was found about 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning by Ed Koepel, who was busy dragging for it while the others had gone to breakfast. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon with services at the church of the Holy Rosary. A very large number of friends attended the funeral.

Neil Lamont and son Neil and daughters Kate and Maggie, who have been teachers in public schools, left for Chicago yesterday morning. They took the steamer City of Duluth at Hancock. Peter Wagner of Hancock was in town yesterday. He has just returned

SUNDAY FAIR APPRECIATED.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The attendance at the World's Fair today was fully twice that of yesterday and the weather conditions were the same. The weather yesterday and today was all that could be desired.

The official report of the bureau of admissions shows that 169,639 people attended the fair Saturday and 88,265 attended yesterday. The admissions today were 123,735 of which 91,370 were paid.

Preparations for the celebration of the Fourth of July are now well under way. Nearly all the various committees have been appointed and are at work completing the arrangements for their several departments.

Attorney General Olney Says Appropriations Are Still Available. WASHINGTON, June 26.—Attorney General Olney has decided that the several appropriations made by act of congress in aid of the World's Fair at Chicago, including the appropriation made for a government exhibit, are as available now as before the decision of the circuit court of appeals permanently opening the World's Fair on Sunday.

A Word About Press Clubs.

Life is sorry to see the New York Press club engaged in a scheme that savors of blackmailing. A few of the members of the club are reputable newspaper men, and their connection with it enables the organization to come at the business and general public of New York with a scheme apparently backed up by the entire newspaper guild.

The Value of the River Thames.

In connection with the value of the river Thames to the mercantile interests of the English metropolis a good story is related of James I and the lord mayor of London. James, as was often the case during his reign, was upon a certain occasion in great need of money, and he applied to the corporation of London for the loan of £20,000. This gentleman request the corporation refused, upon which the king, in high dudgeon, sent for the lord mayor and the chief of the aldermen, and having scolded them severely for what he was pleased to term their disloyalty he insisted upon their raising the money for him.

Pneumatic Caissons For a Building.

Pneumatic caissons are being used in preparing the foundation for the new office building which is being erected on lower Broadway by the Manhattan Life Insurance company. This structure is being built on a lot 122 by 67 feet in size and at a place where a rock bottom cannot be reached without passing through quicksand full of water. Fifteen of these caissons will be employed, four circular and 11 rectangular. The latter vary in size from 24 feet in length by 24 feet in width to 13 feet square. The largest of the circular caissons is 15 feet in diameter and the smallest 10 feet. They are made by riveting together steel plates, angle bars and beams into boxes from 8 to 10 feet in depth, with a top strongly braced with steel beams to support the superposed loads.

Japan's First Lady Lawyer.

An interesting traveler has lately arrived in England in the person of Mme. Tel Sono, who enjoys the unique position of being the first and only lady lawyer in Japan. While engaged in her profession she had many opportunities of discovering the downtrodden condition of her country women and conceived the idea of founding a Christian training school for women in her native town of Tokio. She then gave up her work in Tokio and visited America with a view of learning the customs of a country whose women were on an equality with men.

Danger in Cobwebs.

Cobwebs form an important item in the medical armamentarium of the old women who are so fond of acting on occasion as practitioners of the healing art. As an application to wounds, for instance, to check bleeding cobwebs are believed to possess a special virtue. If they possess any virtue at all, it is the virtue of ineffable dust and dirt—hence the modern advice to "beware of cobwebs!" Not so long ago three or four cases of lockjaw were reported as following on the application of spiders' webs to wounds. This event is readily explicable. The germ of lockjaw resides in earth and is likely to mingle with the dust which settles on the webs. Hence, conveyed into the wound in this way, the germs work their dire effects. But Inspector General Macdonald, M. D., says a microscopic examination of the webs reveals a trap for all sorts of considered and unconsidered trifles in the way of dust and germs. Colonies of bacteria, he tells us, may be detected in the webs, which, like delicate screens or filters, absorb anything and everything which floats through the air and settles upon them.—New York Telegram.

Expensive New York Dances.

The most expensive dance ever given in this city was the New Year's ball of 1890 in the Metropolitan Opera House. The floral decorations of the auditorium were on such a scale as actually to give an air of coziness to the great interior. When the executive committee of the ball came to foot up the expenses, they found that $14,859.19 was the actual cost of the "diversion" of a few hours. Only $14,600 had been subscribed by the patrons, and Cornelius Vanderbilt, by an K. Stevens and Ward McAllister made up the deficit. It is justice to Mr. Vanderbilt, Mr. Stevens and Mr. McAllister to say that most of the bills incurred by the ball were paid two days after the dance, and every obligation had been met within two weeks. The New Year's ball the evening of Jan. 13, 1892, though larger than its predecessor, was not as expensive. A trifling over $11,000 covered the expenses of the dance.—New York Cor. Chicago Times.

Prisoners Who Lack "Nerve."

The prisoners in the Panama cases do not seem to be what are called in the south "nervy" men. M. Fontane, we are told, sobbed violently. M. Baihaut "turned deadly pale." M. Sans-Leroy "swarmed." Then M. Fontane "fainted several times," embraced his counsel, tottered to the side of Charles de Lesseps and "wept like a child." First class bribe takers should be made of sterner stuff. Possibly this country might furnish examples of the "nervy" kind.—New York World.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

THE SAD DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE YOUNG WOMAN.

Women in Chicago—A Plucky Woman's Success—A Matter of Suitable Dress. Mrs. Potter Palmer's Splendid Diamonds. Hints For the Home.

The death of Miss Letitia Townsend of typhus fever in the Riverside hospital was a very sad event. Miss Townsend was the general secretary of the Girls' Friendly society. Her life had been given up to good work. Her mother died last December, and Miss Townsend had nursed her assiduously during a long illness extending over two years.

The matter of a "suitable" dress. A great deal is being said and written just now on the subject of suitable dress for a business woman, and out of the mass of suggestions something admirable is bound to come. But women are queer "kittle kattle," and we have yet to see one who shall admit there is any difference between her employment and the idleness of her neighbor.

Women in Chicago. There seem to be as many women out at work in Chicago as there are men staying at home in Brooklyn. You cannot buy anything outside of the gin mills without finding a girl clerk to serve you and a girl cashier to take your money, or both together.

THE SECRET OF FASCINATION.

A pretty woman said the other day: "When will women learn that suggestiveness and not display is the greatest attractiveness they can have for men? Why is it the very kernel of fascination. An arm covered with a flowing sleeve that just gives glimpses of it occasionally is far more beautiful than an arm bared to the shoulder. A sense of mystery—indefinite, if you like. My dear, it's the stuff all coquettes are made of. Take the word of a daughter of Eve for it."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Dainty Violet Trimmings.

Speaking of violet, I know of one April bride who had the tiny ribbons of all her lingerie in violet, and each set of which was tied by itself with a wider ribbon of the same color. Each chiffonier drawer was lined with a sachet of violet silk filled with Florentine orris. "Just dreams"—that seems to be admiring woman's most satisfactory expression for these costly belongings.—Exchange.

What to Do With an Old Black Dress.

Black dresses make over beautifully by using the gored skirt and using the left over pieces for a crossway flounce headed with a small roll of bright colored velvet. No matter how old fashioned the basque may be it can be cut into a low necked bodice, a square in front and a point behind.

Present Rules For Mourning.

Lighter rules for mourning prevail at present than have been in vogue for many years. As in the keeping of Lent, the observance of a time of strict seclusion is softened greatly by its former austere character. Possibly the Burial Reform association has had something to do with this.

Fashionable Bonnets May Be Dangerous.

A new danger seems to threaten fashionable women from an article of their toilet which has hitherto been considered comparatively harmless—the bonnet. At an afternoon reception the other day a lady entered looking very pale. She had been the victim of a curious accident. On entering her coupe she hit her head against the door and felt a sharp pain. Then, feeling something trickling down her forehead, she found to her horror that it was blood. Stopping at a drug store, she had the flesh wound stanchd. It was found in which stood upright in her bonnet. And now the wearers of those dainty bits of lace and steel ornaments have warning to carry their heads low at the peril of their lives.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Queen's Statue.

The queen has unveiled in Kensington gardens the statue of herself by her daughter, Princess Louise, the cost of which has been defrayed by local subscription. The Princess Louise, who is a sculptor of considerable merit, received £500 for the work and insisted on the same terms as a professional would have demanded—viz, £100 down on accepting the commission, £200 when the work was half done and £200 on its completion.

Women and Music in Chicago.

An orchestra of 65 women players is taking part in the concerts of the Columbian festival and performs with the great Sousa band the same high class compositions played by the Boston Symphony. The dramatic overture of the dedicatory exercises of the Woman's building was written by a woman, Miss Frances Elliott of London. The "Jubilate" for mixed voices and orchestra was written by Mrs. Beach of Boston, and at the great religious concert at the close of the woman's congress music written by women only will be sung by women, with possibly a few men's voices in the choir.—Exchange.

Dresses That Are Not Too Short.

Lady Harberton, writing to deny that she is the originator of the Short Skirt league, observes that a dress five inches from the ground is not by any means so short as some people imagine, as it comes to the top of the instep, and therefore is not short enough to enable the wearer to walk about in muddy weather without having to hold it up a little.

There are probably not many American women who would care to invite comparison by placing their gems beside the glittering array of the German empress, but there is at least one in Chicago who could do so smilingly, sure if not of outshining, certainly of not being outshone. This woman is Mrs. Potter Palmer. At the various balls she attended last winter Mrs. Palmer's diamonds were the envy and admiration of every woman who saw her arrayed in all their dazzling splendor. It is safe to say that members of the foreign legation who bowed over her small hand at the dedication ball last October will never forget the picture she made. It is doubtful if even European courts could produce so brilliant and beautiful an ensemble.

On such occasions Mrs. Palmer wears a diadem of large diamonds, finely matched and exquisite in color. This almost encircles her head, and each point of the gorgeous coronet is tipped with a large and costly pearl. Disposed about her corsage are two ropes of diamonds, which are generally caught up by a beautiful brooch of diamonds and sapphires. Lesser ornaments in the shape of stars, crescents and circles are pinned to the front of her bodice, and at her ears hang large pearls.—Chicago Herald.

Mrs. Cleveland as She Is.

At the informal noon hours of Easter week Mrs. Cleveland received between 300 and 500 ladies each time, standing alone by the door of the red parlor, and barely having a chance for a word with those whom she knew as the procession of strangers streamed in. To those who have not seen Mrs. Cleveland during the four years since she left the White House she seems to have changed in appearance, but for the better. She is stouter and matronly in every way. The simple manner of dressing her hair is vastly becoming, and the pure white colorless complexion adds a refinement and distinction to her face.

WATER FOR THE PICNIC.

Ishpeming Firemen Run a Pipe Line to their Fourth of July Picnic Grounds.

IT WAS QUITE A JOB, BUT THE BOYS WERE EQUAL TO IT

Fine Portrait Work—Alumni Officers Chosen—Mauled a Chinaman—Work of Footpads.

WATER ON THE GROUNDS.

The members of the Ishpeming fire department are determined that they will not overlook anything that will add to the comfort or enjoyment of those who attend their picnic at the Lake Superior grove on the Fourth. The members of the five companies of the department are united in their efforts to make the picnic a grand success. The members of the various committees, selected from among the best hustlers in the department, are tireless in preparing for the grand event, and are working unitedly to have everything in perfect readiness for it by the morning of the Fourth.

The firemen attempted something that perhaps no other organization in the city would have undertaken, that of running a line of pipe from the water works main on Excelsior street to the top of the bluff where the picnic is to be held. They were told by those who were in a position to judge that the water works could not be made to deliver water that height above the level of the main line. They undertook the task, however, and have succeeded in landing water on the grounds, the pipe-laying being completed yesterday. There are several expert mechanics and pipe-layers among the members of the department who took the work in hand, completing the job without a cent of expense to the department or the city. It took over 1,200 feet of pipe to reach from the bottom to the top of the bluff. After completing the pipe-laying the boys turned on the water and it came through with a very good pressure.

This is the first time since the grounds have been used for picnic purposes that water has been delivered there through a pipe line. Teams have been employed to haul it up, and it is with the greatest difficulty that a team can reach the top, as the roads leading to it are very steep.

The boys have cleared off the portion of the grounds where the refreshment tables, dancing platforms, etc., are to be located. The dancing pavilion will have a hardwood floor with tent covering.

Oscar Rollinger, special agent of the Photo-steel Engraving company, of Geneva, N. Y., has been in Ishpeming soliciting orders for work in his line. This company claims to be the originator and inventor of the photo-steel engraving process, and the house is the only one in the United States doing work of this kind. It guarantees its reproductions to be as perfect as the portraits from which they are produced. Mr. Rollinger is meeting with very good success here, and also at Nantua, where he has a couple of men working.

Alumni Officers.
At a meeting of the members of the Ishpeming high school alumni association held Saturday evening last, the following officers were elected: President, Miss Lillian Fisher; first vice-president, Charles Trabowsky; second vice-president, Miss Anna Lacey; Secretary, Ursula Lopez; treasurer, A. Grabowsky; members of social committee, Gustave Dahlstrom, Ella Martyn, Fred E. Vickers, Nina McDowell, Ben LaLonde, Nora Casey and Kate Laughlin.

Assaulted a Chinaman.
Some person, whose name is yet unknown, assaulted one of the Chinamen who conducts a laundry on First street Saturday night. The Chinaman asserts that he was walking along First street between Bank street and Cleveland avenue, when a man, apparently intoxicated, came out of a saloon and caught hold of his coat, at the same time striking him in the face with his fist. After hitting him several times his assailant pulled him into the saloon and dealt him several hard blows about the face and head.

Judging from the appearance of the Chinaman's face it is evident that his assailant gave him some hard raps, as his eyes are blackened and he is otherwise cut up. The Chinaman has been endeavoring to ascertain the name of the man who assaulted him but as yet has failed to run him down. He will have the man arrested if he succeeds in learning who he is.

"Brother Dan" is Here.
The copper country correspondent of THE MINING JOURNAL was in error yesterday when he stated that "Brother Dan," Garity's famous trotting horse, was entered in the races to take place at Hancock on the Fourth and that he was already there. The horse is in Ishpeming, as was stated in this department yesterday, and Mr. Garity is also here, and they are both going to remain here until the races to take place at Union Park on the 2nd, 4th and 5th are over. Mr. Garity says that "Brother Dan" will never trot a heat on the Hancock track as long as it is under its present management.

A telegram was received yesterday from Sam Payne, who will arrive here today with one or more fast horses. Mr. Payne is the gentleman who owned "Payne's Black," the horse that beat Crowley & Outhwaite's "Gray Dawn" in a match for a neat purse last summer, a short time before the black horse died.

Assaulted by Footpads.
Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock some of the boys employed in the Chicago & Northwestern yards found a man lying almost lifeless in N. Lossely's wood yard, corner Lake and Bank streets. His face and head were cut and bruised and he was covered with blood. When found he was lying behind a wood pile with a palm tree covering him. The boys picked him up but he was too weak to walk, so they sent for a policeman to take care of him. The man told the boys who found him that he was on his way home to his boarding house the night before, when suddenly someone struck him. That was the last he remembered until he recovered consciousness, when he was too weak to get up and walk or even call for help. The man's name could not be learned, as those who took him away did not inquire who he was. He spoke good English and was thought to be an American.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF

James R. Dee of Houghton was in town yesterday.

R. Maxwell got home from his trip abroad yesterday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ryan on Saturday.

Joslin, the candy man, has fitted up an ice cream parlor in his store.

Mrs. H. Harwood returned Saturday from a visit to Ironwood friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Swift and two sons left on Sunday for a visit to the World's Fair.

Miss Birdie Sedgwick got home from Kenosha, Wis., where she has been attending school, on Sunday.

The C. H. Kirkwood pharmacy received a large assortment of fireworks yesterday. See advertisement.

Miss Carrie Funston left on Sunday for the World's Fair, going by boat from Marquette. She will meet her sister, Mrs. Gillett of Marquette in Chicago.

The stock of clothing, gents' furnishings, etc., of J. E. Bergquist & Co., which was disposed of at sacrifice sale, is just about cleaned out. The goods went with a rush.

The Ishpeming steam laundry has been so crowded with work of late that the proprietors have added another delivery rig to their equipment in order to give their patrons the promptest possible service.

William Thexton, who was prostrated by the heat a few days ago while at work at the Lake Angeline mine, is able to be out again. He expresses thanks to his friends who took care of him during his illness, and feels very grateful toward them for the kindness they showed him.

FLUNKED ON THE CONTRACT. Contractors Who Secured the Job of Putting in Negaunee Sewers Seem to Have Got Tired.

PROBABLE THAT THE NEXT LOWEST BIDDERS WILL GET IT. Chevaliers Celebrated With Eclat Yesterday--School Entertainment at McDonald's Opera House.

THE SEWER DEAL. In view of the fact that the time for signing the contracts for the construction of the lateral sewers by Muir Bros. & Nicholson, who were awarded the contract, has passed, it devolves on the sewer committee to decide what to do in the matter.

In case Muir Bros. & Nicholson don't come to time the committee will most likely turn the contract over to the next lowest bidders, Kellan & Peterson of this city, whose bid is about $1,700 higher than that of Muir Bros. & Nicholson.

The Chevaliers. The annual celebration of the Chevaliers de Lafayette society of Negaunee held here yesterday was an event that afforded its members and others who joined them a great deal of pleasure.

School Entertainment Tonight. The children of St. Paul's school will give an entertainment at McDonald's Opera house this evening for which they have been industriously preparing for some time past.

How Two Brothers Met. There was a touching scene at the lunch counter in the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton station in Hamilton, O., a few nights ago about 10 o'clock.

They were James and Charles Monroe, aged about 40 and 42 respectively, who a score of years ago lived near Springfield, Ills. They separated when young men, one finally settling at Grand Rapids, where he accumulated considerable wealth.

Neither of them finished his lunch, but getting down off their stools they walked arm in arm about the station until the train left, and they went off together--Cincinnati Enquirer.

An Odd Missouri Law. Missouri law is sometimes comical. I read a few days ago that a new statute had been passed by the Missouri legislature which makes it a penitentiary offense for a husband to desert his wife until he has lived with her for at least 10 years.

Playing Santa Claus. Charles Keene's 8-year-old son Freddie had a peculiar experience that nearly cost him his life. Freddie had climbed to the roof of a 1-story building used for cooking and washing purposes at the rear of his father's house in East Norwalk, and espying the chimney, which was about as high as his head, thought it would be great sport to play Santa Claus, climb down the flue and, like the jolly little fat man in the story book, descend to the room below.

Here's a Chance. A professional man of wide reputation, who resides at Parkersburg, W. Va., and is a great lover of aquatic sport, determined to surprise his friends here this spring by coming out with a new yacht, and as a recreation and to make the surprise more complete concluded to build the vessel himself from a model of his own.

Prices of a Stock During a Wall Street Panic. Some idea of the character of Friday morning's speculation may be gleaned from this incident: A well known broker had an order to sell 500 shares of General Electric. When the order was sent to him, the price had already fallen from 80 to 70.

The President's Summer Home. "Belvoir," the house in the suburbs of the national capital which President Cleveland has leased for his summer home, has an interesting history. General Winfield Scott selected the place as the site for the soldiers' home, but it was not secured, as no agreement could be arrived at with the owner.

Contentment and happiness are only possible with perfect health. The rapid advancement in medical science now permits the preparation of medical compounds whose use is a guarantee to success. One of the best known and most popular at the present day is Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure.

An Independent Miller. When Frederick built his famous palace of Sans Souci, there happened to be a mill that greatly hampered him in the execution of his plans, and he asked the miller for how much he would sell it.

IT'S POSTMASTER MIDLAM.

Le Roy W. Midlam Appointed Postmaster at Marquette Vice S. M. Billings Removed.

ASIRE GETS FIRST DEEDS RECORDED UNDER NEW LAW.

FEW KNEW IT WAS COMING.

The appointment of Le Roy W. Midlam as postmaster of Marquette vice S. M. Billings, removed, is announced in THE MINING JOURNAL's dispatches this morning and will come to the readers of the paper as a surprise although it was perhaps not unexpected that a change would be made in the office here before the Republican incumbent, Mr. Billings, had completed his term and the latter will be the last man in the city to make any kick over the matter.

As far as Republicans are concerned, and as a change was bound to come, no more acceptable appointment than that of Mr. Midlam could be made and it is believed that, apart probably from a few disappointed aspirants, Democrats will be even more pleased with the appointment. Mr. Midlam has been a life-long Democrat and has always been a zealous worker for his party but that has not necessitated his making himself disliked by harshness towards political opponents and in his new position, where he will come in contact with all of the people, he will receive his reward in the fact that his political foes are still his personal friends and as such are prepared, with a great deal of equanimity, to see his administration of the affairs of the office crowned with signal success. The appointment is a good one and the Democratic party, as well as Mr. Midlam, should come in in the congratulations.

Mr. Midlam was aroused by a messenger as soon as the associated press dispatch arrived last night announcing his appointment and gathering his raiment about him hastened down town to see what the trouble was. When the telegram was read to him after he had been badgered awhile with imaginary affairs he took his honors and congratulations meekly and commenced fishing through his pockets for cigars as if he was accustomed to being appointed postmaster on an average of once a week.

First Deed Recorded.

The first deed or land contract recorded since the new registry law went into force on June 12 was recorded yesterday, Mr. M. E. Asire being the first to obtain from Deputy Treasurer Wright the required tax certificate. Mr. Asire attempted to file some papers on the very day the law went into effect; he met with a refusal at the county clerk's office and immediately went over to the county treasurer's office for the certificate which he then learned was a prime requisite. There, as stated in THE MINING JOURNAL, he was informed that the treasurer was powerless to give any such certificate. Nothing daunted Mr. Asire at once wrote to the auditor general at Lansing for a complete tax history covering both of the tracts affected by the papers which he wished to record. The papers arrived from the auditor general's office yesterday, the necessary certificates were at once issued at the county treasurer's office and now the hustling real estate dealer can transfer lots in either the North Marquette addition or Island Beach addition without any further ado.

A Battle Over A Book.

The officers of the Peter White Public Library and the mother superior of St. Joseph's convent, who is also principal of St. Joseph's academy, had a conference yesterday which was decidedly interesting while it lasted. Recently a boy drew from the library a copy of Charles Carleton Coffin's "Story of Liberty." Time passed and he did not return it. Finally he was called to account for the volume and said that the mother superior had taken it away from him at school. Then the library made a demand upon her for the book only to learn after some delay that she had burned the volume as an invention of the devil because of some statements made in it concerning the trouble between King John and the Pope at the time of the granting of Magna Charta, at least as far as can be ascertained it was that portion of the work to which she objected.

The library now holds the mother superior responsible for the volume and unless it is replaced or its value, $3, refunded so that the book can again be purchased for the library, the trustees will have no recourse under the law but to bring suit, the destruction of a book belonging to the library being a serious offense.

Charles E. Deane's New Charge.

The shore of Lake Michigan was never graced with any hotel structure so complete in detail of arrangement and artistic in architectural beauty as the Chicago Beach, opened last week at the foot of Fifty-first street boulevard. Mr. Warren F. Leland, whose reputation as a manager and proprietor of large hotels is national, has displayed his experience and knowledge of hotels pre-eminently in the conception and structural arrangements of the new venture which he designed and planned. The Chicago Beach hotel is built in the form of a letter F, with a frontage of 1,500 feet on the lake, and is six stories high, being constructed of highly pressed Milwaukee brick, with terra cotta trimmings. It contains 450 sleeping rooms, arranged in suites, each being accessible to a bathroom, and is conducted on the European or American plan. Broad, covered verandas, with a seating capacity for 1,000 people, encircle the hotel.

The Chicago Beach has one of the most beautiful and spacious rotundas in the world, wainscotted with Tennessee marble and Mexican onyx. To the east it leads to a handsomely furnished parlor carpeted with costly Turkish rugs of exquisite design and adorned with elegant mantels and mirrors. The dining room is 65 by 125 feet, with a seating capacity of 1,000 guests, and is one of the most unique and beautiful grand halls in America. This triumph of harmony and artistic skill is the realization of plans prepared by Mr. Leland and is finished throughout in natural oak. The kitchen is in a separate building away from the main structure and has the most approved methods of culinary art and appliances. All the apartments, the rotunda and halls are heated by steam and illuminated by incandescent lights. The hotel office is in charge of C. W. Squires and C. E. Dean, with C. Chapman looking after the cash in the same popular manner that won them so many friends at the Leland.—Chicago Herald.

Organizing the New Temple.

The Shriners of Marquette and adjacent cities met at Masonic Hall last evening to select officers for the new temple to be instituted here in September and chose the following: Illustrious potentate, John Q. Adams of Ne-gaunee; chief rabban, Colonel J. N. Cox of Calumet; assistant rabban, Fred K. Baker of Menominee; high priest and prophet, R. A. Parker of Ontonagon; alchemist, Dr. A. Kline Thiel of Marquette; oriental guide, Will C. Brown of Marquette; treasurer, W. B. McCombs of Marquette; recorder, Sidney G. Brown of Marquette; first ceremonial master, M. B. McGee of Crystal Falls; second ceremonial master or standard bearer, Dr. E. B. Patterson of Michigan; director, D. McViech of Ishpeming; marshal, M. R. Manhard of Marquette; captain of the guard, T. B. Catlin of Iron Mountain; outer guard, Ford Hursley of Sault Ste. Marie.

The new temple will be prepared to escort its first class across the sands in September when it is instituted.

Rev. H. H. Fairall, D. D., editor of the Iowa Methodist, says editorially "We have tested the merits of Ely's Cream Balm, and believe that by a thorough course of treatment it will cure almost every case of catarrh. Ministers, as a class are afflicted with head and throat troubles, and catarrh seems more prevalent than ever. We cannot recommend Ely's Cream Balm too highly."

I used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh. It proved a cure.—B. F. M. Weeks, Denver.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 21st of May, while in Des Moines en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce a diarrhoea. Every one should procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. For sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co.

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
