GRIPPLING CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

House Democrats in Committee of the Whole Refuse to Make the Usual Appropriation.

SOME HONORABLE EXCEPTIONS.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The question of civil service reform was given full sway in the house today, the occasion being the amendment to strike out a paragraph in the legislative appropriation bill providing for the civil service commission. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 109 to 71 amid great Democratic applause and Republican cries of "Spoils." No other amendments of any importance were made in the bill.

Several Democrats opposed the amendment, which virtually abolishes the commission, but it was adopted by nearly a strict party vote. Among the Democrats who voted with the Republicans in favor of civil service reform were Messrs. Wilson, Tracy, Hendrix, Dockery, Warner, Springer, Sayers, Crain, Martin, Kilgore, Livingston, DeForest and Everett.

The vote on division was 96 to 61. Cries of "no quorum" and demands for tellers were made and the vote by tellers was 109 to 71. Mr. Dingley gave notice that he would demand the yeas and nays on the question in the house. It being then after 5 o'clock the committee rose and the house adjourned.

MCKINLEY TARIFFS ON IRON.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The senate resumed consideration of the tariff bill at 10 o'clock and Mr. Platt's amendment making the duty on iron ore sixty cents per ton was laid on the table, 32 to 21. The finance committee's amendment placing the duty at forty cents per ton on iron ore was then agreed to without division.

The sensational feature of the day was caused by the unexpected presentation by Mr. Jones of an amendment substituting the McKinley bill classification and specific rates on round iron, charcoal blooms and charcoal iron at rates somewhat higher than those already proposed. When the vote was taken seven Democrats and two Populists refused to support the Jones substitute, namely: Allen, Berry, Blackburn, Jarvis, Kyle, Mills, Pasco and Peffer.

Besides fixing the duty on iron ore at forty cents per ton, pig iron, scrap iron, etc., was placed at $4 per ton; round iron in coils at eight-tenths cent per pound; slabs and blooms of less finish than bars at five-eighths cent per pound; charcoal blooms at $12 per ton; beams, girders and other structural iron or steel, six-tenths cent per pound; boiler plate from five-tenths cent to 25 per cent ad valorem; forgings of iron or steel at one and one-half cents; hoop or band iron or steel (cotton ties), 30 per cent ad valorem. After an executive session the senate adjourned.

DIRECT VOTE FOR SENATORS.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The house committee on the election of president and vice president has voted to make a favorable report on the bill of Mr. Tucker (Va.), providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. The report was agreed upon by nearly an unanimous vote.

ARMOR PLATE FRAUDS.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The house today adopted resolutions directing the naval committee to investigate the allegations of fraud in connection with the armor plate contract.

WILL BOSS SEMINARIES.

Church Says They Shall Breed No More Brigands.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 22.—The question of theological seminary control, as far as the general assembly is concerned, was settled by a vote of almost four to one. The report of the majority of the committee that considered the matter was adopted today. The report was put through in spite of urgent appeals for delay and in the face of protests from those who desired that the church at large and the institutions affected might be consulted. This ends the present chapter of the contest over seminary control. The committee to be appointed by the moderator will be a unit in favor of the proposed changes. Notices of protest were given by Dr. Hillis and Elder Osborne. The vote against the minority report was 438 to 111, while that in favor of the majority report was 437 to 115. The evening was devoted to a popular meeting in the interests of home mission.

ASSAULTED BY STRIKERS.

Several Men Engaged in Cleaning Up Mine Brutally Beaten.

LA SALLE, Ills., May 22.—A serious riot occurred here today in which several men were injured. Ever since the mines closed the Union Coal company has kept some men at work cleaning up the entries. Nothing was said against this by the strikers but this evening the men came from work they were set on and brutally beaten by a mob of at least one thousand strikers. Some sought shelter in the company's office and barricaded the doors and windows with office furniture. This only added to the fury of the mob and the doors were battered in and the victims set upon. Benjamin Hetherington was pounded into insensibility. Edward Cummings was savagely beaten. Several other men were roughly handled. The sheriff arrived this evening and after swearing in deputies went to the mines and dispersed the mob.

STILL STEALING TRAINS.

COXEYITES TRY THE OLD GAME BUT GET KICKED OUT.

MISSOULA, MONT., May 22.—As the eastbound fast freight was pulling out of Norton today 100 members of the Northwestern Industrial army boarded it and attempted to obtain control. The engineer cut loose and started east at a rapid rate. Major Carpenter, who was at the state line with two companies, was notified and a special train bore him to the scene. The troops soon dislodged the Coxeyites, who are now camped near Norton. There are 100 more just west of there and 150 more coming east from Spokane. It is their intention to steal another train when their forces are joined. On the Coeur d'Alene branch near Iron Mountain fifty Coxeyites climbed on a work train and attempted to get possession. The crew repulsed them, however, and they made no further attempt. Two companies of troops at Fort Missoula have been ordered to be ready to move and are now awaiting final orders from St. Paul.

ROOSTING IN NEGRO CHURCH.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Michael Fitzgerald and a band of forty-three "Industrial delegates," as he styled them, arrived in the city shortly after 5 o'clock this afternoon and have taken up quarters in a small chapel annex to the Mount Zion Methodist church, a house of worship of the negroes in the northwestern section of the city. Fitzgerald says his men do not expect to stay here more than three or four days. They have a petition to present to congress but have not yet made any plans concerning the manner of presenting it.

FRY'S BUMMERS AT CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, May 22.—After all the efforts of the police to hold Fry's Industrial army outside the city the latter made a triumphant entrance today and pitched their tents adjoining the baseball grounds. The cooperation of the labor unions prevented the authorities from keeping the Industrials out.

COMMONWEALERS KELSEY JAILED.

CYESTON, ILL., May 22.—Kelsey's Commonwealth army, about two hundred strong, reached this city this evening. A quarantine was declared against the army by the city council but no attention was paid to the proclamation. The procession came into the city and was halted on the main business street by the marshal and his deputies and Kelsey was arrested. The most intense excitement prevails and incendiary treats were freely indulged in. Kelsey was taken before Justice Hurley and placed under $200 bonds for his appearance for trial. After his release the army pitched camp outside the city limits, where it was followed by a crowd and where hundreds of people were harrassed by the Commonwealth orators.

DENVER, May 22.—The Rio Grande Western officials have received word that 250 Commonwealthers seized a train at Thistle Junction, Utah, last night. The train was side-tracked, but the rioters still hold possession.

FLOODS ARE SUBSIDING.

Railways Running Again—Much Suffering at Williamsport.

PITTSBURG, May 22.—The estimated damage on the Pittsburg division of the Pennsylvania railway by the floods reaches $75,000. Nearly 1,000 men are at work repairing the tracks between Conemaugh and Gallitzin. The Pittsburg & Western road is also rapidly recovering from the effects of the flood. One Schultz, engaged in pumping a leaking barge, fell into the river today and was drowned. It is raining hard but as the rivers are still falling no further trouble is apprehended.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., May 22.—The aggregate flood loss is $120,000 of which $50,000 is to the Pennsylvania road.

SUFFERING AT WILLIAMSPORT.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 22.—The flood has been receding rapidly since midnight. Half the flooded district is clear of water but mud and debris are piled up everywhere. The portion still submerged is mostly inhabited by poor people. There is much suffering and citizens are taking relief measures.

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—Reports from Williamsport and the territory north of there indicate that the water is falling rapidly. It has ceased raining and the danger is past. In Renova, Lock Haven, Bellefonte, Clearfield and Driewood the water has receded and the debris is being cleared up. At Phoenixville the Schuylkill is still rising. The plant of the Phoenix Iron company is still submerged. The banks of the Schuylkill canal are broken in a dozen places, one hundred families are driven out and the waterworks are submerged.

Raking in the Anarchists.

PARIS, May 22.—A number of anarchists plotting explosions in various cities of Europe were arrested. Details are refused, but the arrests are considered important.

Bimetallists Not Numerous.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—President Fisk called the Pan-American Bimetallic league to order today. Fifty delegates were present.

POWERS OF THE JUDGES.

House Judiciary Committee Recommends Passage of Two Bills Restricting Them.

BUTTZ SAID HE HAD BUSINESS ELSEWHERE.

Alleged Broker in Senatorial Votes Fails to Show Up Before the Investigating Committee.

RESULTS OF JENKINS' ORDER.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The house committee on judiciary has endorsed the report of the Boatner sub-committee which investigated Judge Jenkins' Northern Pacific injunctive order forbidding the employees of that road to strike. A resolution and two bills will be reported to the house. The resolution will set forth that the house disapproves of the action of Judge Jenkins and holds that he exceeded his powers in enjoining the railroad men from striking. One of the two bills to be reported will be drawn to carry into effect the recommendation regarding compulsory labor, which is as follows: "Your committee recommends that all possible doubt as to the powers of judges of courts of the United States to enforce the specific performance of labor contracts by legal process, or to compel any person to render involuntary service under any pretext, be set at rest by a prohibitory statute."

The second bill will be in accordance with the following recommendation: "The power to punish for contempt is limited by law in most states and we can see no reason why a like limitation should not be placed upon the powers of federal judges."

Mr. Bailey (Tex.), a member of the judiciary committee, thinks Judge Jenkins should be impeached and although he acquiesced in the decision of the committee to adopt the report he reserved the right to propose impeachment proceedings if he should conclude them to be the only effective form of procedure in the case.

CANNOT FIND BUTTZ.

The Alleged Briber Has Perhaps Departed to Healthier Climes.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—C. W. Buttz, who was very anxious yesterday to be represented before the senate bribery investigating committee, was not on hand when the committee met today. Instead he sent his attorney to explain that he was otherwise engaged and to ask that he be excused from attendance for the present. Attorney McGowan stated that his client was engaged in making search for witnesses who could corroborate his story and throw light upon the question at issue. The explanation was far from satisfactory and the sergeant-at-arms was directed to issue a subpoena for Buttz. While waiting for Buttz the committee called in several senators, including Messrs. Voorhees, Harris and Coke, to whom Messrs. Hunton and Kyle stated they had given information of the attempt to bribe themselves. They confirmed the statements of Hunton and Kyle. When asked if they knew of other attempts to bribe senators they said they did not.

The sergeant-at-arms reported to the committee that he had failed to find Buttz. He had ascertained that Buttz had left the city on an early morning train with the reported expectation of returning by 2 o'clock. Buttz did not meet the expectations of the committee by putting in an appearance during the afternoon and the opinion was expressed that he would not be at the Capitol again before tomorrow morning. None of the members of the committee will admit that there is any probability of his having left the city to avoid investigation.

PAYING OFF FULLMAN EMPLOYEES.

No Attempt Made to Withhold Money Due for Rent.

CHICAGO, May 22.—Fourteen hundred of the Pullman strikers were paid off yesterday at the shops. No attempt was made by the company to withhold any arrears of rent, though the checks payable at the bank were made out in accordance with the usual custom. One for the amount due from the tenants and the other for the sum remaining. As a rule the employees did not turn back the rent check to the company, and those who did so were said by their fellows to be abundantly able to do so. Some little friction was caused by the fact that the pay of a number of car-builders was held back by the foreman and that a number of the girls did not get all the money they had earned. Sub-checks, so-called, were issued by the company promptly to provide for the former and the girls were officially notified in the afternoon that any deficiency would be made good upon application.

CATHOLICS WILL NOT DECORATE.

Allege That Leading G. A. R. Members Are A. P. A. Men.

CHIPPewa FALLS, Wis., May 22.—All the Catholic societies have passed resolutions against taking part in the Decoration Day exercises. The societies have always joined the procession in a body and contributed to the success of the demonstration. Their reason for withdrawing their claim, is that the leading G. A. R. men are members of the A. P. A. and that the grand marshal of the day is a leader of the latter society. This action was taken at a special meeting called for the purpose and has created a good deal of unpleasant feeling.

ROCKEFELLER has just gathered in one of the Mesaba mines outside of his original group. The others will follow that just gobbled in due time. He has them where they can't get away, owing to his control of the railway that serves the Mesaba range and of the American barge line.

The Evening Wisconsin of Milwaukee states that Receiver Howard Morris, of the Gogebic Consolidated mines, who returned to Milwaukee Monday from a trip to the Gogebic range, reports that the Tilden mine is now getting out and shipping over 1,000 tons of ore daily. The Aurora, which was reported to be on fire and in danger of destruction, is also getting out considerable ore. Mr. Morris found the feeling among the people on that range much more hopeful than some months ago.

We take this from the Minneapolis Journal:

Labor Commissioner Powers, in his farm mortgage investigation, fully substantiates the census report on the same subject. Only 30 per cent of farmers owning their farms are mortgaged and foreclosures average 1 per cent in the southern counties and 3 to 4 per cent in the northwestern counties, where there is less diversification of crops. These mortgage figures are strong arguments for Donnelly and his fellow pessimists.

The facts set forth go to show that the farmers of the northwest are in no such condition of distress as the Alliance agitators have been seeking to make them believe, and with some success.

HON. P. V. DEUSTER of Milwaukee has just returned from a six months' sojourn in Europe. He took pains to ascertain the opinions of German and English publicists of the Coxy movement. From his investigation he concludes that it will tend to prevent the immigration of European working people to this country. If Coxyism has that effect it may be a blessing in disguise—La Crosse (Wis.) Republican Leader.

Surely there is "a soul of good even in things evil" if any good comes out of the Coxy industrial army foolishness. But anything that checks the influx of working people from abroad is beneficial as matters are with us in this country at present. We have workers enough and to spare until we can provide more for them to do.

The French government has instructed its representatives in this country to institute a suit against the Columbian exposition to recover for damage done the goods of French exhibitors. It is a disgrace to the nation that such a step should have been found necessary. The claim of the French exhibitors is a just one and as it amounts to but $75,000, while there is now a surplus of $400,000 in the exposition treasury, it should be settled at once and without litigation. The government of France did much to make the exposition a success and from the start manifested a friendly disposition toward the great enterprise that is but illy repaid by the disinclination to pay these claims shown by the exposition management. The foreign exhibitors generally were not any too well treated at the exposition, and it will not do any credit to the United States to have their claims for damage to their exhibits denied, or settled reluctantly and after exasperating delay.

WHATEVER the house may do with the bill when it is returned to that body with the senate amendments—or mutilations—it is obvious that the senate is opposed to having iron ore go on the free list. It seems to THE MINING JOURNAL that the senate is right in the position it takes on iron ore. Leaving out of the question the protection idea involved, it would be very foolish to permit Cuban, Canadian or any foreign ore to come in free of duty, and thus have the government deprived of the revenue that a duty of forty cents a ton would bring. This paper has maintained that the duty of seventy-five cents was a revenue rather than a protective duty, and should not be cut down for the reason that it does not appreciably limit importations. The argument against having iron ore placed on the free list is all the stronger because of the indisputable fact that domestic ores now bring a price only barely covering the cost of production. To admit foreign ore free would not work any relief to consumers, therefore, while it would deprive the government of considerable revenue.

MGR. SATOLLI, the Papal delegate, has a better opinion of the press of this country than some of our own public men. In an address delivered at Bridgeport, Conn., the other day he paid it this handsome compliment: "I regard the press of America as a great institution. It has wonderful influence among all classes of people, and is, fortunately, in the control of men who do not abuse its power. It has been an important factor in the progress of the nation, and will continue to do great good while it is conducted on the lines it is following at the present time." And who shall say that this tribute to the press of America is not well deserved? For, though our newspapers have their faults, and some of them are not conducted by men who have a proper conception of their opportunities and obligations, they are in the main an influence for the promotion of morality and the chastisement of vice, and as a whole they are doing a grand work in dissipating the pestilential fogs of sectarian bigotry and sectional prejudice.

CLARK'S conviction for complicity in the falsification of the Wayne county returns on the salaries amendment of 1893 was a great surprise to the defense, and especially to the defendant himself, as an acquittal was expected to follow the long wrangle of the jury in the case. Bussey, who is also under indictment for the same offense, was paralyzed by the result in the case of his associate in the work of raising the affirmative vote on the amendment in Detroit. It is now believed that every one of the clerks indicted for that audacious crime against the purity of the ballot will be brought to punishment. The jury accompanied its verdict of guilty in Clark's case with a recommendation for leniency that the court will not be likely to heed. If he is guilty, and the jury found him so, there is no occasion for clemency in his case, and leniency would tend to destroy the wholesome effect of the conviction by strengthening a somewhat prevalent belief that violations of the election laws are not to be regarded as very serious offenses.

THE Detroit Evening News is deeply incensed over the freedom with which Mayor Pingree talks his mind concerning leaders of prominence in the Republican party. It gives his honor this "roast" in its issue of Monday:

The mayor, as a Republican, seems to be a "chartered libertine," like the wind, "to blow on whom he pleases," without rebuke or discipline from his party. When at home he counts that day lost whose sun sets without his freely speaking his mind about "Jim" McMillan, Governor Rich and the Republican party with that forty-horse power callopie of sarcasm of his that he keeps running with the gauge at the highest notch. He apparently holds his party, its policy and its leaders in his most cynical and insolent contempt.

Ordinarily, every Republican organ and every Republican politician in the state would ere this have read such a rebel and uncommon scold out of the party. He would have been posted as a renegade and traitor, and been cast into outer darkness for the indulgence of his teeth-grashing recreations. But the oracles are dumb. The politicians open not their mouths. Pingree has all the license and freedom of the town hall that has broken loose and taken to the highway. His roasting and pawing secure him the wrath of the road from fence to fence. The whole party stays in doors and looks at him from the windows; but evidently no one has any intention of trying to drive him back or get him to the pound. They used to enjoy it when he was bellowing at the other-fellows and tossing them on his horns. Then they were behind him; but he has turned and now they are in front of him. He doesn't look as pretty; and they got so accustomed to the back view of him that they don't know what in the world to do about it except to get inside the fence and listen to him. Certainly none of them has yet ventured out with a rope or shotgun, and he appears to have a complete right of way on the political turnpike, so far as his former managers and admirers are concerned. No one is anxious to volunteer as a matador to bring his vociferous career to a close.

The News appears to hold the opinion that it is only an independent newspaper that has the right to indulge in "free and unlimited" criticism of public men. Perhaps it resents Mayor Pingree's audacious and vociferous independence as an invasion of its own rights. But we fail to see why an individual should be denied the privilege of "running amuck" occasionally, if he feels that way if it is accorded to a "moulder of public opinion" like The News.

THE MILLIONAIRES' CLUB.

A Set of Rules Under Which the Organization Will Be Operated. In conspicuous places about the recently opened Millionaires' club may be found fastened to the wall handsome gold frames studded with tencarat diamonds. The frames contain sheets of white silk velvet, which are embroidered with gold-thread letters, making up the following set of rules:

- "Every millionaire who joins this club must be able to read and write."
"No millionaire is permitted under any circumstances to float among his fellow members any issue of bunko bonds exceeding five million dollars in amount."
"Under no circumstances will any conversation about art, literature or science be permitted on the premises."
"Member will be permitted to bring his luncheon to the club wrapped up in a newspaper."
"The price of pork and other securities will be posted every few minutes. Any member who wishes more frequent information must inquire at the desk."
"Member who wears American-made clothes will be permitted to sit at the front windows."
"Members will please not eat with their knives when there are outsiders present."
"Round games shall be played where the stakes exceed one hundred thousand dollars a corner."
"Members are requested not to approach the club on foot nor in a hired conveyance."
"Members must not swear at the club servants, as they are all younger sons of English noblemen."
"Any member violating any of the above rules will be prohibited from using the gold soup plates for one month."—N. Y. Life.

FACTS FROM ABROAD.

The March of Advanced Science Throughout the World.

AND ITS VALUE TO US.

A Declaration Made by the Great Doctor Fothergill for the Benefit of the People of the World Has Aroused Much Attention.

LONDON, Eng., April 30.—The following statement made by the late Dr. J. Milner Fothergill, the eminent scientist, who was physician for the London Hospital for diseases of the chest, has made quite a sensation. After denouncing oils and similar substances when used as food, he said: "Fatty, oily foods cannot be taken by those whose stomachs are weak or whose digestive organs are out of order. What food should such people have? I say they need food which acts as a strengthener and sustainer, as fuel to feed the lamp of life, and that is starch food. A soluble starch food which will be readily assimilated by the digestive organs if the food for people whose digestive organs are weak."

It was only natural that such a statement, coming from so high an authority, should have made a profound impression among the leading physicians and scientists of Europe, and it brings into special prominence the recent discovery of pre-digested starch food known to doctors, to scientists and the world as Paskola. Comparatively few people outside the highest medical circles know of this wonderful discovery, but it is known to possess the qualities of flesh-forming, strength-imparting, life-giving power which has never been known before in the history of the world.

Tests which have been made showing a weak, pale, run-down condition, accompanied with indigestion and general loss of energy, have shown most remarkable results, and it is not improbable that the discovery of Paskola will be accepted as the flesh-forming food of the nineteenth century by the highest authorities in both Europe and America. Certainly it is superseding cod liver oils, beef tea, and the fatty preparations which have been used so extensively in the past, and the results so far achieved amply warrant the wisdom of those who have taken such action.

A pamphlet giving full particulars respecting Paskola will be sent on application to the Pre-Digested Food company, 30 Reade street, New York city.

DROWNED IN THE TOBACCO.

Was Disappearance of Mathias Kangas Due to Accident or Suicide?

HIS BODY HAS NOT YET BEEN RECOVERED. Last Seen Near the Stream and His Hat Found Floating in Its Waters.

LAKE LINDEN. A messenger came from Contractor C. C. Heughen's lumber camp to Justice A. H. McDougall yesterday to inform him that one of the men on the drive had been drowned. The particulars, as related by the messenger, are that the man, known as Mat Hill but whose real name was Mathias Kangas, was last seen on the banks of the Tobacco river about 5 o'clock Sunday evening. As he did not come in for supper about bed time some of the men went out to look for him. They could see nothing of him but found that in the water and his pile pole near by on the bank. It was then supposed that he had fallen in and a search was made for his body but at the time the messenger left camp his body had not been recovered.

Good Reasons. Why persons suffering with piles should use the Gem Pile Treatment: It is purely vegetable. It is pleasant to take. It is an internal remedy. It places no restriction in your diet. DO MEN LIKE FLATTERY.

The Little Pin-Pricks That Women Give One Another.

Two girls were walking rapidly down the street in a whirl of talk. "My mink cape, you know," went on the tall one, "is a perfect sight and I can never wear it out in the world! Do you know any remedy for moths?" "Yes." "Well, give it to me." "Tobacco smoke," chirped the short one. "I mean tobacco smoke from a good cigar. I don't know as the smoke annoys the moths any, only it acts as a sort of charm, I think. I am always very careful to—to provide the smoke for my furs."

"That's very sly in you! You flatter the men and let them smoke—that's why they adore you so vehemently!" The short girl ignored the latter part of this sentence and asked: "Do you think it possible to flatter a man, my dear?"

"Do!" responded the tall girl, with a degree of compressed sarcasm which was dangerous. "Why, if I ever run across a man who disdains flattery I shall confess that the times are beyond me and quietly retire to a top shelf with other antiquities. It is the breath of life to every son of Adam."

"Oh, no! their minds are occupied with other things and they don't care for such talk—they never pay any attention to it, and kind of turn it off."

"That is not my experience, for when I have tried that soothing method of taming the moguls of our world they have swallowed it and begged for more."

"Some people say," returned the other, "that it is women who live on flattery instead of the men."

"Pshaw! When I want a new dress I tell papa he gets younger every day and that ever the says I get my eyes from him, and the dear old man says a nice, large check. Men don't know when they are being flattered—women always do because they know exactly how much praise they deserve. Still I—that is, like it, don't you think?"

"I'm sure I can't say," replied the short girl, severely. "I always discourage such silly talk from men?"

"How thoughtful you are to spare them so much brain work! It is an awful bore, too, to invent things!"

"Isn't it? Why, I noticed that the doctor looked quite exhausted the other night after he had been talking to you! I asked him what was the matter, and he said he had been talking to you about your grace on horseback."

"That proves my theory," the tall girl said, unexpectedly rallying. "He told you that in a spirit of revenge."

"Why revenge?" "Because I didn't praise his article on bacilli everyone is talking of. He mentioned it and I said I hadn't read it. Oh, a man's self-love is an awful thing!"

"According to that," spoke up the small girl, "compliments are a matter of give and take—none given until full value has been received from the other side. One would almost have to keep an account-book in order to get the balance straight."

"Can't keep my balance straight," yawned the tall girl languidly. "I'm always hopelessly in debt—men will persist in telling a person pleasant truths, you know."

"I don't know, lately," retorted the small girl, as she paused preparatory to diving into a store, "because I was satiated with compliments and refused to hear any more in self-defense. Good-by, love."

"Adieu, dearest." And the buildings did not fall.—Chicago Tribune.

AN ORDINANCE relative to the preservation of the public health, and the duties and liabilities of the board of health.

The city of Marquette ordains: Sec. 1.—The board of health of the city of Marquette shall have, possess and exercise all the powers given by the charter of the said city of Marquette and the general statutes of the state of Michigan relating to boards of health, in addition to those hereinafter enumerated.

Sec. 2. Said board of health shall have power and it shall be their duty to take such measures as they shall deem effectual to prevent the entrance of any pestilential or infectious disease into the city; to stop, detain and examine, and, if deemed best by said board, to quarantine for that purpose every person, vessel, ship, train or other conveyance coming from any place infested or believed to be infested with such a disease; to establish, maintain and regulate a pest house or hospital; to cause any person not being a resident of the city, or if a resident, who is not an inhabitant of the state, who shall be, or is suspected of being infected with any such disease, to be sent back to the place whence he or she came, or to be sent to such pest house or hospital; to cause any resident of the city infected with any such disease to be removed to such pest house or hospital, if the health officer and two other physicians, including the attending physician of the sick person, if he shall have one, shall certify that the removal of such person is necessary for the public health; provided it can be done with safety to the patient; to remove from the city and deposit any furniture, wearing apparel or goods, wares or merchandise, or other articles of property of any kind which shall be suspected of being tainted or infected with any pestilence or which shall be, or be likely to pass into such a state as to generate or propagate disease; to require the occupants of any dwelling house, store, shop or any other building in which there shall be any person sick with any contagious or infectious disease, to put up and maintain in a conspicuous place on the front of said dwelling house, store, shop or other building, a card or sign to be furnished by the board, on which shall be written or printed in large letters the name of the contagious or infectious disease from which the person so sick may be suffering; and in case of the neglect or refusal of any person to comply with such requirement to remove the patient therefrom to the pest house or hospital, and to do all acts which they shall deem necessary and expedient for the preservation of health and suppression of disease in the city and to carry into effect and execute the powers hereby granted.

Sec. 3. The owner, driver, conductor, master or person in charge of any stage, steamboat, vessel, railroad car or other public conveyance, which shall enter the city, having on board any person sick of malignant fever, or pestilential or infectious disease, shall within two hours after the arrival of such sick person, report in writing the fact, with the name of such person and the house or place where he was put down in the city, to the mayor or some member of the board of health.

Sec. 4. No person shall knowingly bring or procure, or cause to be brought into the city, any property of any kind, tainted or infected with any malignant fever, or pestilential or infectious disease.

Sec. 5. Every keeper of a hotel, inn, boarding house or lodging house in the city, who shall have in his house at any time any sick traveler, stranger or stranger, shall report the fact, and name of the person, in writing, within six hours after he came to board, or was taken six thereon, to the mayor or some member of the board of health, and every physician in the city shall report under his hand to one of the officers above named, the name, residence and disease of every patient whom he shall have sick of any infectious or pestilential disease, within six hours after he shall have visited such patient.

Sec. 6. All bills imposed under this ordinance shall be, when collected, paid into the city treasury and covered into the general fund of the city of Marquette.

Sec. 7. The said board of health shall meet in the common council chamber of this city of Marquette at such times as the members shall determine, and the recorder of the city shall be clerk of the board and shall keep a record of the proceedings of such meetings and preserve the same in his office. Meetings of the board may be called forthwith by any member of the board, by giving oral or written notice to the members, and any five members of the board being present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 8. No person having the small pox or varioloid, or other contagious disease hanging about the city, and all persons having small pox, varioloid or other contagious or infectious disease, are hereby required to be kept closely confined within their respective dwellings or places of abode and no person who has been confined with such disease, shall leave his or her place of abode and go about the city, until he or she is furnished with a certificate of the health officer, that it can be done without communicating the disease to others; and the health officer shall furnish such certificate without charge.

Sec. 9. It shall be the duty of each member of the board of health to take care and charge of the ward in which he resides, to ascertain any nuisance which may exist in his ward, and to report in writing to the board; to enter upon the premises and into the house of every person in his ward as often as he shall deem necessary or the board of health shall order, and to examine into the health, cleanliness and the number of persons inhabiting such house, and inspect the cellars, vaults, privies and sewers on such premises.

Sec. 10. Each member of the board of health shall, upon discovering any person who shall be infected with a malignant or infectious disease, promptly notify the health officer of said board.

Sec. 11. Such board shall not provide assistance or necessaries for any infected person at his, her or their residence, unless such person cannot be removed to the pest house, under the provisions of this ordinance, and such board shall only in such case furnish assistance and necessaries for those actually sick or infected; in case any member of the same family, not sick or infected, shall be in want of provisions or assistance, it shall be the duty of such board of health to notify the director of the poor thereof, but such board shall not have any power to furnish such persons with provisions or other necessities, except medicines as a preventive of disease.

Sec. 12. All bills for necessaries furnished by order of such board of health shall be sworn to, and shall be presented to the controller, audited and paid, in the same manner as other bills against the city of Marquette; and in case it is intended, and is proper, to present such bill to the county of Marquette for payment, then the board of health, through its chairman, shall certify to the said county that the person himself, in whose behalf the bill has been made, his parents or other person who may be liable for his support, is unable to pay the same.

Sec. 13. Any failure to comply with, or violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be cause for fine or imprisonment, or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, the fine not to exceed $100 with costs, nor the imprisonment more than 30 days. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent or in any way contravening the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Adopted May 7, A. D. 1894. THOMAS MEADS, Recorder.

Approved May 7, A. D. 1894. B. G. PEARL, Acting Mayor.

The last chance of the consumptive is usually taken when he "goes south." Alas how many never return alive! Dr. Fenner's Golden Relief taken in 5 drop doses on a small lump of sugar once in two hours, CURES CONSUMPTION. It has been stigmatized as a "cure all." The unjust. It claims to cure but one disease, viz.: INFLAMMATION. But that appearing in so many forms makes a long list of names. It certainly looks like a big jump from coughs and felons to consumption. But each is inflammation, and inflammation can no more thrive under the application of this remedy than potato bugs can under Paris green. It kills it. If no inflammation then there would be no consumption: arrest it and you arrest the consumption. Mr. S. L. Amphlett, Clearmont, South Dakota, writes: "I am a well man and cannot say enough in praise of Golden Relief. Took it as directed. In two weeks cough had ceased and throat trouble of years standing disappeared. The Golden Relief is all you claim for it. I feel like a new man." This is the brief tale of a man who had had the "hectic flush" and was about to take the "last chance" of "going south." He was induced to use Golden Relief. He did not "go south." To-day he is a well man. Try it. If not satisfied, with results, money refunded. No narcotics, no mineral poisons in it. Safe and certain. Never disappointed. Official testimonials cures LaGrippe. Take a bottle home to-day.

OWENS ON THE STUMP.

Ringed Speech by the Chief Opponent to the Disreputable Breckinridge.

LATTER DENOUNCED BUT IS NEVER NAMED.

Appeals to Kentuckians Not to Vote for Self-Confessed Adulterer and State's Disgrace.

CONFIDENT OF THE RESULT.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., May 22.—Notwithstanding the threatening and cold weather 2,000 people crowded and wedged themselves into the court house to hear W. C. Owens, candidate for congress against Colonel Breckinridge, make his first speech.

Those who expected the Scott county man to make a namby-pamby speech were disappointed for he denounced Colonel Breckinridge in the most powerful manner. He did not use that man's name, however, nor did he employ language that could not be used by the most skilled diplomat.

But every sentence cut like a two-edged sword and the applause during the castigation of Kentucky's silver-tongued son was deafening. At times in the house rose to their feet, waved their umbrellas and hats, endorsing in the most forcible way the strong points made by the speaker.

The speech was regarded by the oldest politicians present as a masterpiece and it stamps Mr. Owens as being fully able to measure strength with Mr. Breckinridge at any time. Mr. Owens said his candidacy did not depend for success upon the breaking down of the respect which people have always had for the courts of this country.

DEMOCRACY NOT IN DANGER. "To elect me it is not necessary to charge that more than one-half of our Democratic friends and the good women of our district have become slanderers; to elect me, it is not necessary to tear the vestments from the sacred altar and proclaim that the ministers of holy religion have claimed their high calling and entered into a league with the devil to destroy the Lord's anointed (tremendous applause)."

"But do not get enthusiastic; because there is something to be said on the other side of the question, for should I be defeated the Democratic party will continue to do business at the old stand. I cannot hope, therefore, to induce you to believe that I am a great political necessity called to meet some special emergency in the affairs of the nation—that is copyrighted for the use of the sitting member, who never feels his seat in congress in danger; that he does not discover some impending crisis, some terrible calamity threatening the nation—and you will observe that as often as these crises do arise they arise during his own incumbency."

"But despite these absurd claims, the most ridiculous claim, imaginable, you are not excused from the discharge of your duty, for in the coming months of the present year you are to write a chapter in the history of this district, by which you will tell not only the world of today, but the coming generations what manner of people you are. Not in anger, yet not in sympathy, but calmly and dispassionately in the clear, cold light of duty you must discharge that task."

IMMORAL MAN CANNOT WIN. "I want to say a word also to the moral classes, those who fear the objectionable contestant will retain his present position. In all the world's history no man under such circumstances was ever elected by the votes of a free people to a post of honor, and it cannot be that under the blaze of the nineteenth century civilization and here in the garden of the gods we have developed a more immoral and obtuse people than the world has ever seen. No man can hope to win a verdict from intelligence and from virtue with every moral force at variance with his candidacy."

"Remember, as you write your verdict, 60,000,000 people await Kentucky's answer to the impudent and defiant challenge of aroused crime and brazen infamy. In the name of injured manhood and womanhood of Kentucky I say to you, umband the stocks that hold your feet and go to the polls and vote against this self-confessed adulterer."

RESOLUTIONS WERE MADE. Resolutions were adopted by a rising vote endorsing Mr. Owens as a man above reproach. Other speeches were made endorsing Owens.

RIOTOUS DOCK-WOLFPERS.

Union Stavedores Object to the Way O'Connor's Men Work.

CHICAGO, May 22.—Three hundred men armed with clubs, coupling pins and revolvers, marched upon the docks of the Western Transit company tonight, where a gang of men was at work, employed by O'Connor & Co., of Buffalo. Weapons were freely used but the timely arrival of the police averted a serious riot. James Williams was shot through the ear and a number of others were badly beaten. The mob was composed of stavedores who objected to O'Connor's men because they unloaded vessels by the ton and the union demands that they be paid by the hour.

WOMAN HORSEWHIPS A MINISTER.

Mrs. Miller Accuses Mr. Hooper of Making Improper Proposals.

CADILLAC, Mich., May 22.—Rev. Mr. Hooper, Presbyterian minister of this city, was horsewhipped on the street this afternoon by Mrs. G. Miller. Trouble between the contending parties had been brewing some time and a scandal was not unexpected. A complaint against Mr. Hooper for improper advances towards Mrs. Miller was recently investigated by the elders of the church, but the pastor denied the charges, and stated that at a pastoral visit the woman made seductive advances toward him, which he claims to have repulsed. As he today passed a drug store she rushed out and with a horsewhip dealt him several blows. Her husband, who stood close by, also attacked Hooper, but was decidedly worsted, as Hooper is an athlete. Arrests have followed.

The motion was rejected, 275 to 225. The premier then left the chamber and the ministers later tendered their resignations to President Carnot.

IMMIGRANT FROM LAPLAND.

Dressed in a Lines Duster, He Makes Himself at Home Everywhere.

It will doubtless prove a gratifying piece of information about an old and familiar and almost friendly enemy that he hails from Lapland originally. The entomologist states that, "although the cockroach is a universal feeder, it prefers wheat flour to all other articles of diet. It is, therefore, a common pest about bakeries, and, notwithstanding the utmost care on the part of the baker, it sometimes becomes imbedded in the dough and baked in the loaf." This rather unexpected defense of the baker on the part of the entomologist is not as appealing to your displeasure as the scientist would doubtless have it, as you pluck the plump and well preserved ectobia from your roll and deposit it on the edge of your plate as though it were a raisin.

GOVERNOR RICH IS AHEAD.

LANSING, Mich., May 22.—The supreme court filed an opinion this afternoon in the case of Governor Rich against the board of state canvassers and a mandamus was issued directing the board to convene and reconvene the vote of 1891 on the Ellis salary amendment, making corrections in the vote of Gratiot and Houghton counties. A CARDINAL'S SIMPLE LIFE.

Outward Pomp Is But the Covering of Unostentatious Austerity.

The private life of a prince of the church is always a subject of wonder to the curious. They are astounded at its simplicity, and almost disappointed at what they would term its unromantic character. The cardinal's palace whether its exterior be of princely appearance or not, is certainly very plain within. His apartments are not adorned with luxurious profusion, and usually contain only such articles of furniture as the demands of his work require.

I remember a visit to the rooms of the late Cardinal Simoni, in the Propaganda palace, and was struck by the absence of everything suggesting a life of ease, writes Rev. F. A. Cunningham in Donahoe's Magazine. The three or four antechambers contained but a few chairs for the accommodation of those awaiting an audience. There was nothing remarkable in any of them. The reception room itself is even more plain, a small apartment containing a long table with the usual covering of green cloth, a dozen common chairs for the use of the secretaries, a crucifix and a few pictures. The only object of absolute worth in the whole suite of apartments was the grand old man himself, simple as a child, yet holding in his hand the religious government of over twenty-five million people.

Rising at an early hour, the cardinal's first duties are immediately to God. Morning prayer, mass and meditation precede the slight breakfast of black coffee, with one or two rolls. His morning is occupied with the routine of business, and it is only in the evening that he can find the few hours of leisure for society.

In the social circle, sufficiently large at Rome, the cardinal appears most to advantage. It is then, in the brilliant play of learning and wit, that he is forced to display those charming qualities that must endow him for his high position.

The outward pomp, however, which etiquette requires of him, is but the covering of a simple, unostentatious life; and if at the end of the day he may be seen walking out upon the Pincian hill, like other people, and talking a little rest and recreation, we cannot deny that he has earned it well.

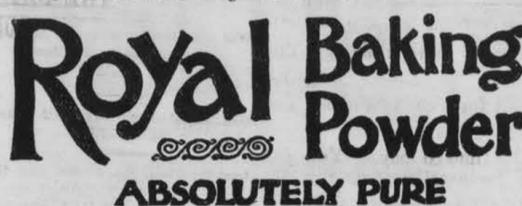

Saney Usurpers.

The purple martin, a noisy, picturesque and graceful bird, once very abundant a little south of New York, is one of the native birds that have been driven out by the immigrant English sparrows. It used to be that a suitable bird box, perched high in air, was quickly peopled with martins that returned to it year after year, and made it the center of eccentric flights and beautiful curves as well as a home of somewhat vociferous music. Now such a bird box is promptly preempted by the swarming sparrows.

—It is said that the value of Peruvian bark was first discovered by the fact that sick animals in Peru were observed to gnaw the bark of a certain tree. Men tried the same remedy with beneficial results and quinine was given to the world.

SOON FORGOTTEN.

A Sad Comment Upon the Death of Napoleon Bonaparte.

The vanity of human endeavor, when it is directed toward the attainment of selfish ends, was never better illustrated than by the manner in which the news of the death of Napoleon Bonaparte at St. Helena was received in Paris. Napoleon had been the master of Europe; he had reached the height of human glory, and in France, and particularly in Paris, all things had centered around his name.

Quite recently the memoirs of Louis Aime Martin, a French man of letters of the early part of the present century, and an acute observer of men and affairs in his time, have been published in Paris for the first time. In them, under date of July 6, 1821, occurs a note which shows what the name of the "Emperor Napoleon" had become at that time.

"Bonaparte is dead," says Martin, "and the news is repeated coldly and forgotten, and people go on to talk of other things. I wished particularly to know what effect this news would have upon the people. I passed the Palais-Royal. A public crier called: 'Here's your account of the death of Bonaparte!'"

"This cry, which it seemed must have appalled Europe, was without effect; no one listened. There was not a purchaser of the man's wares; everyone was indifferent. 'I entered several cafes, and found the same indifference—Coldness everywhere; no one's intelligence was touched. I can not answer for the hearts, but this man had inspired more of astonishment than of love."

"In one cafe I heard people talking about his death, and then they went on to talk about the censorship law, which is discussed so much to-day, and which will be forgotten to-morrow. And this is glory!"—Youth's Companion.

Duelling Abroad.

"I challenge you to a duel."

"Accepted."

"Your choice of weapons—daggers or pistols?"

"Neither. Winter ascent of Mont Blanc, rotten rope—three feet distance."

—Fliegende Blaetter.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE PEST.

The Grasshopper Crop Is One That Never Fails.

Farmers Get One Dollar a Bushel from the State for Harvesting the Live and Destructive Insects.

New Hampshire has a new crop. Grasshoppers. The state pays the farmers for the product. The price is one dollar a bushel. Mr. A. T. Burleigh, of Franklin, last year gathered ninety bushels, for which he received ninety dollars. Of course the state does not pay for the cultivation of the insects. They are a plague, and a bounty of one dollar per bushel is provided by law for their destruction.

A Boston Herald writer met Mr. Burleigh the other day, and was led by curiosity to inquire how ninety bushels of the lively little fellows could be captured.

The farmers have been troubled by the grasshoppers more or less for the past twelve years," said Mr. Burleigh. "We do not know where they originated or how they came, but they are here, and it seems that they have come to stay. They are worse some years than others. In 1885 I caught one hundred and nineteen bushels. My best catch was thirty-nine bushels in one day. In an area two miles long and one mile and a half wide five hundred bushels were caught and destroyed, besides those plowed in when too small to hop out of the furrow. These grasshoppers hatch about the first of June, and are so small one would not notice them were it not for the rustling noise they make hopping in the grass. At this period you can destroy them only by plowing them in."

"Pardon me, but this process would bring you no bounty. What I wish to know is how you catch them."

"I was about to say that those which are not plowed in we endeavor to catch. In order to do this they must be about half grown and able to jump or fly. We have constructed a machine which carries two pans of galvanized iron eight feet long, sixteen inches wide, four inches deep, and having a back eighteen inches high. These pans are divided into three sections and fastened to wooden shoes, into which they are set about one and one-half inches from the ground. This apparatus is attached to a pair of wheels with a long axle—one that runs through the wheels about eighteen inches being the best. The pans are filled with an emulsion—either kerosene and water, soft soap and water, chloride of lime and water, or any of the soap powders are good. Each section of the pans holds about three gallons of water, and has to be refilled for each catch. To catch the grasshoppers to advantage one should take them early in the morning or at sunset.

when they are on the grass feeding. Two men and two horses are needed for each machine, as one horse could not stand it to drag the heavy apparatus through the grass, for one must drive fast to catch the little pests."

"What is the extent of the injury they are capable of inflicting?"

"To tell how much damage they do is like valuing something you do not have. In three days they will spoil a piece of grass that would cut two tons per acre, and in one day they have destroyed a half acre of onions."

"Have you endeavored to get rid of the intruders by other methods?"

"Yes. The grasshoppers hatch every season. You can easily find their eggs in September or October, or in the spring. We have tried burning, rolling and drowning, as well as plowing, but the grasshopper machine is the only thing that will conquer them. There is but a week or ten days that you can catch them, this being when they are about half-grown, and before they can fly far. The bounty of one dollar per bushel, which we receive from the state, just about pays for the time and expense of catching."

"I suppose the farmers generally are waging war on the hoppers?"

"To a greater or less extent all of them are fighting them. A neighbor of mine caught sixteen bushels last season."

"What was your loss last year?"

"They destroyed more than half of my hay crop, spoiled six acres of oats, ruined half an acre of onions, and damaged my carrots to the extent of forty or fifty dollars, besides clearing out an acre of beans so clean you would not know that anything had been planted on the land."

The New Hampshire law, offering a bounty for grasshoppers, was passed in 1891. At the office of the secretary of state in Concord it was learned that "in 1844 there appeared on one or two farms in Franklin and one farm in Canterbury a certain species of grasshopper, or locust, that was very destructive to vegetation. The insects did not move around much, but ate everything clean where they located, and became so thick that they could be collected in large quantities. They differ from the common grasshopper in that they are not so lively and come in much greater numbers. It was to cause their extermination that the law was passed. Of the common kind of grasshoppers a bushel could hardly be collected in a season, but these locusts are so plentiful that they can be gathered by the bushel, and farmers rig up machinery for the purpose."

and his brothers. Its cost was six hundred thousand marks, and its principles of construction are not to be made public. There are armored turrets that rise, fire their guns and instantly sink out of view. It is said that a number of new principles are embodied in the construction of this fortress, but they are for the present to remain secrets for political reasons.

SEWAGE IN VILLAGES.

Easily Disposed of by the Irrigation or Filtration Process.

The method of disposal by irrigation or filtration is an extremely flexible one. It is susceptible of modifications that will make it suitable for a great variety of circumstances, and for a wide range of soil and of surface configuration.

It is equally available for a single house, for a village, or for a town, and its processes are so nearly automatic that its use on a small scale entails no material cost or care in maintenance. With a small area for surface distribution near the house, it is only necessary to provide a simple intermittent flush-tank, with an outlet that can be changed to either of the two or three alternate sections into which the area is divided, each large enough to absorb a few hundred gallons of water. Little attention will be needed beyond the periodic directing of the flow to one section or to the other. It is desirable that this ground should be withdrawn from full sight, but only for esthetic reasons; there will be no odor.

In like manner the sewage from a large hotel, or from a dozen houses, or from a village or a town, may be controlled with only such increase of cost and attention as the large service entails. The important recent improvements in methods of application have been in the direction of simplicity, and the following facts are now fully established:

1. House drainage is practically odorless when first produced. It does not become offensive unless retained until it putrefies—only after a day or more.

2. If applied when fresh to the surface of suitable ground, its water is removed in a condition fit even for safe drinking, and its impurities are completely destroyed, both in winter and summer, without offense or danger of any kind.

In short, the bugbear of sewage disposal has been done away with, and we are now in a position to adopt simple and unobjectionable methods, which will produce a perfectly satisfactory result in all but very exceptional cases.—Col. George E. Waring, in Century.

SPORTS AT UNION PARK.

Ishpeming People Will Find Fun Abounding There Memorial Day.

AN UNUSUALLY FINE PROGRAM ARRANGED.

They Went Down in the Mud—Red Men's Re-union at Red Jacket Board of Review in Session.

DECORATION DAY SPORTS.

The program of sports for Decoration Day, one week from today, at Union Park has been completed and can be found announced in full elsewhere in today's number of THE MINING JOURNAL. The exercises will begin at half-past one in the afternoon and will continue until nearly 6. In horse racing there will be a trotting match for gentlemen's driving horses. Four cash prizes are offered, the first $50, the second $25, the third $15 and the fourth $10. Ten per cent. entrance fee will be charged. Several horses have been entered for this race and more are coming in. A very exciting and interesting race is assured.

Perhaps one of the best exhibitions on the program will be the race between a horse and James Tucker on his bicycle. The owner of the trotting broncho has consented to put the horse in the race and Hamilton Stewart, who formerly owned the nag, will quite likely drive him. The race will be three miles, the horse to trot the entire distance. The purse for the winner is $25. Tucker is said to be in excellent trim for racing and will give the broncho a hard run for first place.

A baseball match between the Setters and Baragas has been arranged. The purse offered is $25. An interesting game may be looked for as both clubs play pretty fair ball. The Baraga team has three Ishpeming boys playing with it, which will tend to create considerable interest among the lovers of the game here.

There will also be a team bicycle race, one mile, between Ishpeming and Negaunee wheelmen. The winners of this will be given a handsome gold medal.

A one-mile "open" bicycle race will also be run. The prize offered to the winner of this match is a cyclometer.

A cricket match between the Sir Humphrey Davey team of Ishpeming and a team from Negaunee is on the bill. The winning team will be given a new ball and bat. It is said the teams have already been organized and a good game is anticipated.

The admission has been placed at twenty-five cents. Considering the amount of amusement offered this is certainly a very low admission price. The South Shore will make a special rate of one fare for the round trip from all points from Houghton to Ishpeming and from Marquette to Ishpeming.

The refreshment stand at the park will be completed by the contractor today. The grounds and track are being put in good shape by the man in charge of the place.

The Students Tumbled.

Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 two bus loads of Houghton Mining School students came in from the Ropes gold mine, where they had spent the forenoon. The teams were coming along pretty close together and at a fairly rapid rate. Just as the leading bus was crossing the street car track, near the South Shore depot at the intersection of First and Canda streets one of the wheels struck the rails in such a way as to break it, letting the load of students to the ground. The professor who sat in the front seat beside the driver was thrown headlong into the street, but fortunately escaped injury. His clothes were completely covered with hematite mud but he was real thankful that he escaped so well under the circumstances. One of the other boys received slight bruises about the face while another pulled himself out of the mire with one hand pretty thoroughly covered with gore, but no cuts or bruises of a painful or serious nature were visible.

The students left at 4 o'clock in the afternoon for Iron Mountain, where they will visit the mines there for ten days or two weeks. They were here about three weeks in all.

Red Men's Re-Union.

The re-union of the Improved Order of Red Men of Michigan will be held at Red Jacket this year. The dates selected for the celebration are Tuesday and Wednesday, June 19 and 20. It is not likely that the Ishpeming society will turn out in a body, but several of the members will attend. The South Shore company has offered a special rate of a fare and a fifth for the round trip. In case a sufficient number to fill one or more cars can be secured the company will provide them with cars for their own special use. At a meeting of the local lodge Monday evening William Verran was selected as delegate to the great council, which will convene on the 19th. Nathaniel Rowe was named as alternate.

Board of Review in Session.

The mayor and city council was in session as a board of review all yesterday, from 9 o'clock in the morning, at the city building reviewing the assessment roll just completed by the assessor, John S. Mennie. Very few changes were made in the roll, as it apparently met the general approval of the board. Any suggestions that were made on the board will be taken into consideration by the assessor and all changes necessary will be made prior to next Monday and Tuesday, when the roll will be ready for examination by the taxpayers generally. Mr. Mennie seems to have made a satisfactory roll and one that will not require any great amount of revising.

Made Good Time.

Sunday morning between 7 and 8 o'clock Conductor John Stager of the Chicago & Northwestern line, who is somewhat of an expert bicycle rider, covered the distance between the Nelson House in this city and the Palmer mine store, about eight and one-half miles, in twenty-nine minutes. This is better time by several minutes than has yet been made going over that road. On the return trip Mr. Stager traveled slowly and was back at the Nelson House in one hour and twenty minutes from the time he started.

CURIOUS LITTLE ANIMALS. Some Poor Relations with Whom We Are Not Well Acquainted.

When one speaks of "poor relations" among the lower animals, the term generally calls up a mental vision of some of the anthropoid apes--of the gorillas of which Du Chailu gave such thrilling accounts; of the little orang that Wallace tended so carefully, or of "Sally," taught by Prof. Romanes to count; or, to come down a step lower, of the mandrill "Jerry," formerly the glory of the Surrey gardens, who was wont to solace himself with weak gin and water and a pipe, "just like any Christian."

The viscachas, which belongs to the same family as the rabbit and hare, ranges over South America from Buenos Ayres to Patagonia. Nine visitors out of ten, when they see it for the first time in the small mammals' house, at the zoological gardens, exclaim: "What an ugly creature!" forgetful of the nursery dictum about ugliness, its appearance certainly is peculiar, for it is clad in grayish fur, with two dark stripes across the face, on each side of which are large, hairy appendages, that one may call whiskers or mustaches, as one pleases, and that certainly make the creature look extremely fierce.

On the opposite side lives the hyrax, a close relation of the "coney" of Scripture, but not the same species, though that may often be found here. On account of structural peculiarities, these animals have a whole sub-order to themselves, though they were formerly classed with the rabbit and hare, and later with the pachyderms.

Harsh, guttural sounds from the other side of the house warn us that a "poor relation" dwelling there feels slighted. A word or two will keep "Benny" silent, but not at rest, for the dark, pointed head always restlessly to and fro, and then the animal rears up against the bars, as if to make sure that it shall not be overlooked through any want of self-assertiveness.

When the army of Islam goes to war with the Sikhs, it is called "Externalization of the hellish good-for-nothing Gurus." The faithful, when they die, drink the sharab (which they ought not to do), or sherbet of martyrdom; sometimes they pluck fruit from the fig tree of immortality. On the contrary, their enemies (may their mouths be crammed with mud) are sent in swarms to hell, and there purified of their foul existence.

Stomachs That Won't Work. That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest It, Make the Head Heavy and the Nerves Weak.

Need Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical, but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried. Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing, or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less the trouble the fewer Tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion, or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation, depression, "blues," these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting, or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard places and put them in a healthy, active condition.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are prepared only by the Stuart Chemical company of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a package.

Some of their Characteristic Expressions in Regard to Christians. From the earliest times Mohammedan historians, except when in subjection, in describing the death of a Christian, do not say "He died" or "He was killed," but "He went to Jahanna."
