SLAUGHTER OF BOERS.

Dutch Forces Repulsed at Mafeking With Heavy Loss.

BASUTOS IN THE FIELD.

Cannibal Warriors Rise Against the Free State—Success for a British Armored Train.

VICTORY NEWS VIA LONDON

London, Oct. 17.—A special from Cape Town says:

Three hundred Boers and eighteen British were killed in battle at Mafeking.

Lorenzo Marques, Delagoa Bay, Oct. 17.—Refugees from the Transvaal report that the Boers have been repulsed at Mafeking, sustaining heavy losses.

BRITISH MADE A SORTIE.

London, Oct. 17.—Colonel Baden-Powell made a sortie from Mafeking in force and attacked the Boers who are investing the town. After fierce fighting the British carried the day.

Cape Town, Oct. 17.—Allwal North, Cape Colony, now is isolated. From Colesburg and other towns come persistent reiterated reports of the Boers attacking Mafeking, being thrice repulsed with heavy losses.

Colesburg, Oct. 17.—It is persistently reported from widely different sources that a large force of Boers resolutely attacked Mafeking Friday last, and after several hours' fighting were repulsed with a heavy loss.

PRETORIA CONFIRMS DEFEAT.

Pretoria, Oct. 17.—There was heavy fighting this morning north of Mafeking. An armored train opened fire on a Boer command. One burgher was killed and two wounded. A second engagement followed, in which nine British were wounded.

Further dispatches say that fighting continues north of Mafeking. Two burghers were killed and three wounded.

Cape Town, Oct. 17.—Communication with Delagoa Bay, a station sixty miles south of Kimberley, is still open. It is the general belief here from items of intelligence received that the Boers actually attacked Mafeking and were repulsed. The reports of the continued fighting there are regarded as proving that the Boers failed to score success.

NO ADVICES OFFICIALLY.

London, Oct. 17.—The war office issued the following bulletin regarding the situation in South Africa at 7 o'clock this evening: "No news of any importance has been received since yesterday's notice."

A special dispatch from Pretoria says the Boers destroyed the Bechuanaaland railway Friday night from Lobatsi to Arvoeg Kop.

The Standard's Dundee correspondent, telegraphing Monday night, says: "The Boers have brought artillery from Newcastle and are destroying the railway at Ingagane in order to prevent the approach of our armored trains."

INTEREST IN RHODES' FATE.

A question that is agitating the people in a high degree is whether or not Cecil Rhodes will be captured. He is at Kimberley, in Bechuanaaland, now besieged. Rhodes boasted last Friday that he felt as safe as in Piccadilly, but his vaunt is now beginning to wear a different aspect. The defending force consists of 2,000 men mostly engaged on the De Beers mines. A large proportion are raw levies, unaccustomed to the use of the rifle. The Boer force investing the town is estimated at 4,000, with several guns. The reports give good accounts of the defense works, which consist of refuse blue clay from the diamond mines.

CANNIBALS ON WAR PATH.

BASUTO TRIBESMEN FIGHTING AGAINST THE FREE STATE.

London, Oct. 18.—The Morning Post's Ladysmith correspondent telegraphs that the Basutos have risen against the Free State.

The reported uprising of the warriors of Basutoland is not surprising, in view of the fact that since 1863 the Basutos have been British subjects, having been taken under the wing of the British empire to protect them from extermination by the Boers of the Free State, against which they are now said to have risen. At the last report the Basutos numbered 127,000 people, of which 21,000 were fighting warriors. The tribe is one of the few in South Africa, which, until recent years, practiced cannibalism. The territory they occupy immediately adjoins that of the Orange Free State, and is said to be the most fertile in all South Africa. The tribe pays a hut tax to the British government amounting to $20,000 a year. It also contributes $10,000 a year in other taxes.

ANOTHER BRITISH VICTORY.

FORCE WITH AN ARMORED TRAIN KILLS FIVE OF THE ENEMY IN VICINITY OF SPYTFONTEIN.

Kimberley, Oct. 17.—An armored train, while reconnoitering near Spytfontein today engaged the Boers, killing five and wounding seven. The British had no losses. The train returned to Kimberley unharmed.

The crew of the armored train say the Boers fired thirteen shells, but their aim was wretched and not a single shot struck the train, which then made bold to approach nearer and opened fire with Maxims. The burghers replied with heavy rifles, again shooting wildly. Only three or four bullets struck the train. Subsequently the crew learned the extent of the Boer casualties, as stated above. No member of the British force was touched.

MAXIMS DID GREAT WORK.

London, Oct. 17.—The skirmish near Spytfontein, according to a Cape Town special cablegram, was quite lively. The armored train, with a detachment of the Lancaster regiment, approached unmolested until within range, when the Boers opened fire. The Maxims were instantly set at work and did great execution among the burghers. The latter used artillery, but ineffectively. The armored train returned to Kimberley unharmed.

Cape Town, Oct. 17.—It is reported the Boers have had an engagement with another armored train from Rhodesia.

MUNITIONS HEADED OFF.

BRITISH CRUISER FRUSTRATES AN ATTEMPT TO CONVEY SUPPLIES TO THE TRANSVAAL.

Port Said, Oct. 17.—The German steamer Kaiser, from Hamburg, is disembarking at the entrance to the Suez canal four thousand pieces of ammunition consigned to the Transvaal. This step is taken in order to avoid seizure in the Red sea by British cruisers. The ammunition will probably be reembarked for Hamburg on board the steamer Herzog, which is shortly expected here. The Kaiser was shadowed by the British second-class cruiser, Thetis, through the Mediterranean. The Thetis passed into the canal this morning. It is reported several German officers are on board the Kaiser bound for the Transvaal.

ENGLISH PARTIES UNITED.

ALL SAVE A FEW IRISH MEMBERS PLEDGE SUPPORT TO THE GOVERNMENT—WAR SESSION OF PARLIAMENT NOW IS ON.

London, Oct. 17.—Parliament was convened today in extra session to consider the South African situation. After hearing the queen's speech, the session was adjourned till 4 p. m.

LIBERALS WITH SALISBURY.

In the house of commons, on reconvening, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, said parliament had been summoned to give its approval to the early steps of the war. Never had the house met in circumstances more serious or amid conditions engaging to a greater degree the profound interest of the British people. The demand by the government of the South African Republic were such as to make it impossible for the government of any self-respecting country ever to take them into consideration. "Actual hostilities have commenced," said Henry, "and active aggression has been committed which it is the plain duty of our ministers of parliament and of the people to resist. There will be no disposition on the part of this house to place any obstacle in the way of granting such supplies, such powers, to the crown as may be necessary to secure the rapid and effective prosecution of a war commenced to vindicate our right." The leader of the opposition then went on to congratulate the government upon the choice made of the officers to whom the main charge of the "expedition" had been given.

Mr. Balfour, who was received with loud cheering, expressed satisfaction at the declaration of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, with much of which, he said, he was himself in hearty agreement.

IRISH HEARD IN PROTEST.

John Dillon, Nationalist member of the East division of Mayo, moved an amendment to the address to the queen representing that the war had been caused by the assertion of claims in direct violation of the terms of the convention of 1884, and proposing an independent arbitration for the settlement of the differences between the two governments. Dillon claimed his amendment would appeal to an overwhelming majority of the civilized world outside of England. It was not a war, he continued, for the freedom of the outlanders, but a war against the yoke of Cecil Rhodes being put upon these poor people.

Henry Labouchere, Liberal member from Northampton, seconded the amendment, declaring the war the absolute act of Secretary Chamberlain. "If there had been no Rhodes, or if Lord Salisbury had been in the colonial office," said the speaker, "there would have been no war. There is too much of stock exchange about the whole business."

After some sharp passages between Colonel Edward J. Sanderson, who sits for North Armagh in the Conservative interest, and several of the Irish members, a division was taken on Dillon's amendment, which was rejected by a vote of 222 to 54. The minority consisted mainly of Irish members and a few Radicals.

PATRIOTISM OF THE LORDS.

The house of lords reassembled at 4 o'clock, the floor and galleries being crowded. The Marquis of Granby, in moving the address of the peers in reply to the queen's speech, said the present situation had been brought about by the deliberate action of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State government. The difficulty had been accumulating for years. He went on to dwell upon the grievances of the outlanders, and emphatically declared that the British government had resorted to every possible means for effecting a peaceful issue.

The Earl of Kimberley, Liberal (opposition) leader, said parliament had been summoned at a solemn moment when the Britons found themselves engaged in a war which was, in some of its aspects, a civil war. He said the government could not have sent any other reply than they did to the extraordinary ultimatum of the Transvaal. "The negotiations

SHAMROCK DISABLED.

Columbia Sails Over the Course Alone to Victory Number Two.

CHALLENGER TOWED BACK.

Placed Hors de Combat by the Snapping of Her Topmast Soon After Starting.

DEFENDER WAS LEADING.

New York, Oct. 17.—The topmast of the cup challenger Shamrock was carried away twenty-five minutes after crossing the starting line today and her enormous club sail came rattling down, leaving her hopelessly crippled. Captain Hogarth immediately abandoned the race and the challenger Columbia continued over the course alone, placing to her credit the second of the races for America's cup.

It is unfortunate the defender should have been the beneficiary of an accident, but the rule is ironclad. If crippled before the start, time for repairs is allowed, but once over the line if anything is carried away the sufferer must make such repairs as he can, or if rendered hors de combat, as Shamrock was today, he must take the consequences.

Had the accident not occurred, however, it is believed the Yankee boat would have repeated the beating she gave the challenger yesterday. During the twenty-five minutes of racing Columbia had established a lead of more than three hundred yards on the weather bow.

FINE BREEZE BLOWING.

Clear weather and a fine breeze greeted the skippers and crews of the racing yachts when they "turned to" this morning. Both of the yachts were towed out past the point of the Hook at 9 o'clock, and they each set their mainsails and cast off their tow lines before 9:30. The club topsail of Shamrock was set at 9:40, and was apparently her largest one, wooden spars being used.

The signals for a regular course were set at 10:30, the first leg east by south, the second leg southwest-half south and the third leg north-northwest, the first ten miles to be windward work, the second ten a reach with boom to starboard and the third a reach with boom to port, thirty miles in all.

At one minute before the starting gun, Shamrock, which had been maneuvering southeast of the lights, stood to the northwest, closing in toward it. Coming wind, the latter yacht, with boom to port and the wind abeam, Columbia met Shamrock just as Hogarth was getting ready to luff the yacht sharp around the lightship's stern.

BOATS ALMOST FOULED.

The situation at the gun-fire was almost exactly the same as that between the Defender and Valkyrie III as they approached the line on the day Valkyrie fouled the Defender.

When Shamrock, the moment after the gun was fired, rounded the lightship's stern and luffed sharp up on the wind, Columbia, having been unable to gain the weather berth, had now an overlap half her length on the lee side of Shamrock and so close were they that Shamrock's main boom end as she luffed to her course came dangerously near Columbia's weather shrouds and masthead runner.

Shamrock had certainly the better of the start, and Columbia was placed in a position that few yachts would be able to extricate themselves from without either keeping broad off or fouling. One minute, however, had not passed before Columbia's bowsprit began to show out ahead of Shamrock's.

At 11:02, when the landward gun was fired, Columbia was half a length out from under the lee of her rival, and thirty seconds later, when Shamrock lacked port to get clear of Columbia's back-wind, the latter yacht, by tacking five seconds later, placed herself in a commanding position on Shamrock's weather quarter. The official time of the start was:

Shamrock 11:00:15
Columbia 11:00:17

DOWN WITH A CRASH.

Fifteen minutes after the start Columbia's position was fully two hundred yards dead to the windward of Shamrock, the latter being at that time slightly forward of Columbia's lee beam.

As the breeze freshened both yachts began to put their lee larks down the harder and it seemed, looking at Shamrock's topmast from astern, as if the mast were sprung. At 11:24, with a crash that could be heard far off to the leeward, Shamrock's topmast broke at a point close to the cap and the great club topsail went flying down to the leeward of the mainsail.

Captain Hogarth immediately put Shamrock before the wind and, finding no one on board was hurt, he gybed her and all hands began clearing away the wreck. It was twelve minutes before the crew were able to get the club topsail on deck.

Columbia took in her baby jib topsail and continued on her course, for it had been specially agreed between Messrs. Iselin and Lipton a few days prior to the date set for the first race that, in the event of an accident to either yacht,

AN ARDENT EXPANSIONIST NOW. Keeping tab on the speeches of the president as he was swinging around the western country, it is easily discoverable that he has become very much more of an expansionist through meeting the people.

There is a suggestion in this for the politicians. The president has found the people, wherever he has met them, more advanced expansionists than he was before he left Washington.

ALARMED WITHOUT CAUSE. The Financial News of Wall Street contrasts the slight effect the breaking out of the Transvaal war has had on the money and security market in London with the scare it produced in New York last week.

Ex-President Harrison received $250,000 for his services in the Venezuelan arbitration case, and then he didn't succeed in getting a decision that satisfied the government that employed him.

Comparing the strength of Great Britain with that of the Dutch states in South Africa which have challenged that powerful empire to engage them in battle, it is easy to see what the outcome of the struggle between them must be.

"Resolved, That W. F. Miller be, and is hereby, appointed agent of the county. His duties shall be to have the care of all county lands, payment of taxes on the same, collection of rents, sale, or leasing of same, all of which duties shall be performed subject to the advice of the committee on county lands. He shall have charge of the system of accounts now established for showing the correspondence of accounts and records as kept by the county clerk and county treasurer."

August Krellwitz was reappointed superintendent of the poor for the term of three years, and Hon. A. W. Kerr was elected a member of the board of school examiners for the term of two years.

A resolution was then adopted spreading the state tax on the roll as reported by the auditor general for this county. Upon the county's equalized assessment of $52,000,000 the amount of state tax comes out to a rate of .0027555, and the amounts apportioned to the several townships are as follows:

The bill of W. F. Miller of $300 for originating and keeping for nine months a system of accounts for checking the county clerk's and county treasurer's offices against each other was allowed and ordered paid, and by resolution his salary as county agent in charge of the lands of the county was placed at $50 per month.

The street railway matter was taken up, but after starting to consider the bridge franchise question in committee of the whole the supervisors discovered that it was 12:30 and dinner time and postponed the matter until the next meeting, which will take place on the second Tuesday in November.

JUSTICE COURT JOTTINGS.
The hearing of Eric Macki for shooting Patrick Murphy has again been postponed until Tuesday of next week to await the outcome of Murphy's injuries. The latter is still at Elm River, not at Hancock, as was reported recently.

Alex Colombe had his examination before Justice Brand yesterday afternoon on the charge of selling a team belonging to his father and converting the proceeds to pay the expenses of a bridal trip to Duluth, whence he was brought back by Sheriff Lean. The case was continued until Tuesday of next week.

Mackenzie, the deaf and dumb carpenter who gave Marshal Foley and Officer Armstrong such a tussle when they went to arrest him for drunkenness late Monday afternoon, was brought before Judge Brand yesterday and given a fine of $5 and costs after an amusing trial.

SHERMAN PUNISHED ENOUGH.
LOCATION OF THE MISSING ROBBER BRINGS TO LIGHT A GOOD STORY CONCERNING PAUL GRIERSON OF CALUMET.
The fact that George Woods, alias Carson, has been located in an Ohio penitentiary has revived interest in the Calumet postoffice robber for which the other two men concerned are in the penitentiary in the Detroit House of Correction. Woods is the man who shot Abner Sherman when cornered by him over in Ontonagon county; in the battle between the two the robber fired with a shot gun at the officer who ducked just in time to catch the charge of bird shot in the top of his head instead of in his face. The encounter caused considerable excitement at the time and the nifty Houghton man was the hero of the hour.

This recalls a good story that is told of Paul Grierson of Calumet, then postmaster there and now the manager of Paine, Webber & Co.'s Calumet office. Ex-Postmaster Penberthy of Houghton is said to have gone to the Calumet man, who has a great and well-deserved reputation as a wag, while the excitement was at its height and declared that Abner Sherman was the bravest man in the county, that he had taken his life in his hands in attacking the robber and that the county should be proud of him and should reward him amply "and you, as the chairman of the Democratic county committee, should take steps to see that he receives the Democratic nomination for sheriff." Paul is said to have listened with interest until this climax was reached when he interrupted with the remark in his characteristic drawl: "Great heavens, man, haven't you any feeling for Ab? Hasn't he been punished enough?"

Dr. Mitchell says in difficult cases of Anemia, he adds cod-liver oil half an hour after each meal and he likes to use it in an emulsion; that he has watched with growing surprise some listless, feeble, creature gathering flesh, color and wholesomeness of mind and body from this treatment.
"Scott's Emulsion" is cod-liver oil combined with hypophosphites. It regenerates tissue, invigorates the nerves and brain, enriches the blood and adds fat and strength.

WINE OF CARDUI
A SURE MEDICINE.
HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.
I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.
MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

WINE OF CARDUI
It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

NOTES OF MINING NEWS.
Teams left Houghton yesterday afternoon with a new Rand compressor for the Wyandot Mining company.
The 40,000-gallon pump at the new Osceola mill is to supply the water not only for the new mill but also for the old and for both the Tamarack mills, or about twenty heads all told. The delay in starting up the new mill is now due to the fact that the connections from the pump to the other mills are not yet complete, though the work of putting them in is being rushed with all possible dispatch.

CONSOLIDATION NOT PROBABLE. IT IS NOT BELIEVED THAT THE TWO CITY BANDS WILL UNITE.

There has been some discussion here of late of the possibility of the two city bands consolidating and forming one large organization.

Manager Jackson and the members of the old city band have not yet received any proposition to unite with the other band.
