

HAYWOOD TRIAL TO DRAG FOR WEEKS

Is Thought Now the Case Will Not Be Submitted and the Verdict Reached Before the End of July.

Through Counsel, the Defendant Will Formally Assert His Innocence Today, and It Will Be Claimed for Him He Is a Victim of a Plot to Disrupt the Miners' Union and Under the Guise of Legal Procedure Condemn to Death Its Officials.

Boise, Idaho, June 23.—Wm. D. Haywood will tomorrow morning formally assert his entire innocence of the murder charge and outline the evidence he proposes to produce in order that the presumption of innocence still resting in the mind of the jury may become a fixed judgment.

Clarence Darrow, an attorney for Haywood, will say this afternoon that the evidence of a conspiracy to assassinate Frank Steuneger, former governor of Idaho, but that Haywood is in fact the victim of a conspiracy to disrupt the Western Federation of Miners and under the guise of legal procedure condemn to death the chief officials of the federation.

End Is Still Far Off. Mr. Darrow's address to the jury probably will take up most of the day. Court meets at 10 o'clock, and takes a recess at noon. Mr. Darrow says that he expects his speech will occupy at least three hours, and possibly more.

The defense expects to take not more than ten days with the introduction of evidence, but counsel for the state will go into a close examination of all the witnesses brought to upset the Orchard story, and for this reason it is thought that the case will not be reached before the end of July.

Shooting Affray Excites. Boise, Idaho, June 23.—A sensational shooting affray in a room on the first floor of a hotel here this afternoon caused excitement until it was found it had no connection with the Haywood trial. This morning the man for whom the police and troops vainly have been scouring the country for a fortnight appeared without warning at the ministry of the interior. He wore the simple garb of a southern peasant. When he had established his identity Albert was admitted to the presence of M. Clemenceau, with whom he had a fifteen minute talk.

A semi-official account of the interviews says that the premier used extremely strong language, virtually reproaching his visitor with the responsibility of all that has happened in the south, the refusal to pay taxes, the strike, the resignation of the municipal officials, and the bloodshed.

Albert is represented as having been overcome with emotion, bursting into tears and asking the premier how he could make statement to which M. Clemenceau replied: "Give yourself up to the law and use your influence with your countrymen to return to lawful ways."

Subsequently Albert declined to reveal anything that had occurred declaring that he had given his word to M. Clemenceau not to do so. He said, however, that he was leaving for the south, where he intended "to do his duty."

Vine Growers' Grievances Removed. London, June 23.—The wine growers' situation in southern France is expected to assume a more peaceful phase this week, as the principal grievances of the wine growers will be removed by the clauses of the wine frauds bill, which passed the chamber of deputies practically unanimously last week. One of the clauses of this measure requires the growers to make annual declarations of the average cultivation and total quantity of wine produced, and in stock, and whether it is intended for sale or not. The government asserts that when in possession of this information it will be in a position to prevent watering of sugaring the wine.

AMERICAN WEDS PRINCESS. San Francisco Man Reverses the Usual Order of Things.

London, June 22.—Most of the marriages between Americans and European aristocracy are those of American girls and the titled foreigners. But among the latest visitors to London are a couple who have reversed this order. Jerome Barker Landfield is a San Francisco man who married in France recently Princess Lobanoff, a Russian. The bride, who is a relative of the late Russian foreign minister, has given up her title, as she became the wife of an American citizen, and is now Mrs. Lalo-Nikolai Landfield.

KAISER'S VARIED DAY.

Holds Divine Services, Sails Boat to Victoria, Dines With Mrs. Goebel.

Kiel, Germany, June 23.—Emperor William conducted divine services on the imperial yacht Hohenzollern at 9 o'clock this morning. Afterwards he sailed the Meteor again to victory over the Hamburg, which gave up the race. In the half gale the Meteor covered the 33-knot course in 3 hours, 22 minutes, 53 seconds.

Ambassador and Mrs. Tower, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Howard and Allison V. Armour and other visiting Americans took tea with Prince and Princess Henry of Prussia at the castle this afternoon.

WAR ON HOUSE OF LORDS.

London, June 23.—Premier Campbell-Bannerman will move a resolution in the house of commons, tomorrow, designed to curtail the powers of the house of lords. It is expected that the debate will last three or four days.

SNOW FALLS AT BUTTE.

Butte, Mont., June 23.—Four inches of snow fell here today. It melted fast, and by nightfall the streets were deep in slush.

HORDE OF LOCUSTS INVADES ILLINOIS

CROWS ARE KILLED AND SONG BIRDS DRIVEN FROM WOODS IN THE VICINITY OF ALTON.

Alton, Ill., June 23.—A horde of locusts has settled among the trees of "Hop Hollow," a popular picnic ground near here, and have driven every song bird out of the woods. Crows were the first victims of the locust, and all were killed the first day. The blue jays resisted the attack for a time, but eventually even the hawk birds were driven away. The locusts are of the kind known as "seventeen year locusts," and more are coming every day.

SEE NO CAUSE FOR "WAR"

Five Japanese Chambers of Commerce Adopt Pacific Resolutions. Tokyo, June 23.—Five chambers of commerce in Japan have adopted resolutions that the San Francisco affair was due to defective local control, whereby the Japanese are not the sole sufferers, and therefore there are no grounds for an international question.

OXFORD TO HONOR CLEMENS.

London, June 23.—Oxford University will confer honorary degrees June 26, when Lord Curzon of Kedleston will be publicly installed as chancellor of the university. Among the recipients of honors will be Mark Twain, Rudyard Kipling, Premier Campbell-Bannerman, Ambassador Reid, Prince Arthur of Connaught, Auguste Rodin and Admiral Lord Charles Beresford.

WON'T LET TROOPS PARADE AT FRISCO

GEN. FUNSTON FEARS "UNWHIPPED MOB" WOULD SNEER AND JEER AT THEM.

San Francisco, June 23.—General Frederick L. Funston admitted last night that in his letter to the Fourth of July committee of this city he had used the expression, "unwhipped mob" but that it was not directed against any set of men except what he terms the "uncontrollable element."

It developed today that General Funston said that, inasmuch as the men will leave on July 5 to go into camp, he did not desire to have them do much marching the day previous to their departure. Funston is quoted as saying: "But I would be leath to have the troops parade if they were to be sneered at and jeered at by an unwhipped mob."

When asked for a statement over the telephone General Funston, who was at Monterey, replied: "My letter is written in plain English, and any one who understands plain English can understand the letter."

BIG RIVER RISING.

Missouri Higher in Places Than Since the Floods of 1903.

Kansas City, June 23.—The Missouri river from Leavenworth to Omaha is rising steadily as the result of recent heavy rains, added to the annual June rise, and at some points is at the flood stage. The stream is higher than at any time since the disastrous flood of 1903, but a repetition of the damage is not expected. The Kaw river is bank full. However, no great damage is likely at Kansas City. At St. Joseph, the Missouri is up to the danger point.

MRS. RUSSEL SAGE'S GIFT.

$25,000 to Lincoln Farm Association; and More If Needed.

New York, June 23.—Mrs. Russel Sage as sent to the Lincoln Farm Association $25,000 for the fund for the preservation of the Abraham Lincoln farm and log cabin and for a memorial building upon the farm. She has intimated her willingness to give more if necessary.

RUNS AMUCK; SHOOT UP TRAIN

Frenzied Act of a Drunken Italian Barber on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway in Western Kansas.

Loaded With Vermouth, and Possessed of the Hallucination He Is About to Be Robbed, John Bells, Enroute from Boston to San Francisco, Draws a Gun and Shoots at Fellow Passengers—Man Is Killed and Two Women Are Wounded.

Denver, Col., June 23.—In a shooting affray on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway, in western Kansas, T. B. Topp, a tailor of Minneapolis, was killed and Mrs. Morris Olson of Marshall, Minn., a bride, and her sister were wounded. The shots were fired by John Bells, an Italian barber en route from Boston to San Francisco, who had boarded the train at Chicago.

Before the shooting began most of the passengers were dozing in their chairs. They were awakened by frantic yells and pistol shots. Five shots were fired in rapid succession by Bells as he walked through the aisle from the front to the rear of the car, taking accurate aim at one passenger after another. The first shot struck Mrs. Olson, the hotel passing through the jaw and coming out on the other side. Mrs. Olson's sister, Mrs. Harry Balkeley of Arida, Col., sitting opposite her, was hit in the right shoulder with a second bullet. Their wounds are not fatal. After being shot both women rushed to the smoking car ahead, and a majority of the male passengers followed as quickly as possible, tumbling over one another in their haste to escape.

Killed While He Slept. Bells' third bullet passed through Mr. Topp's heart. He was found dead later in his seat. His facial features were calm, and from his position it seemed that he was sleeping when shot.

By this time only two other men remained in the car, Charles A. Gilliat of Denver and D. R. Slawson of Pueblo, Col. Gilliat closed in on Bells and wrenched his revolver from his hand, but not before two more shots had been fired, neither of which, however, hit anybody. Before being overpowered Bells drew a razor and with this he fought desperately. A negro porter from the tourist car, armed with a billy, finally succeeded in knocking the razor out of the Italian's hand and Gilliat was then seized and bound by Slawson, the porter and others.

Both Had Families Aboard. Al Goodland, Kas., Bells and a traveling companion, Paul Legnabradi, also an Italian, were removed from the train and locked up in jail. Bells was accompanied by his wife and four children and Legnabradi by his wife and five children. The women and their children continued on their journey to San Francisco.

Mrs. Legnabradi said the two men had been drinking vermouth all day yesterday. About 8 o'clock they fell asleep. At 10:30 Mrs. Legnabradi said Bells awoke and began to protest wildly that some one was trying to rob him. Then he rushed up the aisle and began shooting.

The body of Topp was left at Goodland and the two women were taken to the hospital there.

SURPLUS IS $80,000,000. Problem of Handling Uncle Sam's Money Now a Serious One.

Washington, June 23.—The close of the fiscal year is but a few days ahead. It will find a surplus of about $80,000,000, despite the fact that the government is paying the cost of the Panama canal out of the current receipts—a little more than $25,000,000 a year. Two short years ago there was a deficit. There was talk that it was dangerous. Then the tide turned, receipts went larger and larger month by month, and despite two billion dollar sessions of congress since, the surplus is beyond all management.

Problem a Serious One. The problem of what to do with the money is certain to be a serious one for a long time, unless business depression changes very notably the course of things. Tariff revision might be made to reduce the revenues considerably, but chances are that it would be conducted on the theory of making the revenues maintain about the same total. Sugar's duty could be lopped off and the surplus wiped out; but that would never be permitted by either the refiners or the beet sugar interests, so it need not be given serious thought. As to a long list of things on which present duties are so low that the stream of gold leading into the treasury. The president wants inheritance and income taxes. He is likely to get both of them; perhaps not yet, but soon. They would pour more millions, ten of millions, into the treasury.

Surplus Increases Steadily. A surplus of $80,000,000 could easily become one of $250,000,000 a year. Already the problem of handling the money, distributing it among the national banks, inspecting securities offered for it, making certain that the political influences which are kept always at work in the interest of influential institutions, are not too gravely offended—all this is a huge task which threatens to be far greater and more responsible. It is simply the task of caring for the riches that Uncle Sam has at hand in excess of all the needs of the most expensive and the most extravagant government on earth.

ROADS TO SLASH PASSENGER RATES

CUT TO TWO CENTS A MILE ALL OVER THE COUNTRY IS REPORTED DECISION.

Chicago, June 23.—Passenger rates on all railroads of the United States will be reduced to two-cents a mile. The lowering of the price and complete abolition of the old three-cent rates will begin on July 1. This was the decision reached in Chicago after a long and heated discussion by the leading railway presidents of the west and transcontinental roads. It was not a formal agreement, but is equally binding, for two large roads doing transcontinental business are said to have served an ultimatum to others that they would put the rate into effect immediately.

MANY AMERICANS GUESTS OF KING

Dozens of Citizens of the United States Conspicuous at Magnificent Garden Party Given at Windsor Castle.

Thousands of Persons Are Present, Among Them Mark Twain, Who Humorously Recalls His First "Meeting" With the Monarch; They Passed in Piccadilly; Clemens Wrote of the Fact, and Edward Read the Article and Remembered It.

Windsor, England, June 23.—Mark Twain has renewed his acquaintance with King Edward. The first time he met the king was when he really did not the king at all. Yesterday, the humorist met the monarch at the Windsor castle garden party, to which Mark Twain was invited immediately upon his arrival in England.

Mark Twain wrote in a magazine a dozen years ago how he first met King Edward. "We were going down Piccadilly," he wrote; "the then prince of Wales was riding in a state chariot to the head of a procession, going to some state function. I was on top of a bus. Our eyes met, and at that moment I felt that the prince and I understood one another—that our souls were one."

An Interesting Sequel.

Mark Twain said today that this incident is true, and he gave this very interesting sequel: "I really met the king for the first time at Hamburg, ten years ago. He was traveling incognito as the duke, or something of other. He was taking the baths, and an Englishman went up in the diplomatic circle who knew me, and asked if I wouldn't be presented. I said, 'sure' and he took me up to the prince, who was sitting with one or two friends chatting and drinking at a cafe table."

"The prince began to chat with me as kindly and familiarly as though he had known me for years. I was enjoying myself hugely, as I always do, you know, when you meet somebody that you can really treat as your equal. Presently the prince asked if I didn't feel like having a little stroll in the park. 'Sure,' I said, and we strolled out and spent about half an hour in the park near the baths. I think he talked about every subject in the world—myself—and at parting he said, with a wave of his hand, 'I am really so glad to have met you again.' 'Dear Bishop Potter,' I said to myself. The bishop was in Europe at the time and the people were constantly talking me for him. I was sort of riled that the prince of Wales should have made that common mistake, and I said to him, 'But, your royal highness, I never had the pleasure of meeting you before. Your highness has mistaken me for—' The prince interrupted, 'I am afraid, he said, 'that I have a better memory than you. It is possible that you have forgotten our meeting in Piccadilly.' 'The prince had read that old magazine article and had not forgotten it.' 7,000 Guests Assembled.

More than 7,000 guests assembled in the grounds of Windsor castle yesterday afternoon to attend the magnificent garden party when King Edward would appear. The gathering was composed of all classes of society and included many members of the royal family, including the king, the royal family, the king of Siam, Prince and Princess Andrew of Greece, the diplomatic corps, members of the parliament, bishops and dissenters, a large representation of Americans, many military and naval officers and a host of notable, conspicuous among whom was Samuel L. Clemens.

The royal party had their headquarters in two large marquees where the visitors thronged to pay their respects. The band of 10 horse guards and Grenadier Guards furnished the music. The company was massed on the east lawn, a splendid stretch of grass, around which are the castle golf links, and made a most impressive theatrical scene.

Many tons of flowers were used in the decoration of the tents in which refreshments were served. Ten special trains brought the London guests and all the roads leading to Windsor were crowded with motor cars throughout the afternoon.

BISHOP QUIGLEY WANTS MONEY.

Says Wealthy Catholics Should Contribute Towards Catholic College. Chicago, June 23.—Wealthy members of the Roman Catholic church who fail to contribute toward educational institutions of the church are subjected to criticism by Archbishop Quigley. "Our wealthy Catholics have millions for pleasures and for other purposes, but not one cent for Catholic education," said the archbishop. He pleaded for the establishment of a great Catholic university in Chicago which would rival other denominational institutions of learning.

STRUCK WIFE WITH HAMMER.

Chicago, June 23.—Mrs. Eva Good, twenty-two years old, is lying at the county hospital and her husband, James Good, thirty-five years old, a laborer, is held pending the outcome of her injuries. Good, the police say, struck his wife on the head with a hammer, fracturing her skull in three places. Good accused his wife of accepting the attentions of John Blue, twenty-four years old, son of the landlord of the building in which the Good family lives.

HEADLESS BODY IS FOUND.

Italian Boy of New Orleans Killed by Kidnappers—Lynching Threatens.

New Orleans, June 23.—Two miles in the interior of a big swamp near this city, the headless body of Walter Lamana, an Italian child of seven, who was kidnapped and held for $6,000 ransom two weeks ago was found by police and vigilantes just before daybreak today. He had been strangled to death according to the confession of several Italians held by the police.

Five Italians, two of them women, are under arrest, charged with being accomplices to the murder, and extra details of police and deputies are maintaining order in the excited Italian quarter of the city. Lynching threatens.

TRAINS COLLIDE.

Eight Workmen Are Killed and Thirty-Five Injured.

Hartford, Conn., June 23.—Eight workmen were killed and thirty-five injured when a passenger train on the Highland division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad crashed into the rear of a work train that was backing into the city from New Britain tonight. Of the injured, two probably will die.

Bad Smash-Up in New York.

Rochester, N. Y., June 23.—Four persons are known to have been killed, three more are thought to be dead and eight were badly injured in a wreck tonight at Mitchell's farm, about a mile east of Pittsford, on the Auburn branch of the New York Central railroad. The train was going east and met a freight head on.

J. J. JOHNSON OUT AGAINST BRYAN

MINNESOTA WILL HAVE A WORD TO SAY, ANNOUNCES THE GOVERNOR'S SECRETARY.

Omaha, June 23.—"We hear a great deal of Mr. Bryan as the next Democratic nominee for the presidency, but I want to tell you now that Minnesota will have a word to say about this; Minnesota will have a man before the next national convention in the person of Governor John J. Johnson. He is a candidate, has strength and will continue to develop more strength until the convention meets, when he will go before it a formidable candidate." This statement was made here today by Frank A. Day, private secretary of Governor Johnson, who was enroute to St. Paul from the Pacific coast.

ZIONISTS' CONVENTION.

New York, June 23.—More than 200 delegates are expected at the annual convention of the Federation of American Zionists at Tannersville, N. Y., next Friday. It is expected the convention will recommend certain resolutions to the next Zionist International congress at The Hague in August. The Zionists hope to be able to present the Jewish nationalist question to the peace conference in such a form as to induce an expression of opinion from the body.

LID IS ON AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, June 23.—The Sunday closing law was in force today. East St. Louis and other Illinois towns reaped a rich harvest from the thirsty.

NO FEAR OF PANIC, SAYS JUDGE GARY

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE COUNTRY IS SOUND, ASSERTS THE STEEL MAGNATE.

Chicago, June 23.—M. E. Ingalls, former president of the Big Four railroad, and E. H. Gary, chairman of the directors of the steel trust, come out declaring that this country has no fear of financial panic, but is facing an era of great prosperity. "There is more prosperity in sight," said Judge Gary. "In my opinion the financial condition of the country is perfectly sound. There is an evident scarcity of money, but this means simply that the volume of business has increased faster than the volume of money. It indicates the extraordinary resources of this country as a producer. There is no good reason for a financial or business panic."

"Roosevelt talks both ways on the railroad proposition," said Mr. Ingalls. "Evidently when he thought of Harrison he let a little devil flow out of his pen, and when he forgot him his disposition toward the railroads grew real sweet. So you see you can take that speech both ways if you are a railroad man, but one thing is evident, and that is that the railroads have got to obey the law."

New York, June 23.—Thousands of students will say their farewell to colleges this week. At some of the universities the first four days of the week will be devoted to the exercises attendant upon the conclusion of the school year, including class day observance, alumni reunions, commencement day and athletics. Monday will be class day at Yale, and on Wednesday will take place the commencement exercises. Wednesday also will be commencement day at Harvard. Secretary of State Elihu Root and the duke of the Abruzzi are among the guests expected.

ATLANTA, GA., JUNE 23.—The Georgia legislature will meet June 26 in annual session, to continue fifty days. Among its first duties will be the canvassing of the vote for governor, cast last November, when Hoke Smith was elected. His inauguration will occur on June 29.

SAY THE STRIKE WILL CURE ITSELF

Telegraph Company Officials at San Francisco Predict an In-Rush of Operators, Anxious to Fill the Deserted Places.

They Admit Conditions Are Chaotic for the Time Being, but They Stand Firm and Declare They Will Not Treat With the Union—Wires Are Still, and "Telegrams" Are Sent Out by Mail in Big Bundles, Asserts Leader of the Men.

San Francisco, June 23.—"Everything was quiet in the telegraphers' strike today. S. J. Small, president of the Commercial Telegraphers' union, said: "The real fight will begin Monday, when the early week rush of business is on. The out-of-town managers and chief operators who can be induced to take the places of the strikers will have arrived in the city by Monday or Tuesday, but should they go to work, the companies, with the additional force, will be in a worse predicament than they were Friday and Saturday, days on which telegraph business is light."

"Our reports from various points show that the tie-up is complete. Los Angeles was fifteen hundred messages behind at midnight on Saturday, and Portland reports that there is a blockade of business on the northern route. By Wednesday of this week the congestion of telegraph business between the Pacific and Atlantic coasts will be as bad as during the earthquake and fire period. Already reports are coming from the Eastern points are being mailed in bundles to Eastern points. We have the letter of the bargain so far. There were two desertions from the Western Union today at West Oakland, and others will follow."

"The telegraphers of this country have it within their power to either bring the telegraph companies to terms or force governmental ownership of the telegraphs."

Companies Not Worrying. I. W. Storer, general superintendent of the Postal Telegraph company, said: "The Postal Telegraph company has made no effort yet to employ non-union telegraphers, and its officials believe that the strike will cure itself. Strikes will probably remain chaotic for a few days to come. Then telegraphers will begin to drift from different outside points, and no trouble will be experienced in filling the places vacated. It will not take the union operators very long to realize the mistake they have made by striking and come back to us. We have already received a number of applications for positions, and far have not accepted any of them. The coming of other operators here I regard almost as certain as a fixed natural law, and this and the defections that are bound to occur in the ranks of the strikers will ultimately end the trouble and bring about normal conditions again. I regard the strike as most unjustifiable and ill-advised."

A. H. West, district superintendent of the Western Union said: "We have about one-third of our force at work and are able to handle the business we are receiving with comparative ease. Of course, all business is assumed. I announced the first day of the strike, subject to indefinite delay, but thus far we have been able to piece things out remarkably well. The Western Union company does not intend to treat with the telegraphers' union. Our shop is an open one. We may be induced to take old men back, but we are making no promises of any kind."

SCHMITZ ACTS AS MAYOR.

Votes Big Appropriation and Right to Do So Is Not Questioned. San Francisco, June 23.—From his executive cell in the county jail, Mayor Schmitz returned to the board of supervisors the municipal budget and a message voting the appropriation of $730,000 for the reconstruction of the Geary street railway. Schmitz, besides opposing the appropriation for the Geary street railway, also objected to the levy of a special tax of 20 cents to raise revenue for the city government. Acting Mayor Gallagher said that Schmitz's right to pass upon the budget was not questioned by the board.

COURT'S USE OF FRANK POST CARDS QUESTIONED.

Guthrie, Okla., June 23.—William McCoy, postmaster here, today asked a ruling of Postmaster General Meyer in regard to frank postal cards, used by the district court clerks in Oklahoma in notifying persons in regard to official court matters. As the Oklahoma courts are directly under the charge of the national department of justice and are federal as well as district courts, it has been the custom of the clerks and other court officials to use the customary government franks in handling official court business through the mails. McCoy will ascertain if the clerks have any right to use the franking privilege in their business.

EX-SENATOR L. J. BAKER DIES.

Leavenworth, Kas., June 23.—Ex-United States Senator Lucien J. Baker died here yesterday after a long illness. He was the predecessor of Senator Burton. His death was primarily due to a bullet wound in the lungs. A shot fired at D. E. Anthony by a man named Thurston hit Baker.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL

A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED.)

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

The man who loses his temper at what the newspaper says about him should, remarks an exchange, return thanks three times a day for what the newspaper knows about him and suppresses.

The special election to fill the office of recorder is to be held with practically no expense to the city. August 13 is the date on which this senatorial district will choose its three delegates to the constitutional convention. The new recorder can be chosen as a side issue to this main event.

That vote on the 40 per cent provision August 13 will be simply of an advisory nature. Of course it may be headed off by an appeal to the courts, on the ground that the lieutenant governor had no right to vote for the resolution providing for it. But if it is taken Governor Warner will doubtless find that it confirms his decision to call a special session, and it will also doubtless enlighten people skeptical as to public interest in the question involved.

The council's disposition of the recorder question is one satisfactory to the average voter. By August 13 but a little over three months of a two-year term will have expired. The salary, $1,200 per annum, and the importance of the office make it one not to be held lightly either by candidates or people. Under the circumstances it is no more than right that the voters of the city should have the privilege of selecting the man who is to fill the office. Judging from what we have heard of prospective candidates they will have a considerable range of choice.

The Adams Express company, capitalized at $12,000,000 has just declared a 200 per cent collateral trust bond dividend to shareholders, this representing a distribution of accumulated profits. Nine years ago it declared a cash dividend of 100 per cent as a means of reducing its surplus. In the intervening years its regular annual dividends have been 8 per cent. It ought to be nice to be a stockholder in such a money making enterprise, but, contemplating the figures, the general public may be justified in wondering some where it comes in. The express company is a public utility, representing the quick delivery of parcel freight. With the company making such profits as the regular and special dividends indicate some inquiry may be warranted as to the reasonableness of the charges for the service rendered. Is the company giving its patrons value received or is it holding them up for all that the traffic will bear and something more?

Lansing is engaged in apportioning the blame for the failure of the capitol addition bill, carrying an appropriation of $406,000, which passed the senate only to die in the house. Senator Tuttle got the bill through the senate, and claims that this lets him out. Representative Montgomery, the local member in the house, blames the governor for the failure of the measure. The Lansing Journal quotes a member of the legislature as laying much of the blame with Tuttle. "Tuttle knew," said the legislator, "that there was a strong administration majority in the house, yet after the bill had passed the senate he deliberately antagonized Governor Warner and his friends and made it impossible to get the bill through the house. This was playing a rather bad trick on Montgomery who was in the legislature for his first term and desired most of anything to secure the passage of the bill to enlarge the capitol. Up to the time of Tuttle's flunk on the two-cent fare bill and thus aggressive alliance with the senate 'Boxers' the bill stood a good show of passing, but it was Tuttle's bill—he had introduced it—and when he went against the administration and gave the governor some hard knocks he could not expect anything but retaliation on his measure."

The attempts to harmonize the political factions at Lansing last spring seem to have accentuated the political strife and to have brought about unexpected manifestations of its heat. It is reported that the town is to have a new newspaper, a new telephone system and a new bank, and it is said that political differences are the basic causes for all of these proposed new enterprises. Munising had two newspapers up to the time, some months ago, when F. L. Balwin moved to Escanaba. Since then the News, edited by H. A. Holden, has had the field to itself, but the News has appeared to have eschewed partisan politics and to have devoted itself largely to covering the news field. We should think Munising was too small a town to adequately support two newspapers, and that it would be more profitable for it to build up one strong paper. The new bank is said to be assured. The Escanaba Journal, now edited by Mr. Baldwin, who ought to know about Munising affairs, says it will be a national bank, capitalized at $50,000, and asserts that it will have strong backing. The Journal remarks "Munising already has one bank, but owing to its activity in political affairs it has aroused a good deal of antagonism among people who now insist upon a new bank which will stick more closely to the banking business." The present editor of the Escanaba Journal and the Munising State bank, it may be remarked, never did get along very well together. There is a certain lack of definiteness about these bellicose reports from Munising, but still they seem to warrant the conclusion that the dogs of war have broken loose again.

AS OTHERS SEE OUR COURTS.

While the critical attitude of the foreign press toward things American is not always convincing the views of the leaders of thought across the water are always interesting and at times instructive. Particularly interesting has been the discussion in European magazines and newspapers during the last few weeks of American courts of law.

The Neue Frei Presse of Vienna maintains that one of our great difficulties is due to the right of judges to interfere with the executive and the legislative, which are only theoretically independent, while practically the judiciary can, whenever it pleases, nullify the acts of the lawmaking body and paralyze the arm of the executive. "Nothing is more remarkable than the regularity with which the American courts throw the administration into confusion by interference with its procedure at every stage."

A number of English papers say that in our courts "justice and common sense are sacrificed to procedure when that conduces to the advantage of a wealthy litigant"; that the loss of confidence in our courts of law is traced to the inefficiency of American judges, and the great importance attached to mere technicalities when it is a question of "some great corporation on the one hand and an elementary principle of popular government on the other"; that our use of the writ of injunction is "a flagrant scandal"; that no English court would "pervert this writ with such indifference to every consideration of fair play"; and that no man of wealth need fear the law. They say that our judicial procedure has become "a menace to society," which has resulted in predatory wealth and in an indifference to human life, making this country show a far higher proportion of murders than any other country in the world except Italy and Mexico.

These are but a few of many criticisms of like character. Some are not warranted, but we must admit that there is much in our system of judicial procedure which will not bear close critical analysis. Perhaps our most glaring judicial defects are due to the deep rooted, though fast dying out feeling, that there is something sacred and above criticism in our courts. We begin to see that it is justice, not the court, that is sacred, and that injustice loses none of its abhorrence because it happens to be pronounced by one who for a few years is wearing the judicial ermine.

ANOTHER AMERICAN EXAMPLE.

The retiring American consul general at Shanghai informed us a few days ago that American contributions to the Chinese famine sufferers had destroyed the last vestiges of the Chinese boycott of American goods, a boycott begun as retaliation for American treatment of Chinese subjects. So is illustrated again the old maxim that one gets according as he gives. Now comes the news that the federal government which in a meek moment and as a matter of expediency joined the other "civilized" nations in robbing China after the occupation of Peking, has decided to forego the fruits of this thieving.

It will be remembered that after the allied troops entered the Chinese capital there was long and serious discussion of what should be done to punish the dowager empress and her subjects for mistreating the Caucasians resident among them. Mr. Hay prevented the destruction and partition of the venerable empire, but having done so much he did not feel inclined to interpose a veto to the proposition that China should be made to pay a heavy tribute under guise of "compensation" for Caucasian property destroyed during the insurrection. There has never been any question that the amounts demanded were exorbitant. The only thing which the European nations took into account was China's ability to pay. They had at least the wisdom to refrain from killing the goose which was to lay golden eggs for them during the years to come.

other continental powers. But that was all she felt she could then do, and rather than offend her estimable friends and allies she consented to take a part of the spoils. Her conscience has never been easy since, however, and the prediction has been often made that when the actual amount of the American losses, with interest at 4 per cent, had been made good she would relieve China of the unjust burden of the rest. That time has nearly arrived. The whole bill against China was $24,440, 778.81. In four years China will have paid us $11,655,492.09, the full amount for which we can figure legitimate damages. Secretary Root has therefore notified the Chinese ambassador that in his next annual message to congress President Roosevelt will ask that China be relieved of the necessity of paying the twelve million and odd dollars for which we will still hold her note. There is little doubt that congress will see this matter with the president's eye, quite as likely doubt as there is that the European nations will continue to collect their thievings. But it will be a relief to us to get out of their company.

NEGAUNEE VICTIM OF SUNSTROKE.

Mrs. Sakri Matho, living in the Negaunee field, who suffered from sunstroke about ten days ago, died yesterday morning. She had been partially paralyzed since stricken. The deceased was about thirty years of age and is survived by her husband and two children, one six years old and the other eight months. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Emmett Driscoll has returned from De Pere, Wis., where he attended St. Norbert's college the past year. Mrs. H. J. Peterson left Saturday for Mt. Clemens, Mich., where she will receive treatment for rheumatism. Dr. J. Larson and sister, Miss Hildur, left Saturday for Mackinac, Detroit and other points to be absent ten days or two weeks. Dr. R. J. Maas of Haneock is spending a few days at the family home here. Frank Maas of St. Paul will also spend a short time in the city. Mayor J. H. Winter left Saturday for Wisconsin. While away he will look over some lead and zinc properties in which he is interested.

Mrs. S. J. Johnson, who has conducted a millinery business in Negaunee the past few years, has decided to leave the city and will close out her stock. Ernest Kline of Rosen Bros. & Kline, left yesterday for Muskegon, Mich., where he will spend a few days visiting relatives. While there he expects to do some fishing. C. G. Griffey has gone to his home at Rochester, Mich. He plans to return within a few weeks to look after some improvements at his residence property, corner Jackson and Cyr streets.

The Gila monster, on exhibition at O'Donoghue's drug store last week, was chloroformed Saturday. It will be mounted and sent to H. J. Adams, who brought it up from Globe, Arizona. Dr. E. J. Barabe has closed out his dental business in Houghton and his outfit has been received here. His health has not been the best of late and he plans to spend some time in the west. Mrs. T. G. Atkinson of Green Bay will spend several days here, visiting her parents, Captain and Mrs. James F. Foley. Mrs. Atkinson recently returned from California, where she spent the greater part of the winter.

ISHPEMING AUGUSTANA SYNOD.

Swedish Lutheran Church is Having Unprecedented Growth.

Rev. E. V. Isaacson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, and George Skogberg, a delegate from the Ishpeming district, have returned from the annual meeting of the Augustana synod, held at New Britain, Conn. Much important business was disposed of at the meeting. The synod assumed the obligation of raising $250,000 for Augustana college, located at Rock Island, Ill. Of this sum the Illinois conference agreed to raise $140,000, and the Iowa conference $40,000. The remaining $60,000 is to be raised among the other six conferences in the United States. It is expected that about $50,000 of the Illinois conference's contribution can be raised by the sale of a farm at Paxton, Ill. The farm was donated to the conference by a member of the church some years ago. It comprises 320 acres and has an estimated value of $150 per acre. The money is to be raised prior to the annual meeting of the synod in 1910, when the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the college will be celebrated. The sum specified will pay off the present indebtedness of the institution and create an endowment fund.

The church has had a wonderful growth during the past few years, though its prosperity at this time is somewhat retarded by the lack of ministers. This question was very largely discussed at the convention, and an effort will be made to increase the number of students in the theological department of the college. There are now 600 ministers in this country, and some 1,000 congregations. It is estimated that 175 additional ministers are needed. At the synod meeting last week twenty students were ordained. Among those were Charles Nelson of Menominee, brother of Herbert Nelson, president of the local congregation, and the Rev. C. A. Gronberg, formerly a member of the Michigan conference. Important action was taken relative to a revision of the constitution with respect to the local church societies. The provisions are now more liberal in a general way and it is thought that the churches will be much benefited in consequence of some of the changes to be made. The local churches have been working under difficult conditions in various parts of the synod, and the provisions will be uniform.

Dr. E. Norellins of Vasa, Minn., was re-elected president of the synod. Dr. John of Moline, Ills., succeeded Dr. C. E. Lindberg of Rock Island, Ills., as vice president. Mr. Lindberg is vice president of Augustana college. Next year's synod meeting will be held in Chicago. The conference was largely attended. Among the guests were Herman L. F. Lagerantz, Swedish minister to the United States, and L. L. Malm, Swedish consul at Cleveland. Mr. Malm's son married an Ishpeming girl, Miss Anna Robbins, a few years ago. The Ishpeming members of two former pastors of the Lutheran church here, Dr. M. Stojep of New York, and J. F. Berg of South Bend, Ind., both being delegates from their churches. Rev. Mr. Isaacson succeeded Mr. Borg seven or eight years ago. Mr. Stojep's pastorate preceded that of Mr. Borg. The visitors to New Britain were well entertained by the members of the church and the people generally of the city. The New Britain office is the finest church of the denomination in the United States. It is built entirely of white marble and its interior arrangements and decorations are perfect. The structure, itself, cost over $100,000. The building has been provided with a bell imported from Sweden, and it has a $5,000 pipe organ.

LIKES THIS DISTRICT. R. P. Fuller, of the wholesale drug firm of Fuller & Fuller, Chicago, visited this city, Thursday and Friday. While here Mr. Fuller was shown the principal points of interest in the county and he enjoyed himself so thoroughly he announced before departing for home that he would return accompanied by his family, to spend a week or two at Grand Island. Mr. Fuller is one of the active managers of his firm, which does a larger business, it is said, than any other drug concern in the United States. He contemplates enlarging its present quarters being too small. Over sixty persons are employed in the offices alone.

WILL INSPECT PROPERTY.

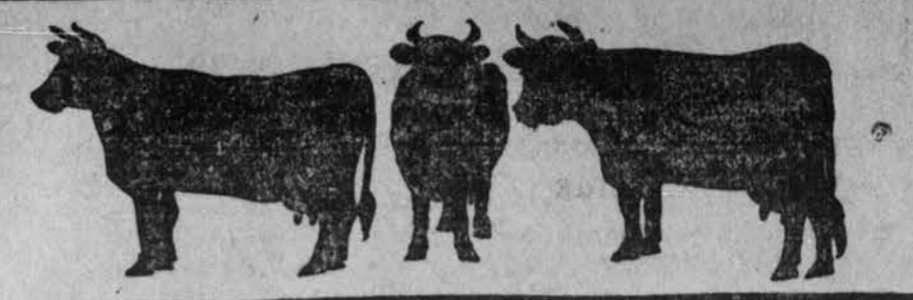

Dr. J. Vandevanter and Carl Telfen, president and secretary, respectively, of the Vandevanter Lead & Zinc company, left last evening for Cuba City, Wis., where they will inspect the corporation's property. They will probably return tomorrow. A report received yesterday from Superintendent Fox brought the information that the crosscuts have been extended eighty-five feet across the formation and they are still in miners of the same pure quality as in the other portions of the openings. The formation is proving up wider than the officers expected. Mr. Fox also wrote that from thirteen to fifteen tons are being mined daily, and that there are now over 200 tons in stock.

THIRD ANNUAL MEETING.

The third annual meeting of the Young People's societies of the Swedish Lutheran church of the upper peninsula will be held July 10 and 11 at Marquette. It is expected that delegates will be present from each society, and that Marquette county will be particularly well represented. The district organization has had a fairly large growth since it was instituted in this city two years ago. A program is being arranged for the entertainment of the visitors. A picnic at Presque Isle will be one of the principal features.

THREE TRAGEDIES.

A MURDER AT HOUGHTON EARLY LAST EVENING.

One Bohemian Kills Another, the Outcome of a Drunken Row—A Boy and a Man Die While Bathing.

The copper country was the scene of three tragic deaths yesterday—one the result of a murder, the others the consequence of two drowning accidents. The victims were Rudolph Cerny, of Houghton, shot and killed, and a boy and a man, drowned, the former near Calumet, the latter on the South range. The names in these two latter cases could not be ascertained last night.

The murder occurred last evening at the location at Houghton known as Corktown. All the details of this tragic event were not known last night. None of the principals or witnesses are able to speak English, and in any event most of the male residents of the immediate locality concerned were pretty well filled with liquor. Cerny was killed by one Albert Cerny, a Bohemian, which also was the nationality of the victim. The shooting took place in Cerny's house on South street after Cerny had been notified to keep away from the premises.

It appears that there has been trouble among the Bohemians of Corktown for some time past. A number of the men are employed at Carroll's foundry, and jealousies arising from the fact that some are earning more money than others is said to have occasioned no little feeling. Yesterday a number of the men became intoxicated. Two, Cerny and a companion, called at Cerny's house about 7 o'clock in the evening, and were driven away by Mrs. Cerny. The pair came back later, however, Cerny entering the house through the back door, and his companion through the front door.

It is said that no sooner had Cerny sighted Cerny than he seized his rifle, a weapon of 38 calibre, and aiming the gun at the intruder pulled the trigger. The ball struck Cerny in the left side of the forehead and passed through the skull. The man fell, killed instantly, whereupon Cerny covered the corpse with a blanket and calmly awaited the arrival of the officers. He was arrested by Under Sheriff Vivian, and was taken to the county jail. Cerny was aged about thirty, and was single. He lived in a house two doors removed from the Cerny's dwelling. Cerny is a man of about fifty, and is married.

The boy who met his death near Calumet perished in the Old Colony dam while swimming. The body was recovered. The man whose fate was similar, went down while bathing in the waters of the big dam of the Baltic and Atlantic Mining companies. His remains had not been found early last evening.

MAY BE MURDER MYSTERY.

Boy Fishing Pulled Up a Possible Victim of Foul Play.

The body of a man, partially dressed and showing various wounds, was pulled out of Portage lake Saturday morning by a boy who was fishing near Stock's dock, in the center of the village water front. The youngster notified Coroner Brand and Chief Voetsch, and they had the corpse hauled out and taken to Krollwitz's morgue, where a coroner's jury viewed it. The inquest will be completed today.

The chief and the coroner think that possibly they have a murder mystery on their hands. The body was partially decomposed, and many of the wounds may have been made by steamers which it encountered in the lake. The skull was crushed, the body badly lacerated and one of the lower limbs was badly torn. None of the wounds appear to have been made by a knife and the wound on the head is the only one which might lead to the suspicion of foul play. This was done with some sort of a blunt instrument, but it might have been the propeller of a steamboat. The most suspicious circumstance is that the man was not clothed. There were only underwear and a vest on the body.

Coroner Brand and Chief Voetsch had their suspicions directed to a gang of hold-up men which is supposed to be working in Hancock. They have secured a bloody coupling pin which was found in a little office in the Mineral Range yards some time ago and some evidence of a fight there. A few hairs clinging to the pin seem to match those on the body which Portage lake grave Saturday morning. The railroad men in the Hancock yard tell of a suspicious pair of men and the sounds of a struggle in this office one night recently. This is all the evidence so far obtained. The inquest today may bring out some interesting news, as a great many witnesses have been called.

In the meantime it is safe to presume that the body which was found was not that of the probable victim of a coupling pin attack in Hancock. If a murder was done at that time and the body thrown in the lake it would be reasonable to suppose that it would have remained above the Portage lake bridge. It would hardly float past the bridge in such a sluggish lake as Portage, nor would it probably have passed the bridge structure without encountering some of the abutments and being coming lodged there. If the man was murdered it is more than likely that the deed was committed on the Houghton side of the lake. The remains of the dead man were interested Saturday after a portion of the clothing had been cut away for purposes of identification. Un- yesterday no one had identified the body.

This matter had not been brought officially to Sheriff Beck's notice until yesterday. He will go out after information today, and it is possible that he will take an altogether different view of the matter than did the village officers.

TRINITY CHURCH KERMIS.

Pretty Entertainment to Be Given in the Amphidrome.

The kermis to be given under the auspices of Trinity church and under the direction of Mrs. Petee and Miss Palmer will open at the Amphidrome, Houghton, tomorrow night. There will be five performances, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings and Wednesday and Thursday afternoon. The evening programs will be as follows: Dutch dance, sixteen boys and girls; Highland fling, thirteen girls; Indian dance, group of small boys; Japanese dance, fourteen girls; dairy dance, two ladies and gentlemen; Gypsy dances, twelve girls; Mildred Weismiller, gypsy queen; Irish dance, four girls; Spanish dance, two young ladies; American dance, three girls.

The afternoon programs will omit the Dutch, Gypsy and dairy dances and will present the dance of the Roses and Bees, a particularly pretty number. During recesses the ladies of the church will serve supper. There will be a number of booths for the sale of fancy articles and a "side show" will present a vaudeville entertainment. The kermis promises to be a most enjoyable entertainment, and the interest which is being taken in it assures a large attendance. The proceeds will help to swell the building fund of Trinity church.

RATHBONE ASSOCIATION.

Hancock Pythian Reunion Brings Up a Natural Question.

There is to be a reunion of the upper peninsula lodges of the Knights of Pythias in Hancock this week, beginning today, and this makes appropos a query regarding the status of the Rathbone Memorial association. What has become of it?

The association was organized about a year ago, maybe two, largely through the efforts of Ira E. Randall of Houghton, at that time, chancellor of the Houghton lodge. The purpose was to purchase the old school house at Eagle Harbor, the hall of learning in which Justus S. Rathbone, founder of the order, wrote the Pythian ritual in his spare moments. This old school house is the cradle of a fraternal organization which now extends to every corner of the United States and Canada and possibly the insular possessions of both. It is the Faneuil hall of the order, and it is well that the Pythians should desire to preserve it.

The memorial association, as has been said, has been organized for a year, or more. It intended to buy the old school house and restore it to use, make it a shrine, the Mecca of Pythian pilgrimages. The fact is that the old building is in a worse condition now than it was when the association was formed.

The Mining Journal approached Mr. Randall in regard to the matter. He said that the association had purchased and paid for the old building. He would say nothing else directly. But some of his cautious remarks lead to the belief that there are internal disorders in the Rathbone Memorial association. This would indicate that sometimes fraternal feeling goes below par.

It is the purpose of the Hancock Pythians to take their visitors to Eagle Harbor next week to view the ruin. Had the memorial association been a harmonious organization the schoolhouse might now be in such condition as to permit its use for a session of the grand lodge during this reunion. As it is, the building will undoubtedly be turned over to the grand lodge and the memorial association will lose its control. The memorial association is a copper country organization and it should be preserved in order that the Pythian shrine may be kept in the hands of the copper country lodges. The suggestion to the association is to get busy and carry out its original purposes.

COPPER COUNTRY BASEBALL.

Houghton Continues Upward—Calumet Losing at Duluth.

The Houghton Giants are chasing the Duluth White Sox pretty hard for second place in the league standing and if the form holds up during the week, the team is maintained it should easily be in second place and working toward first when the team returns for the Fourth of July games in the copper country. On Saturday Houghton had won four straight games and led, one against Winnipeg, losing the morning game on Saturday. The double header was played Saturday because of the fact that Sunday ball is not permitted in Winnipeg. Houghton will play in the Manitoba row on Wednesday, when the club comes back to Duluth for a series, exchanging with Calumet which will go to Winnipeg.

Calumet has not been doing very well in Duluth. The White Sox have been coming home with the winning pretty steadily during the week. The team, the Aristocrats are a bad last in the standings.

WIFE FINDS HUSBAND MISSING.

Mrs. Michael Horvack and baby arrived in Houghton Friday afternoon from Hungary. The woman had with her a paper giving her name and an address which could not be located anywhere in Houghton county. Chief Voetsch had her in charge all day, seeking interceptors who might be able to secure something definite. It was finally learned Saturday that her husband lived at Osceola, and he sent a friend in to Houghton to take charge of the woman and child. Chief Voetsch was as much relieved as the family were because he had devoted an entire day to the quest, playing nurse girl the while to an impish baby which was not exactly a testimonial to the efficacy of any brand of soap.

ST. JEAN DE BAPTISTE DAY.

Celebration in Calumet by French Canadian Societies.

The French-Canadian societies of the copper country will today celebrate the anniversary of St. Jean de Baptiste, the patron saint of France. The societies from Hancock, Houghton, Calumet and Lake Linden will be present in force and French-Canadian residents of all the towns will attend. There will be a parade this morning and a high mass at the French Catholic church and during the day there will be a big picnic, with speeches and other features. The day is being pretty generally celebrated throughout the upper peninsula.

COPPERDOM BREVITIES.

Chas. McEann has purchased the Prospect home on Douglass street, East Houghton.

The Calumet & Hecla library placed at the disposal of borrowers on Saturday 275 new books.

The Marquette baseball team played the Baraga at Baraga yesterday afternoon. It won, 10 to 5.

George W. Barnes of Marquette arrived at Houghton yesterday to enter the Michigan College of Mines.

Miss Alice Spring of Houghton left yesterday for Marquette to take the summer course at the Normal.

Mrs. C. D. Noetzel and children of Wolverine have gone to Salt Lake City to visit relatives for several weeks.

It is understood a meeting will be called this week in Calumet for the purpose of organizing a union of clerks and teamsters.

The Calumet & Hecla band will give another of its delightful promenade dances next Friday night in the Calumet armory.

Miss Ethel Jacobs, science teacher in the Lake Linden High school, has resigned her position to accept a similar one in the Bessemer schools.

Rev. Father George LaForest of Manistique is visiting his parents in Calumet. Father LaForest was ordained last year, and Manistique is his first parish.

Miss Tina McDonald is announced as the winner of the high school prize in the Calumet Woman's club's "beauty Calumet" contest. She received for the high school a statue of Niobe.

A party of twenty teachers of the Calumet schools have entered the service of a Chicago book publishing house to sell its publications in the copper country this summer. They will descend upon the public today.

Dr. John Jackola and J. H. Jasberg of Hancock are in Ironwood today to deliver addresses at the Midsummer day celebration. Dr. Jackola will go from Ironwood to Duluth, where he has decided to locate permanently.

Miss Ethel Unsworth of Calumet, who graduated last week from the Marquette Normal school, returned home Saturday. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Unsworth, were present at the commencement exercises and came home with her.

EVERY MAN HIS OWN DOCTOR.

THE CAUSE OF MANY Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it. It is called "Bladder trouble." It is a disease of the bladder, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

EVERY MAN HIS OWN DOCTOR.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment, or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by The Stafford Drug Co.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers. The taint may lie dormant during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed and kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove of the cause, and then the sore must heal. SHOULD MINISTERS KEEP DOGS?

A certain minister once delivered a sermon of only ten minutes' duration—a most unusual thing for him. Upon the conclusion of his remarks, the minister added: "I regret to inform you, brethren, that my dog, who appears to be particularly fond of paper, this morning ate that portion of my sermon that I have not delivered." After the service the clergyman was met at the door by a man who, as a rule, attended divine service in another parish. "Shaking the good man by the hand, he said: "Doctor, I should like to know whether that dog of yours has any pups. If so, I want to get one to give to my minister."—Dundee Advertiser.

Yesterday's temperatures: Seven a. m., 66 degrees; noon, 76; 7 p. m., 65. Maximum, 85 degrees; minimum, 63.

T. M. Brown, of Menominee, is a Marquette visitor.

George B. McNulty, of Manistique, is looking after business here.

Mrs. D. J. Grant, of Burnett, Wis., is visiting Marquette friends.

Harold Little was down from Ishpeming to spend Sunday at his home here.

Street cars will run to the fair grounds all day today, beginning at 7 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Win Williams left Saturday night for Milwaukee, after a few days' visit in Marquette.

Mrs. Ellen C. McPherson, of Hancock, has returned home after a visit with friends in this city.

George Barnes went to Houghton yesterday to enter the Michigan College of Mines as a student.

Today being St. Jean Baptiste day, the butcher shops will close at 10 o'clock and the groceries at noon.

L. M. Spencer has announced himself as a candidate for the office of city recorder at the election to take place Tuesday, August 13.

Earl Braecigle, president of the class recently graduated from the high school, is in Detroit as the representative of the Marquette chapter of the Alpha Omega fraternity.

The closing exercises of St. Joseph's academy will be held at Baraga Hall Friday evening. An excellent program has been prepared. There are four graduates this year.

The annual convention of the young people's societies of the Swedish Lutheran church of the upper peninsula will be held here July 10 and 11. A picnic at Presque Isle will be the big feature of entertainment.

Miss Helen Reinhardt, East Hewitt avenue, has returned from a brief visit with friends at St. Ignace. Her brothers, Fred and Michael, returned Saturday from Deperre, Wis., where they have been attending school.

The Rival Juniors defeated the South Ends by the score of 28 to 3 at the old fair grounds yesterday. The game was chiefly distinguished by the fierce battling of the Rival Juniors who walloped the ball all over the lot.

Mrs. John Kaiaski, aged 42, died at her home, No. 614 South Fourth street, Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock, from St. Peter's cathedral, with interment at Holy Cross cemetery.

Superintendent A. J. Jeffers, of Atlantic, with several teachers of the Adams township schools, will arrive today for work at the Normal during the summer term. Mr. Jeffers will have charge of the department of history and civics.

Miss Rachel Hillbard, who has taught in the high school the past two years, leaves today for the East to spend the vacation months. Next year she becomes a member of the faculty of the woman's college of the Western Reserve university at Cleveland.

At the Baptist church yesterday morning, Miss Winifred J. Tucker sang an alto solo, "Hold Thou My Hand," by C. S. Briggs. Miss Tucker will be in the city with her parents until the first of July, when she goes to Chicago to resume her vocal studies with Professor Kathleen Hackett.

Osborn & Co., sand dealers and contractors, of Duluth, are calling attention to the fact that they have a cheap method of handling clean lake sand for building and other purposes. The firm also does dredging and filling, and is prepared to undertake wrecking jobs or other work of similar nature. Its equipment is one of the best on the lakes.

The Soo News reports that P. Downey of this city has leased the Belvidere Hotel, at that place, from Proprietor Joseph Burchill and will take possession of the house July 15. The Belvidere is a popular hostelry at the Soo and will shortly be able to accommodate an increased number of guests, a large addition to the house now being in course of construction.

Miss Ethel Ward, daughter of Superintendent Arthur Ward, of the Munising railway, who is to teach in the Munising city schools the coming year, was one of the young ladies to graduate from the Marquette Normal last week. Miss Ward was a student at the institution for four years and during that time, it is said, made a record for punctuality unequalled in the school. She was absent from her classes at no time during the entire four years.—Munising News.

Japan Is Delayed—The Japan, running from Duluth to Buffalo, experienced trouble with her machinery after leaving the F. B. Spear & Sons dock Saturday morning and was compelled to put back.

Play Tie Game—The Marquette Juniors tied with the Scandia team at the new fair grounds yesterday afternoon by the score of 4 to 4 in ten innings, the game being stopped by rain. The battery for Marquette Juniors was Ed. Smith and Will Beaudin and for the Scandias, Charles Anderson and Charles Johnson. The game was fiercely contested from start to finish, both teams putting up a gilt-edged article of ball. The teams will meet again in about two weeks.

Scarcity of Lemons—Something has happened to so popularize the lemon that the fruit is selling higher in this city than ever before. Lemons have often been purchased for twenty cents a dozen. Twenty-five cents was considered a good price while thirty was about the top mark. Now lemons command forty cents for the prime variety and the grocers say that even at that price the margin of profit is small. Dealers are unable to give the reason for the rise in price. There has been no report of a shortage in the lemon crop, but wholesalers have put the price up and the retailers have been compelled to make a corresponding raise or sell the fruit at a loss.

United States Court Notes—The jury in the case of Anell C. Rich vs. Victoria Copper Mining company, an action to establish the title to mining lands in Ontonagon county, gave a verdict according to the plaintiff an eight-twentieth interest in two quarter sections lying the value at $80 an acre. In the case of the United States vs. DeTour Cedar & Lumber company, an action to recover for lumber alleged to have been cut on the property of the plaintiff, a verdict for $1,386.85 was secured. Sentence was suspended in the case of Alexander B. Chartrand, a Soo saloon keeper convicted of purchasing soldiers' equipment, with the understanding that he report at the term of court, May 1908. The complaint against Chartrand specified the purchase of a coat and pair of gloves.

RESUME OF WORK OF LEGISLATURE

IT SHOWS THAT MANY GOOD BILLS HAVE BECOME LAWS—IS ABOVE MEDIOCRITY.

One criticism veteran legislators have been willing to make of the session just closing, is that it has cost the state too much money for local legislation. It has been true in previous sessions as well, but in their judgment the habit of appealing to the legislature on every little proposition has grown to be a serious fault. They point to the mass of local liquor legislation, the multitude of county game laws and municipal acts of a special character which, in their judgment, should have been settled in the locality concerned, and not sent to the legislators to take their time from state affairs and increase the cost of the sessions by many thousands of dollars.

It is claimed for this legislature that taken all together it has accomplished much for the good of the state, and that the class of legislation enacted raises it above mediocrity. There is no denying that earlier in the session there were weeks spent uselessly, and that matters were allowed to drag along when they should have been pushed with vigor, but a portion of the fault in that regard is ascribed to the long senatorial fight and the necessity of waiting to get that out of the way before taking up the other work.

One of the most important things accomplished was the passage of the resolution at the last moment which submits to the people the question whether many quasi-public corporations and partnerships now paying a specific tax shall be brought under the ad valorem law. It is probable if there had been more time to consider the matter there would have been a hard fight made against the bill. It will give to the state authority to collect large amounts in taxes not now secured and will bring within the ad valorem tax classification, it is claimed, the telegraph and telephone companies, although a bill was defeated which had for its purpose that very thing. It will also bring under the classification one or two railways which escape the ad valorem tax, by reason of their owners being organized as a partnership and not as a corporation. The resolution was drafted for the express purpose of reaching those railways and certain big firms doing business in this state.

The railways were the subject of the most important legislation in years. To a much greater extent than was thought possible at the opening of the session the legislators passed laws along the line of the regulating enactments of other states. The two-cent fare law, the railway commission act and the one making the roads common carriers of live stock are the most important of that class.

Scanning the lists of new laws there is found the juvenile court measure establishing an institution which will be of great efficiency, the new insurance code, which will provide much greater security for policy holders in Michigan, the necessary legislation to call a constitutional convention; the repeal of the limited liability and the change of venue acts; the law prohibiting wild cat banks; the measure regulating the rates of interest on loans on chattel mortgages and by pawnbrokers. In the future directors of banks must audit their accounts twice a year, under oath and forward the audit report to the banking department. This and an act prohibiting the issuing of watered stock on the organization of industrial companies, are the two most important commercial laws.

Of great interest to the farmers is the provision made for a binder twine plant at Jackson prison and the act providing for the payment of a cash highway tax instead of allowing taxpayers to work out their highway tax. The state highway department was given $270,000 for constructing good roads.

There are numerous other new enactments of more or less interest to the people of various sections of the state. The game and fire warden's departments have been consolidated and re-organized to provide more effective protection of game and to prevent forest fires. Of particular interest to this city is the law making it a misdemeanor to take away an automobile as a joke and another providing a penalty for stoning automobiles. The severity of punishment for wife deserters has been increased and provision is made whereby a portion of the earnings of a convicted wife deserter goes to his family.

Chief among the bills killed is the one to repeal the mortgage tax law; another was the M. U. R. bill, which proposed a change in the law relative to the securities state banks could purchase. Attorney General Bird was deeply disappointed that the tax commission was not given authority to again review assessments. He believes that power is necessary to prevent the undervaluation of property and a dangerous lawsuit over the railway taxes.

LIGHTNING STRIKES BARN.
Cow Is Killed and Building in Which It Stood Is Cut in Two.

Lightning struck and demolished the barn owned by Andrew Hansen, the dairyman, near the site of the Anthony Powder works, during the storm Saturday evening. One of the cows was killed outright and all the other animals in the barn were stunned. Several of the loaves were being milked at the time. Some of the persons in the barn were shocked. The barn was split in two, and there was a general disturbance of everything inside.

Mr. Hansen's barn was the only place in this city that was hit by the lightning. The storm was terrific, but fortunately was of short duration.

DROWNED AT PRINCETON.
Young Man Sinks in Deep Water While Swimming in Escanaba River.

Joseph Pasio, an Italian, employed at the Princeton mine, was drowned Saturday morning in the Escanaba river. He and several friends were swimming, and although a number of other men were near Pasio when he went down they were unable to save him. The young man is said to have been a good swimmer, but he sank unexpectedly, presumably as the result of a seizure of some kind. It took nearly two hours to recover the body.

The deceased was about twenty-two years of age and he had been at Princeton a year or more, or the greater part of the time since his arrival in this country from Italy. He was a member of the Italian society of Negeauce, and the funeral will be held in that city this afternoon under the auspices of Coroner William Prin of this city and Undertaker Eli Dave of Negeauce were called to Princeton Saturday evening, Mr. Dave bringing the body to Negeauce yesterday.

BIG PICNIC DAY.
Many Will Go to Marquette, Others Enjoying Outings at Home.

Midsummer Day, the greatest picnic day of the year, will be celebrated by many Ishpeeming citizens today. There will be no work at the mines, and the business houses will close at noon.

There will be three picnics at Marquette in which Ishpeeming people will participate. The members of the French society and their friends will travel by special train via the South Shore. The members of the Sunday School society of the First Methodist Episcopal church, who will hold their annual picnic at Presque Isle, here at 9 o'clock. The Finns of the county will conduct their second annual picnic today at Presque Isle. No particular train arrangements have been made for this picnic, though it is expected that the outing will be largely attended.

The Scandinavian and Swedish Home societies of Ishpeeming will be the guests of the Negeauce Scandinavian society at a picnic at Cleveland park. The members of both lodges will go to Negeauce this morning, leaving here at 9:30, to participate in the parade.

The Norwegian Lutheran church people will hold a picnic at the Deer Lake grove.

All manufacturers and mine owners contemplating doing any roof-work either Gravel or Felts, or repairing and coating the old metal or felt roofs, will do well to write to the Enamel Roof Paint and Roofing Co., 189 Deming St., Kenosha, Wis. They will be in the copper county this spring. (3-7-24m-6m)

NORWEGIAN REUNION.
Lutheran Congregation Will Conduct a Four Days' Celebration.

A unique reunion of the members of the Norwegian church society of this city is being held this week. All the members of the denomination who have been confirmed here during the thirty-five years the local church has been in existence have been invited to attend, and it is expected that a number of former residents of the city will be present. A complete record of those who joined the church here is not available, as the first registration book was destroyed by fire some years ago. However, a list of many names is in possession of Rev. Mr. Lillehei, the pastor, together with other records of interest.

The reunion opened yesterday with services conducted both morning and evening by visiting ministers. Large congregations were present. Today there will be a picnic at the Deer Lake grove. All the members of the congregation and their friends have been invited to attend. The young people will meet at the church at 9 o'clock and will march to the grove. There will be various amusements, including athletic contests, and refreshments will be served. Short addresses will be made by Rev. N. J. Ellestad and Hans Fosness, former pastor of the church here.

Tomorrow and Wednesday there will be religious meetings at the church, with special sermons by the ministers. Matters of importance to the church will be discussed by both ministers and laymen.

REUNION AT HOMESTEAD.

Charles Mueck Will Celebrate Seventy-Sixth Anniversary Today.

Charles Mueck, one of Negaunee's pioneers, will today celebrate the seventy-sixth anniversary of his birth at his homestead near Little Lake. All of the members of his family, with possibly two exceptions, will be present and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huber of Jackson, Miss., who arrived in the city Saturday, will also be there.

Mr. Mueck is enjoying excellent health; in fact he feels as well and looks as young as he has at any time during the past ten years. He was one of Negaunee's first meat dealers, having located here forty-seven years ago. He conducted a most successful business until some five or six years ago, when he retired in favor of his son, Hugo, who is now conducting a market at the old stand on East Iron street.

All of the ten children of the family, six of whom are still living, were born in the market building. Mrs. Mueck died a few years ago.

Mr. Mueck conducted his business in the early days under most trying circumstances. For several years prior to the completion of the Chicago & Northwestern railway from Wisconsin to this city he brought his cattle from Milwaukee and other points in Wisconsin by foot, spending many days enroute, driving his herds. This task was anything but pleasant, as he was many times obliged to sleep in the open, herding his cattle as he went along. At the time he retired he was the oldest market man in this city and there was perhaps no other man in the upper peninsula who had been in the business continuously a greater number of years. He was established here several years before the pioneer firm of Winter & Sues began business. After the completion of the railroads much of his strenuous work ceased, but for some years, until the advent of the refrigerator cars, he did the greater part of his own killing.

Mr. Huber, who is to be the guest at the camp today, and who with his wife will probably spend the greater part of the coming month in this city and at the homestead, was born and raised at Champion, being a son of George Huber, the veteran meat market man of that place. Following the death of his father-in-law, Mr. Huber was appointed a supreme judge, succeeding the old gentleman, with whom he was associated in business. In addition to conducting his law business he has a plantation on which 400 negroes are employed, with seven overseers. He is one of the youngest supreme judges in the country, not yet having reached his thirty-second year.

Under the new law it is necessary to obtain the dates of births of all children between five and six and those between nineteen and twenty years of age. The census law must be observed to the letter.

The percentage of children of school age attending the schools in Negaunee is reasonably large, there being in the neighborhood of 1,000 at the public and parochial schools last year. It is expected that there will be an increase next year, although Mr. Verran observed that there is a tendency on the part of the parents to put the older boys to work.

What shall we have for breakfast?
"Why Cudahy's Peacock Ham and Eggs of course; they are always acceptable, especially at this season of the year. (11-27-e-o-d)

SCHOOL CENSUS COMPLETED.

Gain of Children of School Age Over Last Year Is Twenty-Eight.

William Verran has completed taking the school census of the city, and has presented reports in duplicate to the school board. One of the copies is to be sent to the department of public instruction at Lansing, and the other will be retained by the board. The increase over last year was twenty-eight, the returns by wards being as follows:

1907.	1906.
First ward	531 553
Second ward	381 370
Third ward	231 223
Fourth ward	642 657
Fifth ward	573 527
Total	2,358 2,330

When Mr. Verran started he expected that the increase would be considerably larger, but before the work had been fairly started he found that a number of the larger families had left the city. In the First ward three families who had more than twenty children of school age had gone away. Mr. Verran found that most of the families had moved to Butte, the copper country and the Mesaba range.

The Finnish families have a greater number of children than any other nationality. A few years ago the Irish and English were in the lead, but during the past three years, since Mr. Verran has been taking the census, he has noticed a decrease in both nationalities. The number of Italian children, and particularly boys from sixteen to twenty years, has increased considerably since the last census. During the past year a large number of young Italians have come to this country. He found one boarding house where there were eleven between the age of sixteen and twenty-five years, six of these being under twenty, but all are working.

Mr. Verran had much difficulty at the homes of some of the foreigners in getting the information desired. He found that the parents of some of the boys from sixteen to twenty years, who are working, were disinclined to tell the truth, fearing that they might be compelled to send their sons to school. It was necessary to make several calls at some of the homes before he obtained all the information desired.

Under the new law it is necessary to obtain the dates of births of all children between five and six and those between nineteen and twenty years of age. The census law must be observed to the letter.

The percentage of children of school age attending the schools in Negaunee is reasonably large, there being in the neighborhood of 1,000 at the public and parochial schools last year. It is expected that there will be an increase next year, although Mr. Verran observed that there is a tendency on the part of the parents to put the older boys to work.

What shall we have for breakfast?
"Why Cudahy's Peacock Ham and Eggs of course; they are always acceptable, especially at this season of the year. (11-27-e-o-d)

NO WORK TODAY.

Workingmen Lay Off and Business Houses Will Close at Noon.

Today will be generally observed as a holiday in both Negaunee and Ishpeming. There will be no work in any of the mines, except in departments where repairs are necessary. The mercantile houses will close at noon, remaining closed the rest of the day. The people of the three cities of the county will not lack for amusement, as there are to be three big picnics, two at Marquette conducted by the French societies and the Finns of the county, and the other at Cleveland park, conducted under auspices of the Scandinavian society of Negaunee, with the members of the other Scandinavian societies of the county as guests. Soon after the members of the French society leave for Marquette the Scandinavians will arrive. The two societies at Ishpeming have chartered street cars, to leave that city at 9:30. The parade here will take place shortly after 10 o'clock. The procession will be led by the Portage Lake band and will terminate at the park. If the weather is favorable there will be an unusually large crowd at the picnic. It will be the first of the season. Several men have been working there the past two weeks or more, putting the grounds in good condition. All the street cars are to be in commission today and it is expected that the crowds will be well handled.

TIT FOR TAT.

Italian Arrested on Charge of Assault Got Even With the Complainant.

John Starabrietto and John Contratto, boarding on Ann street, got into an altercation Sunday night, the latter using a knife with which he cut Starabrietto's scalp in a number of places. Starabrietto appeared before Justice Verran and swore out a complaint, charging Contratto with assault with intent to do great bodily harm less than the crime of murder, and Contratto was brought into court. He was found guilty and was obliged to pay a light fine and costs of court.

After paying his fine Contratto swore out a warrant for the arrest of Starabrietto, charging him with being the aggressor in the case. He brought in several witnesses to prove that Starabrietto provoked the fight and that he was getting the better of the argument when Contratto used his knife in self defense. Starabrietto was fined the same amount as Contratto. The men had been drinking prior to the fight. Both cases were disposed of the latter part of the week.

DO NOT NEGLECT THE CHILDREN.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR CELEBRATION

ALL ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR THE OBSERVANCE OF ST. JEAN BAPTISTE DAY.

SEVEN SOCIETIES IN LINE

Parade to Take Place at 10:30 O'Clock—Exercises at Fair Grounds in the Afternoon—Ball at Night.

All arrangements have been completed for the fitting observance of St. Jean Baptiste day by the French-Canadian societies of the upper peninsula, under the auspices of the St. Jean Baptiste society of Marquette. The program will open with a grand parade at 10:30 o'clock, immediately upon the arrival of the visiting societies. The line of march will be on Baraga to Front, Front to Washington, west on Washington to Fifth, north on Fifth to Bluff, east on Bluff to Third, north to Fair avenue. The street railway company has given assurance that plenty of cars will be on hand at the disbanding of the parade to carry the people to the fair grounds. There will be seven societies and six bands in line. A float representing St. John Baptiste has been constructed and is said to be the handsomest ever seen in a parade of the description. Charles Besudry will be marshal of the day and J. B. Nault and F. B. Vanchesting aids. Mayor to Welcome Societies.

Dinner will be served at the main building at the grounds from 11:30 to 1:30 p. m. At 1:30 Mayor Robertson will make the address of welcome to the societies, on behalf of the city. President La Rochelle, of the Marquette society, will respond. There will be probably other addresses by leading members of the societies. At one of the pavilions there will be a continuous performance of moving pictures and illustrated songs from 1:30 to 5:30 o'clock under the management of L. J. Genet. At another pavilion there will be dancing during the afternoon. Supper will be served in the main pavilion at 5 o'clock. The program will close with a grand ball at Fraternity hall in the evening, for which Sweet's fine orchestra will furnish the music. The list of societies that will be present is as follows:

- St. Jean Baptiste, Munising.
 - Chevaliers de La Fayette, Negaunee.
 - Union Canadienne Francaise, Ishpeming.
 - St. John Baptiste, Republic.
 - Institute Joseph Carrier, Escanaba.
 - St. John Baptiste, Menominee.
- The Munising delegation will arrive at 9:30 and all the others at 10:30. This year will be the first time that Munising has been represented at a gathering of this character, as its society was only organized this spring. In spite of its youth it is in a flourishing condition and is expected to send a good delegation. That much interest is being shown in outside cities in the celebration is shown by the following from the Menominee Herald-Leader:

"At the celebration of the feast of St. Jean Baptiste, which will be held at Marquette Monday, the Menominee delegation present at the great Canadian festival will extend a cordial invitation to the societies to come to Menominee in 1910, when the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the Menominee lodge will be marked by one of the greatest celebrations in the order's history.

"The annual feast to be observed at Marquette this year is attracting such widespread attention that reduced rates are being offered by all railroads and a number of Menominee people will take advantage of the prevailing prices to attend the celebration and visit Marquette.

"The local delegation will leave Menominee at 3:30 o'clock Monday morning and upon reaching Escanaba will be joined by a large representation from that city who will be accompanied by Quivron's band. The excursion train will leave Escanaba at 3:30 o'clock and proceed directly to Marquette. The Menominee members will be able to return the same night if they desire, although the tickets will be good for an extended length of time."

ENGAGEMENT OPENS TONIGHT.

Mack-Leone Company Will be Seen in "Tribby" at Opera House.

The Mack-Leone company will open a two weeks' engagement of summer stock at the Marquette Opera House this evening, presenting "Tribby," a play, based on Du Maurier's novel of the name, which had a great vogue a few years ago. Mr. Mack will be cast in the part of Svengali and Miss Leone as Tribby. The other members of the company have congenial roles. The leading players in this organization are well remembered here through their previous engagement, when they played to packed houses for an extended period. The company follows the plan of selecting for presentation plays of dramatic worth, many of them popularized by the leading stars of the company, instead of giving wishy-washy pieces of indifferent merit that are the standbys of most popular priced companies. Mr. Mack and Miss Leone usually give very acceptable and sympathetic presentations of the principal roles, and as they are well supported their performances are highly acceptable to their patrons.

The company has lately concluded an exceptionally successful six weeks' engagement at the Metropolitan theater in St. Paul, and it is expected that "standing room only" will be the rule during its Marquette engagement.

RAIN ARRIVES WITH VENGEANCE

LONG HOPED FOR INUNDATION FINALLY STRIKES MARQUETTE IN FORM OF FIERCEST FLOOD IN THIRTY YEARS.

"It never rains but it pours," is an aptly descriptive phrase for Marquette when yesterday's shower is considered. For over three weeks this locality has been in the grip of a drought. Vegetables refused to grow and the grass turned yellow under the withering rays of the sun. Rain was both hoped and prayed for, but when it did arrive it proved to be too much of a good thing. Within five minutes after the shower started yesterday afternoon about 4:20 o'clock, the South Shore tracks southeast of Washington street became the bed of a torrent. On Front street the sidewalks were submerged as far north as Spring street and many basements were flooded. The Braxton barber shop in the basement of the First National bank building, corner of Front and Spring streets, was one of the most badly damaged. The water rose to over a foot in the room but fortunately receded before injuring the upholstery on the chairs. In the basement of the William Rivers saloon, No. 108 West Baraga avenue, corner of Front, the water rose to a height of four feet, floating all the furniture and overlapping the back bar. The damage is estimated at $100. Several switch engines were stopped at the Third and Spring street crossing as the torrent had piled up dirt and debris at this point to an extent that threatened to derail them.

Old settlers state that the flood was the worst that had visited this vicinity in thirty years. The only storm that could compare with it was on July 3, 1873, when a cloud-burst north of the city resulted in a bad flood. A washout between this city and Negaunee suspended all traffic on the South Shore. Railroad officials were unable to state last night the extent of the damage or when it could be repaired.

Weather Observer Patrick reports that between 4:25 and 7 o'clock last evening, 3.90 inches of rain came down. It was the most terrific downpour in years.

MARQUETTE TEAM WON.

Defeated Baraga Yesterday on the Baraga Diamond, 10 to 5.

Marquette's speedy amateur baseball team, the club formerly known as the Juniors, took the Baraga mine into camp yesterday afternoon on the Baraga grounds, winning an interesting, well-played game by the score of 10 to 5. The weather was wet, rain twice interrupting the play, nevertheless a big crowd was out and much enthusiasm was shown.

Features of the game, and these were largely responsible for the victory of the visitors, were the pitching of Captain Scholtus and the stick-work of himself and his team-mates. Marquette secured a total of fifteen hits. Four of these were two-baggers, and another was a home run. This latter, made by Webb, who also slammed out the ball for two bases, came at an opportune moment. Three men were on the bags. A star play in the field was made by Riopelle when, with two Baraga men on bases, he rolled off the fence a high fly that looked good for a homer. A summary of the game follows:

Marquette	R.	H.	E.

The team returned home on the evening train. It is anxious to meet other outside nines, and is ready and willing to play the teams of Crystal Falls, Iron River, Escanaba, Bessemer, Ironwood and other upper peninsula towns.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE FAIR GROUNDS

DINING HALL AND CEMENT WALK TO BE BUILT—$1,500 FOR THE RACES.

Should the weather be propitious Secretary Asiro, of the Marquette County Agricultural association, says that the fair Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6 will be the best ever held here. Numerous improvements will be made at the grounds for the convenience and to add to the pleasure of the public. In former years the dining service has been both poor and inadequate, a tent being often utilized. It has been decided to build a dining hall 40x22 feet and ten feet high and an appropriation of $450 has been made for the purpose. The contract will be let in a few days. The cement walk in front of the agricultural buildings will be extended to the grand stand, a distance of something like 800 feet at a cost of between $50 and $600. An appropriation has also been made to make the fair in good condition. The infield has been poor for some time and the pitcher's box is hollowed out to a depth of several inches.

Racing a Big Feature.

"It's a nice thing to have a fine agricultural display, and the art and animal exhibits are always attractive features, but when all is said and done no fair ever proved a great success from the standpoint of interest if the races were a frost," said President Mangum of the association yesterday. "There has always got to be something about every show to stir the blood to make it generally satisfactory to the masses. There is only about one person in a hundred that cares anything about art; one in fifty that is interested in blooded stock; one in twenty-five that enthuses over poultry, but nine out of ten like to see a horse race and they pay their money to attend a fair with no other end in view."

"Up to last year the fairs in this city were more or less failures because the racing was not what it should have been. Last season, however, the management was both hoped and prayed for, but when it did arrive it proved to be too much of a good thing. Within five minutes after the shower started yesterday afternoon about 4:20 o'clock, the South Shore tracks southeast of Washington street became the bed of a torrent. On Front street the sidewalks were submerged as far north as Spring street and many basements were flooded. The Braxton barber shop in the basement of the First National bank building, corner of Front and Spring streets, was one of the most badly damaged. The water rose to over a foot in the room but fortunately receded before injuring the upholstery on the chairs. In the basement of the William Rivers saloon, No. 108 West Baraga avenue, corner of Front, the water rose to a height of four feet, floating all the furniture and overlapping the back bar. The damage is estimated at $100. Several switch engines were stopped at the Third and Spring street crossing as the torrent had piled up dirt and debris at this point to an extent that threatened to derail them."

Considerable money was expended last year in improving the track and it is still in fairly good condition. Prior to the races, however, it will be harrowed and rolled, which should enable the horses to make fast time. The half-mile track, which waned in popularity about a decade ago when the race records that had stood for years began to go glimmering with the introduction of the bicycle sulkey and the kite track, are rapidly being reinstated in favor, and many cities are repaving their mile tracks into the smaller distance. From the spectators standpoint the half-mile track possesses an immense advantage over the mile, as it brings the horses twice past the grand stand in mile events and gives drivers much better opportunities to close in on the turns. The popularity of the matinee, gentleman drivers up, has also aided in re-establishing the half-mile track in the favor of the public, as most of the events are half-mile heats.

ONLY THE FEW STRIKE IT RICH

S. H. GIBSON SAYS THAT OPPORTUNITIES TO ACQUIRE WEALTH IN NEVADA HAVE BEEN GREATLY EXAGGERATED IN REPORTS.

S. H. Gibson, a resident of Marquette for over thirty years, who went to Ely, Nevada, several months ago, is here on a brief visit, while on his way to Buffalo. Mr. Gibson does not paint a very rosy picture of life in Nevada. He says the country is a long way from being what it is cracked up to be. He does not advise any of his friends to dispose of their interests in the upper peninsula and go there.

"There are just two topics of conversation in Nevada, the big strike that somebody is going to make and the coming prize fight," said Mr. Gibson. "I had an idea when I went down there that millionaires were as thick as gophers in Minnesota and that most of the natives were diamonds as large as Lima beans in their shirt fronts. I was disillusioned before I had been there an hour. I met all kinds of men who had heard of men who had made strikes, but it was never my luck to run across the individuals who had dug up the stuff. There is gold in Nevada, also silver and copper, and in many localities it pays to mine it. But most of the money made down there is through selling claims and shares to easterners."

"As a medium of advertising the different towns, finish fights are given nearly monthly. A few days ago, when I left Ely, Tex Richard was trying to arrange a battle for Ely between James J. Jeffries and Squires, the Australian. He offered a $30,000 purse. As there are only about 3,000 people in Ely they would have to put up $10 each if the amount Richard, however, probably figures on taking in at least the amount of the purse from the outside visitors and cleaning up as much more from the roulette wheels and faro games which will be in full swing for several days prior and subsequent to the event."

"The invasion of Nevada by the gold seekers has been made possible through the automobile. A stage line of vehicles is the only method of communication between Ely and Goldfields, which are 130 miles apart. They make the trip in about three hours, where it would have taken the old stage coach the same number of days."
