LEHTO NOW OF CALUMET.

Carl Lehto, the Finnish wrestler, who is to have an exhibition with Zybszko March 1 at Calumet, has changed his residence from Hancock to Calumet and is out with a statement that the Hancock criticism of the Calumet promoters or his match is unwarranted.

The big Fin is not afraid to meet any wrestler in the business, but he cannot take them all on. He states that he is approached several times a day with propositions to meet different wrestlers, good, bad and indifferent.

Lehto is not unknown outside of the copper country, for he came to this country from Finland when he was only a long, The Duluth, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Chicago and Detroit papers, too, have been singing his praises the past two months or more and speak of him as one of the possible "big ones."

It has been proposed, and both men are stated to be in favor of the proposition, that Gronlund and Joe Ziehr of Calumet meet in a mixed Finnish and catch-as-catch-can or Graco-Roman style match in the near future.

FRANKLIN. Making a New Property of Promise—Its Latest Acquisition Important.

Matters are developing at Lake Superior as never before. Next after the expansion policy of the Calumet & Hecla and the discovery of copper wealth in Michigan and Indiana, the announcement that the old Franklin is to become one of the important mines. This is because of the acquisition of the Rhode Island and now after one year's negotiations the Franklin will now aim at a production of 20,000,000 pounds of copper per annum from five shafts instead of less than 5,000,000 pounds from one shaft.

KEWEENAW COPPER. The annual report of the Keweenaw company is considered a favorable presentation from a financial standpoint. It is rather disappointing in that it has nothing to offer in the way of definite information as to the future of the mine development. Diamond drilling is to be continued in addition to the exploratory shaft work now being done on the Kearsarge lode.

QUINCY. Next to Calumet & Hecla the Quincy property has more underground openings, crosscuts and drifts than any other Lake company. While no exact record is available, it has probably one hundred miles of openings. There are forty levels, but the upper ones are sixty instead of 100 feet apart, making the mine's depth nearer 3,000 than 4,000 feet.

LAKE COPPER PRODUCTION. The output of the Lake Superior mines for January was 19,240,127 pounds of fine copper, compared with 19,920,458 pounds in December, a decrease of 680,331 pounds, or 3.3 per cent.

OLD DOMINION. Despite the accident to the large hoist at the shaft of the Old Dominion the output of fine copper for the month of January was 2,130,000 pounds.

Notes of copper news. The United Verde Extension directors have voted to issue 25,000 shares of the recently authorized stock to stockholders at $2 per share.

Mining News

NOTES OF COPPER NEWS.

Although the Ramos mine of the Butte Coalition is working only partly, both the Tramway and Minnie Healey are yielding a good production of high grade ore. Reports from the mine are that the extent of ore contained in this mine is estimated at 13,000,000 tons, yet every day's work adds to this amount in new ore as yet only partially developed.

The authoritative statement is made that Butte Coalition, which is again producing at the rate of 4,000,000 pounds per month at a cost of less than ten cents, is earning $1.75 per share on its stock. Production could be increased if desirable. It is said that in the Montana copper merger, Butte Coalition will go in with Anaconda at relative values of 30 and 50.

Adventure's new shaft has attained a depth of approximately 375 feet. This shaft will reach the first of the lodolite in diamond drilling at a depth of about 900 feet. This is the only work now being done at the property. It is quite probable that the new shaft will reach the lodolite next fall. It is understood that diamond drilling from the lower workings of the mine will be undertaken early in the spring.

The Tennessee copper company during the year 1909 produced approximately 14,000,000 pounds of copper at a cost slightly better than the 1908. cost of the previous year. On the 24th of this month the stockholders' annual meeting will take place at which time the full report covering last year's operations will be made public.

President of the British Labor Party Makes Important Announcement. London, Feb. 14.—The following cabinet appointments have been announced: Home secretary, Winston Spencer Churchill; president of the board of trade, Sydney Buxton; postmaster general, Herbert Louis Samuel.

GENTLEMEN'S ENGLAND.

The Distinction Made in England Between Guineas and Pounds. "Funny thing," said the writer, who had just received a check for two pounds two shillings from London. "How the editor over in England paid me in guineas, not in English pounds. In fact it would be an insult if the editor had simply paid me two pounds.

"My check is written 'Two guineas,' and the envelope in which it is sent me is addressed 'John Smith, Esq.' This in effect is a second recognition that I have submitted a piece of literary art. Yet the figures on the check are '£12, s2,' to prevent errors in bookkeeping.

"If I'd been on the staff of the periodical my salary would be paid me in guineas, not in English pounds. I had performed a routine job of some kind, such as compiling a table of statistics for the editor, and that I was being paid for mechanical labor.

"These two kinds of money, guineas and pounds, show up in many curious ways. All professional men are paid in guineas. If you are running a big private school, you are supposed to be working for tuition and parents of your pupils pay you in guineas because you're supposed to be merely engaging in an altruistic, philanthropic project of building a brain for Britain.

"Two trades are paid in guineas for goods purchased, but other trades are paid in pounds sterling. These trades are the interior decorator and the jeweler. The jeweler's goods are supposed to be works of art, and such commercial articles as watch chains and watches are priced in guineas. Certain swells and exclusive London tailors, to whom you have to be introduced, by the way, charge you in guineas for the coats and trousers they consent to make for you.

TEMPERAMENT.

No man can escape his temperament. But he can do better than that: he can transcend it. None of us is better than he should be. But let him look that he is as good as he could be, is the advice of a writer in Harper. If he is a busy-body, let him distribute alms. If he is a sulky brute, let him have the strength of silence and endurance.

Answer this Question

When thousands of women say that they have been cured of their ailments by a certain remedy, does this not prove the merit of that remedy?

Thousands of women have written the story of their suffering, and have told how they were freed from it by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—for thirty years these reports have been published all over America.

"I am a firm believer in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was a great sufferer from organic female troubles for years and almost despaired of ever being well again. I had bearing-down pains, backache, headache and pains in my abdomen, and tried Mrs. Pinkham's Compound as a last resort. The result was astonishing, and I have used it and advocated it ever since. It is a great boon to expectant mothers. I have often said that I should like to have my merits thrown on the sky with a search-light so that women would read and be convinced that there is a remedy for their sufferings.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ailments. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Blender airs seem to breathe, kinder influences to sway, and we wonder at our own goodness, gentleness, courage, as we live through days of unwanted sweetness.

THE KNOWING LITTLE MINK.

When His Feet Are Caught in a Trap He Knows Better What to Do With Them Than Does the Muskrat in a Like Predicament.

"If you ever see a rabbit track in the snow and a peculiar looking triangular track following it," said a close observer of such things, "then you may be sure that a mink is on that rabbit's trail, and as the mink is a cunning and relentless rabbit hunter you may make up your mind that that rabbit's doom is sealed."

"I was once following a mink that was following a rabbit, for it was at a time when mink pelts were worth from $8 to $10 apiece to the trapper and I wanted that mink. The double chase led three miles over a rugged range to a deep ravine, where I came upon the mink just as it had run the rabbit down. I shot the mink and was surprised to find that both of its fore legs were off at the knee.

"The stumps were healed and grown over, showing that the mink had been pecking along on two half legs for perhaps a year or more. It had been trapped and had, after a way trapped mink have of freeing themselves, if they have time and opportunity, gnawed its fore legs off to get out and away.

"Minks are trapped in the common steel jaw and pen traps. If a mink is caught in a trap by its fore feet so that it can get at them with its teeth it will invariably gnaw the imprisoned feet and escape. Sometimes muskrats caught in traps in that way will gnaw their fore feet to get away.

"There are hundreds of delicate distinctions in British etiquette in the matter of money. One of the most curious is that of a certain London club where the members receive their change in gold, silver and penny postage stamps, neither paper money nor copper being given, and gentlemen are not supposed to know any money except coined gold and silver."

Peahigo (Wis.) Lady, Visiting Here, Sustained Serious Injuries Yesterday.

Mrs. Mary Adams of Peahigo, Wis., who is here visiting E. R. Nelson and family, corner Euclid and Pine streets, fell down stairs yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, sustaining serious injuries. Both Mr. and Mrs. Nelson heard Mrs. Adams fall, and the former immediately ran to her assistance, finding her at the foot of the stairs with blood flowing profusely from the wound in her head. He carried her to her room and a physician soon arrived.

These mines are owned and controlled by the Republic Iron & Steel company and are among the more important of the properties on this section of the range. For a man so young, Mr. Flannigan has been placed in a most responsible and lucrative position and his many friends in Virginia are pleased to learn of his good fortune and wish him every success."

CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT.

A novel entertainment has been planned by the Epworth league of the English Methodist church. The monthly social, Wednesday evening, will take the form of an "inter-collegiate track meet."

Through such events as a shot-put, relay race and high jump are scheduled, yet no athletic ability or experience will be required in the participants. A very unique evening is promised and all young people are invited to attend. There will be music and refreshments and a collection will be taken.

FOX HUNTING NOVELTIES.

Two extraordinary finishes to fox hunts were reported recently. During a fox hunt near Silloth, a Cumberland seaport, the fox escaped over the golf course to the seashore. It was chased by some fishermen who ran under the pier, but found itself faced with the alternative of either swimming across a channel or jumping into the docks. It chose the latter. Some work people pelted it while it was in the water, but eventually it was hauled into a boat with a rope and lodged in a henhouse. Passengers in a local train from Dover to Deal had the unusual experience of seeing a kill on the line on Monday. The East Kent foxhounds met about six miles from Dover, and a little way out of the town many instances of what were seen on the heights above the train. When the entire train rounded a curve the master and huntsman were on the line surrounding the fox, which had just been killed. The huntsman took off his red coat and waved it until the driver pulled up. The train waited while the fox was broken up and the hounds were taken past it and up the embankment.—London Express.

HAVE YOU EVER TRIED IT?

Four Miles Per Hour Is Fast Gait to Maintain.

There is nothing that the average person believes more truthfully than that he can walk four miles in an hour easily. Almost any one will say: "We were out walking for an hour and a half today. Let me see—four miles an hour; that makes six miles we went." And he is convinced that is the ground his party covered.

That same average person has only to try to walk four miles in sixty minutes to discover that it is good, stiff going. There are many more folks who cover three miles in the time, when they think they are going at the rate of a mile better, than there are who actually know the pace they are making.

It is an easy thing to determine. For instance, one man noted the time on his watch when he started and swung along at a gait that he fondly believed was a mile in ten minutes. That, for instance, would be about one-half the speed that the average mile runner would make when he was fairly new to the going, but he would have to train for a time to do that.

The walker didn't take out his watch until he had reached the end of his first mile. Then he looked. It was fifteen minutes almost to the second when he ended that mile.

This was a little of a shock, especially as there were only a couple of crosswalks in the way and there was a nice stretch of gravel path, alongside the pavements on which to walk. But he started off again for the second time. This time he walked steadily, using his hips, and eventually got striding at a clip that convinced him he was going four minutes better than the other mile. The inexorable watch showed fourteen minutes for the second mile.

A man may have "at home" days, but fortune persists in ignoring them.

COUNCIL TO MEET AGAIN TONIGHT

ALDERMEN DISAGREE AS TO USE AND SALE OF DEAD RIVER ICE BEING PROHIBITED.

ANALYSES OF THE SAMPLES

State Board of Health Finds Water in Cinder Pond and Dead River Impure, and That in Inner Harbor Fair.

Final action on the proposed ordinance was put over until tonight by the council last evening, in consequence of a disagreement among the aldermen regarding the advisability of putting ice cut from Dead river in the same class as that cut from the inner harbor, making it impossible to obtain the necessary three-fourths vote to put the ordinance on its immediate passage.

The spectators' gallery was well filled when the meeting was called to order, practically all of the Marquette ice men and fishermen being represented.

Reports on Three Samples. Sample No. 1 (Dead river) is highly contaminated with organic material and is in reality a dirty, filthy water, which should under no circumstances be used either for drinking purposes or for the manufacture of ice.

Sample No. 2 (Cinder pond), while containing somewhat less organic material, is very highly contaminated with sewage bacteria.

Sample No. 3 (Inner harbor) gives a fairly average analysis of the Lake Superior water, containing a small amount of contamination. While this water could not be looked upon as safe for drinking purposes, it is the best of the three submitted and will probably give a fairly good ice.

Draft of Ordinance. Alderman Schauer, after these reports had been read, moved the passage of the following ordinance:

"An ordinance relative to the use of impure ice.

"The City of Marquette ordains: Section 1. Impure ice, within the meaning of this ordinance, shall be deemed to be ice cut or gathered from the waters of that portion of the harbor of this city lying south and east of Lake street, west of the government breakwater and north of Hampton street produced.

Section 2. No person shall in the city of Marquette use or place or cause to be used or placed any impure ice in contact with or so that the water from the melting thereof may or does come in contact with any meat, fish, fruit, vegetables, milk or other articles of human food or drink; nor shall any person use any such ice in the manufacture or packing of ice cream or other like article in said city; nor shall any person sell, offer for sale or furnish any such ice for domestic use or for use in any hotel, restaurant, saloon, boarding house, hospital or like institution in said city.

Section 3. No person shall sell, offer for sale or deliver in this city, or ship from said city, any meat, fish, fruit, vegetables, milk or other article of human food or drink, which is or has been in contact with any impure ice or water from the melting thereof.

Section 4. Any violation of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars and not to exceed one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the city lock-up or county jail for a period not exceeding ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court or magistrate before whom such conviction may be had."

As soon as he could find opportunity, Alderman Hennessy moved to amend the ordinance to include Dead river as well as the inner harbor, including the Cinder pond. He declared that the report showed the Dead river water to be just about as bad as the other samples, and that it should be included with the rest. Alderman Schauer maintained that there was little to be feared from the organic impurities in the Dead river water, and that there was no reason for putting it under the ban. When the vote was taken on Mr. Hennessy's amendment, there were four votes for it and four against, upon which the mayor voted "nay," and the amendment was declared lost. A motion to suspend the rules and put the original ordinance upon its immediate passage received the same vote, the mayor voting "aye," but the motion was lost as it requires a three-fourths vote to suspend the rules. For this reason adjournment was taken until this evening, when a majority will be sufficient to pass the ordinance.

Other Business Transacted. A petition signed by Father Jodoy and eight others, protesting against the use of soft coal by the Crescent laundry, was referred to the committee on ordinances and rule.

J. H. Kaye and five others requested

That an electric light be placed at the corner of Presque Isle avenue and Hematite street, which was referred to the committee on streets.

A bid from F. W. Sambrook & Son offering to build a wooden bridge across Dead river at the electric power plant for $644 was laid on the table.

The council decided to put the proposed amendment to the water board charter to a vote of the people at the regular spring election on April 4.

The petition for electric lights at the corner of Cedar and Hewitt avenue, and Front and Hematite streets, were granted.

ICE FROM MINERAL POND.

Lake Superior Ice Company Putting in Pure Product This Winter. The Lake Superior Ice company has decided to take no chances on the outcome of the discussion over the proposed ordinance, but is now cutting ice for domestic use from what is known as Mineral Springs pond, located just east of the Cox farm, and fed by the same springs from which Polaris water is obtained.
