

BATTLE FOUGHT ON THE MEXICAN BOUNDARY LINE

Bullets Fly Across the Rio Grande at El Paso and Five Persons Are Killed and at Least Twelve Are Wounded on the American Side of the River.

Mutiny Develops in the Rebel Ranks, a Portion of Madero's Army Attacks Juarez and the Engagement Continues All Day Long—A Truce at Night.

El Paso, Tex., May 8.—The total dead for the day's fighting, including insurgents and federals, is tonight estimated at nearly thirty. The wounded will number close to sixty.

El Paso, Tex., May 8.—Insurrection in the ranks of General Madero's army and a lust for the fight which the federal commissions had apparently deprived them caused a fierce attack on Juarez which culminated tonight in a careful retreat of the insurgents, after a day of continuous skirmishing.

A force of 150 rebels who early today opened fire on the federal army, captured some of the important outposts but carried the fight into Juarez. The casualties of the insurgents and federals are not known tonight, but five persons on the American side of the line were killed and at least twelve were wounded.

Thousands of Americans in El Paso dotted roof-tops or lined the river bank, in direct line of the fire. Colonel Steever, of the Fourth United States cavalry, protested to both armies against firing into American territory, and it lessened considerably thereafter. Nearly one thousand American troops were camped on the border, keeping the crowds back and waiting to respond to any orders from Washington.

Madero Saddened and Disheartened. Tonight couriers are galloping back and forth in an effort to arrange an armistice so that peace negotiations may go on. General Madero is a sad and down-hearted man. His efforts to prevent a general attack were successful, but only after he had been bombarded with conflicting stories as to the actual situation.

The actual situation tonight thinks that remarks attributed to Colonel Lamoureux of the garrison in Juarez, lauding the insurgents, increased them, and in a statement tonight he genuinely regrets the occurrence.

The fight lasted until dark and furnished many a thrilling spectacle as well as a continuous terror for many Americans living along the river banks. Early carrying the fight into Juarez, rebels entered the town and for four hours kept up a continuous fire. Insurgent reinforcements reached the bridge later but did not fire. They withdrew at night, under orders from their chief. Not a few Americans were among those who entered Juarez.

The first person killed on the American side of the line was Antonio Garcia, who was standing by the side of the Associated Press correspondent, about 200 yards from the river. The conflict, on a porch several blocks within the city received a bullet in her wrist and another in her abdomen. About 6 o'clock tonight two unknown Americans were killed near the Santa Fe bridge. The names of one is supposed to be in Nebraska, while the other had on his person a memorandum reading R. H. Ferguson, Troop F, Third cavalry, San Francisco. The names of the others killed have not been learned.

Joseph Moorehead, Edmund Heaton and Lois Hilarolas of El Paso were among those wounded, but not fatally.

Confusion in the Rebel Camp. There is occasional firing into Juarez tonight, but General Navarro is in complete command.

In the main insurgent camp today, confusion reigned. Orders were given for a general attack, but they were not followed. It was argued by some of the chiefs that since a small detachment had made such progress it was the duty of the rest of the army to reinforce them. General Madero wavered in his decision, but finally decided to stand by his promise of last night not to attack the city.

Flags of truce suffered grossly during the day, and an insurgent who wore one was shot from the fort. Those who were trying to persuade General Madero to make a general attack, it is said, report that the federals had fired on a truce bearer, but this could not be confirmed.

At 9:15 o'clock tonight an automobile bearing a flag of truce started from Madero's headquarters for Juarez. General Navarro was willing during the day at any hour to grant an armistice, but the insurgents ignored all efforts in that direction.

FILIBUSTER IN CANADA THREATENS TO RESULT IN A GENERAL ELECTION.

Ottawa, May 8.—There will be a general election in Canada before Christmas, if the opposition clings to its avowed intentions of obstructing reciprocity after the parliamentary adjournment is ended, according to a high government official.

The great stumbling blocks in the way of an election now are the enforced absence of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the convention and the fact that the Canadian parliament will be under representatives in parliament until there has been a redistribution of the electoral divisions, which cannot be made until the census has been completed. These figures will be available in October. If the opposition then is still obstructing reciprocity, it is said a redistribution bill will be given precedent over reciprocity and an election will follow.

THRONE OF CHINA GRANTS THE PROGRESSIVES' DEMAND FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL CABINET.

Peking, May 8.—The long awaited edict abolishing the grand council and substituting a constitutional cabinet of ten members was issued today. The change is in line with the demands of the national assembly for a constitutional cabinet responsible to that body instead of to the throne.

BRITISH UNIVERSITIES ACCEPT U. S. CHALLENGE TO AN ATHLETIC MEET.

London, May 8.—An international athletic meet probably in May, in which the assigned athletic teams of Yale and Harvard will line up against those of Oxford and Cambridge will be held on the Queen's club grounds, the American challenge having been definitely accepted by the British universities.

FIRE IN A JAPANESE CITY BURNS HUNDREDS OF HOUSES.

Tokio, Tuesday, May 9.—Word was received here this morning that the town of Yamagata, capital of the Yamagata prefecture, was on fire and that one thousand houses had already been destroyed. Yamagata has a population of about forty-five thousand people.

FEDERALS STARTLED BUT NOT SURPRISED

Mexico City of the Opinion All Along That Madero Could Not Control His Men.

Mexico City, May 8.—With no other information than that contained in the Associated Press dispatches regarding the kaleidoscopic changes at Juarez, the government officials tonight are manifesting an attitude of bewilderment. It was with the utmost complacency that they viewed the situation this morning. They were confident that the manifesto of President Diaz would prove satisfactory to Madero and that peace negotiations would be resumed, and in the foreign office it was announced this afternoon that arrangements for the renewal of the peace negotiations would be begun. Later came the news that an attack on Juarez had been commenced and the uneasiness created by this gave place to satisfaction when it appeared that Madero had been unable to control his men.

Tonight General Diaz consulted with the members of his cabinet regarding the new turn in affairs. In official circles it is pointed out that Madero this afternoon demonstrated what the government has contended from the beginning was a fact—his inability to control the army he has gathered together and the greatest menace on this account is anxiety rather than civil war. The greatest excitement since the beginning of the revolution prevailed here tonight. The apparent vacillation of Madero was the cause of smiles and laughter everywhere.

PROPOSES A HOUSE HAVING 350 PEERS

Lansdowne's Bill Reforming the Chamber Passes the Lords on the First Reading.

London, May 8.—Lord Lansdowne, leader of the opposition in the house of lords, today introduced his bill for the reform of the upper house. The Unionists propose a house to consist of 350 lords. It is argued by some of the chiefs that since a small detachment had made such progress it was the duty of the rest of the army to reinforce them. General Madero wavered in his decision, but finally decided to stand by his promise of last night not to attack the city.

The third section of the house, numbering 100, would be appointed by the crown, on the recommendation of the cabinet. Princes of the royal blood would retain their seats, as would two archbishops, while five bishops would be elected. Including the lord chancellor and the ex-lord chancellor, the bill provides that peers who are not lords of parliament shall be elected by the house of commons.

Lord Lansdowne expressed the belief that there could be no permanent party majority in the house reconstructed in this manner. The bill passed its first reading.

UNION OF WORLDWIDE SCOPE IS PLANNED BY MUSICIANS.

Atlanta, Ga., May 8.—The union of the musicians in a world-wide organization is one of the principal subjects before the sixteenth annual convention of the American Federation of Musicians, which opened its session here today. More than 500 local unions in the United States and Canada are represented at the convention.

MAKES LONG CASTING RECORD.

Racine, Wis., May 8.—Benjamin Flegel, who won the championship at the National Casting tournament in Chicago a year ago with a cast of 215 feet, beat his own record here today, putting a half-ton weight 265 feet.

FOREST FIRES HAVE BECOME VERY SERIOUS

Wide Stretches of Country in the Region Tributary to Winnipeg Are in Flames and Many Small Towns and Settlements Are in Dire Jeopardy.

Already the Homesteaders in Some Localities Have Lost Everything—Situation Is Grave Also on Lake Superior's Southern Shore—Navigation Impeded.

Winnipeg, Man., May 8.—The forest fires raging along the international boundary threaten a repetition of last fall's disasters. Many small towns and large sawmills along the Canadian Northern railway are in danger and hundreds of men are fighting the flames. The Canadian Northern has sent a relief train to Kelowna, which was in danger. Fires are burning furiously at Dauphin and at the foot of Riding mountains. Many settlers have lost everything.

The situation in the Prince Albert district is alarming. Fires are again threatening in the Rainy river country. Lumbering interests along the Rainy river are greatly handicapped, and many of the creek beds are perfectly dry, leaving the winter's cut of logs isolated.

The fires along the Minnesota-Ontario boundary are gaining ground and threaten a number of settlements. At night, Canyon Lake, on the Canadian side, seemed doomed and nearly all the men, women and children were out fighting the flames.

Bad Fires Near Saxon and Mellen.

Ashland, Wis., May 8.—The forest fires in northern Wisconsin and upper Michigan are growing in area every day and a high wind would cause widespread devastation. Two square miles have been burned over near Saxon, Wis. The employees of the Montreal River Lumber company have quit work to fight fires. Two logging camps are reported burned near Mellen, Wis. Seventy railway section men are fighting fire near Cable, Wis. Vessels on Lake Superior are forced to come to anchor on nearby land, on account of the smoke.

Saskatchewan Settlers Burned Out.

Winnipeg, May 8.—Unless rain comes this week the second section between Swan River and Prince Albert, in Saskatchewan, will be badly burned over. Fully thirty homesteaders have been burned out, but it is impossible to tell if any lives were lost.

CANNIBALS REPULSED WITH SCALDING STEAM

Crew of Stranded British Ship Win Battle for Life With Novel Arm of War.

New York, May 8.—After fighting off 100 war canoes full of cannibals while aground on a coral reef at the Womani islands, German East Africa, the British steamship Kaisenga has arrived here. From the day she sailed from New York many months ago with a cargo of 100 mules and five locomotives, until she reached Sandy Hook on her return, the Kaisenga's voyage was one long series of thrilling adventures. Five days out from New York a heavy gale smashed the mule pens and all the animals ran loose around the heaving decks, a number being swept overboard. On Dec. 30, Captain A. W. Dobbs, in command, led down an elevator shaft at Cape Town and was killed.

While proceeding along the coast of German East Africa the Kaisenga ran aground at 4 a. m. on Jan. 28, it was raining and foggy. Chief Officer Wooster found the islands filled with birds and game, and shot a springbok. Half an hour before high tide 100 war canoes, each filled with fifty naked cannibals, paddled swiftly toward the Kaisenga. Mindful of the massacre of the crew and passengers of a French mail boat, who were clubbed to death ten years ago, the crew of the Kaisenga lined up with high pressure steam hoses. When the cannibals were within ten feet of the vessel the hoses were turned on them. The scalding steam drove the savages out of reach where they held a party. Then they scattered and commenced to row down on the Kaisenga from all directions. The tide was full by this time and as the second attack was made the freighter's engines began to turn and she slowly moved out into deep water and was quickly clear of the reef. Then, with steam pouring from many nozzles upon the canoes, the Kaisenga made her escape.

STATE RESTS ITS CASE AGAINST JOHN F. DIETZ; ARSENAL IS INTRODUCED.

Hayward, Wis., May 8.—After introducing a total, fifty-seven witnesses, the state rested its case against John F. Dietz, Mrs. Dietz and Leslie Dietz this afternoon. A continuance was granted until tomorrow morning. Dietz declined to outline the defense, further than to say that he saw no reason for going on the stand himself. Mrs. Dietz and Leslie may be witnesses. The prosecution put Fred Thorburn on the stand this morning. He testified to a conversation in which he said that Dietz had admitted he fired two shots at the head deputy. The cross-examination was brief and netted nothing important. The Dietz arsenal of guns and ammunition was introduced in evidence this afternoon.

GRANGE THREAT DOESN'T SCARE THE PRESIDENT

Mr. Taft Indulges in Some Plain Talk When a Delegation Headed by N. P. Hull of Michigan Calls at the White House to Protest Against Reciprocity.

Told He Might Lose Farmers' Vote, He Says He Is Sorry but He Cannot Change His Attitude—He Is Convinced the Pact Is Wise and Beneficial.

Washington, May 8.—President Taft indulged in some plain talk today in explaining to twenty-five members of the National Grange that he does not intend to play politics with Canadian reciprocity, even if the enactment of that measure by congress costs him the farmers' vote.

The nation's chief told his visitors bluntly he was sorry to hear that the Republican farmers would desert the party if the agreement goes through, but that the fear of such desertion would not change his conviction as to the wisdom of such legislation. He said he believed reciprocity to be the best thing for the whole country and that he did not intend to argue it.

Grange Spokesman Threatens. N. P. Hull, of the Michigan Grange, spokesman for the farmers, intimated strongly that the farmer does not like reciprocity and Republican votes are likely to be lost if the agreement is ratified.

"If reciprocity goes through," he said, "it means that we must take less for our wheat and less for our products and that means a halt in the improvement of our homes and in the education of our children. Take the states along the line—Michigan, Wisconsin, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. In the past the farmers of these states have been the backbone of Republican protection. You could count on these people every time.

"If this measure goes through it will discriminate against our markets and Canada will get the benefit. It will make it harder for us to get a dollar. No president ever commanded the faith of the farm people in times past more than our own. I ask you whether you do not think we will suffer if we are put on a free trade basis."

Mr. Taft stands his ground. "Certainly," said the president, "I have no disposition to interfere with the property of those who make up the bone and sinew of our population—the farmers—and I am convinced that I am in no way interfering with it. If I am to carry through this treaty, and will turn out that it does the injury you anticipate—the pact can be repealed, by a single congress. It does not last longer than either side desires it to last. I am convinced that after it has been given one year's trial, neither side will think of reversing it. That is my conviction. I cannot go into an argument. You are going to desert as if we put that through. I am very sorry if that is to be the case, because I have a personal liking for the Republican farmers just a little more than for the Democratic farmers, although they are all citizens of the United States whose welfare I must hold equally in my care.

Believes Reciprocity a Boon. "But my conviction with respect to the advantages of this treaty is very deep. So far as the effect of this on my own political fortunes it ought not to influence me and does not influence me in the slightest. I believe this treaty to be the best thing for the whole country, including farmers, merchants, laboring men and all, because I believe it is contrary to nature to put in the face of Providence—to put an artificial wall between this country and Canada and not get the benefits that will inure to peoples of the same traditions, the same language and practically the same character of labor. If we take down that wall, we will benefit by it, for we shall sell more agricultural products than they will sell to us. We do now and shall sell still more after the treaty goes into effect.

"That is my judgment. I am not arguing—I am merely stating my conclusions. If I did not believe this I should not have taken the responsibility of doing what I have done to put this reciprocity treaty through. I am willing to abide by the judgment of history—the judgment that will come after the event. When you gentlemen come to see the results I believe you, as fair minded men, will admit that you have been wrong in your fears and that I have been right."

FARMERS AND PAPER MAKERS OPPOSE CANADIAN AGREEMENT BEFORE SENATE COMMITTEE.

Washington, May 8.—Farmers from the Canadian border states, supported by farmers from states farther removed from the international boundary line, made their protest today to the senate committee against the Canadian reciprocity bill. They were presided by a delegation of manufacturers of book and paper, who likewise object to the bill. Representatives of the farmers from Illinois, New Hampshire, New York, Missouri, West Virginia and Michigan addressed the committee. Others will appear tomorrow.

WISCONSIN INSURGENT PUTS IN A FREE LIST BILL.

Washington, May 8.—Another free list bill was introduced in the house today. Its author is Representative Morse, a Wisconsin insurgent Republican. It would exempt from duty articles imported for use in the construction and equipment of pulp and paper mills and in the manufacture of pulp and paper.

ALASKAN CASES INVOLVING THE CUNNINGHAM CLAIMS NOW UP AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 8.—Arguments designed to prove that letters patent should be issued to the holders of the so-called Cunningham Alaska coal land claims, which were the cause of the Ballinger-Pinchot congressional investigation, were begun today before the board which has final jurisdiction. Secretary of the Interior Fisher, to whom a final appeal may be made, sat with the board, consisting of Land Commissioner Dennett and the land office board of law review.

HOUSE COMMITTEE WILL ASK NEW STATES TO AMEND PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONS.

Washington, May 8.—The house committee on territories will conclude tomorrow its deliberations relative to statehood for Arizona and New Mexico, recommending changes in the proposed state constitutions which must be approved by the voters before the president proclaims the admission of the territories. Chairman Flood of the committee expects to call up the joint statehood resolution for action by the house Wednesday.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS AKIN TO LOVE FEAST

Senator Gallinger, Standpat Candidate, Is Unanimous Choice for President pro Tem.

Washington, May 8.—Senator Gallinger was unanimously nominated as president pro-tem of the senate at today's Republican caucus. Out of the fifty Republican senators about a dozen were absent, including nine progressives. The four progressives were Messrs. Borah, Brown, Dixon and Kenyon—voted for Mr. Gallinger.

DIRECT VOTE PROPOSITION IS GIVEN FIRST PLACE ON THE SENATE'S CALENDAR.

Washington, May 8.—After disposing of the technical parliamentary obstacle, Senator Borah of Idaho today succeeded in having the senate consider the house joint resolution to amend the Constitution so as to provide for the election of United States senators by popular vote. The effect is to make the resolution the "unfinished business" and thus give it preference. The vote was almost unanimous for the motion. This was due to willingness for early consideration and also to indicate that a vote on its merits would be pronounced in its favor.

GOVERNMENT WANTS HINES AS WITNESS

Lumberman Will Be Asked to Tell What He Knows of the Towing Trust.

Chicago, May 8.—Edward Hines, president of the lumber company bearing his name, whose activities in connection with the election of Wm. Lorimer to the United States senate have been the subject of a state senate investigation, was called today as a witness in the federal government's inquiry into the affairs of the Great Lakes Towing company. He will be asked to tell the relations between the lumbermen and the towing company. Mr. Hines could not be reached today and Captain Walter Hamilton, of the Hines company, was the chief witness.

The government, which is conducting the investigation under the Sherman anti-trust act, inquired into a contract made in 1903 between the lumber carriers' association and the towing organization. The contract, the government is seeking to show, was instrumental in wiping out the independent tugmen by destroying 90 per cent. of their business. Captain Hamilton asserted that his company had been benefited by the contracts.

HUMAN VOICE CARRIED TWO THOUSAND MILES

New York Talks With Denver, Colo., Over Long Distance Telephone Wires.

New York, May 8.—For the first time in the history of mankind the human voice was carried 2,000 miles direct to night when New York found Denver over the long distance telephone wires. A group of Manhattan newspapermen in a downtown skyscraper talked with another group in the Colorado city, picked up Omaha on the way and also gossiped with Chicago.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULE FOR THE 'WETS'

Supervisors of Genesee and Calhoun Are Ordered to Issue Licenses for Saloons.

Lansing, Mich., May 8.—The supreme court today issued an order compelling the boards of supervisors of Genesee and Calhoun counties to issue saloon licenses. The two counties by small majorities changed from "dry" to "wet" at the April election. The "wets" began the litigation when the supervisors decided to continue the prohibition against the saloons, despite the election.

FIGHT MADE BY REPUBLICANS IS UNAVAILING

So-Called "Farmers' Free List" Bill Is Put Through the House of Representatives Exactly in the Form Agreed Upon by the Democratic Leaders.

Every Amendment Is Defeated or Ruled Out of Order and in the End the Measure Is Passed, 236 to 109, With the Support of 24 of the Minority Members.

Washington, May 8.—After nine hours of continuous pounding, the Republican minority of the house failed today to make a single change in the first Democratic bill that places on the free list agricultural implements, meats and other articles. The bill passed the house tonight by a vote of 236 to 109, the Democrats voting solidly and mustering twenty-four Republicans with them.

This came after the Democrats had voted down or had ruled out of order more than one hundred amendments. Minority Leader Mann threw amendment after amendment into the debate, ranging all the way from free rice to free lead and pig iron. But those amendments were ruled out of order were cheerfully voted down by an almost solid Democratic vote. An attempt by Mr. Mann to recommit the bill was tabled by the house.

The Republicans who voted for the measure were: Representatives Anderson, Davis, Lindbergh, Miller, Volstead and Stevenson, of Minnesota; Anthony, Jackson, Madison and Murdock, of Kansas; Hanna and Helgeson, of North Dakota; Lenroot, Kopp, Morse and Nelson, of Wisconsin; LaFollette, LaFollette, Warburton, of Washington; Lafferty, of Oregon; Kemp, of California; Hubbard, of Iowa; Morgan, of Oklahoma; Norris, of Nebraska, and Roberts, of Nevada.

"Uncle Joe" Protests.

All the amendments ruled out of order were thrown out by Chairman Alexander and Chairman Hay, the two presiding officers of the day, as not permissible under the house rules. The progress of the bill demonstrated the efficiency of the new Democratic rules. These carefully restrict all amendments to revenue measures to those germane to the particular items under consideration.

The Republican leaders roundly denounced the Democrats for denying freedom of debate and amendment. Former Speaker Cannon declared that never in the history of congress had the right of representation on the floor of the house been so limited, while former Republican Leader Payne asserted that the Democrats would be discredited for their arbitrary exercise of majority power.

After four or five hours, the Republican fight took on the complexion of a filibuster. Once denied a vote by the chairman, Mr. Mann intimated that the bill would not pass in a hurry. Following that, the Republicans repeatedly demanded rising votes, but in the end Mr. Mann made no attempt to delay the final vote on the bill. In all, the Republican leaders offered eighty-three amendments.

More Revision in Sight.

"This does not complete our tariff legislation," said Mr. Underwood, the Democratic leader. "We introduced this bill to give the farmers cheaper agricultural implements and the city dwellers cheaper meat and bread. We could go beyond the without endangering the revenues. We intend to take up, in proper order, all tariff rates and to adjust all of them."

An unequivocal declaration in favor of placing raw wool on the free list in the revised wool schedule of the tariff and the consequent material strengthening of the position of that element of the majority party in the house which favors free raw wool were the net results of caucuses held today by the Democratic representatives in the New York and New Jersey delegations. The Ohio and Massachusetts Democratic representatives will caucus tomorrow or the next day and other states are expected soon to outline their attitudes.

CONGRESSIONAL DIRECTORY REVISED BECAUSE IT LISTED DR. AKIN AS A DEMOCRAT.

Washington, May 8.—An edition of the congressional directory, consisting of 18,000 volumes has been ordered suppressed because Dr. Therr Akim, representative from the Twenty-fifth New York district, protested against being classified as a "Democrat." Dr. Akin says he is a "progressive Republican." He did not know he was a Democrat until he went to the postoffice department to look into a little matter of patronage, and was told he had been so listed. The revised directories will be on the desks of the members tomorrow.

SUGAR FACTORY PROBE IS RECOMMENDED TO CONGRESS.

Washington, May 8.—An investigation of the American Sugar Refining company and all other concerns engaged in the manufacture of refining of sugar, to ascertain whether or not there have been violations of the anti-trust law, was recommended today by the house committee on rules.

PRISONERS ON PAROLE.
 The press reports the past few days related stories of disorder among the convicts in the Jackson prison because Warden Simpson and the board of control have been exercising their prerogative to prescribe the conditions under which the convict body shall be employed. The demonstration has not been serious or dangerous, but has been confined to a hubbub raised by the convicts in their cells, after they have been looked up for the night.

And why the hubbub? Because Warden Simpson proposes to end, once and for all, an absurd regulation that has been the source of great trouble in Jackson prison for years past and to replace it by a rule that will make for good order and good discipline. It has been the practice at the Jackson prison when convicts finished their tasks to allow them to lounge about the shops, enjoying elegant leisure, until they were locked up for the night. Some of the men had to work through to the bell, while others idled. Warden Simpson rightly sized this practice up as one of the weaknesses of the system at Jackson and took steps to abolish it. He plans to have all the men work from bell to bell, as they do in other prisons of the state. But when he made the first move to this end the prisoners manifested their disapproval by noisy demonstrations in their cells.

Warden Simpson and the board of control have paid no attention to the demonstrations. Owing to their nature, it is practically impossible to detect the men responsible for them, so they have been ignored so far, with the expectation that they will cease as soon as the inmates find out that the warden and the board are not to be intimidated. If they do not cease adequate measures will be taken to end them. Warden Simpson is right in his views as to how the shops should be managed and he can be depended on not to concede an inch of ground to the convicts. And he will have the staunch backing of the board of control. It will not take very vigorous action to show the convicts that the idea that the Stair newspapers are endeavoring to inculcate among them, that they ought, by judicious "jobbing," to be allowed to determine the identity of the men who are placed in charge of them, and the conditions under which they shall be governed, is a false one, and that they must be amenable to the discipline that their keepers and the boards of control see fit to impose. The great reform which these newspapers have devoted themselves to securing, namely, conduct of the prisons by the prisoners, is as far from attainment as it ever was, despite the fact that there have been several minor disturbances like the one at Jackson to show that their work has not been entirely without effect in inciting convict bodies to disorder and riotous conduct.

WHEN PEACE IS RESTORED.
 Just when all hopes that there would be an end to hostilities in Mexico were fading, when Madero had begun to move the insurgents forth south from the border to avoid likelihood of complications with the American government, and when a resumption of hostilities seemed to be certain, President Diaz put an entirely new face on things by his proclamation that he would retire from office as soon as peace is restored.

While this is proclamation was not addressed to the insurgents, and while it is indefinite in that it fails to indicate what will be the order of events on the president's retirement, it is regarded as a virtual granting of the principal concession demanded by the Madero forces, and was received by them with jubilation. It is plainly their intention to refrain from further overt acts against the federal government and to put on the appearance of peace, even if they keep their arms close by and are ready to rally to their standards on short notice.

Naturally much interest attaches to speculation as to what will be the course of events when President Diaz retires. His proclamation says nothing about an election to choose his successor. If he resigned without provision being made for an election, his successor would be Vice President Corral, who is in Europe, on sick leave, and who has been a sympathetic member of the Diaz administration. If Corral were not available for the office, the next man in the line of succession is Minister DeLahara, who would be most acceptable to the insurrectors, as he has been their choice for provisional president.

Whether an election is arranged or whether the succession is in accordance with the provisions of the constitution, there is little likelihood that the Diaz government will make any determined effort to stave off the movement for reform in the republic. That the aged president should have gone so far as to promise his resignation when peace is restored shows that he realizes that the trend of sentiment would make it fruitless for him to try to hold out against the liberals. His concession to their demands will show many wavering elements that the star of the insurrection is in the ascendant, and determine their allegiance in the future.

It can easily be understood that the relief that Washington feels at the developments is heartfelt. The situation on the border has been more ticklish than has generally been recognized. The danger that it would be necessary for the American troops to invade Mexico for the purpose of protecting American citizens and American interests has been an ever present one. And it would be infinitely easier to put the troops into Mexico than it would be to get them out again.

It can now be expected that the warring interests in Mexico will arrive at a basis for a new deal that will do away with any necessity of another appeal to arms. Just how it will be worked out is, for the moment, obscure, but there has been a virtual recognition in the action taken by President Diaz of the government's inability to make head against the insurrecto forces that, now that hostilities are to cease, will find expression in a movement to make dispositions for the future that will conciliate the Madero partisans and meet with their approval. Mexico has many hard problems yet to solve, but the present situation is a great improvement over the one that existed when the rival forces were in battle array.

HOW UNFORTUNATE!
 How unfortunate it was for the purposes of the Detroit Journal that the two outbreaks of lawlessness which occurred in the State Prison at Jackson last week were pulled off there instead of in the Branch Prison at Marquette!

Think of the cartoons it would have furnished subjects for, and the lurid, Janshedingsque disquisitions on Warden Russell's brutal treatment of prisoners, and its consequences, it would have furnished texts for. And to think that the disturbances, in which the entire prison population took part, happened where the Journal had to minimize them, and not at the Marquette institution, where it could have made gleeful use of them "to point a moral and adorn a (serial) tale."

Here is the story the yellowest of Stair's yellow newspapers gives of the racket at the Jackson prison last week, under the head "Convicts Resent Rule Curbing Sociability":

Warden Simpson has instituted a new rule forbidding any convict worker to wash up before the gong rings as a signal to quit work. Many of the convicts resent the rule and feel it to be unnecessary suppression.

Many of the men have been in their cells at night, and last night completed some time before the bell and immediately washing up and lounging around the shop for social chats.

The rule now is: The men may leave their machines before the bell if they have finished task, but if they do they must go to their cells unwashed until the bell.

To register their disapproval of this suppression, some of the convicts have been raising cat-calls and all kinds of clatter in unison in their cells at night, and last night while the board of control was in session the racket kept up until 9 o'clock. Each noisemaker would cease at the approach of a guard, and among the 700 prisoners the guilty could not be detected. It seemed great fun for the convicts.

The warden says he stopped the shop lounging to prevent plots for freedom.

The men have the liberty of the yard three evenings each week and Saturday afternoons from after 3 o'clock for ball games.

One of the things for which Governor Osborn has been subjected to the intermittent abuse of the Detroit Journal has been his stand against an appropriation of $225,000 for a new cell block at the Jackson prison. How well based was the opposition of the governor to this appropriation was shown at the board meeting last week, when Mr. Vernicke, of Grand Rapids, his appointee, unfolded the plan he and the governor had conceived of dealing with the bad situation created by the old cell block it was proposed to replace. Already one large cell has been made by throwing two of the old cells together. There are 320 cells in the block, quartering 200 convicts. By throwing two cells together throughout the block accommodations would be provided for 160 convicts and a tier of forty cells will be constructed on top of the block to provide quarters for the overflow. The cells, as remodelled, will be well ventilated and sanitary, and Warden Simpson estimates the cost of the proposed work at $5,000, as against $225,000 for the proposed new cell block.

Cream Cake
 Makes You Hungry to Look at It

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of The Boston Cooking School Magazine

When company arrives unexpectedly, this cream cake often covers an otherwise embarrassing situation, for it answers the place of any other dessert as it can be stirred up quickly.

K C Cream Cake
 One-half cup butter; 1 cup sugar; yolks of eggs; beaten light; 1/4 cups sifted flour; 2 level teaspoons K C Baking Powder; 3/4 cup cold water; whites of 2 eggs, beaten dry.

Cream the butter; add the sugar, yolks of eggs and water; then the flour, sifted three times with the baking powder; lastly the whites of eggs. Bake in two or three layers; put these together with cream filling, and dredge the top with confectioner's sugar.

Cream Filling
 One-fourth cup sifted flour; 1/4 teaspoonful salt; 1 cup hot milk; 1 egg, beaten light; 1/4 cup sugar; 1 teaspoonful vanilla extract; 2 ounces chocolate.

Mix flour and salt with a very little cold milk; stir into the hot milk and cook ten minutes; add the chocolate and stir until it is melted and evenly blended with the flour mixture, then beat in the egg mixed with the sugar, and lastly the vanilla.

tract work in the prison will permit of a greatly improved showing. Their one regret in the connection is that the last of the outstanding contracts do not expire until 1915.

Judge Petit, of Chicago, has ruled that the Helm committee cannot compel Banker Tilden to produce his books, in connection with the inquiry into the Lorimer case. This decision would stand in the way of any adequately searching inquiry into the manner in which Lorimer's election to the senate was obtained, and consequently the committee is likely to abandon further work. It is obvious, however, that the demand for a reopening of the Lorimer case will be increased in the senate by the disposal made of the appeal to the courts by Mr. Tilden, for the entire course of the Tilden episode emphasizes the impression that there is much important evidence going to show that Lorimer was elected by means of bribery that has not yet been uncovered. The senate, it is said, has abundant authority to make Mr. Tilden produce his books, to throw any light they may contain on financial transactions connected with the election of Senator Lorimer. While it is unfortunate that the hands of the Helm committee were tied by the courts and its members were prevented from following up all the leads they have obtained, the manner in which they have been headed off from carrying their work through will be of comparatively small importance, if the senate opens up another inquiry. And it is a pretty safe prediction that the senate will see fit to do this.

T. J. O'Brien, of Grand Rapids, the ambassador to Japan, is to leave the latter post, but he is not to be accredited to the court at Berlin, an appointment for which Senator Smith has been urging him. A press report says that President Taft has authorized Senator Smith to inform Mr. O'Brien that he will be given the post at Rome, when a vacancy occurs. Senator Smith says that the appointment to Rome will be highly acceptable to Mr. O'Brien, who has expressed a wish for the Italian post, which is regarded as one of the most desirable of the diplomatic assignments. It is expected that Ambassador

Ward's transfer from Tokio to Rome will take place some time during the present year.

Senator Smith is just now in high favor with the granters, because he has made it clear that he is going to vote against the reciprocity agreement, or, what amounts to the same thing, vote to tack something on it that was not attached to it in the form in which the president sent it to congress. On the other hand, the senator is being freely criticized by the friends and advocates of closer trade relations with Canada who believe that President Taft has taken a fearless and patriotic step in a direction in which a lesser man might have been afraid to move, and is entitled to support from the party strength in congress. Undoubtedly if he were opposed for re-election in the primaries Senator Smith would lose some votes, perhaps a great many, because of his stand on reciprocity. On the other hand he would have much granger strength that he would have sacrificed if he had stood for the agreement. Politically the thing would be perhaps a sawoff. Senator Smith says he has disregarded the political phases of the question and taken the position that his views dictate, without any thought for his political interests. If this is the case it appears that the senator is too good a protectionist to be in sympathy with the thought of the times. President Taft, apparently, was so staunch a protectionist to leave the Republicans a chance of carrying the house of representatives last fall, but he's for reciprocity sled length, now, and all the time.

The suggestion that there should be a miners' rescue station on the Marquette range has merit in it. Certainly it would seem that in a region with as well developed a mining industry as the upper peninsula, with several iron ranges and one of the great copper camps of the world, it should, in hour of need, be possible to get oxygen helmets and men expert in their use at some nearer point than Urbana, Ill. Mine fires are fortunately infrequent in this region, but within a few weeks there have been two occasions in this county, and in the past there have been many fires in other parts of the district. The expense of equipping a mine rescue station with oxygen helmets and other necessary equipment and of training a few men in its use would be trifling, and certainly is not the thing that has prevented the mining companies from co-operating to provide such a station. They are open handed when it comes to the question of protecting their men. That a rescue station has not already been established is perhaps to be ascribed to the facts that the oxygen helmet equipment is comparatively new and that until just recently there have been no object lessons in this region in the need of having it quickly available.

Wouldn't it be a great joke if, when Banker Tilden is finally compelled to produce his books, if he is, there is nothing found in them having a remote bearing on the Lorimer case.

In the rather spirited colloquy between Dick Fletcher and Governor Osborn, the governor had the last word. It is said that this was the first time that Dick ever let anything like that happen.

Mayor Gaynor, of New York, continues to take the public into his confidence on a vast variety of subjects. He is a most informal gentleman, and about as versatile as the only colonel.

The open season for aviators has begun. A French expert has just been killed by falling from a great height at Shanghai, China.

The signs all indicate that Canada is going to have fully as busy a summer over the reciprocity question as we will have.

Here and There

George is one of the commonest of English names and will doubtless become even more common now that the fifth George sits upon the throne of England. But there was a time when the name of George was a symbol of party strife. In the early days of the Hanoverians George saved the throne of William while James or Charles betokened an unshamed espousal of the Jacobite cause. So acute was the state of feeling in Manchester that some of the clergy at the Collegiate church refused to bestow the name of George upon an infant in baptism, shouting themselves hoarse in an old English canon which empowers ministers to decline to confer any "indecent or pagan name."—London Chronicle.

To illustrate the fact that some persons are devoid of the sense of humor this story was told at a downtown luncheon club: "I forgot to pay my newboy last night and when I saw him this morning gave him the five cents due him, and said: 'I thought every minute last night you'd send a collector for this!'" Xay—not on your honor, if you had owed me 'twice as much! An hour later the boy came to my office, where he had never been before, waited for me, and when I came, said: 'Say, I'm awful sorry you thought I was sore about de nickel. Ye needn't pay me never till ye want to, an' about sendin' for it—nis.' I thanked him, and now, for trying to crack a joke, I have secured a long line of credit."—New York Tribune.

Perhaps no Christian festival has so many names as Good Friday. Our Anglo-Saxon and Danish forefathers called it "Long Friday," in allusion to the length of the day's services and fasting; in France it is "Holy Friday"; in Germany either "Stiller Freitag" (Quiet Friday) or "Chartr Freitag" in allusion perhaps to the exhibition of the crucifix for adoration after being veiled all through Lent. In the Greek church it has been known at various times as "The Pascha of the Cross," "The Preparation," "The Redemption" and "The Day of the Cross," and to these names the Latins have added "The Day of the Lord's Passion," "The Sixth Holy Day of the Pascha," and many others. "Good Friday" seems to be peculiar to the English language.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Will Give Social Dance—The Owls will give a social dance Thursday evening for members and their ladies only. Lunch will be served.

Club Paid All Expense—The Huron Mountain club paid all the expense of latching and passing the 700,000 trout, fry planted in the Salmon Trout river last week. The club bought a million eggs in the East and gave the state one-fourth of them for latching, the club in addition paying all the expense of planting the fry.

Working at City Quarry—Street Commissioner Reindler has quite a force of men working at the Pine street quarry blasting out rock, and the crusher will be started in about a week. Rock will be obtained this year from the bluff southeast of the crusher and from the rocky ledge on East Ohio street between High and Pine streets. These two bluffs are expected to furnish enough rock to supply the needs of the city street department this season.

Guild Hall Notes—The members of the Hit & Miss club will meet today at 5 o'clock, for a special drill. Every member is urged to be present.

The Guild Hall baseball team and any candidates for the team who care to turn out, will practice on Longyear field at 4:30. The team will practice each evening this week, in preparation for the game with the Negaunee high school at Negaunee Saturday afternoon.

Death at St. Mary's—Mrs. Joseph Daniels of St. Ignace, mother of Mrs. A. O. King, of this city, passed away Sunday night at St. Mary's hospital, where she had been a patient for two weeks. Death was due to a complication of diseases. She was sixty-two years of age and is survived by a husband and seven children. The body was taken to St. Ignace yesterday afternoon for funeral and interment.

Fires Near Big Bay—A small forest fire is burning between Heslip's camp and Camp No. 3, of the Lake Independent Lumber company at Big Bay. Mr. Heslip has lost all his buildings but the cook camp. The Big Bay company has as yet sustained no loss, and there is no immediate danger as all the slashings near Camp 3 have been back fired. The light rain of yesterday morning was of nature in checking the fire in the Choroly district and they are now believed to be under control.

District Meeting—The Swedish Methodist ministers of the eastern part of the Lake Superior district will hold their district meeting this week in the Swedish M. E. church of this city. Services will be held on Wednesday evening and at 3 p. m. and 7:45 p. m. on Thursday and Saturday. Sunday Rev. C. G. Nelson, of Milwaukee, will preach at 10 a. m. Rev. Axel Strom of Calumet at 3 p. m. and Rev. O. W. Carlson of Ishpeming at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited to attend all the meetings.

Mosher a Deputy Game Warden—E. D. Mosher, until recently a United States deputy marshal for the western district, yesterday received a commission as deputy game warden from State Game and Fish Warden Pierce. It is understood that Mr. Mosher will succeed Phil Hoenig of Negaunee, who recently resigned. Chief Deputy Smith was in Marquette some weeks ago quietly looking over the field with the idea of selecting a deputy and he is said to have reported to his chief favorably on Mr. Mosher. The new deputy is well equipped for the office.

Adding to Capacity—Lipsett & Sinclair are installing a new rock re-crusher at their plant west of St. Mary's hospital, which will increase the capacity of the plant about fifty tons per day. The re-crusher formerly used was not large enough to take care of the product of the main crusher. The new crusher will be put into operation some time this week and will give the plant a capacity of about 250 tons of rock per day. Mr. Sinclair reports that the outlook for business this summer is very good and that he expects to employ about forty men at the plant within a short time.

Law Firm Will Dissolve—The L'Anse-au-Loup, Quebec, firm of Culver, Brennan & Culver have arrived in Ishpeming, and they are expected to visit their parents, Mr. and

Rush Culver and son, Harry, leave for Louisiana, where Mr. Culver has purchased a large plantation. Mr. Brennan will reside in L'Anse and continue in the legal profession. Of this dissolution of partnership, the L'Anse Sentinel says: "This firm has only been engaged in business here about a year, but has had a large practice from the start and the leaving of the two Culvers for their new home in the South will be greatly regretted here, as both have made many friends during their short residence at L'Anse."

Wedded in New York—Marquette friends of the parties yesterday received cards announcing the wedding in New York on May 4 of Miss Zaida Corinne Van Alsty, only daughter of A. T. Van Alsty, formerly a leading business man of this city, and R. Eddy Mathews, son of A. Mathews. Mr. and Mrs. Mathews will make their home in Chicago, where Mr. Mathews has been located most of the time since he was graduated from the University of Chicago. He has been in the real estate business there and has been connected with a company which has been selling Bitter Root Valley irrigated lands. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mathews are well known in Marquette.

DEATH OF MISS VELZY

Miss Lucy Stark received a telegram yesterday afternoon from H. E. Velzy, former manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company's business in this city, advising her that his daughter, Fern, had died of typhoid fever, she having been taken down three weeks ago, while teaching school in a country district out from Grand Rapids, where the family now resides. The funeral will be held tomorrow, with interment in Grand Rapids. The deceased was a graduate of the Ishpeming high school, having finished with the class of three years ago, and she was a bright and popular girl. She was about twenty-one years of age. The family left Ishpeming for the lower peninsula about two years ago.

JUDGE WEST HAD FIRST CASES.

J. D. West, Ishpeming's new municipal judge, yesterday had his first cases, which succeeded William Andrews. He disposed of two drunk and disorderly cases, also an assault and battery case. The defendant in the latter was Philip Monroe, who was charged with beating his wife. Monroe thrashed the woman at the corner of Division and Pine streets Saturday. When some bystanders interfered he threatened to use a razor on them. Monroe pleaded guilty, advising the judge that he was excited and that he felt he had good reason for treating his spouse. After giving Monroe a little good advice, the judge announced that inasmuch as it was the first time he had appeared in court on that offense the fine would be "only" $20. With the costs of court, the total amounted to $25.30. Monroe was some months ago brought back to the city, charged with desertion. He is now out on bonds and will be given a hearing at the next term of the circuit court.

ELECTED DELEGATES TO GRAND LODGE

CHARLES PELLTIER HAS PASSED AWAY

Former Ishpeming Business Man Died at Ontonagon, After a Few Days' Illness.

At the district meeting representatives of the Scandinavian society in Michigan, held last week at Norway, on the Menominee range, Christ Presthus and Albert Bjork of this city were chosen two of the nine delegates to attend the grand lodge convention to be held in Negaunee on the first Tuesday in June. Mr. Presthus was also elected secretary of the district. There were fifteen delegates in attendance, representing all of the Scandinavian societies in Michigan. Eric Hager of Iron Mountain was chosen president of the district organization and the delegates named to attend the grand lodge meeting were Eric Hager, Iron Mountain; Christ Presthus and Albert Bjork, Ishpeming; Henry Carlson, Escanaba; J. K. Holm, Gladstone; Swan Erickson, Desmet; Oliver Johnson, Negaunee; Hjalmar Solomonsen, Norway; and Mrs. Mary Ashlund, Ironwood. The next district convention will be held in Ishpeming, two years hence.

There will be about thirty delegates in attendance at the grand lodge convention, representing all of the Scandinavian societies in the United States. The lodges affiliated with the grand body are largely in Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Michigan has in the neighborhood of 2,000 members. Marquette county is one of the largest in the jurisdiction in point of membership and the lodges here were among the first organized. Both the Ishpeming and Negaunee lodges were instituted some thirty-five years ago, while the grand lodge was not organized until some fifty or twenty years later. Fred J. Eggen of this city, who has been prominent in the Ishpeming organization ever since it was organized, was the first president of the grand lodge, and he has attended nearly all of the grand lodge sessions, which are held biennially.

A telegram was received in Ishpeming yesterday announcing the death in Ontonagon of Charles Pelltier, a former business man of this city. Mr. Pelltier, who was sixty-nine years of age, was stricken with paralysis last Tuesday, while working as a bookkeeper for the Greenwood Lumber company at Green, seven miles from Ontonagon. He was at once removed to his home and his condition gradually grew worse until Sunday, when he passed away. The deceased had been in good health up to the time he suffered the paralytic stroke. He had been the Greenwood Lumber company's bookkeeper for the past three years, and for some time prior to that he was in the employ of Cleo Miller, vice president and manager of the Negaunee National bank, who also has banking interests at Ontonagon.

Mr. Pelltier is remembered by all of the older residents of Ishpeming and particularly by the Frenchmen, as he was prominent among his people here for many years. During his early residence in this county he had charge of the Iron Cliffs mine, located near the old Iron Cliffs furnace, on the drive extending from the Winthrop to Negaunee. He was succeeded as manager of the property by Alexander Maitland, of Negaunee. From there Mr. Pelltier went to Deer Lake, to take charge of the Deer Lake company's general store. He held this position for several years and then engaged in the grocery business in Ishpeming. He conducted a store on First street for some time. He left this city fifteen years or more ago. He had been a resident of Ontonagon for ten years or over and he was generally known and highly esteemed in that county.

The deceased was a man of fine business ability and a thoroughly honest and upright citizen. During the years he lived here he was prominent in the affairs of the French society and he never relinquished his membership in the organization. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Remillard of Ishpeming, an adopted daughter of the deceased, and an adopted son, Charles Pelltier, lives at Ontonagon. Since leaving here the young man has married and he holds a position with one of the lumber companies there.

The funeral will be held today, with interment in the cemetery at Ontonagon. Some of the Ishpeming relatives and friends of the deceased left yesterday to attend the obsequies.

CIGAR MAKERS LEAVING.

Employees of Late Herman Jaedecke Accepting Positions Elsewhere.

Several of the cigar makers who were in the employ of the late Herman Jaedecke are taking positions elsewhere. The only work done at the shop since Mr. Jaedecke's death has been the working up of some loose stock. An inventory of the stock and fixtures has been taken, but it has not yet been decided whether the business will be continued or disposed of. Richard Cole was the first of the employees to leave. He went to the Canadian Soo last week to take a position in a new cigar factory opened up there. He secured places for Henry Wills and W. J. Andrews, both of whom will leave today. John Goodman has taken a position in the machine shop at the Mary Charlotte mine and Robert Northly has accepted a place with Treblelock Bros. Mr. Wills was a member of the Ishpeming band and it is expected he will play with the Canadian Soo band. He plays either a clarinet or saxophone.

The Ishpeming friends of the late Mr. Jaedecke's employees will regret to see them scatter, as there was perhaps not a cigar manufacturing concern in the country having such a fine lot of workmen, in proportion to the number employed. Several of Mr. Jaedecke's employees had been in his service for over twenty years, while none of his cigar makers had worked there less than ten years. They are first-class workmen and all are sober and industrious.

BAD FOREST FIRES.

Rain Yesterday Morning Helped Considerably to Extinguish Them.

Forest fires were reported from various parts of the country districts surrounding Ishpeming Sunday, but the rain shower at 3 o'clock yesterday morning extinguished them in many places, and in other places it checked their progress. Many Ishpeming men spent Sunday at the trout streams both north and south of the city, and some of them reported that the fires were traveling rapidly, as the woods were exceptionally dry. Some of the Ishpeming men were obliged to travel out of their way in order to avoid the flames and heavy clouds of smoke. Smoke overhung the city Sunday and it was especially thick along toward evening.

Fires had started in many places along the Chicago & Northwestern railway line, between Negaunee and Escanaba, and it looked as though much good timber would be destroyed. The railroad men who came up from Escanaba on the trains yesterday reported that the rain had put out most of the fires, but some of them are still burning, with indications that they will get a fresh start if more rain does not fall within the next day or two. The rain was general in this region. It rained in Escanaba at 6 o'clock, three hours after the shower here.

The rain was greatly appreciated by the farmers, but it was not heavy enough to thoroughly soak the ground. The water penetrated through the ground less than two inches, so that the farmers need considerably more moisture to give their crops a good start.

WRITING FOR MAGAZINE.

The April edition of the American Teacher, a Boston educational magazine, contained an article of several pages on the subject of "Primary Reading," by V. Winifred Lacey, of this city. The work presented in this number proved so beneficial to the readers that the editor was requested to have more material presented on that same subject, and Miss Lacey was asked to continue her work, and another article by her appears in the May number. By special request the work which will appear in the June number by Miss Lacey will be on the subject of "Phonics," without the use of diacritical marks. Among the other articles in the May number of this magazine is Hon. L. L. Wright, state superintendent of public instruction, who presents an excellent article on "Sense Training." Miss Lacey has also contributed an extended article to the May number of Journal of Education, on "Individual Instruction."

Ishpeming People Asked to Aid Former Resident in Poor Circumstances.

The family of James Pascoe, a former well-known resident of this city, whose home at the Greenwood was burned Friday, has been left in destitute circumstances and their friends in Ishpeming would be pleased to receive contributions to help them get a new start. The fire not only destroyed their home, but also every piece of furniture and article of food and clothing that they possessed. In addition to their household effects and clothing, they also lost 200 bushels of seed potatoes, together with a large variety of other seeds that Mr. Pascoe was preparing to put in the ground. He had just completed plowing his land and intended to begin planting yesterday.

In fighting the fire Mr. Pascoe almost lost his life. He was working in the attic where the fire originated and he fell through a hole. Although severely injured he continued his desperate attempts to extinguish the blaze and his hands and face were slightly burned and his hair was singed.

The Ishpeming relatives and friends of Mr. Pascoe, who have interested themselves in his case, will gladly accept donations of clothing for Mrs. Pascoe and the children. Donations of seed potatoes from farmers or others would also be appreciated. They have four children, three girls and two boys, the oldest a boy fourteen years of age. The boy has for some time past been handling the

It is simply second nature for Gately's to show more choice in more value at less price than any other concern. Because Gately's count on the volume of business they do, and their enormous purchasing power enables them to "Buy for less and sell for less."

Now then, some folks are crying "Hard Times." We haven't felt any—and don't want to—so we took full advantage of every cash buying concession, and we therefore bought even heavier than usual for this spring. Which fact coupled with a preference for plenty of business at less profits makes the head lines exactly true, and places Gately's value beyond all hope of competition.

CAPTAIN JAS. BALE VISITING IN CITY

Mining Man, Who Opened the Rolling Mill Property, Is Meeting Old Friends.

Captain James Bale, a well-known resident of Duluth, who was one of the early miners on the Marquette range, is spending a few days in Negaunee.

Captain Bale opened the Rolling Mill property, which is now operated by the Jones & Laughlins interests, some thirty-three years ago.

Captain Bale was also one of the first men to have charge of work at the Cambria mine, having gone from the Rolling Mill to that property.

The captain has found many changes in Negaunee since he left here. He said that about the only part of the city that he recognized is Iron street.

GAS KILLED MULES.

Animals Used Underground at Hartford Succumbed to Poisonous Fumes.

The four mules that had been used for tramping purposes in the drifts of the Hartford mine were killed by the gas and smoke that resulted in the death of the seven miners at the property Friday morning.

Negaunee people are showing unusual interest in the outcome of the coroner's inquest, which was started yesterday morning in Judge Verran's court.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA.

Veteran Mining Man's Returned After Several Months' Absence.

Captain James F. Foley, who spent the winter in California, visiting his son-in-law, Thomas Atkinson, and wife, arrived home yesterday morning.

Captain Foley, who is now one of the oldest mining men in the Lake Superior district, is in fine health and he greatly enjoyed his visit in California.

LOCAL LACONICS.

The Negaunee aerie of Eagles will hold a meeting at Kirkwood's Hall this evening.

Mrs. Charles Speck and son have left their home in Oakland, Ore., after a visit with relatives here.

Prosecuting Attorney F. A. Bell arrived home yesterday morning from a business trip to Chicago.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lobb and her son, Nathaniel, former residents, were up from Munising Saturday on a visit.

Oscar Larson, the well-known Finnish attorney of the copper country, was a Negaunee visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Swartz left Sunday night for North Dakota, on a visit to her sister, Mrs. James Brown, formerly of this city.

The inquest in the case of the men who lost their lives in the Hartford mine fire was not finished yesterday, and will be resumed on Thursday.

Cleo Meilleur has received plans and specifications for his new dwelling and he would like to have the contractors who intend to bid on the job call and look them over.

A dozen or more students from the Madison, Wis., university, who were doing geological work on the range, spent Saturday in Negaunee.

Miss Ruth Miller, daughter of John P. Miller, who will next month complete her course at the Marquette Normal, has signed a contract to teach the coming year at Ironwood.

Miss Elsie Rigg was tendered a social surprise by about thirty of her young friends Friday evening at her home on Myrtle street.

Albert Makki, a miner employed at the Breitung Hematite, sustained a fracture of his left leg above the ankle, when he was thrown from a ladder that was hit by a falling piece of ore.

Miss Margaret O'Leary, who has been suffering from nervous prostration for several months past, and who was obliged to give up her position as teacher in the copper country, left last night for a month's visit to her brother, Dr. Austin O'Leary, and his family, in California.

R. Y. Williams of the Urbana rescue station, who is also an official of the United States bureau of mines, and C. S. Stevenson, one of the professors in the school of mines at the University of Illinois, who came to the city Saturday prepared to assist in the rescue work at the Hartford mine.

Colan Kemp, whose arrival from California was mentioned in yesterday's issue of The Mining Journal, will this week look after the removal of the bodies of several deceased relatives from the old to the new cemetery.
