REBEL LEADER IS GOING TO MEXICO CITY

Provisional President Madero Announces He Will Leave Juarez for the South Today or Tomorrow, to Conclude the Arrangement for Lasting Peace.

A Definite Agreement at Once Is Considered Certain, but if by Any Chance the Plans Miscalculate an Army Will Invest the Federal Capital Within a Few Hours

Juarez, May 18.—Provisional President Francisco I. Madero's announcement today that he would leave for Mexico City within two days, to participate in a reconstruction of the federal government, was the signal tonight for a general exodus of political chiefs, go-betweens and others who feel that the scene of the peace negotiations is about to be shifted to the capital city.

Peace agreements, official concessions and the machinery of the provisional government have been temporarily swept aside by the anticipation that Señor Madero will quietly arrange with the federal government a lasting peace and political emancipation. Judge Carabanchel, the federal envoy, will leave here tomorrow.

Provisional President Elated. Already the five provisional governors, who expect to be retained in that capacity through the official reorganization for the state capitals, there to await instructions from Mexico City as to the time for their acceptance of the gubernatorial togs.

Rebel Army Ready to Strike. If by any chance the present plans for peace fail, within twelve hours of that time Mexico City itself would be cut off from all outside communication and invested by the insurgents under Figueroa. The investment of Chihuahua city also would follow within a day or two.

Diaz to Retire Next Week. Mexico City, May 18.—It is semi-officially stated that the retirement of General Diaz from the presidency will take place May 24 or 25. Vice President Corral's resignation will be sent by cable and it will be attested by the Mexican minister in Spain.

Corral Would Fight It Out. Paris, May 18.—"I do not believe the resignation of President Diaz will really stop the revolution." This declaration was made this evening by Vice President Corral Mexico, whose resignation, along with that of Diaz, has been proffered by the Mexican administration as a concession to the revolutionists.

Las Vegas, N. M., May 18.—Will Rogers pleaded guilty today to the charge of kidnaping Waldo Rogers, aged three, grandson of Henry L. Waldo, millionaire general solicitor of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad. Joe Higgins, an ex-convict and alleged accomplice of Rogers in the kidnaping, pleaded not guilty. Rogers is expected to be the principal witness for the state.

GRAND RAPIDS BISHOP ASKS FURNITURE MANUFACTURERS TO GRANT MEN CONCESSIONS.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 18.—Auxiliary Bishop Joseph Schrenks, of the Roman Catholic diocese of Grand Rapids, today appealed by letter to the furniture manufacturers to end the furniture workers' strike here on the basis of a nine-hour day and a slight increase for workers earning less than $2 a day.

Arbitration Plan at Chicago. Chicago, May 18.—An arbitration association designed to put an end to jurisdictional warfare between labor unions such as have crippled the building industry here for several months was formed today by the union of tile and building contractors.

EARL OF SELBORNE ASSAILS GOVERNMENT

Canadian Reciprocity Agreement Figures in House of Lords Debate at London.

London, May 18.—The government was sharply criticized by the Earl of Selborne in the house of lords this evening, because of its "extraordinary silliness" in failing to safeguard the interests of the United Kingdom in the American-Canadian reciprocity agreement.

Ministry's Course Defended. Baron Lucas, parliamentary under-secretary to the war office, replying for the government, said that the earl's great over-estimate of the damage to the trade of the United Kingdom and the difficulties that might arise from the reciprocity agreement, Canada was perfectly within her statutory rights and the government could not interfere.

FRENCH ACADEMIES BECOMING ALARMED. American Art Colony at Paris Develops Into a School of Painting.

Paris, May 4.—[Correspondence.]—Some years ago Thibault-Sisson, an eminent French critic, wrote that the American painters who had come to Paris to learn would stay to teach.

Women take a prominent place among the exponents of the new school. Elizabeth Nourse and Beatrice Howe are probably the best women painters in France. They have received every distinction that a foreigner can receive, and their pictures are to be seen in prominent positions at the principal exhibitions in Paris and the provinces.

Progress the Watchword. The Portuguese republic was not a surprise. It was a political solution expected for a long time past. The new nation has already made more progress in a few months than the old regime could have accomplished in a century.

MUST STILL BE WARS, BELIEVES MR. ROOSEVELT

There Are Some Things That Cannot Be Arbitrated, He Says, and He Mentions Various Instances—These Involve National Honor, Independence and Integrity.

New York, May 18.—Former President Roosevelt has an article on the "Arbitration Treaty with Great Britain" in the Outlook. He says, in part: "Between Great Britain and the United States it is now necessary to have a general arbitration treaty, because the experience of ninety-six years has shown that the two nations have achieved that point of civilization where each can be trusted not to do to the other any one of the offenses which ought to precede any self-respecting nation from appealing from arbitration.

LaFollette to Press the Matter. Washington, May 18.—Senator LaFollette today gave notice to the senate that on Monday he would call up his resolution providing for a special committee to investigate the charges against the Lorimer investigation.

Senator Urges an Amendment That Publisher Says Would Kill Reciprocity Agreement. Washington, May 18.—Claiming that the essence of the proposed commercial pact between this country and Canada is the right of the publisher of newspapers to import his paper free into the United States, Senator Root today appeared before the senate finance committee and suggested an amendment to the house bill which would prevent woodpulp and paper from coming into this country free until it was free from all the provinces of Canada.

SECURITIES REGISTER STILL FURTHER GAINS Demand for Stocks More Than Balances Extensive Sales to Realize Profits.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Extensive profit-taking failed today to check the advance in stocks which began after the announcement of the supreme court's Standard Oil decision and has far outstripped any similar movement of the year. Realizing was in progress all day long, but the demand was sufficiently large to absorb all offerings in the first part of the session and substantial gains were made, many of the active issues moving up a point or more.

DIETZ CASE TO BE TAKEN TO THE SUPREME COURT. Waupeau, Wis., May 18.—The case of John F. Dietz, who was found guilty of murdering Deputy Sheriff Oscar Harp Oct. 8, last, will be appealed to the supreme court.

"Swat the fly" time is almost here. And Chase said— And William Alden answered—
The British public is said to be of the opinion that its foreign minister is too secretive. What it evidently wants is a little shirt sleeve diplomacy.
"Baseball," says a commentator, "has a language that is all its own." Yes, and it is important to the welfare of the mother tongue that it stays all its own.

Perhaps the packers are conducting their business in only reasonable restraint of trade, but the courts take the position that they will have to be shown. Also Senator Gallinger would simplify a little the difference over the election of a president pro tem by formally withdrawing his name from consideration.
The bone-broken, keel-hauled, man-handled prisoners in the Marquette penitentiary were yesterday disciplined with a baseball game. The D. J. please take notice.

In view of the divergence of expert opinion in relation to the question whether or not the Panama canal will pay, it appears that one man's guess is as good as another's.

Not the least gratifying feature of the peace news we are receiving from Mexico is the assurance it carries that we will have no call for sending our soldier boys south of the line.

The individual that proposed the step of docking Governor Wilson, of New Jersey, for the time that he is absent from the state is probably a sympathizer with the battered Smith machine.

President Diaz didn't attempt to hold out on anything when he finally decided to meet the terms of the insurgents. He went the limit on all the matters respectfully directed to his attention.

In the trend of the stock quotations the past few days is found indubitably evidence that "big business" is very well satisfied indeed with the decision of the supreme court in the Standard Oil case.

The forging of fetters for the dogs of war has not, however, as yet affected the business of the shipyards that are building dreadnaughts, or the foundries that make the arms and ordinance used by the armies.

Even if it was denied the inspection of Banker Tilden's books the Helm investigating committee of the Illinois senate uncovered enough evidence to convince its members that the election of William Lorimer before the last general assembly would not have occurred had it not been for bribery and corruption.

When the White Sox make it four straight from the "champs" it must be conceded that Conmy has made some material progress with the regeneration of his once feared team. With the White Sox in second place, with points to spare, it appears that they are this year to be spared the ignominy of a berth in the second division.

As was to have been expected, the Democrats have introduced a gist of bills that propose to take from the courts all province of determining whether a combination in restraint of trade is reasonable or unreasonable, and thus legal or illegal, by explicitly forbidding all combinations in restraint of trade, whether reasonable or unreasonable. It was not to be expected that the Democrats would lose this opportunity of storing up campaign thunder.

The eight representatives from Michigan who voted against the reciprocity agreement wonder "what Governor Osborn is up to." Governor Osborn, we should say, has made it very plain what he is up to. He has been trying to get in a word for a majority of the Michigan Republicans. Aren't they to have any spokesmen? The eight representatives referred to have already seen that the interests of the minority are looked after.

The G. O. P. and President Taft want propositions from possible nominees for vice president. In view of the unlikelihood that the right kind of a New York man can be secured, a westerner is preferred. He must have some qualifications as a campaign speaker, and, what is more important, must be persona grata to the progressives in the party. He is desired to take the place that Vice President Sherman might have filled as the running mate of the president if the developments of the past two years had not borne out the misgivings of those who viewed his nomination in 1908 with no great measure of approval. Applications may be presented at any time now, and it is understood that they will be considered in the order of their receipt.

State Railroad Commissioner Glasgow writes that the two cent fare law for the upper peninsula will affect only the South Shore railway. In other words, the law will hit only the railway that is least able to stand the reduction in fare. Two cent fares would be a matter of little moment to the Northwestern and St. Paul lines. Their upper peninsula truckage is but a small part of their total truckage, and they have much more profitable territory in which they could recoup any small losses they might suffer in this region. It is otherwise with the South Shore, as none of its territory is notably good, as profitable railroads go.

The sudden death of Charles A. Wright, of Hancock, will greatly shock and grieve the copper country, in whose industrial development Mr. Wright played an important part and where he was one of the leading men of affairs, being a director and official of mines, a railroad and a national bank. Mr. Wright was one of the first men to see the possibilities of the Copper Range railroad, and was one of its leading promoters. Other projects of hardly less importance had his support and encouragement. He was keen to see opportunities in business and was an admirable organizer. His measure of success was an unusually large one. For a number of years Mr. Wright owned the Hancock Journal, but the active management of the publication was left with other men. Mr. Wright never held important public office, but he is remembered as a factor in the congressional convention that resulted in the first nomination of H. O. Young, of Ishpeming. Mr. Wright went to that convention with the Houghton county delegation tied tight to him, and the deadlock between Messrs. Young, Wright and Congressman Sheldon finally had issue in the nomination of Mr. Young. Thereafter Mr. Wright eschewed politics and gave practically all of his attention to his manifold business affairs.

Battle Creek, with over 26,000 people, and which is now again wet, after an extended period of drought, has, under the new dispensation, only fifteen saloons. That is a sufficient number to take care of the liquor business of the city, and a small enough number to allow every saloon man to make good money without being under the necessity of violating the law. Indeed, under the conditions prevailing in Battle Creek, a saloon man who would take any risk that would threaten as valuable an asset as his license would be a fit subject for examination by a commission in lunacy. In practically all the lower peninsula cities that are now wet after a period of drought the number of saloons is much smaller than it was before the dries won at the polls. This condition is pointed to as one of the enduring reforms gained by the dries' campaigns. The saloon problem has arisen, and the local opinion warfare has become acute, only because there are too many saloons. The Soo is the only town in the upper peninsula that has had the courage to take up this problem vigorously and apply the limitation made possible by the Warner-Cramton law, namely, one saloon for every 500 population. In consequence the saloon business is on an admirable footing in the Soo. The town is much more orderly and more easily policed than formerly, and the saloon men are making some money, which is more than can be said for the average of them in most cities of the state.

MICHIGAN MEN SELECTED.

Representative Mann, the minority leader, recommended Representative Young for a place on the committee that is to investigate the steel trust and Representative Fordney for the committee to look into the alleged derelictions of the sugar trust. Both these men should be able to expedite the work of their respective committees and to give them valuable service. Mr. Young is sent to the house by a district in which the steel trust carries on extensive operations and in which it is considerable of a factor, from every point of view, whereas Mr. Fordney is particularly well-informed in regard to the sugar industry and well qualified to be a spokesman for it.
It is improbable that either Mr. Young or Mr. Fordney will be able to find anything ominous or terrifying about the "trusts" they are appointed to help investigate. Mr. Young's view of the steel trust is well-known, and it is the view of perhaps a considerable majority of the thinking people of his district. He holds its organization to have been a great boon to the iron industry, by reason of its stabilizing influence. The steel corporation has in this region been a fair dealer with labor, attentive to the interests of its men and public spirited. Conditions in the iron fields have been better since the advent of the trust than they were before. Employment is steadier and there is less fluctuation in the working of the mines.
Mr. Young should, on the committee, offset, in a measure, some of the Democratic members who doubtless expect to find nothing good in the steel corporation, and in regard to the mining end of its operations his fellow members will find him a source of extensive and accurate information. One thing is a cinch; Messrs. Fordney and Young will not permit the Democrats to get any more thunder out of their investigations than they are entitled to have.

DIAZ A PATRIOT.
The belief that President Diaz is a patriot will be strengthened by his agreement to resign and practically to turn the government over to the insurgents, pending a time when a new election can be held. While the trend of events in Mexico has lately been unfavorable to the government, it must be granted that Diaz was, when he made his momentous decision, still far from a man with his back to the wall. He was commander in chief of a considerable body of troops and still had many loyal partisans. While the successes of the insurgents made it look as if the Diaz government would finally be overturned by pure weight of arms, still it is clear that there were several good fights in it yet, if Diaz was set alone on upholding his power to the bitter end.
Diaz is entitled to a large measure of credit and praise for a course that ends the danger of more bloodshed and of the engendering of embittered feelings that would, in the end, make it infinitely more difficult to obtain orderly civil govern-

OSBORN FOR SMITH.
As The Mining Journal has stated, the frank declaration by Governor Osborn of his position in regard to Canadian reciprocity, and his trip to Washington to do what lay in his power to create sentiment favorable to the agreement, caused many tongues to wag with the story that the governor is, after all, a prospective candidate for senator and that his projection of himself into the reciprocity discussion is his first step in the direction of becoming an avowed candidate against Senator Smith. This story is ridiculous, in the light of the governor's earlier declaration for Senator Smith. But for good measure the governor laid it out again in Washington this week, when he said to a representative of the Grand Rapids Press: "I am for William Alden Smith whether he is for reciprocity or not. I believe that he is conscientious in the stand he has taken. But it is not open to me what mental processes have led him to his conclusion on reciprocity."
In the same general connection, the Press quotes Milton McRae, president of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce, who has been discussed to some extent as a possible candidate against Senator Smith, should the reciprocity issue become satisfactorily burning to mean a fight on Michigan's senior senator. Mr. McRae makes plain that he is not seeking the senatorial office, but at the same time indicates that he might be a candidate, under certain conditions. He said: "After thirty years of public life, but never in public office, I shall have to be convinced by others that it is my duty to enter this reciprocity fight as a senatorial candidate. All my feelings are against my taking any action. It is too early for me to decide definitely what I may do a year from now. My course will depend entirely on the events of the next thirty days. I am anxious to see the senate endorse the Canadian reciprocity treaty. I believe that a majority of the Michigan farmers will not be opposed to the treaty when they understand it. They have been fooled and scared by a bogey.

If any other stronger candidate for the senate is offered next time, or if the present crisis is passed in a way favorable to reciprocity I surely shall not be a candidate, but we must wait and see."

WILLIAM ALDEN WILL BE HIS OWN SUCCESSOR.

It is inevitable in a state as large as Michigan, with its many and widely varied interests, that the approach of so important an event as the election of a United States senator should be marked by discussion of possible candidates for this high place. It is also inevitable that a sitting member of the senate, about to go to the people for a renomination, when called upon to make a decision on a question which sharply divides the people at home, should find his action seized upon, no matter what his action may have been, as the excuse for the suggestion of possible opponents.
This is just what has happened to Senator William Alden Smith. The senator has had to face the question of reciprocity. He has declared his opposition to the treaty as at present framed. The more active supporters of the treaty have put forward Milton A. McRae of Detroit as a possible opponent of Senator Smith for the senatorship. Mr. McRae has not indicated in any way whether the proposal appears attractive to him.
At this point we wish to offer the declaration that despite Senator Smith's decision to oppose reciprocity, which we regret, Senator Smith will not have to meet any real opposition for a renomination as senator. We make this declaration without hesitation because we do not believe that Michigan has failed to recognize the quality of William Alden Smith's services in the senate, his rapidly growing influence and prestige in that body and his constantly faithful effort adequately to represent the state of Michigan and its people in a wholly just and earnest public servant, and an intelligent and patriotic legislator.
Despite Senator Smith's declaration of opposition to reciprocity, which we hope further developments will modify, the present senior senator will, if he lives, succeed himself as one of the representatives of Michigan in the upper house of congress.—Soo News.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.
Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.
Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. Copper Country CITY OF HANCOCK IS IN MOURNING

Plans for the funeral of the late Charles A. Wright, Sr. could not be made yesterday, pending advices from relatives. The remains lie at the beautiful Wright home in Hancock, awaiting interment. All Hancock is in mourning.

His death was a shock to all who heard of it, particularly because of the manner in which it came. Mr. Wright was a man who aimed to keep himself in good physical condition in spite of the demands upon his time by many interests.

Before the meeting yesterday settled down to business, Superintendent Doelle offered the school officers a little entertainment in the form of selections by the Houghton High school orchestra.

Mr. Wright was a member of the Congregational church. He was an Elk and a member of the New York society. He was survived by his wife and four children.

JOSEPH KOPP IS EXCLUDED. Joseph Kopp, father of Mrs. Peter Groschick of Tamarack, Jr., who landed in New York recently on his way to Calumet to make his home with his daughter, but found it impossible to do so because of his work at Lansing.

A GROWING MUSICAL PUBLIC.

Manager A. K. Cox, who has for the past year given the Copper country numerous sterling musical attractions, says that the sale of seats for the engagement of the St. Paul Symphony orchestra on Memorial Day, is one of the great encouragements he has received in his efforts to give Houghton and Hancock a continuing opportunity to hear classical music.

It may be interesting to the prospective auditors of the orchestra to know that the organization has maintained in St. Paul by the subscriptions of wealthy people of musical taste.

ANDERSON LANDS CONTRACT.

The Asphalt Paving & Block company of Toledo, Ohio, has awarded Eric Anderson of Hancock the contract for rebuilding its dock at Gros Point. Mr. Anderson is now engaged in building a sand conveyor for this company at Point Mills and expects to have the work completed in a few weeks.

SPARK FOR BLACK BASS FRY.

Officers of Calumet have just sent to the officials of the state fish hatchery an application for a shipment of bass fry, to be planted in that part of the Copper country. There are numerous small lakes where there would be excellent sport if sufficient attention were paid to the propagation of the fish.

THAT AWFUL BACKACHE

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Morton's Gap, Kentucky. "I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and an enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have the backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others I will give you my name. Nothing but your medicine will cure me. I can publish it." - Mrs. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

Markets WALL STREET STOCKS.

Paime, Webber & Co. yesterday wired from New York as follows: Although the stock market continued to display an exceptionally firm tone throughout the session, still the buying extent perhaps in a few specialties was not as vigorous as heretofore and realizing sales caused recessions from the high prices. A moderate increase was reported in the commission demand for iron ore, which aided the upward movement and in addition stocks, particularly in copper and smelters, displayed nervousness.

NOVEL WREATH OF LOCUSTS.
A North Bethlehem, (Pa.) man possesses a wreath and star made out of locusts, interesting relics of the invasion of the country by the 17-year locusts in 1885. The man caught the insects by the thousands and then used his leisure in making them a memorial of themselves. The design is two feet high and three feet wide. Locusts' wings alone were used in the making of the wreath, and also in the center of the star, but the bodies of the insects supplied the six points.

Escanaba Has Eighty Saloons—

By action taken by the common council Escanaba now has its full complement of saloons for the coming year. The bonds of Andrew Phillips and John Gorman were approved. This gives Escanaba a total of eighty saloons, or one for each 160 persons in the city.

Presents City With Fountain—

Herman Salinsky of the Fair Savings Bank store at Escanaba is to present a handsome drinking fountain to the city. It will be installed on the Mary street side of the Fair store. A sketch of the fountain offered by Mr. Salinsky, with the proposition that it should be installed by the city, was received by the board of aldermen at a meeting during the week and the gift was unanimously accepted. The fountain is a beautiful affair of iron, having a trough on the street side where horses may be watered and with sanitary bubble cups on the sidewalk side where pedestrians may secure a cooling drink.

Chippewa County Spelling Match—

The result of the Chippewa county spelling match held May 5 has just been learned. Commissioner Easterday having completed the examination of the papers. The first prize goes to Etta McDonald with a percentage of 188 out of a possible 200; second prize, Eva Williams, percentage, 186; third prize, Alma Osborn, percentage of 178. The winners of the first and second prizes are both members of the Donaldson school, while Miss Osborn is a pupil of Pine Grove school. Ada A. Gray, of Starling, and Gladys Curtis, of Kinross; Vera Fegan, of Duffer, and Ruth Goetz, of DeTour, had a standing of between 150 and 175. There were fifty-eight contestants.

Mayor's Appointments Rejected—

By a vote of eight to five the city council of Escanaba has refused to confirm Mayor Lindsay's appointment of Edward Smith as poor commissioner for the ensuing year to succeed N. Blanchett. The appointment of Peter Holmes as street commissioner was introduced with the appointment of Mr. Smith and Mr. Holmes suffered the same fate, but as he already holds office his position will not be affected. Until a successor is named, Mr. Blanchett will continue to act as poor commissioner.

Plans to Enlarge Factory—

Formal notice has been given that the Escanaba Manufacturing company is to greatly enlarge its present plant on Stephenson avenue. In a communication to the Escanaba common council T. M. Judson, superintendent of the company, asks the council to vacate Roller avenue from Stephenson avenue to Ruth street, that space may be provided for a proposed new building. The company owns the property on both sides of Roller avenue in the district affected, it having deeded that part of Roller avenue to the city as a street in 1897. In return the company promises to deed the city a strip of land fifty feet wide along the north side of its property from Stephenson avenue to Ruth street. The matter has been referred to the council's street committee.

Trunk Road Is Wanted—

There is a quiet movement afoot in the Soo to interest the public in a project that seems desirable and feasible. It is that of assisting in opening up a trunk wagon road to connect the city with the western end of the peninsula and thereby to make it accessible to auto tourists from Milwaukee and Chicago. It is suggested that the counties of Chippewa, Mackinac and Schoolcraft unite in building the road to Manistique. From that point west the roads are fairly good to Escanaba, and from Escanaba there are good roads all the way to Chicago. Summer touring in automobiles is growing in popularity every season, and in many resort towns the visitors coming in the touring cars exceed those of the boats and railroads combined. It is argued that the Soo could be made a popular terminal point for Chicago, Milwaukee and many other towns of the west if it had connecting wagon roads. It is believed that the summer business could be increased enough to justify the city financing the building of the Chippewa county section of road.

LOCAL FIRM WILL CONTINUE VALUABLE AGENCY.

The Stafford Drug Co. of this city have just closed a deal whereby they will continue to be agents for ZEMO—the well known remedy for Eczema, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp.

The extraordinary leap that this clean liquid external treatment for skin affections has made into public favor in the last few years proves its wonderful curative properties and makes it indeed a valuable addition to the fine stock of remedial agents carried by the Stafford Drug Co., Marquette; City Drug Store, H. Hartwood, Ishpeming.

They have a limited supply of samples, one of which will be given free to any skin sufferer, who wishes to test the merit of the medicine. A booklet "How to Preserve the Skin," will also be given to those interested.

Ishpeming

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Victor Broad, of Champion, has taken a position as bartender with Charles Johnson in the Uren block. Mr. Broad was a resident of Ishpeming some twenty years ago, but he has resided at Champion for a number of years.

John Vivian, who some weeks ago had his left hand injured while working in the Rolling Mill mine, at Negaunee is able to be around. Mr. Vivian suffered considerably as a result of infection in the hand, necessitating two operations.

The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railway company will give special rates to a party of ten or more from this city attending Madame Sarah Bernhardt's production at the Casino Theatre on the evening of the 30th, or the Kerredge theatre, May 31.

The stock of cigars, tobacco and smokers articles, owned by the late Herman Jaecke, are being disposed of at reduced prices. Mrs. Jaecke has decided to close out the business. The sale will be conducted for several days, until everything in stock is sold.

Members of the committee that will have charge of the dance to be given in Braastad's hall Monday night, for the benefit of the Ishpeming baseball team, will start selling tickets today. It is expected that several hundred will be disposed of. Good music will be provided and the hall will be specially decorated for the occasion.

Altermann George G. Barnett, president of the council, and H. H. Milton, chairman of the cemetery trustees, give notice in this issue that parties whose relatives or friends are buried in the old city cemetery should notify William Perry, city sexton, or Richard Carlyon, who has a contract to remove the remains to the new cemetery, of exact location of the graves. There are a number of unmarked graves in the old burial grounds.

The remains of W. H. Lucas, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Jennie Burnside, who died at Butte, Mont., last November, as the result of an attack of croup, will be received in Ishpeming this morning on the 4:30 o'clock train. They will be accompanied by Beatrice Lucas, a sister of the deceased. The body will be taken to the home of the grandmother, Mrs. A. Chipman, 417 East Pearl street, whence the funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. Burnside has been in the city the past two weeks.

DO GHOSTS HAUNT SWAMPS?
No, never. It's foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell of Lucama, N. C. Moving day at best is one of irregularities. Ofttimes it is a wise man who knoweth where he is to lay his head, says the New York Tribune. ## Ishpeming Department

OLIVER MEN TO WORK FOUR DAYS A WEEK

Steel Corporation Has too Much Ore on Hand for Its Present Needs.

The officials of the Oliver Iron Mining company have decided to work the Ishpeming properties but four days a week, the change taking effect next Monday. A report that this change was to be made was circulated about the city Wednesday evening, and it was also reported that there would be a considerable reduction in the working force, but this is not true.

W. H. Johnston, who has general supervision of the company's interests on the Marquette range, yesterday advised The Mining Journal that there will be no reduction in the force at any of the mines in Ishpeming and that the change from a six-day to a four-day working plan will not affect the company's Regent mine in Negaunee, nor will it effect the Steg Miller property, on the Swaney range, the Champion mine at Bescon, nor the Section 21 mine, at the Winthrop. The work at the Champion mine has for some few years past been largely of an exploratory nature, and this work is to be continued with the present force, which numbers in all, including surface hands, about fifty men. For some time past there has been no underground work at the Section 21 mine, but the pumps have been kept in operation.

The change affects operations at the corporation's Hard Ore properties, Section 16 and the Hematite mines, where the combined working force, including surface hands, is about 450. No night shift work will be done at any of the properties. Mr. Johnston said that the details pertaining to the new arrangement have not yet been fully worked out and he could not say what days in the week the mines will be worked.

The change in the working plan at the Ishpeming properties is due entirely to the fact that the company has more ore in stock than can be used for several months. The ore at the company's docks and in stock at the mines will keep the mills running until late in the summer.

So far as Mr. Johnston has been able to learn the officials have not yet made any announcement as to their plans for the other ranges, but it is anticipated that there will either be some reductions in the forces or a reduction in the number of working days, along the line of the plan to go into effect here. Mr. Johnston could not say just how long the new arrangement will be in effect, but he expressed the hope that a change for the better can be made before the shipping season closes.

None of the other companies operating properties on this range has made any announcement as to their plans for the season's work and no reductions have been made in the working forces at any of the mines. The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company is working a larger number of men in this district than any of the other companies operating here. There are good-sized stockpiles at all of the mines in this city and thus far this season the shipments have been light, compared with former years.

The state law requires that all children under sixteen years of age be off the streets in every city in Michigan after 9 o'clock, from April 1 to Oct. 1. During the remainder of the year they are not expected to be on the streets after 8 p. m.

Marshal Trevarrow has had so many complaints about children staying out late at night that he has instructed the officers to enforce the law and hereafter all boys and girls found either in the business or residence districts after the hour mentioned, will be arrested and taken to the city jail. It has been requested that the fire bell in No. 4 engine house be sounded as a curfew, but Mr. Trevarrow does not think this is necessary.

Mrs. Margaret Doyle, who was a daughter of the late Patrick Hughes, one of the early settlers in Ishpeming, and who passed away some years ago, died Tuesday evening at her home in West Duluth. The Duluth Evening Herald of Wednesday had this mention of her death: "Mrs. Margaret Doyle, aged 54, widow of Thomas Doyle, died after a two weeks' illness, at her home, 29 North Fifty-third avenue, west, last evening. Pneumonia was the cause of death.

TEMPERA FAMILY GONE.

Ishpeming Well Rid of an Outfit That Caused Many Disturbances.

The Tempera family, the members of which have been almost constantly in trouble in this city for nearly a year past, have pulled stakes and are to locate at Kenosha, Wis. Dominic Mellette, Tempera's son-in-law, and his wife, and Tempera's daughter, Mrs. Philip Munroe, left the city Tuesday, and the other members of the family left yesterday morning.

The Temperas have lived in Ishpeming for about twenty years, but they never gave the police officers any particular trouble until last fall, when Philip Munroe, Tempera's son-in-law, was brought back from Illinois on the charge of wife desertion. Since then members of the family have been in court five times. Otto, who shot his father through the head one night during the winter, was released from the Marquette county jail this week on four-years probation and the father is expected to appear at the next term of the circuit court on a statutory charge. The father has fully recovered from the bullet wound in the head inflicted by his son.

During the next two or three months Marshal Trevarrow has found it necessary a number of times to get after Mrs. Tempera and her daughter, Mrs. Munroe, and other members of the family, who made a business of begging. They annoyed many people, and not only worked begging to a finish in Ishpeming, but they also visited Negaunee. Munroe had trouble with his wife two weeks ago, when he gave her a trouncing on one of the business streets of the city. He is still here, and he has no intention of following the family to Kenosha.

Negaunee Department

GUST FREDIN WAS GIVEN A SCARE

Telegram Received by Him Conveyed Impression That His Outfit Had Been Burned.

Gust Fredin, the contractor, who is doing an extensive piece of work for the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company at its new Negaunee mine shaft, was given a scare Sunday at his home in Norway, when he received a telegram from one of his men here advising him that his outfit had been destroyed by fire. Mr. Fredin assumed that his entire outfit at the Negaunee mine, which is valued at some $6,000 or $7,000, was destroyed, and he lost no time in returning to the city. He found, much to his satisfaction, that the fire had been confined to one of his tool boxes.

It is suspected that the fire was started by foreigners whom Mr. Fredin Saturday refused work. The men were much provoked because he did not give them jobs, but as his crew is complete he could not use them to advantage. Mr. Fredin now intends to put a watchman in charge of the equipment.

Mr. Fredin was recently given a second contract by the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company for the construction of a road leading to a point where a dam is to be built, some few miles up from Marquette. This job will be started soon and some more men may be needed.

Mr. Fredin's work at the Negaunee mine is principally the grading of a new track that will lead from the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway company's main line to the mining property. Besides removing several thousand yards of dirt from the embankment near the property, the contractor also has to remove a large quantity of rock. The cut at one point is about fifty feet in depth, nearly thirty feet of this being solid rock. The dirt being removed from surface near the shaft is used to good advantage in the fill across the swamp to the east of the property. Up to this time Mr. Fredin's men have made fine headway.

The surface near the Negaunee mine is one of the busiest places in the city this summer as a large force of men are employed there on the various improvement jobs. The cutting down of the surface for an average depth of something over twenty feet, taking in a large area surrounding the shaft, is a big undertaking. The work of lining the shaft with concrete is still progressing favorably, and it will not be long before this part of the improvements is completed. It will, however, be a few months at least, before the shaft is entirely equipped and the head frame erected.

NO CURTAILMENT HERE.

Oliver Iron Mining Company Will Work Its Usual Force.

The announcement that the Oliver Iron Mining company is to work its Ishpeming properties only four days a week has caused many people to expect that a similar plan would go into effect at the company's Regent properties in this city. W. H. Johnston, the company's general agent on this range, yesterday advised The Mining Journal that there will be no change in the present working time at the company's mines in Negaunee. The properties here are operated under lease, whereas the company owns its Ishpeming mines outright.

There are at present 300 men employed at the Regent properties. A few married men may be transferred from the Ishpeming properties to the Regent, but this has not yet been positively decided on, as the plans under which the Ishpeming mines will work have not yet been fully worked out. The change from the six-day to the four-day plan at Ishpeming will go into effect next Monday.

EDWARDS IN CHARGE.

Wellknown Negaunee Mining Men is Filling Capt. McEnroe's Place.

Captain John McEnroe, the veteran mining man of Ishpeming, who last Saturday gave up his position with the Oliver Iron Mining company, after being continuously in the employ of the corporation, and its predecessors, for over fifty-three years, was a Negaunee visitor yesterday. Because of his long period of service with the company, Captain McEnroe will receive the maximum pension, which has been granted up to this time to very few of the company's retired workmen. Captain McEnroe started with the corporation in May, 1858, at seventy-five cents per day. By faithful service he soon gained the confidence and esteem of his employers and within a few years was placed in charge of mining operation.

Captain McEnroe yesterday said that he will probably spend a few months during the present year at his old home in Ireland, which he left when he was a boy.

Captain McEnroe is being succeeded temporarily by Captain Edwards of Negaunee. Captain Edwards worked under Captain McEnroe at the Hard Ore mines in Ishpeming some years ago, and he also worked for a time at the company's Section 21 property, at the Winthrop, but for a few years past has held a position at the Regent mines here.

DAMAGING STREET SIGNS.

A number of the metal street signs that were put up a month or so ago by the board of public works have been damaged by boys who use them for targets. Some of the signs are in such condition now that they will soon have to be replaced with new ones.

The city officials intend to make an example of the first boy they catch throwing stones at the signs. The boys guilty of this act can be arrested and punished on two different charges.

SURPRISED THEIR FRIENDS.

Patrick Flannery and Miss Florence King, well known young people of Negaunee, surprised their relatives and friends Tuesday morning, when they were married at 3 o'clock at St. Paul's church. Rev. Father Lamotte performed the ceremony. The bride and groom were attended by his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Flannery, with whom they will make their home for the present.

BASEBALL SUNDAY.

The Negaunee league baseball team and the Gwin mine will play an exhibition game next Sunday at the Union park grounds, at 2:30 o'clock. The admission will be twenty-five cents. The Gwin team is composed largely of former members of the Marquette County league mines, and it is expected that the visitors will give the Negaunee players a good game. "Froggy" Messier, who played with the Negaunee team the last two seasons, is playing third base for Gwin, and Dr. M. M. Main, former short stop for the Ishpeming team, is playing in that position for the Swanzy range team.

LOCAL LACONICS.

T. A. Thoren will spend today at Crystal Falls, on legal business for the Brooking company.

Ernest Webber left Wednesday for Ironwood, where he was called as a witness in a civil case.

Joseph Verellino, who was absent in the lower peninsula for a couple of weeks, has returned to his home in Negaunee.

Mrs. E. Willers, deputy for the Lady Macabees of the World, left yesterday for Crystal Falls, where she will solicit members for a new tent.

A. H. Knight has returned from Duluth, where he attended to business for the estate of the late James McCutcheon, of which he has been appointed administrator.

Thermometers in the city yesterday morning at 5 o'clock registered sixty degrees above zero. This was by nearly five degrees the highest temperature recorded here any morning this season.

John Nixon, of Ishpeming, is to have charging of the diamond drills for the freighting mines, having taken the position Thursday. Mr. Nixon was for some time in charge of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company's drilling operations and is one of the oldest and best known drill men in this section.

JURY ACQUITTED PETER ROBERTO

After Being Out About an Hour Yesterday Afternoon, a Verdict of Not Guilty Was Returned—Evidence of Defense and Arguments of Attorneys Yesterday.

Prosecution Asked Jurymen to Disbelieve Prisoner's Story and Claimed That He Had Attacked Raphael Paralara—Defense Held Another Killed Him.

"Not Guilty." This was the verdict of the jury in the case of The People against Peter Roberto, who was on trial for the murder of Raphael Paralara, who died last February, as the result of a blow on the head. The trial has been in progress in circuit court for the past two days and went to the jury about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the verdict being returned about an hour later. The twelve jurymen voted to acquit Roberto on the third ballot.

When court adjourned Wednesday evening, two of the witnesses for the defense were examined. Yesterday morning, the first witnesses called were Roberto's mother and his little brother, aged eleven years, both of whom testified that Roberto was at home at the time Paralara was said to have received the fatal blow. Roberto was then put on the stand and he made an excellent witness for himself. He speaks excellent English and is a bright looking, well appearing boy. He told practically the same story of the trouble with Paralara at John Paris' house that he had told several months ago to several witnesses who testified for the prosecution. The words that passed between the two at Paris' house that night and Roberto's own story, which he has told to a number of people at different times, was practically the only direct evidence in the case.

Roberto stated that when he left the Paris house that night and started for home, as he was passing out of the yard, he heard some noise, as if thrown at him, fall near by, and a moment later saw some one cutting across the lot toward the road ahead of him. The theory of the defense is that the missile was the beer bottle Paralara had in his hand when he left the house the first time. Quicker than it takes to tell it, he said, he found Paralara standing in front of him in the road with a club upraised as if to strike. Roberto stated that he grabbed the upraised club in Paralara's hands and pushed his assault away with it, then ran down the road toward his home without again looking back. He stated that he did not know whether the club, when he pushed it back, hit Paralara's head or not.

Arguments of Attorneys. Assistant Prosecutor M. J. Kennedy made the opening argument for The People. He contended that the evidence showed that there was bad feeling between Roberto and Paralara, both being sons of the land of the Paris girl, and that Roberto lay in wait for Paralara outside the house. He declared that it was Roberto, not Paralara, who went across the lot, and that Roberto met Paralara in the road and struck him over the head with the club. Mr. Kennedy said that it was preposterous to think that the blow that crushed in Paralara's skull was the result of a "push," such as described by Roberto.

Mr. Button in behalf of Roberto reviewed the story of the case at considerable length. He maintained that all the evidence showed that Roberto was telling the truth, and that the encounter with the club took place the first time Paralara went outside the Paris house, after which Paralara returned to the house, apparently unharmed. Mr. Button then contended that Roberto went straight home and that he had arrived there by the time Paralara came out of the house the second time. He impressed upon the jury that the defense did not have to show who killed Paralara, but that it was sufficient to show that Roberto did not kill him, which he believed had been done by the evidence.

The closing argument for the prosecution was made by Prosecuting Attorney F. A. Bell, who took much the same view of the testimony as did Mr. Kennedy. He made considerable use of the alleged ill feeling between the two men, supposedly inspired by jealousy over the Paris girl. He also questioned the jury to discount the testimony of certain witnesses, whom he said were naturally disposed to be friendly to Roberto.

ST. PAUL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

Concert Company to Come Here May 29 is Favorably Spoken Of.

Concerning the St. Paul Symphony orchestra, which will give two concerts at the opera house May 29, the Sioux City Journal, of recent date, says: A black cloud rose over the desert's horizon. It threw its life giving moisture on the scorching sands before the eyes of a weary pilgrim. And the parched desert seemed to cry out for more, until the evanescent passage of the rain. The gift of the cloud only incited a longing for a flood in the heart of the traveler.

The St. Paul Symphony orchestra was like that cloud. Sioux City has the name in music circles of being a symphony-less waste. But, like the pilgrim, Sioux City wants more. Packingtown is musical, longs for music of the better class. The crowds that packed the Auditorium for the first night concert of the famous orchestra testified to this fact.

Mr. Rothwell is a conductor who heads a difficult musical machine in the most commendable manner. Strings, reeds and brasses are under his constant control, and the result is a perfect blending of elusive chords and phrases that give feast to the ear. While it yet is young as an organization, the orchestra takes rank as one of the best in the country, and in many ways it equals the famous Thomas musical organization of Chicago. With the enthusiasm and civic support that comes from the city that gives it its name, there is no doubt that as things progress it will develop to be the best in the country—not forgetting the Thomas organization, if the license on the use of the superlative is permitted. The orchestra carries in its capable company a soloist of more than usual merit, a Mr. Timmer, on the first violin. Mr. Timmer last night played an entire act gavotte from "Mignon" and the meditation from "Thais."

Under Mr. Rothwell's control the players passed through the sturdy measures of the "Tannhauser" overture and delved with the capricious moods, and then hung entrancingly upon the passionate outbursts of Carmen. But the mystifying violins and the pungent reeds mingled with the heavier, far inspiring gradations of the night scene from "Faust," accentuated the perfect unity, from drums to harp, that characterizes the interpretative powers of Mr. Rothwell's artists.

Mme. Rothwell-Waiff, soprano, in her rendition of the aria "Oh, Hall of Song, I Give Thee Greeting," displayed wonderful powers of voice as well as interpretative instinct. The difficult nuances and the rises to the greatest heights in this manner that had been made before her appearance. She sang "Medieval Hymn to Venus" (D'Albert) in encore.

Miss Bronson, Mlle. Barnolt, Mr. Harris and Mr. Champlin, in the quartette which she found Paralara standing in front of him in the road with a club upraised as if to strike. Roberto stated that he grabbed the upraised club in Paralara's hands and pushed his assault away with it, then ran down the road toward his home without again looking back. He stated that he did not know whether the club, when he pushed it back, hit Paralara's head or not.

HIERARCHY ENDORSES CATH. COLONIZATION

Priests of Country Have Organized to Promote Welfare of Immigrants.

A resolution was adopted at the recent annual meeting of the Catholic archbishops of the United States, held at Washington, D. C., which has an important bearing on the future of the upper peninsula of Michigan, particularly in connection with the work of the Upper Peninsula Development bureau. At this meeting the archbishops passed a resolution approving of Catholic colonization and asked Archbishop Glennon of St. Louis, to call and preside at a meeting for the purpose of considering the best means for carrying out the great work originated and officered so far by the Association of Belgian and Holland prices.

In answer to the call of the Most Reverend J. J. Glennon, a meeting was held at St. Louis, at which the dioceses were largely represented, and after two days' deliberation by churchmen of distinction, the Catholic Colonization society of the United States of America was thoroughly organized, with the following officers: General Director—Most. Rev. J. J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis. President—Rev. Julius E. Devos, of Chicago.

Vice President—Rev. Mgr. D. J. McMahon, V. G., of New York. Secretary—Rev. T. Vattman, of Chicago. Treasurer—Rev. Andrew Spetz, C. R., of Chicago. Executive Committee—Archbishop Messmer, Milwaukee; Joseph Cuddaly and E. S. Carry, of Chicago. One of the purposes of the society is at once to put priests at work among the immigrants at New York to give them proper direction and advice, and also to create a diocesan bureau of colonization. One of the active workers in this movement is Rev. M. Jodocy, of this city, and through him the plans and workings of the Catholic colonization movement have been before upper peninsula people for some time. If prudence and activity can make a success of Belgia, Mich., the first Catholic colony in the upper peninsula, which already has a number of families enrolled for the spring of 1912, there is no doubt but that the same plans will be successfully worked out on a larger scale in other parts of the peninsula.

Speaking on this subject, Father Jodocy says: "All interests private and corporate should join hands to make of upper Michigan, if not the most prosperous state, at least the most prosperous district of any state in the union. False is the old idea that the prosperity of one is the undoing of the other. We cannot progress by maiming one another, neither by treating our railroads as charitable institutions. True reform is slow and conservative, while radical reforms have always destroyed more than they have builded up."

THE GAME PLAYED AT THE PRISON

Well Played Contest Ended in Ninth Inning With Score Standing 7 to 7.

After getting a lead of five runs, the prison team went to pieces in the last half of yesterday's game with the Marquette league nine, and when the game was called at the end of the ninth round, each team had seven runs to its credit. The game was characterized by plenty of batting and alternately brilliant and tagged playing on both sides.

Considering that it was the first game of the season, both teams put up an excellent article of ball. Smack, the Boyne City recruit, started to pitch for Marquette, while Dixon was in the box for the prison. During the first three innings, Smack was invincible and not a hit was made off his delivery. In the fourth round, the first man up for the prison smashed out a clearing single to center field and a moment later Dixon put another hit in almost the same place and the first man went to third. The next man up lined a hot grounder to short, which went through Bend's legs far away into the outfield, and both runners on the bases crossed the plate. In the same inning, with two out the prison catcher drove a two-bagger to right field, and Dixon crossed the plate with the third run. In the next inning a base on balls, a balk and two hits, one of which was for two bases, brought two more prison players across the plate.

First Scores in Sixth. Up to the sixth inning not a Marquette man got farther than second base, Riopelle and Smack being the only men who had any success connecting with Dixon's lightning shoots, while the prison team gave their pitcher even better support than was given Smack. In the sixth, however, the Marquette-Delta county men again aspirants pin on their batting clothes, and when the smoke had cleared away, the score stood four to five in favor of the prison. The four runs were made on four hits and a costly passed ball, squeeze plays figuring largely in the run getting.

Scholtus replaced Smack in the box in the last half of the sixth, but the prisoners took just about as kindly to his curves as they had to Smack's slants. Two hits in this inning increased the prison score by one and another was added in the seventh, making a total of seven for the prison. Two two-buggers in the seventh gave Marquette a run, and in the ninth they tied the score without a hit on a balk by the prison catcher, a wild throw by the short stop and a fumble by the first baseman, all following in rapid succession. This tied the score and it was so late that the game could not be continued.

Boys' and Children's Straw in all styles and prices. The score by innings was as follows: R. H. E. Marquette ... 0 0 0 0 4 1 0 2 7 11 2 Prison ... 0 0 0 3 2 1 1 0 7 9 4

Showing of Individual Players. Though Pitcher Smack was touched up pretty freely in the fourth and fifth innings, he gave a very good account of himself, and had no prison wall interfered with the work of the outfielders at least two of the hits charged against him would have been easy outs. The same is true of one of the hits made off Scholtus. Smack also did excellent work with the stick, but Scholtus improved the longer he pitched and in the last inning showed evidence of last season's form. Tallion and Riopelle carried off the batting honors yesterday, each knocking out three singles. Bend, the new short stop, played a fast and clever game, though his one error was costly. Ellison, the new center fielder who arrived here Wednesday from Boyne City, showed up well, particularly in returning the ball from the outfield. He also connected with the ball every time he was at bat, and in his four chances made one hit and one sacrifice. First baseman Freed covered his sack in commendable style, though he made one costly error on a chance that was too easy for him. In five times at bat, he sacrificed twice and made one clean hit. The squeeze play, which was tried with success several times in the sixth and seventh innings, figured largely in Marquette's scoring and had it not been for the prison would undoubtedly have gotten away with the big end of the score.

Marine Notes

The Empress of Midland loaded at the South Shore docks yesterday, and the South was expected last evening. At the L. S. & J. dock, the Mather and the Brazil cleared for the lower lakes and the Choctaw expected to get away last night.

Steamers Strathcona and Donnacoma of the Inland line, which have been carrying ore to the Hamilton Steel & Iron company's docks at Point Edward for the last five years, have been converted into package freight steamers for the Inland line. The Donnacoma and Strathcona were taken to Collingwood early last fall and the work was done by the Collingwood Shipbuilding company. The Donnacoma and Strathcona were considered too small for ore carriers.

Some of the Cleveland coal shippers are having trouble getting vessels of 2,000 to 7,000 tons capacity for prompt loading, but the supply of tonnage in the ore and grain trades is in excess of the demand. For the amount of freight that is offered, there is too much tonnage on the market and the indications are that some of the wild carriers will have to go to the dock. It was announced by Brown & Co., of Buffalo, yesterday that the steamers William H. Treadwell and A. C. Tonline will be played in ordinary until business conditions should warrant their being placed in commission again.
