

LONG HIT PUTS THE BIG NINES ON EVEN TERMS

Philadelphia Athletics Defeat the New York Giants, 3 to 1, When Third Baseman Baker Slams Out a Home Run and Scores "Eddy" Collins Ahead of Him.

Southpaw Plank Twirls for the Americans and Proves More Effective Than His Opponent, the Redoubtable Marquard—Is Supported, too, by Perfect Fielding.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16.—When John Franklin Baker, third baseman, poked a home run over the right field wall of Shibe Park today, scoring "Eddy" Collins ahead of him, he put the Philadelphia Athletics on an even footing with the New York Giants and the two teams will now go to New York for the third game tomorrow in the series for the world's baseball honors. The score was: Philadelphia, 3; New York, 1. The paid attendance was 26,286.

Marquard Pitches Well. Marquard, on whom Manager McGraw had pinned his faith to make it two straight for New York, pitched a game that was almost the equal of that of Plank. He allowed Philadelphia but four hits, two in the first inning, in which the Quakers got their first run with the help of a wild pitch, and two in the sixth—Collins' double and Baker's hit out of the grounds. In the eighth inning, Manager McGraw changed pitchers, sending in Crandall, a right-hander. The New York left-hander only once during the game showed any unsteadiness and that was in the first inning. He appeared to be nervous and for a time had trouble reading Meyers' sign.

Plank Excels in Strike-Outs. Plank had eight strike-outs, Devore falling a victim to the Philadelphia pitcher four times, while Marquard struck out twice and Snodgrass and Murray each once. Six of the Athletics were out by the strike-out route. They were Lord (2), Baker, Murphy (2) and Plank. Marquard got four of these, and Crandall two—Lord and Plank in the closing inning. Neither Plank nor Marquard gave a base on balls to Devore and one charged against them was Marquard's wild throw in the first inning and a man hit by a pitched ball by Plank. The Athletics went out in order in five innings.

New York's only run was put over the plate by the last ball of the batting order. It came in the second inning. Herzog drove a fly to center which Oldring failed to get and the New Yorker pulled up at second. He went to third on Fletcher's infield out and raced across the home plate when Meyers hit a single to left.

Philadelphia's first run came in the opening inning. Lord, the first man up, singled to right and reached second on Murphy's fumble. He was sacrificed to third by Oldring and came home on Marquard's wild pitch.

Athletics Take Fielding Honors.

The fielding honors today were the reverse of those of Saturday. The particular feature was Lord's quick fielding of Snodgrass' long hit and his rifle-shot throw to second which caught the center fielder by a couple of yards, trying to stretch the long single into a double. In the ninth inning Collins took a nasty bouncer from the side and tossed out Murray, ending the game.

Neither team was given much opportunity to show its speed on the bases. Neither team had a stolen base. Merkle, who was on first in the seventh inning, made a fake attempt to go down and took too much of a lead off the bag. Plank turned instantly and by a lightning throw to Devore caught the New York first baseman by a yard.

The crowd that saw the first of the world's championship games here was six hundred short of the attendance at the first game for the world's title played here with Chicago last year.

Combs to Pitch Today. Combie Mack was all smiles when he appeared in his office after the game. He had played another card, but not the one McGraw had expected, and still has Combs, the "iron man," to take up the gauntlet tomorrow on the Polo grounds tomorrow. The crowd fully expected the tall manager to trot out Combs, who won three world's series games last year. Plank was not used in the series with Chicago in 1910, and the crowd was disappointed in the crowd as to the outcome of the game.

Marquard Pitches Well. Marquard, on whom Manager McGraw had pinned his faith to make it two straight for New York, pitched a game that was almost the equal of that of Plank. He allowed Philadelphia but four hits, two in the first inning, in which the Quakers got their first run with the help of a wild pitch, and two in the sixth—Collins' double and Baker's hit out of the grounds.

PEKING IS DISPLAYING REMARKABLE ACTIVITY

Treasury Is Depleted, Yet a Big Army Is Being Sent Against the Rebels.

Peking, Oct. 16.—Simultaneously with the acceptance today by Yuan Shi Kai of the post of viceroy of Huh Pei and Hunan provinces which is directed to immediately reestablish imperial authority, the Chinese government is showing remarkable activity, even in the face of a depleted treasury.

A few messages are beginning to arrive from the south, which for several days was entirely cut off from telegraphic communication. But few details of the situation are filtering in. It is believed, however, that a certain measure of order is being maintained at Wu Chang and Hankow. Outside of the foreign concession in Hankow, two cities are several divisions of which are either on the road to Hankow or are being rapidly fitted out for the expedition.

An indication of the activity of the government is given in the dispatch of twenty-five army trains in the last three days. General Ming Chang, minister of war, who will have chief command of the government troops, is a small thin Manchu. German and Austrian officers who hold the general's greatest confidence report that he has not entire faith in the Chinese troops.

Text of the Resolutions. The resolutions were framed by a sub-committee of five from a committee of thirteen and revised by former Secretary Garfield and Congressman Irvine L. Leontro of Wisconsin. As finally adopted, they read, in part:

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Two hundred progressive Republicans, in their first national conference, today endorsed the candidacy of Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin for president and declared in favor of a direct primary as a means for the expression of a presidential choice.

The endorsement came in the form of resolutions framed in part by former Secretary of the Interior James R. Garfield, who, it was held by the delegates, appeared as expressing the views of Theodore Roosevelt and who, it was feared, would not consent to a declaration in favor of any individual.

Crawford was the only United States senator here except Senator Clapp. Disappointment was expressed at the failure to arrive of Gifford Pinchot, who is on his way from Alaska. The dynamite was found following a revolver battle between the watchman and two men who escaped. The dynamite was discovered at 2 o'clock this morning. The president's train passed over the bridge at 5:51. The night watchman saw two men on the bridge shortly before 2 o'clock. They were on the opposite end of the 1,000-foot span and ran when ordered along.

WHAT'S AMISS?

Warden Simpson has a singularly recalcitrant bunch of convicts on his hands in the Jackson prison. For three successive nights they made the air hideous with their cat calls and riotous outcries.

What has the Detroit Journal to say to all this? Is the expedient of "chalking in" these disturbers and putting them "in irons" any abridgment of their rights?

Three nights of bedlam in a prison is not a pretty thing to contemplate. It indicates a disconcerting lack of respect for authority, and suggests that the criminals undergoing punishment have been led by the consideration shown them to entertain an entirely false idea of their position in the scheme of prison management.

The discipline in the Jackson prison evidently needs tuning up, and needs it badly, whatever other fair words may be said for the institution. It does not follow that Warden Simpson is not the man to tune it up.

The Mining Journal imagines that Warden Simpson has erred in mistaking the tremendous assumptions of the Detroit Journal on this subject for knowledge, and in allowing fear of that saffron sheet to prevent him from taking sufficiently stringent measures to engender in his charges a proper respect for his authority.

Warden Simpson may yet get the Jackson situation in hand, but he must "buck up" show the iron hand beneath the glove of velvet, devise some way of getting the whole prison population on a "bell to bell" basis in the workshops, and get rid of the outside foremen.

RECKLESS DRIVERS A MENACE. Lately there have been a number of automobile accidents in the county. For a long period of months the drivers of cars enjoyed an unusual immunity from serious mishaps.

After all, Editor Nimmo of the Detroit Saturday Night remarks, the cost of a special session would be but a trifle of the amount Governor Osborn saved the state by his timely vetoes of appropriation bills passed by the legislature.

The circuit court of Wayne county did not pass Saturday on the merits of John S. Haggerty's contention that he had been displaced on the Jackson prison board without warrant of law.

Walter L. Fisher, secretary of the institution, is devising a hurriedly arranged tour to Alaska with the secretary, says that while the party stood watching the "mountain climbing salmon," leaping up a mountain stream in a manner hard to believe unless you see it, Secretary Fisher said:

It is said that the additional congressmen will cost the country $400,000. If the country gets off that easy it will be lucky.—Pontiac Press Gazette.

The Stephenson canvass of Wisconsin was thorough. That much is certain. And every doubtful town was paved with silver dollars.—Bay City Times.

Senator Stephenson assured the investigating committee that he had no desire to buy his election. Of course not; how could anybody entertain such a notion when he spent only $107,000?—Saginaw News.

was a sorry wreck. All that can be learned of the accident, and the story the shattered car tells, shows that the driver must have been flying along the road at from forty to fifty miles an hour. Such speed, under the conditions that prevailed, was criminal in its excess, and if by any chance the machine had killed any person using the road the man driving the car would have been liable to arrest for manslaughter.

Recklessness on the road must be curbed, or, presently there will be an automobile tragedy that will straighten up people's hair.

One feature of the Y. M. C. A.'s work at Ishpeming and Negaunee cannot be too highly praised. Reference is made to the classes in the reading, writing and spelling of English for newcomers of foreign birth. These classes have an important place in the course of winter studies arranged by the association's officials.

The anxiety as to what the tax commission would do with Iron County's mining properties is over, says the Crystal Falls Diamond Drill. The values are fixed and the companies know now what they will have to pay in taxes. The mining is done; what of the harvest? Will it hamper development in the county? That question remains to be answered. One thing is certain. It will result in all property going on the tax roll and going on at something like its value. When wild lands that are now assessed at $400 per forty and can't be bought for less than $1,500 are put where they belong the fellow who owns the mine will not be so badly injured; neither will the fellow who owns a dwelling house or a stock of goods. There is yet a lot of work to be done in order to bring about a parity of values between the different properties of the county.

What's the use of pretending that there is any other man than Senator La Follette who is likely to attract serious attention as an anti-Taft candidate for the Republican nomination for president? He's the only other man than President Taft who has a semblance of serious support for nomination in 1912.

According to press reports, President Taft evoked one of the most spontaneous outbursts he has met with on his present tour when he highly praised ex-President Roosevelt for the work he did in getting the Panama Canal project under way.

"You can't unscramble eggs," remarked J. Pierpont Morgan. That's true, but the government's trust busting department has developed considerable skill at unscrambling the scramblers.

A Lorimer witness was taken from the stand by the investigating committee because he was picked in alcohol. Perhaps he had been bracing himself for the story he intended to tell.

The "wet" forces succeeded in getting sufficient petitions in Ingham county to assure the resubmission of the local option question next spring. Ingham will be perhaps the hottest battle ground in the series of spring campaigns, for the "drys" will make a strenuous fight to hold it and thus keep the state capital "dry," while the intentions of the "wets" are clearly indicated in their campaign for resubmission. The local option law has been better enforced in Ingham than in most counties. Judge Wiest has laid heavy hands on all violators convicted in his court. It has followed that the law has given much better than the average results there, for "boot legging" and other forms of violation have been reduced to a minimum. This is a considerable advantage for the "drys." The consumption of liquor has been on a generous scale, however. When the legislature was in session there was no great trouble about getting ample supplies, though the method was a little more roundabout than in the days of open bars. The "wets" are confident that Ingham will reverse its verdict of a year ago last spring, when local option won by a majority of 700 votes.

After all, Editor Nimmo of the Detroit Saturday Night remarks, the cost of a special session would be but a trifle of the amount Governor Osborn saved the state by his timely vetoes of appropriation bills passed by the legislature. Mr. Nimmo inclines to the belief that the legislature should be convened. There are various important matters, he says, that should be taken up without delay, and it is his opinion that the patriotism of the members would keep them in Lansing long enough to get some business accomplished.

The circuit court of Wayne county did not pass Saturday on the merits of John S. Haggerty's contention that he had been displaced on the Jackson prison board without warrant of law. Instead, the court dissolved the temporary injunction restraining Clyde I. Webster, Governor Osborn's appointee, from sitting on the board. It took this action without any showing of facts being made, and on Mr. Webster's representation that the attorney general had begun quo warranto proceedings before the supreme court to test Mr. Haggerty's right to the seat he claims. In view of this latter fact, the Detroit circuit judges did not care to take any action that might be reversed by the higher court. In the course of the proceedings Mr. Webster said: "The attorney general advised the governor that under section 2021 of the laws of Michigan Mr. Haggerty's term had expired and that there was a vacancy on the prison board. The governor appointed me to fill the vacancy. This appointment came to me entirely unbidden. I believe as a legal proposition that the attorney general is right, but I have no interest whatever in the outcome, and I assure you that I do not intend to assume the task of proving that the attorney general is right. That is entirely up to the attorney general. There is no use of Mr. Haggerty and myself fighting each other as individuals. That will accomplish nothing. There is a principle involved which must be decided by the supreme court eventually to give either one any rights. That principle is now squarely before the supreme court and will be decided long before this case could possibly be taken there and decided."

He came down stairs and just as the officers approached him he fell to the floor. He was taken to Bronson hospital, where it is stated he cannot recover. The young man, who is twenty-five years old, is wanted in Three Rivers on a charge of passing worthless checks.

LANSING—When the state board of health met Dr. Harrington, deposed by Governor Osborn, was present and announced his intention of claiming his right to be considered a member. Afterward he withdrew that the remainder of those present might consider the matter. It was decided not to recognize Dr. Harrington and he announced that he will take the matter into court, stating that he had come here simply to notify the board formally of his attitude.

FLINT—Contending that Justice Halsey was not a legal occupant of his office, Supervisor Siemon, secretary, attempted to hold up the bill of Justice Halsey, the county since July 1. Halsey was defeated by William Adams, socialist candidate for justice, but refused to give up his office because Adams was not an attorney of three years' standing, as is demanded by the city charter. Siemon argued that Halsey's bills were illegal, but the board refused to accept that view and the bills were allowed. Court proceedings to oust Halsey have been threatened, but nothing has been done up to the present time.

BAD AXE—The poisoning case of Ulyly has taken on new and deeper interest by reason of the supervisors taking a hand in the affair. They adopted a resolution authorizing the prosecuting attorney to probe the matter to the bottom and empowering him to employ additional help if he deems it necessary. The supervisors also approved of what has been done by the prosecution and coroner and allowed their bills of expense already incurred, amounting to $300. It develops now that the defense will be that the arsenic found in Cyril Sparling's liver by the Ann Arbor chemist was from the embalming fluid in which the liver was kept for several weeks. It is asserted that Dr. McGregor of Ulyly, who made the autopsy, sent a portion of the liver to an eminent Chicago chemist who found no traces of arsenic. Prosecuting Attorney Boomhauer told the supervisors that the case looked very dark at present, but he refused to say who may be implicated. The action of the supervisors means a thorough investigation and probably a prolonged and hotly contested legal battle.

City Brevities

Today's weather: Rain and colder Tuesday.

Yesterday's temperature: Seven a. m., 48 degrees; noon, 56; 7 p. m., 58. Highest, 60 degrees; lowest, 47.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Roberts left last evening for Chicago, Lansing and Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosenberg, of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., arrived in the city last evening.

Frank Hathway returned yesterday afternoon from east of Shingleton with a deer and eleven partridges.

The steamer Harvester was due at the South Shore docks last evening. The Saulias was in port most of the day.

Harry E. Hanson, of Big Bay, and Miss Clara Manning, of Mattoon, Wis., were married by Justice Cray yesterday afternoon.

Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCormick, 212 Rock street, passed away yesterday morning. She was two years of age.

Four Austrians who have been working at the new ore dock will leave this morning for the old country. They expect to return to the United States in the spring.

Charles Hill, who was arrested by Marshal Manning Sunday at Powell & Mitchell's camp, on Dead river and charged with the theft of $40, was arraigned before Justice Cray yesterday forenoon. He pleaded not guilty and his hearing was set for Wednesday.

Not discouraged by their defeat at Negaunee last Saturday, the Marquette high school football team is bending every effort this week toward next Saturday's game with Ishpeming, which will be played in this city. It is expected that Munising will play here a week from Saturday.

Alleys Are Opened—The bowling alleys were opened for the season last night with a rush, all six alleys being in commission throughout the evening. Osgood was high man, with a score of 222.

On Sale at Detroit—Thirty head of cattle from Embargard dairy passed through here a few days ago on their way to Detroit, where they will be sold Thursday by the Michigan Consignment Sale company. The management expects to make a clean-up of the Embargard herd in a similar manner.

Special to Negaunee—Under auspices of the Owls, a special train over the South Shore road will be run from Negaunee tonight, leaving the station here at 7:30 o'clock. The occasion is the institution of the newly organized Negaunee nest, for which some 150 members already have been enrolled. The fare for the round trip will be fifty cents.

175 Deer Licenses—Deer licenses are not being taken out at the county clerk's office as rapidly as had been expected, about 175 being issued yesterday afternoon. Three non-resident deer licenses and two non-resident bird licenses have been issued. It is evident that most local hunters are planning to wait until later in the season before going out after deer.

First Live Stock Sale—The first live stock auction sale take place at the city market was held last Saturday. T. C. Perkins, auctioneer, handled the sale. There was a good attendance and the buying was spirited. Most of the stock was disposed of at satisfactory prices. These sales will be held every Saturday as long as the weather permits. They are something new in this locality, and are an evidence of agricultural growth of the upper peninsula. Mr. Perkins' efforts in this direction promise to bring about good results.

Much Interest in Games—Though neither of the contesting teams is from the west, Marquette baseball fans are taking much interest in the world's championship series now being played between the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Athletics. The more minded students of baseball are generally of the belief that the two teams are very evenly matched and that it is very possible that baseball luck may be the determining factor in the result of the series. Very few bets are being made locally and what have been made in most cases are at even money.

High School Activities—The year's work has begun in real earnest at the high school. There are 317 pupils enrolled, as against 325 at this time last year, the reduction being due to a smaller number of eighth grade graduates having entered the high school this fall. The French club has already organized with thirty members and will give a French play some time during the year. The girls' literary society will hold their first meeting this week. Work in all departments is in full swing and a successful and enjoyable year is in prospect.

Theatrical

"The Aviator."

The aeroplane interest in the literature of the day will do much to make the public familiar, not only with aviation terms and technical questions, but with actual progress in the science. It will tend to diminish the common fear of flying. Every mention of the machines for navigating the air in story or play, even jokingly, is a step forward in the public eye. Speaking constantly for or against some certain object makes every one curious to understand just what it is. Only one play has been written where aviation interest is sustained throughout. There are several short sketches now on the theatrical stage, but "The Aviator" as it was produced last fall in New York, was the first real play to appear. The story and play will tend to aeroplane advancement, although much of the comedy is derived from the possibilities of accident to the hero, who finds it imperative that he must fly a monoplane when he has had absolutely no experience. That he should finally go up and make good with a seventy mile flight is of course impractical in real life, but no more than allowable in a play. This excellent comedy with a monoplane will be at the opera house tomorrow night.

"Checkers" will be the offering at the opera house next Monday evening. The popularity of this character comedy may be appreciated from the fact that since its first performance in New York eight years ago it has played twenty different engagements in that city. The presentation here will be with substantially the complete cast and scenic investiture seen in New York. There has never been any other company playing "Checkers" and wherever the piece is performed it is by the original number one company. "Checkers" is generally referred to as a racing play. That doubtless is because of the attributes of racing play. Various classifications have been applied to it, but that of a "character comedy" would seem to fit it the best. There is the thrill of melodrama in its racing scene, but there are also the dainty touches of light comedy, and a love story which prompted a prominent critic to write "it is a long time since the old, old story has been told in so charming a way."

PORT HURON—The question of bonding the county for $150,000 for a new county building has been submitted to the people of Port Huron by the board of supervisors, the vote to be taken at the general election in April. The vote on submission was 41 to 16. The county road system was turned down by a vote of 24 to 19. This is the second time that the submission of the county road system has been turned down, it having been beaten by the board at last year's session also.

MASON—The Ingham county supervisors voted to submit the question of local option to the people at the election next April. The vets have canvassed the county and secured the names of 5,521 petitioners, considerably more than one-third of the legal voting population, and they feel very hopeful that they can carry their side when the test comes. Two years ago the election was very close, the drys gaining the ascendancy by only 700 majority.

DETROIT—William Parkhouse, aged five, 903 Twelfth street, fell into a bonfire near which he was playing in an alley near Twelfth street and Calumet avenue and received burns which may result in his death. He was seen to fall into the fire by Patrolman Henry Kane and an automobile driver. Both rushed toward the spot to pull him out. His clothes were a mass of flames and a rug taken from the automobile was wrapped around his body, extinguishing the fire. The patrolman's gloves were burned from his hands.

The driver of the car picked up the injured minister and took him to the office of a physician on Front street. Later he was taken to his home. Although no bones were broken, Rev. Mr. Lewis' condition is regarded as serious, owing to a weakness of the heart.

MUSKEGON—There is no question but that the request of the Western Michigan Development association for $2,000 to meet the coming expenses of another year of "boosting" will meet with terrible opposition on the part of ex-State Senator Bolt, one of the leaders in the county board of supervisors. When the request was first made, Bolt at once asked if Secretary Gibson had followed the provisions of the law authorizing counties to raise taxes for this purpose and had annexed an affidavit to the bill showing the claims against the county were just ones, of which no part had been paid. There was no affidavit annexed to the letter. Last year Bolt led the fight against the bureau appropriation, but was worsted.

Paine, Webber & Co.'s Chicago correspondent had the following to say of the wheat market in that city yesterday: The wheat market gave a very good account of itself today and closed higher. All day long the northwest markets showed a firm tone, and in the end closed at small gains. Minneapolis was buying cash wheat at Omaha and the sellers there were buying the futures here and at Kansas City. The cables claim that the supplies of wheat from Russia and the Danube will be light for some time. The trade will watch the Argentine news very closely and the first real injury to that crop will be the signal for excited buying. For the present the big local stocks and big visible make it advisable to limit buying orders to the reactions. The closing prices were: May wheat, 104 1/4; corn, 65 1/4; oats, 50;

URGES CONGRESS TO TAKE SPEEDY ACTION

With Canal Nearing Completion, Isthmian Commission Shows Need of Legislation.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Foreshadowing the early completion and opening of the Panama canal, the Isthmian canal commission, in its annual report, made public today, recommended congressional legislation governing canal tolls, organization for the operation of the canal and for government of the canal zone, utilization of canal revenue to pay operating expenses and to repay the capital invested, and other action. Expediently, it is urged, should be adopted, said the report, which recommended that the government should not only supply coal and oil for its own vessels but should sell them to merchant shipping. The existing commissary, manufacturing plant and laundry it was urged, should be continued for the benefit of government forces and government ownership of public utilities was proposed in a recommendation that the commissary furnish all these things to shipping passing through the canal for a consideration. It was suggested that the government should sell tools and appliances needed by ships and still another forward movement, should actually undertake to dock and repair ships in the neighborhood of the canal. For that purpose the construction of a dry dock and a machine shop was recommended; and it was pointed out that these would be available for the use of our navy. A commercial station for military, naval and commercial use was another adjunct required.

The commission has given much thought to the disposition of land in the canal zone, important because of its bearing upon the future administration of the zone and the operation of the canal. Of the 436 square miles of land in the zone the government owns 363 of which 96 miles are occupied by the canal. A large part of the government land will be required for military, naval and other official purposes. It was deemed essential that the Spanish law shall continue to prevail to prevent friction with the neighboring Panamanians in the cities of Panama and Colon.

Most of the land is unsuitable for extensive farming enterprises and the inducements are not such as would attract American farmers owing to difficulties in obtaining title and the peculiarities of the Spanish system of taxation which must be continued. Other occupants than Americans are not desirable. The commission wants to get rid of the great body of foreign laborers, who were imported to dig the canal, as soon as the work is completed. They now populate the established town sites and the commission declared that they should be repatriated after work no longer can be given them. It was suggested that the greater amount of land leased, and the number of town sites established and occupied, the greater will be the cost of sanitation and civil government.

The report declared that for several years to come at least it should be the policy to keep all government lands for government purposes. Whatever military force is located on the isthmus will be charged with its own sanitation. The reservation of all lands for governmental use would result, therefore, in minimum cost for these two items.

As to the form of government for the zone the commission directed special attention to the military necessities, the canal being deemed a military asset. In conclusion, the commission holds it essential that an entity be established, so organized that any military contingency can be promptly met.

It was recommended that congress authorize the canal management to pay damages to vessels injured in passage inasmuch as this government insists on taking complete charge of all vessels during that transit to guard against injury to the locks.

REAL USE FOR AEROPLANES.

Capt. Beck Says Bombs Can Be Dropped With Great Accuracy.

Boston, Oct. 16.—Captain Paul W. Beck of the Eighteenth United States infantry, who with Lieutenant T. De Witt Milling and Lieutenant Henry H. Arnold, are at the military aviation meet at Rockingham Park, Salem, N. H., under the auspices of the New England Aviation company, is a firm believer in the efficacy of the aeroplane as an adjunct to the army. In an interview he pointed out some of the heavier-than-air machine's uses, many of which he and his brother officers will demonstrate.

"I will agree with its critics that the aeroplane is of little use in scouting work for small detachments of men," said Beck. "But when it comes to actual manoeuvres, it is the ablest arm of the service. From an aeroplane at a height of 3,000 feet, a position as safe as on the firing line below, every detail of the disposal of the enemy's troops, his strength, supplies, headquarters, means of communication, deploys, in fact, every movement of a fair-sized body of troops is detected.

"There are many who argue that as an offensive means the aeroplane is negligible. But they do not take into consideration the moral effect on a landing party, or on a wagon train, of a fleet of some thirty aeroplanes circling above them out of effective rifle range, and dropping sharpshotted projectiles upon them. We have demonstrated that at a height of a mile we can hit a target the size of a battleship practically every time."

Captain Beck joined the aero aviation corps in February and saw service with Lieutenant Rouben on the Texas border, winning his pilot's license Aug. 1. At the Nassau Boulevard meet he carried Postmaster General Hitchcock as passenger. Lieutenants Milling and Arnold are also aviators of the first water, the former being remembered as the hero of the 160-mile biplane race about New England Labor Day.

Menominee Football Team Strong—

Outweighed twenty-five pounds to the man and offered up as innocent but fighting sacrifice, the Escanaba High school football team was defeated Saturday on the Delta county town's gridiron by the Menominee squad by a score of 34 to 0.

Potatoes Cheap at Escanaba—

Escanaba people are now purchasing potatoes in the home market for sixty-five cents per bushel. Well-graded tubers are selling at wholesale by the farmers at fifty cents, which is considered a fair price. Many of the farmers are holding their stocks for higher prices.

Finds Pearl in Oyster—

While eating a plate of raw oysters at an Escanaba restaurant, Frank Lied felt a hard stony substance in his mouth. Investigation showed that he had picked up a pearl, nearly the size of a pea. Examination by jewelers proved it to be worth approximately $15.

School Is Emptied Quickly—

The pupils of Central High school at Sault Ste. Marie made the best time of any yet recorded, when Chief Campbell sounded the fire alarm the other afternoon. The building was vacated by the 450 pupils in forty-nine seconds. Chief Campbell declares the order and discipline maintained was as nearly perfect as is possible. He was much pleased with the drill.

Fires Believed Incendiary—

During the absence of the family from home, the residence and barn of Joseph Crinnian, a mile and a half from the village of Brimley, Chippewa county, were destroyed last July. The cause of the fire is believed to be incendiary in origin, and while assured of the party guilty has no proof. The loss to him is in the neighborhood of $1,000, on which there was no insurance.

Good Roads Project—

By a vote of twelve to five, the board of supervisors of Mackinac county has decided to submit the proposition to adopt the county system of road building to a vote of the electors at the election to be held next April. The board, further, has appropriated $1,000 to pay for the expense of an examination of the present roads, for recommendations for their improvement, to locate new roads where necessary, etc., old roads to be retained where feasible, and for this purpose will engage the services of a road building expert, a man from Chippewa county who had supervision of the good roads movement in that county.

Death of Alfred Lustfield—

In the demise of Alfred A. Lustfield, Crystal Falls has lost one of its most prominent businessmen. Mr. Lustfield was apparently in perfect health last year. Shortly after Jan. 1, last, he began to complain and very soon his ailment was such that he was compelled to quit business and go to a sanitarium at Milwaukee. Shortly after that he disposed of his department store and gave his attention to his health, but with little success, for he gradually grew worse. After a month's stay under the care of specialists at Chicago he returned to Crystal Falls, where he declared that he remained until the dull times of the panic reduced business. He went then to Pullman, Ill., and was in business there from 1897 to 1899. From Pullman he went to Iron River in 1899 and remained there until the death of his brother in 1904, when he returned to Crystal Falls to take over the business of the Fair, which he continued until ill health compelled him to abandon it last July. In 1897 he was married to Fannie Guensburg, who, with two sons, survive him. Mr. Lustfield was a member of all branches of the Masonic order and also of the Odd Fellows. He was a Woodman and Master in both of which orders he had insurance.

Much Wrangle Over Small Job—

Appointments to certain Chippewa county offices were made by informal ballot by the board of supervisors at its recent meeting, the position of caretaker of the court house clock finally going to A. J. Jean, the third principal of the DeTour schools, was elected school examiner by a vote of 14 to 8, to succeed T. B. Aldrich. John E. Bayless will continue to act as janitor and caretaker of the courthouse and grounds. A. W. Taylor will succeed himself in the office of superintendent of poor. Both Thomas Hughes and Mr. Taylor had filed applications for the position, the applications being placed on file. In the ballot, Taylor secured twelve votes and Hughes nine.

Missing Hunter's Remains Found—

While in the woods about a mile and a half east of Triplett's farm in Trout township, Gogebic county, last week, Harvey Hubbard came upon a rifle. Near it was a rubber boot, pieces of cloth and small pieces of bone. He carried the rifle home and sent it into town with his father, who, recalling the disappearance of Antoine Lepusha in the hunting season two years ago, had Dominic Bouazza, who was camped with Lepusha when he disappeared, and Frank Petruska, from whom Lepusha borrowed the gun, examine the rifle. Both declared it to be the rifle that Lepusha carried. Subsequently Harvey Hubbard brought the remaining relics into town, and the fate of Lepusha was then easily established. He had perished in the wilderness in the big storm of Nov. 16, 1909, when about two miles and a half from camp. Searching parties scoured the country for miles at the time, but as the snow was deep they were unable to find trace of the man.

Blows Out Brains—

John Pakka committed suicide at Newberry last week by blowing his brains out with a revolver. The ball passed clear through the head and must have caused instant death. No cause is assigned for the rash act. Pakka purchased the revolver and went straight home and shot himself. He had been employed at the furnace, working nights, and Mrs. Pakka knew nothing of the affair until she discovered the body in an out-building the next morning. The deceased was aged thirty-one years and was a hard-working, industrious young man, strictly temperate, and whose home life, so far as is known, was happy and contented. He was a graduate of the Newberry High school and one of the brightest members of his class. It is claimed that he had made quite a study of socialism and had become converted to the doctrine and it is suspected his mind may have become affected from brooding over the supposed wrongs of the laboring classes. He leaves a wife and family of three small children to mourn his rash act.

Means to Take Deer Home—

The first non-resident deer hunting license of the season in Dickinson county has been issued to Dr. Cassius F. Westcott, oculist and physician of Chicago. Dr. Westcott owns about eighty acres of land at Witch Lake, where he has a summer home and spends from four to five months each year with the members of the family. Accompanying the license to hunt deer—the doctor hunts on his own lands—is a summary of the game laws of Michigan issued by the secretary of state. The summary grants permission to kill two deer and to ship one of them to his home in Chicago. Dr. Westcott purchased his license with that understanding and the authorized edition of the laws of Michigan issued by the secretary of state, which he has in his thought—that he may take one deer home. However and notwithstanding, now comes the attorney general of the state, who in an opinion declares that Dr. Westcott must not take a deer to Chicago—that to do so would be a violation of the game laws and he would be subject to arrest—that he could be fined, and in default of payment of the amount, he would be thrown into prison. Nevertheless, Dr. Westcott says that, despite the opinion of the attorney general, he proposes to ship a deer to his home in Chicago—if he is sufficiently fortunate to kill one—and if an officer of the state of Michigan interferes with the right granted him by another officer of the commonwealth in selling him the non-resident license for the sum of $25, he will appeal to the courts for protection. And the courts will undoubtedly sustain Dr. Westcott. In his protest, affirms the Iron Mountain Press, the harkbacks, in their hoggish endeavor to favor the "kerosene crowd" in amending the game laws appear to have invalidated the entire instrument. In the opinion of good lawyers hereabouts, if the game laws ever reach the courts they will be declared unconstitutional.

Home Seekers Coming—

Announcement is made that the Western Land & Securities company of St. Paul will run a home-seekers' special over the Soo Line from St. Paul and Minneapolis, Oct. 24, to lands owned by the company along the railroad in the upper peninsula. The train will pass through Escanaba Oct. 25 and the land seekers will be taken through to the Soo, making stops at a number of points along the line where the Western Land & Securities company has acreage property. From Trout Lake the visitors will make side trips to Seney, where extensive development work is in progress. The St. Paul company last spring purchased a big acreage of property in the upper peninsula and a big drainage project has already been undertaken in the vicinity of Seney. The company owns land in Schoolcraft, Chippewa, Luce, Marquette and Delta counties and as much as possible of the land will be shown to the home-seekers when they come this month. The excursion will be the first of its kind ever arranged by any company owning land in the peninsula and marks an important step in the settlement and development of the cut-over lands of this part of the state.

New Industry for Escanaba—

Definite negotiations have been closed by the board of directors of the Business Men's association whereby a chair manufacturing plant will be established in Escanaba. The buildings owned by Kurz Brothers at 316 and 318 Ludington street have been leased and will be made ready for occupancy at once. The plant is now in full operation in another city, doing a thriving business. It was induced to consider Escanaba, after a persistent and systematic campaign by President J. E. Byrns and his associates of the association, that the establishment might be closer to the raw material used. The plant will employ from the start from twenty to thirty skilled artisans and will be ready for operation within the next thirty days. The proposition of bringing the concern to Escanaba had been before the members of the business men's association several weeks. Several trips were made by officials of the association to the city in

EVERYBODY'S FRIEND

The old family doctor, of whom so few are now seen in this age of "specialists" was the valued friend and adviser of his patients. They depended on him to keep them in health, and cheer them with his counsel. He taught them the wisdom of preventing illness by watching closely after the health of the family.

Mrs. S. H. DuBois writes from her home at Hempstead, L. I.: "Vinol is an old friend of our family. We have used it for years whenever any of us need a tonic on account of being in a rundown state of health, and it always gives perfect satisfaction. We have used nine bottles this winter."

There are thousands of families who would do the same thing. Vinol our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, has proved its value by bringing back rugged health and strength to vast numbers of weak, rundown men, women and children. That is why we sell so much and guarantee it to give satisfaction. If it disappoints you, you can have your money back at once. The Stafford Drug Co., Marquette; also Fred P. Tillson, Ishpeming; and J. E. O'Donoghue, Negaunee, which the plant is located and all of its affairs were closely investigated. It was found that the company has a great number of orders on its books and at present is employing approximately fifty men, but the firm was being hampered in filling its orders by its inability to secure a steady supply of material.

DYNAMITE EXPLODED ON GREENWOOD STREET

TAX RATE IS LOWER THAN WAS EXPECTED
Property Owners Will Pay on a Basis of a Trifle Over $1.68 on $100 Valuation.

Although the extending of figures on the Ishpeming tax roll has not yet been completed, City Assessor Henry Routhier has found that the tax rate for 1917 will be $1.86056 on each $100 valuation. This is considerably lower than Mr. Routhier thought the rate would be when the equalization adopted by the county was announced last week. He then thought that the rate would be in the neighborhood of $2 on each $100 valuation.

Figuring on the basis of the rate of $1.86056, as compared with last year's rate of $2.28, the taxes of general property will be approximately 60 per cent of what they were last year. Taxes on some of the mining properties will be more than double. Last week, when the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the city was announced, The Mining Journal stated that in all probability the rate on general property would be in the neighborhood of $3 per cent lower than last year. Now it has been positively determined that the reduction will be 40 per cent.

Ishpeming will raise for state, county, city and school purposes $269,924.24. Of this sum, $174,452.47 is for city and school purposes. The schools will get the big end of this amount. Besides the $65,000 that the taxpayers voted to spread upon the tax roll at the annual meeting of the school district in September, the schools will also receive an extra two mill tax of $29,888, and the regular one mill tax of $14,944, making a total of $109,832. This will leave $64,820 to be used for other city purposes. Of the latter sum $25,000 has been appropriated for highway work. In addition to the $84,000 it is estimated that $18,000 will be collected from the liquor dealers of the city, giving something like $82,000 for all city purposes.

Since the board of review held its meeting last week, there has been some discussion as to whether the mining companies will pay their taxes this year without protest. A prominent mining man yesterday said that he believed that the companies will pay all taxes levied against their properties, although the mine operators feel that they have some grounds for protest. He expressed the belief that the valuations on general property will be rearranged next year.

It has not yet been figured out just what percentage of the total taxes collected in the city the mining companies will pay, but it is anticipated that it will be in the neighborhood of 85 per cent. This will be the largest percentage of taxes the mining companies have ever paid, but for several years the companies have stood over 70 per cent of the tax burden.

ATTENTION OWLS.
All members of the Ishpeming nest of Owls, who intend to attend the organization meeting of the Negaunee branch this evening, are requested to take the street car leaving Ishpeming at 7:30.

An Ishpeming man, who hunted partridge in the district north of the city Sunday, yesterday said that he saw many birds, but the best he could do was to bring down three of them, as there were very few. It is said that there were fully as many hunters south of the city as there were north.
