

NEW SCHEME IS DEvised TO HIT BIG COMBINES

Amendment to the Tariff Bill, Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, introduces a Bill proposing a Special Excise Tax on Various Forms of Tobacco.

Effects Only Largest Companies and in Principle Is Applicable to Other Lines of Manufacture—The Plan Suggested by the Attorney General.

Washington, June 5.—In accord with suggestions of Attorney General McQuinn, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, introduced today an amendment to the Underwood tariff bill which would levy special additional excise tax on a graduated scale upon manufacturers of tobacco, cigars, cigarettes and snuff. The amendment, coming from a Democratic member, will receive thorough consideration from the finance committee.

Small Cancers Not Affected.

The progressive excise proposed would reach a manufacturer until he could deduct about 25 per cent. of the total production of the articles. Over that amount he would be taxed in a rising scale on tobacco—one cent a pound for the first million pounds per quarter, two cents a pound for the second million pounds, and so on up to six cents a pound. The graduated tax would be in addition to the regular eight-cent tax that all manufacturers pay tobacco. The same is true of the progressive tax on cigars, cigarettes and snuff.

Companies of ordinary size would not be subject to this tax, because it does apply to a production below eight million pounds of tobacco or four million pounds of snuff a year, so that of twenty-seven hundred tobacco companies in the country probably only a few would be taxed. In the matter of cigars, the tax would fall on only one or two of the twenty-three cigar companies only two have a large output to be taxed.

Assessable Income $15,000,000 a Year. Twenty million dollars was the amount of the total excise last year on tobacco products, and Senator Hitchcock has estimated that if the present tax had been levied on last year's production, the government would have the additional tax as follows:

American Tobacco company	$7,500,000
Nett & Meyers	3,100,000
Hard company	144,000
Crown Snuff company	77,000
W. H. Helme company	69,000
W. H. Helme & Burton company	31,000

Further Provisions in Sight. Under the Standard Oil now on the table the trust has been actually dissolved and the requirements of the statute are being met. It is simple and irrevocable. If it succeeds in this line of manufacture, it may succeed in others.

RE NATIONS ASK ABOUT MR. BRYAN'S PEACE PLAN. Washington, June 5.—Secretary Bryan announced that Germany, Bolivia, Argentina had so far approved his proposal for universal peace as to tentative drafts of the treaty. With additions, the list of nations that undertake to consider the proposal favorably reaches thirteen.

FEDERAL JUDGE RESIGNS BECAUSE SALARY OF $7,000 ISN'T ENOUGH FOR FAMILY.

New London, Conn., June 5.—Judge Walter C. Noyes, one of the judges of the Second federal judicial circuit, whose resignation was announced tonight from Washington, says he resigned for reasons of finance. "The salary of the office ($7,000) is inadequate for the support of my family and for the increasing expenses of the education of my children," said Judge Noyes. "My outside income is not sufficient to bring the total to an amount commensurate to my family's needs."

SPRINGFIELD LOWER HOUSE FOR SECOND TIME DEFEATS INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

Springfield, Ills., June 5.—The initiative and referendum resolution was defeated in the Illinois house tonight a second time and apparently is dead for this session. In an amended form, the resolution, which previously had passed the senate and which was defeated in the house on May 13, was placed upon passage in the house tonight. It received but ninety-five affirmative votes—seven short of the constitutional two-thirds necessary to its passage—while thirty-eight votes were recorded against it.

BASEBALL TRUST A FACT, HE CLAIMS

Ex-Club Owner Fogel of Philadelphia Urges That Congress Investigate.

Washington, June 5.—Horace Fogel, former owner of the Philadelphia National league baseball club, came to Washington today to urge upon congress the passage of the resolution introduced some weeks ago by Representative Galling of Illinois, which would direct an investigation into organized baseball, on the grounds that it operates as a trust in violation of the Sherman law.

Mr. Fogel conferred with Congressman Galling and other representatives and later talked with Representative Henry, chairman of the house rules committee. Representative Henry agreed to call a sitting of the rules committee some time next week to consider the Galling resolution and Mr. Fogel promised to appear then.

"I can show the committee enough evidence that organized baseball today is a trust to convince them of the necessity for an investigation such as Congress has authorized," Mr. Fogel said. "I promised Representative Henry that I would have before the rules committee important witnesses from Chicago, St. Louis and Pittsburgh and also from minor league baseball towns."

CHRIS VON DER AHE PASSES AT ST. LOUIS

Once Wealthy Former Famous Baseball Magnate Dies a Poor Man.

St. Louis, June 5.—Chris von der Ahe, owner of the old St. Louis champion ball team of 1885-1888 and years ago one of the best known baseball magnates in the country, died at his home late here this afternoon.

SIXTEEN BARRELS OF SOAP TO BE USED IN SCRUBBING A ST. LOUIS SKYSCRAPER. St. Louis, Mo., June 5.—Forty men today began the task of scrubbing the walls of the new railroad exchange building an immense skyscraper that is twenty-one stories high and covers an entire square. By scrubbing fourteen thousand square feet of wall a day the men expect to finish the work June 17. Sixteen barrels of soap powder will be used in the work.

DYNAMITE CONSPIRACY CASE GOES TO BOSTON JURY TODAY.

Boston, June 5.—The dynamite conspiracy case, in which President William M. Wood, of the American Woolen company, and Frederick E. Atteaux and Dennis J. Collins are on trial, charged with "planting" explosives at Lawrence to discredit the textile strikers in 1912, will be given to the jury tomorrow.

SCOPE OF THE LOBBY INQUIRY IS BROADENED

Senate Quizzers Decide to Make Sweeping Investigation of All Organized Efforts to Influence the Present Congress and Its Immediate Predecessors.

Not Only Will Work Done Relative to the Tariff Be Probed, but the Activities Respecting Legislation in General Will Be Delved Into Deeply.

Washington, June 5.—The senate "lobby" investigating committee decided tonight to extend its present inquiry into a sweeping investigation of all organized efforts that have been made to influence action upon legislation of any kind now pending before congress or under consideration in the recent past.

The efforts of the committee will be centered first upon the sugar fight; next upon wool, and after that, there will be a full investigation that will take in the activities of the prohibition and liquor lobbies, the Alaskan railway forces, labor unions, farmers' protective organizations and practically all other organized bodies that have carried on public campaigns, "endless chains" letter writing or other means of influencing members of congress.

Attitude of Turkey Holds Up Negotiation of the Balkan Treaty.

London, June 5.—Unless Turkey modifies her protest demands, the peace delegates will hold no further meetings here after tomorrow. Briefly, Turkey refuses to satisfy the Greek claims to the re-annexation of the privileges enjoyed before the war by Hellenic subjects residing in Turkish territory. While rejecting Turkish demands, the allies still greater privileges for Turkish subjects. The gulf between the two yawns so wide that a continuation of the conference seems impossible.

The Serbian delegates will attempt to convene to reconcile the claims of Turkey and Greece on a basis of arrangements made at the time of the Berlin treaty, but there is little hope the effort will succeed. If Turkey continues to obstruct it is probable that the delegates will leave London at an early date.

Millionaire's Body Buried in Big Block of Concrete.

Des Moines, Ia., June 5.—A coffin containing the body of Oliver H. Perkins, millionaire, who died recently, was placed today in the heart of a block of concrete that will be set in place at the Woodland cemetery today. The block will form a foundation for a monument.

NATION'S HEAD PICKS MEN FOR FOREIGN POSTS

Unexpectedly, President Wilson Appears at His Capitol Office With a Long List of Diplomatic Selections—He Consults With the Senators About Them.

Not Until the Various Governments Pass Upon the Acceptability of the Individuals Will the Appointments Be Made—No Michigan Names on the Roster.

Washington, June 5.—President Wilson appeared unexpectedly at the president's room at the Capitol late today with the biggest list of diplomatic selections he has made since he took office. While the president has not definitely fixed on some of the countries to which he will make diplomatic appointments, he has chosen the men who will get the posts, and about these he consulted Republican as well as Democratic senators from home states.

SAYS GERMANY CAN'T AFFORD A LONG WAR

Paris Deputy Urges France to Guard Against Sudden Overwhelming Attack.

Paris, June 5.—Some startling figures were given today by Deputy Andre Lefevre as to the financial position of the triple alliance, composed of Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy, and of the triple entente, composed of Great Britain, France and Russia. They came out in the course of a speech delivered by M. Lefevre in the chamber of deputies in favor of three-year service in the active army for France.

"Germany is unable to afford a long war," said M. Lefevre. "The banks of the countries forming the triple alliance possess only $741,000,000 in gold, while $1,600,000,000 in circulation, while those of the triple entente possess $1,587,200,000 in their vaults and $2,900,000,000 in circulation.

"Everything points to Germany relying on a sudden overwhelming attack, should war be declared. Therefore France must always have a large army on the frontier."

Tigers Drop Third Straight Game to Athletics. Chance's Men Still to Take First Home Victory. Wilson's Drives for Pirates Defeat the Phillies.

Philadelphia, 10; Detroit, 6. Philadelphia, June 5.—Detroit today lost its third straight game with Philadelphia. Willett was hit hard and often.

St. Louis, 12; Washington, 3. Washington, June 5.—St. Louis revised its batting order today with desired results and easily defeated Washington. All of the home pitchers looked alike and were hit hard.

Pittsburgh, 6; Philadelphia, 2. Pittsburgh, June 5.—Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia here today. Wilson drove in five of Pittsburgh's runs. In the fourth inning Hoffman robbed Cravath of a home run with a sensational catch.

POLICE IN INDIA DISCOVER AN ORGANIZED CONSPIRACY TO OVERTHROW BRITISH RULE.

Calcutta, June 5.—A society organized with widespread ramifications for the purpose of waging war on British rule in India has been discovered. Acting on information laid before him and which resulted in a search of the house of his own son by the deputy magistrate at Midnapur, Bengal, the police today arrested forty-four Bengalis of good family on the charge of conspiring to carry out a wholesale massacre.

Documents which were found in the house contained proposals for corrupting the Sepoy establishments in the military centers, plans for wholesale massacres, instead of isolated murders as at present, and also a list of the names of the members of the society. The police searched other houses and found an abundance of evidence to show the widespread nature of the plot.

SUFFRAGET OUTRAGE FEARED.

London, June 5.—Fildes' portrait of King Edward in his coronation robes, loaned to the Royal academy by Queen Alexandra, has been withdrawn, for fear that the suffragettes may attempt to damage it.

JAPANESE ARE GIVEN FOOTHOLD IN BRAZIL

Ship Lands 1,500 Settlers, the Advance Guard of a Numerous Colony.

Seattle, Wash., June 5.—Japan is finding an outlet for her surplus population in South America, according to information brought today by a Japanese liner. Fifteen hundred Japanese were landed in Santos, Brazil, May 15, the first members of a permanent Japanese colony under an agreement between Brazil and Japan. One hundred and fifty thousand acres of agricultural lands have been set apart by the Brazilian government for the colony. Another large colony will be established next year.

TOKIO'S LATEST NOTE FRIENDLY. Washington, June 5.—After reading Japan's latest note on the California anti-alien land law and just before a conference with Ambassador China, President Wilson today expressed the view that the new communication opened the way for "very interesting and friendly negotiations." The president had a brief conference with Secretary Bryan and an informal talk afterward with Viscount Chinda.

ARBITRATION TREATIES HELD UP BY THE SENATE

Mr. Chamberlain Apprehensive Pact With Britain Might Affect Canal Dispute.

Washington, June 5.—Upon objections of Senator Chamberlain, who contended that a renewal of the arbitration treaty with Great Britain might compel the submission of the Panama canal toll controversy to The Hague, the senate late today temporarily postponed action on the proposed renewals with Great Britain, Spain and Italy.

The renewals of these treaties, all three of which have expired within the past few days, were favorably reported today. The treaties with Italy and Spain were promptly ratified, but when that with Great Britain was reached Senator Chamberlain objected. After some discussion, it was agreed that if one was to be held up even for a short time the other treaties should not be ratified and by unanimous consent the former action was reconsidered and all went over.

It was not believed tonight that any of these three treaties would be held up long, although there may be some debate in executive session when again they are taken up. With the indorsement of the foreign relations committee behind them and the fact that the treaties have existed for five years, their ratification was generally regarded as only a matter of time.

THREE LIVES ARE TAKEN IN A CANTON (O.) TRAGEDY; THE MURDERER IN JAIL.

Canton, O., June 5.—Enraged, he said, because his wife had left him, Robert Roach, aged twenty-seven started in to destroy his family with a gun tonight. He shot and killed his mother-in-law, sister-in-law and sixteen-months-old baby and when a policeman tried to arrest him he seriously wounded the officer. After the shooting, Roach took refuge in an upstairs room and attempted to asphyxiate himself. He was captured and revived and confessed to the shooting.

KANSAS CITY MAN USES HATCHET. Kansas City, Mo., June 5.—Angry because Miss Nellie Martin had rejected him, Walter Frazemeire, thirty-five years old, this afternoon entered the Martin home and attacked the girl and her mother with a hatchet, inflicting serious wounds. He then committed suicide by drinking poison.

CHICAGO PRODUCE QUOTATIONS. Chicago, June 5.—Butter, irregular; creameries, 24 1/2 to 27 1/2 cents. Eggs, higher; receipts, 21,392 cases; at mark, cases included, 17 to 18 cents; ordinary firsts, 17 1/2 to 18 cents. Poultry, unchanged.

STATESMAN IS THE VICTOR IN A SPELLING BEE

Fifteen Newspaper Correspondents, Seven Senators and Seven Representatives Are Bowled Over by Congressman Willis in a Contest at Washington.

President, Premier and a Host of Other Official Folk Are Interested Onlookers—Jaw-Twisting Word "Hydrocephalus" Is the Undoing of Mr. Poindexter.

Washington, June 5.—An old-fashioned spelling bee, conducted by the National Press club of Washington and billed as a "contest between newspapermen and statesmen," was won tonight by Representative Frank C. Willis, of Ohio, after fifteen Washington correspondents, seven senators and seven members of the house had been "spelled down." It was an evening of merriment, in which President Wilson, Secretary Bryan and a host of other official folk joined.

David F. Houston, secretary of agriculture and long a schoolmaster, was the pronouncer. He encouraged the spellers at first by a series of easy words, giving Secretary Ashurst of Arizona, "caetics" and Senator Poindexter "moose." But soon he dealt the most difficult words he had been able to find after a careful search of the dictionary. The ranks of the thirty spellers thinned quickly and finally only Senator Poindexter of Washington and Representative Willis remained. The senator misspelled "hydrocephalus" and Mr. Willis, a former schoolmaster himself, was awarded the championship.

BODY OF A SECOND BARE, IDENTIFY UNKNOWN, SHIPPED FROM MILWAUKEE TO ILLINOIS. Milwaukee, Wis., June 5.—For the second time this year the body of a baby boy has been shipped from the Milwaukee office of an express company to the office of Sterling, Ill., and though the Milwaukee police have been working on the case no information which would lead to the identification of the consignors has yet been procured. George H. Stearns, R. F. D. No. 2, Sterling, Ill., was the last to receive a body and he can offer no information as to whom the child belongs or whence it came. The body was shipped May 31, wrapped in a Milwaukee newspaper of May 5 and labelled "merchandise."

MASHER'S ERROR JAILS HIM; GIRL HE ACCOSTS IN STREET PROVES TO BE POLICE MATRON. Joplin, Mo., June 5.—Miss Vernie Goff, Joplin's young police matron, made her first arrest in a campaign she started recently against "mashing" when Harry Miller accosted her on the street tonight. "Hello, kid," said Miller. "You are under arrest," said Miss Goff, showing her star. "I'll just march you to jail."

After she had taken him to the city prison, Miller asked the matron to mail a letter he had written to her wife. "I will do it," she said, "and I will write her a letter myself, explaining how you happen to be here."

MOTORCYCLE RAGER KILLED AT DETROIT. Detroit, June 5.—Edward Holleybeck of Flint, Mich., was killed at the motorcycle speedway here this afternoon while practicing on a motorcycle. He was learning the track in preparation for racing when he lost control of his machine. Going at full speed, he shot up to the top of the track, struck the guard rail and dropped several feet to the bottom, with the motorcycle on top of him.

WOMAN'S SKIRT CAUSES DEATH OF FRENCH AVIATOR AND MATRON PASSENGER. Bue, France, June 5.—Augusta Berynard, a French airman, and a passenger, Mme. Rose Amiel, were killed today under unusual circumstances while making a flight at the aerodrome here. When the aeroplane was at a considerable altitude, Mme. Amiel's skirt became entangled in the lever connections. Instantly the pilot lost control and the machine plunged to the earth and was shattered.

FOUR NEW ORLEANS MEN IN BLAZING MOTOR BOAT WIN A RACE FOR LIFE. New Orleans, La., June 5.—Four men, cruising on Lake Ponchartrain, today won by a few seconds a sensational race for life when their gasoline motor boat caught fire a mile from shore. Heading the blazing craft for the street car pier of an amusement park, the passengers fought desperately to keep down the flames. As the boat struck the pier they leaped to safety. Less than a minute later the boat's tank exploded, starting a fire which destroyed more than six hundred feet of the pier and caused several thousands of dollars' damage.

EXPORTS STILL GROWING.

With the first signs of a slowing down of certain phases of business activity...

During April the value of exports of domestic merchandise was $29,000,000 in excess of the figures for the corresponding month of 1912.

Such facts tell an impressive story of immense national resources and a wide margin of safety in the foreign trade of the country.

This change, in turn, would tend powerfully to stimulate large use of capital in the United States in new undertakings, with a trade and industrial revival the natural result.

HITCHCOCK IN REBUTTAL.

Postmaster General Burleson has not been allowed to get away unchallenged with his criticism of the administration of the department by his predecessor.

Mr. Hitchcock asserts that Mr. Burleson's charge is as inaccurate as it is gratuitous, and cites its failure to credit that during the four years of the Taft administration 5,000 additional post offices were opened.

Also, it will be noted, President Wilson ranks high among the men who furnish good newspaper copy. His methods may not be spectacular, but he manages to keep the correspondents fairly busy.

Mr. Hitchcock concludes: "The secretary of the treasury reported the wiping out of the postal deficit and the record thus certified to in his fiscal report is likely to stand in history."

Quoting George Elliot, "Gossip is a sort of smoke that comes from the dirty tobacco pipes of those who diffuse it; it proves nothing but the bad taste of the smoker," the Saginaw News prints a rattling editorial on one of our national sins.

ly a public service so extensive and so intricate. "The question may very naturally present itself in the public mind as to why the present officers of the department, instead of consuming all this time in an endeavor to discredit the good work of the men they succeeded and not devoting themselves more attentively to the important branch of their service entrusted to their care."

PERPLEXING QUESTIONS.

The decisions of the industrial commission with reference to the employers' liability law have already covered a wide range, but it is being called on almost every week to interpret the law with regard to new conditions.

It has now been asked to decide the status of the case of a man who committed suicide while he was at home incapacitated from work by an injured foot, and who was drawing aid under the law at the time he killed himself.

And the commission is also puzzling over the case of a man who died a natural death while on duty in a mine. His death was in no manner due to his employment, and that it occurred while he was at work was simply a coincidence.

The commission is asked to decide many nice questions, and to dispose of them equitably it must apply sound sense to unusual conditions.

The liquor law cases started by Prosecutor Kennedy some weeks ago, following the confessions of boys implicated in the robbery of a Marquette saloon, are breaking down. Juries in circuit court have returned two verdicts of acquittal, and there is no reason to expect any other outcome in the cases that have been put over until next term, as they are all dependent on the same general evidence.

Mr. Hitchcock asserts that Mr. Burleson's charge is as inaccurate as it is gratuitous, and cites its failure to credit that during the four years of the Taft administration 5,000 additional post offices were opened.

Also, it will be noted, President Wilson ranks high among the men who furnish good newspaper copy. His methods may not be spectacular, but he manages to keep the correspondents fairly busy.

At a dinner in Washington, Professor Bell said apropos of this fact:

"Yes, we can learn valuable secrets from the most unlikely sources. A Persian poet, famed for his wisdom, was once asked by his king where he had learned his philosophy."

"From the blind, sire," the poet replied—"from the blind, who have tried a vague step until they have tried the ground."

Barren Soil. Apropos of the ravages that time has made in the faces and forms of the veterans of the Civil war, Walter S. Morton, president general of the Union society, said at a dinner in New York:

"A veteran, talking to his great grandson, a little lad of eight or nine years, remarked:

"'Nearly a generation and a half ago my lad was grazed by a bullet at the battle of Chickamauga."

"The little boy looked at the old man's head thoughtfully and said:

"'There isn't much grazing there now, is there, sir?'"

Reduction. Charles L. Siminon, a London advertising expert, was praising in New York the change that has come over the advertisement.

"In advertising, as in other things," he said, "it has been found that honesty pays, and today, throughout the world, the successful advertiser is modest and conservative in his statements.

EDITORIAL OPINION

Cousins and the Mother Tongue.

Stephen, the great-grand-nephew of the greater one, Samuel Taylor Coleridge, has published a little book called "Memoirs" on his American experiences and observations during a visit to this country in 1910.

Even in talking, their habit is to speak with the utmost deliberation," Coleridge writes, "more so than though they were addressing a meeting than conversing with a friend. They never leave a sentence unfinished simply because from its incompletion the person addressed knows how it must conclude.

Just so the club reporter, in whose writings everyone "states" and never "says," rather accurately represents the average American attitude of speech.

From Another Viewpoint. While the lobby injury is in our sense thus a case of "learning over backward" an answer as to why it cannot fail to be gratifying to every lover of progress.

It is less that twenty years ago that a group of beneficiaries of the higher of two rates on lumber, then in dispute, meeting in the committee room of a prominent senator took out pencils to estimate the number of dollars a year difference it would make in profits if the higher rate could be made to prevail.

LANSING.—The state industrial accident board has decided that Percy Ralston from Kivo should be considered disabled while in the employ of the Mineral Mining Co. is not entitled for compensation for the time he was unable to work.

ROGERS CITY.—Steve Donjakowski, arrested for having abducted Hattie and Elizabeth Grochowski, 14 and 16 years old, and kept them with him the last year, escaped from the county jail by a thrilling escape.

Mining Students Were Kidnapped. The Iron Mountain Tribune-Gazette says: "About thirty-two students of the Michigan School of Mines are in the city on their annual trip and most of them intended to attend the alumni dance last night.

Congress and the Frisco Scandal. Congress would do well to pass the Hineburg resolution directing the Interstate Commerce commission to investigate the bankruptcy of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad company.

Too Modest. The Washington aviator, who has brought suit for $10,000 damages for injuries suffered in falling down a flight of stairs, is too modest. The feeling of a successful sky-man must have suffered more than that by such an ignominious fall.—Rochester Post-Express.

The Democrats. One of the things the Democratic party promised was to rescue the public from the greed of the beef trust. Now this paper not only doesn't hold a brief for the beef trust, but of all the industrial combinations in this country it loves that particular one perhaps the least.

SIX-YEAR-OLD GIRL DIES FROM BURNS

Playing With Matches Results in Shocking Death of Little Anna Staudaker.

DENTISTS' SUBJECTS TO BE TREATED FREE

No Charge to Be Made for Work Done at Houghton Clinic Tomorrow.

Anna, six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Anna Staudaker of Centennial Heights, Calumet, died at 10 o'clock Wednesday night as the result of burns inflicted when her clothes caught fire while she was playing with matches.

The dentists of the upper peninsula are willing tomorrow to make an effort to live down, for half a day at least, their reputation of inflicting pain for a price.

Markets

[From Geo. F. Russ, Ishpeming.] Boston, June 5.—The selling was heavy again today but the buying was substantial and there was little if any reaction. Several sharp drives were made.

AFTER NEXT CONVENTION.

Copper Country Italians to Send Delegation to Iron Country.

New York, June 5.—The market offered little encouragement today from a constructive viewpoint. The rallies were feeble and failed to hold and there was a continuance of scattered liquidation by the stock holders, particularly in copper, steel, smelters and Chesapeake & Ohio.

ADDRESS AT KANSAS CITY.

E. A. Hamar of Chassell on Program of Lumber Association.

These are only a few of the limitless possibilities of Goodwin's plan for displaying American products on American warships, carried to all the ports of the world or the education of foreign people in what this country has to offer.

RAPID FIRE NATURALIZATION.

Forty-two Firms Become Citizens in the Space of One Minute.

These are only a few of the limitless possibilities of Goodwin's plan for displaying American products on American warships, carried to all the ports of the world or the education of foreign people in what this country has to offer.

A MISCHIEVOUS THEORY.

Ediel Colquhoun, furnishing an editorial article on "Feminism and Education" to the University Magazine, tells us that of all the strange theories current among women and accepted by some men, none is so mischievous as that which holds up "economic independence."

Representative Goodwin thinks his scheme has great possibilities which says commercial bodies throughout the country will appreciate. Friends of a big navy, he says, "would do well to analyze this plan carefully if they would take seriously the recent remarks of Secretary Daniels on the importance of making the navy a popular institution."

Mining News

MOHAWK-WOLVERINE. A lower recovery in April than in the preceding month was obtained by both Mohawk and Wolverine. The average yield from Mohawk's rock was 13.25 pounds of copper per ton, against 16.25 pounds in March, while Wolverine obtained 20.35 pounds, against 22.11 pounds in March.

DICKENS'S DRUCKEN.

In a letter by Charles Dickens to W. H. Milnes, published not long ago, his comment on the novelist's first visit to America may perhaps explain in part why Dickens wrote some severe things in "Dombey and Son" (1847) about the "young man" who had come to New York to "learn" (think) very much weaker, too, I had had a painful surgical operation performed shortly before going out. "I feel in the states was a life of confinement and a life of pain as a reading, and I was less patient and more irritable than I am now."

WOULD MAKE MANY A TRADE EXHIBITION

W. S. Goodwin, Arkansas Congressman, Has Bill to Turn Warships into Bazaars.

Washington, June 5.—A floating depot of warships, or industrial exposition, is the best use Representative W. S. Goodwin of Arkansas can find for a United States battleship. He would lease space for exhibition purposes on warships to American producers and exporters, that the natives of the various countries visited by the American naval fleet in a trip around the world, or a partial circuit of the globe, might see the wonderful output of our farms and factories. He would stock the vessels with the implements of peace, rather than the armaments of war, because he is so opposed to battleships that he is for disarmament of nations first, last and all the time.

Takes Bill Seriously.

These are only a few of the limitless possibilities of Goodwin's plan for displaying American products on American warships, carried to all the ports of the world or the education of foreign people in what this country has to offer. Goodwin's idea is striking contrast with that of Representative Daniel, a new member from Illinois, who wants appropriations for three succeeding years, and during several succeeding years, Goodwin's bill, entitled "A bill to encourage American commerce with foreign nations," provides that the secretary of the navy shall within thirty days after the passage of the bill report to the secretary of commerce the extent and character of all space on battleships which might be used for exhibiting American products.

SMUGGLE BEER IN HEARSE.

Maine Liquor Dealers Long Evade the Law by a Ruse.

Bangor, Me., June 5.—The necessity imposed by prohibition is the mother of many new inventions and devices for defeating the liquor raiders in Maine, but Bangor has not been the least. For some time it has been receiving quantities of wet goods from the suburbs. One night this week it was observed that the hearse of an undertaker was making many trips.

MISSENCORSE OF MAN.

Detroit Undertakers Make Mistake in Shipping Body East.

New York, June 5.—Employees of a Detroit undertaking establishment are thought to be responsible for the mistake through which John Kelly of this city received the body of a stranger instead of that of his own son.

POSTAL SERVICE FACES BIG TASK

Order Compels Fourth Class Postmasters to Take Tests—Busy Studying Lessons.

Washington, June 5.—Something of what the order of Postmaster General Burleson, sanctioned by President Wilson, placing all fourth class postoffices legally under civil service, means may be judged from the general activity now going on in the department and the postoffices.

YOUR CUP OF TEA.

According to the Chinese, tea was discovered by the great Emperor Chinnung in 2737. This ruler for the celestrial kingdom stands sponsor for everything new in the vegetable line, remarks the Philadelphia Record, and so this legend may or may not be true. It is certain, however, that in the sixteenth century Europe was already a well-known beverage of the land of the poppy and the peacock.

TOO MUCH SLEEP IS POSSIBLE.

What sleep means to the human body was told by Dr. Frederick B. Peery of the Boston University School of Medicine at the Evans Memorial a few nights ago, reports the Boston Transcript. He declared that the least cultured and least developed adults need the most sleep. "In the sixth century," he declared, "the intellect and development of the more prone one is to dreams.

WISCONSIN FARMERS OPERATE A RAILROAD

Line With Stops Every Mile Furnishes Outlet to Metropolitian Markets.

Lake Geneva, Wis., June 5.—One of the finest and most profitable dairy regions of the west coast of Wisconsin is to be developed in a way that will give it a market in two states by the building and proposed further extension of a railroad promoted largely by farmers and dairymen. This road reached Fausenda, Lake county, Wis., recently and a great celebration was held. The line is projected further north until it penetrates the Badger domain and ultimately connects the network of electric lines now being built in the region.

FARMERS BEHIND IT.

The road was built to tap a section about twenty-five miles square and attempts to obtain direct transportation in the last quarter of a century or more had failed. Both steam roads and trolleys for this region got on paper, but no further, until finally the farmers and the resort men pooled their interests and started the movement that promises success.

TESTS ARE PREPARED.

Here are the competitive tests which will be applied:

- 1. Element arithmetic and accounts, seriously in addition, subtraction, multiplication and division of whole numbers and common and decimal fractions and statements of the postmaster's accounts.
- 2. Penmanship (the legibility, neatness and general appearance of the compositor's handwriting in the subject of letter writing).
- 3. Letter writing (a letter of not less than 125 words, on one of two subjects furnished).
- 4. Copying manuscript address (a simple test in copying accurately addresses given).
- 5. Facilities for transacting postal business (based on the location of the postoffice site, the convenience of office arrangements, etc.).

POLITICAL COMPLEXION.

One of the provisions of this postoffice act has a political complexion. It reads like this: "Persons employed as postmasters of the fourth class, while retaining the right to vote as they please, and to express their opinions privately on all political subjects, shall take no active part in political management or political campaigns. Any postmaster taking such part shall be removed from the service or otherwise disciplined."

ENJOY TODAY.

He that hath so many causes of joy, and so great, is very unwise in weeping and sorrow and peevishness, who loses all these pleasures, and chooses to sit down upon his little handful of thorns. Enjoy the blessings of this day, if God sends them; and the evils of it bear patiently and sweetly; for this day only is ours, and not to be repented of. But if we look abroad and bring into one day's thoughts the evil of many certain and uncertain, what will be and what will never be, our load will be as intolerable as it is unreasonable.—Jeremy Taylor.

Why is it called "pin money"? The answer to that question goes way back to the fourteenth century. Pins were precious in those days; they were not carelessly lost or cast away as they are now. The law permitted that they be sold only on the first two days of each January in order that they might not become too common. It therefore became the custom for women of all classes to buy their year's supply of pins on those two days, and the money given to them by their husbands or fathers for that purpose was "pin money."

She contracted typhoid fever there.

Former Resident Here—Prescott Ely, of Cleveland, formerly a resident of this city, and a son of Homan B. Ely, for whom the Ely school was named, and who in the early days resided in a house beside Whetstone brook, about where the Champion street viaduct is now located, arrived in Marquette yesterday on a visit. He left in the afternoon for Grand Island, where he will visit A. O. Jopling, who is spending some time at the Jopling cottage.

House Night at Guild Hall—Another "house night" will be held this evening at the Guild Hall. Mrs. H. R. Harris, committee of St. Paul's guild will entertain with a program similar to those given on previous house nights. Doughnuts, cake and coffee will be served. There will be music for dancing and various other forms of entertainment. The billiard room and bowling alleys will be ready for use at the usual prices. A general admission charge of twenty-five cents will be made.

Window in Church Broken—Early last evening a valuable art glass window in the front of St. John's church was damaged by a stone thrown with malicious intent. A few persons were in the church at the time, and they heard the breaking glass. The person who threw the stone ran away. A $25 reward will be paid for information that will lead to his arrest and conviction. On two previous occasions windows have been broken in St. John's church and Father Jodoy believes that in each case the damage has been done maliciously.

Commission Meets Tonight—The second meeting of the charter commission will be held this evening in the city hall. H. R. Harris and J. E. Sherman, of the light and power commission, have been invited to address the body. This will be the first step toward seeking actual information on the systems of operating each city department under the present charter. The commissioners propose to give the present board system of municipal government an exhaustive study, and before taking any action toward consideration of any new form of government will seek to learn the sentiment of the prominent men of the city on the subject. Men who have served in municipal offices and men of special administrative ability will be especially invited to address the commission. The commissioners are taking up their arduous and serious duties in a commendable manner and in a way that insures the public of the best results.

Taft Economy Order MAY BE OVERTURNED

Democrats Now Purpose to Put Off Customs Reorganization Until January 1, 1914.

If congress acts quickly and if President Wilson does not spike the scheme with a veto, the present customs establishment of the United States, which has been slated to undergo drastic reorganization July 1, under the terms of an order issued by President Taft a few days before the close of his term, will days before be presented until Jan. 1, 1914, at least. The likelihood of a veto of the plan by the president is remote, as it has the endorsement of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. It is not believed that the secretary would have sanctioned the plan unless it had the approval of the president.

A bill will be placed before congress deferring the reorganization to the date named, and it is believed it will pass. The Democrats will be for it, because they want the patronage involved. The Republicans are expected to favor it because it will prolong the terms of about one hundred Republican officeholders for periods running from a few months up to two years or more.

One effect of the plan, if it is successfully carried out, will be to preserve, for a time at least, the identity of the district of Superior, of which Marquette is headquarters, and to retain the force employed here intact, with C. J. Byrns, of Ishpeming, in charge as collector.

Mr. Byrns last evening expressed surprise at the development. The last word he had from Senator Smith on the subject showed that the senator had little expectation that the order given by President Taft would be upset, and Mr. Byrns has been busy with arrangements for closing the office and settling his accounts with the government.

According to Mr. Byrns' information, the proposal to continue the present customs establishment until Jan. 1, 1914, does not affect the readjustment of salaries for collectors which was provided for when the prospective reorganization of the service was announced. By this readjustment all the collectors were to be placed on a straight salary basis, and all fees were to be cut out.

Democrats After Spoils. Persons who have followed the situation characterize the plan of the Democrats as a piece of spoils politics. They claim that if it were permitted to become effective, would reduce the number of collectors of customs from 156 to forty-nine, and would mean a saving in collectors' salaries of in the neighborhood of $300,000. While there was some valid criticism of the order, in the opinion of the administration it had been pronounced sound. The Wilson administration has been under heavy pressure from prospective officeholders to knock out the Taft plan, so that the 100 additional fat jobs might be open to men who have strong claims on the present administration.

Most of the districts it has been proposed to wipe out may very well be consolidated with other districts, as their customs business is merely nominal. There are, however, a few districts whose identity it is claimed, may well be maintained. Among these is the district of Superior, one of the most important on the great lakes.

The matter is one of vital interest to all employees of the department, and the developments of the department, and the wish to watch with great interest. Whatever is done will, it is expected, be crowded into the next three weeks, as the Taft order is slated to become effective July 1.

MU-H NEW EQUIPMENT.

Opera House Has Gone to Large Expense to Install Kinemacolor.

Kinemacolor pictures, which are not being presented as a part of the regular program at the Marquette Opera House, have cost the house a considerable sum in preparing for the service. A new projecting machine, operated by an electric motor, and a reflector to supply direct current for the lamps have been installed.

The Urban projecting machine has all the usual features of the kinetoscope, except that it is about three times as complicated. The lamp house is large and contains huge carbons. The spark is given by direct current in continuous, while that an alternating current are intermittent. The direct current gives a much more powerful light, which is concentrated to a tiny ray in the condenser, and then is projected through a series of special projecting lenses, before reaching the screen. The film is run through the machine just two and a third times as fast as the ordinary film for black and white pictures. The pictures, on the other hand, are much more dense, having the appearance of a much over-exposed kodak negative. It would be impossible for an operator to turn the pictures through by hand at the speed required and so a delicately controlled operating motor is a regular part of the Kinemacolor equipment. So too is a centrifugal governor, the film, which is panned on either edge as ordinary film has, in addition to the regular guiding holes, round holes at intervals and at different points on either side.

The film is plain black and white, but it is produced from two totally different sets of negatives, one set produced through a red transparent screen and the

PLUNGING INTO STRANGE WATERS

How One Woman's Decision to Get Out of Her Rut Started Others on the Up-Grade to Success.

"Changes!" said the returned traveler, to a Buffalo News reporter. "Yes, I notice changes, particularly in other people's fortunes. Look at the women of my acquaintance. They have prospered, every one of them. When I went away they were as poor, most of them, as I was. Of course, I had friends who lived in comfort on the money their husbands or fathers earned, but those to whom my soul cleaved in closest sympathy were self-supporting."

"The most unfortunate and best beloved of the lot was a splinter who had slaved in one office for eleven years at $2 a week. Our correspondence had been desultory, and because I was anxious at not hearing I looked her up the day after leaving. The office was there, her old employer was there and the same old typewriting machine, but the girl who had operated it was not there."

"Got another job," said the employer. "Some folks never do know when they are well off."

"He left her less keenly, but he gave me her new address. It was in a pretentious building where ever so many yards of red tape led to the Adriatic imprisoned there. The last office boy interviewed said my friend was in, but I almost doubted it, even after I had seen her. She had blossomed into a good-looking unrecognizable middle-aged woman. She had a lot, but aside from becoming blouses and hair dressing her face had freshened up with general hopefulness and satisfaction. We sat down and talked it over."

"I should never have left there ten years ago," she said, "but I lacked the courage to plunge into strange waters. I knew I was worth more than $9 a week, but Mr. Smith couldn't afford to pay any more; he had got into a rut. I suppose poor fellow, and I was afraid to give up a sure thing that was sufficient to keep body and soul together for an uncertainty, so I just drifted along on bread and butter wages. Well, at last something happened that fired me with new ambition. I jumped overboard, and here I am earning $14 a week, with another raise in sight at Christmas."

"She looked at me curiously as she told her tale of adventure and prosperity, but I was too rejoiced to pay much attention to her mysterious mannerisms. After that I simply wallowed in news of other people's improved condition."

"A very superior woman had broken away from the boarding house kitchen that had enslaved her for eight years; had married off one of her daughters, and was making a good living for herself and three other children in the jewelry trade."

"A missionary, who had been hopelessly yoked to a bankrupt church, had bettered herself, materially and spiritually, and a writer who had scribbled in depressing mediocrity at last braced up and got a good paying book published. Of course, all that advancement was very gratifying at the same time. It was puzzling. Good luck so seldom strikes so often in such a small circle. The boarding house lady relieved my curiosity."

"Do you know what gave me the courage to get out of the kitchen?" she asked.

"Did not, and she continued:

"'You. If you had stayed home I should be there yet. But if you, of your age—I thought it rather unkind of you to put that in, but let it go—were brave enough to pull my stakes and seek inspiration in foreign lands, it seemed wicked for the rest of us left at home to lie supinely under our shackles. There wasn't one of us that wasn't capable of shaking them off, so we got up and shook."

"Eventually" each of those building capitalist acknowledged a similar debt, most of them mercifully omitting allusions to my age. Now, who wouldn't feel puffed up a bit? I do. Often I had doubted the wisdom of my enterprise. I suppose now it was all right. What if it had left me without money to pay a week's board? I have started several other persons on the up-grade, and there is some satisfaction in that."

MEN'S BUSINESS.

Men's proper business in this world falls mainly into three divisions:

1. To know themselves and the existing state of things, they have to do with.
2. To be happy in themselves and the existing state of things.
3. To mend themselves and the existing state of things, as far as either are marred or measurable. Now men reverse all this. We have a general read-

BAN ON COCKTAIL IN NEW ORLEANS

State Health Board Rule Deprives Famous Drink of Its Principal Ingredient.

New Orleans, La., June 5.—It's good by in New Orleans to the delectable cocktail that tickles the palate, braces the jaded appetite and soothes the overwrought nerves of the morning after the night before. No longer will the fragrant martini be seen in local hostilities. The insidious Manhattan is banished alike from club and cabaret. Whether plain or ordinary, everyday cocktail, or the fancy brother built along plans and specifications to please the palate attuned to gustatory luxuries, the drink must go—for it has been put under the ban by George B. Taylor, state analyst and deputy, or assistant, food commissioner, who sees in the selling of "bitters" by liquor dealers, in restaurants and other places an active menace to the public welfare and a violation of the sanitary code.

Mr. Taylor himself, it is said, is a mild-mannered youth, with pale blue eyes and an aesthetic cast of countenance, and perhaps he has not yet fully realized what consternation he has thrown into a large part of the native population; but as an attaché of the State Board of Health and as a trusty lieutenant of Dr. Oscar Dowling, the chairman of the State Board of Health, he has adopted the motto, "How to the line, let the chips fall where they may," and is determined that cocktail or no cocktail, no "bitters" shall be sold by anything approximating a bar in this city.

It would be too cruel to believe that Mr. Taylor is initiate or that he realizes that one can not make a cocktail without "bitters." It is probably beyond Mr. Taylor's ken that "bitters" are to the cocktail what salt is to the soup, and that a "bittersless" cocktail is equivalent to a lipless kiss. But Mr. Taylor, evidently with the zeal of a crusader and the faith of a true reformer, is determined that the liquor traffic shall be dealt one blow by his department. The hydra-headed demon rum shall not have as its condiment anything which the sanitary code or his department can keep out of the game.

Applying the Law.

The deathblow to the insidious cocktail comes about through Mr. Taylor's interpretation of a section of the sanitary code and the bringing to life by Mr. Taylor of a circular relative to this article of the code which was issued by the State Board of Health and sent to department stores last December. The circular in question reads as follows:

"The sale of proprietary articles and pharmaceutical supplies is prohibited except by regularly established drug stores in charge of registered pharmacists. No instrument, device, apparatus or article designed or intended for the relief of cure of any ailment or disease shall be sold, or offered for sale, by an itinerant vendor or by any person other than in a regularly established drug store in charge of a registered pharmacist. Provided that this article shall not apply to the sale of wholesale dealers, or by wholesale dealers and jobbers, to drug stores in charge of a pharmacist, or by general stores in the parishes or localities where there are no regular drug stores."

Concerning this department says: "A big deal of misunderstanding exists regarding the above regulation, due principally to the narrow line of distinction between the proprietary articles, such as cosmetics and like articles used for the cure or mitigation of disease."

"This department hereby rules that any proprietary article bearing upon the label on the outside container or on the letters, any statement indicating the mitigation or cure of any disease comes within the meaning of this regulation."

"This includes all proprietary medicines, or patent medicines. It includes such articles as hydrogen peroxide, witch hazel, liniment, medicated soap, medicated vaseline, etc., the labels of which bear the statement as indicated above."

Circulars Sent Out.

This circular has been sent by Mr. Taylor to many of the more prominent places of entertainment and bars in this city in connection with a typewritten letter signed by him for the food and drug department of the state board of health and the managers of the place. The owners of the place are warned that the goods enumerated in the letter, Three or four of the articles named by Mr. Taylor are the stuffs out of which cocktails are made, particularly one well known brand of "bitters" which is imported into the United States for practically no other purpose.

Mr. Taylor's ideas have evidently grown with time, since it is not surprising that he would show favoritism toward barroom keepers, and since some of the letters sent out by him name only two, three or four of the standard "bitters," while other letters, presumably written at a later date, contain a list of prohibited articles as long as a wash list and including several widely advertised sedative compounds and laxative waters.

Meanwhile the saloonists are after the retail druggists who are getting part of the blame for putting Mr. Taylor up to the job of clearing barroom shelves from any "bitters" or any other concoction whatsoever that is even remotely liable to cure a human ailment other than the room proprietors say that if they can't sell the "bitters," cordials and other liquors which have always been an accessory to their business, the retail druggists will be made by them to take over licenses as retail liquor dealers, or be forced to stop the sale of them of any preparation or patent medicine containing alcohol.

Mr. Taylor's Order.

George B. Taylor, head of the pure food and drug department of the state board of health, explained his order, as follows:

"It simply is in accordance with the new regulations passed by the board prohibiting the misbranding of medicines. These regulations provide that there are at least ten brands of bitters on the market whose labels make pretentious claims to cure all forms of stomach disorders, and these I have placed under the 'bitters' until their manufacturers change the labels."

"The order forbids saloon men to keep these brands on their shelves or offer them for sale. Personally, I do not believe the regulations will affect cocktails, for bitters are only used in them as an ingredient for a drink which is bought, not because it is supposed to have any medicinal value."

"Whenever the manufacturers change their labels to conform to the law, there will be no objection to the resumption of the sale of the products in the state."

"The regulations apply not only to bitters, but all medicine. Recently we stopped Canal street department stores from selling peroxide of hydrogen and other toxic articles, because their labels also made claims of curative properties. The labels were changed to eliminate the curative clauses, and the sale of the articles has been resumed."

WRECK "HERO" ADMITS SO POLICE REPORT, ROBBING PASSENGER OF JEWELS.

Stanford, Conn., June 5.—Hamford Donnelly, a motor truck driver, who was arrested today for a minor offense, confessed, the police say, to the theft of $3,800 worth of diamonds from Mrs. Philip-James of Lake Forest, Ill., at the time of the fatal railroad wreck at Westport, Conn., last October. Donnelly was called one of the heroes of the wreck, as he assisted many of the injured women from the cars. He helped Mrs. James to safety and carried her baggage. She did not discover the loss of her jewels until later.

NEW WAGE AGREEMENT BENEFITS LONGSHOREMEN ALL ALONG GREAT LAKES.

Detroit, June 5.—Ten thousand longshoremen and dredgemen employed along the Great Lakes hereafter will receive as much pay for eight hours' work as they have been getting for twelve hours, according to an agreement reached between representatives of the workmen and their employers.

The agreement is signed by James Smith of Cleveland, president of the Great Lakes Dredging company, and T. V. O'Connor, president of the longshoremen's union.

Six different unions will be benefited by the new wage agreement.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENT AT PRINCETON MAKES NEW ATHLETIC RECORD.

Princeton, N. J., June 5.—F. C. Thompson, a student in the Princeton theological seminary, made a new world's record in the all-around athletic championships held here today, when he scored a total of 7,499 points in the ten events. The previous records were 7,385, made by Martin Sheridan, New York, and 7,476 $\frac{1}{2}$, made by James Thorpe, subsequently disqualified for professionalism. Thorpe made his record last September in New York. Today's meet was sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic union and was open to all registered amateurs, but the only entries were Princeton students.

LIQUIDATION IS CHECKED; NEVERTHELESS STOCKS LOWER THAN DAY BEFORE.

New York, June 5.—The stream of liquidation was checked today, and efforts were made to support the stocks which formed the backbone of the market. The street was still on edge as a result of the tension of the last few days and there were periods of pronounced weakness, but the market showed increased recuperative powers and rallied briskly after a setback at the opening and a sharp bear drive in the afternoon. Increased pressure in the final dealings put the list well below yesterday's close, but losses were considerably smaller than on the preceding day.

The movement as a whole was highly irregular, and threw little light upon present or prospective market conditions. The demand for stocks was better, although not keen.

GRAND TRUNK WESTERN CHARGED WITH REBATING.

Columbus, O., June 5.—The federal grand jury today returned twenty indictments against the Grand Trunk Western Railroad company, charging it with making illegal concessions in freight rates between Newark, O., and Belle Creek, Mich., on coal. Under the federal laws, the company is liable to a minimum fine of $1,000 for each alleged violation, or $20,000 for all.

HIGH SCHOOL HAIR-CUTTERS UNDER A REST IN COLORADO.

Colorado Springs, Colo., June 5.—Edgar Garvey, president of the high school dramatic club, and Charles Schneider, captain of the 1914 baseball team, were arrested today on charges of having waylaid and forcibly shorn two members of the high school senior class who graduated this evening. The young men are being held under $30 bail each for trial Wednesday morning.

PRISON OFFICIAL SERIOUSLY ILL AS RESULT OF CHASING CONVICT.

Joliet, Ill., June 5.—Deputy Warden Sims of the Illinois state penitentiary today suffered a stroke of paralysis occasioned by the exposure and exertion of an all-night hunt for convict F. Russell, who escaped yesterday. Russell still is at large.

THE PRINTER'S DEVIL'S PRAYER.

O Lord, I pray thee, make me a good printer. Make me as wise as the proof reader, who carries a dictionary in each of his vest pockets, and as honest as a Bill, the pressman, who borrowed a quilt last spring to use as a feed guide and returned it yesterday as good as new; make me to be faithful as Jerry, the stone-man, who comes down to the shop every Sunday and cleans up the pi he has made during the week; as industrious as Old Tom, the comp, who has not missed a day at his fame since he began to work for a firm twenty years ago; and lastly, O Lord, make me as patient as the poor boss, who has put up with my devilry for three mortal years, and paid me good hard cash for the privilege.—Rosee E. Haynes in the National Printer-Journalist.

LIBRARY IN AN AUTO.

The most useful automobile in Washington county, Maryland, is the one that serves as a circulating library for the remote cabin dwellers who are too hard worked to seek literature themselves. The population of the county, outside of Hagerstown, is 30,000 spread over 500 square miles. For several years, Miss Mary I. Titcomb, of Hagerstown, who conceived the idea, carried literature to

HEIR TO HARRIMAN CASH RICH MATRIMONIAL CATCH.

New York, June 5.—Who will wed America's second best estate? What girl will win the heart of the next to the richest youth in the United States? How long will it be before love enters the life of William Averell Harriman, who, at twenty-one years of age, has already enjoyed nearly every other phase of romance?

While dozens of maidens have set their caps for him, young Harriman has attained his majority heart whole and fancy free. It may be that he has had two or three school boy affairs, but they probably did not extend beyond the bounds of flirtation. He has not yet been touched by the grand passion.

It is little wonder, indeed, that he is much sought by the young women, for in addition to the scores of millions of dollars under his control, he is an athletic, handsome and well set-up chap. Moreover, he is a banker and a railroad magnate already, at an age when most young men of well-to-do parents have not learned that it is possible to live by working.

This son of the late Edward H. Harriman is easily the most prominent member of the present senior class at Yale. In point of wealth and inheritance he ranks second in interest in America to Vincent Astor only, the recent inventory of the Harriman estate proving it next to that of Astor in extent.

In many respects the two multimillionaires are similar. Left during their college courses the large fortunes they must administer, they really faced the need of assuming direction of them before they attained their college degree. Astor left college to take direction of the estate which he must shoulder and carry throughout life. Harriman has maintained his college course until its close, although called frequently from his studies for family councils and for his word in administrative matters.

Even before his graduation, however, young Harriman has become involved in the business of management of the railroads and banks which his father directed. In two he has already been chosen a formal director, the Union Pacific railroad, where he succeeded H. W. De Forest, and the Harriman National bank of New York city. Before his graduation he will be named to other directorates, for it has been decided that he must take up the burden of the investment of the large Harriman estate immediately upon graduation.

Harriman's tastes run along the line of law, and he has taken some courses while at Yale that naturally lead to a law practice, but he has never had other aim than to manage the great fortune left by his father, and his wish to complete his law course was prompted by a desire to accumulate his law diploma and law knowledge as a practical fund of information, invaluable and constantly useful in railroad matters.

He has been conspicuous in Yale athletics, notably in rowing. He pays $3 a week for his room at college.

A WEDDING IN GRECE IS A PICTURESQUE CEREMONY.

"When I was fifteen years old I went to the marriage of my cousin. She was a great favorite of mine, as she was so clever and bright, and she was fond of me, too," says George Demetrios, in his new book, "When I Was a Boy in Greece." Mr. Demetrios is a young aristocrat who came recently to this country from Macedonia. "I cannot pretend to give a description of all the ceremonies attending a courtship and marriage in Macedonia," the writer continues, "but only those that impressed themselves on a boy's memory."

"My cousin was married on a Sunday. A week before the marriage, when the festivities began, the family of the bridegroom sent gifts to the bride, golden florins of various nations and values, to be worn round the neck with those which her own mother had given her, and all sorts of fruits and nuts. The women folk of the bridegroom's family bringing these gifts were accompanied by boys carrying the gifts in copper plates on their heads. The mother of the bride entertained the visitors, sweets and preserves and coffee were handed round. The bride in her best dress said little.

Everyone likes fried cakes or crullers. Here's a very superior recipe. Follow directions closely—success is certain.

K.C. Crullers or Fried Cakes

Three cups sifted flour; 1/2 level teaspoonful K.C. Baking Powder; 5 teaspoonful warm water; 2 1/2 cups 70° salted butter; 1/2 cup 1/2 cream sugar; 1/2 cup 1/2 cream milk; 1/4 cup 1/2 cream butter.

Sift together, three times, the flour, K.C. baking powder, mace and salt. Add the sugar, butter and milk to the beaten eggs and stir into the dry ingredients to make a stiff dough. Knead slightly; then cut with fried cake cutter. Drop into a deep kettle filled with hot fat; drain on soft paper or colander and roll in powdered sugar.

Mr. Demetrios is a young aristocrat who came recently to this country from Macedonia. "I cannot pretend to give a description of all the ceremonies attending a courtship and marriage in Macedonia," the writer continues, "but only those that impressed themselves on a boy's memory."

"My cousin was married on a Sunday. A week before the marriage, when the festivities began, the family of the bridegroom sent gifts to the bride, golden florins of various nations and values, to be worn round the neck with those which her own mother had given her, and all sorts of fruits and nuts. The women folk of the bridegroom's family bringing these gifts were accompanied by boys carrying the gifts in copper plates on their heads. The mother of the bride entertained the visitors, sweets and preserves and coffee were handed round. The bride in her best dress said little.

GRAND OFFER

Only 14 Days Left

We are now offering to the housekeepers of Ishpeming and Negaunee a Gas Stove at $8—installed complete ready for cooking.

This stove is exactly the same style that is being sold for $16 to $18, only the oven is 2 inches smaller-finish and equipment of this stove is exactly like our $18 stove.

A family of 5 people can and are now cooking all their meals on these stoves at a cost of 3 cents per day.

To use these modern stoves brings the cost of preparing meals below what coal or wood would cost and saves dirt and worry.

Shall be glad to have you call and inspect our line of Gas Ranges.

Mining News

UTAH COPPER.

During April Utah Copper produced 9,534,894 pounds of copper, at a cost of 8.5 cents per pound. The tonnage treated amounted to 552,000 tons, a figure which compares with an average of 486,002 tons in the first quarter of the year. During the month there were in continuous operation twenty-one steam shovels, with day and night shifts. The Utah Copper now mines over 90 per cent of its ores by means of the steam shovels. During the first half of May the tonnage at both plants averaged in excess of 20,000 tons daily, and the gross output of copper for the month probably approximated 10,250,000 pounds. Some rather significant results have recently been obtained in the re-treatment of the low-grade concentrates by a flotation process based on that in operation at the Butte & Superior company. In case further experiments prove satisfactory, the management believes that by means of this process it will be possible to effect a saving of from $250,000 to $500,000 an year.

NOTES OF MINING NEWS.

The United Verde Copper company has paid a dividend of seventy-five cents a share, the fourth this year. In 1912 calendar year $6 a share was paid in dividends.

The Franklin continues running but two leads, says the Lake Linden Times, it being impossible to get the necessary rock for enlarged stamping, owing to the scarcity of labor. With but two leads doing duty, stamping costs are necessarily high and the mine is unable to make the showing it should.

The openings underground on the Pexwale ledge, at depth, disclose runs of excellent stopping ground, and additions to the resources are being piled up that will count in the future. The Franklin is not the only mine that is handicapped for want of trammers as practically every mine in the district is in need of additional labor.

The Greene-Cannara annual report for 1912 states that the company now owns 951,850 shares of Greene Consolidated's 1,000,000 and all the capital of the San Pedro Copper company. The dividends from subsidiaries during the year totaled $2,002,025, of which $1,819,877 was disbursed. President Cole says the production was 48,157,847 pounds of refined copper, 1,457,308 ounces of silver, and 7,195 ounces of gold. The combined net income was $2,580,750. The average price received for copper was 16.014 cents. The Cannara Consolidated cost was 10.31 cents, and San Pedro's 11.53 cents.

It was to meet the cost of exploratory work that New Aradania has called an assessment of fifty cents per share, payable July 1. This will mean a fund of approximately $75,000 as there are 150,000 shares of stock issued. It is thought that this amount will be sufficient to prove the veins adjacent to the new shaft. Rapid headway is being made in shaft sinking. It is expected that a depth of 750 feet will be reached by the middle of July. From this point lateral openings will be made to tap the three veins which showed up so well in copper in the drill cores. The shaft will be continued to a depth of at least 2,000 feet and exploration of the veins will be made at this depth. The showing to date is encouraging.

PYTHIAN CONTEST WAS SPIRITED

Zenith Lodge Will Have Honor of Entertaining Upper Peninsula Knights in 1914.

Ishpeming people were much pleased yesterday when word came from Marquette that the members of Zenith lodge, Knights of Pythias, had landed the convention and re-union of the Upper Peninsula Pythian league for 1914. The reunion will be the most elaborate affair of its kind the Pythians of the upper peninsula have ever held. Tentative plans have already been discussed.

The Upper Peninsula Pythian league was organized in Ishpeming ten years ago. James Bryden, a past commander of the local society, was its first president. Mr. Bryden is still an enthusiastic member of Zenith lodge, and he was at Marquette yesterday working to secure the 1914 meeting.

The members of the Ishpeming lodge will seek to have the officers of the national organization and of the Michigan grand lodge in Ishpeming next year. The celebration will observe the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the order. It is expected that a class of 500 members will be adopted convention week. The members of Zenith lodge expect to receive from 150 to 250 of the new members, and other lodges in the upper peninsula will be asked to provide the remainder of the class.

The Pythian Sisters of Ishpeming, who organized a branch less than two months ago, with a charter membership of nearly 100, were largely represented at the Marquette meeting. They will take a prominent part in the entertainment of the visitors attending the convention and reunion in 1914.

Popular Soo Girl a Bride.

At high noon Wednesday Miss Margaret C. Hall, daughter of George Daniel Hall, 241 Ridge street, Sault Ste. Marie, became the bride of Paul Thompson, Irish of Detroit. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents. The service was read by Rev. R. A. Bartlett of the First Presbyterian church. Miss Ruth Brotherton, of Marquette, attended the bride, and Lyman A. Irish, of Detroit, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The couple left for the evening for Detroit, Michigan, and Philadelphia on an extended wedding tour. They will be at home to friends after July 1 at 701 Van Dyke avenue, Detroit. The popularity of Miss Hall in her home city made her popular in the evening for Detroit, Michigan, and Philadelphia on an extended wedding tour. UPPER PENINSULA

Stick Penetrates Boy's Hand.

George Esbrook, who lives with his grandmother, Mrs. John Roberts, at Menominee, suffered a peculiar accident to his right hand while playing with a number of youngsters in the rear of the Ramsey & Jones building on Main street. He was running and stumbled, throwing the palm of his hand onto a stick about a half-inch in diameter. The force of the fall caused the stick to be forced entirely through the hand. The physician does not think the wound will cripple the boy.

Junk Dealer Pays a Fine.

Joseph Mathieu of Menominee was arrested this week on two charges, one of operating as a junk dealer without a license, and the second that of purchasing goods from minors without the consent of their parents. The minors in the case were Raymond Elethroth and Joseph McKinnon, both aged eleven. They sold to Mathieu brass which they are said to have taken from the Dudley Tool plant. Mathieu was arraigned before Judge John J. O'Hara and on his plea of guilty was fined $15 and costs.

Paving Project at the Soo.

Instructing the city recorder to obtain bids for $14,300 of bonds, payable in five annual installments, for the improvement of Ashman street, from the power canal to Emmet street, the Soo council has taken action which practically assures the commencement of paving work within a few weeks, unless the borrowing of money for this purpose is found to be illegal. A report from the board of public works gave the estimated cost of the paving as $23,000. The assessed valuation of the abutting property was placed at $182,750. This property will be assessed for one-third of the cost of the paving. The report was adopted.

Status of Police in Question.

After debating for a considerable time over a proposed ordinance for the control of the city police department, which it is claimed has never been legally authorized, the Escanaba council deferred definite action until the next meeting and put the question of whether or not Escanaba has now or has had in the past a legally appointed police department up to the attorney general of Michigan. City Attorney H. J. Rushton claims that under no section of the present city charter or ordinances is a police department authorized, while some of the aldermen differ with the attorney and claim that they have legal opinions back of their positions. The proposed ordinance provides that the department shall be composed of a chief, detective, captain and seven patrolmen, all of whom must be under bond during their term of service. Before procuring a position on the police department an applicant must file a certificate signed by at least three reputable citizens that he does not use intoxicants to excess and is a man of good moral character.

Damming of Stream Is Resented.

Whether or not A. B. Moore and S. M. Matthews, owners of a large tract of land in the western portion of Escanaba, have the right to place a dam across Butcher's creek and divert all of the water from that stream into the drain constructed by the city last winter is to be brought up for a definite decision, as the result of action taken by the council. Alderman Edward Smith reported that Mr. Moore and Mr. Matthews have caused a dam to be built and that while some water is running over the dam the bulk is being diverted into the drain. It was claimed by Alderman Smith that the drain is not large enough to accommodate the flow of water and that farms along the state road, near the point where the drain empties into Willow creek, are in danger of being flooded and that the Willow creek road built by the city last summer is in peril of being carried out by the flow of water. Alderman Smith declared that conditions along the drain will be serious in the spring of the year and after every fall of rain. Mr. Smith asserted that a dam has twice before been built across the stream, but on each occasion it has been torn up by the city, but on this

REPLACING WATER PIPES.

A number of the service water pipes on Cleveland avenue are being replaced, so that it will not be necessary to tear up the street after it is macadamized. Some of the pipes were found in fairly good condition, but it was thought advisable to put them all in first-class order at this time. The work on Cleveland avenue is progressing very satisfactorily. Most of the catch basins have been reconstructed, and the laying of the concrete gutters will be started early next week.

WILL DECORATE GRAVES.

The members of Zenith lodge, Knights of Pythias, will attend services in the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. They have been requested to assemble in their hall at 9:30, and will march in a body to the church, with the Uniform Rank as an escort. Following the services they will go to the cemetery, where the graves of the departed members will be decorated.

Wolf Family in Captivity.

Peter Holmgren of Rapid River, Delta county, while cruising at Bill's creek, eight miles from Rapid River, came upon a family of five wolf pups only a few days old. Mr. Holmgren had no difficulty in capturing two. He took them to a place where they could be kept securely and returned and secured three more. Holmgren is undecided whether to take the bounty of $10 each or make domestic pets of them.

Lower Rates Are Wanted.

As a result of a movement launched by Alderman R. L. Cantlin an effort will be made to procure a further reduction in lighting and power rates for the entire city from the Escanaba board of public works. A committee composed of Mayor Chaffin and Aldermen Cantlin, O'Hanley and Wickett will wait upon the board to make a plan for a reduction in rates. The large surplus that was rolled up by the lighting plant last year is pointed to as evidence that rates can be materially reduced for the benefit of the people without interfering with the efficiency of the plant. The plant is a municipal institution.

Lad Is Bitten by Feroocious Dog.

While walking along the alley back of the First National bank at Escanaba, Roy Gotthmann, ten-year-old son of Adam Gotthmann of Michigan avenue, was bitten by a black dog, the owner of which is unknown. The dog leaped at the child, caught his teeth in the muscles of the arm and tore the flesh for several inches, severely lacerating the member. The child was at once taken to the office of Dr. Reynolds. Although the injuries are exceedingly painful, it is not thought that they will prove serious. The dog that bit the child has been noticed wearing a muzzler, but it happened that his owner had failed to exercise this precaution this week. The officers searched the city for the dog, but were unsuccessful.

HONOR GUEST AT SHOWER. Miss Emma Clairmont, of Bark River whose marriage to Mr. Arthur Bohl of Ishpeming is to occur soon, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Prehette at Bark River on Saturday evening of last week says the Essexman Press.

ISHPeming IN BRIEF.

W. H. Constance, of Marquette, was among the visitors in Ishpeming Wednesday. Mrs. Allen Kane, of Division street, has returned from a visit to her daughter, Nellie.

The case of Gust Forsberg, who is charged with having fished in Lake Sault, has been postponed until next Wednesday morning.

Miss Daisy Kirkwood of Chicago, formerly a resident of this city, is expected here within the next few days to visit with Miss Mildred Lundahl.

Mrs. L. N. Toutoff arrived home yesterday from Appleton, Wis., where she attended the funeral of her cousin, Mr. Golden, who was killed in an automobile accident in Chicago.

Albert Stanford will leave next Tuesday for West Point, where he will enter the U. S. Military academy, he having passed both the physical and mental examinations of that institution.

Professor F. W. Spear, R. R. Trombone, G. R. Patron, R. M. Peterson, and G. P. Schuber of the Michigan College of Mines at Houghton, are in Ishpeming for a few days on their annual visit to the mines.

C. H. Dowman, principal of the Ishpeming high school, and Miss Eleanor Blanchard, counselor of the senior class, will entertain the faculty and the graduating class at a reception at the high school this evening.

Patrick O'Brien, editor of the Iron River-Stambaugh Reporter, F. Wescher, Calvin Hagerty and Walter Ammermann of Iron River, who are attending the Knights of Pythias convention in Marquette this week, drove up from there in an automobile yesterday.

FORTUNES IN MOVING PICTURES.

Mr. Edison first showed the world his completed invention (the cinematograph) at the World's Fair in Chicago, in 1893; but it was nearly 1900 before this infant industry could be said to be fairly started, though one enterprising manager had a regular place of exhibition as early as 1894.

THE WISDOM OF FOLLY.

The eyes say that every rose is guarded by a thorn which grows To spoil our posies; But I no pleasure therefore lack; I keep my hands behind my back When smelling roses.

'Tis proved that Sodom's apple tarts Have ashes as component parts, For those who steal them: My soul no disillusion seeks, I love my apples' rosy cheeks, But never peel them.

Though outwardly a gloomy shroud, The inner half of every cloud Is bright and shining; I therefore turn my clouds about, And always wear them inside out To show the lining.

Our idols' feet are made of clay, So stony-hearted critics say, With scornful mockings: My images are defiled, Because I keep them well supplied With shoes and stockings.

My modus operandi this— To take no heed of what's amiss, And not a bad one: Because, as Shakespeare used to say, A merry heart goes twice the way That tires a sad one. —Elden Thornycroft Fowler.

IRON STREET WORK IS TO BE RESUMED

Improvement of City's Principal Business Thoroughfare Will Now Be Pushed.

The improvement of Iron street, started early last fall, will be resumed Monday, when a crew of men and teams will be put at work to remove the surface west from the railroad crossing and when the Gates rock crusher will be put in commission.

The removal of the surface is preliminary to building a proper foundation but on the west end of the street it will not be as big a job as it was on the east end. The worst part of the job will be in the block between the railroad crossing and Gold street. It is expected that an old launder will be encountered in this block.

The new crusher will supply rock as fast as it is needed on Iron street, and will also provide rock for other street improvements that are to be started at an early date. It will require a considerable quantity of rock to bring the western end of Iron street up to grade, and several hundred loads of fine material will be needed to finish the eastern end of the street.

Superintendent Hanson has a number of men and teams at work repairing roads and streets in different parts of the city. Coarse sand, taken from the shore of Teal lake, has been distributed along the main highway between the city and the cemetery, and will be used on the surface of the road after it is sprinkled with oil.

Good progress is being made on the new road east from Mine street, to take the place of the present highway from the intersection of Mine and Main streets to the eastern end of the old cemetery site. Superintendent Hanson yesterday said that the roller will be put to work on the stretch at once.

BIJOU THEATER CLOSED.

Allen & Rytkanen, who controlled the Bijou theater in the Sundberg block, which has been under C. B. Skiff's management, have closed out the business, and will entertain the faculty and the graduating class at a reception at the high school this evening.

J. H. Rowell, George F. Schriber, E. Carey, R. A. Loveland, G. M. North, J. D. Hall and Messrs. Fogg, Gordon, Hinckley and Askin, a party of students from the Michigan College of Mines at Houghton, are spending several days in Negaunee and Ishpeming studying the mines and the rock formations about the two cities.

COCAINE HABIT IN PARIS.

As the result of some recent arrests in sorbonne quarter, the police have required fresh information in regard to the illicit trade in cocaine. I must mention incidentally that everybody who knows his Paris is rather amused at this sudden activity on the part of the police, since it has for many years been known that 'coco' has been more or less openly sold in very many restaurants and night cafes, and the drug is easily obtainable through other channels, in much the same way as in New York, and other American cities. The illicit trade, it would appear from the present investigations, is to a large extent carried on from Germany in large quantities from the Grand Duchy of Baden, and one of the favorite methods of smuggling the drug into Paris is by the simple but seemingly risky expedient of sending it in the shape of packages of from 200 to 300 grammes, which pass as 'samples of cocaine' night in hand. These packages are sent to Germans living in Paris, who represent the wholesale element in the trade, so to speak. From them the drug passes into the hands of middlemen, who in turn dispose of it to the actual retailers.

These last are to a large extent employees in various establishments, such as dancers and chausseurs or doorknockers. The business has not only its ramifications, but there is a very close freemasonry between the various traffickers, who make extensive use of the telephone to warn their 'confederates' of any suspected surveillance or other activity detrimental to the business. —London Globe.

PLAN TO CUT DOWN THE COST OF LIVING

New Marketing Scheme Is Devised at Washington—Eliminates the Middleman.

Washington, June 5.—Convicted that the present high cost of living requires no change in the tariff system, no special legislation by congress, but the elimination of the middleman, an organization in which are interested several of the most prominent citizens of the district of Columbia, some of whom enjoy national reputations, is endeavoring to launch a system whereby the producers and consumer may deal directly with each other. To accomplish this purpose they have made an appeal to the district commissioners for market facilities.

Contending that the one cause which has prevented the successful reduction of living expenses has been the increasing number of middlemen, who must add their profits to exist, the new organization proposes to erase them from the ledger. The conclusion that this was the source of disturbance in prices was reached after a review of the tabulation of results gathered by Beriah Green Underwood of Malden, Mass., who for the past two years has been devoting his time to the study of this particular question.

As a result of the determination, a letter has been directed to the district commissioners, asking for space in the several markets of the city in which the produce from the farms might be received and made ready for distribution among the residents of the city. No reply has yet been received from the commissioners, but the feasibility of the proposition is now being investigated. Housekeepers as Agents.

The association now organizing did not launch its proposal without working out details. It set some calls for a distribution of vegetables and other farm supplies among 10,000 families living within 200 blocks. To reach these families the services of at least 300 of the best housekeepers in the district will be retained. Each of these housekeepers will act as agent for the company for fifty families. In return for her services she will receive not only her food supplies free, but will be paid a salary of from $15 to $20 a week.

The system is proposed to be inaugurated about the middle of June. The housewife will not be called upon to call at the market, select her order, and carry it home. The company has worked out a system of credit which will eliminate this burden. Each family will be given opportunity to establish its credit by depositing $20 with one of the trust companies. This deposit will not be idle, however.

Consumers to Share Dividends.

Figuring the saving that may be made through the elimination of the middleman, the company has concluded that it can afford to pay 10 per cent dividend on these deposits and then pay the producer, or farmer, as much higher price for his goods than he now receives. In other words, the family which makes the deposit and meets its weekly bills will go quarterly to the trust company and clip a dividend. Plans for automobile delivery service have already been arranged, and the driver will merely have to place her order, fresh and crisp, and in full weight the next morning. Prices will not be a deterring factor, for by arrangement with the producers those for green groceries will hold for the following day and will be published in the newspapers daily.

The goods will be packed into cartons by the farmers themselves, and no hands will touch them until the consumer has received them. This will not only relieve the grocer, or other handler, of the trouble of packing his product, but will also relieve the consumer of the pleasure of knowing that the purchases come fresh from the farm.

While the system was devised primarily with a view to reducing the cost of living—or benefiting the consumer—it is said that it will prove, as well, a boon to the farmer or producer. In the past, it is declared, his goods have been weighed with view to upholding prices, while under this system he is promised a share in accord with the demand. He will receive, according to the promoters of the new company, his share of the commission and profit paid to the middleman.

He will benefit further, they say, from the fact that with markets or denots provided, it will not be necessary for him to send two or more men into the city with his goods to spend practically the whole day disposing of them to the middleman. Instead, he may drive his wagon into the market and unload his products, receiving his pay, and return, thus reducing wage and feed expense.

A REMARKABLE TRAIN.

The Pacific division of the Panama canal can boast of operating the biggest labor train in the world. This train is run for the accommodation of the force living between Panama and Pedro Miguel, working at the locks or the Culebra cut. There are twenty-two cars, and the average number of passengers is estimated to exceed 2,000. Three cars are for 'gold employees,' a term used to designate those who are paid in United States currency; five cars are for 'silver employees,' or those paid in Panama currency; and the remaining cars are for colored employees. Each of the cars for 'old employees' carries sixty to seventy passengers without crowding, while those for 'silver' or European employees are packed tightly and those for negroes are filled like sardine tins. In fact, according to the conductor of the train, the average number of negroes in a car was 165. —London Globe.

EACH FISH IS ITS OWN REFRIGERATOR

Russian Perfects an Invention That Preserves Finny Tribe for an Indefinite Period.

London, June 5.—The leaders of the fishing industry sat in the St. Andrew's Institute here the other day listening and watching, with the unvarying attention of north-country business men considering a money-saving proposition, while a white-bearded spectacled Russian savant told and showed them how to keep fish fresh for three weeks without the use of ice.

The Russian wizard put some magic compound into the water in which they swam and left them to enjoy themselves for a time. He explained that during this time they were gradually absorbing, through mouth and gills, the ingredient that he had added to the water, and that this substance, entering into the entire system of the fish, thoroughly disinfects them, killing all germs and bacteria.

When the self-disinfecting process was over the fish were taken out and killed, and after that packed without ice and sealed by the Russian consul. At the end of three weeks the seals are to be broken, and the fish will, says Professor Danilevsky, be as 'fresh as when they were caught, without any trace of salt or any chemical compound. They will be absolutely fresh fish, with rosy red gills and clear eyes.

The professor has two other methods of preserving fish—a kind of pickling process in either case—but, as he himself says, it is only the self-disinfecting process that results in fish after three weeks still having the clear eyes and rosy gills of a trout out of a stream.

There is no reason to question the soundness of this new process nor the value of its commercial application. It has been used with success on the other side of the North Sea, and it is certain that before long it will be adopted by English trawler owners. This means a severe blow to the great ice manufacturing industry of Hull, and eventually it will modify the construction of trading vessels to some extent.

There will no longer be any need for large ice-holds, which means that there will be no more space for the catch. Moreover, since the fish can be preserved for a much longer time than was possible by means of the old process, trawlers need not put back into port every few days. That means a reduction of the coal supply, and smaller bunkers.

HIDE THEIR DRINK IN VEST POCKETS

Maine Thirsty Ones Are Happy Because the Booze Tablet Has Arrived.

Bangor, Me., June 5.—A Maine sheriff might find a barrel of beer, or even a jug of whiskey, but he can't find a beer lozenge or a cocktail tablet, and over that glad fact the thirsty of this state are rejoicing.

For the tabloid booze drummer has come to Maine and is doing a rushing business in condensed drinks of all kinds, from plain whisky to cocktails and from beer to gin-fizzes. The drummer carries considerable stock of the tablets with him, and has arranged for further and unlimited supplies by mail.

Many bars in Bangor, Lewiston and Portland are selling tabloid drinks today, while a great many men who just must have their whisky or beer when they want it have obtained their own supplies and make their liquor at home while they wait—and the wait is not long.

The tablets come in little paper boxes or glass bottles of a dozen each and the price varies. A small vial of one kind of tablets costing thirteen cents, dissolved in a gallon of water with other ingredients costing fifty cents a gallon of what passes for whiskey. It is not whisky that would appeal to a connoisseur, for it burns and bites all the way down, but it is as near to whisky as a good many people are able to get in some parts of Maine, and it 'goes.'

Other tablets costing thirty-five cents each make half a pint of whisky of a somewhat better quality. This tablet requires only to be dissolved in water which takes but a few minutes.

Cocktail tablets make one drink each and are dissolved in two-thirds of a glass of water. A cocktail made in this way costs twenty cents. Beer tablets costing twenty cents, make a pint of something that looks like lager, with a high 'collar.'

A good many tabloid drinkers are coming by mail, and prohibition is up against another piece of tough luck. A great advantage of the tablets is that a man can conceal a morning eye-opener in a corner of his vest pocket or even in his shoe.

Testimony as to the efficacy of the Webb law in keeping liquor out of Maine is very conflicting. It is known that liquor has lately come into Bangor in large quantities, one dealer having a few days ago received a full carload of beer, which was carted at night through the streets and across the bridge to Brewer, where it was concealed. This beer has not as yet been discovered by the raiders, although eighteen barrels of beer belonging to another Bangor dealer and concealed in Brewer were seized a few days ago.

From the Kennebec river are coming reports of dozens of motor boats engaged in bringing liquor up from Bath to Gardiner, Hallowell and Augusta. It is said that large quantities of whisky and beer have been brought to several Maine ports in motor craft. The sheriffs and their deputies are standing night watches to capture them.

Give the Kidneys Help and Many People Will Be Happier. "Throw Out the Life Line"—Weak Kidneys need help. They're overworked—don't get the poison filtered out of the blood. Will you help them? Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers. Read this case: John Jacobson, Chatham, Mich., says: "For over a year I had kidney trouble. I suffered from pain in the small of my back and was hardly able to stoop or lift. I became easily tired, was languid and nervous and was also subject to headaches and dizzy spells. LIPTON TO HAVE MODEL TEA FARM

Yachtsman and Tea Magnate to Exhibit at San Diego an Important Display.

San Diego, Cal., June 5.—Sir Thomas Lipton, prince of sportsmen and international tea merchant, will install tea-plants from his plantation in Ceylon, at the San Diego 1913 exposition as a part of the exhibit that will show a tea plantation exactly as they are in Ceylon. A. J. Whitlaw of Chicago, western agent for the merchant-yachtsman, was in San Diego a few days ago, and after a careful investigation of climatic conditions, as well as the magnitude of the exposition, announced his plans respecting the exhibit.

It is the plan of Sir Thomas Lipton, himself, to bring together at the San Diego exposition all the component parts of the tea industry, uniting them in a single exhibit which will show the tea plants growing, the leaf in its various stages between the picking and the brewing, including the curing, packing and shipping, and finally the brewing, and all done by native Singapore and Ceylonese.

The tea-garden, in short, is designed to be a synopsis of the Indian tea industry. In direct line with this concession, will be one representing the various industries of New South Wales, respecting which P. E. Quinn, Australian commissioner representing New South Wales, is now also in San Diego.

Out-of-Doors Demonstration.

Quinn, in common with Sir Thomas Lipton, and many others, has been deeply impressed with the plan first evolved by President D. C. Collier of the exposition to make the whole theme of the 1913 show one of processes, and is also getting likely that the entire exhibit of New South Wales will be a practical out-of-doors demonstration of the industries of that great country, as the agricultural products of that part of the antipodes correspond to those of Southern California.

Owing to the fact that Southern California climate, and especially that of San Diego, admits of the growth of such a wide range of plants, a splendid opportunity is offered many countries for exhibits showing their agricultural and horticultural products in the growing, thus making a much larger array of out-of-doors exhibits than has ever been offered or attempted before at a world-exposition.

Among the countries taking the fullest advantage of this is Hawaii, which is preparing to transplant a wide range of growing things, including fruits, native woods and flowers to the San Diego Exposition grounds. The Hawaiian exhibit will include native dwellings, erected by native hands, and a general exposure of native industries, and native life, lived and acted, just as it is in Hawaii.

IMPORTANCE OF GOOD HUMOR.

"If my bookkeeper is a man of sour disposition," said a business man, "I don't mind it so much. He comes in contact with the office force only, and if he is a good bookkeeper we can get along with his sourness; but of course it is important to have men of good humor at all points where they come in contact with the public. People instinctively judge of an establishment by the first person they meet in it; if he is a man of courtesy they feel like coming again; if he is cool and indifferent to them they feel like staying away."

"We aim to have good humored men for shipping clerks. Such a man can expedite work a lot; his spirit is contagious, puts everybody in good humor; every truckman likes him, confides in him, and will move faster and do more for him than we would for a sour, grumpy man. And it's so all around."

"We can stand a sour bookkeeper, if he's a good one; but at all points where they come in contact with people outside we want men of good humor; business men, and that's the spirit in which we try to do business ourselves."

PRESENTS SOCIALISTS' SIDE.

Edward J. McGurty Discusses Trouble Over Street Meeting.

Negaunee, June 5, 1913.

To The Daily Mining Journal:

I was rather disagreeably surprised this morning to find that your paper had printed a news story giving an erroneous view of the incident which led to the arrest of six Socialists in Negaunee last night.

I had thought that your paper was rather fair and impartial, and that it would not lead its influence to create a wrong impression and consequently lead people in Marquette county who were not eye witnesses to believe that the Socialists of Negaunee were endeavoring to break laws and create unnecessary trouble.

Your story is prejudiced in that it delivers a quasi-sermon about the incident. It is not a true statement of the facts. Nor does it even give opinions of the two sides.

The facts are these: Socialists have held orderly street meetings at the corner of Tobin and Iron streets for many years. We have never been molested by the authorities before. A meeting was held the night previous to the arrests and there was no obstruction of traffic in any way, nor were there any disorderly persons present. The police did not interfere on that occasion. Wednesday night, however, the chief of police informed us that he had orders to prohibit a meeting at that or any other street. The mayor of Negaunee was asked for his opinion and he informed us that he would not permit any street meetings in Negaunee.

Recognizing that this was an arbitrary action on the part of the local officials, and believing that the guarantees of the constitution of the United States and also of the state of Michigan were of higher authority than the opinion of the mayor and police chief of Negaunee, I requested the assistance of the chief and his marshals in preserving order and attending to the matter of keeping the street and sidewalk open for traffic.

I then began to read to the people assembled the "bill of rights" of the constitution. I was clearly within my rights and was acting neither disorderly nor attempting to "block traffic." I had just begun when the chief arrested me. Other citizens then spoke and received the same treatment.

There is a vital principle involved in this incident. It means much to those of us who are vigilant in preserving our freedom and liberty. The flimsy pretext on which we have been arrested cannot be substantiated before a fair-minded jury. Those who saw the incident know the reason for this unjust action on the part of the newly elected city officials. They are beginning to recognize the growing strength of our organization and are fearful of the results of our agitation and propaganda of facts. Your article will have the effect of prejudicing the people of the upper peninsula against us at a time when we are fighting for rights which are dear to every American with a spark of freedom in his make-up.

I hope that you will at least give this reply space in your valuable paper and that you will be more careful in the future to print the actual facts only, or if you are to comment editorially in your news columns to at least print impartial comments.

Sincerely yours, EDWARD J. MCGURTY.

317 Pioneer Avenue.

(The Mining Journal is pleased to print Mr. McGurty's letter, as it has no desire to do injustice to the advocates of any political belief. It's story in yesterday's edition was based on the best information it could obtain at the time it was written. Mr. McGurty is quite correct in assuming that it presented the city officials' viewpoint. The Mining Journal has consistently maintained the right of peaceful street assemblies, where there could be no interference with ordinary traffic, for the discussion of all political questions, if no inflammatory sentiments are expressed. —The Editor.)

MARRIED YESTERDAY.

Miss Lyle Phillips and John Rock, Jr., both Negaunee young people, were married yesterday morning at St. Paul's parsonage at 6 o'clock. Father Buehltz performed the ceremony. Miss Phillips is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, who reside at the South Jackson location, and Mr. Rock is a son of John Rock, Sr. The couple left on the early train yesterday morning for the copper country, where they will spend a week before returning to this city, where they will make their home. Mr. Rock is employed at one of the mines.

SOCIALISTS IN COURT PLEADED NOT GUILTY

Speakers, Arrested Wednesday Eve, Arraigned Before Judge Verran Yesterday.

The police last night again "locked horns" with the socialists. Seventeen men were arrested, one after the other, as they attempted to address a crowd at Iron and Tobin streets, and were taken to the lock-up. The charge against them is obstructing traffic. In the neighborhood of fifteen hundred or two thousand people had congregated in the locality. The arrests caused much excitement.

Edward J. McGurty, of Chicago, Frank Aaltonen, Theodore Hagwald, William N. Risto and John Karkkan, of Negaunee, who were arrested Wednesday evening by Marshal Newcombe for interrupting traffic at the corner of Iron and Tobin streets and who were arraigned yesterday morning at 10 o'clock before Judge William Verran on the charge of violating section one of an ordinance of the city of Negaunee entitled "An ordinance relative to disorderly persons," pleaded not guilty and their hearings were set for June 12.

At the time of their arrest the men were addressing a crowd on the street corner, the people having assembled in such large numbers that the main street was almost completely blocked. Two other members of the Socialist party, Oscar Wilson and Matt Maki, were arrested later in the evening, charged with resisting an officer, and were arraigned before Judge Verran at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It is charged that they caused a disturbance at the city jail, following the arrest of the speakers. They blocked the sidewalk and when requested to move on by one of the officers, refused to do so. Complaints against them were signed by Marshal Newcombe yesterday morning.

Following the arrest of the speakers, a delegation of about twenty members of the party went to the home of Judge T. A. Thoren, city attorney, to seek to get their comrades out of jail. It was finally deemed best to release the men on their own recognizance until the following morning.

Edward J. McGurty, of Chicago, who was the first speaker to be arrested Wednesday evening, was arraigned first yesterday morning, and pleaded not guilty to the charge of obstructing the street. They asked for a jury trial. All the other four speakers who pleaded not guilty also demanded a jury trial. As City Attorney Thoren is now confined to his home, following an automobile accident Monday night in which he was seriously hurt, the cases against the men were postponed until next Thursday morning at ten o'clock. From fifty to sixty of the followers of the party were in the court room when the men were arraigned.

Frank Aaltonen, a leader of one of the factions of the party and one of the speakers under arrest, said yesterday morning that all of the cases would be fought to a finish. He asserted the speakers were in no way blocking the street, and that the obstruction of the street, caused by the gathering of the people following the arrest of speakers. None of the men arrested were required to furnish bonds for their appearance on June 12, but were released until that date on their own recognizance.

The Socialist party in Negaunee has of late been split into two factions, the split having been caused by an alleged fraud in the election of officers several months ago. One of the state officers investigated the affair and took away the charter of the organization. Since that time the faction led by William N. Risto has been holding its meetings in McDonald's hall and the other faction, which is under the leadership of Frank Aaltonen, has been meeting in the Labor temple.

The effect of Wednesday evening will probably unite the two factions again, as the leaders of both are now under arrest and are fighting for a common cause.

1914 RE-UNION AT ISHPEMING

Hematite City Pythians Will Entertain Upper Peninsula League Next Year, Probably in March, When Fiftieth Anniversary of the Order Will Be Celebrated.

Knight Rank Trophy Also Was Won by Up-the-Road Degree Team Yesterday in Closing Exercises of Eleventh Annual Meeting—Fine Crowd Attended Ball.

Zenith lodge, No. 33, of Ishpeeming, was fortunate yesterday not only in procuring the 1914 reunion of the Upper Peninsula league, Knights of Pythias, for the Hematite city, but also in receiving the huge silver trophy cup awarded to the winner in the degree contests which were an important feature of the eleventh annual reunion held in Marquette during the last three days.

The cup for the page rank was awarded Crystal Falls. Each lodge put on an historical drama, outside of the ritualistic work, in competing for this prize. The grand chancellor, however, advised the lodges to abandon this ceremony in the future, as the work is not ritualistic in any sense and is not countenanced by the supreme lodge of the United States, the sovereign body of the Pythians of the world.

The medals for individual work were awarded as follows: Monitor—Fred Hunt, Crystal Falls lodge, No. 128. Pythiagoras—Thor Orem, Zenith lodge, No. 33.

King—H. E. Sangster, Laurium lodge, No. 202.

Herald—William Bosanko, Crystal Falls lodge, No. 128.

Master-at-Arms—David Ross, Charity lodge, No. 131.

First Senator—Dr. S. G. Main, Zenith lodge, No. 33.

Second Senator—Burt Barnham, Charity lodge, No. 131.

Third Senator—A. P. Waters, Zenith lodge, No. 33.

Fourth Senator—H. J. Neville, Evergreen lodge, No. 91.

Fifth Senator—John W. Ritchie, Charity lodge, No. 131.

Sixth Senator—Henry D. Hughes, Crystal Falls lodge, No. 128.

Seventh Senator—Thomas Gray, Jr., Charity lodge, No. 131.

Eighth Senator—Frank G. Maxwell, Charity lodge, No. 131.

Ninth Senator—Sam Hooper, Zenith lodge, No. 33.

Tenth Senator—W. H. Millman, Zenith lodge, No. 33.

Attendant—Burney Holstrom, Laurium lodge, No. 202.

Attendant—J. Bruce Patton, Laurium lodge, No. 202.

Scribe—Walter Bannan, Evergreen lodge, No. 91.

Headman—N. Deemar, Evergreen lodge, No. 91.

In the character of Tenth Senator, which is a non-speaking part, P. E. Hoglund, also of Zenith lodge, was tied for first place with W. H. Millman, the winner of the medal. The contestants drew lots for the final decision, as is provided under the constitution of the order. Burney Holstrom and J. Bruce Patton, as first and second attendants, both of Laurium lodge, won out against other contestants by drawing lots, the contestant in each lodge being given an equal number of points.

Convention a Success.

The eleventh annual reunion of the Upper Peninsula league and the eighth annual convention of the Pythian Sisters' temples in District No. 1 came to a brilliant conclusion last evening in one of the most largely attended balls ever given in Fraternity Hall. That the meeting had been a success in every particular was vouchered for by the officers. The attendance, though not as large as expected, made up what it lacked in numbers in enthusiasm. Eighteen upper peninsula lodges were represented and many of these sent large delegations. Each lodge was, however, allowed but two voting delegates.

Annual Business Session.

The annual business session, the most important feature of the Pythian league meeting, was held yesterday morning in Fraternity Hall. It was largely attended by outsiders as well as lodge members. The chief business was the selection of a city in which to hold the 1914 reunion, which will be a big event, inasmuch as the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the order will be celebrated at that time and the supreme lodge officers have promised to attend the upper peninsula meeting. As usual, the sisterhood will hold its annual convention on the same time and place. The first step toward choosing the meeting place was the appointing by the chairman of a committee on credentials. E. E. Scribner, J. B. Bulcomb and Albert Hoeking were asked to serve. They reported that eighteen lodges had sent two delegates each and that two upper peninsula lodges were without representation—Iron Mountain and Sault Ste. Marie. The selection of the 1914 meeting place had given rise to much friendly rivalry. The league divided into two large factions, one favoring Laurium, the other Ishpeeming. The contest was lively and close. Finally, Ishpeeming received a majority, after several ballots had been taken. Nineteen delegates voted in favor of the Hematite City, as against thirteen for Laurium.

VERDICT IN M'HUGH CASE IS "NOT GUILTY"

Marquette Barkeeper Was Yesterday Acquitted on Charge of Selling to Minors.

On the strength of an alibi furnished the defendant by five witnesses, the jury which tried the case of the People vs. Charles McHugh, Andrew Hartvig's barkeeper, charged with selling liquor to minors, returned a verdict of not guilty yesterday in circuit court after being out but little over half an hour.

The witnesses on either side swore to contradictory circumstances, and the jury, without much hesitation, gave the defendant the benefit of the doubt. Steven Drolet, Hartvig's second barkeeper, Fred Biroth, a carpenter, William Erickson, who remembered that he was in Hartvig's saloon the Saturday night in question, Mrs. Katherine Morin, McHugh's boarding house keeper, and McHugh himself testified for the defense. The men all swore that McHugh was not in the saloon between 6:30 and 8:30 o'clock on the night in question, when the minors were alleged to have been served; that Steven Drolet was the only barkeeper on duty at the time and that he did not see either Barkin or Given in the saloon. Mrs. Morin swore that McHugh came in for supper at the usual hour and after spending some time at the house that he went down town again.

Judge Flannigan, when asked about the McHugh case yesterday, refused to have anything to say regarding it. He is, however, not at all pleased with the outcome of the case, and regards the situation disclosed by the testimony of the witnesses for the prosecution as one that is greatly to be deplored. Judge Flannigan is particularly set against violations of the liquor law by sales to minors, and will do all in his power to wipe out the practice. In this connection it is said to be likely that the testimony in the Christian and McHugh cases will mean the issuance of additional complaints and that another attempt may be made to secure convictions on the basis of the testimony of the boys on whom Prosecutor Kennedy has had to rely as his principal witnesses.

Bot Union Suits and Se arate Garments.

Following the McHugh case yesterday morning a jury was drawn for the issue of fact case of Katherine Fassbender vs. Patrick J. Donahue, in which the plaintiff claims damages for personal injury. The plaintiff claims that while driving home her light rig Donahue's team and heavy farm wagon ran into her, throwing her under the wheels. She sustained permanent injuries, she claims. When court adjourned yesterday afternoon the case for the plaintiff had been closed and two witnesses had been sworn for the defendant.

BEGINS EDUCATIONAL WORK.

C. F. Sigveland Here to Work in Interests of Marquette National.

C. F. Sigveland, of the Bankers' Service corporation, of New York, is in Marquette for an indefinite stay to undertake special educational work for the Marquette National bank that it is expected will result in adding many accounts, particularly in the savings department, to the bank's present list of customers.

"Experience has shown," Mr. Sigveland asserted yesterday, "that while the number of persons banking their money and bringing their business through the bank is increasing rapidly of late years, there is still a great field for all the banks among persons who ought to be in close relation with the banks but who have not yet learned the advantages of their methods of doing business."

The purpose of the work of the Bankers' Service corporation is to familiarize these potential customers with the advantages of doing business by check and to educate them to the value of the saving habit. Many persons can be brought into relations with the banks that are profitable to both parties by this work, and it has met with a large measure of success.

One of the features of the campaign Mr. Sigveland will carry on will be a special offer for savings deposits which will be placed on a 3 1/2 per cent. will be paid on all deposits having a life of three years. This is 1/2 per cent. more than the usual rate for savings accounts.
