Axis Spokesmen Get In Work At Meetings In Los Angeles

U. P. Wildcat Navy Flight Squadron In Training

One-third of the way through their nine-week training course at the U. S. Naval Air Base in Glenview, Ill., 18 Upper Peninsula Wildcats, inducted here February 7, and seven of their flying cadet buddies who filled in to make it a 25-man unit are pictured here wearing new uniforms, old smiles and still rarin' to go. They'll complete their training at Navy air stations in Texas. Final instruction, it is believed, will be given at the new Navy base at Corpus Christi, Texas. Defenders Nearing End Of Endurance

BANDOENG, Java, March 6-(P) -The Allied forces, approaching a state of exhaustion under the cruel. unending pressure of the enemy's overwhelming force, fell back tonight into the rough interior for a last stand, abandoning to the Japanese much of western Java and Batavia itself, the imperial capital of all the Dutch East Indies. Disaster fell as well upon the eastern island; there the invader had driven almost to the southern coast with the capture of Jogjakarta less than 15 miles from the sea, and thus had completed the utter destruction of communications westward from the Soerabaja naval base and was cutting Java in two.

tail merchants and operators of service establishments, the first quarterly survey of living costs in Marquette is nearly complete, it was stated yesterday by Mrs. Jennie Salmi, who was appointed by the state department of labor and industry to make the survey in this community.

The survey includes approximately 500 items, including everything persons buy which are included in the family budget. All commodities and services, such as rent, food, clothing, fuel, light and power, doctors, dentists and hospital bills, drugs, shoes, household equipment and others are included.

Mrs. Salmi emphasized that no check is being made on the price of luxuries. The survey is carried on only for the purpose of determining changes in living costs.

Reports Sent To Lansing

Mrs. Salmi's reports are sent to Lawrence R. Klein, director of the division of industrial information and reports, of the state labor department in Lansing. She has checked costs on all items except food. Prices of food will be tabulated next week. The survey will be repeated every three months.

The state department, in response to requests from employers, Chambers of commerce, public officials, labor unions and other interested parties, started the survey last month. Conforming with surveys used by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, the quarterly checkups will be continued until further no-

Better Prices For Maple Syrup Likely

LANSING, March 6-P-With prospects of better prices because of wartime sugar rationing, Michigan's maple syrup season is just getting under way.

Production almost doubling last year's light crop is looked for if the weatherman provides chill nights and thawing days.

Production of 140,000 gallons of syrup and manufacture of 25,000 pounds of maple sugar candy would be possible with favorable weather. Prof. P. A. Herbert, of the Michigan State college forestry department, predicted, well above last year's 74,000 gallons and the 10year average between 1930 and 1940 of 107,000 gallons.

Although conceding maple sugar is not a satisfactory direct substitute for regular sugar, Herbert said shortage of cane and beet sugar may increase prices from last year's average of $2.25 to between $2.50 and $3 a gallon.

Pointing to the sharp decline in "operating surplus" of the United Nations' rubber supply since the war began, Leon Henderson, price administrator, used charts in his testimony before the Senate defense investigating committee in Washington, D. C. He told the committee "not a single pound of crude rubber" would be available for new tires or retreads on passenger cars of the ordinary citizen. (Associated Press Telemat)

Five types of students have been particularly kept in mind in setting up the summer schedule.

All but six of the 106 courses are open to regular undergraduates who wish to work for degrees in an accelerated program so that they may get into industrial or military service sooner. A second group provided for consists of high school graduates who similarly wish to finish college at least a year earlier than usual by beginning their college work this June instead of this September. Technical Training In the third place, some courses have been set up for men not seeking a college degree, but who wish training in specific technical skills such as radio technology, telephony, and the like. Two of these courses carry no college credit. Still other courses will aid men and women who temporarily or permanently hold directive or supervisory positions in the professions, industry, business, and Voluntary Civilian Defense services. The farm bloc, speaking principally for the wheat, corn and cotton producers, also is high among those seeking special privilege. When it came to price-fixing, the ceiling had to be 110 per cent of parity, as if parity levels were not high enough!

This week the Senate farm bloc sought to attach a rider to a military appropriations bill whch would have prevented the sale of Government-owned crop surpluses at less than parity prices. They abandoned departments promised they would not buy any of the surpluses with the money being appropriated.

This is pressure politics at its worst.

If these two groups continue to have their way, effective price control will not be possible. Rising commodity prices will foster labor's demand for higher wages, which, if granted, will mean automatically higher parity prices, and still higher living dance to the tune of these groups? In its ruling that labor unions are exempt Court of the United States directed attention once more to the strange thesis that a labor organization can do no wrong.

The case in question involved the conviction 26 of its members who were charged with forcing interstate truckers to employ union member drivers for trucks entering the city. The Federal anti-racketeering law having been invoked, the lower court's decision was reversed by the Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court upheld the reversal, 6 to 1.

The contention of a majority of the court sert that many Americans are falling for a was simply that the anti-racketeering statute lot of the misinformation, half-truths and specsifically exempts labor unions, having been general buncombe disseminated by Axis so written by Congress. How Much Ought Young Person Pay At Home?

(By MANTHEI HOWE)

Perhaps, there has always been a bit of friction in some families chairman, E. L. Pearce. about how much the young folk living at home should pay for their board and room, or whether they should pay anything at all.

That debate is inclined to become creasing number of young people are being employed and at wages that tend to be a bit higher.

It's Only Fair First off, and it will doubtless put me in wrong with a considerable number of the young folk, I see no reason why all young peo-

Yet I know girls who earn $5 a for their board and room and make up for the difference by helping with the work in the household, doing the dishes at night, or making the beds and helping with the housework in the morning. It is not too easy but they are, in their attitude, following the right course, assuming responsibility, and earn-

For instance, girls and young men earning $125 a month living at home where they are free to entertain their friends, use the whole house, raid the ice-box, and often have their laundry and mending done at home tend to quibble at paying $30 or $35 a month for rie, March 3. Comfortable rooms, with one occupant, rent for $12 to $16 a month. And it takes considerable conniving, in a town of any size, to get board for $28 per month. Many find it can't be done if one is to have food that approaches good home cooking.

Pay for What You Get

Now that does not mean that 1 think the boy or girl who has to share a room with brother or sister, and help with housework, too, should be expected to contribute regularly $35 or $40 a month for him room and board. But that does apply to the young person who rooms by himself in a comfortable and convenient room, makes free use of electricity, telephone and other conveniences in the home; including writing paper, postage stamps, sometimes the loan of the

It is true, when the young folk have contracted debts through sickness, or unemployment, no parents will want to accept the full remuneration for board and lodging until the young person has had an opportunity to rid himself of most of the burden of his personal indebtedness, but the young person, starting with a clear slate and a reasonable salary, should contribute sufficient to pay his way in the home.

He should realize that he is no longer a child, and if the wageearner is a girl, she should realize that ethically she has no right to live off the family, or only half pay her way, because she wants to use her money to take an expensive trip, buy extravagantly of clothing, or put too much of her money into amusement and recrea-

It is mistaken kindness for parents to be too easy on this money question, for young folk will never learn to appreciate money until they have had to budget, and get a taste of the realistic situation of really supporting themselves.

In that respect, all the lecturing and talking that can be done is not as good a way of learning the lesson of intelligent management and spending as is actual experience. One has to confess that some parents are unjust and mercenary, would grab every cent the young folk earn, if it were possible, and fail to give a proportionate return. However, that is the exception rather than the general rule

ISHPEMING, March 6-Henry C. Wolfe, expert on world affairs and author of the book, "The German Octopus," which as early as 1937 outlined the Hitler plan of conquest, will lecture on "Spotlights in the Pacific" at 8:15 Friday evening, March 20, in the Ishpeming high school auditorium.

John O'Neill, grand knight of the Ishpeming council, Knights of Columbus, announcing the lecture today, said it was part of the program of Christian culture carried on by the K. of C. The lecture is the second in a series of four sponsored by the district council, composed of the Ishpeming, Marquette and Munising units. The first was the lecture in Marquette last week by Father Hubbard, the "Glacier Priest." Served In French Army

Wolfe's experience in world affairs dates back 24 years when, as a student, he went to France in advance of the A. E. F. to serve with the French army. He remained in Europe to visit its capitals, to learn of European affairs and to become one of the best informed authorities on world poli-

Morgenthau urged quick Congressional action on the debt limit increase because, he said, the Treasury had only $1,400,000,000 in borrowing power left on Feb. 28.

He pointed out that even with oillions of new taxes coming in, the estimated deficit for the fiscal year beginning next July 1 would be $35,400,000,000, plus another $4,400,-000,000 that will have to be raised for Governmental corporations.

"The estimated increase in the public debt for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1942, based on these estimates, will thus be $39,800,000,-000 and leave us with a public debt on June 30, 1943, of $110,400,000,-

More About Those Doors At Fire Hall

NEGAUNEE, March 6 - Those new doors at the Negaunee fire hall were the subject of more discussion by the council last night when Alderman Ed Prideaux declared he would not recommend acceptance of installation.

The fire hall doors were argued about in council meeting for more than a year and early last fall a type of installation was agreed

The contract, however, was given to the Independent Lumber and Coal company, instead of the manufacturer of the approved doors, and it was expected the same kind of doors would be installed. According to Prideaux, the elec-

Post-War Priority For GMDealers

By David J. Willkie DETROIT, March 6-P-Preferential consideration for car retailers who carry on through the war despite the cessation of new car production and the sharp limitation of sales under the rationing program was promised today by General Motors corporation.

In a special message to General Motors dealers, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., chairman of the corporation,

"For a period of two years after production is resumed, from the cars available for domestic distribution, General Motors will extend priority in car shipments to dealers whose active service has been continuous during the period of suspended production, before making any cars available for new To Buy Back 1942 Cars

ISHPEMING, March 6 - The game you've heard about all week ended the way you thought it would-Palmer marked up its twenty-eighth straight basketball vice tory, with Ishpeming "B" the victim for the second time, 43-21.

As usual, foxy Coach Elvin Niemi permitted the opponents to take a first-quarter lead and then he turned loose the torrent of basketball power that is Palmer's this

After Ishpeming "B" took a 4-3 lead, this is the way it went the rest of the way: Second quarter-Palmer, 14-6; third quarter-13-3; fourth quarter-13-8. Palmer led 17-10 at halftime and 30-13 at the end of the third period.

- Andeline had as much fun as anybody else on the floor, that's a sure bet. He scored 10 field goals for 20 points and individual scoring honors without any dispute whatsoever, although his mate, Talus, laid claim to 12 counters.

Ishpeming "B" acquitted itself well, four out of five players denting the scoring column, but it wasn't quite enough for those highpowered Palmer boys. Erickson, forward, scored four goals against the Class E champions, and Lemin at least can say that he scored three times from the field. Box score:

Gagliardi, 16 Points

With Gagliardi and Hammar dipping them in from all angles, Ishpeming grabbed an 18-15 halftime lead and a 28-22 lead going into the fourth session. Top scoring honors for the evening went to Center Gagliardi with 16 points, built up with six field goals and four free throws. Hammar scored 13 counters, only one less than Newberry's star guard, Zagelmeier. Needless to say, the game was plenty fast and had the huge crowd on its toes all the way. It was Ishpeming's fifth victory in a row against fast competition and furnished further proof that the Hematites, who have come along slowly but surely, will be a factor to consider in the coming

Mrs. Sivils' idea burgeoned immediately into a brisk, bulging business. Into their little 40-foot square cafe flows more than $160,000 annually.

News of the Sivils' business bonanza spread almost overnight and the idea was copied widely, Variations of it, many of them ludicrous, appeared quickly, and Houston was plunged into a brief but lively era of dizzy drive-in

Most of these brushes with insanity were brief but drive-ins stressing their waitresses' beauty of face and form spread over the state and prospered.

But Liquor Control Board Chairman W. J. Townsend said he was shocked by the girls' attire, declaring that in Dallas he saw a carhop who was "almost naked." So the board finally authorized Administrator Foard to "carry out the law," meaning, presumably, the law against indecent exposure.

Mrs. Sivils, who designs all costumes of her girls and who fulfills her own strict requirements of beauty, said "everything possible," is done to keep the girls away from bad influence.

"We have iron-clad rules," she said, "that the girls can't sit in cars with men, or put their foot on the
