British Nomination Day Passes Off Successfully

TRIANGULAR CONTESTS WILL NOT BE NUMEROUS; SEVERAL CANDIDATES ARE UNOPPOSED

LIBERALS SUSPECT EX-PREMIER BALDWIN.

(By The Associated Press.) London, Oct. 18.—Nomination day for the October 29 elections brought no great number of surprises although there were many unexpected nominations and withdrawals, mostly by the labor party, with the object of embarrassing labor's opponents as much as possible by forcing triangular contests to its own advantage. It was impossible tonight to obtain a reliable analysis of the nominations to show the position concerning triangular contests, which, while numerous, will be fewer than at the last election. The organization headquarters of the various parties were shy about giving particulars as to the arrangements made among the different parties for avoiding such contests.

FAMOUS FRENCH AUTHOR BURIED

Prominent Citizens Pay Last Honors To Anatole France.

(By The Associated Press.) Paris, Oct. 18.—Anatole France, poet, novelist and critic, beloved by the nation—was buried this afternoon with all the honors that the capital of the republic of which he was a citizen, could bestow. President Doumergue, Premier Herriot, the presidents of the senate and chamber and members of the French academy, gathered about the writer's bier. The casket, completely covered with flowers, placed on a stand in front of the modest and ancient little bookshop, in the quai malaguais on the left bank of the Seine, where France was born 80 years ago. In the funeral procession, from the bookshop, the great men of the nation walked bareheaded behind the bier until the French Academy building was reached. They entered carriages and followed the cortege to the Neuilly cemetery. The mourners assembled at 1 o'clock but the cortege did not start until 4. Speeches were made by Gabriel Hanotaux, member of the academy; Leon Blum, leader of the Socialist party; M. Painleve, president of the chamber, and many others, mostly politicians belonging to the Left Groups. The addresses lasted three hours. More than 30,000 people watched the ceremony from bridges and the banks of the Seine, while huge crowds lined the Amps Elysee and Avenue Neuilly as the cortege passed.

Shenandoah Wins Fight With Wind

(By The Associated Press.) Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 18.—Securely tied to the mooring mast on the Camp Lewis reservation ten miles south of here, the huge navy dirigible Shenandoah was waving lightly tonight in a gentle breeze. Safe and apparently unharmful after her long battle with the elements which hindered her progress on her first trans-continental flight from Lakehurst, N. J., to Camp Lewis, Washington. The ship was being refueled and groomed during the night preparatory to the start of the return trip, scheduled for 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Dr. Branting Again Premier of Sweden

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 18.—Dr. Hjalmar Branting, leader of the social democratic party, again is premier of Sweden, having completed the task of forming a cabinet, entrusted to him after the resignation of the ministry headed by Ernst Trygge. The new cabinet is made up exclusively of members of the social democratic party.

WITHDRAWAL OF SHOALS OFFER ACKNOWLEDGED

Disposal of Property Is Again Thrown Into Congress.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 18.—Acknowledging today the formal withdrawal by Henry Ford of his offer for the government properties at Muscle Shoals, Ala., President Coolidge wrote Mr. Ford that he "trusted" the latter would renew his interest in the property should congress decide to dispose of it to private interests.

Mr. Ford's withdrawal, made in a letter to the president, again throws open to congress the entire problem of disposal of the property. In the absence of congressional leaders from the city, however, the next step which will be attempted there in this connection remains problematical.

Bill Before Senate. A bill accepting the Ford offer already approved by the house would have been voted on early in the next session in the senate by previous agreement. Pending in the senate also is a favorable report by the agricultural committee of a bill by Chairman Norris, containing optional provisions for government ownership and operation or government ownership and private operation of the properties.

Mr. Ford in his letter of withdrawal said that inasmuch as so much time has already elapsed, we are unable to wait and delay what plans we have any longer for action by congress.

In reply the president wrote that "on account of delay and probable shifting in conditions, I can understand how you may feel unjustified in keeping your offer open for a longer period."

Mr. Coolidge made it known recently that he still considered, as he suggested in his message to congress a year ago, that a commission or sub-committee to be composed of members of the senate and house should be chosen to work out the best feasible proposition for disposal of the property. The recommendations of the commission, according to the president's plan, then would be acted upon by congress.

Representative Kearns, Republican, Ohio, who called at the White House this week, declared he would submit such a proposal to congress at the next session. He is a member of the public military affairs committee two years ago when it studied the Muscle Shoals question and has been a constant opponent of the Ford offer.

Western Swing To Finish Campaign

(By The Associated Press.) Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 18.—Determined to devote the last two weeks of the campaign to a swing through the middle west and eastern states instead of making a trip to the Pacific coast, Senator Robert M. LaFollette, independent presidential candidate, with no speaking engagement scheduled for tonight, rested here today. He intends to leave Sioux Falls tomorrow for Omaha, Nebr., where he will deliver a speech Monday night.

"Red" Grange Breaks Through Wolverines At Will; Illini Win

DIDN'T WORK Michigan Is Dazed Following First Touchdown

(By The Associated Press.) Urbana, Ill., Oct. 18.—A flashing, red-haired youngster, running and dodging with the speed of a deer, gave 67,000 spectators, jammed in to the new $1,700,000 Illinois Stadium, the thrill of their lives today when Illinois vanquished Michigan, 39 to 14, in what probably will be the outstanding game of the 1924 gridiron season in the west.

Harold "Red" Grange, Illinois phenomenon, all-American half-back, who attained gridiron honors of the nation last season, was the dynamo that furnished the thrill. Grange doubled and redoubled his football glory, in the most remarkable exhibition of running, dodging and passing seen on any gridiron in years—an exhibition that set the dumbfounded spectators screaming with excitement.

Grange is Star. Individually, Grange scored five of Illinois six touchdowns in a manner that left no doubt as to his ability to break through the most perfect defense. He furnished one thrill and then another. On the very first kickoff Grange scooped

HITS BALL!

(By The Associated Press.) Urbana, Ill., Oct. 18.—This is the record of Harold "Red" Grange, sensational 22-year-old Illinois halfback, perhaps the outstanding gridiron star in America last season, in today's Michigan-Illinois game: Scored five touchdowns—four in less than 12 minutes of play.

Find Woman's Body in Manistee River

Mesick, Mich., Oct. 18.—With the discovery here today of the body of a woman in the Manistee river, county officials feel sure that they are confronted with a murder mystery. The woman's head apparently had been beaten in and officers believe that the body was placed in the river following a murder. As yet the body is unidentified.

COUNTERFEITING OUTFIT SEIZED IN POLICE RAID

Was on Scow in Shadow of Statue of Liberty in Gotham Harbor.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Oct. 18.—A raid tonight of a scow which for two years has lain at anchor in the shadow of the Statue of Liberty disclosed a counterfeiting plant which government agents said they believed was operated by an international ring which has been flooding the country with bogus nickels, dimes and quarters for seven years.

Three counterfeit treasury department moulds were found on the scow, the Sparkling, one of the five craft raided during the day. The coins found were said by secret service operatives to be perfect in detail, but lacking in the weight of good coin. A quantity of metal alloy, the raw material of counterfeit feilting, was also confiscated. Angelo Nese was arrested charged with counterfeiting and violation of the Volstead law, the latter charge being based on discovery of a large still on the Sparkling. The raiding party boarded another scow anchored nearby in the hope of capturing other members of the alleged ring but only found another still, which they confiscated. They lay in waiting aboard the Sparkling until after nine o'clock in the belief that other counterfeiters might put off from shore but to no avail.

WOMAN'S RIGHT

Mrs. Ferguson To Run for Governor in Texas.

(By The Associated Press.) Austin, Tex., Oct. 18.—The last vestige of the ancient bar against women in office was swept away by the Texas supreme court today in holding for Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, and all other women in the state, eligible to elective positions.

Attempts to bring out of the dim past and establish as present day law the fragments of an old order were cast out by the highest court of the state which pronounced women as independent entities on an equality with men.

While holding that Mrs. Ferguson is qualified to vote, the court also held that part of the statute which seeks to confer on a private citizen the right to bring suit testing the qualifications of a candidate for governor. This right belongs to the legislatures, the court said.

"HAPPY" DYKE CONFESSES HE SLEW TEACHER

(By The Associated Press.) Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 18.—"If I couldn't have her I didn't want anyone else to have her."

With these words Egbert "Happy" Dyke, 34, of Marne, ascribed his reason for killing Miss Molly Fleming, 23, school teacher at Conklyn, who was murdered yesterday afternoon in a shed behind the school building in which she taught.

Lodged in the Ottawa county jail at Grand Haven tonight, Dyke talked freely of the crime and made a complete confession to the authorities.

"I hit her with my hand first," he said. "She told me that she was through with me and I guess I went crazy mad. I do not remember hitting her with an axe, but I suppose I must have."

Dyke was arrested late this afternoon when he walked up to a group of men at an oil filling station near Marne and asked to be taken into custody.

It is understood that following his escape from the scene of the crime he spent last night in one of the buildings at the Marne fair grounds where he made an attempt to end his life by cutting his wrists with a razor. This failing, he left the building early this morning and spent the day under an interurban railway station.

COURT UPHOLDS WOMAN'S RIGHT

Mrs. Ferguson To Run for Governor in Texas.

(By The Associated Press.) Austin, Tex., Oct. 18.—The last vestige of the ancient bar against women in office was swept away by the Texas supreme court today in holding for Miriam A. Ferguson, of Temple, and all other women in the state, eligible to elective positions.

Attempts to bring out of the dim past and establish as present day law the fragments of an old order were cast out by the highest court of the state which pronounced women as independent entities on an equality with men.

While holding that Mrs. Ferguson is qualified to vote, the court also held that part of the statute which seeks to confer on a private citizen the right to bring suit testing the qualifications of a candidate for governor. This right belongs to the legislatures, the court said.

The plaintiff, Charles M. Dickson, of San Antonio, has fifteen days in which to file a motion for rehearing and it was stated the case will not be sent back to the court of civil appeals for issuance of the decree until expiration of that time. It would then be too late for any action as ballots would have been printed.

Klan Gathers for Session; Trouble Isn't Anticipated

(By The Associated Press.) Worcester, Mass., Oct. 19.—A mob of eight hundred in the business center of the city early this morning stoned automobiles and beat up members of the Ku Klux Klan who had been attending a gathering of the organization here.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 18.—More than ten thousand members and sympathizers of the Ku Klux Klan came here from all parts of New England today for a great gathering which lasted from morning until late into the night. Possible disturbances which authorities feared might develop failed to occur.

Early in the evening excitement spread through the crowd inside the enclosure when a speaker announced that a plane, engaged by the Klan for the day, had been forced to descend as a result of the shot which punctured the fuselage and crippled the engine. The plane, earlier, had been seen to descend in an abrupt spiral.

Interviewed tonight, the aviator said that he had been forced down by an accumulation of dirt in the engine.

Repairs were made and later in the night the machine flew over the city with red lanterns displayed in the form of a cross.

PRESENTS LETTERS IN SUPPORT OF CONTENTIONS.

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Oct. 18.—Leads which will take the senate investigating committee into a thorough-going investigation of charges of Senator Robert M. LaFollette that a huge "slush fund" is being raised for the support of the Coolidge-Dawes ticket were presented today to that body by Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, counsel for the independent presidential candidate.

In submitting a mass of correspondence and other data upon which the charges are based, at least in part, Mr. Walsh said he would undertake to show that three funds were being collected in the United States; "one by the national committee, the regular fund; one a fund created by the bankers of the United States and taken care of by them, and the other by the manufacturers and business men."

Walsh also told the committee that Senator LaFollette had told him over the long distance telephone that he had "under-estimated the amount of the 'slush fund' that was being raised to carry this election, when he said that he thought it would be four million dollars or five million dollars."

"From the investigation which we have attempted to make, a very hasty one indeed," LaFollette's counsel added, "we think we have leads which we will present to the committee here to show that ten million dollars is not too great an estimate, and that it is very likely to reach twelve million dollars."

To support the conclusion that three separate funds are being raised, Walsh presented letters written by George W. S. Simmons, a vice president of the Mechanics and Metals National Bank, New York City, appealing to other bankers, irrespective of party, to contribute to a fund to help the Republican national ticket. He also introduced into evidence a letter of similar import sent to its members by the Manufacturers' Club of Philadelphia.

Bankers Cough Up. LaFollette has been advised Walsh said in connection with a meeting of the national bankers convened in Chicago a few days ago a speech was made requesting that all trust companies be requested to give one-twentieth of one per cent of their capital as contributions to fight LaFollette in the west. Edward T. Stotesbury was made chairman of the committee to collect the money.

Besides these letters, Walsh produced a series of four letters written by Joseph R. Grundy, a yarn manufacturer of Bristol, Pa., and chairman of the ways and means committee of the Republican national committee. Two of the letters, which contained the most direct appeals, were written on October 8, and October 10. The other letters, those by Simmons and the Philadelphia Manufacturers' Club—were dated at about the same time.

Passage Is Stressed. Calling attention to a passage in one of the Grundy letters saying that Pennsylvania's 38 electoral votes "may be so for Coolidge and Dawes, but if money and energy must be given to help carry doubtful states and doubtful congressional districts," Walsh said:

"We propose to show by the correspondence which has been interpreted and turned over to us by those who did not agree with this way of running our government, that the effort is being made directly to carry the northwestern, western and southwestern states.

to carry them with the money collected by the beneficiaries of the present business combinations, and we show later on, by the very money of the farmers in those states that is in banks in the city of New York today."

After discussing the subject fully in executive session late in the day, the committee decided to resume the hearings in Washington next Tuesday and to summon first witnesses from Philadelphia and Washington in order to determine first whether the LaFollette charges can be supported by evidence before witnesses are called from more distant cities.

Chairman Borah said subpoenas would be issued for these witnesses: Joseph R. Grundy, Edward T. Stotesbury, Samuel M. Vauclain, president of the Baldwin Locomotive Works; Nathan T. Folwell, treasurer of the Manufacturers' Club; W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad; Chester W. Hill and John T. King, all of Philadelphia, and W. T. Galliner, chairman of the District of Columbia Republican ways and means committee; T. V. O'Connor, a member of the United States shipping board; Carl W. Riddick, national organizer of the National Republican League, all of Washington, and also for the manager of the Hamilton Hotel and a taxicab company, both of Washington.

While the committee is sitting in Washington it also will hear Clem L. Shaver, chairman, and James W. Gerard, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, regarding campaign contributions to, and expenditures by, the national Democratic organizations. Senator Borah also announced that he would call Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and possibly others for questioning as to their expenditures in behalf of the LaFollette-Wheeler campaign.

Bob is Quoted. Walsh did not confine himself closely to the presentation of documents and giving his interpretation of them. He quoted Senator LaFollette as assailing William V. Hodges, treasurer of the Republican national committee in connection with the sugar tariff.

LaFollette's counsel also assailed the Republican national committee for expending $437,000 for publicity at a time, he said, when never before had the newspapers so freely represented the addresses of political candidates—those of LaFollette and Davis and of Coolidge and the others. He charged the use of a "corrupt minor press" and of "corrupt minor speakers" in connection with the publicity campaign.

"Delouse" Parties. Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, suggested that a part of this expenditure was "for the laudable purpose of 'delousing' LaFollette."

"Yes," returned Mr. Walsh, "and I want to say for Senator LaFollette that it is part of his mission now; he is but a humble instrument in it, but it happens they made the attack on him, and it is a part of his mission, paraphrasing what another man said, 'to delouse' the political parties of this country, regardless of what they are."

In presenting the Grundy letters, Mr. Walsh interposed sharp comments at frequent intervals.

Most of the letters held up the possibility of LaFollette getting enough votes to throw the election into congress and the final selection there of Charles W. Bryan. The Democratic vice presidential nominee, in one letter LaFollette and Wheeler were likened to Lenin and Trotsky; the threat was made of a re-enactment of the Democratic tariff, unemployment and damage to business generally.

Reads Simon's Letter. One of the Simon's letters said that "as a business proposition, your associates should contribute liberally, almost regardless of party affiliations to prevent the success of this (the LaFollette) movement, which is an avowed attack on the constitution, would place the supreme court at the mercy of the political whims of congress and would elect supreme court judges by popular vote."

"Apparatus" the only sure way to kill off this movement is the proper expenditure now of campaign funds for speakers and other legitimate expenses in these western states where such a campaign, if promptly contributed, can produce a Republican victory."

"It is reported that thus far many times the amount of money has been spent in the LaFollette campaign as on either the Republican or Democratic campaign."

Denies Charge. "That is from the yarn factory," remarked Mr. Walsh. LaFollette's counsel told the committee the effort to raise campaign funds did not stop with the Republican national committee, the bankers and the manufacturers and business men. To support that assertion, he produced a letter written by former Representative Carl W. Riddick, of Montana, national organizer of the National Republican League, soliciting campaign contributions.

"Now I want to call attention to another fact," Walsh went on. "There is another avenue for making expenditures, and a most important one, and that is the adjuncts which are used to frighten the larger amounts out of these very rich men. We have a communication that has been broadcast in this country, with a release from G. Franklin Ream, president of the American Economic Institute.

Represents Roads. "This concern is the successor of the discredited National Transportation Institute, which was denounced in the United States senate. It was really the representative of railroads and sent out propaganda to influence legislation and rate making."

This letter said the institute believed the "greatest danger" today was the threat of the radical labor leaders "who are sponsoring the LaFollette movement, and who demand the abolition of the Esch-Cummings transportation act."

Walsh also charged that the Pennsylvania railroad was circulating propaganda on its menu cards in favor of Coolidge and Dawes, and he asked that Vice President Atterbury be summoned to tell where the funds for this came from, and whether the railroad pays them out of its own operating expenses.

Would Question O'Connor. Walsh's request for the examination of Commissioner O'Connor was on the basis of his statement that Senator LaFollette was receiving substantial support from Soviet Russia through Mexico. His request for the summoning of the manager of the Hamilton hotel, Washington, he explained, was to ascertain who paid the bills of the labor leaders who went to Washington Labor Day to hear President Coolidge speak.

LaFollette's counsel also asked that Simmons and Charles D. Hillis, Republican national committee man, from New York, be summoned, but he did not indicate the purpose of calling Mr. Hillis. Also he wants to have examined J. W. Perry, Theodore Gary, John T. Kennedy and Joseph E. Shannon, of Kansas City, in connection with the allegation that the bankers are raising funds. He told the committee that Shannon, a Democrat, had stated in a speech that two funds were being raised in Kansas City.

Chekiang Soldiers Won't Loot City. Shanghai, Oct. 18.—The defeated Chekiang troops have agreed to surrender their arms upon the payment of twenty dollars to each of them, together with the granting of free repatriation. Foreign authorities now believe that all danger of an attack on Shanghai has been averted.

General Chih-Yuan, military governor of Kiangsu province, whose forces defeated the Chekiang in recent fighting for Shanghai, fearing that the vanquished troops might sack Shanghai in revenge, offered them ten dollars each to surrender. They refused, but finally an agreement was reached to pay each man the sum of twenty dollars.

Flint Chinaman Is Shot Down in Detroit Tong War

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Oct. 18.—The first killing in the Chinese quarter since residents of that section asked police for additional protection because of the tong wars going on in a number of cities, occurred late today when Eng Sang Cheuy of Flint, Mich., was shot four times and killed instantly.

The shooting took place in the basement of a building in the Chinese quarter. Police arrested eight Chinese who are held on a technical charge of murder, pending investigation of the slaying. Authorities are attempting to determine whether Cheuy was deliberately shot or a victim of mistaken identity.

Cheuy is said to have resembled Sam Sing, influential member of the On Leong tong, who is said to have been responsible for the appeal to police for additional protection against the Hig Sing tong early this week.

Flint, Mich., Oct. 19.—Eng Sang Cheuy, first victim of a tong war outbreak in Detroit last night, came to Flint two years ago and was the owner of the Hip Lee Laundry here. Cheuy was said to have belonged to the On Leong tong, according to local Chinese. Flint police have been ordered to arrest any strange Chinese here for fear of an outbreak, three strangers having been reported in town by local Chinese. Cheuy went to Detroit Saturday morning.

Sugar Beet Crop To Be Large One, Report Indicates

(By The Associated Press.) Lansing, Mich.—Michigan's sugar beet crop this year will be exceeded by only one state—Colorado—and this despite the fact that the condition of the crop is somewhat under that of a year ago, according to a report issued by Verne H. Church, Michigan Agricultural statistician, and L. Whitney Watkins, commissioner of agriculture. A good acreage is given as the reason for the large tonnage predicted for this state.

The estimated beet crop for Michigan is 1,189,000 tons. The condition of the crop is 72 per cent normal, according to the statistician, as compared with 82.3 per cent for the entire country and 93 per cent for Colorado where production this year will total 2,435,000 tons.

The Michigan apple crop, to quote Mr. Church, is poor this year—only 45 per cent of normal, with an estimate production of 3,016,000 bushels. The nation's bean crop is approximately 3,060,000 bushels less than last year. The yield compares favorably with that of 1923, but the acreage is considerably less. Based upon the average of previous years Michigan has 75 per cent of the entire crop of white beans. The average yield per acre is placed at 1 bushel.

BRILLIANT COLORS. Brilliant colors are to be worn for evening this season as well as the deep and subtle shades of red and purple.

PLAIDS POPULAR. The newest topcoats are of very swaggy plaid materials and have an inverted pleat in the back.

FEATHERS POPULAR. Fringe or ostrich feathers are still tremendously popular on evening gowns and wraps.

A few drops of vinegar added to the boiling water in which an egg is to be poached will prevent the egg from breaking, so it will retain its shape and look inviting when served.

SPOTTED HANDS. London.—The "spotted hand" case is the newest murder mystery to baffle London police. The hands of a man found murdered in a hotel here were completely dotted with small yellow spots, and rumors of a black-clad woman who climbed down a rope from another room in the hotel on the night of the shooting have heightened interest in the mystery.

Jury Finds Woman Aided in Killing

(By The Associated Press.) Middleburg, Pa., Oct. 18.—Guilty of murder in the second degree was the verdict of the jury rendered today after five and a half hours deliberation in the case of Mrs. Annie S. Willow, 38, charged with being an accessory in the murder of her husband, Harvey C. Willow.

Ralph H. Shadel, 18 year old farm hand, was found guilty in the second degree last week as the principal in the crime, which he testified he committed on a rabbit hunting expedition last December in obedience to the woman's request "to work Harvey out of the way."

Republicans Will Be Defeated This Year, Davis Says

(By The Associated Press.) St. Louis, Oct. 18.—Speaking in St. Louis, Ill., this afternoon and in St. Louis, Mo., tonight, John W. Davis, Democratic candidate for president, declared that "unless all the signs of the times are playing false, there is no possibility of the election this year of a Republican congress and a Republican senate."

"And if there were," he said, "you would find repeated in both those bodies as soon as they were called in session, either regular or special, the same sorry spectacle of party division and party impotence that has rendered this country rudderless and leaderless for the last three and one-half years."

"The one avenue through which the American people might secure harmonious government," Mr. Davis said, "was beyond preadventure the Democracy."

"I suggest to the American people," he said, "that there is but one avenue through which you may secure, for the next quadrennial period, a government acting in harmony, in uniformity and in union; there is but one party today that stands for the American people harmonious and undivided. There is but one party that marches in serried ranks and military order, and that party is, beyond preadventure the Democracy."

Mr. Davis expressed the hope that if a Democrat be elected to the presidency, he would be given a Democratic senate and house.

Buildings Unable To Withstand Damp

(By The Associated Press.) London.—London fogs are responsible for the crumbling of the walls of the houses of Parliament, not the ravages of time as had been generally supposed. The material in these buildings which has been a great disappointment from the standpoint of wear, is magnesium limestone. It was selected in the belief that it would withstand well both the action of the fogs and the passage of the years.

Parliament will be asked for money to make repairs. Among Colorado's relics of cliff dwellers is one building that sheltered probably 6,000 people.

DON'T DO THIS. There are no greater pests than those who come back after the curtain has gone up and temporarily snuff out the view of everyone behind, as well as annoy those who have to stand up to let them by.

MICHIGAN ISN'T ABLE TO STOP ILLINOIS STAR

Continued from Page One. He handled the ball 21 times, gained 403 yards and scored five touchdowns. Unbiased experts agree that his performance was among the greatest ever seen on an American gridiron.

Make Long Runs. Running through a labyrinth of interference, and tacklers, he crossed the field twice to gain the open on his first play. Britton made the point after touchdown. On the second kickoff, Grange received the ball and raced 10 yards before he was downed. Illinois lost the ball on downs but recovered it by the same method on the 33-yard line. While the crowd was still breathless from cheering his first touchdown, Grange tore off 65 yards for a second, around right end. A moment later on the same play, he ran 55 yards for a touchdown and shortly after scored his fourth of the quarter from Michigan's 44-yard line. In each instance he started behind perfect interference and sidestepped Michigan's safety men in the final sprint.

Is Spectacular Runner. He has a way of dodging, almost coming to a dead stop before whirling in another direction, that leaves his tacklers flat footed and amazed.

The game was won and lost in the first thrill-packed moment when Grange, extricating himself, repeatedly from seemingly hopeless tangles of tacklers, crossed the goal line and permanently shook the Wolverine morale. The shock which his four touchdowns produced on the highly keyed Michigan team, dazed the Michigan crowd and team, and when the game was over many were still unable to explain the defeat.

Steger scored Michigan's first touchdown in the second quarter after Britton's short punt had given Michigan the ball on Illinois' 25 yard line. Three drives at the line and a penalty for Illinois put the ball on the 15 yard line. Steger sneaked off tackle for the touchdown. Rockwell kicked goal.

Grange in Again. Grange re-entered the game in the third period, and after an exchange of punts had given Illinois the ball, passed 23 yards to Britton who was downed on Michigan's 24 yard line. Leonard made six and Grange eight. On the next play he circled end for ten yards and his final touchdown. Illinois obtained the ball in Michigan's territory, shortly after the final quarter opened and Grange heaved the ball 23 yards to Leonard, who scored Illinois' final touchdown.

Michigan's opportunity for a rally came on the next kick off when an Illinois man clipped the kicker and the ball was given to Michigan on Illinois' 20 yard line. Steger gained five and Heath made it first down with three yards to go. Rockwell and Steger were held to one yard gains but on the next play Rockwell smashed across for Michigan's final touchdown.

Encouraged by this Michigan threw passes to all sections of the field without avail and the game ended with Michigan holding the ball on her own 20 yard line.

Steger Fights Hard. Captain Steger fought heroically for the Wolverines, frequently carrying several tacklers through the line with him, by sheer will power and fight. Once when it seemed certain that he would break loose he fell and the opportunity was lost.

The game was played under a broiling sun and the players suffered from the heat. Both coaches made numerous substitutions. Ten thousand Michigan rooters, accompanied by their band, saw the game. The Illinois crowd which was pessimistic at the kickoff left the field a delirious mob, which marched through the twin cities of Urbana and Champaign.

For the first time in midwest football, and possibly in American gridiron history, the Illinois players played without stockings.

Exposing bare shins to the onslaught of the foe. The players wore short socks reaching a few inches above the low shoes and leaving the leg bare to the knee. Whether this style was adopted because of the hot weather or for strategic reasons was not officially made known. No injuries apparently resulted from the innovation.

Man Is Shot Down; Police Start Hunt

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Oct. 18.—Andrew Walk, 23 years old, was shot in the head several times as he sat in his automobile parked on the street here tonight. Police are scouring the Italian quarter, armed with a number of names said to have been found in the victim's pockets. These names, police believe, indicate the existence of a bootleggers' war, and they are working on that assumption.

TO CLEAN SINKS. Steel wool moistened with linsseed oil is an excellent medium for keeping an iron sink smooth and clean.

TO PREVENT INJURY. When you are ripping seams with a knife or razor, wrap the blade with adhesive tape to within a short distance of the end to prevent injury to your fingers or to the fabric.

MANY NEAR PEARLS. Three-strand necklaces of small white or black pearls are seen every-where, and occasionally one has a combination of gray and natural pearls.

One scarcely sees a suit or coat without its fur trimming, and hats and dresses are using it at every opportunity.

Search Continues for Five Bandits

(By The Associated Press.) Jackson, Mich., Oct. 18.—Plain clothes men, state police and county officers are still searching for the five bandits who held up and robbed the Springport State Bank Friday of from $70,000 to $80,000. L. A. Bingham, the customer cut on the head with the butt of a gun when he failed to move fast enough to suit one of the robbers, was improved today. Several stitches were taken Friday to sew up the gash. No suspects have been arrested, so far as known, and many believe the robbers have by this time reached distant parts.

COUPLE STEAL MARCH ON BIG GROUP FRIENDS

Miss Ethel Mackie, and L. J. Cleary Married Yesterday

Completely surprising a host of friends, as well as relatives in Escanaba, Miss Ethel Mackie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mackie, of Green Bay and Mr. Lawrence J. Cleary, of Escanaba, were quietly married at 8 o'clock yesterday morning at the rectory of St. Patrick's church in this city. The only attendants of the couple were Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Defnet. Following the ceremony members of the wedding party went to the Escanaba Golf Club where a wedding breakfast was served. Following the breakfast the newly married couple left on a two weeks motor tour through the east and will return to Escanaba at the end of that period to make their home in this city.

Miss Mackie has been engaged for the past two years as a stenographer at the general offices of the North Western road in this city and during her residence here has won a host of sincere friends. The bride was born at Green Bay where she was prominent in society circles of that city. The groom is the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John J. Cleary and is recognized as one of Escanaba's leading young business men. He is one of the proprietors of the Delta Hotel and numbers his friends by the score in this city.

Plans Made Secretly.
Although rumors of the matrimonial plans of the couple have been in circulation for several weeks, all of their plans were maintained as a strict secret and they were able to outfit a large group of friends who had made

Babson Discusses Ethical Factor In Mortgage Values

Babson Park, Mass., Oct. 18.—Roger W. Babson today pointed out an opportunity for investors that is not only safe and profitable but renders a distinct local service as well.

"Bank accounts are the safest of all investments. Most bonds are good and many stocks are fair investments," says Mr. Babson.

"In buying mortgages," concluded Mr. Babson, "you also perform an additional service to your community. The money stays in your own city instead of going to New York or some other financial center, which is usually the case when stocks and bonds are purchased.

"I believe that as a matter of good business and of public service every investor should invest a part of his money at home where it will encourage the right type of citizens in his community."

Smoking By Boys Of School Age To Be Prohibited

The sheriff's department yesterday issued a warning stating that any boy of school age reported smoking will be arrested and fined and that any person selling cigarettes to boys of school age will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

The attention of the sheriff's department has been called to the fact that a large number of students of the schools of this city are constantly smoking and the complaints have been so numerous of late, that drastic action was decided on.

KENTUCKY TO BE SAFE IN DAVIS COLUMN

Democratic State Will Continue There, Says Lawrence.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

(Copyright 1924, by the Escanaba Press.)
Louisville, Kentucky, Oct. 18.—John W. Davis will carry Kentucky. This state stood by James M. Cox in 1920 when even Tennessee broke away. It's true the majority was less than 5,000 but it remained in the Democratic column just the same.

There was a tide of resentment in 1920 which does not exist today. Four years have served to turn back to the Democratic party many of those who, for one reason or another, strayed away. The late A. T. Heri, one of the shrewdest political organizers, was responsible for the improvement in the Republican vote in this state in 1920. No one has arisen to take his place.

Kentucky is not without its local issues, however, which may have some bearing on the result. Senator Augustus Owsley Stanley who won the Democratic nomination after a hard fight seems to be capable of stirring up violent opposition either on his "wetness" or a half dozen other things which started when he was governor. He is the center of a very exciting campaign. The Louisville Courier-Journal, owned by Judge R. W. Bingham, is supporting John W. Davis for president but Fred Sackett, the Republican nominee for the senate.

Women Oppose Stanley.

On account of his anti-prohibition views Stanley is presumed to have the opposition of the women. But there is no La Follette candidate in these parts and Stanley will get most of the votes that are to be cast in Kentucky for La Follette. This may take care of some of the Stanley losses. He will have a close fight for reelection. The national ticket will help him.

The vote this year in Kentucky will be large. A bond issue for good roads is being voted upon. That always brings out the voter. The registration thus far in the cities shows a gain. There is no way to tell about the rural districts but a large ballot is expected because the Republicans in the end of the state favor the bond issue while the Democrats at the other end oppose it. The Republicans who will take the trouble to come down from the mountains to vote probably will vote a straight Republican ticket for U. S. senator and everything else.

State Little Interested.

In the face of all these characteristics, Kentucky may roll up as high as 30,000 for John W. Davis and if such a vote is polled Senator Stanley might pull through.

Kentucky exhibits little interest in the campaign as a whole. The La Follette people act as usual making considerable noise and may get as high as 100,000 votes in Kentucky though this is a maximum figure and the probabilities are it will go much lower. But the La Follette votes are coming in about equal proportions from the Democratic and Republican parties so the effect on the two major parties will be about the same.

Charles G. Dawes has been here and John W. Davis will be here within a week. The campaign seems hardly to have gotten started. Republicans outwardly are claiming the state but one suspects that they are doing this in the hope of gathering votes and holding them for the state ticket. Nobody ever conceded defeat as a rule, publicly anyhow. But the private reports of the Republican managers must no doubt contain many "ifs" as this state can be put back in the solid south column this time.

MRS. RIPPIN TO BE HERE WEDNESDAY To Address Three Meetings During Day

Mrs. Jane Deeter Rippin, national Girl Scout director will be in the city Wednesday, Oct. 22. The Girl Scouts of the city will meet at the Escanaba High School at 5:00 o'clock and Mrs. Rippin will address them at 5:30. It is expected that a large number of scouts will turn out for this meeting.

The men of the county, interested in the Girl Scout movement, including the Delta Co., Finance Committee, the Esky Rotarians and Kiwanians and the Gladstone Rotarians will hold joint lunch at the Ludington Hotel at 12:30 at which time Mrs. Rippin will speak to them.

The ladies of the county and from neighboring counties will meet Mrs. Rippin in the Presbyterian Church parlors at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

POSTAL RULES OFTEN BROKEN

Unlawful to Enclose Messages in Fourth Class Matter.

There is much violation of the postal regulations by patrons of the Escanaba postoffice, according to Postmaster John A. Semer. This is particularly true in regard to the writing of instructions and other matter inside third and fourth class mail matter.

In a recent order from the postmaster general, attention is called to the placing of illegal inclosures in parcels mailed at the fourth-class rates of postage. It has been found that in some cases illegal inclosures are placed in sealed parcels mailed under provisions of amended paragraph 5, Section 469, postal laws and regulations. This subjects addressees to annoyance and inconvenience inasmuch as they are called upon to pay the deficit postage.

Violators Ignorant.
The illegal inclosures consist of instructions for making clothes, repairs to be made of articles such as hats, fountain pens, jewelry, directions as to the development and printing of photographic films and unauthorized additions to invoices.

A recent survey of fourth class parcels passing through this office disclosed a large number of such illegal inclosures and the collection of first-class postage rates on such parcels which has caused indignant protests from patrons as well as much trouble in the office.

In order to avoid misunderstanding on the part of the mailing public the following statement is made:

There may be enclosed with fourth class matter a written or printed invoice showing the name and address of the sender and of the addressee; the names and quantities of articles enclosed together with inscriptions indicating, "for purposes of description," the price, style, stock number, date of order; and date and manner of shipment; and the initials or name of the salesman, or of the person by whom the articles were packed or checked. Inscriptions, such as "Merry Christmas," "With best wishes," "do not open until Christmas," or words to that effect may be written on fourth-class mail, or on a card inclosed therewith.

Attaching Letters.
When it is desired to send with a parcel of fourth class matter, a communication, instruction, or other written matter not constituting a permissible addition

Important—

It will be worth your time to read it.

Dear Sir:—
Political headlines are attractive to certain readers,—crime headlines will appeal to others, while still another group will turn to the sporting page. But next Sunday the most interesting headlines to everybody who reads the Chicago Tribune will be those telling of the wonders of OIL-O-MATIC. Political issues,—crime motives, and sporting "dope" cannot compare with the vital interest in the FOUR CARDINAL PRINCIPLES of OIL BURNING which will be the central theme of the ad in next Sunday's Tribune. Read it carefully so you will be well informed on Oil Burning.

Whether you have laid in your coal or not, you should be sure to get a copy of Sunday's Tribune and inform yourself on the one oil burner that entirely satisfies, because soon the question of an oil burner,—or refilling your bin with coal, will come up again and should be settled in your mind once and for all, right now.

Respectfully,
HOGAN'S SHEET METAL & PLUMBING WORKS.

P. S. Don't get confused on the name. The only satisfactory time-proven, automatic oil burner is named "WILLIAMS OIL-O-MATIC."

Add Amazing Endurance to Unequaled Results

The success of the Chrysler Six, which has made it literally the talk of the country, is well founded.

It is not due to some single engineering innovation of a spectacular nature. It is a success that involves every phase of performance and ownership.

It is based on such fundamentals as power production and application, weight distribution, space engineering and the essentials of economy.

It is a success that has completely changed prevalent ideas of automotive design. It is deemed essential for motoring. It has swept the discard the cumbersome and the wasteful.

To cap the climax comes such records as the recent performance at Fresno, Calif., when a stock model covered 1,000 continuous miles in 1007 minutes, 54 seconds. To unprecedented results is now added positive proof of amazing stamina and dogged endurance.

Escanaba High School Beats Menominee 7 To 0

ANCIENT JINX LAID TO REST

Miethe Carries Ball 88 Yards on Punt for Only Score of Game.

Menominee, Oct. 18.—(Special)—Gathering in a Menominee punt on his own 12-yard line, Captain Herman Miethe of the Escanaba high school football team ran 88 yards for the only touchdown of the annual battle between the two ancient rivals here this afternoon. Andrews added a point by kicking the goal, and Escanaba won the contest 7 to 0.

Miethe's run came early in the third period of one of the hardest fought gridiron struggles the 4,000 bugs in the bleachers at Walton Blesch field ever saw. Menominee, well down in its own territory, had failed to gain on three previous plays and Peterson punted. Miethe raced across the field, snatched the ball out of the air and with Jack Andrews running at his side, cut over to the west sideline when he turned sharply towards the Menominee goal at the north end of the lot. Andrews knocked off two tacklers, Dunn got one and Miethe himself pushed off two others. Tarzan Johnson blocked a sixth and Miethe was free on the 50-yard line. On he sped. None of the state-line aggregation had a chance to overhaul the flying youngster, whose legs hold the Upper Peninsula 100-yard dash record. The brilliance of the play in itself was dazzling. Coming, as it did, at an unexpected moment, it was a knockout.

Miethe previously had reeled off 40 yards, and a few minutes later galloped 27 which with his 88 yard victory sprint were the longest runs of the game.

Only One Threat. Menominee threatened seriously at one stage. In the last quarter, a long pass, Utrecht to Beck for a 40 yard gain, put the oval on the Escanaba 3-yard line, but the officials ruled the play illegal because a Menominee end was offside. Just before the close of the battle, the state-liners recovered an Escanaba backfield fumble on the 11-yard line but failed to put the oval across, passing on the fourth down, over the goal line. That was the end of the Houstonites' most savage drive.

Nor did Escanaba menace the Menominee goal again. In fact it would be difficult to imagine a more evenly fought scrap, or a more thrilling one. Neither team was able to gain any material yardage through the line, both sets of backs being stopped or thrown for losses on many occasions. Both also presented a snappy interference on their end runs and made more headway, but not sufficient to be termed consistent. Each registered seven first downs during the battle.

Ahern Menominee Star. Captain Ahern was Menominee's offensive mainstay. He played a whale of a game. The Escanaba linemen—all of them—acquitted themselves with glory. So did the backs, for that matter.

The result was the death rattle of the Menominee jinx which has been hanging over Esby high for 16 years. The Orange & Black now have won two straight from the state-liners.

In the crowd were at least 1,000 Escanabans, who were headed by the Municipal band. The Menominee band also was on the job and the cheering was rousing.

Following is the story of the game in detail:

FIRST PERIOD.

Captain Miethe of Escanaba won the toss and elected to kick off. Captain Ahern selecting the north goal, Berrigan kicked off to Utrecht who was dumped by Miethe on the 20-yard line. Wagener ripped off end for 6 yards and Peterson made it first down. Smith gained 4 off tackle and Dunn spilled Wagener for a 4-yard loss. Peterson punted to Miethe who ran the ball 8 yards to his 24-yard line. Miethe raced 41 yards off right end. Ahern broke through and threw Miethe for a 5-yard loss. Miethe came back with 5 yards, followed by 2 and Johnson punted to Utrecht on his 20-yard stripe. Peterson returned the punt to Andrews. It was Ahern again who made the tackle. Miethe plunged 3 yards, Andrews got 2 on a cross-back, Ahern broke through and broke up a pass attempt which cost Escanaba 6 yards and Johnson punted to Smith who returned the ball 5 yards to the 35-yard line, Vandebom bringing him down. Smith raced 3 yards off end, Wagener added a yard and Utrecht made it first down on a sneak. Tarzan Johnson threw Wagener for a yard loss, Jack Berrigan stopped Smith and Dumphy spilled Wagener. Fourth, and still 10 to go when Peterson punted out of bounds on his 45-yard line.

Smith galloped 6 yards off end, Peterson plunged twice for a first down. Vandebom spilled a triple pass for a loss of 3 yards. Two passes were incomplete and Peterson punted to Andrews who was thrown out of bounds on his 35-yard line. Menominee was offside and Escanaba got a gift of 5 yards. Berrigan plucked a yard, Miethe lost 4 yards on a punt formation. Ahern again. Reinsmann was hurt. Time out. Andrews got 3 yards and Johnson punted to Utrecht who was stopped by Jack Berrigan on the Menominee 25-yard line. Here the quarter ended. Score: Escanaba 0, Menominee 0.

SECOND PERIOD.

Menominee's ball, first down. Utrecht ran 8 yards off end, Peterson plunged into the waiting arms of Jack Berrigan, but came back off tackle for 3 yards and first down. Smith fumbled on a bad pass from center for a 3-yard loss. Peterson failed to gain on a line plunge and punted to Andrews who fumbled and recovered on the 40-yard line. Again it was Ahern who did it. Johnson punted to Utrecht. Folio dropped him on the 35-yard chalk-mark. Time out again for Reinsmann.

Miethe spilled Smith for a 6-yard set-back. Wagener failed to gain off end and Peterson punted to Andrews who returned the ball 12 yards to his 30-yard line. Menominee again took time. Johnson returned the punt to Utrecht on the Menominee 45-yard line. Wagener lost a yard on a double pass, Folio doing the damage. Smith failed to pierce the grade and Peterson punted to Andrews who returned the ball to his 45-yard line with a pretty 15-yard sprint. Menominee took out time for the fourth time, and Beck went in for Wagener. A pass down the sideline to Jack Berrigan was incomplete. Menominee broke up another Escanaba pass. Miethe carried the ball out of bounds and Johnson punted to Utrecht who was stopped by both Escanaba ends on his 20-yard line.

Beck failed to gain off end, and had not better luck on the next attempt. Smith also was stopped on an end run attempt. Peterson punted out of bounds on his own 40-yard line. Berrigan plucked a yard, Folio added another, Miethe 7 yards off tackle and fumbled. Demarcho recovering the ball, Utrecht attempted pass, was surrounded and threw the ball to Slack who was ineligible. The penalty was loss of the ball to Escanaba. Curran went in for Lemke and Kuehle for Reinsmann.

Miethe galloped off end for a 27-yard gain and added 3 yards more, putting the ball in the middle of the 19-yard line. Andrews' attempt to dropkick failed, but Escanaba was off side on the play and took a 5-yard penalty. Miethe went off end 3 yards, two passes were incomplete and Menominee took the ball on downs. Peterson plucked 4 yards through guard and the half was over. Escanaba 0, Menominee 0.

THIRD PERIOD.

Peterson kicked off to Berrigan who grabbed the ball on Escanaba's 1-yard line and ran 18 yards. Miethe hit tackle for 2 yards, repeated with 6 and Johnson punted to Menominee's 40-yard line, the ball going out of bounds. Utrecht gained 5 yards and went out of bounds. Dunn stopped Beck on the next play. Beck failed to gain through center. Peterson punted to Miethe who caught the ball on his own 12-yard line and ran the 88 yards for a touchdown. Andrews place kicked for the additional point. Score: Escanaba 7; Menominee 0. Reinsmann was rendered unconscious when he was blocked by Dunn and was carried off the field. Kuehle replaced him.

Peterson kicked off to Vandebom who returned the ball 15 yards to his 21-yard line. Boyden was injured and retired, McKinney going in. Johnson punted, Utrecht fumbled and Vandebom recovered off end. Folio added 5, and Berrigan got one. Johnson punted to Utrecht who was halted by Eddie Berrigan on the 18-yard line. Beck ran 6 yards off end, Peterson added 3, and Johnson recovered a Menominee backfield fumble caused by a bad pass from center. Converse replaced Nelson at center. Miethe ran 2 yards off end, plucked 6 through tackle, made two off end and Menominee was penalized an additional 5 yards for offside.

Berrigan plunged two yards. Slack stopped Berrigan and Miethe lost two yards off end. Andrews tried another drop kick but the boot went wide, bounding over the goal-line for a touchback. On the 20-yard line, Utrecht plucked 5 yards, Peterson dove through for 3 and Smith made it first down. Menominee lost 5 yards for offside. Beck gained 6 yards, Smith failed to gain and Peterson punted to Andrews who was thrown on the 40-yard line by Ahern. Miethe punted out of bounds on Menominee's 40-yard mark. Smith got 2 yards off end, Beck added 7 on the other side and Peterson plunged for first down. Miethe threw Smith for a 2-yard loss. Here the third period ended with the ball on Escanaba's 40-yard line. Menominee's second down with 11 to go.

FOURTH PERIOD.

Peterson was stopped by Jack Berrigan, a pass was incomplete and Peterson punted out of bounds on the 11-yard line. It was a nifty boot. Johnson returned the punt to Utrecht who was thrown by Vandebom on the Menominee 45-yard line. Beck took the ball out of bounds, and Miethe broke up a pass. Utrecht passed to Beck who ran 40 yards to his own 3-yard line but Menominee was off-side and the play was illegal. Three passes were broken up by the Esby defense, and Peterson punted to Andrews. McKinney went in for Boyden.

Miethe went 5 yards off end, Folio dashed through for 3 and Miethe plucked for a first down. There was a backfield fumble and Johnson punted to Utrecht who was crashed by Vandebom before he got started. Miethe intercepted a Menominee pass on the sideline and followed it up by running 3 yards around end. Berrigan added 3 through tackle and Johnson punted to Utrecht who carried the ball by a spectacular run, back to mid-field. Wagener went in for Beck at half. Berrigan intercepted a Menominee pass and returned the ball 12 yards. Miethe got 4 yards off side. Andrews ran 12 yards on a reverse play. First down. Folio took the oval out of bounds for a 1-yard gain and Andrews repeated on the reverse play with a 20-yard dash. First down. Vandebom was thrown for a loss on a fake pass, end around play. Miethe got the loss back on the next down, repeated with 2 yards but on the fourth down, a pass was incomplete.

ST. JOE BEATS STEPHENSON

Final Score 19 to 0 in Favor of Local Parochials.

Playing in Stephenson territory throughout the entire game, St. Joseph High school decisively defeated the Menominee county claimants for Class B honors yesterday afternoon by the score of 19 to 0.

Although outweighed almost to a man, the Esby parochials outplayed the visitors in practically every department of the game, and showed their superiority in both defensive and offensive play. Wurlley and O'Brien were the offensive stars for the locals while Sayer and Esbrook gained most of the ground for the visitors. Lienna played a brilliant game at right end.

St. Joseph's scored a total of 12 first downs, while their opponents only registered 4, all of which were made in the early half of the game. Wurlley and O'Brien shared honors as local ground gainers, each carrying the ball for a total of over 160 yards. Sayer went through the line for most of Stephenson's gains. The first Purple and Gold touchdown came in the first minute of play when, after a Stephenson fumble, the locals got the ball on the visitors' 13-yard line. Wurlley scored on a short end run after advancing the ball for the 7-yard line. In the first second of play in the second quarter, with the ball on the one-foot line, Blomstrom took the ball across for the second marker. During the third period of play the locals were held scoreless and in the last, after Esbrook had carried the ball to Stephenson's 7-yard line on an end run, with four opposing players hanging on to him, O'Brien took it across the goal.

FIRST QUARTER.

ALBION WINS THRU SNAPPY COMEBACK

Albion, Mich., Oct. 18.—Going into the fourth quarter with the score 12 to 0 against them, Albion College staged a brilliant comeback this afternoon, scoring two touchdowns and defeating Central State Normal, 13 to 12.

Forward passes brought the Methodists the victory after they apparently were out of the running for the first three quarters. Robinson, fleet halfback from Ohio, scored both counters for Albion. The first came after a penalty given the Normals for interference which brought the ball to the Normal's 10-yard line where Robinson carried the ball over on a line smash. The second touchdown resulted from a forward pass on a long toss from Perkins to Robinson. Robinson kicked the first goal.

The heavy Normal team started with a rush and rolled up two touchdowns before Albion got started. The Teachers ploughed through the Purple and Gold line at will and accurate deadly forward passing aided in making their two touchdowns in the first quarter.

MARQUETTE U WINS OVER JOHN CARROLL

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 18.—Marquette University's new $350,000 stadium was appropriately dedicated here today with the undefeated Golden Avalanche defeating John Carroll University of Cleveland, O., 10 to 3. Marquette scored on a place kick by Helmsch in the second quarter and a touchdown in the third quarter by Gerlach, who ran 40 yards after taking a pass from Helmsch. Bright booted John Carroll's place kick. Captain Dilweg featured for Marquette.

The new neckties all have very large and decorative clasps and frequently have three strands of beads where they only had one formerly.

NORTHWESTERN IS CONQUERED, 7 TO 3, BY BOILERMAKERS

Madison, Wis., Oct. 18.—With a revamped and rejuvenated team, Wisconsin fought Minnesota to a tie here today the final score being 7 to 7. While Wisconsin held a clear advantage over the visitors in the first half Minnesota came back and swept the Badgers off their feet in the last periods. The Gophers threatened to score on three different occasions in the last half.

The Wisconsin counter came late in the first quarter after a trick forward pass. Harris to Leo Harmon, who raced 20 yards for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, straight football brought the ball to Wisconsin one yard line but they were unable to count and the Badgers took the ball on downs. The second half was played almost entirely in Wisconsin territory.

Minnesota was unable to make any headway by the aerial route. Wisconsin intercepted four of the six attempts and the other two were incomplete. Lidberg and Schute were the mainstays for Gopher gains, the former reeling off long advances on numerous occasions. Leon Harmon and Captain Harris were foremost in the Wisconsin playing. Harmon holding an edge over Ascher on points and counting the lone touchdown.

Before the game was well underway, a stiff breeze settled down and the atmosphere was too hot for fast ball.

U. OF DETROIT WINS IN FOURTH PERIOD

DETROIT, OCT. 18.—Columbia College of Duquesne, Iowa, pitted speed and an ample fund of deceptive plays, ground and air, against University of Detroit's power at Dwan Field Saturday afternoon and after waging a heroic fight for three periods wilted under the relentless attack of Detroit's in the fourth and succumbed, 19-3.

Until the very end the Red and White was never permitted to relax. Columbia always was a severe threat. Fast backs with a change of pace that often threw the Detroit defense into confusion, forward pass plays which had the earmarks of something else until after they had developed, players who could and did pass and receive from all angles, gave 4,000 spectators sufficient excitement.

ALMA WINS FROM TEACHERS, 9 TO 0

ALMA, Mich., Oct. 18.—The Alma College football team defeated one of the best teams the Michigan State Normal has had for some years here today 9 to 0, eliminating the Teachers as contenders for the Michigan intercollegiate title won by Alma last year.

The Maroon and Cream played ragged football at times, but tightened when necessary. In the first quarters and in the final period, frequent fumbles held down Alma's scoring chances. A 40-yard dropkick in the second period by McDonald featured the same. The veteran Alma fullback and Captain picked all of Alma's points, scoring a touchdown in the third period on line smashes.

FRENCH CHAMPION AGAIN BEATEN BY WISE COUNSELLOR

Laurel, Md., Oct. 18.—Epinard, the French champion thoroughbred, suffered his fourth successive defeat in as many starts in this country when he was vanquished in the $10,000 Laurel stakes this afternoon by F. A. Burton's Wise Counsellor, winner of the first of the international specials at Belmont Park last September. Epinard finished a badly beaten fifth in a field of seven. He was ridden by Clarence Kummer.

After the race, Eugene Leigh, Epinard's trainer, said that the French champion suffered a split quarter and would be retired for the remainder of the season. The mishap occurred in turning out of the back stretch. Wise Counsellor led from the fall of the flag to the finish over the mile route in 1:38 2-5 a full second back of the track record. Wise Counsellor was a length and a half in front of the Glen Riddle Farm's Big Blaze, which, in turn, was two lengths in front of Gifford A. Cochran's Sun Flag. Harry Payne Whitney's Initiate was fourth.

LAWRENCE SPRINGS SURPRISE ON IOWA

Iowa City, Oct. 18.—The University of Iowa football team today defeated Lawrence College of Wisconsin, 13 to 5, in a game which surprised the Hawkeyes because of the strength shown by the Wisconsin school. Iowa's score consisted of a touchdown, two goals from field and a point after touchdown. Lawrence made one goal from field and a safety.

A dog which survives salmon poisoning is thereafter immune.

BADGER-GOPHER GAME ENDS, 7-7

Madison, Wis., Oct. 18.—With a revamped and rejuvenated team, Wisconsin fought Minnesota to a tie here today the final score being 7 to 7. While Wisconsin held a clear advantage over the visitors in the first half Minnesota came back and swept the Badgers off their feet in the last periods. The Gophers threatened to score on three different occasions in the last half.

The Wisconsin counter came late in the first quarter after a trick forward pass. Harris to Leo Harmon, who raced 20 yards for a touchdown. In the fourth quarter, straight football brought the ball to Wisconsin one yard line but they were unable to count and the Badgers took the ball on downs. The second half was played almost entirely in Wisconsin territory.

Minnesota was unable to make any headway by the aerial route. Wisconsin intercepted four of the six attempts and the other two were incomplete. Lidberg and Schute were the mainstays for Gopher gains, the former reeling off long advances on numerous occasions. Leon Harmon and Captain Harris were foremost in the Wisconsin playing. Harmon holding an edge over Ascher on points and counting the lone touchdown.

MIAMI BEACH CLUB ISSUES CHALLENGE

DETROIT, Oct. 18. The Miami Beach (Florida) Yacht Club on behalf of Carl G. Fisher today filed with W. D. Edenburg, secretary of the American Powerboat Association, a challenge for the gold cup, emblematic of the speedboat championship of the North American continent. The cup now is held by the Columbia Yacht Club of New York, having been won here this year by Calh S. Bragg's "Baby Bootlegger."

The challenge, according to Edenburg, insures a race next year in New York waters, probably in Manhasset Bay.

OHIO STATE DOWNS WESLEYANS, 10 TO 0

Columbus, O., Oct. 18.—Ohio State, one of the two western conference gridiron eleveners that did not engage in a contest with another Big Ten squad this week, defeated Ohio Wesleyan's valiant little Ohio conference team here today 10 to 0. Both teams played a strong defensive game but their offenses were disappointing to their followers.

Ollie Klee's all around playing featured the game, his tackling was good and he scored all the points made during the game. Ohio State tried two field goals, one of which was successful from the 35 yard line, and two place kicks while passing put Ohio Wesleyan near enough for a try to try two place kicks and a drop kick. Ohio State's strong line, however, rushed the Ohio Wesleyan kicker too much.

COLUMBIA BOWS TO PENNSYLVANIA, 10-7

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—Columbia University's football team threw a scare into the ranks of the University of Pennsylvania here today but went down fighting on the short end of a 10 to 7 score.

With the first kickoff, the contest assumed the aspects of desperate combat and brought 45,000 rooters to their feet, gasping. Pease, Columbia quarterback, plucked the ball out of the air direct from the toe of Krueser, who booted the leather for Pennsylvania from his own ten yard line. Pease dodged and straight armed his way 80 yards for a touchdown. He kicked the goal and gave the Haughton-coached squad a 7 to 0 lead over the Quakers.

Captain McGraw was injured during the game and forced from the field, but his hurts were believed not to be serious.

The Fighting Eleven defeated the Depot Stars yesterday by the score of 27 to 12. Hamlin Sullivan and Pettin proved to be the leading stars.

The public auditorium in Cleveland, O., seats 11,500 people.

A LOT OF FOLKS OUGHT TO USE THEIR ADVICE INSTEAD OF GIVING IT AWAY!

When the same proposed amendment was submitted to the voters in the general November election the one seeking to compel all children between the ages of 7 and 16 to attend public school is probably the most controversial. Known as the anti-parochial school amendment it has awakened a zealous campaign. Supporting it is the Michigan Public School Defense League and presumably the Ku Klux Klan. Opposed to it are the various Catholic and Lutheran organizations, many individuals of many faiths who do not believe in the principle of the proposal and a majority of the candidates on the state ticket.

AGGIES COME FROM BEHIND TO DEFEAT CHICAGO Y, 34 TO 3

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 18.—After Chicago Y held the M. A. C. scoreless in the first quarter while they advanced all will and kicked a field goal, the Farmers came back in the second quarter, scoring three touchdowns which, added to one gained in each of the succeeding periods, gave the Aggies a 34 to 3 victory.

After the Aggies attained their commanding lead in the second quarter Coach Young removed his first string men to save them from injury so that the East Lansing school will be able to put its full strength in the field against Northwestern University at Evanston next Saturday.

Open work formations for forward passes puzzled the Farmers players considerably, but when the visitors threatened to cross the Aggie goal line the defense held and the visitors were thrown back.

FAST BACKFIELD BEATS SOLDIERS

New York, Oct. 18.—The brilliant Notre Dame backfield dominated the Army line today and romped away with a 13 to 7 victory in one of the hardest fought of the intersectional series between the two teams. More than 50,000 people saw the game at the Polo Grounds.

Army kept the Hoosiers in a kicking hole in the first quarter and came out of the ruck in the final period to score its only touchdown. In the second and third quarters the field was a parade ground for Rockne's blue jerseys with the Army looking on.

Stuhldreher, brainy little quarterback of the westerners, sprayed speed at the Cadets. Miller skirted the left end, Crowley circled the right and Layden pierced the center repeatedly for long gains that earned 13 first downs against seven for the Army.

Harry Wilson, former Penn State star, accounted for three of the Army first downs. Harding, substitute quarterback, ran 14 yards on a trick play which succeeded in drawing the Notre Dame end in and permitted the Army score in the final quarter.

The rest of the Army attack was led by Stuhldreher kept the Notre Dame passing game hidden except in the second quarter when he reached in the bag for a 12 yard heave to Layden and another to Miller which developed into a 28 yard gain. These paved the way for the first touchdown. After that, with the ruling game functioning smoothly, Notre Dame tried three passes, two of which were intercepted. Layden and Captain Walsh intercepted two of the seven Army attempts, only one of which was completed. Captain Adam Walsh, Notre Dame center, was the outstanding lineman of the combat. He went into the game with a bandaged hand and was laid cold twice, but continued at a constant thorn to the Army.

SCHOOL AMENDMENT MOST CONTROVERSIAL OF LEADING ISSUES

Lansing, Mich.—Of the three proposed constitutional amendments to be submitted to the voters in the general November election the one seeking to compel all children between the ages of 7 and 16 to attend public school is probably the most controversial. Known as the anti-parochial school amendment it has awakened a zealous campaign. Supporting it is the Michigan Public School Defense League and presumably the Ku Klux Klan. Opposed to it are the various Catholic and Lutheran organizations, many individuals of many faiths who do not believe in the principle of the proposal and a majority of the candidates on the state ticket.

When the same proposed amendment was submitted to the voters in 1920 it was defeated by an overwhelming majority. The vote was 510,000 against its adoption and 353,000 for. Only a few counties went in favor of the measure. They included Genesee, Antrim, Barry, Gratiot, Ingham, Sanilac, and Newaygo. Wayne went 192,532 to 100,620 against it, and Kent 20,300 to 23,996.

The campaign was bitter in 1920 and appears to be just as bitter this year. Organized both for and against the amendment have been completed and are functioning in every county of the state.

The opponents of the amendment counter with assertions that the curricula and staffs of the parochial schools are now under state supervision; that the compulsory attendance in the public schools of all the children would be affected would mean an enormous increase in the school burden and require immediate expansions of buildings and equipment; and that the idea back of the suggested measure is contrary to the principles of freedom.

JOHN SCHUSTER
WINS 3 PRIZES
WITH BEAGLES

Beagles owned by John Schuster of Manistique won three of the six first prizes in the second field trials of the Wisconsin Snowshoe Beagle Club, held at Woodruff, Wisconsin.

The local dogs completed in a field of 64 entries, and 35 beaglers from Wisconsin and Michigan were present at the gathering.

Following are the prizes won by the Manistique men: "Superfine's Belle" (John Schuster) first place in the 15 inch all-age class for female.

"Scaramouche" Is
Movie For Monday

Acclaimed as one of the masterpieces of fiction, "Scaramouche" comes to Manistique Monday evening for a showing at the Gero theatre.

"Scaramouche" is a story of the French Revolution. It tells the romance of Andre-Louis Moreau (Ramon Novarro) and Aline de Kercaudou (Alice Terry).

The fires of rebellion among the lower and middle classes of Paris are finally fanned into open revolt.

Golf Course By Next Summer Is Now A Certainty

Plans for a golf club at Manistique are progressing very satisfactorily, and it was predicted yesterday that Manistique people will be playing on this home golf course by next year.

A subscription list has been circulated to ascertain the number of men who are interested, and there are indications that 65 or 75 memberships will be secured.

Members of the committee were in conference with Messrs. Chas. Fredrickson and Herbert Calvert, owners of "Old Deerfield" yesterday forenoon, on matters relative to the establishment of a golf club, and the result of this conference will also be reported to the C. C. members on Monday.

MASONS PAY TRIBUTE. All Manistique Masons have been requested to meet at the Masonic hall at 1:30 this afternoon to take part in the funeral services for R. G. Casemore, which will be held at the Methodist church.

Copper Fastenings
Immersed 90 Years
Are Not Corroded

(By The Associated Press.) Monterey, Cal.—The historic French ship, the "Natalie," said to have been the vessel on which Napoleon escaped from exile on the island of Elba in 1815, was dug from the surf sands of Monterey Bay here recently.

For the third time in the last 25 years the tides had exposed the bulk, at least what the waters of nearly 100 years had left of it, and H. J. Leppert, a blacksmith, took advantage of the opportunity.

Finally they assembled on the beach eleven "knees," four large timbers, 13 copper bolts, and smaller parts of the vessel.

She was subsequently dismantled and part of her timber was used to build the Abrego house in Monterey. Her bow is in the M. H. de Young memorial museum in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco.

COUNTY BOARD
MAKES NO CUT
OF SALARIES

A movement to reduce the salaries of certain county officers was frustrated on the final day of the Schoolcraft county board meeting, and there are indications that 65 or 75 memberships will be secured.

The matter of an appropriation for the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau was again taken up on Friday, with the result that the amount was increased from $200 to $400.

A delinquent tax report submitted by Miss Laura Williams, county treasurer, was accepted, and a motion passed to have charged back taxes re-assessed.

Following are the total tax apportioned to each township:

Table with 2 columns: Township Name, Total Tax. Includes Doyle, Germain, Hiawatha, Inwood, Manistique, Mueller, Sney, Thompson, City.

Total $138,430.83. Of the above total, $22,317.19 is state tax, $75,000 county tax, $40,000 county road tax, and $1,113.64 county fair tax.

Due to the fact that there was no money available to pay off bills, the supervisors went home Friday afternoon without their usual checks for the week's work on the board.

School Teachers
To Be Club Guests

Teachers of the Manistique public schools will be the guests at the Manistique Women's Club on Tuesday afternoon at their annual "Teacher's Day" meeting.

The following program, in charge of the music committee, has been arranged: Vocal Duet, Mrs. Bolitho, Mrs. Gillette; Piano solo, Mrs. Paul Baldwin; Reading, Mrs. J. H. Casemore Funeral
To Be Held This Afternoon at 2:30

The Robert G. Casemore funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30, with services at the Methodist church. Members of the local Masonic order, of which the deceased was a member, will take part in the services, joining with other Manistique people in paying tribute to the memory of this departed citizen.

Mr. Casemore was a native of Canada, born at Wellaby, Ontario, on August 23, 1862. He came to Manistique about 35 years ago, and resided in this community constantly since that time.

Wm. N. Caffey, 86,
Dies at Home on

On M-25 at Seney

Four construction companies submitted bids for work to be done on trunk line 25 in Seney township, Chelan Construction Co., Hill and Belknap, S. J. Grove, and Mills, were the bidders whose proposals were submitted for the approval of the highway department.

RESURFACE
SAND STREETS
WITH STONE

Crushed stone and gravel excavated from Ninth street is being used to resurface all East and West Third streets and North Tenth street between Third avenue and M-35, which have been impassable because of sand.

The original sand base on the average of two feet above the graded street was surveyed and cut down and prepared for a six inch surface. Work on Third street has been completed and the crushed stone is being hauled in on North Tenth street.

Preparatory work of grading the sand streets is done by the city forces, the material is given the city and hauled free of charge by the paving contractor and the workmen leveling is done by the city workmen, completing the work at a cost little more than $75. It is estimated that a duplicate of the work done with the city furnishing the material would cost about $500.

The stretch of North Tenth street between M-35 and the road to Kipling will not only give the city an improved street but will form a detour. Ninth street is torn up near the Buckeye. It will also take traffic from Ninth street coming from M-35, and will aid in giving better fire protection service.

Any material left will be put on North Eighth street connecting with Third which may be used as a detour.

ACTION IS
IN FILM

Smiles and orange blossoms? It's leap year and open season on bachelors. But bachelors aren't hard to convince when girls as attractive as Evelyn Brent consort with Dan Cupid to go forth and conquer. Miss Brent plays the feminine lead opposite John Gilbert in the Fox production, "The Lone Chance," which comes to the Lyric today.

TOTAL TAX RATE LOWER
THIS YEAR

Gladstone's general tax rate for the year, including school county ad state and the city assessment which was collected in July will be $70.70 for each $1,000 of property valuation, according to the figures compiled by Eric M. Johnson, city assessor.

For those who failed to pay their city taxes in the summer, the total amount due will be $70.70, plus $1,000, plus a four percent delinquent fee on the city tax. For the majority who settled their city assessments, the winter tax will mean payment of $56.20 per $1,000 in December and January.

BIRTHS ARE RECORDED AT CITY HALL

New arrivals in Gladstone whose birth certificates were recorded yesterday at the city hall are: Ruth, a daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dahlbeck, on October 12.

NAVARRO IS

With a highly-charged story of passionate love, a background of great scenic beauty, played by a cast of stars and made by one of the industry's cleverest directors, "Thy Name Is Woman," the new Metro picture which comes to the Community Theatre for two days, beginning Monday, promises to be one of the most thrilling productions of the year.

It is the latest film to be turned out by Fred Niblo, the director who has such successes in his credit as "The Mark of Zorro," "The Three Musketeers," and recently, "Strangers of the Night." The cast includes such favorites as Ramon Novarro, Barbara La Marr, Edith Roberts, William V. Mong, Wallace MacDonald, Robert Edison and Claire MacDowell.

Fred Aslett, Victor Bergstrom and Carl Erickson motored to Iron Mountain yesterday to attend the Gladstone-Iron Mountain game.

PLAID FLANNEL. Plaid flannel is very much liked for traveling coats and caps and for straightline sport frocks.

MRS. NEVEAUX
WILL ATTEND
CONFERENCE

Mrs. Max Neveaux was chosen delegate of the Gladstone Woman's club to the state tuberculosis conference which will be held at Ann Arbor, October 24 and 25, at the regular meeting of the club held Friday night at the Neveaux home.

The conference will have on its program noted speakers and matters of state-wide importance in the tuberculosis work will be taken up. The seal sale at Christmas time will be one of the subjects of discussion.

The club members Friday night decided to postpone the annual election of officers until the first meeting in May. One new member, Mrs. J. Paul Bushong, was taken into the club.

At the close of the business meeting an enjoyable social time was held. Mrs. Neveaux, the hostess, serving a delicious lunch.

PRECAUTIONS
ASKED IN CASE OF MEASLES

Increase in the number of cases of measles reported among school children has led to a request for added precaution and continued co-operation between parents and teachers and health authorities by Mrs. Margaret Kanney, school nurse.

Many of the school children have been taken ill but care will prevent any noticeable spread of the cases. "Measles are dangerous," Mrs. Kanney said yesterday in talking over the situation, "especially to children. This idea of 'it's only a child's disease; let them get it and have it over with' is all wrong. Most children would be far better off if they never had any of the so-called children's diseases."

"It is not the illness itself," Mrs. Kanney explained, "although that is something to be avoided if possible, but the serious complications resulting from which a person sometimes suffers for a life time. The disease makes a person extremely susceptible to pneumonia and like ailments and often effects the eyes."

Parents are asked by the school nurse, as a precautionary measure, to keep the children who are taken ill at home ten days from the beginning of the illness, and to keep other children from visiting anyone who is ill.

Report at Office. It is also asked that children, who have had measles and are returning to school, go at once to the office of the nurse rather than directly to their rooms where, if they have not entirely recovered, other children will be exposed.

With this continued co-operation and with precautions both in school and at home, it is believed that an increase in the number of cases among the children will be prevented.

INTAKE PIPE
IS LOWERED;
WORK NEAR END

Lowering of the new intake pipe which is replacing a stretch of the old pipe damaged by ice and wind, was accomplished successfully Friday afternoon.

The entire length of pipe was connected and the whole stretch of new pipe lowered at one time. The contractors are now doing light dredging to grade places in which sand has been washed in.

The final steps in the work, making connections off shore and at the pumping house will be done later, with every indication that the job will be completed before the time limit named in the contract, November 15.

Gloria Swanson's Newest Picture Comes To Delft Theatre First Of Week

TODAY'S PROGRAMS.
At the Delft—"Changing Husbands," Leatrice Joy in a matrimonial comedy. Miss Joy has a dual role—two girls of widely differing temperament.
At the Strand—Harry Carey in "The Night Hawk," a popular favorite in an unusually thrilling production.
At St. Joseph's—"The Average Woman," a Saturday evening play, made into a movie with unexcelled direction and an all-star cast. Pictures of the Holy Name Society convention at Washington, D. C., also will be shown.

Gloria Swanson in the Paramount Picture "A Society Scandal"

Gloria Swanson in her latest picture, "A Society Scandal," will be the feature at the Delft theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Swanson has a role in which she can wear a great variety of new gowns, but the elaborate costuming does not in any way detract from the emotional power, and fire that she puts into her big scenes. The story, which was adapted from the famous Alfred Sutrö's "The Laughing Lady," is not the usually jazz-mad society stuff but is a thoroughly logical, gripping and at all times entertaining drama of love, divorce and a woman's reputation.

In the story Miss Swanson enters upon a cold-blooded attempt to infatuate with her charms the young lawyer, who ruined her reputation in the divorce court, succeeds, only to discover that she cannot go through with her purpose of ruining him as he did her. Rod La Roque, one of the most engaging leading men now extant, is the hero, and Ricardo Cortez and Allan Dwan directed. The picture is a Paramount.

Zane Gray's masterpiece. Motion picture players will appear at last before the public as they really are. Known to millions of people through their screen plays, many movie stars unrecognized among crowds owing to enhanced appearance of the silver sheet. Coloring in complexion, hair and eyes not registered by black and white photography account for these alterations in appearance.

The alterations of the color process used in filming Zane Gray's "Wanderer of the Wasteland," in Irvin Willat production for Paramount, will make it possible for the public to see their favorites in the same in colors true to life. Flesh, hair and eye colors are all shown exactly as they are in daily life. Among the players who will appear in "Wanderer of the Wasteland," which is coming to the Delft theatre soon are Jack Holt, Kathryn Williams, Nonh Beery and Billie Dove.

Strand Programs.
The week at the Strand theatre will open, Monday, with "Riders Up," a race track story with Irving Cummings as the featured player. Gerald Beaumont, famous writer of sport fiction particularly well-known to readers of The Red Hook, is responsible for the story, which is that of a youngster who picked winners for others but who was always broke himself. Creighton Hale, George Cooper, Kate Price, Ethel Shannon and Robert Brower are in the cast. The picture was taken at the Tia Juana race track.

William S. Hart in "Wild Bill Hickok," a picture based on the life story of the famous western character of that name, will be seen at the Strand Wednesday and Thursday. The action takes place on the borders of Kansas in and about Dodge City during the reconstruction days following the Civil War. It also marks Hart's return to the screen after a long absence.

Owen Moore in a sparkling comedy, "The Poor Simp," will be the Friday and Saturday attractions at the Strand. Mr. Moore's supporting cast includes a number of well known players and the story, written by J. Shakespeare, is said to be riotously funny.

At St. Joseph's
"The Average Woman," from the Saturday Evening Post story by Dorothy De Jaegera, has been dramatized for the screen and will be shown at St. Joseph's Auditorium today. This powerful photoplay narrates strongly the average woman's over-zealous desire for pleasure and her ultimate realization that there is no pleasure so lasting and enjoyable as the simple pleasure of true love which she finds in her own home away from the tinsel palace of joy. A highly capable cast has been employed by C. C. Burr to interpret the story. The action moves with great swiftness and the many realistic scenes enacted on a most lavish scale tend greatly to make "The Average Woman" one of the desirable and interesting pictures of the year. A special attraction will be the motion pictures taken of the Holy Name Convention and Parade at Washington, D. C. in which the various delegates of the Holy Name branches at Escanaba took part.

ORANGE & BLACK MINSTREL STAR CARNIVAL SHOW

Excellent Cast For Entertainment Selected.

An hour's minstrel show, presented by the Orange & Black Society, will be a feature of the Halloween carnival which is being staged at Escanaba High school Oct. 31 to raise funds to apply on the purchase of an athletic field.
It will be the society's fourth annual show. Previous ones have been presented "independently and the money used for other purposes. This year, however, the athletic field, the principal item in its program of work, will stage the event with the end in view. It will be given at 10 p. m., in the high school auditorium.

A THOUGHT
The Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath.—Mark 2:27.
The poor man's day.—Graham.
This world could be twice as bad as it is. The seasons on Mars are twice as long as ours.

Feature soloists for the minstrel will be Clyde Wilson, Gerald Belanger, Paul Fillion, Jack Williams, Leonard Shanklin and Hugo Swanson.
A clown dance, directed by Miss Ladd, of the department of physical education, will be given by Harold Boyle, Edward Stratton, Robert Valentine, John Hughes, George Rache, George Cotton, Lyman Beggs and Clarence Curran.
Splendid Chorus.
In the chorus will be the following singers: John Anderson, John Baird, Harold Cass, Shelton Cobb, James Campbell, Robert Gessner, Warren Gardner, Wellington Huss, Robert Hodson, Malt Lawrence, Harry Erickson, John Raymond, and Robert Curtis.

The foregoing indicates that the musical portion of the minstrel program will be in exceptionally capable hands. The comedy portion, also, is being well taken care of. The jokes will be original and highly entertaining.

Give Credit where Credit is Due!

THREE per cent of Michigan's population of ten years and over cannot read or write. The nation's average is twice as high—six per cent.
Thirty states have more illiterates than Michigan.
There are 2,203 negro and 14,172 native white illiterates in Michigan.
These are United States Census Bureau figures. They disprove the claims of propagandists that there are more than one-half million people in Michigan who cannot read or write.
Michigan people are broadminded, tolerant, and educated. They are products of schools that are second to none in America.
Public, Private, and Church Schools have worked together in a program of state-wide education. Each deserves credit for the part it has played.
If Michigan were to adopt the School Amendment, private and church schools would have to be closed in less than nine months! Nearly 125,000 pupils would be thrown into an already overcrowded public school system. Chaos would prevail. Work would be disorganized. System would be destroyed. Taxes would go up.
Many children would be put on a part time basis.
Michigan's splendid record for literacy would be threatened.
Preserve our high standard of education by voting "NO!"

VOTENO on the School Amendment!

ONLY QUESTION OF MAJORITY.
Unquestioned radicalism in the United States, as expressed by the candidacy of Robert M. LaFollette...

The people of the United States have decided that they do not wish to court disaster in business, to endanger the fundamental principles of government of a nation that has become the richest and most powerful in the world...

The drift back to sanity has been started. It is now only a question of Calvin Coolidge's majority.

BOB'S FAITH IS UNSHAKEN.
There is one whose faith in Jimmy O'Connell, New York ball player who was forever ousted from baseball for attempting to bribe another player, remains unshaken...

Every man should pride himself in having a boy as a pal—a youth who patterns himself after the elder because that man has become an idol in his eyes.

It certainly won't be many years, only three or four, perhaps, and maybe fewer than that, when trans-Atlantic flights will be made regularly in commercial air liners.

There are obstacles to be overcome. One practical objection is the small carrying capacity, as compared to that of an ocean liner.

Why there are, indeed, who would give almost anything within their power to cross the sea without the risk of undergoing a sleep of sea-sickness.

To re-state a platitude, it's a great age we're living in, what with air-plane flights around the world, dirigibles tripping over the seven seas, and the Eskimos listening to the latest jazz via the air not to mention the almost unbelievable accomplishment of the Washington baseball team winning a world championship.

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER

TEXT: MARK 4:1-20.
And he began again to teach by the sea side; and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine. Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root it withered away.

And some fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some forty, and some an hundred.

And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables? The sower soweth the word.

And these are they by the wayside, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

And these are they likewise that are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word.

And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty and some an hundred.

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Oct. 19: The Parable of the Sower.—Mark 4:1-20.

BY WM. E. GILROY, D. D. Editor-in-Chief of The Congregationalist.

Ears are for hearing. That seems a very sensible proposition. So Jesus says, "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear."

We are accustomed in daily life to attach a great deal of importance to seeing. Social workers have made such shocking discoveries regarding the defects of eyesight in children, and the serious consequences that are liable to follow in suffering, disease and accident if these defects are not corrected, that now widespread examinations are made in the schools, and the aid of the optician and oculist is sought where it is needed.

In an intellectual and spiritual sense, also, we lay special stress on observation. Since the stereopticon and moving picture machines have attained their place the great universities are establishing departments of "visual instruction."

Jesus did not neglect to refer to the necessity of proper vision. He said a great deal about "blindness" and "seeing." But it is doubtful whether any teacher ever paid as much attention as great age we're living in, what with air-plane flights around the world, dirigibles tripping over the seven seas, and the Eskimos listening to the latest jazz via the air not to mention the almost unbelievable accomplishment of the Washington baseball team winning a world championship.

Stage

BY THE NEA PLAY JURY.
New York, Oct. 18.—Money talks in theaterland.

It has a honeyed, luring voice for a few favorites, and a rasping dismissal for the not so favored.

Take "Able's Irish Rose," to repeat the threadbare example. In its third year it is packing them in to capacity, with gross receipts of around $18,000 a week.

The adding machines still are clicking to determine the present number of Anne Nichols' millions from the play.

Mr. Ziegfeld's perennial Follies are in the same class, with weekly gross receipts of around $42,000. But that is upon the costly investment of $225,000. In the field of drama, "What Price Glory?" sets the pace with gross receipts of better than $21,000.

But prospective producers, and the hundred million who contemplate quick fame and wealth by writing plays, may ponder the other tones of money's voice.

"Hassan" was endowed sumptuously, at a cost of $300,000, after London success. It stood the pace for only two weeks and was withdrawn. "Dear Sir," which cost $100,000, had a briefer run and was sold at a loss.

Of two-score shows on Broadway, approximately half are selling tickets through the cut-rate agencies. Among the premature departures either accomplished or determined upon are "Schemers," "That Awful Mrs. Eaton" and "Made for Each Other."

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn undoubtedly are as widely and affectionately known over the country—and that means not merely Chicago and San Francisco but Missoula and Lynchburg—as any other players. This by reason of their taking drama to the provinces, year after year, outdoor and indoor, with sympathetic sincerity.

When with Holland on the train, Vira had told herself he would not be so agreeable to Alvirra Anderson, spinster. Now she wondered if he would have been so bold with Alvirra? Had he thought—were men—more familiar with widows? Did her independent position, let them feel they could take liberties? It was a new and not a pleasant thought.

No, it was not that. Vira decided as she thought of Deering. It was the man himself. He had been held back by the lack of privacy, by the people on the train. Vira, by seeing Holland in his true light now. He was a bit coarse, common, the type of man Aunt Drucilla had always held in horror. Well, she wouldn't see him again, wouldn't go out with him. She would find some way to evade him, move to another hotel if necessary.

But Vira wasn't comfortable in her mind. Had she—Mrs. Vira Anderson, done anything to give acting as he did? Certainly Vira reminded over the days she had spent on the train. She had been grateful for Holland's company, had been glad to have him talk to her. Beyond that she could find nothing in herself to criticize. She did not know that with men of his type (and he wasn't at all a bad man) she had given him encouragement, what he considered encouragement, to engage in a flirtation with her.

And Vira was as ignorant of the fascinating pastime as an infant. When Deering called for her the next afternoon, Vira was conscious of a difference in his bearing. He was more serious than she ever had seen him. An indefinable withdrawal of himself that Vira neither knew how to meet nor understand, made her for the first time a bit awkward in his presence.

It was nothing of which she could speak. His manner was as courteous, he asked her where she preferred to dine, just as he usually did. But Vira was embarrassed, without knowing the reason, and stumbled over her words just as Alvirra might have done.

"I see you have made another acquaintance," Deering said when they were seated in a restaurant. "You mean the man who was with me last night?" flushing redly. "I met him on the train. He was going to Los Angeles. I was very surprised to see him yesterday."

"How did he find you? Pardon my curiosity, but—"

"Oh, I asked him where to go! And he recommended that hotel," Vira interrupted. "But I never expected to see him again, had almost forgotten there was such a person."

Deering's face lightened. Vira saw and wondered.

"I may as well own up," she smiled for the first time. "It gave me somewhat of a jar, seeing you with him, after telling me you knew no one in San Francisco—no men."

"I was very sorry he came. He seemed very nice on the train. Perhaps I was lonely, and so thought him clear than he is," she to be ignored. The season will open Nov. 3, "Aida" will be given. It is announced, and the cast will include Matzenauer, Retberg, Danise and Martinelli, with Tullio, Serafine, a new Italian, conducting.

Frederick Lonsdale, who wrote "Spring Cleaning," takes a quizzical slant at justice and arouses all your sympathies for that slant in his new play, "The Fake." The hero, played with distinction by Godfrey Tearle, arranges and gets away with a well-deserved murder. It's something to think about, and at the same time a workmanlike, sentiment-stirring drama.

The Metropolitan Opera House is too much a national institution rather than what he said. May will find plenty to argue with and point with him.

Another excellent study was done by Lewis Shanks, an American, and published some years ago in Chicago because, at the time, there was a superstitious New York that only Englishmen were capable of producing commentaries on French letters.

To all who would write or would study writing there is one of the greatest lessons to be found in France's criticism of his early work, "Jeanne d'Arc." It goes something like this: "Beware of pastry! Pastry is factitious, adventitious. It is whipped cream that fails to hide the poverty of the cake. It is a hideous plaster garland trying to transform a garret into a palace. It renders the most beautiful pages precarious."

"In my early versions of Jeanne d'Arc I gave them pastry. I wanted to be picturesque. Be pitiless toward these stupidities! Today, they make me sick at heart."

France was one of his own most ruthless critics. He is pictured with shears turning printer's proofs of his writing into jigsaw puzzles.

Also he was a relentless searcher for opinion. He would rise grumbling in the morning, a philosophic question on the tip of his tongue. This he would ask the delivery man, the antique dealer, the house painter and the book-binder. At the end of a week he would be ready to write one of his inimitable papers.

Aldous Huxley takes his finger away from his nose in "Young Archimedes" (Doran), a series of six finely drawn character studies. In "Chrome Yellow," "Artie Hay" and previous books Huxley wielded a very joyful slapstick, swatting manners and conventions and whimsical quite sophisticated and whimsical was he, earning a name in some quarters as a smart aleck and Continental bad boy, while others heralded his comedy far and wide. Here is a more serious mood, with the ironies more biting and the whimsy more ironic. "Fard," a brief study of an old French nursemaid, is probably the best study in the book.

Many Sabatini swashbucklers have crossed the page since Grantstark did a fadeout. One of the early Sabatini novels, "Saint Martin's Summer" (Houghton, Mifflin), has just been given its first American printing. It was written before "Saramouche," but has a leading character of similar type in M. de Garnace, lean, hard man of many fights and nasty temper.

There is something reminiscent of "treasure trove" in the discovery of an ancient and obscure manuscript. And such resource surrounds "The Manuscript of St. Helena" (Appleton) presumed to be the personal confessions of the banished Napoleon. Willard Parker, translator and president of the Bacon Society, relates that the manuscript is dated 1817, two years after Napoleon's banishment; that it reached France about that time but was refused publication; that a copy of it got to London a year later and was published in the French language; thereafter it disappeared only to show up two years ago at a sale of the personal property of two French ladies of Elwood, N. J.

If it was written by Napoleon, himself—and this will doubtless be disputed—then he was a greater combination of bombast and egotism than hitherto pictured by his worst enemy. Superiority and self-righteousness burst from every paragraph and, in his own opinion, he is another case of "Me and Gott."

But the man who blames others gets sorry for what he has done later.

Following Miss Baker will come these attractions: Nov. 20—Valhjalmar Stephansson, the famous arctic explorer, globe trotter, lecturer and author. Readers of his popular book, "The Friendly Arctic," will await his coming with special interest.

Dec. 3—The Cathedral Choir, directed by Ellsworth Gilbert, presenting a "dramatized cathedral choir service" sung to the accompaniment of an especially constructed organ, and a series of selections from both light and grand opera.

Feb. 11—The DeSelle-Folson Operatic Company, which includes Elaine DeSelle, soprano; Hazel Folsom, soprano; Day Williams, cellist; Kenneth Flske, violinist, and Irwin Brunn, pianist.

Feb. 24—Edward Reno, magician and illusionist, dean of the wonderworks of American lyceum and an entertainer of rare ability.

March 6—Wherahiko Rawei, native Samoan Islander, in an entertainment which depicts the arts, crafts, folklore and music.

Season tickets will be sold for $3, with reserve seat privileges. The student tickets will cost $1.50.

Reservations may be made beginning Oct. 25, at the Office Service Company, 815 Ludington st., or at the Wells Drug Company, at Wells.

The course, which presents three very high class musical numbers, the greatest living explorer, the world's greatest magician and a feature number, is one of the best ever arranged for Escanaba and should, accordingly, be one of the most popular.

Books

BY THE NEA BOOK SERVICE.

With the passing of Jacques Anatole Thiebaut, known to the world as Anatole France, there will be thousands of readers seeking to read books concerning the life and work of this contemporary master.

To these, the Book Survey suggests that one of the best portraits to had may be found in a recently published work, "The Opinions of Anatole France" (Knopf), a really remarkable piece of reporting on the part of Paul Gaell. In this the most mordant ironist of his time and one of the kindest humorists of all time is shown at gatherings, pictured intimately expressing his views and revealing the processes of his argumentative method.

Another quite recent portrait is provided by James Lewis May in "Anatole France: The Man and His Work" (Dodd, Mead & Co.). In a biographical first part May concedes that he is dealing with a most difficult subject "because of his multitudinous interests and his bewilderingly rapid change of point of view."

In discussing the immortality of this great wit, poet, stylist, critic, philosopher, May believes it is "France, the poet, who will outlive the rest"—that is, France will live because of his style, performance. Their Shakespeare and "Yellow Jacket" may constitute in the end their strongest claim to remembrance.

However, they're not touring with all fresco equipment any longer. They just opened their Broadway season in Eden Phillips' "The Farmer's Wife," at the Comedy Theater. The setting is in the author's favorite Devonshire countryside countryside. A widower, after numerous rejections from neighborhood beauties, obtains a promise of marriage from his housekeeper. The jocular beauties then embarrass him by offers to reconsider. Laughter is not merely invited but compelled. The chief interest is in the character types.

Ed Wynn is back. Good news in those four words, not only for Broadway but for the audiences in 48 states who wait for him to come to town. Ed does his intellectual clowning this time against the background of "The Grab Bag," a piece cut to the same pattern as "The Perfect Fool." You may think it a trifle better, and certainly it is no less ludicrous.

If "The Red Falcon" doesn't reach all the home towns "in person," it probably will in the celluloid form. It is a gesturing, throbbing, shouting melodrama of Sixteenth Century Sicily. The flashes arise from a "Jekyll and Hyde" personality under the robes of a priest. McKay Morris carries the lead role. Others who deserve commendatory mention are Thais Lawton, Carlotta Monterey and Albert Bruning. The play is by George Broadhurst and Mrs. Trimble Broadhurst, and is produced at the Broadway Theater.

Frederick Lonsdale, who wrote "Spring Cleaning," takes a quizzical slant at justice and arouses all your sympathies for that slant in his new play, "The Fake." The hero, played with distinction by Godfrey Tearle, arranges and gets away with a well-deserved murder. It's something to think about, and at the same time a workmanlike, sentiment-stirring drama.

The Metropolitan Opera House is too much a national institution

When with Holland on the train, Vira had told herself he would not be so agreeable to Alvirra Anderson, spinster. Now she wondered if he would have been so bold with Alvirra? Had he thought—were men—more familiar with widows? Did her independent position, let them feel they could take liberties? It was a new and not a pleasant thought.

No, it was not that. Vira decided as she thought of Deering. It was the man himself. He had been held back by the lack of privacy, by the people on the train. Vira, by seeing Holland in his true light now. He was a bit coarse, common, the type of man Aunt Drucilla had always held in horror. Well, she wouldn't see him again, wouldn't go out with him. She would find some way to evade him, move to another hotel if necessary.

But Vira wasn't comfortable in her mind. Had she—Mrs. Vira Anderson, done anything to give acting as he did? Certainly Vira reminded over the days she had spent on the train. She had been grateful for Holland's company, had been glad to have him talk to her. Beyond that she could find nothing in herself to criticize. She did not know that with men of his type (and he wasn't at all a bad man) she had given him encouragement, what he considered encouragement, to engage in a flirtation with her.

And Vira was as ignorant of the fascinating pastime as an infant. When Deering called for her the next afternoon, Vira was conscious of a difference in his bearing. He was more serious than she ever had seen him. An indefinable withdrawal of himself that Vira neither knew how to meet nor understand, made her for the first time a bit awkward in his presence.

It was nothing of which she could speak. His manner was as courteous, he asked her where she preferred to dine, just as he usually did. But Vira was embarrassed, without knowing the reason, and stumbled over her words just as Alvirra might have done.

"I see you have made another acquaintance," Deering said when they were seated in a restaurant. "You mean the man who was with me last night?" flushing redly. "I met him on the train. He was going to Los Angeles. I was very surprised to see him yesterday."

"How did he find you? Pardon my curiosity, but—"

"Oh, I asked him where to go! And he recommended that hotel," Vira interrupted. "But I never expected to see him again, had almost forgotten there was such a person."

Deering's face lightened. Vira saw and wondered.

"I may as well own up," she smiled for the first time. "It gave me somewhat of a jar, seeing you with him, after telling me you knew no one in San Francisco—no men."

"I was very sorry he came. He seemed very nice on the train. Perhaps I was lonely, and so thought him clear than he is," she to be ignored. The season will open Nov. 3, "Aida" will be given. It is announced, and the cast will include Matzenauer, Retberg, Danise and Martinelli, with Tullio, Serafine, a new Italian, conducting.

Calls Willys-Knight "Smoother Than Most Sixes and Eights"

HIRAM PERCY MAXIM, President of the Maxim Silencer Company, says: "The Lanchester Balancer certainly takes out the vibration. It makes the motor smoother than most six and eight-cylinders on the road today."

No Vibration

Ever since automobiles have been built, engineers have been everlastingly striving to conquer engine vibration. Now the new Willys-Knight achieves positive engine smoothness by a device so simple and efficient that all engineers are wondering why it wasn't invented years ago...
