CONCESSIONS OF VICTORY FOR REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE COME EARLY; OPPONENTS GIVEN CLOSE RUN FOR ELECTORS OF OWN STATE

BULLETINS

Roosevelt Fails to Follow Lead Party Head in New York; West is Slow in Reporting Vote.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 4.—At midnight, with the election returns still coming slowly and whole blocks of states with the deciding electoral votes yet to be heard from, the results in the presidential contest either by apparent trend or concessions by party leaders and newspaper stood this way:

Table showing electoral votes for Coolidge and Dawes: Connecticut 7, Illinois 29, Iowa 13, Kansas 10, Maine 6, Massachusetts 13, Nebraska 8, New Hampshire 4, New York 45, Ohio 24, Pennsylvania 33, Rhode Island 5, Vermont 4.

Table showing electoral votes for Davis and Bryan: Alabama 12, Arkansas 9, Florida 6, Georgia 14, Louisiana 10, Mississippi 10, North Carolina 12, South Carolina 9, Texas 20, Virginia 12.

Table showing electoral votes for LaFollette and Wheeler: Wisconsin 13, Total 114.

Table showing electoral votes for Missouri and Tennessee: Missouri 13, Tennessee 13, Kentucky 13, Total 39.

Washington, Nov. 5.—After reading returns during the entire evening with Mrs. Coolidge in the White House, President Coolidge retired shortly before 1 o'clock this morning. He issued no statement on the election.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—John M. Nelson, national campaign manager for Senator LaFollette, tonight issued the following statement: "Early returns indicate a landslide for Coolidge. We still have hopes, however, of carrying some of the western states."

Washington, Nov. 4.—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee, who received the returns with a few intimate friends at the home of Frank L. Polk in this city, declined late tonight to make any statement on the election.

New York, Nov. 5.—George K. Morris, Republican state chairman, at 1:20 a. m., conceded the re-election of Governor Smith by a plurality between 50,000 and 65,000.

Columbus, O., Nov. 4.—Governor A. V. Donahue, Democrat and former governor Harry L. Davis, Republican, were running one of the closest races in Ohio history tonight as early returns from today's election were tabulated.

The number of electoral votes constituting a majority, necessary to election is 266. Non-party candidates would command the returns as they were shown tonight. President Coolidge would have nothing to say tomorrow. Senator LaFollette at his home in Madison, Wis. said the same thing.

The congressional returns were markedly slow. Those which came in before midnight gave little color to the situation. The first hundred districts failed to show a single upset. Early in the evening the re-election of Senator Borah of Idaho, the Republican gaffly of the senate, was conceded by his opponent. The Omaha World-Herald which supports Davis and Bryan, conceded Nebraska to Coolidge and also announced the re-election of Senator Norris. The re-election of Senator Capper, Republican, of Kansas, chairman of the executive bloc, also became certain.

The early concession of Iowa to President Coolidge by the LaFollette candidate at Des Moines came as a surprise to many political observers who expected Iowa to be one of the states possibly found in the LaFollette column if the senator won the election.

UPPER MICHIGAN—Increasing cloudiness and warmer Wednesday; Thursday rain turning to snow and colder.

UNOFFICIAL RETURNS FROM DELTA COUNTY

Large table with columns for Precinct, Coolidge, Davis, LaFollette, Groesbeck, Frensdorf, Delland, Jarvis, Couzens, Cooley, Scott, Brown, School Amendment (Yes/No), Income Tax (Yes/No), Reapportionment (Yes/No). Lists precincts from Escanaba 1 to Wells Twp.

The returns from North Dakota up to midnight necessarily came from the cities and towns and were only a very small percentage of the voting strength of the state. They gave President Coolidge a big lead. If they were true to precedent, the presidential lead would be reduced, and Senator LaFollette's vote would increase as the returns from the country districts were tabulated.

The Republican managers were claiming a landslide that might eclipse the Harding victory of 1920, but the Democrats were conceding nothing. They realize that in 1924 the country has gone to bed on election night leaving Hughes and his electors only to find that the west overturned all their expectations.

Returns from the congressional elections came in very slowly. At two a. m. the returns reported in this city were:

number only three seats in...
On the face of the first returns from New Jersey, a very early and small return, Coolidge was leading Davis almost four to one.

Albany by 100,000.
On the face of the first returns from New Jersey, a very early and small return, Coolidge was leading Davis almost four to one.

returns from the general elections.
In all of New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, Indiana and Illinois the lead of the Republican nominees was mounting steadily at 11 p. m., eastern standard time, and both the New York Times and the New York World, supporters of John W. Davis, had conceded his defeat by Mr. Coolidge.

They are considered to combine the qualities of endurance and cleverness of the native horse with the speed of the English product.

FORD IS ASKED TO BUY ENTIRE SOUTHERN CITY

(By The Associated Press.)

Richmond, Va.—Henry Ford has been asked to buy Williamsburg, ancient capital of Virginia, and restore to it the quaint and picturesque beauty of the Revolutionary period. It then would be preserved as a living lesson in American history for future generations.

In the place of today's Williamsburg, there would stand the House of Burgesses, rebuilt as it originally stood. Raleigh Tavern once more would stand with its inviting door for the traveler.

Dr. Goodwin, who for years has been interested in the preservation of the remaining marks of Virginia colonial history, is quoted as follows:

"For some time I have cherished the hope that Mr. Ford might be and doubtless will be interested in making a contribution to the United States of the old colonial capital of Virginia.

"Williamsburg was associated with all the great debates, resolutions and actions which resulted in the establishment of our federal government. It is distinctly the most interesting colonial relic which now remains in America, and should be rescued and preserved. Unless something is done within the next few years, it will be too late."

An airplane to and from Paris every 30 minutes, for passengers and freight, is included in the program of development which the British air lines have drawn up for the near future.

NEGAUNEE HAS FINE RECORD

Miners Defeat of Stambaugh and Menominee Lifts Them in Top Class

Negaunee high, conqueror of the strong Menominee and Stambaugh football teams, should be able to provide a rare dish for Escanaba football fans next Saturday, when the Miners clash with Coach Thompson's Hilltoppers on the South Park lot.

Negaunee team is a big, rugged, smashing aggregation, with a pair of individual stars who have been effective in every contest. Frassetto, the Miners' big fullback is an artist at ripping through the line, and Maki, an end, has grabbed dozens of passes out of the air, with disastrous results to Negaunee's opponents. Violetto, a halfback, is a speedster of no mean ability, as is evidenced by the manner in which he scooped up a fumble and raced through the Menominee team for Negaunee's touchdown last week.

Things looked "not so good" at the E. H. S. camp yesterday. There were hints that Thompson would lose the services of two of his best linemen who were reported to be on the class-room "condition" list. If this is true, the Orange & Black will be considerably weakened for the fracas.

Rivalry always has existed between the Negaunee and Escanaba teams. The Miners have always played at top form against the Orange & Black. Thompson, consequently, is keeping the boys hard at it this week, and the boys themselves, realizing how devastating a defeat at the hands of the Marquette county champions would be to their hopes, are showing a grim and business-like willingness which was not in evidence last week.

Big Crowd Needed.
The school fell short by about $50 of taking in enough cash at the gate last Saturday to pay the expenses of the Sault eleven. There are hopes that the re-

Sault Scribe Pays Dandy Tribute To Escanaba Captain

"Seen Through the Sand" was the heading over a flock of short paragraphs about the Soo-Escanaba football game, by the sport scribe of the Sault Ste. Marie News. Some of them follow:

"The Escanaba high school can thank their phenom, Mielke, for the victory. He was the only Escanaba player to show anything at all in the way of football, gaining practically all of the yardage amassed by the Sandy City. In the fourth quarter he didn't call any signals but merely had the ball passed to him and ran at will through right tackle and around the ends, his weight and speed enabling him to elude all tacklers.

"There may have been worse days to play football and worse fields to play on but Soo fans who journeyed the 200 miles to see the battle say that they never saw anything to equal the Esky field. The sand was ankle deep all over the field and this seemed to slow every one except Mielke.

"A crowd of only 600 saw the crowd. Escanaba fans don't seem to appreciate Mielke's prowess.

"Hats off to the Soo rooters! They made about as much noise as the whole Esky outfit. Folks led them.

"Mielke won the game single handed. But the ovation given him when he was replaced by Smith in the closing moments of the game wasn't anything to write home about.

"Several Soo high faculty members braved the Sahara storm. Misses Bradish and Ritchie resembled inhabitants of the Dark Continent when it was all over.

"McIntock, Dayton, and Norman did a neat job of officiating.

And political machines, as you may have heard, use a lot of gas.

FORWARD PASS UNDEVELOPED?

Are Coaches Making As Much Use of Play At It Deserves?

By BILLY EVANS
Are football coaches making the most of the forward pass? Despite the fact that the pass is being used more this year than ever before, it is still regarded by many coaches as a threat.

It is not unusual for teams to resort almost entirely to straight football for three periods, finally cutting loose with open play in the final quarter.

As a rule defeat stares the average team in the face before it begins to make use of the forward pass.

Few coaches use the pass more than Rockne, yet the famous leader of Notre Dame varies his style to keep the opposition guessing.

Most Fear the Pass.
I have seen Notre Dame play several games in which only a very few passes were used and then merely as a threat.

Rockne's teams have a change of pace. For that reason his elevens are always colorful.

Most coaches have a fear of the pass. They regard it as too dangerous a play to be used promiscuously. Also, they prefer to win if possible without uncovering their trick stuff. Much of football strategy has the pass as its basis.

Is the forward pass as dangerous a play as a great many coaches are wont to believe?

A perusal of the records fails to bear out such an opinion. With the season about half over the datum shows that only 12 touchdowns have been scored as a result of intercepted passes.

Defense Is Developed.
The chief fear of the coaches in using a forward pass is that some member of the opposing team will spoil their strategy by picking the ball out of the air and starting down the field.

However, most coaches have developed a defense for the pass that greatly minimizes the chance for the opposition to run it back.

As a matter of fact, with the season half over, only one game has been won as the result of an intercepted pass that resulted in a run for a touchdown.

Dope figures make the forward pass a reasonably safe play to try. Of course, there is always the chance that the pass may go astray. The possibilities of the play, however, are worth the gamble.

Here Was a Thrill.
Undoubtedly the most interesting run of the year so far was the result of an intercepted pass. It happened in the game between Amherst and Hamilton, with Cadigan of Amherst as the ball carrier.

Cadigan intercepted the ball as it was crossing the Amherst goal line, with a Hamilton player waiting back of the line to grab it for a much coveted touchdown.

Tucking the ball under his arm, Cadigan, raced the length of the gridiron through a broken field for a touchdown.

It was a real thrill. Hamilton, badly beaten, seemed about to realize some glory by scoring a touchdown, only to have the opposition get the ball and make the score.

IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 4.—He runs a little electrical shop just around the corner from where I live. The other night I dropped in to buy some bulbs and he told me that he was going out of business. He is going to take a salaried job.

Three years ago his wife, who was 37, ran off with a youth of 19, after being married apparently happily for 17 years.

At that time the electrician had a very pretentious establishment. He gave it up for the smaller place in another community, thinking that his effort to build up a new business would bring peace of mind. That failing, he now turns to work for another man so that he will have to keep at work for a certain number of hours each day.

He tells me that in three years he has not slept more than two hours any night and that he has aged 20 years in that time.

And that's another of those little stories that can be next door to you in New York for years without being revealed.

Fannie Hurst called New York "the vertical city." In a few years it will be known as "the pyramid city." Since the zoning law went into effect a few years ago hundreds of new buildings have gone up, many in the district between Eighth avenue and Broadway and Forty-second and Thirtieth streets.

Two buildings step back every two stories until the top floor occupies about one-half as much space as the first floor.

At Forty-sixth street and Fifth avenue an auto dashed up on the sidewalk and pinned a man against its fender. A plate glass window crashed and cut off the man's leg.

When a policeman ordered the driver of the car to rush the man to a hospital he answered, "I don't think I ought to get my car all covered with blood."

No sooner had he uttered that noble phrase than a bystander stepped up and smashed him full in the face and gave him a bloody nose.

One of my neighbors was up on the roof, pounding a hole in the wall and disturbing early morning sleep. He was installing a radio aerial.

After a time I heard another neighbor open his window and shout, "Hey! Move that wire so it doesn't dangle in front of my window."

The man on the roof readjusted the wire and remarked, "Now, I guess you'll be happy."

The man below angrily slammed his window shut.

The two do not speak now.

The roof of almost every apartment house in New York looks like a harbor for sailing vessels, with its many masts and gearings.

All of this exterior paraphernalia is not installed by radio experts. More than one man has fallen out with his neighbor because of crossed wires of their so-called wireless sets.

GRANDMA'S FARM

Let's take a trip in old memory's ship to a farm that is out in the open. Answer the call of the brisk-like fall when fresh air and pep we are groping.

In the days that are gone, at the break of the dawn we would hitch up old Dobbin and rattle. The shout of hurrah sent the old one-horse shay to the cheerful and bright countryside.

But now things are changed and they're all rearranged. The auto forced Dobbin out soon. It takes but an hour, though we're still on horsepower, and it used to take all afternoon.

Where Dobbin was struttin', nowadays we're put-puttin'. 'Tis funny how things come to pass. Once the horse had a rep but it's now out of step as we just have to step on the gas.

And when we arrive, all the air is alive with the spirit that makes it a 'fac', that though autos take us, the countryside make us just wish that 'old Dobbin' were back.

NEW GHOST STORY.

London.—A laughing ghost in a bowler hat has made his appearance in a London garage. George Craddock, night watchman, reported the apparition to police. "Slowly it came nearer," he said. "There was a horrible leer on its face, and I felt my flesh creep. When it was a foot or where I stood, it vanished." Police took the two empty bottles out of Craddock's overcoat and sent him on his way.

QUARTER CENT A MILE.

Motorists pay an average of a quarter of a cent a mile, in the form of registration fees and gasoline taxes, according to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. The computation is made on the basis of an average annual mileage of 6000 miles for each motorist.

"RAJAH" AT WEMBLEY.

Wembley, Eng.—There was nothing slow about the "Rajah of Bharatpur." Dressed in regal fashion he dined at the best restaurants, stopped at the best hotels, attended the most exclusive balls and mingled with persons high in English society. Then, when his creditors became suspicious of his royal doings, police found out the "rajah" was only Harold Moore, a coal-miner.

ATHLETIC FUND AT ESKY HIGH RUNNING LOW

Big Crowd Needed For Saturday's Game Here

Less than $60 will remain in the general fund treasury of the Escanaba high school athletic association when all the bills arising from the Soo game last Saturday are paid. The association is face to face with a deficit unless there is a big crowd on the sidelines for the Negaunee encounter next Saturday.

The schedule this year has not been a good money-maker. The Menominee and Gladstone games, the best game attractions, were played in foreign fields and the other home games were not well attended.

The athletic stadium fund, which is entirely separate from the general treasury, now contains $3,202.96, with about $300 in unpaid receipts still to be received. Total receipts for the carnival staged last week, it has been announced, were $891.60, and the expense was about $50. All of the receipts from the St. Joseph-Escanaba high school game, on Nov. 15, will go into the athletic field fund.

High school officials are hopeful that the Negaunee game will be the revenue producer that the closeness of the records of the two indicates it should be.

Ho, hum. If you can't get a chuckle out of this stuff you can go listen to the radio politicians and laugh out loud.

And by the time we thought up a new costume for a masque ball we decided to go as a nervous wreck.

SPEED 'EM UP.
From strict enforcement of a 20-mile speed law, the village of Colonie, N. Y., has changed its policy to speeding up the slower motorists, those who creep along at 12 or 15 miles an hour. At the same time, the cops will drivers their speedometers for drivers exceeding the 30-mile limit.

J. M'KENNA DIES, CHICAGO
Was Founder and First
Editor of Mirror; Prominent in Politics.

Phillip J. McKenna, a pioneer of the Upper Peninsula newspaper publishing field, died at Mercy hospital in Chicago Monday afternoon. Mr. McKenna was the founder of the Escanaba Mirror and the editor of that publication for a number of years. He left Escanaba about 35 years ago, going to Chicago where he became a lawyer and won considerable political prominence. He was attorney for the Chicago board of local improvements in the Harrison and Dever administrations. Death was due to a stomach disorder. Born in Ireland in 1863, Mr. McKenna studied in Mungret college, Limerick, St. Michael's college, Kerry and Wuen's college, in Cork before coming to the United States when he was 21. He spent several years in Escanaba, launching the Mirror and winning a wide reputation as a writer of vigorous editorials. After his removal to Chicago he received degrees from Kent College of Law and the Northwestern University Law School and became an authority on special assessment litigation. Long Active in Politics. "Famed as an orator," said the Chicago Tribune, "he was an active member of the Harrison-Dunne faction of the Democratic party in local politics, and led many of that group's battles against the Sullivan wing of the organization. He was a candidate for public office only twice—in 1915, when he sought a Circuit judgeship, and in 1916, when he ran for nomination to the presidency of the sanitary district board—both times unsuccessful. "Mr. McKenna resigned his post as attorney for the board of local improvements in the Harrison administration when he decided to offer himself as a candidate for the bench, asserting that a public official should not hold one position while running for another. Insisted on Earning Pay. "In 1914, he surprised city officials during a heated political campaign by returning his pay check to the controller with the explanation that much of his time had been devoted to the campaign, and 'I have no right, therefore, to accept money from the city which I have not earned.' "Mr. McKenna lived with his family in the home at 762 Sheridan road for seventeen years. In addition to his work for the city, Mr. McKenna engaged in speculations in real estate, principally in the Rogers Park and Edgewater districts. Mr. McKenna, a former president

OBITUARY

WALTER YOUNGER. Impressive funeral services were held at nine o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's Church for Walter Younger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Younger. Rev. Father Daniel Linfert was the celebrant at the regular high mass which was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends. During the services, Miss Alta Todd sang, "O Meritum Paenitentiae"; Miss Alice Kidd and George Ammel also rendered solos. Many beautiful flowers were received at the home where the body lay, pending funeral services. The close friends who carried the casket to and from the funeral car were: George Ammel, Edward Eitzenhoffer, Clarence Huhera, Conrad Lemmer, William Bink and Harry Hemes. Interment was in the family lot in St. Joseph's cemetery. Out-of-town relatives who came here for the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jaeger, Mrs.

Anna McKinnon, Mrs. Joseph Haggerty, Miss Beth Younger, Chicago, and Mrs. P. Hoffman, Ford River. MRS. FRANK NIMMERGOOD. Funeral services for Mrs. Frank Nimmergood were held at 1:15 at the family home at the Chemical Plant Location and at 3 o'clock at the Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church. Rev. C. A. Doehler officiated at the services which were largely attended. Many beautiful floral tributes surrounded the casket of the young mother, who leaves motherless three daughters of tender age. The pall bearers were chosen from close friends of the family: Messrs. E. Vanderwell, Edw. Keller, Robt. Kamrath, L. W. Oldlund, Geo. Jacobsen and Carl O. Peterson. Burial was in Lakeview cemetery. DOROTHY WALDSTROM. Dorothy Waldstrom, five month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Waldstrom, So. 14th street passed away at Michael Reese hospital in Chicago, where she had been receiving treatment for the past twelve weeks. The little one has been ill practically since birth and all that medical science, and loving parents could do to save the life of the baby was tried but was of no avail. Mrs. Waldstrom was at the bedside when the end came. Mr.

Waldstrom arrived too late. Another daughter June Eleanor survives besides the bereaved parents. Funeral services will be held at Milwaukee with burial in the family lot of Mrs. Waldstrom's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Waldstrom have the sympathy of a host of friends in their loss. BERTRAND DANIEL SIMON. Bertrand Daniel Simon, newborn babe of Mr. and Mrs. J. Simon Lake Shore Drive, passed away at the family home Monday evening. The body was prepared for burial at the Allo Funeral home and funeral home and funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery. HAT IS FUNNIEST. Toronto.—The funniest thing in the world is the human hat, the British Association for the Advancement of Science has discovered. A big man with a little hat and a little man with a big hat appeal to everyone's sense of humor, it has been decided. A hat blown off in a windstorm represents the height of comedy. EXCLUSIVE LIFE. Constantinople.—Only two prisoners in Constantinople are required to pound rocks in the prison yard. These are Henri Goons and Carl Laffe, two Frenchmen, who were arrested and sentenced for throwing stones through window panes.

SKIRTS STILL LONG.
London.—Skirts are going to stay well below the knees. Experiments made earlier in the year by London clothiers have been abandoned. Fashionable London women are wearing skirts very tight and wrapping over.
