SUPT. F. D. DAVIS IS RE-ELECTED

BY A VOTE OF 4 TO 2 HE IS RE-TAINED AS HEAD OF CITY SCHOOLS FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

BOARD TAKES SUDDEN ACTION

Committee on Teachers Had Been Called to Meet to Prepare a List of Teachers to Submit to the Full Board, but Instead the Entire Board Gets Together and Takes the Action Noted—Action on Teachers is Not Taken—Details.

At a meeting of the board of education held last evening in the office of Secretary S. M. Matthews, called for the purpose by President Casper Bartley and all members of the board being present, Supt. F. D. Davis was re-elected to serve for another year as the executive head of the Escanaba public system.

This action was taken on motion of Trustee John Gross and the vote thereon was four in the affirmative and two in the negative. The trustees voting in favor of reelecting Mr. Davis for another year were Bartley, Reade, Matthews, and Gross. Those voting against his reelection were Trustees McRae and O'Meara. Upon the result of the vote being announced by the secretary, Mr. Davis was duly declared elected as superintendent of the Escanaba schools for the ensuing year.

Proceeding the taking of the vote there was some discussion, one of the trustees suggested that Mr. Davis be reelected for a term of two years. This proposition was not embodied in a formal motion, however and Trustee Gross' motion was the only one made in reference to the matter.

No Action on Teachers.

The action of the board was decided on rather suddenly, for it had not been previously announced that it was to be taken last evening. At the regular meeting of the board last Tuesday evening it was decided that the committee on teachers should meet Friday evening and prepare a list of the teachers to be engaged for the coming school year and to submit this list with the committee's recommendations to the full board on some evening or next week. Instead, however, the full board was called late yesterday afternoon to meet by President Bartley for the purpose of acting upon the matter of engaging a superintendent. In consequence, the committee on teachers took no action upon its list of teachers, the board adjourning soon after reelecting Mr. Davis as noted. There were no newspaper men or other aside from the members of the board present at the meeting.

Board's Action Commenced. Commenting today upon the action of the board of education in reelecting (Continued on Page Five.)

ANARCHIST HAD DESIGNS ON LIFE OF ROOSEVELT

That is the Belief of Police Who Arrest Member of American Black Hand in Switzerland.

(By Associated Press.) Geneva, Switzerland, April 16.—It has just been learned that an anarchist, who has been identified as a member of an American Black Hand society, was arrested last Wednesday at Chiasso under suspicion that he had designs upon the life of Theodore Roosevelt.

The man had in his possession cipher messages from the United States and the police think that he was on his way to Venice, where he expected to find the former president.

DEATH TAKES AWAY AN INFANT CHILD

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Crose, who was born only three days ago, died last night at the family home, 229 Stephenson avenue. The little one had been named Hazel. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Crose, 207 North Oak street, the parents of the child's father. Rev. Frederick De Witt will officiate and the burial will take place at Lakeview cemetery.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral of the late Patrick Sheridan, whose death occurred Thursday morning as previously noted in The Mirror, will not be held until nine o'clock Monday morning. Services will be held in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Father Langan officiating, and interment will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. One of the grandsons of the deceased is expected to arrive here tomorrow from Canton, O., to attend the funeral.

BANQUET FOLLOWS DAY OF BUSINESS

MEMBERS OF M. B. A. HAVE SPLENDID TIME

Local Lodge Celebrates the Thirtieth Anniversary of the Founding of the Order By Entertaining Its Members and Invited Friends—Program and Supper.

In observance of the thirtieth anniversary of the founding of the Modern Brotherhood of America, Escanaba lodge No. 1072 of that order gave an entertainment in the Odd Fellows hall Friday evening that will long be remembered with gratification by those present. And those in attendance were not few, the number being in excess of 150 and including not only members of the lodge but many invited friends.

Before entertainment the lodge held a regular meeting, but this was concluded before nine o'clock, by which time most of the guests had arrived. No unnecessary time was lost in getting everybody seated in the main hall and President Frank Genesee in a short but extremely felicitous address gave all a cordial welcome.

Mr. Genesee also presided as master of ceremonies, announcing each number on the program. First came an address by F. L. Baldwin, whose subject was "The Thirtieth Anniversary of the M. B. A." Mr. Baldwin, after some preliminary remarks appropriate to the occasion, gave an instructive talk concerning the Modern Brotherhood of America and its greatness and virtues as a fraternal and insurance order. Incidentally, Mr. Baldwin gave some interesting figures showing the growth of the order. From a small beginning thirteen years ago it has grown to a membership of 137,056, represented by 2,521 subordinate lodges. The amount of insurance in force is $161,240,000 and the death, accident and disability benefits that have been paid amount to nearly $5,000,000. The accumulated reserve fund amounts to $75,000 and the surplus in the benefit and general funds amounts to $120,000.

FORD RIVER COUPLE WED IN THIS CITY

Wednesday afternoon, at the First Methodist Episcopal parsonage in this city, Rockwell St. Clair Irving, a well known young farmer of Ford River township, was united in marriage to Miss Clara Wangberg, also a resident of Ford River township, where she is held in high esteem. Rev. Frederick Spence performed the marriage ceremony, which was witnessed by Miss Harriet Wangberg, a sister of the bride, and Bertram Hanson. Mr. and Mrs. Irving will continue to make their home in Ford River township.

CHILDREN ACT AS PALLBEARERS

Funeral services over the remains of Evelyn Finley, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Finley, were held in St. Patrick's church at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Father Langan officiating. The remains were given burial in St. Joseph's cemetery. An unusual feature of the funeral was that the pallbearers were all children, four boys and four girls.

MILLIONAIRE PAPER MILL OWNER DIES IN FLORIDA.

(By Associated Press.) Appleton, Wis., April 16.—John McNaughton, a millionaire paper mill owner of this city, died today in Florida.

Delay in the receipt of several cars of structural steel is holding up the construction of the Escanaba Traction company's steel bridge over the Escanaba river at Wells for the interurban line. The missing cars have gone astray and all efforts to locate them have so far been futile.

ILLNESS OF WITNESS STOPS MURDER TRIAL

In Case of Dr. Twyman's Death Monday, the Trial Will Go—Peculiar Situation.

(By Associated Press.) Kansas City, Mo., April 16.—The trial of Dr. Hyde for the murder of Colonel Swope has been continued until Monday, owing to an attack of appendicitis with which Dr. Twyman, an important witness for the state, was stricken.

In the event of Dr. Twyman's death before Monday the case will go on trial immediately. If, on the other hand, the illness is not fatal but lingering, the state may ask to have the jury dismissed and the case continued indefinitely. Such a course is strongly opposed by the defense.

Operation Is Successful. At the operation, which took place this morning, Dr. Jackson, who is attending Dr. Twyman, stated that the correct diagnosis is acute diverticulitis, which is said to be much more severe and far more dangerous than appendicitis. The operation was very successful, however, and there are strong hopes for the rapid recovery of the patient.

One of the early arrivals at the court room this morning was Dr. Hull of Kirksville, Mo., who is jointly indicted with Mrs. Alma Vaughn for the poisoning of the woman's husband, Professor Vaughn.

Dr. Hull greeted Hyde and was introduced to Mrs. Hyde. He talked with them several minutes, but neither of them mentioned their cases. The physicians had never met before.

CRUISER CHARLESTON ORDERED TO HANKOW

The United States Takes Steps to Quell an Anti-Missionary Riot in China—Mission at Chan Sha Destroyed—Missionaries are Safe.

(By Associated Press.) Amoy, China, April 16.—The United States cruiser Cleveland has been dispatched to Hankow to quell an anti-missionary riot that has been started.

Mission Entirely Destroyed. New York, April 16.—A cablegram to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary society of the Protestant Episcopal church says that the mission of the society at Chang Sha has been destroyed, but that Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gilman are safe at Hankow.

Foreigners Not in Peril. London, England, April 16.—Advices have been received from China that there is no need for further anxiety for the safety of foreigners whose property has been destroyed in the Chinese riots. Dr. and Mrs. Keller, Americans, who established a mission in the interior of China at Chang Sha have arrived safely at Hankow, but the buildings of their mission have been destroyed. The Yale mission has also suffered from the riots.

HOUSEWIVES SNAP UP IMPORTED MEAT

(By Associated Press.) New York, April 16.—A good share of the available supply of Australian beef and mutton which reached New York this week was snapped up eagerly by the housewives today at prices that were from three to six cents below the market price asked for western meat of equal quality.

The importers who brought the meat to America declare that the experiment has been a complete success.

WINTER WEATHER ENDANGERS FRUIT

PLANS FOR WHITE PLAGUE MEETING

THEY ARE PRACTICALLY COMPLETED AT A CONFERENCE OF LEADERS FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

TENTATIVE PROGRAM ARRANGED

Mass Meeting is to Be Held in the City Hall in the Afternoon of April 24, "Anti-Tuberculosis Sunday"—Notable Speakers to Discuss All Phases of White Plague—Officers of Anti-Tuberculosis Society to Be Elected.

At a conference held here yesterday afternoon between a committee of the Delta County Medical society, with Dr. A. F. Snyder as chairman, and Rev. Frederick Spence, representing the Twin City Ministerial association, it was definitely decided to hold a mass meeting in the furtherance of the fight against tuberculosis in the afternoon of April 24, "Anti-Tuberculosis Sunday," and plans for the meeting were practically completed.

It was decided to hold the meeting at the city hall at three o'clock and to invite organizations and private citizens to attend and help along the good work. A tentative program was arranged and will be made public in due time. It will include addresses by notable speakers and cover every phase of the white plague and the steps that are everywhere being taken for its prevention and possible extermination.

Will Be Given New Life.

The physicians of Escanaba, together with the ministers and other professional men, have taken hold of this matter in earnest and the local fight against the dread disease will receive a great impetus as the result of the mass meeting, it is expected.

The Escanaba Anti-Tuberculosis association, organized more than a year ago, will also be given new life and at the mass meeting it is proposed to elect as many new members as possible. New officers and a board of directors are to be elected and it is proposed to select them from the leading men of the city.

It is expected that the program at the mass meeting will be one of the greatest interest and value and it is hoped that the assembly room in the city hall where it is to be held will be filled to its utmost capacity with people interested in the fight being waged against the white plague.

TAFT SAYS HE HAS NO HARD FEELINGS

(By Associated Press.) Washington, D. C., April 16.—President Taft this afternoon replied to a letter of apology sent him yesterday by the Suffragists. The president declared that he regretted the "hissing" incident not because of personal feeling, but because of its being used in an unfair way to embarrass the leaders of the suffragist movement. He said that he entertained no hard feelings against any member and asked that the whole matter be forgotten as soon as possible.

BACK TO THE FARM.

Nine hundred million dollars' worth of Agricultural products were exported from the United States last year, according to the bureau of statistics in the department of commerce and labor. Secretary Wilson says that the total was $8,776,000,000, so that a little more than 10 per cent. of our farm products were sold abroad and the home consumers had to be content with the remaining nine-tenths. This is a healthy condition, but doubtless helps to explain the high price of provisions in this country. Secretary Wilson thinks the high prices are due to the fact that there are too few farmers and too many distributors, too many young men rushing to the city, instead of staying home and tilling the soil. If we are to supply Europe as well as America with food stuffs we must increase the number of farmers with the increase of our population, and if farming is made and continues sufficiently profitable there will be no lack of farmers. The poor rewards of farming in the past have driven the farmer boys to other pursuits. There will be a cry of "back to the farm" as soon as it is clear that there is money in farming commensurate with the toll which it exacts from those whose livelihood is the cultivation of the soil.

Not so many years ago "farmer" was about as scornful a slang term as could be applied to anybody who blundered, stumbled or "got in bad." But what would the average man in the streets say to-day if somebody shouted at him "You farmer?" Wouldn't he throw his chest out and spring a smile as broad as if he owned a gold mine? He certainly would. The farmer doesn't wear his hayseed in his hair any longer. He sells it and buys an automobile. And when "doctor, lawyer, merchant, chief" point their finger at him and say, "You're it," he merely throws in the speed clutch and smiles back along the wind.

The claim that men could make a better business administration of foreign missionary affairs than women if they would only take as much interest in them, will be denied by anybody who has ever patronized an oyster supper given to raise foreign mission funds. The ladies have reduced the ratio to one oyster to the bowl and the best business talent in the world could do no more by way of doing less.

LUMBER SHIPPING GOES ON BRISKLY

The lumber shipping season is certainly opening up in a brisk manner. The steamers I. W. Stephenson and P. W. Sawyer are at Wells loading for Chicago. The schooner Quickstep arrived at Masonville yesterday and will load for Chicago with a cargo of maple lumber.

MANY BOATS START THEIR FIRST TRIPS

Many boats ventured out Friday and started the season of navigation. Up to Friday no boat was insured as the marine insurance dates from April 15th to November 30th. ## USE SHELLAC IN MAKING BON BONS.

New York, April 16.—Several big candy manufacturers have been called upon by the federal bureau of chemistry for information as to the nature of the preparations used in coating chocolate bon bons and other confectionery. It is alleged that some manufacturers use shellac in varnishing the bon bons. The manufacturers say that most of the large companies use gum benzoin, a harmless vegetable product. Shellac, however, is cheaper.

AUTHOR IS WINNING FAME AND DOLLARS.

The results of being a successful author sometimes are surprising. The reputation of William de Morgan grew so rapidly after the publication of his first book, "Joseph Vance," that the first edition of each of his succeeding novels was about as large as the first editions of the book that made him famous. Since its publication, five years ago, it has gone to press eleven times. Its successor, "Alcefor-Short," has gone to press for the tenth time. His publishers assert they have never had an author whose books have been in greater or steadier demand.

STATE WIDE PROHIBITION NOW PLANNED BY "DRYS"

The Anti-Saloon League and Prohibition Party to Join Forces—Conference to Be Held.

Detroit, April 16.—A campaign for state-wide prohibition by means of a constitutional amendment—first the securing of 107,572 names on an initiative petition at the fall election and then a vote on the amendment at the spring election of 1911—will be discussed at the state conference of the Michigan Anti-Saloon league in Lansing during May.

The conference is to be a rally of all the temperance workers of the state.

The suggestion that an effort to amend the constitution be made now has been made because of the belief of some temperance workers that it is the best way to make a great state-wide educational campaign and train the fighting force of both old and new counties; and because it is an issue on which all the rank and file of temperance workers can unite.

The prohibition party, as an organization, stands aloof from the Anti-Saloon league, but it is known that the prohibition party will this fall display the greatest activity it has shown in years in Michigan. Two hundred college students, it is said by the leaders of the party, will stump the state for prohibition during the summer.

State Prohibition Goal. "The submission of a constitutional amendment by initiative petition has been suggested," says Pliny W. Marsh. "Some seem to think that the work of the league on the educational side must progress much further before a state-wide campaign can be undertaken."

"Then, again, there is some seeming force in the claim that a state-wide educational campaign can be undertaken by a first effort to carry an initiative petition. State-wide prohibition is the ultimate goal of the league. The question is in the method of accomplishing it."

The procedure provided by the new constitution of Michigan makes it very possible for the temperance workers to bring state-wide prohibition to a sharp issue in a comparatively brief period. The establishment of prohibition, it is argued, would mean the end of the Anti-Saloon league, but its perpetuation, for the league would be still more needed here to carry on the work of observation and education.

Article 17 and Section 2 of the constitution provides that a petition may be submitted if signed by more than 20 per cent of the total vote for secretary of state at the preceding election of that officer. The total vote of 1908 was 537,856—11: number needed, therefore, is 107,572.

THE CORRECT THING IN VISITING CARDS

Double Cards for Man and Wife Are Used in Many Instances Instead of Single Ones—Cards Are Larger and Printed on Heavier Pasteboard than Formerly—Details.

The Mirror's authority on matters pertaining to etiquette furnishes the information that visiting cards on which "Mr. and Mrs." is engraved have come prominently into use this season. For several years they were rarely seen except when accompanying gifts and even then, separate cards from the man and woman were more often used. But now the double card has its place in every card case, though custom has not yet entirely decided the detail of its use.

In paying visits a married woman, calling upon another who is married, may leave one of the Mr. and Mrs. cards, and then a single one of the man's separate card being for the husband of the hostess. But many smart women are of the opinion that two cards of such extremely different size do not look well together, and so when more of the man's than of the wife's are to be left, they cling to those entirely separate, using their "Mrs." and two of the "Mr." Nevertheless, good form sanctions the other method.

When a married woman calls upon a single woman, be she spinster or widow, she is expected to leave just one of the double cards. This is far smarter than hers and the husband's separately.

In sending presents of any kind, even flowers, if they go from a married woman, the double card is used. It is correct to write a line of good wishes or condolence, if one desires, but it is not altogether elegant, the theory being that, should one wish to say anything, a note must be written, as a card is to bear the name only.

In size the double cards are appreciably larger than even the extreme varieties for a married woman. The same type is used, the preference being for old English or block, the name to be written in full, initials being incorrect.

Heavier pasteboard is used than was in vogue several years, but it could not by any chance be called thick.

A cream is preferred to an ivory tone. Addresses, including the number, are written in full, figures being regarded as an abbreviation.

AN ARMY OFFICER FEARS INVASION.

Washington, April 16.—In a report to the War Department by General Schaff, who claims to have made a thorough investigation of American coast defenses, it is alleged that Japan could, in a space of three weeks, land 100,000 veterans on the Pacific coast and double in ten days more. Germany in two weeks could place 200,000 men on the Atlantic coast. Once entrenched in one of our coast cities a foreign army of 150,000 five times the number of American troops. It is said that the government is very uneasy over the situation and will cast its whole weight in favor of a plan of reorganization and increase of the army.

DUSTING CLOTHES ON CARS IS BAD PLAN

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—A conference between the officials of fifteen railroads in the state and the members of the state board of health the law enacted at the last session of the legislature regarding sanitation in railway coaches was discussed at considerable length and all phases of the law were carefully gone over. The officials and the members of the board agreed that it is a bad plan to allow the porters to dust clothing in the cars and hereafter the colored men who earn a little spare change by brushing the specks off the dusty garments of the tourist will have to take the garments to one end of the car especially prepared for that purpose, or else remove them to the rear platform. Dr. Shumway asserts that disease germs may be spread by dusting clothing in the cars and the board of health and railroad officials decided to abolish this practice. Dr. M. C. Sinclair of Grand Rapids will represent the board at the annual meeting of the American Medical association to be held at St. Louis, Mo., June 7.

NINE MONTHS IS COLD STORAGE LIMIT.

Washington, April 16.—Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, today declared that there is no excuse for detaining any article in cold storage over nine months. Even canned goods, he said, should not be carried longer than from one season to another. To hold over the product of one season to interfere with the output of the next, he said, exceeded the limits of reasonable economy and practical hygiene, and the storage of strictly seasonable products should be prohibited by law.

GREATEST WASTE IS AT SAWMILLS.

Washington, April 16.—According to a statement issued by the forest service today, two-thirds of what is in a tree is lost on the way to the consumer, the heaviest waste being in the sawmills. The investigation shows a lavish use of lumber in the United States. The consumption per capita is from three to ten times greater than in the leading countries of Europe.

STATE WILL EXPLORE FOR SALT DEPOSITS

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—A thorough exploration of Michigan for salt deposits is to be made by the Michigan geological survey, it is announced. This is the result of recommendations by the board of scientific advisers to the geological survey as well as for other geographical exploration. It is stated by members of the board that despite the great wealth of minerals produced in the state, Michigan is far behind other states in geological research, and plans are being mapped out for an examination of all unexplored areas. The topographical map of the lower peninsula is also to be carried forward.

RAGPICKER LEAVES A SMALL FORTUNE.

New York, April 16.—Two women claiming to be widows of Mordecai Wolf Chaiman, a ragpicker who lived in abject poverty but left $5,000 at his death, are contesting in the courts today for possession of the money. One woman lives in Russia, where Chaiman is alleged to have deserted her eighteen years ago, coming to America and marrying again.

BRYAN IS A RIVAL TO ROOSEVELT.

New York, April 16.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will not stand alone in his fame as an animal collector. He has a rival in Colonel William Jennings Bryan, three times Democratic nominee for the presidency. Moreover, while Colonel Roosevelt, has sent home dead specimens, Mr. Bryan sends his alive. Four members of the Bryan managerie came on the Hamburg-American liner Bluecher when that ship returned from the cruise to the Straits of Magellan.

NO STANDARDIZATION OF THE APPLE CROP.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—No standardization system for the apple crop of the United States, which fluctuates annually from 25,000,000 to 68,000,000 barrels will be provided, during the present session of congress. The Lefean bill to establish standard packages and grades of that fruit, has been adversely acted upon by the house committee on agriculture. Opponents of the bill have declared that it would inflict great loss and injury to the northwest, where the growers have developed the industry upon a certain sized box and where they would have to readjust their system.

She Proposed

By F. A. MITCHEL.

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

To give the name of the heroine of this story would take all the romance out of it. She was Welsh, and some fifteen or twenty letters are required to spell her name, and after it has been spelled it could only be pronounced by one asleep and at the culmination of a prodigious snore. I will therefore call her Anne.

If Anne's name was not attractive, Anne herself was very attractive. She had been born and lived till she was fifteen in Wales and possessed the rose and ivory complexion common among the girls of the British Isles. She was plump as a partridge and had a pair of white shoulders and an exquisitely rounded neck. Then her lips—well, they are best described as kissable. In other words, Anne was a pretty Welsh girl who had come to America with her father to live on a farm of his own in Minnesota.

Anne had lost her mother before leaving Wales, and her father had married again. Not all stepmothers make life miserable, but Anne's stepmother did. At any rate, Anne always felt that the home she had known had passed away with her mother; that there was now a different home with a new crop of children of which she was not a part and in which she had no place. It seemed to her that if she were out of it there would be an advantage to it and to her.

Anne had a friend whom she had met in Minnesota. The friend's own true name was Martha. She, too, was the daughter of a farmer and lived a short distance down the road. One evening Anne after a scrap with her stepmother went out and stood at the gate to nurse her wrath alone. While she was standing there along came her bosom friend. Anne poured a long catalogue of troubles into Martha's ear. Martha listened till a pause came and then said:

"This is no place for you, Anne. You should be married and have a home of your own."

"I know it," said Anne, "but whom am I to marry? All the young men as soon as they are grown go to Minneapolis or St. Paul or Chicago or St. Louis. They all seem eager to get away from the farm as soon as possible. I can't follow them to the city, and if I could it would do no good. I am country born and bred and entirely unfitted for the city."

"Nevertheless you must marry." "I will! I'll stop waiting for a proposal. I'll ask the first man I see to marry me."

At that moment a man appeared some distance down the road. He was carrying a bundle done up in a bannana handkerchief at the end of a pole, the pole resting on his shoulder. "Here comes your opportunity," said Martha.

Anne gave a gasp. "I wish I had the courage to do it," she said.

"I dare you."

"You dare me?" "Yes; you said just now you would ask the first man that came along to marry you, and here comes a young fellow of suitable age. Ask him."

"But suppose he should hold me to it. I might jump from the frying pan into the fire."

"Marriage is a lottery even if you have known the one you marry a long while and consider him perfection." "He's good looking," whispered Anne, stealing a glance at the man.

"Quick!" snapped Martha. "You will be too late."

Suddenly it occurred to Anne to do as she had threatened, speaking in a language he would not understand. She had not forgotten the language of her childhood. She called out in Welsh:

"A oes cisluu gwaig arnoch chwif? (Do you want a wife?) "Oes" (Yes) came the reply quick as a flash.

The young man turned to see a pretty girl looking at him in consternation, her face all aflame. He started toward her, but Anne ran into the house and slammed the door in his face.

If she had thus rudely treated any young man of her acquaintance doubtless he would have gone off in high dudgeon. But she had called on Cupid to help her, and the little god once interested it is no easy matter to ally that interest. Indeed, he is impudent and persistent. The young man went to the closed door and tried to open it. Anne was holding it from the inside. Cupid proved the stronger, and the door was forced. When Cupid entered, Anne had buried her face in the pillow of a hall settle. The young man stood by and said:

"I perceive that you are Welsh. I am just come from Wales and am looking for a place to settle in this great country. Will you tell me what county in Wales you are from?"

A smothered sound came from between Anne's face and the pillow. "Carmarthen." "Carmarthen! Why, that's my county too."

"Well, that was a beginning. Anne's father had known the young man's father in the old country, and he was asked to stay where he was till he had found a place to settle. Around his waist was a money belt in which there were enough gold pieces to buy a small farm. By the time he had selected the farm he had accepted Anne's proposition, and her father gave them enough additional to stock it. So it was that a Welsh girl got a husband for the asking.

Easter and Its Emblems.

Easter time commemorates both the crucifixion and the resurrection of the Christ. A number of emblems and symbols have been adopted as suitable for this solemn yet joyous festival. The white lily in its snowy splendor typifies the soul of man after it has been purified from earthly evil. The Easter egg conveys also the idea of that which bursts forth from a dark prison into life and light.

The radiant butterfly is also a type of the resurrection. In ancient Greek mythology the butterfly was an emblem of the human soul, the imperishable part of man that no death of the body has power over. The chrysalis from which the butterfly bursts into winged freedom represented the human body. The butterfly is especially adapted to symbolize the continuance of the same life through various changes of body. If you look carefully at the picture here given of various stages of butterfly life you will see represented the same creature in four different forms. First there is the cluster of eggs upon the leaf. From each of these is hatched a worm that crawls and feeds upon a leaf. After it has filled itself with food it forms about itself a shell and then by means of a gummy substance at one end glues itself to a twig and hangs thus till its shell can no longer hold it. It is growing wings and must have room. At last the chrysalis breaks its dull, narrow envelope and flies forth a radiant, glorious creature. No longer is it forced to crawl upon the earth a worm. It dances up and down in the air; it rests now and then upon flowers no less beautiful than itself.

Few birds are as gorgeously colored as some of the butterfly tribe. The species known as neoptolemus is one of the most dazzling. All the butterfly family have four wings. The two upper wings, those nearest the mouth, of the neoptolemus are of a rich sky blue color. When the light shines upon them their brightness is indescribable. They shine like polished metal and flash forth rainbow hues. The spots on the wings look like the eyes in the feathers of a peacock's tail, and these spots are always the same in number and are arranged in the same way.

Alloys of Metals.

"Brass" stair carpet rods are not brass, but are rods of iron cased with very thin tubes of brass. Much "copper" work is not copper at all, but coated iron. The part pure metals play in manufacture is nothing by comparison with their alloys in their many hundreds of combinations.

The Festival Of Flowers.

After the Roman empire was Christianized many of the old pagan festivals were still observed under another name because they were so dear to the hearts of the people. One of the celebrations thus retained was the yearly spring flower festival. The most famous and splendid of all the flower festivals is that at Nice, on the Riviera, in France. If you were to see one of the Nice flower parades you would wonder how people can think up so many ingenious devices, and especially you would wonder where all the flowers come from. A prize is always given to the person with the most beautifully decorated carriage.

The vehicles are trimmed with flowers even to the wheel spokes. There are flower canopies above them and throne-like floral seats, in which beautiful children and sometimes women and men sit. Even the harness of the horses is covered with blossoms—roses, orange and myrtle flowers. The people rack their brains to devise something new for the great parade. In the accompanying pictures

FLOWER TORTOISE.

You see one or two strange devices. One of the objects is a monster flower tortoise mounted upon two wheels. The neck and body of the creature, to his stub tail, are a mass of radiant flowers. Upon the tortoise's back is a low seat which two pretty little girls may occupy. As they sit upon it the flowers come up all around them till only their bright faces and heads are visible. A gentle little donkey draws this odd vehicle.

THE VANISHING SPIDER.

A Strange Insect That Lives in the Florida Swamps.

A Florida paper describes a strange creature known as the "vanishing spider."

On the borders of the Everglades you often see a large yellow spider. He swings a strong web from two plant twigs on each side of a path or clear space of ground and waits for his prey. The web is in the shape of a hammock and tapers at each end to a fine point, though quite broad in the middle. The bright color of the owner seems to mark him out for destruction—he is clearly defined against the white sand or dead leaves—and you wonder what he would do for defense in case of attack. Approach quietly and he watches you intently. Now raise your hand suddenly, and he will disappear!

While you are wondering what became of him you see first a blur where he had been, then several spiders, then you catch sight again of the yellow ball that you noticed at first. Repeat the performance, and the strange effect is renewed. The disappearance is absolute, there can be no doubt about it, and the little magician trusts to it entirely for his protection.

How is it done? As soon as he is threatened he starts the vibrations of his airy hammock. These become too rapid for the eye to follow, and he vanishes. As these become slower you see a blur and then several spiders as the eye catches him at different points of his swing until finally he rests before you.

JEWISH-PASSOVER TO BE CELEBRATED

At sundown on Saturday evening, April 23, will begin the Jewish Passover celebration, the great celebration on the calendar of the Jewish religious year.

For seven days it will continue with the orthodox Jews waiting and hoping for the appearance of Elijah, the forerunner of the ultimate coming of the great Messiah and the restoration of the Jewish nation in Jerusalem.

According to Rabbi Samuel Hirschberg of Milwaukee, the Passover festival commemorates the deliverance of the Israelites from Egyptian bondage. It commemorates the declaration of right to personal liberty. The Passover is also a sort of spring festival, celebrating the revival of life in nature and the transition from the winter into a brighter world.

April 23, at sundown, marks the full moon of the first month, "Nisan," of the Jewish religious year. On the first evening of this festival the "Seder service" is observed in the homes. The evening is spent in reading psalms and prayers appropriate to the occasion. In the orthodox homes this service is oftentimes extended to the second evening. It was in this service that Christ was engaged when he was apprehended and it was while observing the "Seder service" that he was eating His last supper. During this festival the Jews are especially hospitable and the poor and hungry of the city are relieved as much as possible. It is considered necessary to have a guest at the table during the Passover to make the observance significant.

There are several symbols which are an adjunct of the festival. These are kept on a large platter on the table during meal time. There is a roast of lamb to designate the Pascal offering, herbs indicative of the life of a slave, nuts to show that life is not all bitterness and a symbol of immortality. The Passover festival celebration is sometimes called the "festival of unleavened bread," because the Israelites left in a great hurry and were unable to wait until the bread had become leavened. Orthodox Jews remove every leaven thing from their homes prior to the celebration and all the houses receive a thorough overhauling.

GOVERNOR'S ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION

Following is the full text of Governor Warner's Arbor Day proclamation, the issuance of which was mentioned in The Mirror last Thursday:

"The season of planting and seed time has come, and in compliance with a custom that should have the force of law, I hereby designate Friday, April 29, 1910, as Arbor day."

"The increasing importance of this day and its observance is urged upon our citizens. 'Plant a tree' should be the watchword of everyone fortunate enough to own a portion of Michigan's fertile soil. The homes and farms, the parks and the highways of our state should bear evidence in the years to come that their future beauty and utility were kept in mind by those in whom their stewardship has been placed.

"We owe this to posterity, but we will not have to wait beyond our own time before award. A love for nature, for the shrubs, flowers and trees, should be inculcated in the youth of our land, and there should be a program arranged for every school for Arbor day with this end in view. The planting of the trees and the sowing of the seed should be followed by exercises that will make the day distinctive in the lesson that it teaches.

"Those in authority in our cities and villages may well call the attention of the people to the day and the sentiment that first brought about its observance. Better care of the parks and playgrounds, improved conditions surrounding the public places will be the result of organized efforts, and no more valuable service can be rendered the people than the impressing upon them of the fact that this day means much to them and theirs."

ATTEMPT TO EVADE THE MICHIGAN LAW

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—Governor Warner has taken up the proposal of the water power merger to organize outside this state, and is conferring with Attorney General Bird regarding the matter, announcing that if there is any power to make this combine amenable to state laws he proposes to use that power.

He will not say he is thinking of a special session of the legislature to take up the matter, but does say he considers the matter of great importance and declares the result of this question will determine the future policy of the state in the way that is most important for industrial interests of the state, and one that should receive every attention.

It is known that he considers it a direct attempt to avoid the state anti-stock watering laws, and believes it of great importance to ascertain whether the law will reach the big as well as the small corporation.

It does not seem reasonable to me that the Michigan Water Power companies can go out of the state and organize a corporation to come back into the state and do things which Michigan corporations are not allowed to do," said the governor.

MARRIED SIXTY THREE YEARS.

Marshalltown, Iowa, April 16.—Surrounded by a company of thirty of their descendants, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Quintard, an old couple of this city, today celebrated the sixty-third anniversary of their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Quintard were both born in Norwalk, Conn., where they were reared and married.

Mr. and Mrs. Quintard have lived in Iowa since 1865. Mr. Quintard is now 84 and Mrs. Quintard is 79 years old. The couple have thirty-two living grandchildren and twenty-one greatchildren.

WOMEN TO WAR ON WHITE SLAVERY.

New York, April 16.—A league of women which will watch white slavery developments throughout the country and aid in the suppression of the traffic has been formed by New York club women. It is to be known as the National League for the Moral Protection of Women. The burden of the work will fall on the legislative committee, which will consider legislation offered at Washington and at the various state capitals and will make such suggestions as seem wise.

ESTIMATE OF ALASKA GOLD IS LARGE.

Seattle, Wash., April 16.—The first estimate received here of the spring gold clean-up in the neighborhood of Fairbanks, Alaska, is $9,000,000. The gold will be shipped to the Seattle assay office by way of Yukon steamers.

FULLER AIMS TO GET LIQUOR TAX.

Lansing, Mich., April 16.—Upon the request of Auditor General Fuller, a list comprising forty-four names of non-resident liquor dealers in Kent county who have thus far ignored the law requiring them to pay a state tax, has been sent to the prosecuting attorney by Attorney General Bird.

It is claimed that the persons named in this list have not paid into the state treasury the respective sums imposed as a tax upon them by Section 2 of Warner-Cramton law. Both wholesale and retail dealers, brewers' agents and representatives of distillers are said to be included in the number of those against whom prosecutions are proposed.

A Merchant Must Make It Pay You to Read His Ads!

Whatever he does to make his store of more importance to you than is the store of his competitor must be explained, hinted or suggested to you—and he can only do that by enchainning your attention to his ads.

He is aware that you "know things" about stores—about goods—values, prices. He, therefore, knows that to advertise something that is actually high-priced—or, not actually priced on a profit-dividing plan—is to merely give proof of the nonusefulness of his store to you.

Now, the merchant knows that his store is useful to you. And he knows that he must make it more and more so. So his problem resolves itself into this:

THAT AS ONLY GOOD VALUES OFFERED MAKE GOOD ADVERTISING, HE MUST MAKE EVERYTHING IN HIS STORE ADVERTISABLE. Thus, to make store-keeping pay he must be a big advertiser and to make advertising pay he must make it pay the person who reads it.

The inexorable logic of modern business, therefore, compels the merchant to make it pay you to read his ads.

What Roads Owe to Salt. Roads, we are told, owe a great deal to salt. According to one theory, the oldest trade routes came into existence as a result of the traffic in salt. One of the oldest roads in Italy is the "Via Salaria," along which the people of the Sabine country obtained their salt from the salt pans of Ostia. Salt was the main merchandise carried in the trans-Asian caravans of the days of Herodotus, and salt is one of the chief elements in the trade along the Sahara caravan routes to-day. Salt and salt fish, it is interesting to remember, entered largely into the commerce of the Carthaginians. The latter, by the way, was considered a delicacy in those pre-Christian days.

MANAGERS of the NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUBS

WILL Detroit repeat? Is the American league pennant to go to the Wolverine metropolis for the fourth time? These are questions going the rounds of baseball fans who have the interests of the junior organization of the two big leagues at heart.

Detroit has won three pennants, carrying off the honors in 1907-09. The team has been closely pressed several times, but has managed to hold on to the bunting, although it has been unable to beat the pennant winner of the National league for world's championship honors. What 1910 may bring forth remains to be seen.

Jim McGuire, known in the baseball world as "deacon," is the new manager of the Cleveland team this season. He takes the place of Napoleon Lajoie as manager, but the team still has the valuable services of the hard-hitting Frenchman as a player. Cleveland has a bunch of hitters that is hard to beat, but its pitching staff has been lamentably weak in pinches. McGuire has shifted the players around and Lajoie, considered as great as the greatest of second basemen, has been sent to first base in the practise games. Now there is talk of him going to short.

Hugh Duffy has come all the way from Providence, R. I., to manage Charles Comiskey's White Sox. With the exception of the pitchers, probably the strongest bunch of twirlers carried by any club of either league, the Chicago team will be practically new. Comiskey has spent a bunch of money to build up a team and strengthen the weak spots and he deserves to win.

New York, St. Louis and Washington in Stallings, O'Connor and McAleer, respectively, have managers who know the game from A to Z, but the teams have not shown in practise that they have any right to claim a higher place in the race than they attained last year.

only to his utility players.

Patsy Donovan, once of Pittsburgh, later a St. Louisan and still later a Brooklynite, is at the head of the Boston team this season as manager. Right here let it be said that in 1909 a bunch of young players came out of the hub and made Detroit and Philadelphia hump to keep them out of first place. The baseball scribes called this Boston bunch the "speed boys." No team of youngsters ever played better baseball, and with the experience they got last year it looks as if Donovan has every right to lay claim to the bunting even this early in the season.

MINER HAD OVER $1,000 IN CLOTHES

Hancock, Mich., April 16.—A small cotton bag, resembling a tobacco pouch, containing $1,000, was found on the body of William Westlund, the North Kearsarge miner who met his death by a premature blast last Thursday morning, and this sum now lies in the First National bank of Calumet awaiting a claim from relatives of the deceased. When the clothes were searched by Coroner Fisher previous to the inquest this pouch was among the effects, and so much did it resemble a sack of tobacco that the officers deemed it valueless and were about to destroy it. When the pouch was opened, however, the officers started for within was this sum in currency.

There is a strange coincidence connected with the finding of the wealth upon Westlund's person. Coroner Fisher Thursday morning read in a Chicago paper of the finding of $1,400 on the body of one of the miners taken from the Cherry mine, the scene of the great disaster last November. The case impressed him as rather singular, and he was still pondering over it when called upon to conduct the inquest over the North Kearsarge blast's victim. The finding of a sum almost as large in Westlund's pockets in view of these facts struck the coroner as rather uncanny.

EARLY DAY RAILROADING IN MARQUETTE COUNTY

E. C. Anthony and Late Peter Fitzpatrick Were Among the First Railroad Men.

Negaunee, Mich., April 16.—E. C. Anthony of Negaunee was one of the honorary pall bearers at the funeral of the late Peter Fitzpatrick, held in Ishpeming, Mr. Anthony and Mr. Fitzpatrick were among the first railroad men on the Marquette and Bay de Nocque railroad, which was built between Marquette and the Jackson, Cleveland and Lake Superior mines after the tram railway had been abandoned.

Railroading was trying work in those days, Mr. Anthony said yesterday. There were no water tanks or reservoirs anywhere along the line, and when water was needed for the locomotive the crew had to stop their train near a creek and fill their tank by using pails to carry the water in. Each engine was equipped with a dozen or more pails, and as a rule the tank had to be filled two or three times a day, as the tanks were of small capacity. There were two trains in operation at that time. One was pulled by Elmer F. Decker and the other by William Dunkersley. The latter was a brother of Cornelius Dunkersley, for whom his locomotive was named. The one in charge of Decker was called the Sabastopol. The late Andy Steele, the veteran South Shore engineer, who died recently, was Decker's fireman. Mr. Anthony said that there are now but for men who worked on those two trains living. They are Dan Merritt, who was one of the conductors, Jason McGregor, Decker and himself. Each train was provided with six brakemen and a conductor. Slide cars were used, each having a capacity of from five to six tons of ore. Twelve or fifteen of them were all that either engine could pull over the grades, and it kept the crews busy to bring that number of empties up from Marquette.

Before the Civil War. Mr. Anthony worked on the road before he enlisted for the Civil war. He recalls many interesting incidents of railroading at that time and has a good recollection of the men who were engaged in mining and other occupations in the county in those days. Captain Harry Merry was in charge of the Jackson, Gilbert Johnson had charge of the Lake Superior mine and Robert Nelson was in charge of the Cleveland.

Mr. Anthony laughed heartily when he recalled how Captain Merry used to speak of the Jackson's big output. The first year that the Jackson shipped 100,000 tons, Captain Merry said to Mr. Anthony, "Ed, what in the world are they going to do with all the iron ore we are shipping them?" Mr. Anthony said he will never forget the loading of the first 500-ton schooner that came to Marquette for Jackson ore. He was then employed as a brakeman and he said that both the miners and the railroad men thought they would never get ore enough to fill up the hold. They hauled for days, until they got thoroughly tired of the job. They brought down on an average of one trainload a day, and it took considerable time to load and unload the cars, as all of the work was done by hand. The schooner pulled up at the old Jackson dock, near the Grace furnace site.

One of Best Railroaders. Mr. Anthony said that Mr. Fitzpatrick was one of the best railroad men that he had ever known. Even in the days when he was braking on the dinky trains, he was one of the hardest working men that ever followed an engine. In those days the men working at Ishpeming and at Humboldt used to come to Negaunee to vote, as all of that territory was included in Negaunee township. The Marquette and Bay de Nocque was extended to the Washington mine, at Humboldt late in the sixties, but Mr. Anthony was not employed on the road at that time.

Wednesday. At the city limits on Oratnot avenue the front wheels "dished," throwing the machine fifteen feet in the air against a trolley pole. The gasoline tank exploded, burning Smith, Foster, who was driving, was dashed against the pole. Both died.

FOREIGNERS FLOCK TO UPPER MICHIGAN. Negaunee, Mich., April 16.—Hundreds of foreigners have arrived in the upper peninsula since Christmas. Hardly a day passes when one or more do not come to Negaunee. Thursday a half dozen Italians and several Finns arrived. Up to this time the new comers have had no difficulty finding employment at the mines, most of which have been gradually increasing their working force since the first of the year.

Most of the immigrants coming to this region are either Finns or Italians. The copper country is getting a larger share of them than the iron district, but it is many years since as many foreign born people have located on this range as have arrived since the holidays. The Mesaba range is getting a larger share of the foreigners than any of the older iron ranges. Thousands of them have gone to the Mesaba during the past few months.

HOME OPEN FOR "BROKEN RAILS." Chicago, April 16.—A new home for aged and disabled railroad workers—the so-called "Broken Rails"—was dedicated at Highland Park, a North Shore suburb, Thursday. Nearly 1,900 members of various brotherhoods, women's auxiliaries of those organizations and their friends, were in attendance. There were present one-legged men, men without hands, and men who were wheeled about in chairs. The home will accommodate 198 persons.

ASKS $5,000 FOR FRACTURED HIP. Marshall, Mich., April 16.—Mrs. George Brownell has started suit against the Michigan State Telephone company for $5,000 for a broken hip. She charges that one of the company's guy wires broke and frightened her horse into a runaway, throwing her out and breaking her hip.

TWO AUTOMOBILE TESTERS KILLED. Detroit, Mich., April 16.—Two automobile testers—George H. Smith and John T. Foster—were returning from a trial spin at a terrific speed late on

WILL GROW CLAMS TO MAKE BUTTONS.

La Crosse, Wis., April 16.—The United States government is to go into the business of propagating clams to supply the pearl button industry, which is languishing because of a scarcity of shells. The first station is to be established at La Crosse, M. F. Stapleton, a representative of the fisheries bureau being here to confer with Congressman Esch regarding the details. Extensive experiments were conducted here last summer and it was found possible to employ carp and other rough fish for the propagation of the clams.

The spawn of the clam is attached to the carp which are then turned loose, and the spawn is deposited in the bed of the river and new clam beds formed.

NO PLACE FOR HAUGHTY MAN

Aged Servitor's Caution Couched with Little Sentiment and Much Sense. A haughty citizen once strolled into the supreme court at Washington when an argument was being heard and took a seat in the inclosure reserved for lawyers. After he had been there a few minutes an attendant came over and asked him: "Are you a member of the bar?"

The haughty person wasn't, but he took out his card with a flourish and handed it over. The attendant received the card gravely, carried it to the clerk, who glanced at it and gave some instructions.

A moment later the haughty citizen was touched on the shoulder and asked to retire. "Why?" he asked. "I sent up my card. It usually gives me a seat in any court in the land."

"Certainly," said the attendant; "but please retire."

The haughty citizen did retire. When he got out in the corridor he fumed and fussed a bit.

"Sir," admonished the aged negro at the door, who has been there for many years, "think it over. Don't do no persiflaging 'bout that co't. If you should git in contempt of them you ain't got nobody to appeal to but God."—Saturday Evening Post.

ing Mr. Davis as superintendent for another year, a prominent citizen of Escanaba who takes a great interest in the schools and their welfare and who is an admirer of Mr. Davis and his methods, said: "This action of the school board is very gratifying to the friends of the public schools as it insures the continuation of the present efficient system that has improved each successive year."

"The graduating class today are ranked among the best in the state as shown by the report of Professor Whitney, inspector for the University Hon. S. S. Wright, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and many other prominent educators who have recently visited them. No other city of its size in the state, with the exception of Ann Arbor, has a larger or more efficient high school."

"The graduating class is the largest this year in the history of the schools and the diplomas granted them will admit them to any higher educational institution in this state or any of the western states. Professor Whitney made this very plain to the board members in his talk with them in his recent visit to the city."

Must Have Loyal Support. "Every fair minded citizen knows that to successfully handle a large system of schools with seventy teachers and 3,000 children requires a man of tact, thorough education and broad experience, and that no one can do this without the loyal support of our citizens."

"In Ann Arbor where their school system is a model for other cities they now have the second superintendent employed by them in forty years. Professor Whitney impressed upon everyone with whom he talked when here the importance of retaining efficient teachers for as long a term of service as possible."

"Superintendent Davis was in charge of the schools of Negaunee for fifteen years before coming here and under his management the schools there were known for their high standing throughout the state. This is the second school of which he has ever had charge and it is hoped that he may be induced to continue his services here for an indefinite period. A man who locates here permanently and identifies himself with the business and social life of the city is the kind of a man that every one who has a boy or girl to educate should wish to see in charge of our schools."

MOOSE RETURN TO UPPER PENINSULA.

Houghton, Mich., April 16.—During the past year moose have been reported seen in various parts of the upper peninsula, and this week a big bull moose was seen in the vicinity of Elm River by Captain Chynoweth of the Elm River copper property. Years ago moose were quite plentiful in this region, but they were all killed off. It is now believed that members of this deer family are coming back again, making their way here from Canadian shores. The moose seen by Capt. Chynoweth was the first sighted here in fifty years.

All new and up to date specialties will be introduced both tonight and Sunday.

CAPT. RICHARDSON DEAD IN CHICAGO.
Chicago, April 16.—Capt. Charles A. Richardson, for thirty-five years a master of lake vessels, is dead at his home in this city. His last charge was the steamer Manistee. When he was 18 years old he was captain of a tugboat and since that time up to the day of his retirement he commanded vessels of all sizes and descriptions. For nine years he was a government inspector of steamers.

HONEYMOON ENDS IN A PRISON CELL.
Mansfield, O., April 16.—Oren Parmely Jr. of Detroit, having eloped with one girl and wed another, wound up an exciting week in a police cell under charges of bigamy and attempting to defraud an innkeeper. Parmely started the week by eloping from Gallon, O., with a girl whose indignant father followed in hot pursuit and overtook the couple here. The repentant maiden was escorted home, but Parmely soon found consolation in the charms of Edith K. Smith, whom he married after two days' acquaintance. The day after the marriage he was arrested for not being able to pay his hotel bill and the police, who had been inquiring into his marital adventures later placed a charge of bigamy against him.

Every One

As well as every business man should have a bank account.

Why?

Because: Your money is safer in the bank than anywhere else.

Paying your bills by check is the simplest and most convenient method.

Your check becomes a voucher for the debt it pays. It gives you a better standing with business men.

Money in the bank strengthens your credit.

A bank account teaches, helps and encourages you to save.

This bank does all the bookkeeping.

Your bank book is a record of your business.

TO THOSE DESIRING BANKING CONNECTIONS WITH AN OLD ESTABLISHED BANK, WE EXTEND OUR SERVICES.
