PLANS FOR 4TH CELEBRATION IN CITY GROWING

Committee in Charge Is Bending Every Effort to Have Big Demonstration on Independence Day.

CONCERT IN AFTERNOON

Children in Line of March Be a Feature of the Program for the Day Here.

Plans are practically complete for the celebration of Independence Day here Thursday. The committee in charge of the demonstration reported today that they were meeting with cooperation and that Escanaba would have a program that would surpass anything that has been staged here in the past.

When the big parade gets under way at 10 o'clock at the city hall, practically every line of activity in the city, civic, fraternal and military, will be represented and an especial feature will be the more than 200 school gardeners who will turn out in war garden costumes and with rakes and hoes to show the grown-ups that they are backing Uncle Sam this summer.

Following the parade that will break ranks in Ludington park there will be a program of addresses there and in the afternoon there will be a concert by the Escanaba Military band.

The aim of the committee is to make the program so interesting that residents of Escanaba will not want to go to other cities over the holiday.

This morning there was a rousing turnout of the children in the garden clubs of St. Joseph's and St. Anne's schools from the Franklin school.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the pupils of the Jefferson, Webster and Washington schools are to meet at 9 o'clock; of the Franklin school at 10:30 o'clock and of the Barr school at 1:30 o'clock.

All pupils above the second grade are requested to report at the time mentioned for their school, to prepare for participation in the parade.

Paris, July 1.—Great Britain must turn over her fleets to Germany and return Gibraltar to Spain, the United States must pay $45,000,000,000 indemnity and certain Belgian and French territory must be surrendered.

Until this is realized, the article says, there should be no armistice and no cessation of war.

TWO BOOTLEGGERS BOUND OVER FOR CIRCUIT COURT

Men Are Arrested With Quantity of Liquor in Possession, Brought Here From Marinette.

Charged with importing liquor into the state, Gust Johnson and John Erickson were arrested at 11:45 o'clock yesterday morning on Third street with liquor in their possession and were sent to the county jail by Judge Emil Glaser to await disposition by the circuit court.

The men are alleged to have gone from here to Marinette by automobile where they obtained their supply of liquor and brought it over to Menominee.

At that place they hired a jitney for $10 and were brought to Escanaba. They were noticed by residents on Third street, one of whom notified the police of the actions of the men, and they were placed under arrest. The men said they bought the liquor at the saloon of Axel Johnson, formerly in business here.

At the police station the inventory of the goods brought back by the men read: Four quarts Bourbon whiskey, one and one-third quarts rye whiskey and one gallon of brandy.

HOLIDAYS CURTAILED.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Camp Custer, July 1.—Indicating a speeding-up measure, the war department ordered that during the present emergency, military instruction will be conducted daily each week except Sundays and holidays, which also empowers the camp commandant to exercise his will with reference to Saturday afternoon. This puts an abrupt stop to the Wednesday afternoon holiday which has been observed in the regular army for years and in the national army since its inception. It also places the matter of Sunday afternoons up to the commanding general for decision.

W. S. S. REPORTS SHOW $335,000 FOR THE COUNTY

Returns and Estimates on Present Drive Indicate That Amount Has Been Pledged by Citizens.

WILL GO OVER THE TOP

City Report Shows that Wards Have Responded Liberally to the Call; More to Come in.

Figures have been coming in slowly on the results of the War Savings Stamp drive in Delta county. From the returns already in and from conservative estimates from districts not yet reported it is safe to say that the pledges of the county have reached a mark around $335,000.

While this figure is yet considerably short of the quota, $548,000, it is expected that many new pledges will be turned in during the remaining days of the drive and that there is scarcely any question but that the county will actually have purchased the full amount of its quota by the end of the year.

Compared to the result in other Upper Peninsula counties the pledges already secured will place this county in the front rank, none as yet having approached as near their quota as Delta.

In the city of Escanaba a detailed report of the result from the several wards is given herewith and the increases which will be made to these amounts as the drive continues will be reported daily.

First ward, $3,300.00
Second ward, 28,827.00
Third ward, 12,210.00
Fourth ward, 29,648.00
Fifth ward, 12,895.00
Sixth ward, 9,085.00
Seventh ward, 11,040.00
Schools and Lodges, 12,500.00

The amount pledged by the seventh ward residents is considered a particularly good showing for that district and represents the result of a careful canvass. Lieutenants J. P. Carlson and Max Kellerman say, however, that there will be more from their district as the drive progresses and that they will not be satisfied until they are sure the territory has been covered completely.

A meeting of the ward lieutenants and sergeants was called last evening by City Captain E. F. O'Leary and the work of going over the territory to complete the canvass was discussed. The pledge cards already secured will be gone over to find out if all territory has been thoroughly canvassed.

The results in the townships are showing that good work is being done and that the people are responding to the call.

COMMITTEE IS NAMED TO FIX MAXIMUM PRICES

Food Dealers of County Meet Sunday Afternoon and Form Delta County Dealers Association.

ALL LINES REPRESENTED

Merchants, Wholesale and Retail, Will Co-operate to Assist Food Administration.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon of 150 wholesale and retail food dealers of Delta county in the city hall a committee was chosen to act as an "interim board" to publish a fair food price list for this county.

The meeting was called to order by the county food administrator who explained that the object of the meeting was to discuss the publication of a fair food price list for Delta county and went into detail to explain concerning the price of sugar for home consumption and canning purposes.

A. T. Hoffman was chosen temporary chairman and J. A. Stromberg was chosen temporary secretary. Rev. Dr. P. X. Barth gave a stirring address on the need of co-operation and on the proper observance of Independence Day.

Discussion from the floor brought out the fact that there was considerable interest relative to the organization of the Delta County Food Dealers' Association in order that the dealers might be brought in closer touch with each other and carry out the wishes of the food administration regarding the sale of more food stuffs, more effectively. A representative of the labor union heartily endorsed the idea of a county organization and approved of the publishing of a fair price food list.

The following were chosen to represent a permanent organization:

A. T. Hoffman, president.
Philip Lewis, vice president.
John Stromberg, secretary.
Albert Stahl, treasurer.

THREE CANDIDATES FOR MEMBERSHIP ON SCHOOL BOARD

Henry Abenstein, Lyman M. Beggs and Abner J. C. Baker File Petitions; Two to Be Chosen.

There are three candidates for members of the board of education for this city who have filed their petitions.

Henry Abenstein, president of the school board, will again allow his name to be placed before the public, though some time ago he declared that he would not again serve on the board. Since that time, however, many of the citizens of Escanaba have asked him to serve another term and after giving the matter due consideration he said that he would become a candidate but that he would not do any campaigning. He says that he is willing to serve another term, if his friends so desire it but under no circumstances will be engaged in any election contest.

"If the people want me," says Mr. Abenstein, "they will vote for me and if they want one else, the time for them to declare themselves is on the day of election."

Mr. Abenstein is well versed in school affairs and in asking him to run again, his friends assured him that he was needed on the board through the experience he has had.

Lyman M. Beggs has filed his petition and as he has been a member of the council and has been interested in the city's affairs, he will be well qualified to serve. He was educated in the local schools, has made his home in Escanaba most of his life and has a number of friends who will vote for him.

J. C. Baker, whose friends have urged him to become a candidate is a well known attorney and would be a valuable addition to the board. He is very busy with other matters and will not make an aggressive campaign.

Only two members can be elected, so the triangle presents a most interesting feature. Voters are allowed to vote at school elections and a large number of them are greatly interested in the coming election.

HARASS ENEMY ON A 200-MILE LINE TO DRAW HIM ON

General Petain's Troops Make Pronounced Gain Just Above Where Americans are Fighting.

NEXT ASSAULT WORST

Germans Are Known to Have Two Large Forces Ready and May Strike at Any Point

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington.—The French and British yesterday and last night continued to record advances in their program of crowding the Germans at various points along the Franco-Belgian line and captured a vantage point here and there by harassing the enemy while preparations for the resumption of their drive were under way.

The most pronounced gain was effected by General Petain's troops just above the point where the line joins the American sector northwest of Belleau wood. They advanced here south of Passy-en-Valois and carried their line forward so that it runs east of the Chevry-Vinly railroad. In addition they held firmly to the ground and gained notably in the region of Mosloy, fighting off two German counter attacks.

The German command is known to have two large forces in readiness on the main battle front of France. They may strike anywhere on the 200 mile line owing to the great elasticity of movement and it is expected that the blow, when and where it comes, will be the mightiest the enemy can make.

Unconcerned about the German plans, the French continue to perfect their positions between the Aisne and the Marne southeast of Villers-Gotterets. They have extended their line and taken 265 prisoners while in the north 100 Germans were taken in small advances at St. Pierre Aigle.

The enemy did not react strongly and the French held their positions firmly.

West of the Brenta, General Diaz is preparing for any eventualities by strengthening his line as opportunity offers. East of the Asiago plateau the Italians reoccupied Mr. Valldella and the enemy was held back.

Take 500 Austrians.
Washington, July 1.—An official dispatch from Rome says that the Italians and the French at the Mt. Valldella plateau took 500 Austrian prisoners.

London, July 1.—British troops in a minor operation in the region northwest of Albert improved the British position and captured prisoners and machine guns, the war office announced.

The activity of the German artillery in the region between Albert and Arras and on the Flanders front was reported in the war office statement.

NEW CONCEITS IN FOULARD

Of course every woman who aspires to be fashionable long since has become convinced that she cannot do without a foulard dress. Although there are so many models among the new season's styles, the variety is as great as ever. To the left is a cream white foulard with tunic bordered with the same material in black and white design. The fancy silk also is used for the hem of the foundation skirt, the collar cuffs and belt. Medium size requires 5 yards 40-inch plain and 7 yards 40-inch figured foulard.

The background of the second model also is of white, but the figures are in tan and turquoise blue, supplying an excuse for the bow of turquoise velvet ribbon at the base of the large collar of white silk. Narrow accordion ruffles of silk finish the collar and cuffs. Six yards of figured and 3/4 yard of white silk make the dress.

First Model, Pictorial Review Blouse No. 7743. Sizes, 34 to 46 inches bust. Price, 29 cents.

Skirt No. 7688. Sizes, 24 to 36 inches waist. Price 20 cents.

FUSION OR FIGHTS.

Under the above heading, the New York World, Democratic, which has consistently supported President Wilson, says:

"When the President said to Congress the other day that 'politics is adjourned,' it must have been with some mental reservations. The attempt, with his approval, by the Democrats of Michigan to force Henry Ford upon the Republicans as a fusion candidate for United States senator may not be party politics exactly, for Mr. Ford is a Republican, but it bears a strong resemblance to political strategy.

"Party fusions for patriotic purposes have been suggested in states and districts where there is a prospect that, with the loyal vote divided, candidates opposed to the war or otherwise in sympathy with the enemy may be elected. Michigan is not such a state. Its normal Republican majority is large and the senatorial candidates thus far suggested by that party answer every test of Americans.

"Although a Republican, Mr. Ford is known as an ardent supporter of the President and his war policies. By making such a man their candidate in a state where one of their own number has no chance of election the Democrats show an agreeable willingness to support a Republican, provided they have the privilege of naming him.

"It is possible, however, that this clever performance may not promote the patriotic harmony so greatly to be desired at Washington. Mr. Ford's public statement that 'at the urgent request of the President' he has decided to accept the nomination is at least unfortunate, and it would not be surprising if it returned to plague him and others before many days.

"Mr. Ford adjourned his politics and pacifism some time ago. Perhaps he will be more useful in the senate than in industry, where great things have been accomplished by him. Perhaps no straight-out Republican candidate can hope to defeat him at the polls. Perhaps also the Republicans of Michigan will kindly let Democrats in Lansing and Washington pick their candidates for them and make no opposition.

"But if there should be resentment in Michigan, as well as in many other states, over what in the mildest terms must be characterized as an exceedingly irregular proceeding, we shall have more fights than fusions and the unity so ardently sought will be dangerously menaced. In all cases of proposed fusion our domestic peace will be promoted if the majority party be given first of all an opportunity to prove its mettle. Only where there has been outrageous failure of duty can minority dictation be justified, and as for intrusion from Washington, the less we have of it the better for all concerned."

Mrs. Otto Kamradt left this morning for her home at Marinette, after a short visit in the city.

THE THEATRES

AT THE DELFT. Geraldine Farrar, the noted prima donna, will appear at the Delft today and tomorrow in "The Woman God Forgot," a spectacular photo-drama written especially for her by Jeanie MacPherson, and produced under the personal direction of Cecil B. DeMille, the noted director.

In the few photo-dramas in which Geraldine Farrar has appeared, she has established herself as the leading emotional actress of the film.

For her theme in "The Woman God Forgot," Miss MacPherson has taken the story of a princess who sells her country for the man she loves. The whole story is taken from a chapter in the early history of America telling how the Spanish invaded Mexico and of their conquest of Montezuma and his Aztecs. Geraldine Farrar is seen as Tezca, daughter of Montezuma. She falls in love with a handsome young Spaniard, which role is played by the ever-popular star, Wallace Reid.

The production is one of the most elaborate and beautiful ever made by Cecil DeMille. The work of this famous director is too well known to be exploited in this brief space. Noted at the creator of artistic effects, his last work is considered his best.

The reproduction of the famous Aztec pyramid of Teocalli, as seen in "The Woman God Forgot," is the largest setting ever built for a photodramatic production, the pyramid being nearly 200 feet in height and an exact reproduction, in every detail, of the famous temple to the Aztec gods. Over a thousand men took part in the thrilling battle scenes and the effects of the first few cannon and gun powder are graphically shown.

AT THE STRAND. Accused of theft by Hal Sinclair, factor of the Northern Trading Company, at Fort Roscher, Petain Monest, an aged French Canadian, was sent out into the frozen wastes of the Canadian wilderness, to expiate his sins with the punishment of the unwritten law.

Robbed of all means of livelihood, without rifle, food or the means of shelter, Monest staggered along the bleak North trail and dragged himself to a pitiless death. The howl of the timber wolves gathering round the silent places about the figure of the dead trapper indicated where the criminal had given up his struggle.

The old man's death, however, was not the result of an actual guilt. "The Law of the Great Northwest," Triangle's great picture of the Canadian wilderness, tells the true cause. Petain Monest had a beautiful daughter. She was coveted by the brutal Hal Sinclair. Bitter enmity sprang up between Monest and Sinclair. Sinclair was all powerful. Murderous henchmen sprang to do his least bidding. The old man was "framed up."

Rugged, brutal and fascinating is this great picture of braving men on the edge of God's world. Hard, sullen and somber as the frozen wastes they traveled in search of furs, the strong men of the north fought for mastery, gold and love. Beautiful scenery abounds in this production. The canoes of the trappers are seen winding through the labyrinths of northern streams. Beautiful scenes of Indian life are also included. Beautiful Margery Wilson whom David Wark Griffith thought a great enough star to select for the portrayal of "The Mountain Girl" in "Intolerance," plays the lead, with Will Jeffries and Eugene Corey in support.

"The Law of the Northwest" will be invoked at the Strand Theatre tonight.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TO HOLD PICNIC. The Sunday school of the Swedish Methodist church will hold an annual picnic July 4. Take the street car to the South Park, walk three blocks south. The Sunday school class will leave the church at 10 a. m. Ice cream and coffee will be served free to everybody. An invitation is extended to all members of the church and their friends.
