TELLS GERMANS THEY CAN NO LONGER OFFER RESISTANCE TO ALLIES

Have Already Begun the Crossing of the Rhine But Traffic Is So Congested That Men March Rather Than Ride.

WILL REQUIRE NINE DAYS

But One Turkey Was Served in the Entire American Army of Occupation on Thanksgiving Day.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

With the American Army of Occupation, Nov. 29.—Gen. Von der Marwitz's fifth army will begin the crossing of the Rhine today. The crossing will require from eight to nine days. According to the German plan 200,000 men will be quartered daily at Frankfurt. Great congestion at Treves is reported. It had been planned to move the troops by rail but at many points the roads are unable to handle the extra traffic and thousands are marching east after waiting days for trains. The Germans are trying to withdraw as rapidly as possible.

Copies of a proclamation by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, urging German soldiers and civilians to accept conditions "with resignation and villages opposite the American lines. The proclamation says that this is considered the best policy in view of the fact that Germany is no longer able to make resistance against the allies.

One Turkey For Army.

With the American Army of Occupation, Nov. 29.—Only one turkey was served on Thanksgiving day in the entire American army of occupation. This was at the mess of 15 far-sighted officers of the bureau of operation, at the headquarters of the third division at Remich. The turkey was purchased on Nov. 11 and had been fattening since then.

At the mess of the staff officers of the 32nd division a quarter of venison was served. This was the gift of a resident of Luxemburg, whose hunting preserve is close to headquarters. The officers of the second division headquarters at La Rochette had duck, costing from 40 to 50 francs each. Chickens took the place of turkey with the officers of the first division and were nearly as expensive as ducks.

In other divisions Luxemburg ham, costing 20 francs a pound was served. Among the men there was an abundant supply of beef, nuts and mince meat. The cooks vied with each other in supplying the men with doughnuts, cakes and

INFLUENZA NOT REGARDED HERE AS DANGEROUS

A Few Cases of a Mild Type Are Reported Each Day But Pneumonia Has Not Been Following in Wake.

Yesterday's unpleasant weather has apparently not resulted in any particularly large number of new cases of influenza being reported this early. Dr. Carlson city health officer, stated today that a few new cases had been reported but nothing more than could have been expected under present conditions. The disease, as it appears now is of a mild type and pneumonia does not seem to be following as it did some weeks ago when malady was prevailing so extensively.

A few more people are taking serum treatments each day and no fear is felt that the disease will gain anything like its former strength here. In Gladstone the situation is also believed to be well at hand. There are about 75 cases there now, with a few new ones being reported each day but so far only one death from pneumonia has resulted and the cases existing now are regarded as being of only moderate severity.

The quarantine is still in effect and the ban will not be lifted until the officials feel sure that the danger has been eliminated.

CHURCHES OBSERVE THANKSGIVING WITH SPECIAL SERVICES

Thanksgiving day was generally observed by the various churches of the city yesterday with appropriate special services. Despite the roughness of the weather congregations significance, made the services more than usually interesting. The union service held at the Methodist church Thursday morning was very largely attended and spirit of the American people was reflected in the deep sincerity of the various services held in this city.

VICTORY "SING" GREAT SUCCESS AT THE DELFT

Hundreds Brave the Elements to Have a Share in Patriotic Program Which Is Pleasing to Those in Charge.

THEATRE IS CROWDED

Spirit of Joy As Well As Deep Seriousness Characterizes Impressive Program of Patriotic Songs.

The Community "Sings" held at the Delft theatre yesterday afternoon was a most gratifying surprise to those in charge, who were fearful that the inclement weather conditions would keep many away. However, it developed that a little thing like a peculiarly nasty day was not sufficient to quench the fires of patriotism that have burned so brightly in the American breast, and the Delft theatre was crowded, young people being particularly in evidence.

The program as outlined in the local papers was carried out and the enthusiasm and good will put into the singing proved intensely pleasing to the members of the woman's committee which had the affair in charge.

Miss Fancella French had charge of the music and led the singing, while Miss Englund at the piano and Mr. Johansen on the violin contributed immeasurably to the success of the program, which was opened by the singing of "America."

Miss French also sang "Keep The Home Fires Burning" with the audience joining in the chorus. A particularly appropriate and well received contribution was that of Miss Marie Turner who sang "The Marseillaise."

The audience was most enthusiastic and the spirit of the occasion was typically American. Members of the woman's committee wish to publicly express their thanks to the ladies and gentlemen who contributed so signally to the success of the program, as well as to the newspapers of the city for their share in bringing the matter to the attention of the public.

LEO STURM IS TAKEN TO FATHER'S HOME IN ASHFORD, WISCONSIN

Man Recently Lost in the Woods is Unable to Recall to a Single Incident of His Three Days' Wandering.

William Sturm, of Ashford, Wis. arrived in the city yesterday and last night left with his son Leo Sturm, the man who was lost in the woods for several days near the St. Nicholas colony recently. Leo Sturm, as has been previously explained, had a sunstroke last summer and since then has been subject to temporary fits of mental aberration. It was during one of these attacks that he wandered away into the woods and was in grave peril for several days.

The father hopes his son will recover after being kept at his home for a while but if his condition does not improve, he will be sent to a sanitarium. The unfortunate man was not able to remember anything about his wanderings through the woods. Following his location, he was brought to Escanaba and taken to the home of John Carlson in North Escanaba, where he remains until his father's arrival yesterday.

WALTER MORTON NEAR ESCANABA WHEN HE DIED

Young Man Writes His Sister That He Was Within 100 Yards of Clarence Hamacher When Letter Was Killed.

LETTER WRITTEN NOV. 10

Americans Got Their First Information That the Kaiser Had Abdicated the Day the Letter Was Written.

Mrs. Archie Villemure, 213 Stephenson avenue, is in receipt of a brief but most interesting letter from her brother Walter Morton, Co. D, 7th U. S. Infantry, in France. The letter was written Nov. 10th and in part says: "Just got back a few days ago from chasing the Germans and found it pretty hot at times but got out of it all without even a scratch. Want that great? Honestly, Sis, I believe it was you people over there, with your prayers for me that kept me so lucky. You know Clarence Hamacher from there. The day he was killed 1811 bet I was not a hundred yards from him at the time, and his chum, Corry Hermanson of Menominee, was seriously wounded at the same time by the same shell.

"Well I took several cracks at the Germans so now I am satisfied. I won't say any more about that stuff until I get home and by the way things look now, that will be soon. We heard about the Kaiser abdicating today and all we hear is peace. I hope it is true."

The remainder of the letter is of personal character.

GERMAN ADMIRAL PROTESTS ABOUT STRIKING FLAGS

Says It "Is Not in Keeping With the Idea of Chivalry of the Two Great Opponents."

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

London, Nov. 29.—Admiral von Reuter, commander of the German fleet which surrendered to the allies on Nov. 21, has protested against the order of British Admiral Beatty, directing that the German flag be hauled down. He says, "I esteem it unjust and contrary to international custom to order the striking of the flags on German ships. It is not in keeping with the idea of chivalry between the two great opponents."

Admiral Beatty says that the armistice is merely a suspension of hostilities and that a state of war still exists. In conclusion he stated, "Under the circumstances no enemy vessel can fly its national ensign in British ports until under custody."

DELTA COUNTY BOYS MEET IN FRANCE AND ENJOY BRIEF VISIT

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Edward Anderson of the Royal Grocery Company, writes from France of a most interesting meeting of himself and two other Delta County boys there recently. He says he unexpectedly came in contact with Henry and Edmond Barron, both of Flat Rock, and they were given time to make a visit of several hours together, a period which it is needless to say was thoroughly enjoyed by all of them.

Dr. C. H. Long, of Chicago, spent Thanksgiving in this city as the guest of his brother, Dr. Frank Long.

CHRISTMAS AIR IN ACTIVITIES AT RED CROSS

Many Packages Are Being Brought in to Be Sent to Delta County Boys Who Are Now Overseas.

SATURDAY NIGHT LAST

Packages Must Be Brought to Headquarters by Six O'clock Saturday Night if They Are To Reach Soldiers.

The spirit of Christmas is in the air at Red Cross headquarters now. All day long parents have been coming in with Christmas packages for their boys at the front. Early this morning 234 packages had left at the Escanaba headquarters to be dispatched and the large number of inquiries being made indicates that this number will be almost doubled by Saturday night at 6 o'clock, the last hour at which packages will be received for transmission to the men overseas.

In spite of the fact that it has been explained several times, there is still a belief that parents absolutely must have the Christmas labels sent by the boys themselves, or a package cannot be sent. This is not the case. The government has notified that stamps and labels are now provided by Red Cross headquarters for the use of parents who have not yet received the official labels from their boys. All that is necessary is for the parent to make affidavit that the boy is in the service and the package will be sent just exactly as all those go which have the regular labels.

A Pitiful Case.

One mother called this morning stating that she didn't know what to do. She brought with her a letter from her son who states he guesses it is no use for her to write, as he has not received and mail from home since he has been overseas. He attributes this to the fact that he has been transferred so often and that if his people are writing to him, the mail does not follow him. Across the letter the censor has written appealing to the mother to write often, as the boy is "blue."

The mother explains that she has written often, perhaps has sent 25 letters and she cannot understand why he hasn't received any of them. When assured that she could send a Christmas package and be assured that it would follow her boy, she seemed overjoyed. She had not intended trying to send a package in view of the discouraging news she had received about the mail.

Saturday Night Last.

All persons who intend sending Christmas packages are asked to have them in to the headquarters in time to be inspected, wrapped and ready for the postoffice by six o'clock Saturday evening. The mails of the last few days have brought a large number of labels from the men at the front and those who have been awaiting them are now busy packing their boxes ready for shipment.

BROTHER OF LOCAL WOMAN IS KILLED IN ACTION IN OCTOBER

Mrs. Adolph L. Flink, 307 South Elm street has received notice that her brother Leslie Bowman, of Menominee, had been killed in action in France early during the month of October. Mr. Bowman was originally a member of Company L of Marquette, which did such valiant service which was so badly broken up by losses that it lost its identity by being merged with another unit. He was transferred to another regiment when his company was broken up. Mr. Bowman had a number of friends in Escanaba who will learn with deep regret of his death.

CHILD LOSES LIFE WHEN CLOTHING IS IGNITED FROM STOVE

A fatal accident in which 3-year old Isabel Trudeau, of Gladstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Trudeau, was the unfortunate victim, occurred Wednesday evening when the child's clothing caught fire during the temporary absence of the mother from the room. The little one had apparently stood too close to a stove and her dress became ignited. Hearing the child's screams, the mother rushed into the room and finally managed to extinguish the flames but not before the baby had been burned to such an extent that death occurred a short time later. Mrs. Trudeau's hands were also badly burned during her awful experience.

TO EXTRADITE KAISER

France and England Decide on Procedure While Kaiser Himself Plans Triumphant Return to Power in Berlin.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Newcastle, England, Nov. 29.—Germany must pay the costs of the war to the limit of her capacity, Premier Lloyd George said in a speech here today. He declares that the pirates must be punished and those who have devastated the allied countries must be held responsible. Referring to the culpability of the authors of the war he said the government intended that the investigation to be conducted should be fair but stern and go to a final reckoning. Premier Lloyd George said he intended that the men who did not treat prisoners humanely be made personally responsible. It was not his idea to follow a policy of vengeance but action must be along such lines that men who hereafter attempt to follow the example of those who plunged the world into war, will also know what is awaiting them at the end.

The actual procedure to be followed in demanding the surrender of the former German emperor to the allies, will be discussed in London, according to the Express. Premier Clemenceau of France, will arrive Sunday with Marshal Foch. The British and French governments have reached a decision on their right to make the demand of Holland.

It is said now that the revolution in Germany is being managed by officers of the German high command who are dressed in civilian clothes, with a view to its final collapse and the triumphant return to Berlin of the Emperor. Many of these officers have been recognized.

John Ecklund, Jr. Is In French Hospital From Mustard Gas

A brief letter from John Ecklund Jr. of Stonington states that he is in a French hospital suffering from the effects of a mustard gas attack. The letter was written on scraps of paper and says the young man's eyes have been "put on the hummer." As the father has received no official notification from the war department yet, it is believed the injury was sustained during the latest fighting just before the armistice was signed.

Mr. Winter has arrived safely overseas according to word received here. The Swedish Lutheran church in the church's parsonage tonight at 8:00. Refreshments will be served.

SERGEANT KIRSTIN REMAINS AT THE HOUGHTON SCHOOL

Escanaba Boy Has Repeatedly Refused Offers Made Him to Go to An Officers' Training School.

Sergeant H. F. Kirstine who enlisted with the first men who went to Houghton is still retained at that place, although two new detachments have retained their training and been transferred.

The Daily Mining Gazette contains the following:

"Sergeant H. F. Kirstine, Major Fisher's Chief Clerk is now the oldest enlisted man in the camp. He is the sole survivor of the old 'first training detachment,' and has repeatedly refused offers made him to go to an officers' training camp.

"There is nothing really official in the way of information at the college as to the definite tenure of the corps. There is a suspicion that engineers and medical corps men will be retained in the service rather longer than others, and it may be that after these men have completed their training, they will be sent to engineer units in France to participate in the work of reconstruction."

Sergeant Kirstine was home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

ONTONAGON GANG RAIDS JAIL AND GETS MUCH BEER

(Special to The Mirror.)
 Ontonagon, Mich., Nov. 29.—Thirty people who did not go to Houghton to take part in the "peace day" celebration Nov. 11 got away, it is believed, with the thirty barrels of beer the Ontonagon county sheriff had seized, while looking for hoarded sugar, and stored in the county barn. Anyway the "liker" is not in the jail now.

The sheriff is said to have made the avowal that he will "get" the beer, if it has not already been put to the use for which beer is considered as intended, and will also "get" the "thirsty gang."

 Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by an Escanaba man.

George Southerland, 814 Wells Ave., says: "About seven years ago my kidneys were out of order and my back was lame and sore. When I tried to bend over, sharp, darting pains caught me in my back. On one occasion, a sharp pain in my back almost felled me. As Doan's Kidney Pills were such a highly praised kidney remedy, I tried them and one box cured me of the trouble, giving me up in good shape."

GERMANS MAKE WHEAT PROFIT OFF THE ALLIES

Purchase of Two and One-Half Tons of Wheat in Argentina Puts Nice Profit into Pockets of German Speculators.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
 Buenos Aires, Nov. 29.—The purchase of two and a half million tons of Argentine wheat by the Allied governments has brought good profits into the pockets of German grain brokers in Buenos Aires despite strict instructions that none of the Allied wheat was to be purchased from Germans.

Today, in addition to having made a nice profit out of the Allied trade, the Germans have about a million sacks of wheat stored along the wharves to be sold some of these days, probably back to Argentina, at prices much above cost.

When the Allied Wheat Convention was signed, there was a scarcity of grain sacks in Argentina. They could

As soon as the Wheat Convention was signed and people began to turn their attention to buying wheat, the Germans kept out of wheat pits and devoted all their energies to buying sacks. They bought the entire outputs of the few Argentine factories and then they began cornering the sack market in Uruguay.

This enabled the German agents to control the sale to the Allies of a part of Argentina's wheat crop.

"VICTORY DAY" CELEBRATIONS WERE NUMEROUS

Thursday Will Be Noted in State History as "Victory Thanksgiving Day" Because of Many Observances

GREAT DETROIT PARADE

Line of March Is Five Miles Long and Thousands Participate in Great Ceremony with Double Significance.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Detroit, Mich., Nov. 29.—Thanksgiving day, Nov. 28, 1918, will be noted in Michigan history as the state's "Victory Thanksgiving" day, or in hundreds of towns, cities and hamlets, at scores of small villages and crossroads and in the country settlements, the day was noted as one of Thanksgiving not only for material and spiritual blessings of peace and victory visited upon the entire world, a peace and victory with the bringing of which Michigan people had no small part.

Thanks services of deep religious feeling, combined with victory celebrations were held in many churches of the state and of the nation today. In thousands of churches of all denominations praise and thanksgiving were offered yesterday, Union services were held, as on the usual Thanksgiving day, but this year they meant more than in years gone by. In the cities of the old world, the American Thanksgiving was commemorated yesterday and praise and thanks were offered as in this country and Canada, followed by impressive victory celebrations in the metropolitan centers of the allied countries.

Big Detroit Celebration The victory celebrations held in Detroit and other Michigan towns yesterday were the noisy demonstration of "armistice" day, Monday, Nov. 11, but were impressively planned commemorations. There was no unbridled or rowdy, carefree noisy celebrating but orderly observances, held according to program.

Following Thanksgiving services, pageants, which featured the celebrations in Detroit and elsewhere, were held. In this city more than 50,000 people marched in the great parade, with two hundred or more appropriately designed floats, with civic and military sections and with 75 or more bands sounding the paeans of victory. The christian world's marching hymn of victory and praise and the battlesong of the nations of freedom, "Onward Christian Soldiers" kept the beat for the thousands of marching soldiers of industry and war who helped free the world from the thralldom of autocracy.

Line Five Miles Long. The line of march was through a five-mile lane of flags, banked by a goodly portion of Detroit's million and thousands of visitors who came from the towns of the state near Detroit and from those of the province of Ontario. The pageant was held as a testimonial of the city to the 235,000 Americans who have fallen in battle, giving of their blood for Freedom that the nation and the world might live. The only marchers in civilian clothing were the munitions and war factory and shipyard workers, liberty loan, patriotic fund and draft board members, all others of the tens of thousands being uniformed. There was a great Red Cross division, both men and women in uniform. Heavy artillery and tank sections, great guns and

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids—Splendid for system.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it. Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

land dreadnaughts built in Detroit, and a great war-plane, Michigan product, were features of the pageant. Eighteen hundred troops from Fort Wayne, 65 soldiers of the royal Italian navy, Canadian soldiers and sailors U. S. Marines and sailors and representatives of many of the allied nations helped make up the military section. French veterans handled a victory gun which threw into the frosty air bursting shells filled with red, white and blue confetti. Ten thousand dollars was given by the city toward the victory celebration.

"BRITAIN DAY" TO BE OBSERVED ON DEC. 7TH

Many Cities of State Plan to Hold Celebrations in Commemoration of England's Part in the War.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 29.—Plans for the celebration of Britain day on December 7 are progressing, now, in a great many of the smaller as well as in most of the larger cities of the state. Not only along the border, where naturally many former Canadian residents are assisting with the plans but in the interior of the state are celebrations being arranged to commemorate the part Great Britain and her colonies have taken in the world war.

In this city plans are afoot for a two-day observance, December 7 and 8. There will also likely be celebrations at Lansing, Port Huron, Calumet, Houghton, Saginaw, Ann Arbor and possibly Detroit, although the Victory day celebration on Thanksgiving held chief interest.

Plans for Britain day celebrations include, at most cities, big pageants showing floats representative of Great Britain, including the colonies, and of the other allied nations. American and British colors will intertwine in the decorations. There will also be public exercises and appropriate entertainments.

THINK 85TH WILL BE AMONG FIRST UNITS BACK HOME

News From France Is Taken to Indicate That Men of This Fighting Division Will Return to America Shortly.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Battle Creek, Mich., Nov. 29.—News from France received some time ago that the 85th division had been split up and was acting as a depot or replacement division, may mean that those units of the organization on the western front will be among the first troops sent home. It was announced from Washington a few days ago that General Pershing had indicated that replacement units were among those not included in the army of occupation and might be sent home.

However, a number of regimental and other units of the 85th are understood to be in northern Russia or Siberia and it is supposed here that they will remain there until American troops are finally withdrawn from the former empire of the czar.

A great many men who trained with the 32nd division, which is made up almost entirely of Michigan and Wisconsin men and is said to be leading the American Third army.

KILL OF DEER IN STATE IS ABOUT SAME AS BEFORE

Weather Has Been Ideal for Hunting This Fall and Hunters Have Done Well in Michigan Woods.

Houghton, Mich., Nov. 29.—The kill of deer in the woods of northern Michigan this fall has been about as great as it was last year, but last year's record was considerably lower than the normal, due partially to lack of snow, during the hunting season, in many districts and also because of the one-deer law, which has kept many hunters out of the woods.

The weather this fall has been ideal for deer hunting, although the small fall of snow has hardly been sufficient for good tracking. Fewer hunters have come into the northern woods from Detroit, Saginaw and other lower Michigan cities this fall and the war has kept a great many from the chase.

Hunting fatalities this year will show a considerable falling off from the dozen or more reported last season, it is believed. There have not been more than half a dozen reported to date, if that number. As usual carelessness of the victims is shown to have caused the greater number of hunting accidents in general, although most of this year's fatalities have been due to carelessness of hunting companions of the victims or others.

He has asked that business firms and corporations and others notify him of available positions for discharged soldiers.

AMERICAN CASH OPENS EYES OF OUR NEIGHBORS

Influx of U. S. Capital Into South America Brings Vision of Great Possibilities of Trade with This Country.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) La Paz, Nov. 29.—Influx of American capital into the central republics of South America for the development of vast areas of hitherto untouched resources has caused Bolivia and Paraguay to awaken to a realization of the possibilities that lie in the disputed zone which is known as the Great Chaco.

The boundary line between these two republics never has been fixed definitely because of the wilderness of the country, but both nations have been satisfied with going on record as claiming all the zone and then going about their daily business without forcing the issue.

But now that great development companies from the United States are seeking concessions, the newspapers and public men are urging that the old question be brought up for final settlement.

The Great Chaco is a vast area north of Argentina between the Pilcomayo and Paraguay rivers. It is claimed by both Bolivia and Paraguay, though both admit that their claims are so large that they will have to give up large areas in the final reckoning.

For several years Bolivia has been preparing quietly for the day of final settlement, so that it is now in a position to press the issue to advantage. That country has constructed a chain of forts at intervals of twenty miles in direct wireless communication with La Paz, put its army in possession of the strip and settled back to wait for the argument which now appears to be approaching.

ARGENTINA IS AWAKE TO BIG SOURCE OF GAIN

Takes the Lead in Effort to Have South American Republics Tear Down Their Tariff Walls.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Buenos Aires, Nov. 29.—Argentina has taken the lead in an effort to persuade the South American republics to tear down their tariff walls and open themselves to free trade among themselves, arguing that such action would make them commercially independent of other countries in Europe and North America. This step has been taken in spite of the fact that until now the Argentine's principal source of revenue has been its custo show its sincerity, the Argentine Government has introduced a bill in Congress providing for the opening of diplomatic negotiations with all the neighboring countries for the adoption of treaties providing for the free exchange of the products of each country concerned.

If the desire of Argentina is to remove the fiscal barriers which in the past have estranged the nations of South America and restricted commerce between them, making them dependent on overseas nations.

A year's trial of free trade with Peru has led Argentina to seek similar arrangements with the other republics. The Peruvian legation in Buenos Aires and the Argentine consulate in Lima have acted as commercial agents for their respective countries with the result that today there is a regular trade of wheat, flour, and cereals to Peru in exchange for cotton, rice and sugar from Peru.

It is expected that Chile will be the next republic to ratify a free trade treaty.

Keeping Faith With Our Patrons

If you go back into the files of this paper—you'll find that at one time during the progress of the war we advised city patrons to buy liberally against the time when clothes would be more costly.

Later, when we got into the war and Uncle Sam began bidding for clothes and actual famine on woollens threatened, our suggestion was to not buy at all unless clothes were absolutely needed.

Now the war is over—but at that it is a practical certainty for a long time to come, that there will be no recession from wholesale and retail prices—ONE THING—We at once feel at liberty to advise buying from stocks now on hand—not to the extent of hoarding—but to provide for actual needs against the elements of the season.

H. R. PATTENGILL PASSES AWAY AT HOME IN LANSING

Well Known Educator Had a Host of Friends in This City and All Over the Upper Peninsula.

Escanabans identified with the public school system will probably learn with the deepest regret of the death in Lansing, of Henry R. Pattengill, who is said to have known and to have been known to more school teachers in the state of Michigan than any one man. He was one of the best known educators in the state and had many warm personal friends in practically every county.

He was almost as well known in the upper peninsula as in the lower Michigan, and he was a frequent visitor to Marquette both during his term as state superintendent of public instruction and in later years, as speaker at county institutes and meetings of the Upper Peninsula Educational association.

Mr. Pattengill served as superintendent of public instruction from 1892 to 1896, and it was during this period that he built up his extensive acquaintance among the teachers of the state.

Was a graduate of the University of Michigan, in 1874, taking up teaching as a profession. He was superintendent of schools at Ithaca and St. Louis and for a few years previous to 1885 he was professor of English at the Michigan Agricultural college. In 1885 he established the Moderator Topics, a weekly school paper, which has circulated extensively among teachers. He continued his connection with it throughout his term as a state official and during the later part of his life and was its editor at the time of his death.

Hoffman Drops Jag Costs Frank Warren $25.00 And Costs

Frank Warren who was picked up on the streets Wednesday night while under the influence of a Hoffman drops jag, was assessed $25 and costs in Justice Glaser's court yesterday. And Frank was not exactly what might be called surfeited with turkey either, during his incarceration in the city jail. All of which made Thanksgiving a rather bleak and dreary sort of an occasion when viewed retrospectively.

AT THE DELFT.

The biblical saying that "fear hath torment," is undeniably true. Fear has power to dwarf the hopes, aspirations, ambitions and vigor of men and women, while the lack of it makes a lion of a mouse. Thus, in "Tyrrant Fear," the new Dorothy Dalton picture, produced for Paramount under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince, it is not until Allaine Grandet has cast off the burden of fear, that she is freed from the terrible danger that menaced her—a danger to easiness or words to express.

In the wild north land where she dwelt women were mere chattie, and of these Allaine was not the least. She is sold by her father to Jules Latour a brutal and primitive trapper, who subsequently gambles her away to James Dermont, the keeper of a wild den in the gold settlement. She is here befriended by a besotted pianist, who has seen better days, but whose manhood revives in Allaine's environment. The gambling hall proprietor seeks to bend her to his will, but she resists him, nameless fear tugging at her heart strings. When he seeks to enforce his will upon her, she shoots and wounds him, and with this act her fear vanishes and she becomes mistress of herself. She goes with the pianist into the snows, and in the drift their dogs unearth the body of Latour. So she finds happiness in the love her protector, whose manhood her faith in him has restored.

The story of "Tyrrant Fear" which is to be shown at the Delft theatre, today and Saturday was written by R. Cecil Smith, and the picture was directed by R. W. Neil under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince. The photographer was John Stumer. A strong cast supports Miss Dalton in this charming play.
