

RACE RIOTS CONTINUE

BIG CROWDS SEE CIRCUS AND PARADE

Magnitude Is Surprise to People; Animals Are Numerous.

Al. G. Barnes big animal show arrived in Escanaba this morning from Menominee and has its tents pitched at the Fair grounds. The aggregation is the largest exhibition of its kind in the world. The parade this morning contained many open dens of beasts of the jungle and forests, and wild animals of all species paced their cages.

There were numerous bands and callopes in the parade, and the line of bright and glittering colors had the closest attention of the throngs that lined the streets, traversed by the parade, which took place during the noon hour.

Barnes has a more spectacular parade, and a bigger and better show than ever before.

Follow to Grounds.
Eager crowds, filled with expectancy followed the bands and everything to the show grounds.

Two sideshows opened before the big show—every freak and curiosity was represented. A hundred other things were all there. Red lemons, balloons and all were in evidence.

Then the big show in four rings—elephants, camels, zebras, llamas, sacred cows of India, sea lions, seals, leopards, tigers, pumas, panthers, jaguars, dogs, monkeys, goats, pigs, ostriches, kangaroos and even a troupe of trained geese, all ready for their part of entertaining.

A band of 60 pieces greeted the crowd in the big tent and funny clowns amused till the show began—and the show. Oh, Boy! Alice in Wonderland—well one can't describe it. It is one of the greatest conceptions of artistic creation imaginable. One hundred and ten varied animal features are given—each one a wonderful display of nerve and daring—and if one lives to be as old as Methuselah he will never see a more wonderful, educational display—that brings old Father Noah and his Ark to the door—Al. G. Barnes has the greatest animal circus on earth.

Eleven Dead, 28 Hurt, Blimp Toll

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Ill., July 22.—Federal, state and city officials today began a searching investigation of the explosion of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company's dirigible balloon which yesterday resulted in eleven deaths, the injury of 28 persons and wrecked the interior of the Illinois Trust and Savings bank.

Charges that several devices used on the giant blimp were used for the first time on this type of aircraft will be closely investigated.

One device was a rotary motor loaned for the purpose by Major Maranville, chief of the army aircraft division at Akron, O., flying field, who declared that while there was danger of fire in its use, he believed every precaution had been taken.

Another device said to have been used for the first time on the blimp was a number of silk balloonettes attached to the main body. Major Maranville said the friction of these balloonettes against both sides of the structure may have been responsible for the accident.

REJECTED AND ACCEPTED AND HOME, A HERO

With the arrival of George James, Masonville, from army service overseas, the story of how he was rejected because of a physical disability and after pleading was allowed to go to another camp, only to be accepted, is revealed.

James was sent to Columbus Barracks, Ohio, last year and after being given a thorough examination, his condition was found to be such that Col. Johnston recommended the man be returned to his home. Col. Johnston declared the man was not in fit condition to soldier, either in a limited service unit or overseas.

On his return here James displayed much regret at being rejected and on numerous occasions asked the county draft board to reconsider him. Finally they did and he was sent to Camp Custer. At Custer James passed the examinations. A few months later he was sent overseas.

James fought in the Argonne, St. Mihiel and Verdun campaigns and came out a veteran but unscarred. He saw Clarence Hamacher, Escanaba boy, fall in the fighting but a few rods away from him, and he saw another Escanaba man named Hamilton, whose relatives here are unknown to county officials.

Left As An Alien; Returns a Citizen

Leaving Delta county as an alien to serve in the American army forces and returning to the country as a full fledged citizen, is the proud achievement of Lucien Snep, Kipling young man.

Snep this morning applied at the county clerk's office for his certificate of citizenship. It has not been for warder by government officials thus far, but Snep is entitled to all benefits and privileges of a citizen despite that he has not obtained his certificate.

The young man went overseas with the 162nd infantry and while stationed at Countres, France he made application for citizenship. Later he was informed that his application has been approved and that he was given the right of an American citizen.

Although there are several similar instances in the country, but one certificate of citizenship has been forwarded to this county by government officials to date.

To Arrest Officials.

State's Attorney Hoyne and Coroner Hoffman declared that every official of the Chicago office of the Goodyear company would be taken into custody.

Seventeen persons have been detained at downtown hotels as witnesses. Among those detained is J. Bottner, pilot of the dirigible, who escaped by jumping with a parachute, and W. Young, in charge of the aeriatrics department of the Goodyear company.

Of the eleven dead, nine were employes of the bank and two were passengers in the aircraft. Five persons were in the aircraft at the time of the accident and three escaped. When the balloon crashed through the glass skylight of the bank, a two-story building, more than 200 employes, mostly girls, were at work.

Knew Something Was Wrong.
Bottner, the pilot, was taken to police headquarters.

"As we neared State street," said Bottner, "I felt the machine buckle. I knew something had happened and saw flames licking the bag. I shouted for all to jump and leaped out of the car." State street is three blocks from where the airship fell.

The accident occurred shortly before 5 o'clock. The balloon with its five passengers was making its maiden trip above the city in the interest of an amusement company. According to witnesses, a spurt of flames appeared at the stern above the engine. In a moment there was a puff of smoke and the flames attacked the big gas bag. Almost simultaneously four parachutes leaped from the airship. Three of them got clear of the burning craft but the fourth was caught in the falling ship was burned, its passenger, Carl Weaver, of Akron, O., plunging to his death.

Publicity Man Killed.
Earl Davenport, publicity man for the amusement park, and one time sport writer, did not jump from the machine. His body was hurled through the bank roof and burned to a crisp.

Harry Wackend, Akron, O., chief mechanic of the dirigible, was one of those who came down alive. His back was broken and he was not expected to live.

The dirigible exploded and dropped on the roof of the building and the gas tank and part of the steel frame crashed through the skylight in the banking room, where the tank exploded. The airship was an experimental device. In a statement to the police J. Boettner, assistant pilot, who escaped by leading in a parachute, said:

"I have no idea how the ship caught fire. The two 80 horse-power motors had been working well prior

JOSEPH LEMAY, AN OLD PIONEER HERE, DIES, FAMILY HOME

Lumberman Passes Away At His Home Here After Being Ill Long Time.

With the death of Joseph Lemay this morning, another of Escanaba's pioneers and one of the best known lumbermen of the peninsula passed away. Mr. Lemay, who was nearly 87 years old, died at the family home, 206 Stephenson avenue, about 9 o'clock.

Previous to retiring from business about fifteen years ago, Mr. Lemay was engaged in the lumbering business in the peninsula and was second only to the late Senator Isaac Stephenson as a familiar character in the lumbering camps of the upper state. For the past three years he had been in ill health, falling gradually until the end came today.

Mr. Lemay was born in St. Ursule, Canada, and had lived in Delta county since 1872. Sixty years ago he was married to Mrs. Lemay at DePere, Wis., where they made their home previous to coming to Escanaba. Mr. Lemay was a member of the Knights of Columbus council of Escanaba and of the Institut Jacques Cartier, French society. The widow and an adopted son, Edward LaRock, are the survivors. The latter resides in Wisconsin and is expected to arrive here tonight.

Pending word from relatives who are expected to come here, the funeral services will not be arranged.

Fletcher Tells 50 Yankees Killed But No Action Resulted

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 22.—Henry B. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, told the house rules committee today that since his appointment three years ago about 50 Americans had been killed in Mexico without a single prosecution being made by American authorities.

"What excuse has been given in official circles for lack of arrests and prosecutions?"
"They usually explained that the murders had been committed by bandits and that every effort would be made to run down the bandits."

Harry Desnoyers Arrives in States

Wire communications to this city announce the arrival from overseas of Harry Desnoyers, Green Bay man, who was employed in the Escanaba & Lake Superior railway office here before he went into the service. Desnoyers has been sent to Camp Mills to be discharged. He was with a contingent of Yankees on the Archangel front.

to the explosion we had made two trials, not experimenting a bit of trouble.
The gas bag started on the first cruise for the day and was nearly 2,000 feet high when the fire, which crept slowly up from the stern, was discovered. An attempt was made to change the course and it began to move slowly toward the loop.

Suddenly the balloon was enveloped in flames and when about 800 feet above the bank building it collapsed and fell through the skylight. The entire banking room was wrecked by the explosion, clerks being thrown to the floor and to the side of the room.

Chicago July 22.—The twelfth victim of the disaster was Milton Norton, a photographer employed by a Chicago newspaper, who fell from the machine. He died of his injuries today.

GRUFF CIRCUS MAN CHANGES TO FONDLER

"Get back," he growled as people surged toward the hustling workmen at the circus grounds.

And they all got back, for he was a husky fellow as gruff appearing as his voice and in the jargon of a circus gang he "sings a mean arm."

But it took a little slip of a child to change his tone of voice. It strayed far beyond where the crowd dared. Mothers standing nearby were breathless. They almost expected him to hurl a tent stake at the child.

But—he didn't. He just picked up the child and fondled it. And then he reprimanded the mother for letting it stray.

Even circus men have a heart, they were convinced.

Pending closing of the deal, no action will be taken to make extensive alterations at the Ludington hotel to fit the building for use as apartments.

4 MORE ARE DEAD; FIFTY ARE INJURED

Martial Law Will Be Proclaimed Unless Control Gained.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
Washington, July 22.—Congress was asked to take notice of the race riots and crime wave in the national capital today and President Wilson was asked to declare martial law and police the city with troops, in resolutions introduced in the house by Representatives Clark, Democrat, Florida, and Vail, Republican, Colorado.

Senator Harrison, Mississippi, Democrat, introduced a resolution to separate whites and blacks on the street cars.

Washington, July 22.—Proclamation of martial law may be necessary to end the race rioting here which last night resulted in the killing of four persons and injury to at least fifty.

Detective Sergeant Harry Wilson was shot and killed by a Negro girl. Three Negro men are dead. Several of the injured were reported fatally hurt and at least 200 rioters were taken into custody.

Attacks On Whites.
Not since the Civil war has the capital witnessed such disorderly times.

The several days of disorders following attacks on white women, robberies and assaults by Negroes, culminated in a series of race battles during the night with which the police were unable to cope fully, despite the aid of two troops of cavalry and 400 marines.

Last night the fight was largely in quarters of the Negroes who had transferred their activities to lesser guarded districts.

From trolley cars and swiftly moving automobiles Negroes desperate, in parties, singly and in pairs, rained revolver shots into groups of whites whenever they found them and all night there was scattered firing from houses in which Negroes had barricaded themselves.

War Department Acts?
Local authorities are conferring with war department officials today on measures to stop the rioting.

With the opening of festivities to celebrate the return of Negro soldiers, race riots broke out in Norfolk, Va., according to reports received here and last night for the first time since in 1913 the cavalry troopers were called out as guards. Two of the four Negroes shot last night were expected to die and two white men also were seriously hurt. It was unwholesome for a Negro to be seen in the business district, and it was, as well, dangerous for a white person to venture into a colored district.

Mrs. C. A. Aberly, of Crystal Falls, arrived in this city last evening to visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Vogle.

Will Lose Sight of Eye in Accident

Menominee—Caroline Smith, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith, Porterfield, will in all probability lose the sight of her eye as a result of striking herself with a stick she was carrying while on the family farm Saturday night about 7 o'clock.

The little child was assisting in bringing the cows in from pasture, and was carrying a stick with a wire attached to the end, which she used to chase the cows along. She was swinging it around, when the wire caught in her eye, seriously injuring that member.

Her parents brought her into Menominee, where she was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and medical attention given. Hospital authorities announced that there was little hope for saving the eye, and in all probability the pupil of the eye was so injured that the sight was scattered which would result in her being blind in this eye for the remainder of her life.

The injury is very painful, and all that medical attention and science can do is being done in an effort to save the eye, but there is little hope entertained in this connection at the hospital.

Rich Oil Fields, But They Starve

Buzeu, Rumania, June 23, (By Mail) —Here in the midst of one of the world's richest oil fields, people have been actually starving.

Before the war this part of Rumania produced big fortunes in oil, being one of the greatest sources of European supply. Today its wells are in ruins and the people are destitute. The invading armies requisitioned everything that could be pried loose and transported, paralyzing one of the wealthiest industries in the Balkans.

Workers for the American Red Cross, which is distributing relief in the form of foods and medicines throughout the country, have found people eating bread made of leaves, twigs and bark from trees. People were bartering the coats off their backs for small portions of corn and coarse bran. In one place the relief workers found a small local hospital in which the patients slept on boards with no mattresses and little covering. At one home they found five fatherless children, the oldest only nine years of age, cooking a meal of tree bark and bran, while the mother was out at work in the fields.

"Typhus is very prevalent and there is an increasing amount of smallpox," says one American woman's report. "There is no doctor nor medicines in this village and absolutely no way of taking care of the sick. In another village which I visited the entire population of 600 persons was ill with some obscure form of contagious disease."

TWO SPEEDERS FINED.

Mrs. Thurston, Cyril Bondwin and Mrs. McGee, of Gladstone, will motor to Cooks Mill tomorrow where they will spend the week-end at the home of Mrs. Thurston's mother at Bolt Willowside farm.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 600 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it grays, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray has disappeared; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustreous, and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

What Constitutes Division Is Query

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Washington, July 22.—What is a regular division?

This interesting inquiry comes from the U. S. Marines, serving with the Second Division, now on duty in Germany. The Second Division has a total strength of 26,467 officers and men. Of these 23,513 are men who enlisted or were drafted for the period of the emergency only. The remaining 2,954 men must serve until their regular enlistment term expires.

"The folks back home, when they read or speak of the First Second, Third, Fourth or other regular division," says a Marine officer, "at once think of old war-hardened veterans. There are as many real regulars in our division as in any other, and we have less than 3,000."

Au Sable—After squabbling for weeks over engaging teachers, the men who composed the Au Sable city board of education all resigned. A special election resulted in election of a board composed entirely of women.

St. Clair—Some wag changed the speed limit sign here from 15 miles an hour to 75 miles an hour and several auto drivers have taken the sign seriously. Accidents have been narrowly averted on the south road into St. Clair.

Petoskey—Howard Peasely, 55 years old, was instantly killed and his brother, William, badly injured when an automobile in which they were going in search of huckleberries, overturned on a sharp curve near Oden, pinning them beneath it.

Detroit—Michigan's wheat crop is larger this year than it has been for 10 years, and mills of the state will be kept running to capacity to take care of it, according to F. B. Dresse, of Lansing, secretary of the Michigan Millers' association.

East Lansing—Labor spent by the farmer in sharpening his tools and implements earns 1,000 per cent interest, Prof. H. H. Musselman, of the M. A. C., said in urging that special attention be given scythes, corn knives and mowing machine blades.

Albion—When the accelerator on Dr. L. M. Henderson's car stuck as he crossed the Michigan Central tracks, the machine smashed into a telephone pole and broke it off. Mrs. Henderson was bruised and her head was cut. Dr. Henderson also was cut about the head.

Lansing—The big impetus in business conditions in Michigan is shown by records of the corporations division of the state department for the first six months of 1919, about 50 per cent more new companies being incorporated than for the corresponding period of 1918.

Kalkaska—Harold Butler, 17, and Lloyd Arney, 15 years old, were drowned in Gull Lake. Butler was seized with cramps while hanging to the boat Arney was rowing. Although Arney could not swim, he plunged into the water. Both went down in eight of hundreds of picnics, including Arney's parents.

Mt. Pleasant—Frank Roberts, 36 years old, charged with the murder of his wife, Katie Roberts, by placing Paris green at her bedside with the expectation that she would drink the solution, causing her death, pleaded guilty before Judge Ray Hart and received a sentence of life imprisonment at Marquette at hard labor.

Lansing—Hundreds of tons of T. N. T. originally intended for use in shells, will be employed for the more pacific purpose of building Michigan roads. More than 50,000 pounds will be required to fatten out the grades of the highways that run through Baraga county. "The Government has 9,000,000 pounds of T. N. T. available for distribution," L. W. Carr, first deputy highway commissioner, said. "We have just received a telegram asking how much we can use, and have informed the War Department that we will take all they give us."

THEY'RE GETTING BUSY.

Publication of a graph showing the prevalence of several diseases among the second million drafted men has served the very useful purpose of awakening the different states to the menace within their borders and directing them to launch active campaigns for a clean-up.
This has been notably true of Georgia, Texas and Louisiana where the rate was exceptionally high. In each of these states health officers have declared open and unrelenting war on their most dangerous health enemy—venereal diseases.
The Dallas, Texas Morning News publishes a long editorial calling attention to the fact that four Texas cities were among the highest and urging the press of the state to discard its false modesty and prudery and get busy to educate the people. Louisiana through its State Board of Health, is buying advertising space in the large dailies to expose the real situation. Most of the daily and weekly papers in Georgia, at the request of the State Board of Health, published the graph a powerful sermon in itself. Georgia to rank next to the highest in its rate of venereal infection among the states of the Union.

Senator A. J. Gronna sums up his opposition to the League of Nations covenant in the questions of "shall we now, at this momentous hour, after this terrible war and the stupendous sacrifices we have made in blood and treasure, build up a world of autocracy which would make it impossible for oppressed to break away from social, economic or commercial slavery? Shall we take from the American people the right to control their own affairs and leave their destiny to the mercy of an executive council composed mainly of aliens or citizens of foreign lands? Are we ready to surrender our sovereignty and American rights, and leave it to a council composed of a few people who are citizens of other lands, to decide upon the questions of vital interest concerning American Ideals and American Institutions.

Whether or not the city council decides to buy some of the corned beef the government has put on the market, corned beef is corned beef, whether you buy it at a low price from the government or pay the price later on.

When we view with grace some young women brave the raft at the bathing beach, attired in Annette Kellerman suits, we are irresistibly drawn to the use of binoculars to view the scene—beyond the raft.

Strangely enough, it takes the hard work of a youngster to teach elders that there are really a large number of wild animals in this world.

Price of Food to Soar, Says Geddes

London, July 1.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.) Prophecy that the price of food next winter will "climb to a level never dreamed of," was uttered by Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Minister of Reconstruction in an address at Crewe recently.

A member of the audience shouted, "more wages." Sir Auckland replied that there would be no money to pay wages because it would have to go overseas to pay for food.

The Minister warned the public that it was squandering its money in a foolish way on things that did not matter.

"You cannot live like millionaires," he said, "if you are as poor as a church mouse. This nation is now poor. It is living as if it were wealthy."

More beer was being brewed in Great Britain yet people complain of a shortage. This he attributed to a doubling of the amount of beer consumed because, since the war, there was more time to drink it in a more money to pay for it.

By sending overseas for beer, silk for stockings and feathers for hats, Sir Auckland said, the people were increasing Britain's debt for things that did not matter. "What you get to eat are food and raw material," he declared.

Sir Auckland denounced the limitation of output as "stark, staring lunacy." The mill owners, he said, limited output to obtain higher prices and the operators limited it to make work for more people.

Yokohama Trades Most in America

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

Yokohama, July 22.—One half of all the foreign trade through this port last year was in buying from or selling to the United States, says the Yokohama Chamber of Commerce. It adds the business between the United States and this port in that year was $250,000,000. Exports to America were twice the value of the imports.

JOHNNY LAVAN WILL RETURN

Former Shortstop of St. Louis Browns May Change Mind About Retiring From Game.

Lieut. Johnny Lavan, surgeon on board the U. S. S. Mississippi and formerly shortstop of the St. Louis Browns and Washington Senators, may change his mind about retiring from baseball.

The ever-popular little infielder saw the opening game at the Polo grounds and became so enthusiastic he informed his friends he probably would return to the diamond when his injured ankle heals.

Johnny was all prepared to go to the St. Louis Cardinals in a big trade, by which the Giants were to get one of the Mound City catchers, but he sustained a fractured ankle in Cuba and the deal collapsed. "It's going to be a great year for baseball," said the young surgeon, "and I'd like to get back into the game."

Niece Rewarded for Nursing. Miss Eldridge A. Niro of Yarmouth, Mass., is richer now by between $50,000 and $75,000, inherited for nursing her uncle, Fred Williams, sixty-four years old, a bachelor of Aberdeen, Wash. Miss Niro came out from the East a short time ago when Williams learned he had cancer and would likely die. She nursed him faithfully, and her reward came in the inheritance. Williams was a recluse and money saver for more than 30 years.

"Will be when I get back to God's country," he replied.
"Why, where is that?" she questioned in surprise.
"The Kansas wheat belt."

LEGAL ARGUMENT FEATURE SESSION

TENTH WEEK OF FORD'S TRIAL ONE CASE CLOSES WITH FORD ON STAND.

NEVER OPPOSED GOVERNMENT

"I Have Always Been Willing to Country All I Have Any Time Is Needed"—Still Hates Militarism.

Mount Clemens, Mich., July 22.—The tenth week of the Ford-Tribune $1,000,000 libel case closed with Ford still on the stand under examination by Tribune counsel. For days Mr. Ford has been subjected to a constant fire of questions, interrupted in his endeavors to set forth views, and compelled to submit to a line of examinations which his senior attorney, Alfred Lucking, informed the court, was the most brutal he has ever heard. "They take this modern witness and pound him into saying 'I admit I am an ignorant idealist. Now it seems to me that should be left to argument and that they should not try to pound a witness into confessing something of that kind before the jury. To be allowed to pound a man of Mr. Ford's type, retiring, modest, who doesn't like to appear in public, and push him into saying things against himself, is wholly uncalled for and utterly cruel. He is the easiest man in the world to get to say things against himself. This is the most brutal examination I have ever had to listen to.'"

"It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter," said Mr. Ford, quietly. "I will answer as well as I can."

Legal arguments arose during the course of the proceedings over the stated intention of Tribune counsel to take a deposition from John Reed, the writer of an article praising Henry Ford, which was read into the record Thursday. Ford counsel objected on the ground that it was a rule of law that all depositions must be taken before the case opened, else their presence at the trial would be interrupted.

Tribune counsel read again the editorial, "Ford Is an Anarchist," for the purpose of having Mr. Ford point out where, in the body of the editorial, he was called an anarchist.

"Why don't you read the headline?"

Tribune counsel insisted that since Mr. Ford brought the suit, he ought to point out the attack to which he objected.

Alfred J. Murphy, of counsel for Mr. Ford, declared in reply that the plaintiff's contention was this: That after having called Mr. Ford an anarchist in the headline, the Tribune attempted to prove it in the body of the editorial but failed. Failure to prove the charge, he said, constituted the case. If the Tribune had proved that Mr. Ford was or is an anarchist, there would have been no case.

Taking up the issue of anarchy again, Tribune counsel attempted to lay a foundation for a charge that Mr. Ford opposed the government in the matter of military preparedness by showing that he differed with the president.

Mr. Ford insisted time after time, as the question was repeated, that he did not oppose the government. The government, he said, had not decided on its course of action and did not make such a decision until several years after he warned the country against the danger of militarism. He had always declared, he said, that the government could have everything he owned any time it was needed. Moreover, he said, there was a majority in congress taking the same view that he took at that time.

"Tribune counsel," objected Mr. Murphy, "keeps saying 'The government said,' when the government said nothing at all. It was the president who was speaking, and who, although entitled to every respect, was not lifted, in that act, above the judgment of his fellow citizens. Henry Ford felt that the president was being pushed into a corner by the advocates of over-preparedness, or militarism, and was going to the people for an expression. The referee, Mr. Ford, felt free to put the facts before the people so that they might make their choice with open eyes and complete understanding."

To repeated questions concerning his stand on preparedness, Mr. Ford made answer, "I am against militarism all the way through."

Tribune counsel then took up the subject of military science, and endeavored to show that Mr. Ford was not acquainted with it, something which the man who is interested only in maintaining an army of workers at prosperous and peaceful pursuits willingly admits.

Zapata Is Dead; Mex Don't Worry

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) Mexico City, July 22.—People of the state of Morelos, relieved by the death of Zapata and of the horrors of seven years of war, are giving themselves over almost exclusively to mining. Iron and steel manufacturers in the capital are said to be receiving steady shipments of ores from Morelos and plans for mining development in the entire state are being made.

Find Huge Cave 300 Feet Below

San Luis Potosi, Mexico, July 22.—Workers in a mine at Matehuala, near here, have discovered a cave which is said to be one of the largest in the republic. It is more than 200 feet below the level of the mine and is fifteen feet in width. Its length has never been estimated but exploring parties expect to survey it carefully in the near future. One of the fantastic of its many grotesque adornments is a sulphurous fountain which pours out continuously a stream of blue water.

Ohio Woman Dies, Visiting Her Son

Mrs. Westber, mother of Charles Coon, Gladstone, died suddenly at the Coon home Monday afternoon while on a visit from Dunbrige, O. Heart failure, with which she was stricken Sunday night, caused death. Mrs. Westber was 75 years old and is survived by the two sons in Gladstone, Charles and Frank Coon. Funeral services were conducted this afternoon, the body being shipped to Ohio for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Madala left this morning for Menominee, where they will spend a few days visiting.
