Coal Association Reluctant to File Regular Reports.

Declare Congress Did Not Give Commission the Proper Authority.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Suit to test the power of the federal railway commissions was started today in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by the Maynard Coal company of Columbus, Ohio. It is the first of a series of legal battles started by the National Coal association to determine just how far the national commission recently appointed may go in requiring private corporations to furnish the government with official business reports of the companies.

An official announcement made by the association this morning said that the suit was being started in all friendly terms and not an aggression or attack on the commission.

Believing that the commission has exceeded its authority in requiring that statistics be furnished in regular forms provided by the government the association has entered the courts to test judiciously the extent to which the basic industries are compelled to submit to the government details of their private business.

The action which was started took on the form of a request on the part of the corporation for an injunction to restrain the commission from requiring reports showing the costs of tonnage and an annual report which is different from the systems used at this time by the companies.

Existing conditions have been developed to meet with the requirement of the government and its departments and another request is being made for an injunction taking in the fact that the commission is overstepping the authority vested in it by Congress. It is pointed out in the brief that Congress never gave that power and that all power held by the commission was turned over to the railroad administration on the order of the president.

The meeting was opened this morning by President Kenneth Sawyer of Marquette. Because of the illness of Mayor Chatfield, he was unable to be present and the address of welcome was delivered by Attorney H. J. Rushton. He cited the first days of construction "back in '93" when the work was beginning to take on new life and people had come to the point where they realized that one of the greatest assets to civic development was in the building of good roads.

Praise for Cleveland was given in the attorney's recital of expressions he had heard from the lips of men who had made tours of this part of the country.

His brief talk was well received. Following his close the meeting took on its business light and proceeded with the prearranged discussions.

PAPERS IGNORE PRES. LETTER TO HITCHCOCK

French Press Gives Disgusted Account of Action.

Declare He Is Creating Bolshevism Throughout the World.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) (BULLETIN)
WASHINGTON, March 10.—Here is the official wording of the much talked of Article 10 which caused suspension of action on the peace treaty by the United States senate.

The following is the sentence in question in the long worded article of the pact:

"The members of the league of nations undertake to respect and preserve the territorial integrity of the members of the league and the existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any aggression or in case of any spread of danger of aggression, the league council will advise on the means to be used by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

PARIS, March 10.—President Wilson's letter to Senator Hitchcock regarding reservations to the treaty of Versailles was given little prominence in the newspapers of this country this morning.

"Mr. Wilson," the Gauls say, takes revenge for his silence brought on by his recent illness. In less than twenty four hours he presents us with two documents in which he assumes an aggressive manner by showing that he again has gained his full faculties.

His anti-imperialistic spirit will bring new encouragement to the Bolsheviks of the world under the cover of which Germany will seek for revenge. Mr. Wilson denounces this but does not make his expressions clear as we expected he would.

And is Near.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The peace treaty ratification fight in the Senate nears its climax today when the most bitter fight was expected because of the debate over Article 10 of the league of nations covenant.

About twenty democratic senators were present at a conference this morning which was called by Senator Owen.

They predicted that no action would be taken on ratification but some said that more than a score of democrats would vote in favor of ratification with the modified reservations.

Some expressed little hope for any agreement and declared it would be a hard matter to get a two thirds majority, the number required for ratification of the treaty. The democratic senators were divided over the purpose of President Wilson's letter while in republican quarters several of the mild reservationists complicated the situation more by circulating reservations of their own to Article 10.

CAMPAIGN DREAMS—NO. 1

COMPENSATION CASE IS HEARD HERE YESTERDAY

Applicant Alleges Death of Husband Was Due to Injury.

Law's doors were thrown open yesterday at the State Industrial commission hearing held by Commissioner Reeves who came to the city for the express purpose of taking testimony in industrial cases.

The first matter before the commissioner was of vast importance and intense interest. It was the application of Mrs. Zoa Beaudry of Gladstone against the Michigan Tanning and Extract Company for compensation resulting from an alleged injury and death of her late husband who prior to his death was an employee of the company.

Several witnesses, members of the family, were examined and cross-examined by the attorneys and the commissioner himself.

The biggest question which confronted the lawyers and the commission was concerning the truth of the original circumstances of the case.

Evidence was heard concerning what the deceased had told members of his family on his return home from work about two years ago the time of the alleged poisonous injury.

Strom Objects.
An objection to the testimony was made by Attorney T. E. Strom who represented the company after which a discussion was held between the lawyers and the commissioner. They decided to admit such hearsay testimony during the hearing.

In the declaration filed with the commission by Attorney H. J. Rushton, it was alleged that the deceased met his death through an injury received while working near bark at the tanning concern. Evidence revealed the fact that a scratch was seen on the neck of the man when he returned from work one evening and to this is laid the blame for the poison setting in and death resulting.

Medical testimony was introduced by both sides and witnesses from the plant as well as members of the family were questioned.

After the evidence had been submitted Mr. Reeves took the matter under advisement and a decision will be rendered later.

PAUL KING TOO ILL TO TESTIFY AT TRIAL TODAY

Campaign Manager for Newberry Still Confined to Bed.

"Jim" Helme Says He Will Take Stand Himself Before Called.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 10.—The Newberry election trial was interrupted again today by the continued illness of Paul King, the 1918 campaign manager for Senator Newberry, star witness for the defense. He has not yet recovered from his yesterday's attack of illness.

Mr. King was reported somewhat better today but was still in bed and his physician forbade him to leave. It is questionable whether or not he will be able to attend the trial tomorrow.

Only a few witnesses remain to be examined before the case of the defense is completed and with two months of correspondence which is yet to be read the end will have been reached. There is sufficient testimony to take the greater part of today's session.

The first interesting figure in today's program was the appearance of James W. Helme of Adrian who said he would go on the stand in his own behalf and not wait for the defense attorney to call him. He said he did not need their aid in his examination but that he was capable of examining himself in the trial.

Helme is the Democrat whom James Murfin is charged with having sought to run against Henry Ford in the Democratic primaries in order to keep the Democrats from voting for Ford at the Republican primary. Murfin claimed that "Helme was worked in 1918."

MORE DETAILS IN MOONSHINE CASE RECEIVED IN CITY

Undertaker Allo Returns From Lumber Camp With Two Victims.

The bodies of the two moonshine victims arrived in the city last night and were taken at once to the Allo undertaking establishment where they are being prepared for burial.

With the arrival of the bodies also came other details in connection with the case which are somewhat different from the original "stories of the street" as have been heard the past few days in and about the city. Further information received at this office is to the effect that eight others in the lumber camp were ill as a result of having partaken of the poisonous liquor. The others however recovered only two having succumbed.

History of Case.
As near as can be determined from those who returned from Hillsberg with the bodies, the drinking started Saturday night. Apparently Joe Shepherd, a Kentuckian, his wife and children have been residing close to the Hill Brothers camp near the boundary of Marquette and Delta counties. It has been determined from evidence submitted before a justice of the peace in Northland that Shepherd had been manufacturing moonshine liquor which caused the suffering of ten and death of two.

The Hill Brothers strictly forbade the drinking of the beverage but the men obtained it secretly and, according to the story, were all drinking freely last Saturday night.

Has a Convulsion.
The first to die was Andrew Thompson, 52 years of age and unmarried. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Alex Mattson, of Chatham, and two brothers living at Palmer. The other is John Bloom, about 40 years of age, who is believed to have a wife residing somewhere in the upper peninsula. Thompson died Sunday evening and Bloom Monday about noon.

A third man was so ill that Mr. Hill came to Escanaba Monday afternoon to report the conditions to the local authorities. While here he reported a long distance message from his home that the third member of the drinking party was violently ill and near death. In that way, the information was spread that a third had died.

Authorities to Act.
The deaths were reported to the authorities at Marquette and they in turn reported it to the state constabulary with further notice that action was expected of that branch of the law. A member of the state constabulary went to the Hill place yesterday armed with a search warrant in anticipation of getting some light on the matter which would result in an arrest of one or more of the manufacturing parties.

Stephenson Estate Closed in Menominee

MENOMINEE—The inheritance tax on the estate of the late Fred M. Stephenson of Menominee was determined on Monday in the courts of this city.

Mr. Stephenson, who died September 10, 1918, in California, left no will. The estate was given as $254,941.02 and the tax amounted to $214,08.

The beneficiaries of the will are a sister, Mrs. James S. McGordon, of Memphis, Tenn.; George L. Stephenson, a brother, of Michigan City, Mississippi; Joseph C. Stephenson, a nephew, and Ethel F. Haggerson, a niece, children of Isaac Stephenson, Jr., late of Menominee, a brother of the decedent, the children receiving the father's share. They reside at Forest Hill Garden, Long Island, N. Y.

The late Mr. Stephenson was a part owner of the Coleman Lake Club in Marinette county and among the effects guns and hunting dogs are included. He was a noted hunter, having made trips similar to the one made by former President Theodore Roosevelt, through the wilds of Africa in quest of big game. He was accompanied by McCutcheon, the cartoonist, upon his trip.

SAYS SINN FEIN IS READY TO LAY FOR THE IRISH CAUSE

Ian MacPherson, Secretary in Ireland, Gives Details.

LONDON, March 10.—Ian MacPherson, chief secretary for Ireland, defending the Irish administration in the House of Commons last week, said:

"It is obvious we are up against a tremendously dangerous situation in Ireland."

He added that the Sinn Fein had at least 200,000 men prepared to slay at any hour of the day or night.

Mr. MacPherson asserted he had received letters from loyalists in the west and south of Ireland begging the government to take steps to get them out of the country. The Easter rebellion of 1916 had not been stamped out, he said, and had left behind it a spirit more malignant and revolutionary than Ireland had ever known before.

Fresh Tragedy Feared.

The Graphic has featured a Dublin dispatch saying the Irish situation was changing remarkably. The dispatch declared nothing could avert a fresh tragedy except the utmost coolness on the part of the authorities and that any increase in the rigor of martial law would inevitably precipitate such a tragedy, causing dangerous complications for England in America.

The chief danger, according to the Graphic adviser, is the widespread conviction that a small Dublin castle clique is bent on getting Ireland's youth into the open so the morale of the Sinn Fein may be broken by bloody repression. This, however, the dispatch says, is having a good result in causing Sinn Fein leaders to avoid provocation at all costs.

Home Rule Bill Attacked.

The speech of Sir Horace Plunkett at Dublin Thursday night, in which he sharply criticized the new Irish home rule bill, taken with Mr. MacPherson's defense of the Irish administration in the House of Commons, formed the basis of comment in some of the morning newspapers.

The Daily News, severely condemning the new home rule measure, asked:

"Can the insincere jugglers who are thus mocking the maddened victims of their own cowardly policy, be relied on to give real effect to the slight promise of happier development which may be hidden in its crooked promises?"

The Post charges Viscount French, lord-lieutenant of Ireland, with responsibility for the present "shameful" position. The newspaper tells the viceroy his duty is to order that after a given date all proven guilty of crimes be court-martialed and shot. Otherwise, the Post says, he ought to resign.

"Viscount French was appointed to govern Ireland," the Post declares. "He has failed; he must know he has failed, and it is inconceivable how he justifies his continuance in office."

British Branch In Vanderbilt House

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, March 10.—The palatial London house which W. K. Vanderbilt gave to his daughter, Consuelo, as a wedding gift when she became the Duchess of Marlborough, has become the home of the British branch of the League of Nations. The government has leased the mansion and official business already is being transacted there.

This house, which is situated in the heart of the fashionable section in Curzon Street, is one of the most costly in the city. It is built of marble and other stone in the French style, and from the outside looks more like a bank than a residence.

It is understood that the League of Nations officials and employees are having troubles, despite the magnificence of their surroundings. The great and ornate ballroom, for example, while much admired from an artistic point of view, develops evocative draughts which cause much discomfort to the unlucky officials and clerks who are stationed in it.

In addition to this house, the League of Nations has also taken two other buildings in Piccadilly, since they needed more accommodations than the home of the Duchess provided.

Taft Has Walking Stick of "Ole Time"

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

EDMONTON, Alta., Mar. 10.—Former President Taft owns a walking stick that is 250,000 years old. His western Canadian friends wonder if he carries it about the United States on his speaking tours.

When Prof. W. S. Foster of Spokane was investigating the geological history of southern Alberta a few years ago, he discovered a stump in a peat bed amid glacial drift in the valley of Old Man River. Near it were some prehistoric seaweeds in good preservation. He was unable to determine what kind of wood the stump was and the question remained an enigma. The geological stratum in which it was found had lain sixty feet beneath the surface for centuries but had been exposed by river floods. Whether the original tree had grown in southern Alberta or had been brought here from the neighborhood of the North Pole on an iceberg of the glacial age, no one knows. Few trees grow in the region now. The age of the stump was estimated by the geologists at a quarter of a million years.

Prof. Foster took the stump home to Seattle and when the Spokane people, one of Mr. Taft's visits, wanted to give him a unique present, they had a cane fashioned from the wood. The walking stick cut from the tree that may once have sheltered the mastodon and the pre-dactyl is valued at $5,000.

Watch The Girls

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

ROCKFORD, Ill., Mar. 10.—Dr. William Arthur Maddox, the new president of Rockford College and the first male president this oldest girls' college in the Middle West ever had, said in an address to the student body that preservation of ideals of the nation in this time of flux and unrest lies with the American College.

"Our safety does not lie in business prosperity or legislation," said Dr. Maddox, "but in the multiplication of people who think straight and live on a high plane. We must preserve a wholesome idealism in business, politics, religion and family life and a wholesome idealism is always based on wholesome ideas."

"We should measure our ideas by their efficiency that they may not be mere dreams or sentimentalities. They must be high and definite—high or we shall lose our way among the many paths inviting us and definite lest they melt into the skylight and be lost."

TREES NOMINATED FOR HALL OF FAME

Great Tree of Boston Common and One At LeClaire, Iowa.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—"The Great Tree on Boston Common" and "the Green Tree Hotel" at Le Claire, Iowa, the most famous tree on the Mississippi river, were nominated for a place in the "Hall of Fame for Trees" being compiled by the American Forestry Association.

The Great Tree on Boston Common is nominated by J. Collins Warren, of Boston, who sends a complete history of the tree which was blown down in a storm February 15, 1918, the centennial of the year in which the colonists around the tree and started for Lexington to give battle to the British.

"The Green Tree Hotel" at Le Claire, Iowa, is nominated by J. B. Barnes, who as a boy, played leap frog beneath the branches of this tree with one Willie Cady afterward known to fame as "Buffalo Bill." The historic elm is well known on the Mississippi river because to the river men, reports Mr. Barnes, "it was the waiting place of men out of a job and looking for a trip." Therefore, they give it the name of "the Green Tree Hotel." It is considered to be 120 years old.

Other nominations for the Hall of Fame include the DeSota Oak at Tampa, Florida, from which DeSota started for the Mississippi and the West; the Octopus Tree in Charles City Co., Virginia, nominated by Meade Ferguson as the largest and oldest tree in the states, the two oaks at Marlinton, W. Va., marked in 1751 by General Andrew Lewis, nominated by Andrew Price; the tallest tree in the Balkans at Podgoritz, nominated by the Red Cross which had headquarters near it during the war.

American Children Help the Belgians

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

NEW YORK, Mar. 10.—The gift of the children of America to the children of Belgium, the first juvenile reading room in Europe, will be opened in Brussels about the first of May. It has been announced here by the book committee of the Art War Relief. The committee, conducted the campaign for funds, with which to establish the reading room, which is the first of a series to be opened in France and Belgium.

These reading rooms will be called "L'Heure Joyeuse," Joyous Hours, and will be replicas of the pleasant children's reading rooms in American libraries. The book committee is supplying books and library furniture. The first shipment of books has already arrived in Brussels. E. Jacquin, Belgian Minister of Education, wrote: "Belgia children have no opportunity to read at all, except such books as might exist in their homes. There is neither free nor paying libraries for them. Not only children but teachers, parents and public officials will catch that New World spirit, that free, broad democratic sense that respect for the child as a future citizen, which everyone coming to America cannot fail to admire."

COTTON INDUSTRY IN ENGLAND WILL BE JEOPARIZED

Great Britain Depends On the United States For Its Supply.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, March 10.—The decline in the world's supply of cotton will jeopardize Britain's great cotton industry unless the quantity can be increased, says the American Chamber of Commerce in London. In the cotton industrial districts of Lancashire and Yorkshire, the American Chamber understands, 600,000 people are directly dependent for their living on cotton, while, indirectly 5,000,000 are dependent on it.

The main dependence of Great Britain's cotton industry is admitted by on supplies of American cotton, and as the Chamber points out, within the past five years, for various economic and climatic reasons, the American cotton acreage has considerably decreased while her consumption has increased. British experts have estimated that if the yearly American crop should drop below the average, say, of 15,000,000 bales, of 500 pounds each, of which Britain normally absorbs 415,000 bales, the Lancashire trade would have to resort to short-time working. Given a continuance of the same shortage conditions they say all manufacturing machinery would ultimately cease. In view of this opinion, the estimated drop this year in American cotton to 11,000,000 bales, is giving rise to much serious thought in Britain's trade circles.

With a view to making the Empire self-supporting a committee representing the British Empire Cotton Growers' association has suggested to the Board of Trade that funds, approximating 100,000 pounds a year for cotton growing within the Empire, should be raised by a levy on the cotton industry of the United Kingdom, and that the government assist the colonies and protectorates by guarantees to provide railroads, waterways, harbors, etc.

The American Chamber says there seems little doubt that the suggested annual levy of 100,000 pounds would be easily raised among the Lancashire cotton interests.

With this I heartily concurred. I was determined that Barbara Bradford must be in no way involved, come what may. I knew that she herself would be apt to be restrained from attempting to communicate with me by the fact that her sister's marriage was set for the day after tomorrow. Her loyalty to her family was such that she would not risk scandal by trying to aid me, at least not until her sister was married and the future for Claire and her mother assured.

Two small rays of sunshine lightened the gloom of my cell—the fact that the newspaper mention of the tragedy seemed thus far to have escaped my mother's notice and the fact that Barbara still believed in my innocence and trusted me absolutely. A day or two after my arrest Gorman had managed to see her and had told her that it was my wish that she keep entirely quiet her knowledge of the affair and that she should make no attempt whatever to communicate with me while I was in prison. He had brought back with him a hastily pencil'd note which often in my cell I read and re-read:

"Dear Mr. Nelson: "I'm so sorry to hear of your trouble and the absurd charges against you. I'll do whatever you wish, of course. I trust you absolutely. If anything I can tell will aid you at any time, I am ready to speak—cost what it may. I know you are innocent and must soon be freed. Hoping to see you.

"With all confidence, "B. B."

Each time I read anew the pencil'd lines, my heart rejoiced. Come what may, I felt sure that Barbara's heart was mine. I joyed to know that come out of prison to her though I might, she would be glad to see me. Joyfully would I have gone to the electric chair rather than have her fair name in the least smirched by scandal in trying to defend me. She alone could prove an alibi for me, but no one must ever know it.

What would a scandal-loving world say if the fact became public that she had been alone with me in my apartment near midnight? If only by the sacrifice of her good name could I go free, then let me stay in my cell. Let me even go to the electric chair. I would not have my life at the loss of my beloved's reputation.

One other thing I had kept from my lawyer—my discovery of the passage-way between the walls in my grey-uncle's apartment. If I could not get Gorman to believe in this secret passage, which I was convinced had some connection with the mysteries and the whisperings at the Granddeck, there was little likelihood that McGregor would believe my tale either. Given one single hour in my quarters at the Granddeck and I would have discovered whether it led and who used it, but once a man is charged with murder, his hands are tied. It was futile for me to mention it again, even to the detective or to my lawyer, until such time as I could show it to them and convince them that I knew what I was talking about.

While I was debating the situation in my cell, a keeper opened the door. "You're wanted downstairs," he announced.

"What is it?" I asked, wondering. "You've got a visitor."

"Who?" I questioned eagerly. Could it, I wondered, be Barbara? Had my sternly repressed longing to see her in some way communicated itself to her through the ether and impelled her to throw caution to the winds and come to the prison to see me? "I don't know," the keeper answered. "It's a man. I don't know who he is."

WORLD'S LARGEST BOWLING MEET TO OPEN IN PEORIA

Twenty-Eight Teams Will Compete in World Match.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) PEORIA, Ill., Mar. 10.—When the 20th annual International tournament of the American Bowling Congress starts here tomorrow, it will mark the opening of the world's largest bowling meet. Nine hundred 5-men teams are to compete, 110 more than in any previous tournament.

More than 6,000 bowlers coming from every state in the union and from Mexico, Canada and Cuba are to compete for the championship and a prize list which totals $41,210. This is another Congress record, the largest amount of prize money previous to this year, having been awarded at Toledo in 1919.

Schedule makers discovered soon after the entries closed it would be impossible to run off the events in the usual three weeks, and instead of closing on April 1 as originally planned, the tournament has been extended for an extra nine days. It will close at 12 o'clock midnight on April 9.

Twenty-eight Peoria teams will open the tournament tomorrow night at 8 p. m. For two days Peoria teams only will compete. Out of two bowlers will begin their invasion March 12 at 8 p. m., when teams from Milwaukee, Cleveland, St. Louis, Buffalo and Cedarburg, Wis., take the drives.

Chicago with 1,000 bowlers entered, will send her first teams here on March 13, while teams from Cincinnati, Detroit and St. Paul are to compete on March 14 and 15. Starting on March 16, and continuing until April 6 there will be a steady stream of teams coming from every section of the country.

The bowlers traveling the greatest distance to the tournament will come from Tampico, Mexico. The American colony in that city has subscribed $5,000 to defray their expenses to the international Congress. The Tampico team will roll on March 22.

The annual meeting of the American Bowling Congress delegates, will be held at the Hotel Jefferson in this city Sunday, March 14 at 2 p. m. Officers will be elected, and the tournament city for 1921 selected. Buffalo, Cleveland and Louisville are in the field for the next tournament, with a majority of the delegates favoring Buffalo at this time, it is said.

The tournament is to be staged in the huge Peoria Coliseum, where 14 drives have been constructed. The Coliseum affords a seating capacity of nearly 9,000, and all seats for the opening night already have been sold, it has been announced.

Teacher Strike In China Is Reported

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) PEKING, March 10.—A strike by teachers of the various government schools in Peking has resulted in the Ministry of Education meeting their demands for prompt payment of salaries and in silver or good banknotes in place of the notes of a Chinese bank which recently have been accepted at only 50 per cent of their face value. The Premier has announced that he will appropriate the whole amount of the Boxer indemnity relinquished by foreign powers as a reserve fund for educational purposes. A further demand by the teachers for dismissal of Fu Yu-feng, vice minister of Education, was taken under advisement.

"It was a hard life, but a good life, and a life that built MEN"

THE 14 ARMS OF THE SERVICE

The Recruiting Sergeant can give you the information that will help you decide which branch fits you best. In all of them you will get the fine training as a soldier that the United States offers all its men—in many branches you can get highly specialized training.

INFANTRY—The men who have made the name of "doughboy" feared and respected throughout the world welcome you to the comradeship. Fine fellows—good fun and good training in any school at the post you go to.

CAVALRY—When the horses are champing at the bit and the "yellow legs" mount up and the troop rides forth, there is a thrill that no old cavalryman can ever forget. A horse of your own—a good outdoor life and training for future success.

FIELD ARTILLERY—"Action Front" comes the command—then watch the boys with the red hat cord snap into it. A happy outfit—with the dash of mounted service added to interesting work that calls for head and hand. Motors if you wish.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—Army engineering is known the world over for its excellence and an enlistment in the engineers can be the start of a young man's training in the various branches of engineering and in any of the mechanical and building trades.

COAST ARTILLERY—Living on the sea coasts, guarding big cities with big guns, getting time for study and a wide and good technical training, the C. A. C. man is preparing for a useful life and good pay and is having a good time while he's learning. The C. A. C. also mans the mobile big gun regiments throughout the country.

AIR SERVICE (including BALLOON CORPS)—The man who gets the early edge in experience with aeroplanes and balloons has a chance to cash in big on his army training. For flying is only in its infancy and it's going to be a profitable business for men with the right experience.

ORDNANCE DEPT.—The ordnance is appealing to the studious young American. To wide opportunities for study, it adds a business as well as a technical training.

SIGNAL CORPS—Whether it's laying a wire from a reel-cart at a gallop or installing a wireless station that will flash its message half around the world, the Signal Corps is there, and a man who learns radio telegraph and telephone work in the Signal Corps is always valuable.

MEDICAL DEPT.—Good experience, good pay, and training in all branches of hospital work. Excellent opportunity for future success. The Veterinary Corps teaches the care of horses as well as meat and milk inspection.

TANK CORPS—The man who knows gas motors and tractors or who wants to know them is invited to join the Tanks. Radio, machine gun and ordnance work are all parts of the Tank Corps work.

QUARTERMASTER CORPS—The Corps that feeds and clothes the Army offers a valuable training for future business. Interesting work for the man who likes horses in the Remount Service.

CONSTRUCTION DIVISION—Practical work in the many trades is part of the every day life of the Construction Division. Many opportunities to learn the trades of highly paid specialists.

CHEMICAL WARFARE SERVICE—For a man with a little knowledge of chemistry or for any ambitious young man who would like to get that knowledge, there is interesting work and rapid advancement in the C. W. S.

MOTOR TRANSPORT CORPS—A thorough practical training in motors and their accessories, and in driving as well, is given in the well-equipped schools of the Motor Transport Corps.

WHEN I got out of the Army, I raised my right hand over my derby and said, "Never again, I hope!"

And I am here to state that I was just one of about 3,000,000 who felt like that—only stronger.

It was my privilege to kick and believe me, I did. I couldn't get out too quick—I wanted a feather bed, restaurant food and trousers that flapped around my ankles.

But now that I'm out, civil life is not all that we cracked it up to be! And the Army looks like a pretty good place, after all.

I've been and seen and done things that I wouldn't give up my memories of, for anything.

I had a fine crowd of buddies—two-fisted men with a regular man's outlook on life.

I learned how to take care of myself and all comers—to hold my own with the best and with the worst.

And I learned the sort of discipline that makes a man able to handle men.

I got pretty fair clothes—not as good as the Army gives in peace time but warm and plenty of them—and they didn't set me back sixty a suit, either.

Where the U. S. Army Serves

American troops are serving in Panama, Hawaii, the Philippines—Alaska, China, Germany, Siberia and here in the U. S. A. The Recruiting Sergeant will gladly give you all the details.

Like every one else in the Army from General to Buck Private, you're under orders and if your outfit moves and you're needed elsewhere, your duty is to go.

Meals—well, did you ever see a hungry looking soldier?

We all kicked then. Some of the rear-rank generals will always kick. You can't please some birds ever.

The Army never was a bed of roses—it was not meant to be. It is a powerful fighting machine. And even right now, with the peacetime lack of hardship, it's still no place for the lad who won't "play ball."

But the man who does his duty, who snaps into the spirit of the game, who stands on his own feet, who plays hard and plays clean—there is the chap who gets along and eats up the Army life.

He learns how to handle men, he rises in rank as fast as he proves himself.

He is intrusted with important and interesting work.

He gets more money clear than he could save in civil life.

He comes out with a better education—he has a real time with a good crowd of regular he-men.

He's seen something and been something and done something for the little old U. S. A.

MAKING AMERICA SAFE.

"Make America safe for Americans" is a slogan appropriated by the Hon. Mitchell A. Palmer in pursuance of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President.

He would have laws enacted and enforced to maintain and protect the Republic's safety.

Why did Mr. Palmer wait until he became Candidate Palmer, in the year of our Lord 1920, to discover and enunciate this American need?

What has he been doing hitherto toward making America safe for Americans?

Is it of record that the Department of Justice under his administration became concerned over the pernicious activities of the Bolsheviks and near-reds until investigations by a Republican Congress disclosed a rotten state of affairs in the immigration service and aroused popular protest and indignation the country over?

Did he, as Attorney General, intervene, or take steps to intervene, when anarchists by the score sent to New York for deportation were turned loose, after brief detention, by a sympathetic immigration commissioner to resume their plottings against the government?

If the laws of the land are inadequate to deal with such offenders, did Mr. Palmer as a member of Congress or after he became Attorney General—until, he became Candidate Palmer—do anything or propose anything to strengthen those laws?

Did he, under the higher law of war, as an exalted and powerful officer of the government, do anything or propose anything to stop or minimize the growing dangers?

Is it of record that he disapproved or disapproved the Socialistic trend of the administration or entered his protest against the recognition given to the Bolsheviks and groups of men notoriously out of sympathy with this government and its aims and ideals—internationalists and the like?

Make America safe for Americans! Certainly.

But is America really unsafe for Americans?

If so, to what extent has the administration with which Candidate Palmer has been so conspicuously identified these past seven years contributed to the unsafety?

As an exponent of the issue and slogan Candidate Palmer is distinctly and distinctively a misfit. He is an exponent only of language. Doubtless he would curb and cure things as he did in dealing with the High cost of Living—by asking for another appropriation.

TWO OTHER PREMIERS.

(From the Philadelphia Ledger.)
If the President had not been sick would there have been an Adriatic crisis?

Has the deadlock really arisen because the British and French Premiers tried to "carry on" when the President would not permit any American representatives to "sit in" with them in the game? If one had been there, would there not surely have been some sort of an agreement? And is it not altogether likely that this withdrawal of America was due to the President's feeling that, in his isolation and ill-health, he was not in a position to play a strong part in adapting a new Adriatic policy to new conditions? He could permit his representative, Mr. Polk, to join in the memorandum of December 9, drawn along the old lines; but to delegate to any subordinate power to decide, how far to go on new lines would be rapidly repugnant to the justly celebrated Wilson will.

March 1st, 1920 came in like a lamb. Down in Washington they are expecting March 1921 to come in like an elephant.

The issue of pure Americanism is above party, yet only one party—the Republican party—seems to wholly answer to the test.

15 YEARS AGO

If negotiations which are now pending are brought to a satisfactory conclusion by the authorities of the two schools, the Escanaba and Menominee high basketball teams will meet in Escanaba for a dual contest early in May.

Already the management at Menominee is laying plans for capturing the chief honors of the upper state. Much interest has been created over the Poverty social which will be held this week by the young people of the Methodist Church. The program will be made up of both musical and literary numbers and is expected to be one of the season's biggest drawing cards.

Speaker Joseph Cannon of the House Representatives has accepted the invitation of Isaac Stephenson of Marinette to spend a few days here on a fishing trip. The fame of the annual fishing trips of Mr. Stephenson has spread to all parts of the country and a treat is in store for the speaker when he comes to this city.

The reports of the ice condition from the weather bureau stations show that there is much less ice on all the lakes than there was at a corresponding time last year.

The entire property of the Jackson Mining company including the village of Fayette has been sold to the Cleveland Cliffs Mining company.

Mayor Charles Mason of Gladstone is ill at his home.

Another step in enforcing the orders of Mayor A. J. Valentine that disorderly houses would not be allowed on Ludington street resulted in warrants having been sworn for several local people.

LOCAL LIBRARY IS CONVERTED INTO IMMIGRATION AID

Plan to Establish Educational Institution Is Established.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Astor library on Lafayette street, one of the show places of the city a quarter of a century ago, is to be converted into a school for immigrants. The Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrants' Aid Society recently purchased the property for $325,000 and is to spend another $100,000 in alterations. The building recently has been used as a storehouse for the disposal of surplus army foods.

Plans for establishing a thorough system of education for immigrants and for rendering aid to them immediately upon their arrival are now being made by the society. The upper floors will be used as dormitories for temporarily housing incoming immigrants and the lower floors for class rooms. The plans, which meet with the approval of the immigration authorities at Ellis Island, contemplate a school for citizenship, where immigrants may be taught the fundamentals of American history and government and receive information as to how and where they can apply for citizenship.

"There is a pleasing sentiment about making an immigrant school of the Astor building John L. Bernstein, president of the society, declared today. "John Jacob Astor, the founder of the library, was himself an immigrant and in his gift of the library to the public he stated that he particularly wanted it to perpetuate his gratitude for what his adopted country had done for him. He expressed the hope that the Astor library would render aid to all newcomers to the country. It seems like a prophecy that his building should not become a school exclusively for immigrants."

Al King Outpointed By Sailor Perkins In Cheboygan Bout

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., March 10.—Sailor Bill Perkins of Rhinelander outpointed Al King of Escanaba here last night in a ten round go before the local athletic club.

Both men put up a good fight and stayed with each other until the final gong sounded the end of the bout. Although Perkins delivered some telling blows, he was unable to make any great impression on the Escanaba pug's countenance. King fought a clever battle. Neither of the scrappers received injuries to speak of in the match.

When will President Wilson realize that he does not reflect the sentiment of "an overwhelming majority of the American people?"

The Turks will get the Treaty prepared for them, not later than March 22nd. Unless to inquire—will they sign?

Not the Senate, but the American people demand all the facts.

Spring Is Coming; Shovel Your Walks

Did you ever sit in your front window and see some unfortunate person walking by your home in about four inches of water with snow piled on both sides of the walk so high that it was impossible to go by without getting wet feet?

Well, if you didn't, just sit at the window some one of these days and that very thing will be before your eyes.

Therefore, we say—SHOVEL YOUR SIDEWALK.

The thaw appears to be at hand. Escanaba people wish to have a good impression left when visitors come to and leave the city.

Therefore, we say—SHOVEL YOUR SIDEWALK.

Maybe some poor fellow who slept five minutes too long in the morning is hurrying to catch a street car to take him to te office or shop. In nine cases out of ten he will plunge into some snow pile and withdraw with wet feet.

Therefore, we say—SHOVEL YOUR SIDEWALK.

For those reasons and for many others obvious to any clear minded person we again say—SHOVEL YOUR SIDEWALK.

Last Showing Of Griffith Picture at the Delft Tonight

Mr. Griffith comes with new and fresh deeds of cinematic daring. Previously he arraigned the northern carpetbagger and the colored habitues of the south mercilessly for their intrusion upon the white citizens of the south during the reconstructive period and in a subsequent treatise caused a white warrior to kiss his colored companion to ease the hero's dying moments on the battlefield.

Now, in "Broken Blossoms," at the Delft theatre tonight for the last time he ventures forth with a romance between a Mongolian dreamer and a fair haired English maid, and before he completes his dissertation he has you in sympathy with the Chinaman's intense and unrequited love for the pretty Causasian girl, and applauding his vain effort to protect her from her brutal guardian.

The producer's intrepid display rests not solely with the nature of his subject, but in the treatment thereof as well. With brutal frankness he pictures the sordid existence of London's underworld, especially as it connects the Chinese settlement, its immoral and lawless practices, with the unconventional habits of the white denizens. And he concludes his drama with a triple tragedy so horrifying that it makes one shudder. Yet to miss this masterful discussion at the Delft for this or any other reason is to be deprived of the best and most artistic dramatic document known to the cinema. Only a Griffith would dare such an ending.

Plans for the erection of a new church have been under way by the Gladstone congregation for some time, with the understanding that the building would cost around $75,000 and would require five years of preparation, but the loss of All Saints' church will in the lack of a suitable place of worship, hasten the construction of a new edifice.

GLADSTONE WILL BUILD NEW CHURCH WITHIN FEW YEARS

Building Will Cost Approximately $75,000 When Completed.

According to present plans under consideration, Gladstone, within the next two years, will probably see the beginning of construction work on a new church edifice, which will cost approximately $75,000, to take the place of All Saints' church, recently destroyed by fire.

Plans for the erection of a new church have been under way by the Gladstone congregation for some time, with the understanding that the building would cost around $75,000 and would require five years of preparation, but the loss of All Saints' church will in the lack of a suitable place of worship, hasten the construction of a new edifice.

The new building, it is planned, will be constructed of brick and stone and will be fire proof. It is probable that the basement and roof of the new church will be finished first to be used as a place of worship, and the building completed when the finances of the congregation permit.

The new church will be erected on the parochial school block and will seat 800.

Automobile Race In Bible Class Contest

A decided novelty in the line of church contests was introduced Monday evening when teachers of the Bible classes of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. O. C. Curtis, 420 S. 8th st.

The meeting was called by Superintendent W. G. Thick to make arrangements for the contest and was well attended.

The plan adopted for the contest in an automobile race across the continent, in which each class will choose its car and enter the race. The idea is, a certain number of miles in the race will be credited for certain things and failures on the part of either pupils or teachers will result in a detour, which will lessen their chances of winning the race.

At the end of three months, the contest will close with an automobile trip to Menominee, a reward to the winner.

A map has been secured to keep track of the contest, and W. H. Adams was elected at the meeting Monday night to check up on the number of miles each class has to its credit.

ARMY RECRUITER DELIVERS ADDRESS ON 'OPPORTUNITY'

Lieutenant Beers Makes Appeal For More Men to Enlist.

A large and enthusiastic audience attended the meeting of the local order of Eagles last night at the K. of P. hall, the occasion being a talk delivered by Lieutenant Beers of the army caravan which is in the city at this time in the interest of the army recruiting drive. Upon being introduced Lieutenant Beers made a lasting impression on his audience. In a clear and straightforward manner he outlined the intended work of the recruiting troupe, specifically pointing out the many advantages connected with belonging to Uncle Sam's army.

"The days of the drifters constituting our army are over and the best of America's young manhood is what we are after these days," the lieutenant declared in his opening remarks. "And again we are striving to reach the stage where the civil and military life of American people will be connected by stronger ties than bind them at this time. Civilians should be friends of soldiers and soldiers in return should appreciate what is done for them by the people of all localities where they may be at any certain time," he continued. "We are after men to enlist in the regular army for a period of three years. Education and opportunities to learn a trade are put before the men as soon as they don the khaki uniform.

Educational Advantages. "Our schools are not only proposing to run but they are running in reality. We offer the best courses in general and technical education; we see to it that every young man who comes into this branch of the service and desires to further his education is well repaid for his ambitions and efforts.

"We have all good instructors. The majority of them are men trained for that work alone and who have been affiliated with the best colleges and universities in the country. You may ask how we get them into the military service. We do not.

"They secure leaves of absence for six months at a time and devote the full period to the work with the soldiers. The educational advantages are many. Once a man goes into that line, he is compelled to complete the work and when he has done that, he is educated correctly. There is no sliding or skimping over the work as is permitted in many private and public schools. The boys are told to learn a thing, and they learn it or go back for a repeated course in the same work," the lieutenant said.

Going into the many other features of the army and its work, the officer entertained the listening audience for an hour. Applause greeted his closing words and each member present went home feeling he had learned many things concerning the army which he never had known before.

ALUMNI MEETING WILL BE HELD AT CITY HALL MONDAY

The campaign will close Monday evening at the City hall with a big meeting of all graduates of the high school opening at eight o'clock. The first attempt to organize the alumni made some weeks ago was received enthusiastically and it is expected that every alumnus in the city will turn out for the meeting Monday night.

COMMUNICATION

The following anonymous letter was received at the Mirror this morning and is being published without any alterations.

Apparently it regards a recent basketball game played in this city. The Mirror is more than glad to publish the sentiment of others on the same question.

Editor Daily Mirror:
My attention has been called to your account of the basket ball game between the girls team of the Rapid River and Escanaba High school.

In that article you say "some excitement ensued when the Rapid River team put a referee into the game who apparently didn't know the rules to be applied to the gymnasium here." (meaning Escanaba)

The Rapid River team has been coached in accordance with the Official rules for 1920 as published by Spalding.

Now if the Escanaba team has a set of rules all their own, and to be used in the games played at Escanaba, nobody outside of the city has heard of it.

Visiting teams have the right to assume that the official rules govern, and have the right to insist that they so govern the play.

Visiting teams also have the right to bring their own referee, which they did. The referee in this game was Miss Vorhels, physical director of the Gladstone High school. Your article would infer that the referee was incompetent, and I am sure if you had seen the game and knew the rules, (the official ones) you would be convinced that the referee, not only knew the game, but the rules also.

I would say too, that where the coach of the Escanaba team was told that Miss Vorhels was to referee, she (the coach) was satisfied.

In writing this I only want you to know that all we expect is fair treatment from the press. We have no complaint about our treatment at the high school in fact we were treated royally.

Woodman Taken to St. Francis Hospital

Charles Stahl, woodsman employed in one of the lumber camps here, was taken to the St. Francis hospital this morning, suffering with a mild attack of influenza.

Stahl wandered in Tilbert's cafe early this morning and when the man's condition became apparent, an ambulance was called and he was taken at once to the hospital.

Dr. A. J. Carlson, who is in attendance, stated this afternoon that the woodsman's condition is not serious.
