"HOME RUN KING" IS REINSTATED TODAY

"BABE" RUTH ON JOB WITH THE "YANKS"

Judge Landis Grants Requests of Ruth and Musel.

Boston Red Sox Player Also Reinstated Few Minutes After New Liqe Given Ruth.

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, May 20—"Babe" Ruth and Bob Musel of the New York Yankees were reinstated by Commissioner K. M. Landis today. The "Home Run King" is eligible to start his drive for 1922 slugging honors in this afternoon's game with the St. Louis Browns at New York. The telegram applying to reinstatement for Ruth and Musel was received at the commissioner's office at 8:50 this morning. The judge was not there but his secretary said he had left instructions to send the following telegram. "Your reinstatement application is granted and is effective immediately K. M. Landis." The applications for reinstatement from Ruth and Musel were identical. They read as follows. "I hereby apply for reinstatement to enable me to play in the game here tomorrow (Saturday)"

The king of swat goes back on the job today by permission of Judge Landis, high commissioner of baseball.

NOTICE TO FANS Bill Lang, in charge of the parade arrangements for Sunday afternoon's baseball opener, advises everyone to get down on Ludington street at 1:30 and get in the line. There will be no advantage in getting to the park before the crowd in order to "get a seat." The park will be kept closed until 2:15 and everyone who has a ticket will get in and get a seat. Don't put a crimp in the parade by staying out in order to get to the ball grounds ahead of someone else. There will be plenty of room and plenty of seats. All arrangements have been made to have the band out and Bill wants a good showing made in the line of march. Five hundred horns are being given away by the Escanaba News Service to ticket holders. Get one and get in the line of march, either on foot or in your car. You will have ample time to get to the grounds and get a seat before the game is called.

RECORD CROWD IS EXPECTED AT THE OPENING BALL GAME

Escanaba Formally Opens Season Here Tomorrow With Big Parade, a Band and Lots of Noise.

Escanaba's ball team took a lay off today after having put in a week of practice daily. Manager Schram is much more impressed by the condition of the team at this time than he was a week ago. The rough places have been smoothed down and a much smoother working organization will be seen tomorrow than appeared in the first game at Gladstone last Sunday. With the weather man doing the fair thing in the way of a fine day, a monster crowd is expected to participate in the parade and the preliminary fun and frolic incident to the opening of the season here tomorrow afternoon.

TERRORISM IN BELFAST TAKES GRAVE STATUS

Half Dozen Persons Are Killed in Last 24 Hours.

(By Associated Press) BELFAST, Ireland, May 20. Terrorism in Belfast and the environs has been assuming such proportions that Premier James Craig and his cabinet met this afternoon to discuss measures for dealing with the renewed secular strife. At least half a dozen persons have met death at the hands of the murder gangs within the last 24 hours and dozens of others have been wounded. These outrages have not been confined to the immediate vicinity of Belfast, but owing to the promiscuous cutting of wires and the paralyzing of other means of communication it is impossible to obtain details of these activities.

POSTOFFICE IN NEW YORK TO BE GIVEN CLEANING

Several Employees Held in Connection With Looting of Mails.

WASHINGTON, May 20. Acting post master general Bartlett left Washington today for New York with the announced purpose of thoroughly reorganizing the New York post office in consequence of the arrest yesterday of several postal employees said to have been involved in numerous schemes looking to the looting of mail. Before his departure, Mr. Bartlett said that the department had in mind "the entire elimination from the service of any employee who was found to be in any way connected with the band of crooks and rascals who have been operating principally thru the registry division of the New York City post office."

Atty. George Carr Is a Candidate For Prosecutor's Office

Attorney George Carr is the first candidate thus far to announce his candidacy for the office of Prosecuting Attorney of the county in a formal announcement. Mr. Carr's announcement states: "I desire to announce to the voters of Delta county that I will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney of Delta county at the coming Republican primaries. I desire at this time to solicit the votes and active support of all voters in all sections of the county. Should I be nominated and elected I will undertake and discharge the duties of that office conscientiously and to the best of my ability."

Edison Tells Senate Fertilizer Can Be Made More Cheaply

WASHINGTON, May 20. Thomas A. Edison testified before the senate agricultural committee, in executive session today, that he was convinced that fertilizers cheaper than those being manufactured by present processes and existing interests could be manufactured at Muscle Shoals.

Joe Carney has been without exception, one of the best officers Escanaba has ever had. He has served for ten years on the local force and each year has increased his value to the city and county. He is well known and well liked by officers in all of the surrounding counties, and because of his keen appreciation of his duties and his proficiency and common sense in carrying out the duties entrusted to him, he has established a most enviable reputation among officers of the upper peninsula.

Mr. Carney's announcement is addressed to the Electors of Delta county and follows: "I desire to take this opportunity to announce to the voters of Delta County, that at the Republican primaries to be held in this County on September 12th, next, I shall be a candidate for nomination to the office of sheriff on the Republican ticket. I shall have to expect much from my friends, and depend upon them to help even to the point of imposition, for the reason that my duties as assistant police chief of Escanaba will keep me so busy that I will be unable to campaign only during my free time when I am not on duty. This will prevent my taking an extensive campaign as I should like. However, I will try to get around to see all the voters I can before primary day. If I am not able to see all I hope they will still understand that I want their vote and am now asking their consideration and their support."

Speed Cases Heard in Justice Court

Two speed cases were scheduled for Justice McEwen's court today. One was D. D. Stewart, of Gladstone, who entered a plea of guilty to exceeding the limit permitted by the ordinance on Hartnett avenue. He paid a fine and costs amounting to $12.00, while William Milkovich, charged with a similar infraction of the city ordinance failed to appear. He had put up $15 for his appearance and the matter will probably be adjusted later.

ARMY VICTORY MEDALS AGAIN READY FOR MEN

The Detroit office of Army Victory Medal Distribution has issued to recipients new year's edition of these medals. This, however, is only about 50 per cent of the number to which Michigan recipients are entitled. The district now includes Ohio and Wisconsin. While patriotic societies of all kinds have campaigned heartily to make known to larger soldiers that they are entitled to this artistic medal, whether they served in the Army at home or abroad, it is evident that many new have not yet sent in their applications.

Officers Something For Nothing, And They Fall For It

DETROIT, Mich., May 20. John B. Butler, a venerable appearing man of 81, was sentenced to serve 90 days in the house of correction by Judge William M. Heenan in municipal court for perpetrating what is believed to be a brand new swindle. Butler came from Philadelphia recently and opened at 418 Beulah street an office under the name of the National Publishers' association. He began by distributing coupons from house to house. Each coupon purported to be redeemable with every purchase at local stores for a copy of some one of a number of magazines that were delivered. The police say he collected several hundred dollars within a few days.

Let's Make Escanaba A Better City

THE NEW ESCANABA.

Escanaba vibrant with a forwardness that nothing can deny!

What a world of meaning can be compressed into a few words!

O, that we were gifted with the divine fire to burn that message into every heart and brain in this community and to inspire every man, woman and child with the spirit of that forwardness that nothing can deny!

A short time since, Escanaba faced a crisis in her affairs. And the usual thing happened—men of the hour sprang into the breach and offered themselves for the public service. They were chosen.

There is a wave in the affairs of a community, quite as well as a tide in the affairs of man. The men of the hour took the wave in the affairs of Escanaba at the ebb and we are now flowing on toward success.

It was a glorious start.

Now we need team work—team work, not only on the part of the new city commission and the new city manager who is so shortly to arrive, but team work on the part of each individual citizen; team work in labor, in social life, in community cleanliness, in community healthfulness, in the raising of moral standards and in every civic enterprise which may arise.

We need team work in convincing the rest of the world that Escanaba is a real town, a good town, a live, alert, bustling, friendly, sincere kind of town that wants new blood and good blood socially, industrially and morally, and that Escanaba is willing to go better than half way in meeting and welcoming that kind of citizenship.

We need team work in convincing any discontented dweller that his opportunity here is equal to, if not better than that which he will find in any other spot in America.

We need team work in combatting the lure of the elsewhere, that peculiar urge which takes men across high mountains and over uncharted seas—to find that they have left more behind than they have found ahead.

We need team work in combatting that impulse which pulls at the heart of the citizen who believes that the best job, the higher wages, the shorter hours are waiting in the other shop or the next town.

We need team work in bringing about that peace and content and satisfaction which the home-owner and the family-lover ever feel when they are convinced that their home town is well governed and wisely administered for the good of all the people all the time.

The spreading of that kind of gospel is going to convince the home man and woman that Escanaba is a good town to live in and that opportunities are just as plentiful here as elsewhere.

We must each take care of our own share in the new community growth, whether it is spiritual, industrial or social. We all have our little part to play. Team work, founded on the efficiency and breadth of vision of each and every one of us will do the trick.

Let us all go to our various and diverse tasks with a knowledge that our city is on the upward trend; that our best interests are being conserved by those to whom that job has been entrusted, and let us inject that degree of determination and enthusiasm into our pride and joy in the accomplishments of our city, that will give pause to all with whom we come in contact. Let's all pull together for that goal of accomplishment which has been set by our hard working city commissioners. Let's exercise just as much vigor and consistency and common sense as they are exercising. The duty is ours quite as much as theirs.

Don't ever forget that Escanaba is a good town and is getting to be a better city every day. It is your city. Your money is invested here, your wages are made here and here are at stake the happiness and welfare and future of your children. Why shouldn't you do your share to make your city a city to be proud of?

You have chosen men of force and vigor and action and depth; their vision is clear and reaches far; their courage is unquestioned and their honesty and integrity is beyond quibble.

These men are safeguarding your interests. Is there any reason why you should not co-operate, at least to the extent of passing the good word along about what your city is accomplishing and what she is destined to accomplish?

Don't measure everything by the dollar standard.

Civicism is the soul of the social fabric. You can't measure that by lithographed bank note or minted money standards.

There are some things more vital than coinage or private bank accounts.

Remember, you can do your share for your city and not necessarily be even "comfortably well fixed."

No, it isn't financial standing that makes your words take hold. It is a sincere and honest pride in your city; a burning desire to have the truth about its better side known and understood; a determination to stand by your city and fight for her honor and good name and advancement.

These are things to be jealous of; and that is what your city commissioners are so jealously guarding for you—the name and fame and reputation of your city, so that you may go ahead and boost to the limit without fear of being betrayed into a false statement.

"Vibrant with a forwardness that nothing can deny!"

Let's keep that in mind and let the spirit of it influence our actions and utterances. We can make good on it by the simple expedient of each day doing our own little share toward "MAKING ESCANABA A BETTER CITY."

TAKE A SHOT OF HURRAH!

Hurrah! Originally, some one tells us, that word was Russian. We should worry about that. What we do know is that it is a shout of joy, of triumph, of encouragement.

What would Escanaba baseball fans do without the hurrah? What would happen to our high school athletics without it?

Putting the "hurrah" into things means "pep" back of it; and the modern definition of "pep" is energy.

"Hurrah" puts a smile and a joy and a serenity into life which is supplied by no other medium. It's the applause that the one applauded likes to hear. It encourages; it makes one feel that there is something in life worth while. It makes one feel that the world is pretty free from knoekers after all.

So, tomorrow it's up to you to join the hurrah boys and give the local ball team a great send-off. Get a horn, get something, and then fill it full of the hurrah spirit. It's all for a great cause. Boost the boys and you'll be boosting your city.

Let's all get a malignant case of "hurrah" developed by tomorrow afternoon.

EVERYBODY CAN HELP.

The Mirror takes this occasion to invite attention of readers to a new department which it has hopes of making one of the most interesting features of the paper. This will deal with suggestions for ways and means by which Escanaba's new slogan, "Let's Make Escanaba A Better City," can be more quickly brought to the fullest realization.

It will be an open forum for discussion of city problems in a constructive way. This column can be made especially helpful as indicating the trend of public opinion regarding the things which vitally affect the city.

Communications from citizens will be welcomed if they are sincerely meant for the betterment of some city condition and possess the merit of being sane and workable. No attacks on the present or past administrations will be printed. Communications should be constructive in character and tone and be kept within the limits of reason. All communications must be signed, not that the name of the writer need necessarily be published, but as an evidence that the communication is submitted with the only thought of "Making Escanaba A Better City."

A NEEDED INQUIRY.

The bulletin just issued by the bureau of mines showing that the nation's gasoline stock has passed by 47,000,000 gallons the high record of 807,000,000 gallons in storage March 1 links up with an inquiry into the price of oil and gasoline now pending in the senate.

This inquiry was started as the result of a showing from official statistics that the price of crude oil has no evident connection with the price of gasoline. In January, 1919, for instance, the price of Pennsylvania crude oil was $4 a barrel while gasoline sold at wholesale in New York at 24.5 cents a gallon. Three years later, in January, 1922, Pennsylvania crude oil had dropped to $3.30, while gasoline was up to 26.3.

These facts, together with the fact that prices fixed by all of the companies moving with remarkable uniformity excited the senate and it was agreed that an inquiry should be instituted. The intricacies of the oil business are such that none but an expert will venture an opinion as to the meaning of the figures but certainly the innumerable users of gasoline are entitled to know what sort of market they are buying in, and whether there is not a good case for the federal trade commission in the seeming want of relations between stocks and prices of crude oil on the one hand and gasoline stocks and prices on the other.

MILLS SWAMPED BY CALL FOR DELIVERY

NEW YORK, May 20—The Iron Age said Thursday.

Developments in steel company mergers and the inquiries set on foot in Washington are commanding interest in the trade this week, just as advancing prices for steel products due to higher fuel costs are assuming larger importance as a market factor. The purchase of the Lackawanna Steel company by the Bethlehem Steel corporation is likely to be followed by an early announcement of the six company merger.

Steel mills are falling farther behind on deliveries. Buyers are calling for more steel for early shipment and the higher prices paid on such orders are becoming more the rule in bars, plates and structural shapes.

The seventh week of the strike shows some further increase in bituminous coal output. Connelsville coke production shows a slight gain which may mark a definite turn in the tide. Pig iron output has increased somewhat both in Pittsburgh and Chicago districts.

The Steel corporation's steel ingot output shows a gain and in the last two weeks has averaged above 70 per cent. The corporation's high rate of operation since April 1 has been maintained with practically no reduction in its accumulated stocks of coal. Independent companies likewise are operating on a scale indicating that there is no fuel scarcity, but that there is a complaint of high prices, from $3.25 to $4 being asked for coal now against

WOMAN IN HEART BALM SUIT DECEIVER, CLAIM

MUSKEGON, Mich., May 20—Denying that his engagement to Mrs. Barbara Byron, in July, 1920, was anything more than a business arrangement, he needing a housekeeper and she a home, Peter Dargis testified in the suit brought by Mrs. Byron for $10,000 heart balm. He said that although he told her that he would have to obtain a divorce from his first wife before he could marry her, she did not file him of her former marriage.

BANKER TELLS STORY OF FALL

Says He Took Funds to Cover Worthless Checks Issued by Brother.

(By Associated Press)

BAY CITY, May 20—Carl Lankeman, 26 years old awaiting sentence for the embezzlement of $50,000 from the Bay City bank told the story of his fall as a trusted employe of the bank, on the witness stand in federal court during the trial of his brother Edward C. and his mother, Mrs. Isabelle Lankeman charged with being accessories after the fact.

The first defalcation was back in 1915, he testified when he honored a check issued by his brother, although the latter did not have sufficient funds to cover it.

Aided Brother, Claim

"I did it simply because he was my brother," said the witness when questioned by Assistant District Attorney Fred Eaton.

Lankeman said that he had made deposits at first to take care of Edward's account and then the checks came in when he had no money and he used bank funds to juggle his accounts as chief teller. He said that he wrote about 10 letters to his brother protesting against his continued course of checks without funds, and he spoke to him on the occasion of his two or three visits home during the past two years, but to no avail. The brother promised he would reform, as Carl asked, but he did not do so and on one occasion he wired the bank teller from Pittsburgh that he was in distress and needed $500 which was sent, Carl said.

Carl declared his brother had benefited to the extent of more than $2,000 in this manner. In his opening statement, Eaton said that he would show that the mother got $2,000 also and that she knew it was embezzled from the bank. Mrs. Lankeman used a part of the money to help in the defense of Carl, he asserted.

$46,000 Is Missing

Since his conviction last October Carl Lankeman has accounted for only about $12,000 of the $60,000 embezzled. He has confined in the Wayne county jail at Detroit awaiting sentence, so as to be more easily accessible to department of justice officials.

Walter H. Webber, one of the proprietors of the National clearing company, of Saginaw, and his bookkeeper, Henry Joseph, pleaded guilty before Judge Arthur J. Tuttle to an indictment charging violation of the Volstead law. Webber was sentenced to 30 days at the Detroit House of Correction and to pay a fine of $1,000 and Joseph $500. In regard to the embezzlement for the close of the bank's books pending Judge Tuttle said that it was the understanding that the men had agreed to close the business. They were convicted last October of a similar offense.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost every one knows that Sage and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking care to stand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

PLEA FOR ALDERMANIC
RULE IS HELD INVALID

(By Associated Press) MUSKEGON, Mich., May 20.—Failing to obtain enough names on their petition to return to the old aldermanic form of government in Muskegon, opponents of the city manager-commission form lost in their efforts to bring about the change. It needed 144 more names to compel the city commission to put the question to a vote when the checking of the names had been completed and the petitioners were given until Monday to file the remainder, which they failed to do. The petition was also brought under the compiled laws of 1917, whereas it should have been brought under the law passed in 1919.

GREEK TO BE DEPORTED

(By Associated Press) SAGINAW, Mich., May 20.—According to word from Lansing the Federal immigration authorities have issued an order to deport George Bathes, now in the state prison at Jackson for highway robbery, in Oakland county, last summer, back to Greece about July 22. He has been in this country since he was 11 years old and in the first three years had been in trouble several times, for violating the prohibition law. A year ago he located in Detroit. He was sent to Jackson following a hold on the Dixie highway between Bathes, Miko Izzo and two other Detroit men in an attempt to extort some whisky stolen from them.

MEN GIRLS LOVE

By Laurel Gray

GIRLS not only love EDUCATED men but they respect them. This isn't the epigram of a cynic but a truism which is reflected in every walk of life. Many a man is the beloved mate of a woman whose secret wish is that he might be better educated, more fully equipped to get on in the world. An educated man is invariably an ambitious man for with out education (mental development) the mind is robbed of one of its greatest gifts—imagination. Girls often make marriages with educated men without a deep and passionate love motive; but it is a curious truth that such unions result in a more mature and substantial bond because educated minds command respect, and substantial bond because Education is not a gift nor a natural attribute; it is an acquired virtue, and any man, no odds how humble, may educate himself by good books, by observation, and by clean, correct thinking. There's many a handsome Don Juan who has been laid away on the shelf of a fine girl's affection simply because a less glittering cavalier rode by who knew something worth while beside cuddles and kisses. Education is merely the mechanics of the development of natural intelligence. Don't be afraid of it. Girls find it easy to love an educated man.

KEY FURNISHED TO TREASURE HOUSE
How Best Aid to Wonderful Information May Be Secured.

What vast and mighty treasures of words full of rich meaning lie locked up in our language—hidden away from common use, and enjoyed only by the learned few. It is as if, possession of the mineral wealth of Mexico, mined, smelted and ready for the mint, we turned scornfully aside revolting in a voluntary poverty.

A dictionary constitutes the treasure house of a language. As a people, we needlessly deprive ourselves of the helps at our command. In our daily tasks, not one of which can be performed without the use of words, we possess only the most primitive tools, when we might be equipped with the keenest and most efficient. If the dictionary be the barred and bolted treasure house we have mentioned, then the coupon we print daily in this paper is its key.

The coupon will appear only a few more times. This marvelous distribution draws to a close. Readers are advised to consult the coupon now, read the display announcements and ascertain at once how this great 'New Universities Dictionary' can be secured practically as a gift.

Put It There!

"Havoline! You bet! I've been using it eighteen years, ever since I bought my first car, an old two-cylinder buggy."

Remember no difference how you buy Havoline—by the quart, in one or five gallon cans, in 55 or 30 gallon drums (with the handy faucets), or in wooden barrels—it is the same good, high grade oil that it has always been since it was put on the market nearly twenty years ago.

Buy Havoline. Look for the Havoline sign when you need oil on the road, and keep a can or barrel of Havoline handy in your garage or tool house.

To Dealers
We are the distributors of Havoline Oil in your district.
We shall be glad to tell you how to become a Havoline Dealer.
