IRELAND MOURNS AS SLAIN LEADER GOES TO GRAVE

National Grief Never More Pronounced in Long Centuries of Erin's Troubled History.

(By Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Ireland, Aug. 28.—Michael Collins was laid to rest today in Glasnevin after a demonstration of national grief, such as has been seldom seen in the long centuries of Ireland's troubled history.

Arthur Griffith was buried with all the honor due a great leader; Collins went to the grave amid tears of a nation that worshiped him personally as a gallant young patriot, in whom were combined all those traits which the Irish hold dear.

A Nation Mourns

Good humor, power of oratory and a laughing disregard for death—all were his. Great crowds thronged the great cathedral and lined the route to Glasnevin. Congregations gathered in every city, town and hamlet of the land to mourn his passing.

Last night the body was carried to the cathedral just as Collins had helped to carry the body of his colleague, Griffith. Sister Mary Celeste came from her convent in England to pray for her "beloved brother." Beside her knelt Siem Collins, the general's brother but it was upon the trembling young woman nearby, that the eyes of all fell most pitifully. Kitty Kiernan, Collins' betrothed.

Signally Honored

English representatives members of the civil service American officials and foreign representatives, members of the council and corps, the lord mayor of Dublin, distinguished members of the university as well as of the most exclusive society and members of many public bodies were present.

Outside, lining the miles of Dublin streets, thousands took part spiritually in the solemn Republic High Mass many of them kneeling upon the pavement in silent prayer. The body was buried in a plot of ground reserved for those who have fallen in the cause of the Irish Free State in the existing war of rebellion.

Gladstone Boys
Pinched In Semi-
Raid Saturday

Reports received by the police about 8 o'clock Saturday night to the effect that 15 strike breakers were surrounded in the Pearl Adams house on lower Ludington street took a bunch of cops down there pronto. It had been alleged that the place was surrounded by strikers and that a riot was imminent.

Investigation showed that more than a dozen men had entered the house but there were no evidences of disturbance, save that eight of the men had made their escape.

The other seven were taken into custody and it was found that six of them were employees of the Northwestern Cooperage Company in Gladstone, while the other one was a Mansfield man. The boys explained they had attended the Cooperage company picnic at Terrace Gardens on Saturday and afterward broke away to see what was doing "down the line."

According to their stories they saw nothing, drank nothing and really had just "followed the bunch." Inasmuch as there was little upon which to hold them, they were sent on their way with a reprimand. No action has been taken against Pearl Adams up to this time.

TIME TO PAY TAXES ENDS SEPTEMBER 15

All Personal Property Tax Ought to Be Provided for in Order to Avoid Confusion.

The period for payment of city taxes ends September 15. After that date a four per cent penalty is charged for collection of taxes still unpaid. For the accommodation of the public, in addition to regular office hours, the city treasurer's office will be open next Saturday evening, September 2, and Saturday evening, September 9, from 7 to 8 o'clock p. m., when tax payments can be made.

Notices are now being sent out to all who have not yet paid the personal property tax assessed against them, asking that payment be made before September 15th. It is the policy of the City Administration to have personal property taxes paid promptly this year, and to avoid a repetition of the situation confronted last spring, when there were personal property taxes owing to the city amounting to $11,500.

The state law makes it mandatory upon the collection officials, to collect this tax, and prohibits the return of it to the county treasurer in the manner delinquent taxes on real estate are returned. Unless collected, the city is directly the loser on all unpaid personal tax. For this reason, vigorous steps are to be followed to insure the collection of all personal taxes.

GAS AND LIGHT BILLS WILL BE RENDERED SOON

Sept. 15 Is Last Discount
Day On Bills to Be Presented.

Consumers of electricity and gas will receive their statements within a few days, covering the past two months. This is the first time that bills have been rendered on a two months basis and the first time that bills have all been sent out at one time. Hereafter bills for these services will be rendered on this basis, except those for the larger consumers who will continue to get their bills each month. The bi-monthly billing has been adopted by the City Administration to enable it to cut down overhead expense and economize where possible.

The last discount date on bills now being presented is September 15. The customers' account office will be open for collection each day including Saturday evening, September 15th, from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m., and on Saturday evening, September 15th, from 7 to 8 p. m., for the accommodation of the public.

It is asked that customers bring their bills with them, and thus eliminate the trouble and expense incurred in making duplicate bills.

'ESCANABA DAY' AT STEPHENSON FAIR WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 6

Crowd of at Least 400 Is Expected to Attend Big Cloverland Show Next Month.

Indications are that Escanaba will send a record breaking crowd down to the Stephenson fair on "Escanaba Day," which has been set for Wednesday, September 6. The chairman of the Stephenson fair officials indicated that the big annual show this year will be very worth while and everything is being planned to make the day memorable for Escanabans who attend.

Last night the body was carried to the cathedral just as Collins had helped to carry the body of his colleague, Griffith. Mr. Stone's message is as follows:

CHRISTMAS, Ohio, Sept. 28.—In response to requests from labor bodies throughout the country, Grand Chief Warren S. Stone of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers today made a public following Labor Day messages, which sets forth the ideals and purposes of organized labor with a clarity, force and vision that should command the consideration of every intelligent reader of the Daily Mirror.

Mr. Stone's message is as follows:

Christmas is the greatest holiday of the year for all sincere Christians. Independence Day commemorates for Americans the birth of their country. But Labor Day knows no bounds of sect or nation; it belongs to all humanity.

For every worker with an earned purpose, Labor Day means infinitely more than a mere occasion for merriment or vacation. It is a day consecrated to the holiness of human toil, to the achievements of the producing classes, to the ideals of organized labor. It proclaims the essential brotherhood of all working men, whether their labor be manual or mental, whether on farm or railroad, in mine or office.

Things to Forget

May I leave one thought with you for your serious consideration on this Labor Day? Forget for the moment the amount of your pay envelope, the difficulties of your task, the inequities from which you suffer, and fix your thoughts upon the cherished ideals for which labor is contending. Lift up your eyes toward our common goal and align your own actions in accord with the great principles which underlie all of our endeavors.

Above the struggle for bread-and-butter, above the humdrum of the daily task, arise the standards by which labor seeks to guide humanity toward a just social order. The sacred purposes to which Labor Day is dedicated do not need great volumes or long phrases for their expression. In three brief words Labor embodies the highest and holiest aspiration of mankind—peace, liberty, and justice. This is the beacon which has summoned us to the struggle against selfishness, greed, and lust for power. This is the goal that has inspired the hearts of the toiling masses through struggling centuries, through seas of sweat and blood, as the men who do the useful work of the world have freed themselves from the stigma of slavery and servitude, and stand out fearless and free, the bulwark of democracy and a Christian civilization.

It is stated that Mr. Ford denies there is a coal shortage as the investigations of his representatives have convinced him. It is stated, that coal brokers have an enormous supply of coal on hand. The Ford Motor company could cover a tract ten acres square with coal if it would submit to being victimized by profiteers. It was declared:

For several weeks, it is asserted, the Ford offices at Dearborn have been flooded with offers of coal. It is said the prices asked ranged from 100 to 300 per cent above normal.

To Keep Price Down

Mr. Ford believes that if he yields to what he terms "the hold up of the coal brokers," every other manufacturer will have to follow suit and coal prices will reach an unprecedented figure.

The Ford company recently has received a large number of offers from coal operators for the sale of mines. None of these offers have been seriously considered, owing to the present transportation situation.

It was explained that some of the mines could be bought for a very small sum of money. Mr. Ford is trying to link up the Louisville & Nashville with the Detroit, Toledo & Ironton railroads, which it is stated, would solve not only the Ford company problem, but those of every other coal user in the Lakes region. Coal for shipment is available in Kentucky, according to advices here, and only awaits a means of bringing it out.

New Consecration

Let me ask you to consecrate yourselves anew to a realization of these eternal principles. Proclaim them in conversation with your neighbors and from the platform of the public meeting. Consider their vital significance to all that you hold high and noble for yourself, your family and your fellowmen. Peace we must have, else civilization perishes. War, the red plague of mankind, must be forever banished by the workers who at the behest of diplomats and profiteers, have for ages shed their blood and borne the burden of war taxes. Liberty we must have, else life itself is futile. The man who is not free industrially and politically is crushed down to the base level of the brute. Justice we must have, else neither social peace nor liberty are possible.

In loyal devotion to Labor's supreme ideals, let us on this Labor Day declare anew that we have and are to this realization cast what it may in strife and sacrifice. For Labor must lead humanity out of the morass of conflict, greed, and misery into the fairer day of the Brotherhood of Man.

Eighteen tail-lighters and two speeders who pled guilty are fined $10 and costs while lightless tail-lighters are assessed $1.00 and costs, a total of $6.50.

There is no desire on the part of the city administration to be "hard-boiled" about this business, but the law must be observed. It is plain and it is a matter quite as much of protection to the owner of the tail-lighters as to the fellow who runs the danger of crashing into him.

Strangers in the city, who are guilty of minor infractions, are warned and permitted to go out of the city without feeling that they have been singled out for persecution, but local people who have every opportunity to know what the law is, who read every day of some one being punished for violation of the ordinance, must face the music.

Burglar Alarm Is Stolen From Shop in Detroit

DETROIT, Aug. 28.—A burglar alarm has been stolen from the salesrooms of Francis A. Darling, Michigan distributor for the Wayne Tire and Rubber company, 7712 Woodward Ave.

Darling charges that the alarm was stolen by O. L. Maun, 870 Lathrop Ave., agent who installed the system several months ago.

Darling explained to the prosecutor that Mann was summoned to the Woodward Ave. office to repair the system. Later it developed after Mann's visit, Darling alleges, the equipment disappeared. The warrant charges simple larceny.

Nine Arrests In Alleged Plot To Wreck M. C. Train

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Nine men are in custody and four of them have been implicated in an alleged plot declared to have been inspired by radicals in connection with the wreck of a Michigan Central express train at Gary, Ind., a week ago. Further arrests are expected and police and railroad agents continued to throw much secrecy around the case.

FOURTY-EIGHT MEN CAUGHT IN BURNING MINE

Seething Furnace Roars
In the 4,200-Foot
Level.

Little Hope That Any of the Imprisoned Men Can Be Brought Out Alive.

JACKSON, Cal., Aug. 28—Sept. 1. E. Garber of the Argonaut mine stated today that there are 48 men in service in the burning mine below the 4,200-foot level and very little hope is entertained of rescuing them alive.

The fire was discovered at midnight by Clarence Bransaw and a skip tender, who, on coming up for the lunch hour, encountered smoke and heat on the 3,000-foot level. They spread the alarm and rushed two parties equipped with gas masks down into the mine. They found the flames burning fiercely and were unable to approach the lower levels.

No Communication.

The tragedy of the situation increased when an air pipe burst and the electric lights were put out of commission, shutting off lights and communication. The flames are burning in the 1,500-foot level and the fire fighters are prepared to attack the fire.

As a result of the presidents' weekly conferences it was indicated that he still believes it would be possible to restore normal conditions without resorting to government operations of rail and coal properties, effected by the strike situation and that he felt much could be done in that direction even before congress acts, to create a fuel distribution agency and to clothe the interstate commerce commission with additional powers over private rights.

Hurrying Bills

At the same time, however, both the senate and the house interstate commerce committees were redoubling their efforts to complete the distribution and priority bills.

With the presidents' return to Washington this morning from a weekend cruise in the yacht Mayflower, where Secretary Hoover, Attorney General Daugherty and Chairman Cummings of the senate committee were among his guests and conferees, it was indicated that the intention of the executive officials would be continued on the movement of coal.

Center on Coal

As outlined in an authoritative quarter, the Mayflower conference reached the conclusion that the bituminous coal situation was being cleared up that the anthracite strike was near settlement and that if shipments of coal could be accelerated, the general situation gradually would be established to complete stability. Just what the executives have in contemplation to facilitate coal shipment was not revealed but there were indications that a curtailment of passenger, express and freight traffic in all commodities except coal and essential food stuffs was among the possibilities.

NEWBERRY AND MARQUETTE GO FOR 17 INNINGS

Eddie Cicotte Given Hardest Battle in Upper Peninsula But Emerges With a 2 to 1 Victory.

NEWBERRY, Mich., Aug. 28.—After battling nine innings without either team scoring, Marquette came through in the tenth inning of Sunday's game and sent one tally across the plate, only to be followed by Newberry in their half of the inning with one run, tying the score. For six more innings no runner touched his foot to the plate, but in the seventeenth inning a Newberry man trotted home for the winning run of a 2 to 1 game. Manager Harry R. Goodwin, of the Marquette team, protested the run.

With a runner on second base, a local batsman sent one of Crittenton's offerings out to right field. Cameron, the umpire, declaring the ball a foul, calling a "strike" on the man up. The man at second raced for third, counted it and came across the plate with what Newberry fans considered the winning run of the long drawn out game. The umpire failed to send the runner back and counted the run as the deciding factor of the title, giving the Celery City boys a 2 to 1 count over Marquette. The ball is claimed to have landed in foul territory by two feet and the umpire's first decision seeming to substantiate the claim of the Marquette team. Members of the Newberry team admitted the ball landed out of the field of play.

It was a pitcher's duel from the first inning when Cicotte, former pitcher of the Chicago White Sox, took the mound until Crittenton made his visit to the slab in the last half of the seventeenth inning. The Marquette twirler threw one of the best games since he has been wearing a Marquette uniform, fans of that city said. He allowed only five hits. In the last 53 innings that Crittenton has twirled he has allowed but eighteen safe walks. Included in this record are three games of three safeties apiece, the Crystal Falls encounter in which he allowed but four and today's seven run fiasco, two of which there were but five made.

Both teams gave their hurlers excellent support and play was snappy throughout. Richardson was behind the plate for Marquette with Jacobs doing the receiving for Newberry.

The stars will box on both field days.

STATE ELECTION INTEREST GROWS MORE INTERESTING

Contest for Senatorial Nomination
Overshadows All Other Primary Fights.

(By Associated Press)

LANSING, Mich., Aug. 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Michigan voters will go to the polls September 12 to name party nominees for United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, members of congress, state legislators and local officers. Overshadowing all other contests in point of state-wide interest is that for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

There are four candidates in the field—Senator Charles E. Townsend, State Senator Herbert F. Baker, Congressman Patrick H. Kelley and John G. Emery, formerly national commander of the American Legion. The paramount issue in the vigorous campaign they are conducting is excessive campaign expenditures. With Michigan the home state of Senator Truman H. Newberry, "Newberryism" who has come to be the slogan of the campaign and all other issues have comparatively been lost sight of.

Baker, Kelley and Emery are basing their campaigns upon a denunciation of "Newberryism." Senator Townsend, in reply, has held steadfastly to the position that his actions in the senate call for no apology. He has declared that he "is as much against excessive expenditures as anyone." In the Newberry case he admits that "too much money was spent but not that any money was illegally spent."

Former Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris is unopposed for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Governor Alex J. Groesbeck is opposed for Republican renomination by former State Labor Commissioner Richard H. Fletcher and Theodore M. Joslin, of Adrian. Both Joslin and Fletcher are asking for votes as a protest against alleged excessive expenditures in the conduct of the state's business. They also assert that Governor Groesbeck has created an autocracy of which he is the head. The governor will go before the voters on his record.

Of the nine congressmen who are running for renomination all but two are opposed. The Republican nomination is usually considered equivalent to election. Congressman Earl Michener is opposed by S. E. Crawford of Ypsilanti, J. M. C. Smith by Brewster E. Kies of Hillsdale; Carl E. Mapes by Alval M. Brown, of Grand Rapids; Louis C. Crandon by James McCaren, of Port Huron; Francis O. Lindquist by Bird J. Vincent, of Saginaw; William M. Smith of St. Johns, and Wm. M. Lash, of Saginaw; James S. McLaughlin by State Senator Albert Engel; W. Frank James by Martin S. McDonough, of Iron River. John C. Ketchem and Roy O. Woodruff are unopposed for renomination.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble—Salts fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

Miss Rowe Swims for Eight Hours

(By Associated Press)

BENZONIA, Mich., Aug. 25.—Swimming without pause for eight and three-quarters hours, Miss Genevieve Rowe, 17, of Hillsdale, Mich., swam the entire length of Crystal Lake, near here, a distance of nine miles.

Miss Rowe did not leave the water even to eat. Her only food was raisins which were handed to her by persons who accompanied her in a boat. Miss Rowe took the raisins with one hand, used the other in swimming. She did not rest by floating.

"You see, I don't float, anyway," she explained afterwards with a smile. "I have swum ever since I was eight years old."

Miss Rowe is attending a girls' summer camp here. She danced in a pageant which the girls of the camp presented before the Congregational Summer Assembly at Frankfort, near Crystal Lake.

Not Guilty!

If your Ford jars and chatters when you start or stop, it is because the brake bands are glazed. You may think you need new bands. Nine cases out of ten you don't.

It is not the fault of the bands—it's the oil that's guilty. Drain your crankcase and refill it with Havoline F. The chatter will stop in less than a half mile. Havoline F—a new grade of the oldest branded motor oil on the market—Havoline Oil—softens the bands so they will take hold firmly and smoothly.

MICHAEL COLLINS, PATRIOT AND MARTYR.

The assassination of Michael Collins is a most horrifying thing. It is an unpardonable offense against Ireland and it is a crime against the whole of civilization.

General Collins was a martyr in the cause of liberty for his country and those who brought about his end are under the eternal obliquity of having deliberately, and maliciously killed one of the leading patriots of the race and time who was trying to save the country and give it a place of honor among the nations while they were working to degrade and destroy it.

These men have a fearful burden of blood guiltiness resting upon their shoulders, and they cannot hope to lighten it in the slightest degree before a world sitting in judgment by undertaking to put forth some feeble technical defense. And it also is true that whether Eamonn de Valera failed from his once high estate did or did not directly and personally instigate the killing, he is morally culpable and accessory to the fact, because he is the person who led the slayers into their civil ways, roused their passions, and distorted their vision.

It is superfluous to say that the killing of Michael Collins is a fearful blow to his country. Coming close upon the death of Arthur Griffith it is a national calamity which everybody who wishes the Irish Free State well will sincerely mourn. In less than two weeks, the new government finds itself deprived of the two men who made it possible, and who have been its bulwarks up to the present time. The Free State was their work, their great accomplishment for Erin and for humanity. The one was its intellectual driving force, the other its inspiration and soul. And it is highly probable that no other Irishmen could possibly have done what they achieved working side by side.

Doubtless others can now rise up to take the places left vacant and continue the work begun, but the loss of Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins means trouble and travail never ending, and a new time of crisis. It is pitiful that having wrought so well and faithfully these men should both be taken away just as they were becoming able to look upon their work and see that it was good, and just as the world was beginning to acclaimed them.

THEY WILL HEAR FROM THE VOTERS LATER.

The best thing about an emergency is that it seldom lasts long. Last year the tariff tinkers in Congress were talking about the emergency which necessitated protecting the farmers who raised wheat. Wheat was selling for $1.60 on the day the President signed that Emergency Tariff. Since that time the farmers' wheat has been protected by a tariff of 35 cents per bushel. Wheat is now selling below a dollar.

But the agricultural emergency seems to be over. At least Congress has forgotten about it. Senator Lenroot, whose constituents are largely farmers, has been protesting with all his power in the Senate against the imposition of a tariff of more than 400 per cent on the outcry the farmers have to buy. But the high protectionists can not be persuaded.

Meanwhile the voices most often heard in Congress are not those who last year were contending for the emergency agricultural protection. The farmers have learned that so long as they are exporting millions of dollars worth of products, their prices must be fixed on the far side of the tariff wall and can not be improved by protection. The experience with wheat taught them that. But they are not on that account likely to be more jubilant for a tariff that will cost the consumers $200,000,000 in taxes on sugar and that will boost the prices of hundreds of common necessities.

Protectionists in the Senate who during the past week have reiterated that they would vote for a tariff of 1,000 per cent if it were necessary to maintain the protective principle, have yet to hear from the millions of consumers who are likewise voters.

NO FLAT LIMIT.

Now that the tariff bill has ceased to consume all of the time and attention of the senate other matters are coming to the fore. One of them is a bill prepared by Senator Pomerene to control election expenditures by candidates for congressional memberships. Some legislation on that subject will be enacted sooner or later but it may be hoped that the feature of the Pomerene bill which limits the amount to be expended in every case to $10,000 will be modified in accordance with common sense and justice. No flat limit to apply to every state in the United States can be fair, for a sum that would be sufficient in a small state would not make a beginning in a large state. New York has a population of more than 10,000,000 while Nevada numbers about 77,000.

When the bill is framed it ought to proportion permissible expenses to population and it ought to be sufficiently liberal to permit any candidate to take substantial expenditures for every legitimate purpose. An honestly educational campaign in politics is not evil. Quite to the contrary, it is a good and necessary thing if this country is to understand political issues and vote intelligently.

Anybody who wants to know what a feeling of profound relief is like should interview a United States senator in his state of mind after the tariff bill went to congress.

It is reported that Sir Thomas Lipton is preparing to bring over another Skamrock. This country has picked four of the little stems one by one, so why not five?

In agreeing to disagree, the British and French governments are doing no more than adopt a modus vivendi resorted to in many households.

When a person is unable to look with indulgence on the vagaries of the flapper than he (or she) may know that old age is creeping on.

Judge Asks Law To Impose Curb On "Auto Parties"

Madison, Wis., Aug. 28.—The menace of automobile joyrides to the younger generation led Judge O. A. Stolen of the junior superior court Madison to announce today that he will have a bill introduced in the next legislature to provide for confiscation of motor cars used for what he termed "sporting parties."

"Drastic steps must be taken," said Judge Stolen. "The increasing menace and influence of the automobile on the youth of the country must be checked and stamp out. The wheels of my court are clogged with cases of boys and girls who have gone wrong as the result of automobile parties. I can safely say that 50 per cent of the cases which come into this court are traceable directly to the automobile."

The big three working for the downfall of the youth of today," continued the judge, "are moonshine unregulated dancing parties and joyrides. Laws have been passed to regulate dance halls, and prohibition officers are doing their best with the moonshine problem, but the hands of officials are still tied when it comes to wild automobile parties."

Mixed Marriage Ban in Yokohama Schools Is to Be Lifted, Claim

(By Associated Press)

YOKOHAMA, Aug. 28.—The foreign school of Yokohama which unlike other similar schools of Japan, has rigidly excluded children of mixed marriages, has at last decided to lift the ban. This is the result of a long controversy in which veteran western merchants of Japan have been opposed by men with Eurasian families. The lack of money broke down the opposition to these children, their fathers, many of them wealthy men, having refused to subscribe to the funds of the school which is supported by voluntary subscriptions, unless the children were admitted.

Start New Soo Shops

There is now every prospect that the Soo Line roundhouse and machine shops destroyed by fire several months ago will be completely rebuilt by fall. Smith & Vandamer, of St. Paul, have already started work and it is stated that the work will be finished in all details by January first.

That the Soo Line means to maintain a division point in Gladstone would seem to be indicated by the fact that the contract calls for brick and concrete construction which will make the new buildings as nearly fire proof as possible.

Plans for the rebuilding contemplate a 29 stall roundhouse with blacksmith shop, machine shop, toilet and locker rooms.

Temporary offices for the contractors and sheds for housing the building material are already being erected. The contractors state that so far as possible, local labor is to be used in the work.

Boy Scouts Boost Town

Bobby Noreus, 11 and Eddie Johnson, 16, attracted much favorable attention to this city last week by riding their bicycles to Marquette and back and carrying with them a camping and cooking outfit. They were gone from Wednesday morning until Friday night and had a wonderful time camping out in addition to enjoying the beauties of the scenery between here and Marquette. And many men who saw the youngsters stopped to talk with them, learning they were boy scouts, all of which boosted the boy scouts, as well as called attention to the enterprise of Gladstone youth.

Autoists Visit 70 Towns

Arthur and Helmer Skopquist, Howard and Petty Cameron and Helmer Blomquist returned Saturday afternoon from an auto trip of one week in which they visited 70 towns and villages on their way to and from Minneapolis. They had a fine trip, no trouble and the weather was favorable all the time.

Reject North Hill Bids

It now appears that the building of the North Hill road will not be completed this fall as had been so eagerly hoped. The state highway department is reported to have rejected all bids for the work on the ground that bids were too high. Concrete construction was first provided for but on account of hold-ups in freight deliveries of cement macadam was considered. It is stated that all bids on both classes of construction were too high and the state highway department has re-advertised for bids.

Under these circumstances the contract can hardly be let and work gotten under way in time for completion before winter.

Much disappointment is manifested among business men and citizens generally but it is hoped that as the next best thing the road can be put through early next summer.

District O. E. S. Meeting

Plans are now complete on the part of local members for the entertainment of the seventh annual convention of the Cloverland District Association, Order of the Eastern Star, which opens next Wednesday. The meetings will be held in the gymnasium of the new Junior High School.

Twenty-five chapters of the upper peninsula are to be represented and it is stated that the convention will be the largest ever held in upper Michigan.

What promises to be an unusually impressive ceremony at this session is the exemplification of the memorial service by the R. C. Hathaway Chapter No. 49 of Escanaba.

Minnewasca Chapter No. 96 of Gladstone will open and close the 8 o'clock session Wednesday night, and matrons of the various chapters will put on the degree work at that time.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With It to Restore Color, Gloss and Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home though is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store, all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness.

By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

Gasoline Con- sumption Jumping

ASOLINE consumption during the month of June, 1922, was 20% greater than during the month of May, 1922, and considerably higher than June, 1921.

On June 1, 1922, there were in storage 856,607,102 gallons of gasoline, or 82 gallons for each of the 10,448,632 automobiles registered Jan. 1, 1922.

This means less gasoline per car in storage than for any similar period since 1918, with the single exception of the year 1920 when there were only 76.4 gallons per car.

The summer demand for gasoline is about double the lowest demand of the winter. If July and August consumption shows an increase proportionate to the June demand (as appears probable) stocks may be expected to decline rapidly.

However, because of its unrivaled facilities, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is equipped to care for the gasoline needs of its patrons throughout the Middle Western States it serves.

The refineries of this Company operate the year through in order that products will be ready when the heavy summer demand comes. At all times the Company attempts to have its field storage tanks full.

To maintain an abundant supply of gasoline at all points in the territory requires the unceasing efforts of 26,000 employees, the manufacturing capacity of 6 large refineries, the field storage at 3821 bulk stations, 1700 service stations, 515,000 iron barrels, and over 6600 tank wagon and delivery trucks.

The motorist who will think in terms of the unceasing streams of cars on the streets about him will quickly appreciate the magnitude of the task confronting the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). This task is far more difficult of performance in the Middle West than elsewhere in the United States because the number of cars per capita is greater and the mileage of these cars is greater.

Great as this undertaking is, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has proved equal to the job. As gasoline consumption increases, this Company provides facilities to meet it. It believes that this expansion of activity is an essential part of the service which it is expected to perform.

CONFERENCE OF METHODISTS IS ENDED SUNDAY

Bishop Mitchell Delivers Strong Sermon and Makes Appointments for the Coming Year.

What is regarded as one of the most pleasant and profitable meetings ever held by Northern Swedish Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church was brought to a close yesterday afternoon at the Swedish M. E. Church, of which Rev. O. R. Palm is pastor.

Yesterday's services were very largely attended. One of the strongest sermons of the session was delivered yesterday morning by Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell.

Bishop's Sermon

"The Kingdom of God—where is it?" asked Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell in his conference sermon before an audience which packed the Swedish Methodist church yesterday morning the last day of the Conference session.

He continued by saying:

"The Mohammedan thinks it is in Turkey; the Jew thought it was in Palestine. There is no place in God's physical universe big enough to contain it; no place but an immortal soul—the Kingdom of God is the Christian life. It is not anything external."

He then pointed out the tragedy which exists in that many think the Kingdom of God may be realized attending church services or mass, observing certain rituals and ceremonies, or by not eating certain kinds of food, and observing certain modes of dress. Others in our modern days in those acts designated as "social service."

Seek Remedy in Heart

"Very soon today come to church longer to be fed with the bread of life, and get nothing but old second hand clothes," he said. "Give a man a better heart, and he will soon have a better home. The Kingdom of God is something in the interior which has something to do with the fountain head of all action."

"It makes as much difference what you believe as the diameter between the highest heaven and the lowest hell. You can't think wrong and act right. The touch of the sinner did not contaminate him who was the fountain of purity, but it was remitted by the outflow of His purity. I have a quarrel with any man or organization whose creed is just the opposite of their life."

Resolution of Appreciation

The conference, in a series of resolutions, expressed its thanks to the Bishop for his helpful and timely addresses and his brotherly spirit to the church and pastor for the very cordial reception and hospitality to the press of the city for their cordial and accommodating spirit in giving wide publicity to the transactions of the conference, and to the business men and others who entertained the visitors to a most enjoyable auto trip to Escanaba's points of interest.

Leonard Moreau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moreau, 311 So. 9th St., left Sunday night for Chicago to attend the Hoosier School where he will take a course in window-trimming and card writing. Mr. Moreau was formerly employed at the Boston Store.

Mr. and Mrs. LaFortune, of Minneapolis, Minn., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Zenophile Longtin, 821 Huron Avenue for the past week, left Saturday by motor for Punta Gorda where they will visit relatives for a time previous to going to Detroit, where both Mr. and Mrs. LaFortune will locate permanently as chiropractors. Mr. LaFortune is a brother of Mrs. Longtin.

While here a number of pleasant trips were made to smaller towns in the country where Mr. and Mrs. LaFortune are in the acquaintance of the old days.

A typographical error appearing in an item a week ago about the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. LaFortune in this city, made it appear that they were “chiropracts.” The aggrieved typewriter suffering from carpal tunnel syndrome insisted on translating chiropractor into chiropractic, which was an error and did his corpus no good whatever.

MICHIGAN SENATORS

ABSENT; BILL IS LOST

No Federal Judge for State Until Measure Passes.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28—Absence of the two senators from Michigan contributes to the failure of the Senate on Wednesday finally to pass the judicial bill which would give to Eastern Michigan a much needed additional Federal judge.

Senator Cammins of Iowa, in charge of the conference report on the bill, moved to take it up during the morning hour. Senator Shields of Tennessee, who is opposed to the bill, immediately demanded a quorum. When the roll was called only 45 senators, four less than a quorum, answered to their names. The sergeants-at-arms and pages were sent scurrying about the capitol in search of stragglers and stragglers were finally obtained, but only after a half hour had elapsed.

On the motion to take up the bill, a majority of the senators again failed to answer to their names, and another 15 minutes was wasted before the quorum could be rounded up. Senator Shields, discovering the weakness of the majority, demanded a quorum call at intervals, and thus conducted a lone filibuster until the hour of 2:00 p.m. made the bonus bill the pending business.

Senator Townsend has left the Senate to engage in campaigning in Michigan. Senator Newberry also left town following the vote on the tariff bill last week. He is reported to be playing golf at his summer home at Watch Hill, Rhode Island.
