If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts
Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water
When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and clog you must remove them, like you relieve your bowels, remove all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

The Newspaper Insurance League Through The North American Accident Insurance Co., of Chicago, Ill. Paid $5,584.98 to Subscribers In One Week

Table listing subscribers and amounts paid. Includes: AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, ANDERSON HERALD, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, COLUMBUS DISPATCH, COLUMBUS LEDGER, DETROIT NEWS, ELMIRA ADVERTISER, EL PASO TIMES, LA PORTE HERALD, LEXINGTON HERALD, LOUISVILLE POST, MARION CHRONICLE, MINNEGOTA DAILY STAR, MONTGOMERY ADVERTISER, NEWARK STAR-EAGLE, NEW YORK GLOBE, OMAHA BEE.

How The Newspaper Insurance League Came Into Being and Something About Its Rapid Growth

What can we do to show our subscribers that they are something more than mere readers of our paper? How can we convince them that we look upon them as members of our family? How may we show to them our appreciation of their friendship and at the same time make them understand the obligation which rests upon us?

These were a few of the considerations which, a few years ago, prompted a few newspapers to band together for the purpose of throwing about their subscribers a very real and a very necessary measure of protection at a cost which would not be burdensome and at the same time would be of great value and help in time of trouble.

THE DAILY MIRROR IS THE ONLY NEWS PAPER IN NORTHERN MICHIGAN GIVING THIS SERVICE.

Last year alone, THE DAILY MIRROR PAID CLAIMS ON 40 PERCENT OF ALL THE ACCIDENTAL TRAVEL DEATHS IN DELTA COUNTY, AND 58 PERCENT OF ALL THE AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS IN THE COUNTY.

What would it mean to the public if every paper in the country gave its subscribers the benefit of this protection? How much of the enormous economic loss; what degree of human suffering and mental anguish would be alleviated, if the families of injured or killed breadwinners had the benefit of this protection?

It is not a kindly philanthropic, nor is it charity, because the subscriber is under the obligation to pay for the protection, but the cost is so trifling that anyone who reads can well afford to carry a policy on every member of the family between the ages of 16 and 70 years. In these days of terrific pressure and high speed, where time means efficiency and where so much is sacrificed to these saving dangers of travel accidents are multiplying constantly. Every few automobiles turned out into the hazard. Every man or woman who gets into or upon a motor-propelled vehicle, is subject to danger not only from the operator of that vehicle, but from the operator of every other vehicle of the kind upon the street or country road.

Accidents are not prearranged. No man's brilliancy or judgment is proof against them because he is always at the mercy of the "other fellow." Just last week this great organization of newspapers, of which The Escanaba Daily Mirror is proud to be a unit, paid out more than $5,000 to those injured and to the families of those killed in auto and travel accidents. CAN YOU AFFORD TO BE WITHOUT THIS KIND OF PROTECTION? ABOUT these newspapers, rendering this service, doing something really big and vital for you. Isn't it plain that their interest is deeper than merely desiring that you be a regular reader? You are one of the family and you are entitled to protection. It will not be forced upon you, but it is available and is being secured by thousands of thoughtful men and women all over this broad land.

THE NEGRO EXODUS.

According to figures compiled by the Georgia Bankers' Association 230,000 negroes have left Georgia for the north within the past three and a half years, or since the beginning of 1920. The figures show, moreover, that 77,500 of this number left during the first six months of the current year, indicating that the exodus is on the rise instead of on the wane.

James S. Peters, president of the association, takes a common sense view of the situation in presenting four suggestions which he believes will go far toward inducing the negroes to remain in Georgia, namely:

First, wages must be increased to meet the level of the north and east, and living conditions improved.

Second, care of the quarters of the negro, the sanitation of their sections of towns and rural communities improved.

Third, our educational facilities must be improved, and the negro given a better chance to educate himself.

Fourth, fair consideration, and thereby a fair deal in all transactions, and this should not be tolerated.

Continuing, Mr. Peters says: "The exodus of the negro has left behind a destruction, silent, but as great as that wrought by the march of Sherman's army from Atlanta to the sea. As a result of the exodus of the negroes to the north and of the white people to the city, we now have vacant 46,676 farm dwellings in Georgia, and 39,522 idle plows. Based upon a production of $500 to the plow, which is very low, it will be observed that 39,522 acres of wealth from her farms this year will amount to the sum of more than $27,000,000 and in a decade to more than $250,000,000."

While Georgia appears to be the most intense sufferer the negro exodus from the south to the north has been cause for much worry on the part of many other southern states, with the possible exception of North and South Carolina where many new textile mills have been recently built in which the negroes are able to find employment at greater remuneration than they could secure on the plantations. Harsh treatment and low wages are undoubtedly the main reasons for the exodus. As Mr. Peters says: "It did not require labor agents to take from Ireland almost one-half of her population and transplant them on the shores of North America. Superior living conditions and better wages did this."

Nor is the exodus from the agricultural to the industrial centers confined to the negro. Farmers in the north, east, and west, in lesser extent in the west, are finding it difficult, well-nigh impossible, to secure adequate crop because of the white exodus to the cities and manufacturing towns. According to one report dealing with the Kentucky farm loan district, even farm owners have been leaving their farms and going where they could secure the exceedingly high wages now paid by the mills and in the building trades.

The fact is that the holding against agriculture for the latter's labor supply, and successfully. If agriculture should be compelled to pay wages equal to those paid in industry the price of food-stuffs would be beyond the reach of those who comprise the so-called "white collar" class, and the increased cost of living would soon be followed by demands for further increases in wages by industrial workers—an ever mounting and vicious spiral.

The situation is beyond the powers of statesmanship to handle. It is not a subject for legislation. It must be solved, if at all, by a people which prides itself on the ultimate rule of common sense.

THOUGHT THEY WERE MARRIED.

From Popular Bluff, which is just in the edge of the cotton industry in Missouri, comes news of an innocent couple who took out a license to marry and set up housekeeping under the impression that the license was a marriage certificate. Fortunately somebody called to learn why there had been no return on the license and set matters right by hustling the happy pair to the nearest preacher. Those who suppose, mistakenly, but southern Missouri is the abode of rude uncultured ignorance may think that such a thing would not happen in Michigan. As a matter of fact it has happened in Detroit, and happens every now and then in various other parts of the country.

Furthermore, and worse, designing men have been known to take advantage of girlish ignorance by assuring young women that the formalities attending the issuance of a license are equivalent to a marriage ceremony and the consequences of such deceptions are tragic. All of which leads to the conclusion that some sort of safeguard ought to be set up wherever marriage licenses are issued which would make it as nearly certain as possible, that every man and woman who take out a marriage license shall understand the nature and purpose of that proceeding.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF McADOO.

William G. McAdoo made a speech in Los Angeles the other day in which he lamented "disregard of fundamentals of the constitution, attempts to throttle free speech and free press," and so on. Altogether Mr. McAdoo took a rather gloomy view of the United States just now. But that did not prevent him from being funny. It is a good deal like listening to the recitation of passages of holy writ by a certain personage with a caudal appendage when we hear Son-in-Law McAdoo, one time exponent in chief of the cause of state socialism, leading member and champion of an administration that for years suppressed news wholesale and undertook to subvert the fundamental law of the land for the benefit of the League of Nations covenant, weeping crocodile tears over attacks on the integrity of the constitution and assaults on free speech and free press.

If those Germans who have been fined some billions of marks by the French will hold back on payment a few days their indebtedness will not be more than a few cents American money.

TEMPLARS PLAN PENINSULA GROUP

Marquette and Houghton Commanderies Want District Body.

Plans of the Marquette and Houghton commanderies, Knights Templar, are to extend the scope of their annual outing, which will be held at L'Anse August 8 to bring into existence an Upper Peninsula association, which will hold annual field meets. Such a program would provide for competitive drills and other events intended to stimulate interest in the organization's activities and to promote a closer relationship.

While the outing at L'Anse will be held under direction of the Marquette and Houghton commanderies, invitations have been extended units at Escanaba, Sault Ste. Marie, Crystal Falls, Menominee and Ironwood to participate. If the modest anticipations of Marquette county Knights Templar are met, the invitations will be accepted and initial steps taken at the forthcoming field to bring about a permanent organization of the Cleveland commanderies.

The Upper Peninsula project is not entirely new, as an association of this kind existed several years ago, the last meeting being held at Calumet. The association, as proposed, however, will be maintained on a less extravagant scale than the one of earlier years to maintain the past belief of the new one, joining the life of the old one. The proposed activities would include certain features that are now held over at state convocations.

Without it, it is not necessary for the commanderies of these parties L'Anse will probably lose its identity as the most important of commandery outings after this year. Marquette appears to be the logical choice because of its central location and adequate hotel facilities, involving, of course, the plan now under consideration obtains. A free and full discussion of the idea will be an important

U. M. IS EXPANDING MENTALLY--BURTON

Physical Growth Not Dominating Influence, He Says.

(By the Associated Press)

ANN ARBOR, Mich., July 3.—The present material expansion of the University of Michigan is not the dominating influence of the school, President Marion E. Burton declares in a report to the board of regents. Material expansion has been taken as a challenge to intellectual achievement, he said.

A period of physical expansion such as that through which the university now is passing, President Burton said, is liable to create the impression that the institution is chiefly, if not solely, interested in material things. But the administration is concerned primarily with the things of spirit, and that the things of culture and science are being underpinned by the material element. A casual look at the campus for some signs naturally leads to the belief that the University of Michigan had forgotten its real self as an institution of higher learning and that a vision to the stars of material gain and the neglect of material things, that those things are quite unimportant. It is not so, he said.

That those things are quite unimportant is not to be taken as a criticism of the material progress, he said. It is only to be taken as a warning that the material progress should not be allowed to overshadow the things of spirit. The things of spirit are the things that will give the university its true life and its true identity. The things of spirit are the things that will give the university its true life and its true identity.

Dr. Burton's report, which is the first of its kind since the inauguration of President Burton, will be read at the regents' meeting on July 10 and will be the subject of a special session.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Draughtsman Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it falls, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmothers made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by a certain amount of care for a bottle of "Wynol's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which will keep the hair so naturally, so evenly, so healthily can possibly get a hair preparation. You just dab it on a comb or soft brush each night and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. In removing the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wynol's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair, it also has a beautifying effect, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

A Shirt Sleeved Organization
THE world has no place for the shirk. This is the age of workers; of men who are able to do their part in performing the world's work, earnestly, efficiently, and with unbounded enthusiasm.
The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is an organization of 27,000 workers—a shirt sleeved organization—from the top to the bottom.
In this Company aristocracy is unknown. Instead there exists the true type of industrial democracy.
The department head and the employe work in full sympathy and understanding, shoulder to shoulder, for the common good. The office boy of today is the chief clerk of tomorrow; the district manager of today is the general manager of tomorrow.
On the Board of Directors of this Company is one man who started as a common laborer and truck driver; another who began as a mechanic's helper; two who started as office boys, and another who began as timekeeper—in fact, every man on the Board began in a comparatively humble capacity and earned his place by hard work and sheer ability.
There are thousands of men and boys in the ranks of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)—encouraged and emboldened by the inspiration of the "open road to the top"—who are fitting themselves for places on the Board of Directors.
It is this spirit of enthusiastic earnestness, in the mind and heart of every employe of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), which enables this Company to render such superior service to the thirty million people of the Middle West.
It is this superior service that has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) one of the great industrial organizations of the world.

JOSEPH PRIMEAU DIES IN MARQUETTE; WELL KNOWN HERE

Had Been Register of Deeds in Marquette County for the Past Twenty Years.

MARQUETTE, Mich., July 3.—The death of Joseph H. Primeau, which occurred early yesterday morning at his home on West Heath avenue, ended the career of a remarkable man, one who had lived in Marquette county more than half a century, who served the county twenty years as register of deeds, a man whose character and personality won him many friends.

Mr. Primeau was eighty years old, born August 20, 1843, in St. Martin, Chateauguay county, Canada. In his early life he attended sectarian schools, later he attended Montreal college and McGill college in Terrebonne, Canada, from which he was graduated in 1865. At that time he was commissioned a captain in the Canadian militia by the late Sir General Monck. He then attended the National Military School at Kingston, being graduated from that institution in 1864 with first and second class certificates.

He came to Marquette in 1868 and went to work for the Michigan and Northern Railway. He returned to Marquette in 1871 and gave private lessons in the French language. The family of the late Peter White, one of the prominent families here, were among his pupils.

Elected Sheriff in 1896. In 1881 he was elected judge of the peace in Marquette, which office he held until 1895, the year he was elected county clerk. He was elected sheriff in 1896, serving from 1896 to 1900. He was elected to the office of register of deeds in 1902, and served in that office until 1922.

Funeral Thursday. The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock with services in St. Joseph's church. The services will be held at 10 o'clock. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock.

STATE G. O. P. PICKS NO WOMAN AID YET

Michigan Favors Proposal, But Delays Selection.

WASHINGTON, Inquiries at the headquarters of the Republican national committee brought the information that no election of a woman as associate member of the committee for Michigan had yet been received, although Chairman John T. Adams has made a proposal to James E. Davidson, of Bay City, that he be heartily in favor of the chairman's plan for this purpose. Mr. Davidson is a Michigan member of the committee since the death of former Governor Fred M. Warner, and the selection of a woman associate would be left to him under the Adams plan.

The national chairman requested recently that each member of the committee appoint in his state a woman to serve as an associate member until the next national convention, when it will be possible to change the by-laws of the party so as to elect a woman member in the same way as the man is now elected.

Several states, like New York and Pennsylvania, have sent in the names of women members and others have reported that they have the substance for consideration and will take action in the near future.

Nation Becoming One of Brewers, Clergyman Says

(By the Associated Press.) GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 3.—The nation is making the United States a nation of brewers and wine makers, Rev. R. J. Campbell, Grand Rapids church, declared in an address here last week. Admitted evils of the saloon, he contended local restrictions "saying when to demand because he chooses to take a drink of wine or beer."

"We have no right to say that all men who have had wine all their lives cannot touch their wine when they touch our glasses," he asserted.

LIBBY APPOINTED DEPUTY WARDEN

Will Fill Vacancy Created by Death of John Rough

IRISHMINE, July 3.—Deputy Game Warden F. F. Swanson was advised yesterday that Ernest W. Libby of Otter Lake had received a commission as deputy warden from the state department of conservation to fill the vacancy in the upper peninsula force of the department caused by the death of the late John Rough. Mr. Libby was commissioned early in the spring as a state game warden and he will continue in this capacity in connection with his work as game warden.

Sportmen of the Gwin district are well pleased with the appointment of Mr. Libby as deputy game warden as they are assured that he will give the Swanton range country the protection that it has needed for a long period of years for its game and fish.

Some of the best fishing and hunting in the upper peninsula can still be had on the Swanton range and because of the lack of suitable protection violators have worked havoc for a number of years. Frequently deputy game wardens from other parts of the county worked in the Gwin district and they very seldom made a trip to that section without making arrests of violators.

During the past two deer hunting seasons Mr. Libby has been employed as a special county game warden working in cooperation with the department of conservation.
