ATTEND HIGH SCHOOL CARNIVAL TONIGHT

HIGH SCHOOL CARNIVAL SET FOR TONIGHT

More Than a Thousand
Tickets Have Been Sold in City.

Athletic Field Fund Is Going to Be Swelled After the Big Show Is Over
Tonight.

Yes, we are going to have a real jolly, howling, happy, noisy, festive carnival at the high school this evening and the doors will open at 7 o'clock so even the little folks can see the fun and get home before it is too late in the evening.

The students are going to welcome you with open arms and will show you many ways to have added fun and excitement at a comparatively small cost. The kids can find ways to invest their pennies and dimes, and the older folks can buy candy and other things found at carnivals. Don't let anything keep you from going. Take the whole family.

The periods of classes in the High School were shortened today to allow students ample time to prepare for the big carnival which will be held in the High School building this evening.

The first four periods of the day were shortened to thirty minutes each and ran off in regular order. The ninth and tenth periods, also thirty minutes in length, followed. The fifth period of the day was of its usual length and started at the usual time, 11 o'clock. The sixth, seventh and eighth periods were of regular lengths as on other days to allow students time for lunch at noon. This schedule allowed school to be dismissed at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

This year the Orange and Black society are trying to do things for the high school—things that will help your children's children in the years to come. It costs a dollar to go in the big show and nothing to get out, after you are once in, so arrive early and stay as late as you can—the fun is yours and you can have as much as you care to have. Take some money with you besides what the ticket costs for the students want to sell you lots of things.

The carnival will close with a big carnival show in which the best high school talent will take part. You will get a lot for your money—so go.

STANDARD OIL FILING SUITS IN PATENT DEALS

Allege Other Companies Are Using Their Patented Processes in Making Gasoline.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The Standard Oil Company of Indiana today filed a complaint in the United States District Court here against the Universal Oil Products Company and announced that a similar bill had been filed in the Federal District Court in East St. Louis against the Roxana Oil Company to enjoin them from the use of certain oil cracking processes. The bills alleged infringement of a patent.

BURNED BY HOT FRUIT, BEAR TOOK REVENGE

MORTON, Wash.—Bears like revenge, declares Thomas Jergin, seed cone gatherer. Jergin left a pot of prunes cooking on his wood stove while he went for a pail of water.

A black bear ambled along, smelled the stewing fruit, helped himself to the kettle and started into the woods. The boiling water spilled over and scalded bruiser. The animal dropped kettle and fruit and rushed back and demolished the stove, scattering flaming embers in every direction.

Jergin arrived in time to see the bear hurrying toward a small lake to cool off.

Extra Police On Duty; Boys Must Watch Their Step

Chief of Police Tolson has been busy today in swearing in between forty and fifty extra police officers to keep an eye on the boys tonight who mean to do real mischief. The chief says the youngsters can have all the honest fun they want to and can play "tick-tack" on the windows of the police station but if the boys get too rambunctious, they will be taken to the station and locked up for the night.

STEINMETZ HAS $1500 LEGACY; NOTHING ELSE

Great Electrical Wizard Didn't Work for Money.

Took His Important Postion
With the Understanding That His Bills Would Be Paid.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Dr. Charles Proteus Steinmetz, who died in his home here on Friday of myocarditis, "the highest paid electrical engineer in the world," left virtually no estate it was learned on Saturday. His books and papers, an electric automobile made in 1912, and a $1,500 insurance policy, the same as is issued to all veteran employees of the General Electric Company apparently comprises the entire worldly wealth of the scientist and inventor.

The man who made lightning probably could have made millions, but apparently he never drew a salary and when he entered the employ of the General Electric Company a score years ago, declared he did not wish to work for money.

"Let me draw it as I wish and if I draw too much, tell me," said Dr. Steinmetz. "Do not fix an amount. If I think of money I will not work as well. Build me a house, if you wish, and a laboratory. That is all I want."

It was learned on Saturday that Oscar Amussen, a friend of the inventor in Switzerland, led Dr. Steinmetz to come to America thirty years ago and paid the expenses of the voyage.

NEW MAIL BOXES BEING PLACED ON LUDINGTON STREET

The government is doing its bit to make Escanaba's Great White Way more profitable in appearance by removing all the old mail boxes that were fastened to the wooden poles and replacing them with brand new nicely painted green boxes, which are being securely fastened to the iron poles supporting the lamps. The work was started last week and has practically been completed.

Elbert Gary Says
He Is Courteous
to All the Women

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, today emphatically but courteously denied any implied disrepute to a woman, who Monday accosted him in Wall street and tried to hand him a booklet, in which financial dealers' salaries were compared with those of their clerks.

"I had not the slightest idea what the young woman wanted," Mr. Gary said. "She stopped me and I put up my hand to warn her off. I have no desire to be disconcerted at any time, and especially to a woman."

Vets' Bureau An Expensive Thing To Carry Along

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Payment of additional $33,000 to Matt O'Brien, a San Francisco architect, for the revision of his plans for a government hospital at Livermore, California, to make them accord with the original terms of his contract was disclosed today before the senate investigating committee.

GOV. SMITH OF NEW YORK HAS OPENED FIGHT

Feud Existing Between Himself and Hearst Revived.

Without Giving Names He Indicates very Pointedly who
He Means by Talk.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Politicians today saw a renewal of the long standing feud between Governor Smith and William Randolph Hearst, in the governor's Tammany Hall speech last night when he said: "The editor-politician is venting his personal spleen against the democratic party because it saw fit to throw cold water over his personal aspirations or high political office."

Although the governor did not mention Mr. Hearst's name, this inference was unmistakable when he referred to the "editor politician."

Governor Smith said: "Monumental fakirs, political or otherwise, have a great time for a little while. When the lights burn for them they burn very brightly, when the band plays it blares very loudly; while the cheering lasts it is very encouraging, but the day of reckoning comes in the cold, gray dawn of the morning, when the people realize that they have been the victims of a bungo game intended to promote someone's political and personal ambitions."

PROHIBITION ONLY CURE, BISHOP SAYS

Asserts Dry Movement More Significant Than War
on "Slavery."

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 31.—There is a world movement for the prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquors "which is more significant than the movement of a century ago against slavery," Bishop Thomas Nicholson, of Chicago, president of the Anti-Saloon League of America, declared in an address before the annual executive meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The common sense of humanity sees prohibition and the absolute abolition of the saloon and the drinking place as the only cure for problems caused by the liquor traffic," Bishop Nicholson said, speaking to the 1,000 delegates, who represent a member ship of 620,000.

CPR BUYERS HONEST.

However, the buyers of the cars were honest and did not say why they should be the losers, so the first case came up in court yesterday. The defendant was Joseph Sturgeon of Gladstone, who is in the employ of the Gladstone Reporter. He bought a car from a Gladstone agent of Pepin's, paid for it and got a clear certificate of ownership from the secretary of state. Attorneys for both sides argued the case before Judge O'Brien and the jury yesterday and the case went to the jury this morning.

After some deliberation, the jury decided in favor of the defendant, Mr. Sturgeon, and he will keep his car. Just what effect this decision is going to have on the automobile industry, when these cases have been finally settled, is a matter for serious speculation.

JUST WHAT IT MEANS.

Retail automobile dealers cannot sell automobiles unless they can get them to sell and they cannot get them to sell, unless they can borrow money to buy them with. Very few dealers have enough money to stock a large number of cars, and automobile dealers must be paid for when they are unloaded. Therefore, it has been the custom to get some bank to carry the cars until they are sold.

All skaters must wear masks until 9:30, when the grand march will be held and the selection of the prize winners will be made. The rink will be open from 7:00 until 10:30. Ample room has been provided for spectators and an enjoyable time is promised all attending.

OUSTED UNION MAN GETS PRISON TERM

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 31.—James B. MacLachlan, secretary of District No. 26, United Mine Workers of America, until he was ousted by President John L. Lewis during the Cape Breton coal strike last summer, was sentenced to the provincial prison today for two years for sedition. He

FLAMES DO $10,000 DAMAGE AT SHEBOYGAN

SHEBOYGAN, Wis.—Fire starting from an overheated furnace in the basement of the Sheboygan Coffee Company caused damage estimated at $10,000 Monday. Firemen were unable to enter the building for an hour because of smothering smoke and ammonia gases. A cat and six kittens lived through the fire.

BANK LOSES IN RECOVERY SUIT FOR AUTOMOBILE

Peculiar Case Finished in Circuit Court
Today.

BANK CANNOT RECOVER ON AUTO-MOBILE ON WHICH IT HELD
MORTGAGE, WHEN CAR
IS SOLD.

A JURY in circuit court this morning decided in favor of the defendant in the case of the First National Bank of this city vs. Joseph Sturgeon of Gladstone. Sturgeon had bought a car from an agent upon whom the bank held a mortgage.

AGENT LEAVES CITY.

Some months ago Lawrence F. Pepin, agent for several different makes of automobiles, left the city without leaving word as to where he was going or when he was coming back. He had sold many cars to people throughout the county, getting cash for them.

In order to get the car to sell he had to borrow money and did borrow money from the First National Bank and as a protection to the bank, gave security, the car. This is not an unusual way of financing the automobile business and it is being done generally throughout the world. However, when the car was sold, Mr. Pepin took an ace of pulling the bait, as it was arranged to get the car, a clear title from the state, according to the new automobile law.

BANK HOLDS MORTGAGE.

Still the bank held a legitimate mortgage, properly recorded. The bank loaned money on an automobile in good faith and held a chattel mortgage on the car. When the bank sought to either recover their car or the money, the buyers did not feel that way about it. They were honest in their deals, had paid their good money for their cars and had a state certificate of ownership to show for it.

A COMPARTMENT CASE.

It is almost the same as if you loaned a sum of money to a man and took a mortgage on his house and he turned around and sold the house to some one else and did not return your money. You would try to foreclose on the house but your mortgage has become worthless because the house has been sold; this seems to be the situation in this automobile controversy.

THE BUYER'S STANDPOINT.

Now let's look at it from the buyer's standpoint. When you buy a car how are you going to know that you own it? You get the certificates of ownership and the dealer does not inform you that the car is mortgaged and you are not going to search numerous records to find out about it.

The Best of Local Talent Was

Party Given There
Last Night.

Last night the big assembly room at the sanitarium at Powers presented the appearance of a private ball room in a great country home, the occasion being a party arranged by the Escanaba Woman's Club, of which Mrs. A. O. Syverson had charge. The patients at the institution have been working for the past two weeks in decorating the assembly room with black and yellow streamers and the black, Halloween spirit was carried out even to the extent of the patients themselves being elaborately dressed for the occasion.

Black and yellow dresses for the women and caps, capes or other costumes for the men had been provided for all of them and it was a really brilliant assemblage of people that stood ready to welcome the visitors from Escanaba when they arrived early in the evening.

WIDOW SENDS SON AWAY, DROWNS SELF IN CISTERNS

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 31.—A widow's grief led Mrs. Caroline Forward, 46, to take her life by leaping into the cistern of her farm home at Caledonia. The body was found in two feet of water in the bottom of the reservoir. Her husband, Charles Forward, a deputy sheriff, was shot to death two years ago while making an arrest. An only

REV. BENSON AND WIFE RECONCILED

Judge Barstow Refuses to Dismiss Case as Mrs. Benson Requests.

MENOMINEE — Reconciliation of Rev. Carl Benson and wife was affected upon the return here of the former in custody of Sheriff Bob Peters Sunday morning. Rev. Benson was brought back home from Chicago where he was apprehended upon charges of non-support brought by his wife.

At the Benson hearing before Judge Barstow Mrs. Benson wished to withdraw her charges and have the case dismissed but Prosecuting Attorney Doyle objected upon the grounds that the county had no assurance that there would be no repetition of Rev. Benson's actions. He said that the county does not look with favor upon the expense incurred by an officer traveling 600 miles in serving a warrant and then dismissing the case without further ado.

In the testimony presented at the hearing Mrs. Benson stated that she had earned from $15 to $25 a week taking in washing while her husband was away. Rev. Benson told the court that he wanted to return to Chicago and go to work as a brick layer. Judge Barstow continued the case until Friday, placing Benson's bail at $500. The latter was returned to the custody of the sheriff until the bond was furnished.

Judge Scores Benson.

In demanding Rev. Benson to jail Judge Barstow called the prisoner's attention most severely, to his failure to support his family.

"A big husky man like you afraid to soil your hands with man's work," exclaimed the judge, "while your frail wife has her hands in the wash tub fourteen hours a day, is a fact not to be discontemned by this court."

"If you want to go to work as a brick layer you can and work here in Menominee. You cannot go to Chicago to work without some assurance to this court that Mrs. Benson is not again to be left in want," concluded Judge Barstow.

"U" Campus Will Be Returned to Its Normal Condition

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 31.—Return of the campus of the University of Michigan to its normal condition is being sought by the committee in charge of the building program that has engrossed the attention of the school for two years. While it will be impossible to clear up the front of the new Literary Building until a year from this fall, the rest of the campus is ready for the landscape artists and their helpers. The ground around the Physics Building and the Clement Library is in shape for work to start at any time.

The committee is considering leveling the driveway between the National Science Building and the Chemistry Building and making of a stretch of lawn leading to the large flag pole nearby.

The clearing up of some of the streets to which the University now has title is also being considered by the committee which is composed of President Burton, Secretary Sainley Smith, Regent W. L. Clements, Architect Albert Cohn and Prof. John F. Shepard, supervisor of building plans.

SOCIETY

Ladies' Aid Meeting

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Swedish Mission church will hold their annual auction sale Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Many useful articles will be on sale. Refreshments will be served after the sale. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Swedish Methodist church will hold its monthly social Thursday at 2:30 o'clock at the church parlor. Mrs. F. O. Beck and Miss Ellen Gundersen will be the hostesses. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Henry Ehrenberg Entertains.

A very enjoyable party was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Ehrenberg, North Nineteenth street, yesterday afternoon. A splendid luncheon was served after an afternoon of social entertainment.

The guests present were: Mrs. Carl Brandt, Mrs. Joseph Beitzer, Mrs. Paul Koslak, Mrs. Frank Harwig, Mrs. Phyllis Thiemel and Mrs. Ernest Barth and daughter, Bertha.

Entertains Little Friends.

Elsie Crow, South Sixteenth street, entertained a party of thirty-two little boy and girl friends last evening at a party.

CELEBRATES WHEN WIFE IS JAILED; NOW HE'S IN, TOO

WAUREGAN, Ill., Oct. 31.—Phil Pink has gone back to his wife. It was not Pink's goodness of heart that induced him to do so, but the strong arm of Deputy Sheriff Del Weale. The wife, Mary, is in the county jail. When Mrs. Pink was sentenced for four months on a liquor law violation charge, Pink started out to celebrate. He was just getting into good celebrating condition and had only kicked out a few windows of his son-in-law's house when the deputy interfered and returned him to his wife.

URGES BANK ADS IN NEWSPAPERS

Banker Tells National Association They Are Essential Aids to Business Building.

PRESENTS PRACTICAL PLAN

Savings Bank Division of the American Bankers Association Offers Prepared Newspaper Advertising Service to Cover a Year's Campaign.

More newspaper advertising by banks as a business builder was strongly urged at the recent convention of the American Bankers Association by W. R. Morehouse of the organization's Savings Bank Division. He backed up his plea with definite action to stimulate advertising by savings banks by calling the attention of the members to a prepared newspaper advertising service developed by his division comprising copy to meet their requirements for a year's advertising schedule.

"It is my firm conviction that banks can use newspaper advertising with great success," Mr. Morehouse said. "Newspapers go into the homes—by their use as a medium the people of a whole community may be reached in a single day. Because a bank cannot directly trace a large volume of new business to newspaper advertising does not prove that the medium is ineffective as a business-builder."

The fact that there are certain kinds of newspaper advertising which do not produce good results ought not to brand the medium as ineffective, any more than the fact that because a certain booklet or certain business-building letter fails to pull would warn you in branding all booklets and all letters as non-productive mediums.

How to Advertise

Newspaper advertising must be attractive and easily read if it is to produce good results. If the subject presented is not to the point, is too deeply involved for the average mind to grasp readily, is too full of big and uncommon words, it is only natural that it will not be read. If bank advertising is to accomplish its purpose it must be very simple.

Discuss only the subjects which will make it easy for the public to patronize your bank. Advertise your bank, its financial stability, its officers, directors and stockholders and you will build prestige and strengthen public confidence in your institution.

Enumerate the various kinds of service your bank is prepared to render.

It has been my experience that the public is on the lookout for information about banks, banking methods and the kinds of service rendered by banks. For quick results I am a firm believer in sticking to subjects which have a direct bearing on banks, banking methods and service, until the public has become better informed about banks and the wide variety of services rendered by them.

A New Plan

If you have not been successful with newspaper advertising try this plan. Confine your advertising within the scope of banking and especially enumerate the various services which your bank is prepared to offer. Boll down every advertisement to one hundred words or less, preferably less. Use headings which arouse interest at a glance. For example, a head "INTEREST FROM DATE" will inspire action on the part of persons with idle funds to deposit because interest starts from the time savings accounts are opened. A heading "PROTECTION FOR YOUR VALUABLES" will inspire action on the part of persons in need of protection."

Whenever you are solicited to purchase stock or other securities, use this questionnaire before investing any of your funds," says one of these. "The questionnaire was compiled to protect the small investor and to emphasize the necessity of investigating thoroughly every investment proposition before placing any money therein. When you have been furnished with the information called for in this questionnaire, take it to any one of the banking institutions in your community and get its opinion of the stock offered. Sacrifices Made by Many Mothers Shown in State Reports

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 31.—Many mothers who were nominated by governors as having made the greatest sacrifices in their states during the World war, were in attendance today at the opening of the fourth convention of the American War Mothers, which will continue through November 5.

The Kansas City chapter of the organization, host to the gold star mothers as one feature of the meeting had requested the governors of the forty-eight states to select the mother in each state who made the greatest sacrifice in the late war.

The task was of considerable difficulty and our request was met with reluctance on the part of many governors," said Mrs. H. H. McClure, chairman of the convention committee, "but in eight states these mothers were chosen tentatively." They must be very simple.

Discuss only the subjects which will make it easy for the public to patronize your bank. Advertise your bank, its financial stability, its officers, directors and stockholders and you will build prestige and strengthen public confidence in your institution.

Mr. Pearl Carley, Delaware.

Mrs. A. J. Taylor, Blair, Neb., whose seven sons participated in the war, one of whom was killed.

Mrs. Lena Weddell, Aurora, Ill., who lost two of five sons who were in the service.

Mrs. J. H. Sedon, Cohoes, N. Y., who lost three sons and two daughters in the war, one of whose sons was killed.

Mrs. Dale Wilson, Pilot Mountain, N. C., who sent nine sons to war.

Mrs. John McCoy, Wichita, Kans., who lost three sons.

Mrs. Ida M. Sandy, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. A. V. Trego, Mt. Washington, Pa., and Mrs. Monroe Techenor of Springfield, Mo., both of whom lost two sons.

Another feature of the convention will be the dedication of a granite boulder to the soldier dead of Jackson County, Mo. Each state was asked to send soil from its capital city to be deposited at the foot of the memorial and representatives from both coasts asked to bring water to be poured upon the earth.

STEAM OF FINNISH BATH STIFLES EAGLE RIVER MAN

EAGLE RIVER, Wis.—His desire to enjoy a Finnish bath, a custom imported to this country by natives of Finland, caused the death here Saturday night of John Wasanen, a bricklayer.

The bath is taken in a steam bathhouse built for that purpose. Stones are heated until they are red hot. Water is then sprinkled over the stones and forms a stream said to equal the best Turkish bath, Oscar Star, who lives on the outskirts of this city, has one of these bathhouses and Finns frequently use it.

Waananen, while in the little house Saturday night, accidentally tipped over a tub of water on the heated stones, causing an immense volume of steam to rise. He was suffocated and fell directly on the stones. Star was in the place with him and opened the door as quickly as possible and dragged Waananen out, but the 44-year-old man was dead.

Pierce O'Meara and his bride returned from their honeymoon last night. Pierce O'Meara is a son of John O'Meara, 1212 South First avenue.

W. J. Sullivan will attend the Ripon-Lawrence homecoming game at Appleton, Wis., Nov. 3, but will be back in Escanaba in time for his classes in the High School Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Peterson and son, Vern, left this morning for their home in Iron Mountain, after spending a week at the home of Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Broderon, 610 South Tenth street.

Leo McGuire, better known as "Maggie," is visiting in the city. His home is now in Milwaukee. This morning he paid a visit to the High School.

TWO DUCK HUNTERS AT PETOSKEY ARE DROWNED

PETOSKEY, Mich.—A drowning accident yesterday took the lives of Hobart Park of Petoskey and an Indian named Danishing. The victims, in company with two friends, were duck hunting on Crooked Lake, near Cincinnati Point, when their boat capsized. Park was an employee of Timm & Jackson at their Petoskey mill and Danishing worked at the Petoskey Portland Cement Company's plant.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Matt Lewis, 318 Second avenue, south, is a surgical patient at St. Francis' hospital.

Miss Mae Paulson of Watson, Mich., is a medical patient at St. Francis' hospital.

It has been my experience that the public is on the lookout for information about banks, banking methods and the kinds of service rendered by banks. For quick results I am a firm believer in sticking to subjects which have a direct bearing on banks, banking methods and service, until the public has become better informed about banks and the wide variety of services rendered by them.

Mrs. Joseph Beitzer, left for Milwaukee and Chicago for a few days' visit with relatives.

Gustav Klein, 111 South Sixth street, is recovering in a Green Bay hospital after a successful operation.

Mrs. William Taft, 336 South Thirteenth street, who has been ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Techenor of Springfield, Mo., both of whom lost two sons.

Mrs. Ida M. Sandy, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. A. V. Trego, Mt. Washington, Pa., and Mrs. Monroe Techenor of Springfield, Mo., both of whom lost two sons.

Another feature of the convention will be the dedication of a granite boulder to the soldier dead of Jackson County, Mo. Each state was asked to send soil from its capital city to be deposited at the foot of the memorial and representatives from both coasts asked to bring water to be poured upon the earth.

STEAM OF FINNISH BATH STIFLES EAGLE RIVER MAN

EAGLE RIVER, Wis.—His desire to enjoy a Finnish bath, a custom imported to this country by natives of Finland, caused the death here Saturday night of John Wasanen, a bricklayer.

The bath is taken in a steam bathhouse built for that purpose. Stones are heated until they are red hot. Water is then sprinkled over the stones and forms a stream said to equal the best Turkish bath, Oscar Star, who lives on the outskirts of this city, has one of these bathhouses and Finns frequently use it.

Waananen, while in the little house Saturday night, accidentally tipped over a tub of water on the heated stones, causing an immense volume of steam to rise. He was suffocated and fell directly on the stones. Star was in the place with him and opened the door as quickly as possible and dragged Waananen out, but the 44-year-old man was dead.

Pierce O'Meara and his bride returned from their honeymoon last night. Pierce O'Meara is a son of John O'Meara, 1212 South First avenue.

Earl Johnson and Melvina Schultz motored to Teash last night, where they visited at the D. K. Schultz home.

W. J. Sullivan will attend the Ripon-Lawrence homecoming game at Appleton, Wis., Nov. 3, but will be back in Escanaba in time for his classes in the High School Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rheineau, Mrs. Kahlow and daughter, Merle, motored to Bark River last evening to attend the chicken supper at St. George's church.

Miss Jane Grollan of Foster City arrived here to receive treatment for a bruised ankle. She is getting along nicely.

1 HIS GOODS, AS YOU WOULD HAVE HIM BUY YOUR GOODS

Why let the lure of "distant pastures" take you to the Big Stores or the Mail Order Houses when the "clover" is just as "fresh" at Home?

Your Neighbor Merchant is buying on a par with the Big Store, balancing big buying power against low rents and small overhead.
