

Just Between Ourselves

Many people, the poke-smiths and the cartoonists take great delight in poking fun at the golfers. Those at the poking end consider it a meaningless pastime. The motorist considers walking a useless waste of effort, and the hiker, luxuriating in his brisk walk, cannot appreciate the joy of motoring. Opinion is divided between baseball and football as the greatest American sport. Tennis players seldom play golf, and vice versa. Those who favor summer sports frequently are not attracted by winter games of golf, bowling, cards and basketball.

Thus it would seem that views on sports are as divergent as the sports themselves. First there are groups which consider sports of all shapes and descriptions of little or no value either for health or pastime. Opposite are two more groups which in turn oppose each other. One of these latter recommends sports for exercise and health. The other considers sports only in the light of recreation.

Beyond the shadow of a doubt there are few men, women or children in town who do not participate in some sport. Every sport has its following. Each following credits its favorite pastime with superior powers of exercise and recreation. That is natural among patriotic people.

But which sport is the perfect or nearest perfect can never be determined and is of little consequence. What we are concerned with is healthful exercise and recreation. Every game possesses these qualities in varying degrees. As long as everybody is getting exercise and recreation in some form or other there is nothing to be desired.

THE AVERAGE STUDENT.

The scoring recently given in the annual report of the Carnegie Institute to the undue preponderance given by some colleges to athletics has attracted widespread attention among educators and is producing reactions even among the students themselves. Already the undergraduates of two of the schools of New York university have handed themselves into an organization whose main purpose is to remedy the condition complained of, and it would appear that the administration of the institution is wholeheartedly lacking the new move.

For some time past the student in question have been feeling that football and baseball players were getting too much recognition in proportion to what they had done for college welfare. They also felt that, as members of the Phi Beta Kappa society are elected on a basis of scholarship alone, there should be room for an association whose members are neither pronounced bookworms nor confirmed athletes, but general all-around men, who take a broad view of life and who have helped the college in secondary activities of an intellectual nature.

Such was the genesis of the new organization, which formally inaugurated its career a few days ago when the chancellor of the university presented to each of the charter members a symbolic key.

The underlying idea of this society seems to be so useful and sound that no surprise will be caused if it is widely imitated. In colleges and universities the average students are entitled to more recognition than they have generally received. It is often from their ranks that the worthiest and most representative citizens are subsequently developed.

To be eligible to an organization to which neither athletic prowess nor a maximum cum laude diploma is an essential qualification will be a spur and stimulus to many a one to do the best of which he is capable in every branch of college activity.

A PRACTICAL QUESTION.

It is not an academic but a practical question, that of Philippine independence now before the house insular affairs committee. Not sentimentality but sound judgment is demanded for satisfactory solution of the problem under consideration. Independence is a high and laudable aim for any people. Desire of it is to be commended. But readiness for it is a prime essential, for on it depends its success.

In the case of the Philippines, it is manifest that at present there is lack of readiness. The Filipinos have made strides in fitting themselves for self-government, but they still have a distance to go. This is proved by the automatic course of dealing that is being followed by certain political leaders in those islands. The unwillingness to abide by existing laws which they do not hesitate to show and their assumption of and presumption in voicing demands in the name of the people of the Philippines for whom they do not really speak warn against turning the islands over to such control.

McGRAY WRITES RESIGNATION

Mrs. Jake Hamon Starts Row In Senate Probe

IS DISMISSED WITHOUT BEING ABLE TO TALK

No Senator Seemed to Want to Ask Her Anything About Jake's Life.

Woman Has Long Been Prominent in Newspapers Regarding Her Relations With Campaign.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, widow of the Oklahoma oil man and politician, whose name has been linked with many unusual stories about political financing in 1920, had her fleeting "day in court" today before the senate oil committee. Another witness was being questioned about geological formations in the oil reserves when Mrs. Hamon arrived, but she was soon excused and the committee clerk called her to the stand.

Then began one of the hottest personal rows that has characterized the long and turbulent session of the oil committee. Senator Spencer, republican of Missouri, objected before-hand to the admission of her testimony and Senator Walsh, democrat, of Montana, replied that he "bore with due humility" the rebuke of the Missouri senator. Mr. Walsh added, however, that "all responsibility for the visit of Mrs. Hamon to Washington rests on Senator Stanfield, republican of Oregon," who in turn returned that Senator Walsh was not stating the facts.

He declared he had only mentioned her name, Senator Stanfield said, in suggesting how the committee might run down some of the sensational stories told it about Hamon, by Jennings and others.

There was a dead silence and the committee chairman, finding that no senator wanted to ask a question, told the witness that her further presence would not be required.

DIRT ROAD TRIPS ARE NOT ADVISED

Some Routes Are Reported Impassable for Motor Cars.

Dirt roads in the Upper Peninsula, with few exceptions, are not yet in condition for automobile travel and the advice given to motorists by several Escanaba men who have attempted cross country trips during the last few days is to "wait a week or 10 days before you try to drive anywhere except on macadamized highways."

Some of the dirt roads are passable and some are in fairly good condition, but it is impossible to travel for on them without encountering deep mud holes or short stretches in which it is difficult, if not impossible, to drive a car without chains.

State Trunk Line 15, it was reported yesterday, is impassable between Carlsbad and Tremont, so that a trip to Marquette over this route is not advisable. Trunk Line 25, through Little Lake and Lathrop, is in bad condition and the advice is to "stay off of it."

Most of the road to Iron Mountain is in fair condition, but there are stretches of deep mud near Waucedah. In short, the word from the wise, "avoid dirt roads for a week or 10 days."

Ruling Denies State Has Jurisdiction Over Thaw
HARRISBURG, Pa., April 29.—A late development of the case of Harry K. Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, was disposed of here when Attorney General Woodruff ruled in an opinion that the state welfare department had no jurisdiction over Thaw's discharge from the Pennsylvania Hospital for Mental and Nervous Diseases after a jury had declared him sane last week.

Going on the operating table about 10:30 this morning, Senator Couzens was back in his room shortly before 1 this afternoon, and was declared by the hospital authorities to be "in very good shape."

SENTENCES WERE GIVEN OUT THIS MORNING TO ALL

Olson and Moras Will Go to Ionia on Indeterminate Sentences.

Many Liquor Violators Were Paroled Until Next Term of Circuit Court in July.

Henry Moras, found guilty of the charge of robbing the store of C. A. Carlson last February, was sentenced to serve from three to ten years at the Ionia prison this morning by Judge R. C. Flannigan, with the recommendation that the term be three years.

Carl Olson, who confessed to the robbery, was allowed to change his plea of guilty to assaulting and robbing Carlson to that of guilty to "second count," which was the charge Moras was found guilty of, and Judge Flannigan sentenced him to Ionia for from two to eight years with the recommendation that two years be served.

Patrick Belve, found guilty of extreme indecency, was sentenced to Marquette for not less than one year nor more than five years, with the recommendation that but one year be served.

Parole for Larceny.
Victor Olson and Howard Foley, both of whom were found guilty of petty larceny, were paroled for the period of one year by the court with the understanding that they make a monthly report to the sheriff.

Fines of Liquor Violations.
The greatest number of offenders at this term of court were for violation of the liquor laws. Most of them entered pleas of guilty when the term opened and were fined to-day. They will have 24 hours in which to decide between the jail sentence or paying the fines and costs assessed against them. Phil Bogart, $200 or 60 days in the county jail; William Hammersmith, $125 or 60 days in jail; Peter Klotz, $125 or 90 days in jail; John Kell, $325 or 60 days in jail. Norman Neven's sentence was suspended until the next term of court in July.

Violators Paroled.
Mary Larson, George Gushka, Frank Shimberg and John Chikozski, all of whom were found guilty of minor violations of the liquor laws, were paroled to Sheriff Carney for one year. They are to report to every month and if their conduct warrants it, their parole will be continued in one year.

PINCHOT FLAYS FORD'S OFFER FOR THE SHOALS

Claims It Would "Mamstring" the South If It Was Accepted.

Urges That Committee View the Proposition from Social Viewpoint in Deciding.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania told the senate agricultural committee today that Henry Ford's bid for Muscle Shoals, if accepted would "mamstring" the south.

Declaring the Muscle Shoals was the key to the power situation in the southeast and the second greatest power project in the United States, Governor Pinchot said the Ford bid did not guarantee anything except to build up the great industrial center. "In my opinion," Pinchot said, "Muscle Shoals should be handled, not from a power plant viewpoint, but from a social viewpoint. It seems to me the question is not so much the individual bid as it is the procedure that should be followed. We should know exactly what we want to accomplish."

"I see no reason in the world," he said, "why so careless a form of contract should be accepted as the Ford bid. There is no penalty or forfeiture. No guarantee of any sort."

Motor Bus Is Held Up; Tools in Bag Stolen

MILWAUKEE, April 29.—Two youths are being sought by the police in connection with the first motor bus hold-up recorded in Milwaukee. The handits showed lack of experience, taking away with them a bag of tools instead of the money which was being carried by the motor bus conductor.

36 BODIES ARE REMOVED AFTER LONG STRUGGLE

Crews Are Now Exploring Benwood Mine for Seventy-five Still Missing.

Only Two Bodies of the 36 so Far Recovered Could Be Identified; All Badly Burned.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 29.—The burned and crushed bodies of thirty-six victims of yesterday's explosion and fire in the Benwood mine of the Wheeling Steel corporation, had been found by rescue workers up to 10 o'clock this morning and search for 75 other miners who were entombed, is being continued under the direction of experts from the United States Bureau of Mines.

While the rescuers despaired of reaching any of the men alive they lost no time in the exploration of the underground recesses. As the bodies were located they were placed on one side of the mine tunnel and the rescuers, weary and worn by a night of hard work, continued their battle against rock and earth and the dense poison gas. Of the thirty-six bodies found during the night, only three were identified.

Frank Fene, the expert in charge for the United States Bureau of Mines, and who is directing the rescue work, said that crews were penetrating the mine from the Benwood entry and from the air shaft which is two and one-half miles from the mouth of the mine. The two parties were only about 2500 feet apart at noon. In this strip of unexplored tunnel Chief Fene believed the bodies of the 75 missing men would be found.

Rushes to Aid of His Brother in Lower Michigan

Last week Dr. W. A. Lemire was called to White Cloud, Michigan, by the serious illness of his brother, Eugene. While enroute, the local physician was notified by telegraph that his brother had been hastily removed to a hospital at Grand Rapids. Dr. Lemire then went to the Furniture City, where he found his brother was in need of an immediate operation, and taking off his coat, the doctor performed the operation at once. He arrived in Grand Rapids Friday morning and left the same night, stopping at St. Mary's academy at South Bend long enough to pay a short visit to two of his daughters who are attending school there.

W. P. Belanger Is Candidate for a County Position

Wilfred P. Belanger, who was for a number of years in the employ of the Escanaba Woodenshoe Company, and later with the Sock-Wallace corporation, is a candidate for the office of county treasurer and has asked the support of his friends. The discontinuance of operations in Escanaba by the big corporation, which threw Mr. Belanger out of a position which he had occupied for nearly a quarter of a century, has given him the opportunity to enter politics and he feels confident of making a good showing.

STONE PROMISES AID TO PROBERS OF PREDECESSOR

Will Assist in Litigation that May Arise Over M. S. Daugherty.

Committee Is Pleased With Action Taken by the New Attorney General, It Was Declared.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Attorney General Stone has agreed to have the Department of Justice and the senate Daugherty investigating committee in litigation arising from the attempt to punish M. S. Daugherty, brother of the former attorney general for his refusal to testify.

Further testimony hearing on the prohibition enforcement policy of the Department of Justice was heard by the committee today. James E. Finch, the department pardon attorney, was questioned about the release of Philip Grassman, sent to jail by Judge Landis of Chicago for one year for violating a court injunction in liquor sales.

The witness agreed that the man Grassman never served any time. Attorney General Brandage of Illinois, in a letter to the Department of Justice, in which he recommended executive clemency, was told of, but it was said that in 1922, President Harding refused to consider it until some part of the sentence had been served.

WANT TO KEEP TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAM TAX

Repeal Voted by House and Recommended by Secretary Mellon.

Revenue Bill Is Said to Be One of Most Complicated Pieces of Legislation of the Session.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—A fight for a graduated corporation tax and the pending contest over income rates, was put aside this morning in order that the senate might dispose of some of the remaining amendments to the revenue bill.

The impending contest centers chiefly upon automobile and radio taxes, publicity of returns, repeal of a board of tax returns and provision, and an added exemption on earned incomes. Another vote will be asked also on the action of the senate yesterday in ordering a floor decision, the repeal of the tax on telephone and telegraph messages.

The finance committee recommended the restoration to the bill of this tax, although its repeal had been voted by the house and recommended by Secretary Mellon.

GOVERNOR HAS BEEN LOCKED UP IN MARION JAIL

Sentence Will Be Pronounced Tomorrow Morning at Nine O'clock.

Executive Is Given a Bitter Lashing by Judge as He Orders Him Taken to the County Jail.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 29.—Governor Warren T. McCray has written his resignation as governor of Indiana and will formally present it either this afternoon or tomorrow morning. It was learned unofficially at the state house today.

The governor was convicted in United States District court yesterday for using the mails to defraud and will be sentenced tomorrow morning.

The jury in the trial of Gov. Warren T. McCray, Indiana, on charges of fraudulent use of the mails, returned a verdict of guilty at 6:20 o'clock last evening.

The jury deliberated the case less than 10 minutes. Judge Anderson ordered Gov. McCray placed in jail until Wednesday morning when he will be sentenced.

Marshal Meredith immediately took charge of Gov. McCray. The governor said he had no statement to make.

The jurymen said a verdict was reached on the first ballot. The judge characterized Gov. McCray as one of the worst criminals before him in his 21 years on the bench.

"No Difference in Criminals."
"Honest men could come to but one conclusion in this case," Judge Anderson said. "He has had a fair trial by a conscientious jury. In my 21 years on the bench I have seen bootleggers take the stand and commit rank perjury. It has been my invariable custom to punish these men to jail."

"There is no difference between the honest criminal and the highest."

Gov. McCray refused to discuss the question of his resignation. Political wires began buzzing to force the governor out of office in the event he refuses to step down voluntarily. Clyde A. Wall, Republican state chairman, said Monday night at his home, La Grange, Ind., that he would be in Indianapolis Wednesday to confer with party leaders on their action in the case.

Wall, Led Quicker Move.

Mr. Wall did not know yet whether the state committee would take formal steps in discussions preliminary to possible impeachment proceedings. A special session would be called by Raymond A. Morgan, speaker of the state house of representatives, it was said.

The senate would sit at the court with the chief justice of the supreme court presiding. Mr. Wall led in the move to oust Gov. McCray when the governor was indicted in the Marion county criminal court last November on charges of forgery, larceny, and embezzlement growing out of his financial failures.

Settle Case Out of Court After Trial Is Begun

The suit against the Cleveland City Car Company for $15,000 damages, brought by Mrs. Beryl Clausen of Gladstone, was discontinued shortly after it had been started, by the agreement of both parties to make settlement out of court. The suit was based on alleged injury to the plaintiff when the automobile in which she was riding was struck on the railroad crossing at Kipling. It was brought out in the trial that the car which was occupied by Mrs. Clausen, Carl Larson and Mrs. Larson's son, was drawn down on 150 feet. The terms of settlement were not made public.

The accident occurred April 6. Acker's auto struck Littmann and Withuhn's machine ran over him, according to testimony.

DEMOCRATS WILL NOT ENDORSE FORD AT STATE CONVENTION ON MAY 15; PREFER SENATOR FERRIS

State Officers Will Be Selected and Candidate for Governor.

Four Men and Four Women Will Be Elected as Delegates at This Meeting.

LANSING, Mich., April 23.—When Michigan democrats meet at 11:30 a. m. today for their state convention, interest will center in what action, if any, the assembly will take toward endorsing a democratic presidential nominee.

The party is in a paradoxical position. On the face of the matter given him in the April presidential preference primary, Henry Ford is entitled to at least nominal support from the Michigan delegation to the national convention. But Mr. Ford has openly endorsed the candidacy of a republican incumbent, and he refused thus far either to withdraw his name from the democratic list or to align himself with the party.

The democratic party is absolutely opposed to any consideration for Mr. Ford from the Michigan delegation, despite the preference given him at the primary. The state central committee has endorsed Senator Woodbridge N. Ferris, as the favorite candidate for the nomination, and indications are that leaders are prepared to try to overturn the verdict of the primary in the convention by inducing the assembly semi-officially to instruct the Michigan delegates to cast their first ballot for Senator Ferris.

Whether or not the democratic delegates will be sufficient in number to ward off heated arguments on the convention floor is uncertain. It is rumored there is a faction that is more or less bound by the primary vote to lend its support to the automobile manufacturer, despite his avowed leaning toward the republican candidate.

State Officers

Aside from the Ford-Ferris problem, the feature of the democratic gathering will be staged this evening in the convention. A preliminary conference is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. The object of the conference is to agree upon democratic candidates for state officers. There may be two or more candidates selected for any one office, the choice for the delegates to be left to the democratic voters at the September primary, but for the most part it is expected simply candidates will be selected to go on the September ballot with the road leading to the democratic organization for the party nomination.

Comstock for Governor

In this connection it is rumored that W. A. Comstock, chairman of the state central committee, may be urged to take the endorsement for the gubernatorial nominee. Neither James Bales of Kalamazoo, nor Alva Cummings of Lansing, who went into the primary for the democratic best election, is expected to get into the race.

Frank Horomos, mayor of Detroit, who frequently was mentioned for governor a few months ago, apparently is no longer being considered for the nomination, because of ill health.

The conference also is expected to discuss the possible democratic senatorial nomination with Alfred Lacking of Detroit, apparently favored.

In the convention itself the democrats will select eight delegates, at large to the national convention. Four will be men and four women, and each will have only half a vote. In the past it has been the custom to name only four delegates.

OBITUARY.

MRS. GUSTAV LARSON.

The funeral of Mrs. Gustav Larson was held from the family home at 921 South Thirtieth street this afternoon at 2 o'clock and from the Swedish Mission church, of which she was a member, at 2:30. The death of this good woman was as sudden as many recent deaths in Escanaba have been and came as a great sorrow to the large circle of friends in Escanaba who have known her for many years and learned to love and esteem her. Six weeks or more ago Mrs. Larson suffered a stroke of paralysis and was taken to a local hospital for treatment. She remained there for a few days and then returned to her home, seemingly fully recovered, but at 1:30 Thursday afternoon there was a recurrence of the stroke from which she died within a few minutes and while she was being returned to the hospital. She is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters—Roy Larson, Mrs. Arthur Carlson and Mr. Anna Larsen of this city, and Theodore Larson, who is in Davenport attending college.

The deceased had been very active in church affairs and was one of the leaders in the women's activities of the Swedish Mission church from which she will be buried and from which she will be greatly missed.

Among the items at a recent for auction sale in Winnipeg, Canada, were 4,666 wolf and 608 lynx skins.

GOITER WILL BE DRIVEN OUT OF ENTIRE STATE

Iodized Table Salt Will Do the Trick, Says Dr. Defnet Today.

New Salt Order But Little More Than Common Salt, Looks the Same and Tastes the Same.

LANSING, Mich., April 23.—The goiter problem in Michigan will be solved, according to Dr. Defnet, state health officer, today. He announced that the state health department has ordered the use of iodized table salt in all parts of the state.

The new salt is not much different from common salt, but it contains a small amount of iodine, which is necessary for the proper functioning of the thyroid gland. The doctor said that the use of iodized salt will drive the goiter out of the state in a few years.

The new salt is being distributed by the state health department, and it is expected that it will be available in all parts of the state by the end of the month.

GETTING HORSE READY TO SHOW REQUIRES WORK

Months Are Spent in Preparing Animal for Exhibit at Fair.

Food and Care Take Up Much Time and Then Exercising Must Be Done With Caution.

Animal's coat and his temperament and discipline. Don't Overdo. "It is well to keep constantly in mind," he said, "that the animal should not be overdone. In my opinion, the majority of amateur showmen make the mistake of trying to work the horse too hard and too long, and if not working to allow him to run in positive the long before the fitting for the show ring begins. The animal then is put in the stall and hurriedly fed, the amateur showman apparently thinking that a great amount of food will condition him quickly and put him in proper form for the show ring. The thing cannot be done that way."

Grass Best. "The horse should have a maintenance ration only through the winter, until the first green grass comes in the spring. There is nothing better to start a horse on at that time than green feed and a light amount of work. Green feed should be given in small amounts if the horse is to be conditioned for the show ring. It is not necessary that a great amount of conditioning be done, but the horse should be exercised daily and his condition improved by time should be spent on him. If the horse is in proper condition physically, so that his skin is healthy and his hair healthy, plenty of exercising will do him good. It will enable him to hold the show with the horse at his best. Exercise to condition him and working him at the show, except in the case of a horse that is not in good shape, is not a good thing. Nothing is more pleasing in the show ring than a horse that is in the proper condition. It does not take a long time to go into, but a little practice each day, teaching him to trot away easily and to stand quietly in form with his head up, gives one a great advantage at the time the show is on."

Different Ages. If the showing is to be done in some other than country shows, Mr. Hudson believes it would be well to plan so that the group displayed will show different ages. He suggests one, two and three-year-old mares, as well as the showman (try for mares in several classes, especially if one of the combinations happens to be a dam and yearling daughter, on a sire and three of his ft. The premium lists of the individual fairs will show the foreman the combinations best adapted to the class he may have and where he can make the best showings. Ask if an agent number from his available files.

INDIANS INCREASES. CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (United Press). The Cherokee Indians occupying the government reservation in the North Carolina mountains, have increased from 1,900 in 1910 to 2,250 this year. The government reservation has 18,000 acres, while the Indians privately own 15,000 acres more. They are prosperous. The forest victory in Blount county, it was fixed so they didn't lose.

BABE RUTH BEGINNING TO GROW UP

By HENRY J. RAYBURN. "United Press." NEW YORK, April 29. (United Press). The Babe Ruth is growing up now and he is beginning to show his prowess in the game. He is a young man of unusual physique and a strong character. He is a student of the art of the sword.

When the Babe used to get on one of his escapades, managers used to say that Miller Huggins was making a mistake when he did not work on him with a baseball bat. Huggins is one of the smallest men associated with the game and Babe is one of the biggest, so the little manager would have to use a bat if he wanted to carry out any of Red Gleason's well-known methods of discipline.

Huggins does a lot of thinking if he falls short of action and he knew that the Babe was full of temperament and that he had to get it out of his system some way. He figured that as long as the Babe was kept from running completely wild that he would grow out of it and settle down. He has now grown out of most of it.

Many of the ball players do not like Ruth and many of the fans would rather see him than cheer him, but there is something admirable about any man who will do for the kids what the Babe does day after day. Writers who travel with the club tell hundreds of stories about the Babe's love for the kids. They can tell you how he used to drag in the hotel at sundown time after time when the club was on the road, and that it would be found out later that he had been out on a corner playing ball with a lot of boys.

They can tell you of the many times that Ruth was up and gone before the other players had eaten breakfast and that later they would learn that he had been out to some parochial school talking to the pupils. They tell the story about the time that a father came to the hotel where the Babe was to tell him that his little boy was heartbroken because he had been waiting two months to see the

BACKACHE IS A WARNING!

Escanaba Folks Are Learning How to Heed It.

Are you miserable with an aching back? Do you get up lame and stiff; drag through the day feeling tired, weak and depressed? Then you should help your kidneys. Backache is often the first sign of falling kidneys. Uric acid troubles quickly follow. Neglected, there's danger of gravel, dropsy or fatal Bright's disease. Don't wait for serious kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys, before it is too late. This Escanaba resident tells an experience: Henry McFarland, 920 Second Ave. North, says: "Mornings my back was stiff and sore. Pains always caught me when I stooped and it was hard to do my work. I tired easily and my kidneys were weak. At night I had to get up the pass the secretions which burned in passage. I bought Doan's Pills from the Hill Drug Store and they cured me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy; get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. McFarland had. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

BASE BALL WILL MAKE ITS FIRST BOW ON MAY 18

Meeting Was Held Last Evening and Directors Elected for the Coming Base Ball Season.

Any time that base ball fans think Escanaba is not going to have a real team each and every year, they are mistaken, for this city has many loyal boosters of the national game to let such a thing happen. At the meeting which was held at the Legion club rooms last night Robert G. Hills was chosen as the manager and the following directors were named: Dr. J. J. Walsh, C. W. Bissell, J. J. Bartella, Axel Anderson, Clyde J. Burns, Leo Young, Fred Olmstead, Ben F. Young, Earl M. Williams, Kip Bartley, H. H. Shepeck and Frank Hess. Tonight this board will meet and select a captain for the team.

Manager Hills is already in touch with some good players and says he can have a winning team all ready to play Marquette at the opening game of the season which will be held on May 18th. Booster tickets will be sold throughout the city for $1 each, which will help pay the initial expenses of getting the team equipped.

Auction Tomorrow.

Tomorrow the surplus stock of the "Country Store," which was operated at the automobile show will be auctioned off at the corner of Ludington and Tenth streets and bidders will be asked to name their price on merchandise worth from $1 to $25. Everything must be sold and the money will be added to the base ball fund.

OLYMPIC WINNER GUEST AT LIONS HOTEL LUNCHEON

The Lions Club today were given a most interesting talk on crime detection through the aid of finger prints by Rev. Fr. Seifert of Daggett, who was chaplain at the Marquette prison for several months. Fr. Seifert is well versed in the finger print science, having become so interested in it that he made a special study of it.

A guest of the club this noon was A. E. Brown, expert engineer for Warren Brothers of Boston who are furnishing the material for the paving now being laid in Escanaba. Mr. Brown was the winner of the 3000 meter race at the Olympic contests held in Antwerp in 1920. He did not give a talk as the time was limited, but the Lions look forward to a talk by him in the near future.

Young Printer Gets Married; Church Filled

St. Anne's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 8 o'clock this morning when Adolph Lehoullier took for his bride, Miss Delina Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner of Wells, Mich. The young couple were attended by the bride's twin brother, Lawrence Gardner, and Lea Lehoullier, sister of the groom. The church was well filled with friends of the young couple, who had gathered to wish them happiness. After the ceremony the wedding party went to the home of the bride for breakfast and returned to the home of the groom on Lake Shore Drive for dinner. The wedding supper was served at the home of the bride and the wedding party completed the day in the bride's family home.

The bride is a well known and popular young lady both in Escanaba and in Wells, her home, and has a host of friends in both places, who will wish her every success and happiness in her married life. She has been employed for nearly two years at St. Francis Hospital, where she has endeared herself to all by her many fine qualities of character.

Mr. Lehoullier is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lehoullier, of 809 Lake Shore Drive. He was born and reared in this city and is now foreman of the Escanaba Journal job department, where he has been employed for some time. He is a well known and popular young man and his many friends will wish him a large share of success and happiness in his future years.

The young couple will go at once to housekeeping, planning on taking a wedding trip later in the summer.

PARIS (United Press)—Apparently dead for four hours, a youth of 16 was resuscitated here by doctors in Cochon hospital. He had shut himself in a small room, stopped the door and window, lit a chair, set fire, and sat smoking cigarettes as he awaited death. Artificial respiration was resorted to and oxygen applied, with the result that he completely revived.

Whatchew Mean By "Chickens" Tolan Is Asked

Chief of Police Tolan has issued an order to the effect that "chickens" must be kept at home and not bother the people to whom they do not belong. The next one caught roaming at large is going to be brought down to the city lock-up, and that's all there is to it.

The chief declares when he says chickens he means chickens—hens, roosters or any other branches of the farm yard fowl. The police department are constantly being called by people from different parts of the city who declare neighbors' chickens are a nuisance—allowed to roam at large into freshly made gardens where flowers or vegetables have been planted and not infrequently into the very living rooms of a neighboring home. The chief has taken away "the key of the city" which he says some people believe their fowls possess and some trouble will result if the warning is not heeded.

TILBERT'S CAFE MAKES MONEY BY CLOSING NIGHTS

Harry Tilbert Says He Looks Back with Regret the Years He Put in Twenty-four Hours a Day.

Several months ago, Harry Tilbert, proprietor of the popular eating place that bears his name, decided he would close his place of business every night at 8 o'clock and open again next morning at 6 o'clock. It was hard to get assistance to carry on the night work and very often Mr. Tilbert had to remain on duty most of the day and night as well.

For years he had never locked up his restaurant, but finally he made up his mind to give the idea a good try-out and see what would happen. This was several months ago and today Mr. Tilbert says that with apparently no more business, he is making more real profit than at any period while he was keeping open 24 hours a day and that never again will he feed anyone between 8 at night and 6 the next morning.
