Projects wrap up as new school year approaches

Summer updates at MHS, Emerald improve schools

MANISTIQUE — A new school year gets underway next week for the students of the Manistique Area Schools district. In preparation, the district is finalizing its summer construction projects and making other necessary accommodations — all of which were discussed during a recent meeting of the MAS Board of Education. According to MAS Superintendent Maryann Boddy, sinking fund projects took place this summer at both the Manistique Middle and High School and Emerald Elementary. The MHS project included the renovation of the four main floor public restrooms. These updates involved the replacement of the plumbing, floors, sinks, countertops, wall tiles, fixtures, and lighting. The Emerald Elementary improvements included a complete reconfiguration of the parking lot and student drop-off zone. In the new configuration, cars will enter the parking lot from Cattaraugus

Street. This will take drivers into a one-way driveway that passes the front of the building and makes a 90-degree turn near the end of the building toward the new exit on Oak Street. The front of the building will now be reserved strictly for student drop-off — no parking is available in this area. A new parking lot is located in the west section of the main playground, adjacent to new driveway

Folkfest committee wraps up, credits community for success

City recreation department takes on leadership of event

MANISTIQUE — The Manistique Recreation Department's first year at the helm of Folkfest operations proved successful. The department's Folkfest Committee met recently to discuss the execution of this year's event, as well as to make suggestions for the 2018 celebration. According to Mike Powers, recreation board and Folkfest committee chairperson, he received positive feedback about this year's event. One issue that the committee agreed to look into was clean up on Sunday. This would consist of clearing barricades and any leftover garbage before downtown businesses open on Sunday. As for the relocation of the entertainment stage and Paul Bunyan Beer Garden to either side of Walnut Street, most members of the committee saw positive reception to the change. One committee member suggested not opening the beer garden until later in the day so that the space could be utilized by attendees as a sitting and eating area. The opening of the beer garden wouldn't take place until approximately 3 p.m. Saturday, creating a family-friendly area. The committee also discussed procuring additional picnic tables to stagger throughout the area for attendees looking to rest or eat, as well as possibly renting a tent to shield the beer garden from the elements. The committee discussed rotating the hosting of the beer garden among community nonprofits with liquor licenses. The 2017 beer garden was hosted by the Manistique Elks Lodge. Stipulations of hosting may require the use of organization volunteers as well as the availability of aaffle license. For set up, committee members said vendors were pleased with the newly instituted one-way entrance, allowing for easier check-in. Powers suggested vendors be allowed to check in on Friday evening if they choose. The committee also discussed distributing a map of the Folkfest layout to the vendors sooner. This could possibly involve

Summertime help available for high winter heating costs

By Mona Shand
LANSING — While most Michiganders are still soaking up summer, colder weather will be here before long, and the deadline is fast approaching to apply for assistance to help keep warm this winter.

Energy, says the funds can go a long way toward helping vulnerable residents, as the average credit last year was about $170.
The deadline to apply for the credit is Sept. 30, and the application can be found on the Department of Treasury website, at Secretary of State branches, and at most public libraries.

Downstate Michigan has first cases of mosquitoes that can carry Zika virus

LANSING — Asian tiger mosquitoes have been found in Wayne County in the first documentation of this type of mosquito in the state, officials from the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services and Wayne County Department of Health, Veterans and Community Wellness announced.
While the Aedes albopictus species — commonly known as the Asian tiger mosquito — is capable of spreading the Zika virus, officials emphasized there is no evidence of Zika virus-infected mosquitoes in Michigan or the entire Midwest this year.

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, has partnered with local health departments in Wayne and 24 other counties in Michigan to conduct surveillance for the two mosquito species that can carry Zika virus.
Prior to this recent discovery, over 20,000 non-Zika vector mosquitoes had been trapped and identified by local health departments.
Efforts to further investigate the spread of Asian tiger mosquitoes in Wayne County are already underway. The invasive day-biting mosquito breeds in containers where water collects, such as old tires, gutters, and flower pots.

Applying an EPA-registered insect repellent according to label instructions.
Making sure doors and windows have tight-fitting screens.
The City of Livonia has been proactive in its mosquito control efforts, as the city has treated 11,000 catch basins annually since 2003 to eliminate larval mosquitoes.

Dear Editor,
Two bills, House Bill 4503 sponsored by Rep. Jason Sheppard and Senate Bill 329 sponsored by Sen. Joe Hune, will strip townships and municipalities of their authority to regulate the zoning of vacation and short-term rentals that are 28 days or less. The above bills are in committee. Sen. Dale Zorn is the committee chairman.
Michigan communities would not be able to protect their residents. These bills preempt local zoning. They specify that short-term rentals are a residential property use and are not commercial.

This would allow rentals in all residential zones. Townships and local government units could not require any special use permits or anything else of rental units that are not currently required of all residential homes. This change affects not just resort communities, but all townships throughout Michigan.
This is an ongoing erosion of local authority. Local concerns will be removed out of the hands of the township.
In recent years, rental homes have been increasing in areas where year round residents live. People are using Airbnb and other online services.

Residents find themselves living next door and side-by-side short-term renters that are on vacation. Often the renters have no respect for the environment or neighbors property.
The callous could care less attitude exists — it's not my property, I don't care, I'll do what I please. Not all short-term renters have this attitude, but a growing number of them are causing major disruptions and a host of other issues.
Many of the rentals are owned by out-of-town or out-of-state people who are difficult to reach if issues arise. People on the lake can rent their house for $2,000-$6,000 a week.
We have fun and frequently have lots of friends, create a lot of noise, and an increase in traffic. If I am the person living next door or adjacent to that house, I am not happy. The problems are not just noise. The number of vehicles combined with a high volume of people creates a mess without regulation as well as a potential safety hazard.

We don't need state control telling us what we need in this community. The state is far removed from the local issues that affect a specific community.
Please contact your state legislators today and urge them to oppose the harmful legislation.

Dear Editor,
I am sending you this to see if your news readers can help me with family ancestor research I am undertaking.
I am trying to find descendants of my great-grandfather — William Salter — who emigrated from England to Michigan in the late 1890s.
Cecelia Sheleas (this may have not been the correct spelling) emigrated to the U.S. and an arrival married William Salter on Dec. 20, 1893 in Schoolcraft County, Mich.

They had a daughter, Christine, born in 1902; she died April 1980 and I understand is buried in Manistique.
Christine (maybe Christina) married Fred Hanson June 15, 1920, and then married again to Bud Frenette on June 11, 1949.
Christina I believe had siblings: Pearl, born 1895, Dora 1897, Dewey 1894, and Lena 1906.
Dewey married Eva in 1918 and had children Dora, Duclie, Gerald, Delores, and Robert. They, if alive, would now be in their 80s/90s but they may have had children.
That's all the information I have.
Thank you,

A request by the schools for extra tax money for operating purposes came closer the second time around last Monday—but still lost by 200 votes as more than 2,000 voters turned out. The final tally was 1,168 opposed and 968 in favor, with 16 ballots spoiled. At stake in the request for five mills for two years was the hot lunch program, the athletic program, possibly transportation and a host of other extra-curricular activities.
The board of education took the first whack at reducing extra services Tuesday night at a special meeting, logging off hot lunch, driver education, the Mueller School, guidance and revising transportation services. Varsity athletics got a last-minute reprieve when faculty members volunteered to coach without pay, and other volunteers offered to provide other services at no cost. New text books and a school librarian were also salvaged from the striped budget by means of a book fee system that will be charged this year for the first time.
Methods of controlling out-of-town solicitors who use high-pressure sales tactics on local residents were discussed at the regular meeting of the city council. City Manager Robert Noe presented a sample ordinance for consideration by the councilmen, and Carl Graves, secretary-manager of the Top of Lake Michigan Chamber of Commerce, also spoke on behalf of such control. Mr. Graves said there had been considerable trouble this summer with such salesmen, and urged some means of licensing or controlling their actions. Councilman Leo DeMars said he felt any ordinance should not discriminate against legitimate local salesmen who often have a much wider selection than is found in many local stores. Council also discussed briefly possible action on a housing ordinance and the need for a new zoning ordinance.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Derwin, Jr. have had a phone call from their son, A/2C Fran Derwin from Ton-Son Airbase in Hnut, Vietnam. The call came thru Thursday by radio through California. Airman Derwin has been in Vietnam for the past nine months.
Four youths were treated at Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital for exposure after a motorboat capsized on Indian Lake at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 23. Officials were told the boat had overturned as it was turning and the cushion-type life preservers had floated off. Three of the youths clung to the boat for one and a half hours while the operator retrieved a preserver and swam toward shore. He was picked up by a fisherman and another fisherman rescued the other three.

Tom Gagnon shows off his 247 pound Hampshire-Yorkshire crossbred pig that took top honors at the U.P. State Fair last week. One of the nine Schoolcraft County 4-Hers that entered the swine judging at the fair. Gagnon got $2 a pound for his Grand Champion pig at auction. The pig weighed only 43 pounds four months ago.
The new parking lot in between Cedar and Maple Streets finally started to get a surface of asphalt last week. When completed, the federally-funded municipal parking lot will provide customer parking.
A dream is coming true for the members of a local credit union. Seven years ago the members of the Manistique federal Credit Union began to talk about having their own building. The group, which had their own first office in the home of Nick Frankovich, broke ground for a new building this week. The site is located on E. Elk Street, across from the Bethel Baptist Church. The land was purchased two years ago but had to be rezoned before construction could begin. The rezoning, from multiple family dwelling to commercial, was recently approved. The new building will feature a drive-in window on the west side. The 24' x 36' wood structure will also have three tiered windows.

The Hiawatha Township Board will likely appoint someone later this month to fill the seat of Supervisor Lloyd Gray, who died Aug. 29 at the age of 83. Gray had been the township supervisor for more than nine years, having been elected to the post in an August 1988 special election to fill the seat vacated after the recall of Larry Anderson. He was elected to his first full four-year term in 2000 and re-elected in 2004.
As with many of the wildfires plaguing the Upper Peninsula this summer, a lightning strike is suspected as the cause of a blaze that broke out last Thursday at 3:30 near Smith Lake in northern Manistique Township. According to Manistique Public Safety Director Ken Gotat, the fire was located northwest of the Hickey Truck Trail. It was spotted about 3 p.m. by the D.N.R. patrol plane.

ESCANABA - For over 20 years, the Bay Film Series has celebrated the art of filmmaking, bringing the best in international, documentary, independent, and local movies to the southern Upper Peninsula. This semester, they continue with another slate of audience- and critically-acclaimed titles.

On Sept. 14, they begin their season with director Sofia Coppola's "The Beguiled". This Civil War thriller unfolds at a Southern girls' boarding school, where the naive young ladies rescue an injured enemy soldier. But providing him refuge and shelter unleashes unexpected tensions and rivalries. Starring Kirsten Dunst, Nicole Kidman, and Colin Farrell.

Directed by Mia Hansen-Love, winner of the Best Director award at the 2016 Berlin International Film Festival, this acclaimed film is a soul-searching look at what it means to create a life of one's own.

"Now we are moving forward with our partner FAST Enterprises to make a much-improved system a reality. FAST has a proven record of success launching similar projects on time and on budget for many other state and local agencies." The CARs Project will combine Michigan's millions of driver and vehicle records into one integrated customer record system that updates in real time, replacing multiple, separate systems that don't effectively transfer customer-record updates among themselves. All of the information in the new system will be quickly accessible by an office staff member with a single search. Even correspondence that has been sent to each customer will be part of their record. The improvement in technology will pave the way for more self-service options for customers, such as ordering license plates online, and for faster, less resource-intensive programming when there are legislative changes that affect the department. CARs will also help the department move to electronic records and to eliminate paperwork for customers.

Cherie Jo I. Davis-Cole

TOCCOA, Ga. — "With God's help I have climbed over many mountains in my life, and come out the other side better than I was before. This one I cannot climb. I'm tired and I want to go home." — That's what I told my family when I made the decision to let God's will be done and no longer dialyze...

I didn't feel cheated or short-lived; in fact, some have said I lived life with passion and tenacity the whole 54 years. I was born in Battle Creek, Mich., to Irene L. Davis (Scott) and Joseph W. Davis. They were waiting for me with two of my three brothers in Heaven, Barry (Linda) Goff and Joseph my baby brother.

I grew up in Manistique, Mich., mostly, went to nursing school in Northeast Ohio. I worked as a LPN and RN at St. Thomas Hospital, Director of Nursing at a Stow Glenn Nursing Home, and before retiring, I became a C.A.R.N. and dedicated my 40 year nursing career to fighting on the front lines of the war on drugs.

My whole family was there at Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville, Ga., on Saturday, June 10. At 2:30 p.m. they all got to see me off, and say everything they needed to say, it was perfect. My loving husband Stewart "Stu" Cole of Wintersville, Ohio and Toc-coa, Ga., my daughter Christina of Toccoa, my Son Zachariah (Bobbie) of Akron, Ohio and Toccoa, and of course, my nine wonderful grandchildren, Calvin, Jacob, Elizabeth, Arizona, Rebekah, Heather, Kali-Rain, Kennedy and Rachel.

I also left the world three beautiful great-grandchildren and one of my favorite people, my brother Harold (Brenda) Goff of Marshall, Mich.

I will miss them, and they will miss me, but thanks to the saving grace of Jesus, we will meet again, and dance together on streets of gold.

I loved to sing gospel music, ride motorcycles, play bingo and spend time with my family. I also loved my church family as they will hold a celebration of my life ceremony at New Life Community Fellowship in Toccoa on Saturday, June 17, at 2 p.m. and if you're reading this, then consider yourself invited! Instead of bringing flowers, I'd rather you donate that money to the American Diabetes Association in my honor. This way I get the "last swing" on the disease that I have fought against for so long!

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 2, at the First Baptist Church, 319 Walnut Street, Manistique. Burial will follow in the Fairview Cemetery.

Regional unemployment rate rises in July, surpassing statewide average

LANSING — The Upper Peninsula unemployment rate rose to 6.2 percent in July from 5.4 percent in June. The statewide jobless rate displayed similar trends in July, increasing by 0.9 percentage points during the month.

The number of unemployed in the U.P. advanced seasonally by 1,100 over the month, rising to the highest level since March.

All 15 counties recorded seasonal jobless rate gains during July. These rate hikes ranged from 0.2 percentage points in Baraga and Luce counties to 1.3 percentage points in Menominee County.

Along with Menominee, the counties of Alger, Marquette, Dickinson (0.9 percentage points each), and Houghton (1.0 percentage points) registered monthly jobless rate advances above the U.P. average.

Spurred by job gains due to tourism activity, Mackinac County continued to have the second lowest July jobless rate in Michigan of 3.3 percent.

Within the Upper Peninsula, unemployment rates were also lowest in Dickinson (5.0 percent), Menominee (5.4 percent), and Iron (5.7 percent). Counties with relatively high July rates included Ontonagon (8.1 percent), Keweenaw (8.0 percent), Schoolcraft (7.7 percent), and Baraga (7.6 percent).

Job gains in the Upper Peninsula during July are usually concentrated in the accommodation and food service sector as hotels and restaurants continue to hire summer workers. Construction jobs also generally rise during July. These job additions, however, can be offset with the cessation of the school year and the resultant job reductions at local schools.

Between July 2016 and July 2017, the Upper Peninsula unemployment rate declined by 0.7 of a percentage point. During this time, the jobless rate decreased in every county except Luce, which saw a small 0.2 percentage point increase.

Unemployment rate cuts since July 2016 ranged from 0.1 percentage points in Keweenaw County to 2.2 percentage points in Menominee County.

The Upper Peninsula's not seasonally adjusted July 2017 jobless rate of 6.2 percent remained higher than Michigan's rate of 4.9 percent and the U.S. rate of 4.6 percent.

Resident plans to collect canned goods for birthday, donate to pantries

MANISTIQUE – A local resident is planning to use her birthday to pay it forward. Kaylynn McDougle, who turns eight Sept. 6, is requesting friends, family, and community members to gift non-perishable food items to be donated to local food pantries. Last year, McDougle was able to donate hundreds of items to the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry.

This year, McDougle will have a table at the Manistique Marina during the Manistique Merchants Association Car Show to collect non-perishable food items. If each person brings one item, this could equate to more than 8,000 items for Schoolcraft County residents in need.

THE DINNER DIVA

BY LEANNE ELY

I get asked a lot of questions. And sometimes those questions follow a pattern – like how do I feed my family the same meal my husband and I want to eat when there's children, toddlers and babies involved.

Leanne Ely

Just got that one today as a matter of fact.

Dear Leanne, My question is how to make dinner for an 11-month-old baby, a 3 1/2-year-old boy and a 5-year-old boy, my hubby and myself with a paleo diet for one week in a row?

Thanks in advance, Juliana Hi Juliana, Feed everyone basically the same thing with certain exceptions of course – you will need to mash things for the 11-month-old and lots of finger food.

So let's look at a paleo dinner of say, tacos using lettuce wraps.

The 11 month old can handle the cooked ground beef and cut up avocado and eat it with his or her fingers off of their high chair. Your 3-year-old and 5-year-old can have the same thing – your 3-year-old may use a bowl with a spoon while your 5-year-old practices his or her fork skills with that same food on a plate (or keep it the same for the 5- and 3-year-old).

For all three, I would give them some sweet potato to make a meal out of it.

For your husband and you, I'd go to town with all the fixings – big lettuce leaves, ground beef in the middle, salsa, avocado, cilantro, red onion – whatever floats your boat.

It just makes sense to cook once and add something that's a little more kid friendly rather than make several different meals – talk about burn out.

I hope that helps Juliana. You're right in the middle of it all – I know how tough it can be with toddlers, babies and a husband and trying to get them all fed at once.

You might want to try Dinner Answers—there's a ton of paleo meals to choose from that you can do exactly what I was talking about, here's a link: <http://savingdinner.com/s>

P.S Dinner Answers will help you develop your own personal strategy for feeding your family and meeting their exact needs. It's all right there in the easy to use Dinner Answers – you can create a menu, push the grocery list to your phone (or your spouse's) and use that as your macro for getting dinner on the table night after night.

Leanne Ely is a NYT bestselling author and the creator of <http://SavingDinner.com>, the original menu planning website, bringing families back to the dinner table for over 15 years.

Macy McBurney, above, and Lila MacKinnon, right, were among the students to display artwork during this summer's chamber concert series.

Summer chamber series concerts conclude

MANISTIQUE – A new feature of this year's chamber concert series was the addition of a student artist at each intermission art exhibit. Recent graduates Georgia Johnson and Macy McBurney and junior Lila MacKinnon each provided a display of their artwork.

The planning was coordinated by the Community Concert Committee and the late Robin Mulligan, the former Manistique High School art teacher. Each of the students included a bouquet in Mulligan's memory in their exhibit.

In addition to the student displays, David Pratt, Christine Worley-Hood, and Ruth Ann Harnes exhibited their work during intermission. Their art may be viewed and purchased at the Mustard Seed and Bostique in downtown Manistique.

The concert series will be celebrating its 50th anniversary with special features during the 2018 concerts. Because the student artists were so enthusiastically received by concert goers, the committee plans to continue working with the school to include student artists at intermission exhibits each year.

Iron Mountain VA plans veteran suicide prevention presentations

IRON MOUNTAIN – The Oscar G. Johnson VA Medical Center will host presentations on suicide prevention and urgent mental health care for veterans discharged under other than honorable conditions. The presentations will be held Sept. 12 at 12 p.m. CDT.

The presentations will take place in the basement of the VA Medical Center's main building. The VA Medical Center is located at 325 East H Street, Iron Mountain.

The presentations are coinciding with Suicide Prevention Month and are open to veterans, their families, and the public. No registration is required.

"Twenty veterans on average commit suicide each day with fourteen of the twenty not receiving VA healthcare," said Sharon Anastas, the medical center's suicide prevention coordinator and one of the presenters.

The VA cannot tackle this problem alone. Suicide prevention is everyone's business.

"We are doing these presentations because we at the VA believe it is important: for us to partner with our veterans, their families, community organizations, and the public to reach those Veterans who need help and do not realize the services they need are close by," said Anastas.

Suicide prevention is the VA's top clinical priority and one of the reasons VA recently lifted restrictions on providing urgent mental health care for those veterans discharged under than honorable conditions, estimated at a little more than five hundred thousand Veterans.

A discharge for other than honorable conditions typically prevents veterans from receiving VA healthcare.

"The suicide rate among veterans who do not use VA care is increasing at a significantly greater rate than that among Veterans who do use VA care," said Dr. Elizabeth Stanezak, chief, Behavioral Health Service at the medical center and another presenter.

"VA views the decision to provide immediate care as a moral and humanitarian obligation to these former service members who are otherwise not qualified for VA care. The focus is on saving lives," she added.

Any questions can be directed to VA Public Affairs Officer Brad Nelson at (800) 215-8262, ext. 32001.

on one count of controlled substance — possession of marijuana, a misdemeanor punishable by up to one year in jail and/or a fine of up to $2,000.

Hubbard had her bond set at $5,000, personal recognizance, and will appear for a pretrial Sept. 6 at 10 a.m.

Jon Robert Zentner, 25, of 315 N. Houghton Ave., Manistique, was arraigned in 93rd District Court Aug. 24 on one count of controlled substance — maintaining a drug house, a high court misdemeanor punishable by up to two years in prison and/or a fine of $25,000.

A cash or surety bond was set at $25,000 for Zentner. He is scheduled to appear for a preliminary examination

Sept. 11 at 3 p.m. The arrests were made as part of a joint investigation by the Manistique Department of Public Safety, Schoolcraft County Sheriff's Department, and the Sault Tribe Police Department.

Schoolcraft County Sheriff Paul Furman is requesting that those with information regarding drug-related activities contact law enforcement and may remain anonymous. To contact the Schoolcraft County Sheriff's Department, call 341-2122. To contact Manistique Public Safety Department, call 341-2133.

Further court appearances for drug arrests that took place earlier in August are scheduled to take place Sept. 6.

Folkfest wrap up opting for an electronic version on the Folkfest website in addition to the paper maps mailed each year.

It was noted that many of the downtown businesses, even with the presence of food vendors, ran out of food due to the increase in volume.

Paul Walker, who headed up the entertainment portion of the event, said he will be looking to change it up next year.

"I'm going to look for a little more diversity in music," he explained. "I think I am going to work on Saturday night a little better."

The committee sold 1,217 Folkfest buttons — a boost for the funding. The numbered buttons were sold at various locations throughout the area. On the Sunday after Folkfest, numbers corresponding to the buttons were drawn and winners received prizes donated by local businesses.

Since some of the winners never picked up their prizes, committee members discussed possibly offering cash prizes in 2018. The money would be raised from button sales, rather than soliciting businesses for prizes.

"We had some big hurdles to overcome in terms of gaining the confidence back from the business community," explained Walker, thanking the members of the Folkfest button subcommittee for "bringing that confidence back."

The new location of the children play area, featuring inflatables and face painting, next to Triangle Park was also well received, noted Powers. The Schoolcraft County Fair Association provided the inflatables and are expecting to bring more options next year, along with the possibility of an extra day of fun — setting up both Friday and Saturday.

The nomination of the 2017 Folk Hero involved a new approach — soliciting nominations "from" the public. From there, a sub-committee reviewed nominees and selected the Folk Hero. This, according to committee members, was a success and the process will repeated in 2018.

Sponsorship opportunities to support Folkfest entertainment were eagerly sought after by area businesses. These sponsors were highlighted on the Folkfest Facebook page, as well as during the event.

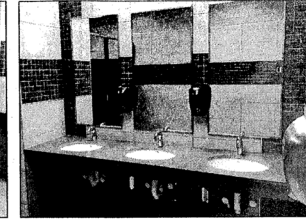

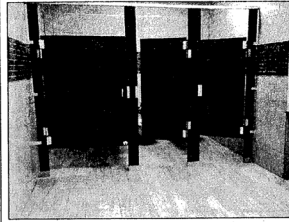

"I was really pleased with the overall response from the business community with the sponsorship," said Walker. "The platinum sponsorship ($1,000) response was tremendous ... we had four of them. That, to me, spoke volumes."

Beginning with a fund balance of zero, the Folkfest committee ended the year with a balance of $3,000. This will be used to bolster next year's event and provide a cushion for the annual event.

"Next year, I think it's going to be bigger and better — we got some hiccups out of the way," said Walker.

Parking capacity in that parking lot was increased and additional lighting added. Since the new parking lot and driveways utilize the space where the basketball court was located, it has been moved to the north end of the main playground. This move allowed for enlargement and the addition of hop-scotch and four-square game spaces.

"The projects are nearly complete," Boddy said Wednesday. "At MHS we are still waiting for the hand dryers in the main bathrooms to be connected and some pieces of the stalls to be delivered and installed.

At Emerald the light poles should be installed this week and wood chips added to the playground," she continued. "Emerald should be 100 percent complete by Sept. 5. The MHS hand dryers will be connected the evening of Sept. 7. All of the restrooms are usable as of now and were available to the public for the volleyball match last night."

During the board meeting, members also discussed filling the position of middle/high school math teacher Rob Schwartz, who retired before the beginning of the year.

According to Boddy, MHS Principal John Shiner rearranged a couple of teacher assignments to fill the position with current teaching staff.

Boddy noted that the district is still seeking to fill some open positions, including a high school education assistant, an alternative high school education assistant, and a food server position at Emerald Elementary.

In other business, the board also discussed the resignation of board member Jenny VanDyck. The board will solicit letters of interest from the public to fill the partial term — which expires Dec. 31 2018.

Indians spoil Kangas's return to the gridiron

MANISTIQUE — For the past four seasons, the Newberry Indians have dominated the Manistique Emeralds on the gridiron. Friday, they made it five in a row with a 49-8 win over Manistique at A.F. Hall Stadium.

Following a four and out by Head Coach Todd Kangas and his young Emerald backfield, the Indians marched 52 yards, scoring on a 42-yard run by Jaylen James, who reached the corner and could not be brought down.

Coming off an 18-yard kick return by DJ Blowers, Manistique, led by junior Alex Oas, chewed up ground while taking time off the clock. Unfortunately, back-to-back penalties proved to be costly. With the ball at the Indian's 14-yard line off a nice run by Logan Savage, Manistique was flagged twice in the red zone. Starting at a fourth down and 12 yards to go, a pass attempt by Oas was picked off by Andre James on the three-yard line.

After a pair of defensive stops by Manistique, George Sevarns found Nathan Magnusson behind the Emerald defense for a 94-yard touchdown, ending the first quarter with a 14-0 advantage.

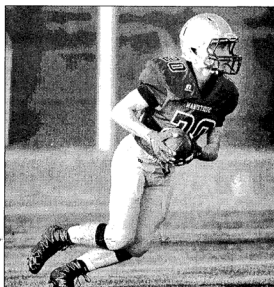

Newberry extended their lead to 22-0 early in the second quarter off a 28-yard run by Sevarns at the 8:02 mark in the period.

Following a big stop by the Emeralds defense, Manistique coughed up the ball on the first play of the ensuing possession. From there, Newberry went the distance. Turnovers again proved to be costly for Manistique.

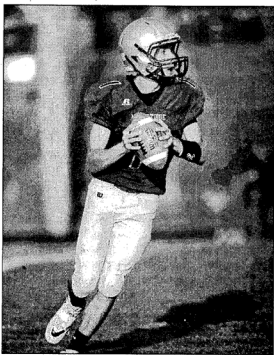

Following a pair of penalties, this time on Newberry, pressure by Joe Barr forced the Indians to punt for the second time in the half.

With the ball at their own 40-yard line, mBank recently signed on as a corporate sponsor for former Manistique High School golfer, Mike Nagy. Nagy is continuing his quest to become a professional golfer.

Sets sights on PGA Tour Card

MANISTIQUE — Coming off a stay at one of the finest golf schools in the country, Mike Nagy continues his quest to take the next step in becoming a professional golfer.

Straight off appearances in the Dakota Tour and a recent victory in the Tournament of Champions at the Boyne Mountain Resort in Petoskey, Mich., Nagy now has his sights on the Web.com Tour, a qualifying event for golfers looking to earn a PGA Tour Card.

During his recent trip to Michigan, Nagy had the opportunity to spend some quality time off in his hometown of Manistique and, during his stay, picked up a corporate sponsor (mBank) to help offset the financial burden while seeking his bid to earn a PGA Tour Card. According to Kelly George, mBank's President and CEO, the bank has reached an agreement to sponsor Nagy.

Commenting on the bank's financial sponsorship, George said, "Supporting Michael to make it easier for him to chase his dreams of being a professional golfer aligns well with our bank's corporate mission and vision of giving back and advancing the well-being of our local communities and people. Michael is a fine young man with a strong desire and commitment to excel born

Visitors take tri-match

MANISTIQUE — Tuesday evening, the Emerald volleyball teams hosted Munising and Engadine in a triangular match.

Dropping two games against Munising earlier in the season, the squad struggled on their serves Tuesday night. They lost their first set 20-25.

Taking advantage of opportunities, the Emeralds regrouped in the second with a narrow 25-23 advantage for the win.

The Emeralds struggled again in the third and fourth sets going 22-25 and 18-25 respectively to lose the match 3-1.

"We struggled to serve which made going on runs difficult," said Head Coach Amy Nixon. "We did a good job offensively and took James picked off a pass by Oas. On the next play, Brandon Christensen got outside and went 37 yards for the score, pushing the Indians' lead to 29-0 at the half.

"We really preached hard about not turning the ball over or not to give up big plays and we did it four or five times tonight," said Head Coach Todd Kangas. "We cannot turn the ball over to be successful, we need to make teams work to score."

Newberry out-scored Manistique 20-8 in the second half of play. The Emeralds' score and two-point conversion came off a short run by sophomore Christian Aldrich.

"We were all disappointed in our game, Friday, not so much in the way that we played, but it wasn't a good representation of the team that we are going to be," Kangas said.

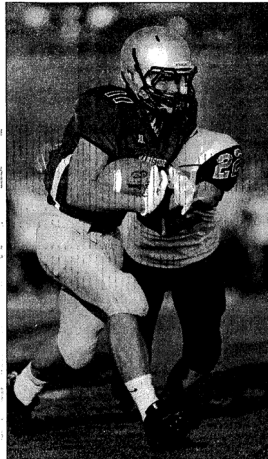

The young Emerald backfield rushed for 144 yards on the night - an effort Kangas said will improve as the season goes on. Anderson led the Emeralds with 100 yards on 29 attempts; Savage added 30 yards on five carries.

"We need to be a little more consistent," said Kangas. "We had two solid drives during the course of the game where we gave ourselves a chance to score. We need to have around four or five quality drives over the course of a game. We have a way to go - we know what we are capable of and we have shown it during practice and this game, but just need to be more consistent."

The Indians rushed for 239 yards and passed for an additional 146 yards.

Manistique travels to Gladstone Friday to take on the Braves in a Mid-Peninsula Conference match-up. Gladstone defeated Gwinn 42-0 in their first Mic-Pen outing. The Braves' quarterback, Darin Johnson, threw four touchdowns and rushed for another in the win.

Gwinn, struggling with numbers, suited just 13 players.

and raised in Manistique with a tremendous opportunity very few have. We could not be happier to help support his efforts as he gets started in professional golfing and join in his successes along the way in which we are sure he will have many."

As Nagy prepares for the Web.com tour, he said the timing of the sponsorship couldn't come at a better time as the tour will stage tournaments from September through December all across the Midwest. In addition to registration fees, as much as $900 per event, participants are also strapped with the additional cost of lodging, meals, and travel to and from each tournament.

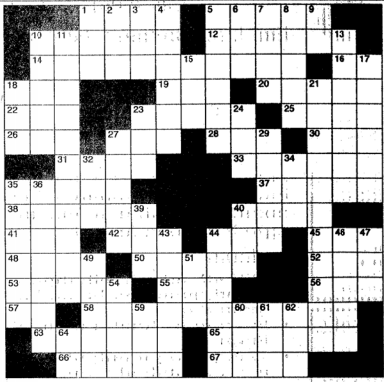

"Receiving a sponsorship from mBank is a tremendous boost forward allowing me to chase my dreams in professional golf," said Nagy. "It's terrific to have such amazing support from a hometown business that I will be able to represent as I travel across the country. I can't thank mBank enough for helping me on my golfing journey."

Earning a tour card and the right to call oneself a member of the PGA Tour has always been a difficult task, and that task got even harder in 2013. Up until 2012, the "easiest" method of PGA Tour qualifying was through PGA Tour Q-School. Q-School was a series of qualifying tournaments culminating in a final tournament, after which a certain number of the top 10 finishers were awarded PGA Tour membership for the following season.

Since 2013, however, Q-School no longer gets a golfer onto the PGA Tour, and the methods for making the tour are fewer. Q-School still exists, but only awards spots on the Web.com Tour - the PGA Tour's developmental circuit.

Nagy finished the Dakota Tour in ninth place in points earned out of a field of 185 participants. An effort good enough to have earned a PGA Tour Card prior to the switch.

Mike is the son of Beth Nagy and Jon Nagy.

Wild game processors need DNR permit

LANSING - At its June meeting, the Michigan Natural Resources Commission signed an order requiring anyone who receives compensation for processing wild game to be registered with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. The new requirement was brought forward as part of a larger set of deer management regulations related to hunting licenses, chronic wasting disease response measures, urban conflict and other issues. The commercial game processor registration requirement is effective immediately.

"This fee permit is to determine how many game processors are in the state of Michigan and where they are located," said Casey Reitz, DNR wildlife permit specialist.

"As we work to manage white-tailed deer diseases in Michigan, we need to be able to contact processors who might be able to assist us in processing donated deer," she said. "In addition, we would like to provide this information to hunters so they can have their deer processed relatively close to home. Right now, we do not have those capabilities. "If you receive compensation for processing game, you are now required to be registered with the DNR. It is a quick and easy process of filling out an online form and then printing off your permit."

Commercial wild game processors should register immediately so they are legal for the fall hunting season. The form to register is located at www.michigan.gov/wildlifepermits, and anyone who is unable to fill out the online form should call (517) 284-9453 for assistance.

Food safety requirements and licensing are regulated by the Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, not the DNR. MDARD and USDA conduct inspections associated with those regulations.

Wild game processors who have questions related to being licensed or food safety requirements can visit www.michigan.gov/meatprocessing or call at (800) 292-3939.

Well, as the old saying goes, "Ready or not, here it comes!" We are at the end of August and the month of September brings us the start of the fall season, along with the start of the hunting season. It is the best time of the year for being a Yooper and one my age seems to enjoy them more and more as the years seem to fly by.

It is that time of year to get your firewood supply built up for the winter months and the feeling is this winter may be a little colder with more snow than the last two. Personally I hope the "experts" are wrong and we have another mild winter but either way, as a Yooper, you had better be ready for whatever may come our way.

There are a few fishermen getting ready and hoping for a good fall fish run with a lot of action. It is hard to believe how the fall fish runs have changed from what they used to be 30 some years ago. I used to have to spend hours down at the river and at Thompson Creek trying to keep things under control.

Who would think today that out at Thompson there would be two-three deep lines of fishermen along the shore line trying to catch some salmon? Back then Thompson Creek itself was closed to fishing so this is where most of my activity came from when poachers would go up the creek either at the weir or farther up trying to catch some fish.

But then the DNR quit planting Thompson Creek and started planting the Manistique River heavy so the fish runs moved from Thompson to Manistique. Back then it was common to catch poachers with heavy fishing line and weighted hooks up on the flume wall trying to snag salmon. The trick was to catch them before they could take off running. One time a teenager came off the wall running and as he took off I reached out to grab him and all I ended up with was a hand full of pony-tail.

Needless to say when you have over 200 pounds hanging onto your pony-tail you tend to stop rather quickly. It is one of the best uses of a pony-tail I have ever witnessed. Years later I ran into the young man I had caught by grabbing his pony-tail and he had a good laugh in telling me it sure was a surprise to him the way he got caught when he took off running.

In last week's paper they were talking about our summer season here in our town. As you are well

FISH REPORT

BY RET. SGT. JOHN WALKER

One of the things I laugh about is what is called "modern math". I was talking to a party the other day that put my feeling about "modern math" in its proper perspective.

It seems where this party worked he was supposed to get paid on the third Friday of the month. Now in the old math that meant first one Friday, then another Friday for number two. So the third Friday comes along which makes number three and the party went for his pay check.

But surprise there was no pay check! He was informed that this particular month had five Fridays so there was no pay check on the third Friday of the month seeing the month had an extra Friday.

Now I may have grown up over in Ontonagon and studied under the old math but for some reason I figured correctly like we were taught and you can count to three on your fingers the third Friday of the month comes after the second Friday and before the fourth Friday of the month no matter how many Fridays there are in the month.

But who am I, just say being an old man from the "over-the-hill" crew.

SCORING AN UPGRADE

While the main facility underwent several upgrades funded through the district's sinking fund millage over the course of the summer, the Richard Bonifas Gymnasium received an upgrade thanks in part to the donation of new scoreboards by State Savings Bank. The state of the art boards will allow spectators a better view and ability to follow plays and scores.

As the new school year begins there will be some new faces in the buildings at Manistique Area Schools.

At the middle/high school we have added three new teachers to our staff. Gwendolyn Hoenke is a native of Marquette and a recent graduate of Northern Michigan University. She will be teaching Spanish I-2 and Math 7.

Nikita Cook is a Manistique High School Alumni and will be returning to teach middle school special education. Nikita has spent the past several years teaching special education in Florida.

Casey Hinkson is also an alumni of Manistique High School and will be returning to teach art and yearbook. Most recently Casey was teaching art in the Tahquamenon Area School District.

Joe Bugay will be joining the Delta-Schoolcraft ISD teaching staff in the Career and Technical Education department as the instructor for our new Timber Harvesting Equipment Operator instructor. Joe taught a similar curriculum at Bay College and owns his own logging business.

Familiar faces in new places include Mrs. Kathy Seanjid who will be relocating from Jack Reque Alternative High School to sixth grade, Jackie Miller who will be moving from sixth grade to fifth grade, at Emerald, Erik Mason who will be moving from Emerald to seventh and eighth grade science, and Karin Sylvia who will be moving from a temporary assignment at Emerald to a permanent assignment in a first grade classroom.

Laura Kangas will be returning to MAS as the media secretary with the relocation of Karen Gonyea to assistant librarian to replace Bonnie Hoedel who retired this August.

As our needs seem to change almost by the hour this time of year, we are still interviewing to complete our staff of Education Assistants.

If you are interested in working at Manistique Area Schools, highly skilled getting some experience through subbing. Most of our permanent positions are filled by people who have worked as subbin our buildings.

There is a high demand for subs in all areas including food service, bus driving (requires certification), education assistants, custodians and teachers.

If you are interested in getting onboard as a sub you will need to go to subpass.com and register. Be sure to select as many categories as you would like to be called for. The more areas you have experience in the better.

There are also AmeriCorps positions that are available in partnership with Marquette-Alger Regional Educational Service Association.

The goal is to have these positions filled by the end of the week so the successful candidate can attend training in Marquette the week of Sept. 5. Compensation for the AmeriCorps position includes insurance, a stipend just over $12,600 and an education award of just over $5,800 to pay off school loans or use toward future college expenses.

Manistique Area Schools relies on quality individuals to support teaching and learning in our school district through a variety of roles. We would love to have you join our team.

If you have any questions please contact the school at 341-4300.

advantage of opportunities to attack the ball, which kept us competitive in the match."

More consistent in the second match of the night against Engadine, the Emeralds still found themselves on the short end, losing 3-2.

The Eagles took the first set by four with a score of 25-21.

Attempting to take the next three sets for the match win, the Emeralds won the second 25-20 and the third 25-17.

Their lucky streak did not continue, however, and they ended tied 2-2 after the fourth with a 18-25 loss.

Looking to get to 15 first in the fifth, the Emeralds were only able to secure nine points to drop the match 3-2.

"This match was a battle and, unfortunately, we came out too flat in the fourth and fifth set," said Nixon. "We did serve and receive more consistently in this match as compared to our first match of the night with Munising. I was happy to see the improvement. We will learn from these two matches and continue to improve."

The junior varsity also lost their 20-25 and 23-25.

Regrouping in the second match against Engadine, the squad won with sets of 25-16 and 25-19.

Manistique will travel to Ishpeming tonight and back up north to Westwood Sept. 7.
