District focuses on sinking fund projects

Concession stand relocation, security system updates among current projects

MANISTIQUE – School may be out for the summer, but there's still plenty of activity within the walls of both Emerald Elementary and the Manistique Middle and High School. Sinking fund projects at both schools will be completed while the students are away.

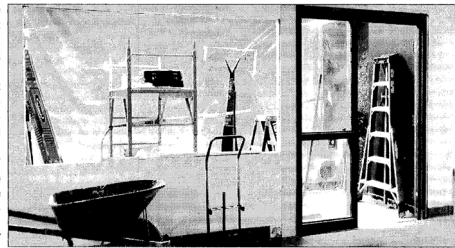

Under Michigan law, a school may collect taxes for a "sinking fund" that can be used for major repairs and renovations. The MAS district levies 1.5 mills on taxpayers, and these funds are used to make updates at both schools.

According to Superintendent Maryann Boddy, "This summer we have a relatively light list of sinking fund projects. We made the decision to schedule a light summer because we would be transitioning to a new operations and maintenance supervisor and we wanted to keep some funds in reserve for the high school locker room renovation we hope to complete next summer. The locker room renovation for summer 2019 will completely update the locker rooms used by the students and the community when accessing the pool."

The first project, installing an air climate control system at Emerald Elementary, was mostly completed during the district's spring break. This system is expected to make temperatures at the school more tolerable during the warmer spring and late summer months.

"The week school got out, the air handlers were installed," she explained. "Ryan (Weber, district maintenance supervisor) is able to control the cool air intake in the evening to keep the building cool, and it is a marked difference. You can really no-

BACK IN THE (PIONEER) DAY

The 14th annual Pioneer Day took place Saturday in Pioneer Park. This year's event featured new historic exhibits in the water tower, as well as living history demonstrations, live music, and a craft show. The grand re-opening of Manistique's Historic Water Tower was also celebrated during the event, and residents and tourists flocked to see the inside (above). Summer drive-in movies return with help of local businesses

STC hosts events, next movie scheduled July 14

MANISTIQUE – The former glory of the area drive-in movie theater has once again returned. Members of the Schoolcraft Tourism and Commerce group will be hosting movie events for the public throughout the summer.

"The STC has hosted six movie events since the summer of 2016 at the longshuttered drive-in theater across the highway from the Schoolcraft County Airport, the most recent of which was early this past June," explained Eric Sherbinow of the U.P. Film Union.

"April and Jason Collins own the property on U.S. Highway 2 and have allowed me and Don Erickson – of the U.P. Film Union – to produce movie events that bring back the bygone days of the drive-in theater."

The drive-in events follow past example – featuring a blockbuster movie, followed by a "campy, unknown 'B feature', as was the norm during the heyday of the drive-in", Sherbinow explained.

"Drive-in theater screens were once a common sight across the United States. At one time there were over 4,000 of these screens dotting the landscape of our nation" he said. "The advent of

Bay offers CPR and first aid training

ESCANABA - Bay College Training and Development will be offering CPR and First Aid training on July 11, from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. This course is designed for those who want to learn the skills, but are not required to obtain certification in CPR for employment. Participants will learn how to respond to and manage choking or a sudden cardiac arrest until emergency help arrives; this includes instruction on how to properly use an AED, or automated external defibrillator. The first aid portion of the course will cover adult and pediatric first aid that includes how to treat bleeding, broken bones, sprains, shock, and other first aid emergencies.

According to the American Heart Association, each year there are over 350,000 cases of out-of-hospital sudden cardiac arrest. The average survival rate is 10 percent, however, that rate increases to 31 percent when cardiac arrest is witnessed by a bystander and an AED is used.

The cost of the training is $85, and includes a mask and the required manual.

BUILT FOR BARAGA

From the June 30, 1983 edition, work is progressing on the memorial to Bishop Baraga, located near the Copenhagen Bridge. The church is being constructed by five students working under the Summer Youth Program. Logs have been donated by the Mead Corp. in Escanaba. Youth working on the memorial include Dan Tiglas, Jamie Phillips, Mike Joslin, Ken Peterson, Paul Turek, Leo Kerridge, along with supervisors Ted Foye and Norm Chenier.

A community relief effort

To our community, your donations have been delivered!, so said the headlines on Limestone Federal Credit Union's Facebook page this weekend. Such a proud moment Saturday when LFCU employee, Kate Peterson, a native of Houghton, delivered by U-Haul donations made by members and local businesses to the Copper Country relief effort. "The community response was outstanding and quite overwhelming," said LFCU Marketing Coordinator Alison Jones. "Donations from individuals both young and old were incredibly heart-warming." Kate Peterson, standing far right, who was the brainchild of the local effort added, "It truly has been a life changing experience for me. I am not the same person I was when I started this. I am so touched by the kindness of this community I have called home for the past two years."

US-2 bridge closure, detour set for July 5-6

ESCANABA - Northbound and southbound US-2/US-41/M-35 will be closed at the Escanaba River July 5 for work on the Michigan Department of Transportation's bridge project.

The closure is scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. and end at approximately 6 a.m. July 6. This closure is required to place beams for the new highway bridge.

During the closure, eastbound traffic will be detoured via Delta County roads 426, 420, and 531, and M-35. The detour will be reversed for westbound traffic. Motorists should be patient and expect delays.

To accommodate traffic and reduce conflicts along the detour route, Delta County Road 420 will be closed to through-traffic at the

Quick facts

- To maximize safety for motorists and workers, MDOT is closing US-2/US-41/M-35 at the Escanaba River July 5 for bridge work.
- Closing and detouring the highway provides motorists with the safest route possible through the area during this period. It also protects workers.

east leg of the intersection with Delta County Road 531. Also, Rivers 22nd Road will be open to eastbound traffic only between Delta County Road 531 and M-35. Law enforcement will be present at intersections along the detour route to improve traffic flow and reduce backups.

Parts of Delta County Road 426 are closed to oversized loads. Drivers with oversized loads should contact the Delta County Road Commission at (906) 786-3200 Monday through Thursday to determine the most appropriate route.

MDOT is investing $20.5 million to replace both the US-2 bridge over the Escanaba River and the Escanaba and Lake Superior Railroad bridge over US-2. This two-year project includes reconstructing and realigning 0.8 miles of roadway and replacing 3,000 feet of E&LS Railroad track. The project is expected to be completed in October.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

I heard recently that 90 percent of republicans approve of Trump. I found that surprising considering the character he has displayed. I don't believe there has ever been a public official that was a nastier person. I can't imagine an adult mocking a handicapped person. I can't imagine someone making disparaging remarks to parents that lost a son in war because of their faith and coming from the commander-in-chief, unimaginable! His name-calling and his lies aren't funny anymore; he's just a mean person. I don't know if he violated women as he claimed or if he thought making a statement like that sounded grownup. Sometimes he sounds so childish I can't believe he's president. He sounds more like a teenager needing attention.

If the approval rating is only about the economy, I understand that. He has bombarded us about the unemployment rate and the stock market so frequently you'd think it must be true. Actually, he hasn't done badly, maybe as well as Obama. While Obama was president the market went from about 7000 to $8000, a 150 percent increase. Under Trump it has risen to 24 or 25 thousand, about a 35 percent increase. Under Obama, unemployment went from over 10 percent to 4.8 percent. Under Trump it has decreased to 3.8 percent, the same as Mexico but not as good as several countries in Europe. At least, so far, we haven't reversed course.

Virtually the whole world despises the man. According to Pew Research, other than Israel, a few African countries, possibly Viet Nam, and Russia (I wonder why Russia) every other country has a negative opinion of Trump. That also means they have a pretty poor opinion of the U.S. We used to talk about our friends, tell me what country is our friend now.

I think the man is very dangerous. I thought both he and Hillary were dangerous in that both had reasons for wanting to show they were tough, Hillary because she would have been the first woman and Trump because of his nature. He has a need that will never be satisfied. Now he wants to do away with judges and due process for Mexicans. If he gets away with that you can expect he'll want to expand that to you and me. He has already talked about more than two terms and how in China that guy is in for life.

It's not just Trump. Bergman campaigned on the slogan, "send a marine to congress". He knows what's going on but he like the rest of congress hasn't said a word, the marines would be embarrassed. If a person can't stand up just for fear of losing his job he's not doing his job.

I'll never understand how this happened. It wasn't just Hillary. In the primaries, there were 16 better people than Trump yet the republicans picked him. Unbelievable!

Ways and means to curb teenage loitering and rowdiness in front of LaFollette's Malt Shop were discussed at length at Monday's regular city council meeting. The discussion was prompted by the appearance and complaint of Mr. Dallas Dunning, who told the council that his pickup truck had been damaged by youngsters climbing on the hood while it was parked in front of the establishment. He presented a formal letter of complaint to the council. Dunning also charged that the police force in town is inadequate, and said the attitude of Public Safety Director Roy Anderson was "completely negative." He also said he had attempted to flag a passing police patrol car at the time of the incident, but that the officer did not stop. He added that youngsters have double-parked and completely blocked traffic in the area at other times. The possibility of having police officers patrol the problem area on foot was suggested by Mayor Leo DeMars, who agreed that most of the problem was centered on that particular area. City Attorney William Hood explained to Mr. Dunning that a police officer has no right to arrest for a misdemeanor unless it is committed in his presence or he has a warrant for the arrest of the accused.

Karl Krumrey, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl H. Krumrey of Indian Lake, has been named as a district winner in the 1968 Upper Peninsula State Fair premium book cover contest. The grand award winner was Miss Susan Bohjanen of Marquette. Karl has just completed his freshman year at Manistique High School, and hopes to attend art school later. He is also interested in a career of wildlife management. His art teacher is Mrs. Taisto Orhanen. His entry was tops in the district which includes Schoolcraft, Chippewa, Lapeer and Mackinac counties; and it was second the year in a row he won the district prize of a portable radio. His brother Dietmar won the district prize several years, and also was a grand prize winner one year. Last year's grand prize winner was Miss Bonnie Moon of Manistique. The winners will appear on WLUC-TV in Marquette Sunday evening, June 30.
More than 150 women from three dozen Upper Peninsula golf clubs participated in the U.P. Women's Invitational Golf Tournament held at the Indian Lake Golf and Country Club Wednesday. The event is one of three sanctioned tournaments held in addition to the U.P. tournament for women.

Taking a long hot shower will be cheaper, thanks to the Manistique City Council. At its regular meeting Monday night, the council unanimously voted to lower the water and sewer service rates as of July 1. Rates will be rolled back to what they were in 1982. Water rates will be reduced from $10 per month to $8. Sewer charges will go from a base of $6 to $5 per month. Individual water-sewer bills may still be higher than 1982 charges because an automatic five percent increase in the amount charged per gallon of usage went into effect in April. The service connection rate reduction was a plan proposed by the citizen's water and sewer advisory committee if a $3.5 million federal grant was not awarded for the sewer separation project. In addition to the reduced charges, the plan suggested voters be asked to approve a one mill levy for 25 years for water and sewer line construction.

After 40 years of medical practice, Manistique doctor and county medical examiner Merle Wehner, 69, has announced his retirement. Friday will mark the end of a medical career which has been centered in Manistique for the last 36 years. Before coming to Manistique, Dr. Wehner spent two years as a surgical intern at Spiro Hospital in Lansing and two years in the Army. When's retirement plans include staying on at his Glenwood Drive home, where he will "catch up on a lot of things, then probably take a trip." Until such time, he will continue to take care of his long term patients in the Medical Care Facility and will continue to work as the County Medical Examiner.
Germfask's "Fun Place" doors are now open for children, ages 5-8. The "Fun Place" is located in the gym of the Germfask School. An air space easement that would have allowed construction of a controversial walkway was denied by a three to two vote of the Manistique City Council at a rescheduled meeting Monday night. Voting for the proposal were councilmen John Stewart and Mike Dougivog. Casting negative votes were councilmen David Chrisman and John Hoag and Mayor Peggi Arnold. Officials of North Country Bank and Trust asked the city for the easement to build a walkway connecting its buildings on either side of S. Cedar Street because of safety concerns for its employees and customers and to provide better access to the upper floor of its historically restored office building.

Manistique Public Safety Officers were called to a house fire at 207 N. First Street at 4:06 p.m. on June 30. When they arrived the fire was out of control. Assisted by the Hiawatha Township Fire Department, they brought the blaze under control by 6 p.m. The two story building was severely damaged. It was unoccupied but was being used for storage. Officers said the fire started in a closet and was caused by arson. The case is still under investigation.

The weather held out and the crowds flocked to Manistique's Pioneer Park for the fourth annual Pioneer Days event hosted by the Schoolcraft County Historical Society last Saturday. What began in 2005 with the rededication of the renovated water tower has become a celebration of the county's heritage and a way to raise awareness about the work of the Historical Society in preserving that history. This year's event included a lumberjack breakfast, a craft fair, flea market, book sale, music, demonstrations, exhibits in the water tower and adjacent buildings, and a book signing featuring four writers.

The old St. Francis de Sales convent house was demolished June 25, clearing the way for this summer's addition to St. Francis School. The project, the second part of a three-phase building plan, will feature construction of the school's new "junior high academy," with three classrooms for students in grades 6-8 and other facilities. The convent house was built in 1923, providing a home for the Franciscan sisters who served the parish and the community for so many years.

Mary Margaret "Marnie" Strom

Mary Margaret Strom

MANISTIQUE - Mary Margaret "Marnie" (Fakety) Strom, 58, sadly lost her battle with Alzheimer's Disease on Saturday, June 16, 2018.

Marnie was born to Michael and Sarah (Stone) Fakety on Oct. 22, 1959, in Manistique, Mich. and was a lifelong resident.

On Sept. 14, 1978, she married John Strom. Marnie was employed for many years at the Hub Bar where she was a favorite bartender and cook; the VFW Hall where she was a lifetime member and former President of the Women's Auxiliary; the Big Boy Restaurant where she enjoyed one of her greatest passions, cooking; and in the dining room at Schoolcraft County Medical Care Facility where she demonstrated a remarkable warmth and compassion toward the residents.

Marnie was a firm believer in the power of music, laughter and love. From an early age she loved music whether she was singing, dancing, or playing her guitar or piano. She had an enormous sense of humor and was always up for a good joke or playing a prank on family and friends. In addition to music, she enjoyed playing pool with her friends on a pool league, arts and crafts, writing poetry, fishing, biking, and visiting with her family and friends.

Marnie possessed a very vibrant, independent, compassionate, devoted, hard working and fun loving spirit. Her caring nature drew people to her so she was blessed with many, many friends. When she became ill her sister would often remind her that she had an entire town of people who loved and cared for her. With her coffee pot always on, a joke up her sleeve or a hug when needed, she extended open arms to everyone with a soft spot for children and animals. Above all, she valued the time spent with loved ones and her memory will live on in the countless hearts she embraced and the lives she touched with her kindness.

She is survived by her husband, John; daughters, Katherine (Katie) and Mary Strom; grandsons, Tyler and Erik Johnson; brother, Daniel Fakety; sisters, Kathy White, Colleen Fakety, Leah (Bob) Skoglund, Sarah (Jack) Schuetter; stepmother, Patricia Peck-Fakety; numerous nieces, nephews, and great nieces and great nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Michael and Sarah Fakety; brothers, Michael "Terry" Fakety, Patrick Fakety, Kelly Fakety; sister-in-laws, Katherine Fakety and Gail Fakety, and her father-in-law, Finar Strom.

Services at St. Francis de Sales Church in Manistique will be held on Friday, July 6, with visitation at 11 a.m. followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 11:30 a.m.

Following services at St. Francis de Sales Church, a celebration of Marnie's life will be held at the VFW Hall with a gathering of friends from 1-2 p.m., service at 2 p.m., and a luncheon to follow. Burial will be at Garfield Township Cemetery in Engadine at 5 p.m.

Marnie's family would like to thank the entire staff of Maple Valley Nursing Home as well as Hospice of Michigan, especially Tonya and Tim, for the unyielding kindness, compassion, care and love they so tenderly and respectfully gave to Marnie while she was in their care.

IM VA nursing home receives 5-Star rating

IRON MOUNTAIN - The Oscar G. Johnson VA Medical Center announced its nursing home received 5-stars as part of its annual performance rating.

The Iron Mountain-based VAMC's announcement comes after VA extended its unprecedented 18-month record of transparency disclosures by making public for the first time its annual nursing home ratings for every facility in the country.

The data shows that, overall, VA's nursing home system - composed of more than 130 community living centers - compares closely with private sector nursing homes, even though the department on average cares for sicker patients in its nursing homes than do private facilities.

In fact, the overall star rating for VA's nursing homes compared to the 15,487 private sector nursing homes rated by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services shows that VA has a significantly lower percentage (34.1 percent) of one-star, or lowest rated, facilities than the rest of the nation.

Of note, 60 of VA's nursing homes improved their quality score from last year to this year (2nd Quarter FY17 to 2nd Quarter FY18). Only one facility had a meaningful decline in that metric, and that facility was already rated with four stars.

"The 5-star rating our nursing home received is a testament to the dedication of our employees to serving our nation's heroes," said Jim

This recipe is every inch as mouth-watering as it sounds. "pan seared" - "butter braised" - "pork chops" - "hero white wine reduction" - what we didn't include in the recipe name (since it was already crazy lengthy) was we topped it with fried sage. Oh mama. Everything good exists in this scrumptious recipe. Pork chops can be real buggers to cook - often becoming tough or flavorless or both - not these beauties. The right combo of the right methods makes these pork chops perfectly juicy and flavorful.

Pan Seared Butter Braised Pork Chops with Herb White Wine Reduction

Servings 4
Prep Time 15 minutes
Cook Time 25 minutes

Ingredients

- 1/2 cup apple cider vinegar
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 4 large garlic cloves, minced
- 5 sprigs rosemary, minced
- 4 thick cut bone-in tomahawk pork chops (or boneless pork chops)
- Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 3 tablespoons ghee
- 4 sprigs rosemary, minced
- 6 sprigs thyme, minced
- 8 leaves sage, minced
- 2 tablespoons grass fed butter
- 1 medium shallot, finely chopped
- 1 cup dry white wine
- 1 1/2 cups bone broth or low sodium chicken broth
- 10 to 12 leaves sage, fried

Instructions

In a medium bowl, mix together first 4 ingredients (vinegar through rosemary), then set aside.

Season both sides of pork chops with salt and pepper, then place in large zipper topped plastic bag. Pour garlic mixture over the top, make sure chops are evenly saturated, let out excess air, seal and place in refrigerator to marinate for at least 1 hour (up to 48 hours).

At time of cooking, heat ghee in a large skillet over medium heat. Remove pork chops from refrigerator and marinate, and once ghee begins to sizzle, add pork to skillet.

Sear for 5 minutes, not touching the pork chops, then flip and sear for another 5 minutes, again, not fidgeting with them.

After you've seared them on both sides, add the butter to the pan, along with a pinch of the minced herbs (rosemary, thyme, sage) - only a pinch, set the rest aside.

Using tongs, flip the pork chops, and then baste (with a basting brush) with ghee/butter/herbs in the skillet. Repeat this process for 5 minutes. Continuously flipping and basting as you go.

Then remove pork chops from skillet, and add the shallot. Sauté for about 2 minutes or until shallot is fragrant and translucent.

De-glaze pan with splash of the wine. Using a whisk to get all the good bits off the bottom of the pan, continue whisking for about 2 minutes, then add remaining wine, herbs, and broth. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Bring to a boil, and allow to boil until liquid has reduced by half, then reduce heat to low and simmer for at least 10 minutes.

Serve pork with a generous ladle of sauce and a couple fried sage

Recipe Notes

To fry sage:

Heat 1/3 cup olive oil in a small skillet over medium heat. Once it begins to pop, add a handful of sage leaves. Fry for 3 to 5 seconds (seriously, it fries crazy fast), then immediately remove and place on a paper towel covered plate. Continue until you have as much as you need.

home video in the late 70s and early 80s brought about the rapid demise of the drive-in theater. Today, there are fewer than 400 drive-ins left."

Despite the perceived loss of interest in the drive-in, Sherbinow said the Manistique events have been eagerly welcomed by the public. "The STC manages to occasionally breathe some life back into the only outdoor movie screen left in the Upper Peninsula," he explained.

In fact, the next drive-in event will take place July 14.

"(This) will be the next time that our beloved little drive-in comes back to life, adding one more exciting event to Folkfest weekend," Sherbinow said.

"The drive-in events are family-friendly and the best part is that they are free of charge."

The July event is sponsored by Putvin Healthmart Pharmacy — one of the many local businesses who have supported the drive-in.

"Movie licensing for a public showing is expensive but thanks to local businesses and organizations who provide sponsorship, the STC and the Film Union are able to put these events on," Sherbinow said. "Past sponsors include Limestone Federal Credit Union, Manistique Hockey Association, Wheaty's Pub, Jack Pine Lodge, Big Spring Inn, Grover Real Estate, The Mustard Seed, Savings Insurance Agency, Superior State Agency, and Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital." As for the concession at the drive-in, Sherbinow said local non-profit organizations operate each one, with all proceeds going to that organization.

"Each of these concession operators serves their choice of beverages and snacks and they set their own prices," he explained. "Items that can usually be found at the concession stand include assorted soft drinks — with hot chocolate at cooler times, theater size candy, hot dogs, pizza, and fresh popped theater-style popcorn."

St Francis de Sales School will be operating the concession stand for the July 14 event.

"For a bit of nostalgia you won't want to miss this chance to step into the past at the next STC drive in theater event," Sherbinow said. "The show starts at dusk — usually a half hour after sunset. Moviegoers sometimes arrive as early as 5 or 6 p.m., but gates officially open at 8 p.m."

Be sure to bring items that will ensure your comfort such as lawn chairs, blankets, warm clothes (it gets chilly after sundown), sunscreen and insect repellent," he added. "While fun activities of all kinds are encouraged, fireworks, cooking grills and other sources of open flame are prohibited for safety's sake."

time when the cool air is coming in at night. We're hopeful that will be a nice change in Emerald come fall when the kids and teachers are back in the building."

A second project involves the relocation of the concession stand at MHS. The stand had been housed in the cafeteria. The new stand will be located adjacent to the gymnasium in an old office space. This project will be completed by Aug. 15.

"They (construction crews) started right on Monday (June 11)," Boddy explained. "It's moving along just fine."

Updates to the security system at Emerald is also taking place and nearly complete. Included in the project is the installation of cameras in areas of the building that previously did not have them and updating the quality of the video surveillance equipment and increasing the number of cameras in and around the building.

The remaining 2018 projects include: flooring and ceiling installation in three high school classrooms, flooring in the Career/Technical Education wing and concrete updates along Maple Street.

A final project added to the agenda was the football stadium.

"The winter took its toll on the stadium and we experienced several cracks in the concrete. We will be hiring Olsen and Olsen to do the repair work over the summer with completion by the first home football game in August," said Boddy.

Boddy noted that there are crews currently working on asbestos abatement in both the concession areas and CTE wing. Additionally, she pointed out that cabling for the security system updates at Emerald is a "work in progress."

"That's good to see," Boddy said. "All the projects that we have going are right on track and, hopefully, we'll be able to wind everything up early this year. That will be a nice change to be done in early to mid-August."

USFS signs Decision Notice for Camp Cooks

GLADSTONE — District Ranger Charlie Marsh and Forest Supervisor Cid Morgan recently signed Decision Notices finalizing the planning process for the Camp Cooks Integrated Management Project located in Delta and Schoolcraft counties.

The project analysis and decisions support a variety of forest management activities including vegetation treatments, road modifications, and riparian and wetland conservation activities.

"We are pleased that the Camp Cooks decision reflects public input and prepares us to implement numerous resource and restoration projects that are well-integrated to simultaneously benefit a range of resource concerns — from timber to trails, from roads to riparian areas, and so on," sated Marsh.

Vegetation treatments include prescribed fire, non-native invasive plant treatments, wildlife habitat improvements, logging and regeneration. Benefits of these treatments range from reduction of hazardous fuel levels to improvement of habitat for piping plover, deer, ruffed grouse, cavity-nesters and pollinators.

Road modifications include reconstruction, temporary construction, new construction, conversion of road to OHV trail, and decommissioning. Benefits of these treatments include providing public access to the forest, preserving public access to private lands, providing access to vegetation treatment areas, mitigating resource impacts and maintaining road-density goals identified in the Forest Plan.

Riparian and wetland conservation activities authorized by the decision include riparian structure repair, bank stabilization and sedimentation basin reclamation projects, and culvert replacement. Objectives of these projects include maintenance of cover for fish; restoration of natural stream function, reduced sedimentation, and reclamation of sediment spoils; and reduced erosion and sedimentation from roads and waterways.

There was some public confusion between the Camp Cooks project and another project in the same area. The decision authorizing the development of the multi-use trail was signed on May 25, 2017. The forest is currently working with partners to implement this decision.

Attorney General recovers missing back child support payments

LANSING — Michigan Attorney General Bill Schuette recently announced the Department of Attorney General has recovered a total of $252,567,153 in back child support payments since the Child Support Division's inception in 2003.

"Every parent has a responsibility to support their children to the best of their ability while acting in good faith with the law," said Schuette. "When a parent has the ability to pay child support but refuses to do so, we will work with the proper authorities to hold them accountable for the sake of Michigan's children."

The focus of the Child Support Division is for parents who have the ability to pay child support but refuse to do so. Schuette noted that while Michigan law allows for felony charges in some child support cases, the main goal in this department is to get non-custodial parents to resume regular child support payments. As a result, Michigan children get the resources they deserve.

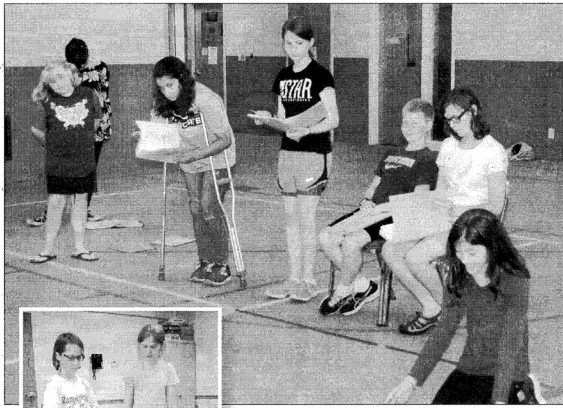

For the Department of Attorney General to get involved with child support cases there must be at least $7,500 in back payments owed and referrals come to the department in various ways. When a case comes to the department it is a 90-day investigation period before action is taken against owed payments.

In addition to recovering funds for Michigan families, the Child Support Division recovers taxpayers' dollars spent to assist needy families when they do not receive the child support they should.

If your child's non-custodial parent has outstanding child support payments, child support complaint filing information is available online. Child Support Division personnel are also available Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at (517) 373-1111.

Pet Owners a celebration caution!

The 4th of July celebrations around the county often alarm pets. Please be mindful of your pets during this time because the loud noises from firecrackers may make them panic and bolt.

Please take care to safely secure your pet in the house, cabin, RV, tent, or in its kennel and/or crate and make sure it is wearing ID tags. If you should lose your pet during the Independence Day festivities, please inform the local animal shelter, leave a description of the animal, the area where the pet was lost, and your name and phone number. We often receive calls during this holiday time from people finding lost and stray animals. Inquire ahead of time if pets are welcome at community celebrations. Don't leave your pet in the car during hot weather. A car can become a furnace in no time even with the windows open and could cause fatal heat stroke to your pet. Also, make sure you travel with fresh water for your pets to keep them hydrated. We wish all of you a safe and happy 4th of July!

All-Star Game announces schedule, teams

MARQUETTE - By now the athletes competing in the U.P. Football All-Star week are well on their way to settling in to their practice routines. Selected to play on the Black team is Manistique senior Kyle Seelye.

Kyle Seelye

Both teams have solidified their personnel and begun to implement their game plans. Some players changed positions, based on the needs of the team, and how their talents might best be utilized. The offenses worked on different packages that would fit best with their individual talent. The defenses began developing plans for stopping the different offensive sets. Each practice saw the teams creating better chemistry and improved execution of their plays. Overall these 80 plus players from throughout the U.P. look like two teams who are practicing for a game on Saturday, not a group of individuals thrown together just a few days ago.

The game will be played in Marquette at the Superior Dome, on June 30. Game time is set for 1 p.m., with the doors opening at noon.

Tuesday evening was Media Day at the Dome and there was much excitement in the air. Players were interviewed and team and individual pictures were taken. It was nice for the media to have access to all the players from throughout the U.P., not just their own local players. On Wednesday afternoon players performed the Skills Challenges. Players competed in the Fastest Man, Strongest Man, Quarterback and Receiver Challenge, as well as Putting and Kicking. This friendly competition lightened the mood for players, who have been intensely focused on their preparation for the game.

Thursday, the players and coaches will be visiting Bay Cliff Health Camp, which has become one of the signature events of All-Star Week. Bay Cliff is a summer camp for children with physical disabilities and the all-star players will spend Friday evening in the U.P. Football All-Star Game camp, showing them football drills, and finishing the day by having dinner with the Bay Cliff campers and staff. After dinner, the players will join the campers in their traditional flag lowering ceremony at the central square, which ends each day at Bay Cliff and is very special to be a part of.

Friday evening is the All-Star Banquet, with the guest speaker to be announced. The banquet provides family and friends a chance to connect with the All-Star players after a long week of practice and activities. It is formal for the players, and they must take turns standing in front of everyone, introducing their roommate for the week, and telling everyone some things about their roommate. Players also get recognized for their accomplishments during the Skills Challenge and receive their All-Star Rings.

The U.P. Football All-Star Game will also be donating proceeds to the following U.P. charities: Beacon House, The U.P. Sports Hall of Fame, as well as Westwood and Menominee High Schools. A lottery drawing was performed to select the two schools, and donations will be made directly to the football program of those schools chosen. Each year, new schools will be chosen until all U.P. schools have received benefits from the game. Several other schools (Bark River-Harris, Gogebic, Ontonagon and West Iron County) will also receive donations in the form of All-Star Game equipment, including the practice jerseys and footballs.

Check out the U.P. Football All-Star Game Facebook page for pictures and more information: <https://www.facebook.com/UPAllStarFootball> or on their website at www.upxcl.net.

Coyote expert Mark Zagger to attend NTA Convention

ESCANABA — The National Trappers Association's Annual Convention/Outdoor Show will be held at the U.P. State Fairgrounds in Escanaba July 26-28.

Among the many famous trappers/outdoor experts attending will be Mark Zagger. He is well-known for his expertise on capturing coyotes.

Using his innovative techniques Zagger (in the last 10 years) averaged 135 coyotes per year with a best of 185 captured in one year. Amazingly, he puts up these kinds of numbers only trapping for three weeks each year.

Zagger began trapping in 1976. He attended college as a wildlife biology student where he closely studied mated pairs of canines at the university station. In 1989, he started his own nuisance wildlife control business in Central New York State.

Zagger gives trapping demos around the USA; he has written many magazine articles and contributed to books related to canine trapping. He also has created "Coyote U," a coyote trapping instructional course.

"The 2018 lineup of presenters just keeps getting better and better," said Doug Zajdel, longtime member of U.P. Trappers District 3. "All of these great demos along with food vendors, sporting goods dealers, tailgaters and interesting items/events for all members of the family make the NTA 59th Annual Convention a "must-see" event for any outdoor enthusiast." Raffles, a free fishing pond (for kids), prizes and other family friendly events will be going on throughout the convention. Dealers will be offering deals on their wares. Camping is available on the grounds.

Hours are 8 a.m. - 6 p.m. each day. Admission is $10 per day or $20 for a three-day pass. Children 12 and under are admitted free. For further information, contact Convention Coordinator Vickie Wright at (231) 907-0977, vwright@nationaltrappers.com or Roy Dahlgren (906) 339-1960 or visit www.uptrappers.com.

Coyote expert Mark Zagger to attend NTA Convention

ESCANABA — The National Trappers Association's Annual Convention/Outdoor Show will be held at the U.P. State Fairgrounds in Escanaba July 26-28.

Among the many famous trappers/outdoor experts attending will be Mark Zagger. He is well-known for his expertise on capturing coyotes.

Using his innovative techniques Zagger (in the last 10 years) averaged 135 coyotes per year with a best of 185 captured in one year. Amazingly, he puts up these kinds of numbers only trapping for three weeks each year.

Zagger began trapping in 1976. He attended college as a wildlife biology student where he closely studied mated pairs of canines at the university station. In 1989, he started his own nuisance wildlife control business in Central New York State.

Zagger gives trapping demos around the USA; he has written many magazine articles and contributed to books related to canine trapping. He also has created Coyote U, a coyote trapping instructional course.

"The 2018 lineup of presenters just keeps getting better and better," said Doug Zajdel, longtime member of U.P. Trappers District 3. "All of these great demos along with food vendors, sporting goods dealers, tailgaters and interesting items/events for all members of the family make the NTA 59th Annual Convention a 'must-see' event for any outdoor enthusiast."

Raffles, a free fishing pond (for kids), prizes and other family friendly events will be going on throughout the convention. Dealers will be offering deals on their wares. Camping is available on the grounds.

Hours are 8 a.m. - 6 p.m. each day. Admission is $10 per day or $20 for a three-day pass. Children 12 and under are admitted free. An estimated 8,000-10,000 outdoor enthusiasts, from all over the country, are expected to attend.

Paws in the parks

As travel trends change, recreational vehicles get larger and modern technologies come to campgrounds, one thing has not changed — love for family pets and including them in daily activities and even vacations.

However, traveling with pets can pose several questions.

Where do you go? What are the rules? How do you keep your pet safe and healthy while on vacation?

Michigan state parks offer some pet-friendly solutions to get you and your pet into Michigan's great outdoors together," said Maia Turek, a Michigan Department of Natural Resources resource development specialist. "Pets are important in the lives of a lot of our park visitors. For many, having to leave a pet at home is like leaving a member of the family at home alone."

Carol Dunstan of Negaunee knows all about this. She's been a campground host at Van Riper State Park in Marquette County for more than a decade. Over those years, she's enjoyed being able to bring her two black Labrador retrievers along to her host campsite at the park.

"I probably wouldn't host if I couldn't," she said. "I'm like most pet owners, they are family."

While the majority of Michigan state parks, harbors, state forests and trails allow pets, there are a few exceptions, such as state buildings. However, there are lodging opportunities, campgrounds, beaches, trails and even events that are pet-friendly.

Pet Rules

• First and foremost, any pet owner should be familiar with pet-friendly rules in state parks:

• Pets must be on a six-foot leash and under your immediate control at all times.

• Always clean up after your pet. • Keep pets from interacting with wildlife.

• Keep pets from disturbing visitors.

• With the exceptions of locations included in the pet-friendly lodging pilot program, pets are not allowed in state buildings, which includes cabins, yurts, offices, teepees and lodges.

In November 2017, a pilot program was launched to designate pet-friendly lodging at several state parks in Michigan. Up to two pets (cats and dogs only) are allowed in overnight lodging accommodations at the following locations:

• Harrisville State Park's mini cabin no. 186

• Lime Island State Recreation Area's mini cabin no. 4

• Leelanau State Park's Hemlock and Cedar mini cabins

• Sleepy Hollow State Park's rustic cabin

• Cheboygan State Park's modern lodge

These cabins and lodges can be booked up to 12 months in advance by calling (800) 447-2757 or visiting www.midtrreservations.com.

The additional fee for your pet is $10 per night for each pet if you are staying in a cabin or $15 per night for each pet if you are staying in a lodge. The above pet-friendly rules still apply.

Dogs should not be left in campers or tied up unattended to prevent barking from negatively affecting the park experience of other visitors.

State Parks and State Forest Campgrounds: In general, pets are permitted in state parks, park campgrounds and state rustic (forest) campgrounds as long as they are on a leash not exceeding six feet in length at all times.

Trails: Pets are welcome on state-designated trails and pathways located in state parks and state forests; however, there are some instances where pets are not allowed. Check trailhead signage to make sure pets are allowed.

Pet-friendly shorelines: Pets are allowed in non-designated bathing beach areas within state parks. Pets are not permitted on designated swimming beach areas. Please note that pets must be kept on a 6-foot leash even if they are in the water.

The following parks offer sections of pet-friendly shorelines. Be sure to check with park staff to use pet-designated areas only.

In the Upper Peninsula, visit Baraga State Park, McLain State Park, Porcupine Mountains Wilderness State Park and Twin Lakes State Park.

For the Lower Peninsula, there's the Brighton Recreation Area, Burt Lake State Park, Dodge No. 4 State Park, Grand Mere State Park, Harrisville State Park, Holland State Park, Holly Recreation Area, Mears State Park, Oscego Lake State Park, Port Crescent State Park, Sleepy Hollow State Park, South Higgins Lake State Park, Tawas Point State Park, Warren Dunes State Park and Young State Park.

From parades and off-road vehicle rides to trick-or-treating, many parks allow pets to join in on the fun of special events — there are even pet-specific events. Check with the park holding an event to see if your pet can participate, and find events at www.michigan.gov/dnr/clelandar.

A prime example of a pet-friendly event is the Outdoor Adventure Center's Dog Days of Summer in Detroit.

"Come to the Outdoor Adventure Center for a day of outdoor fun with your furry best friend," said Linda Walter, the center's director. "We'll have dog-friendly activities set up, including a guided walk along the DeQuindre Cut, 'doggie pools,' and lots of tennis balls and Frisbees."

Typically, travelers always plan what they need to do for their own travel. With a few extra steps, everyone can make sure their pets have a great trip too.

To begin, research pet-friendly locations to find places to stay along your travel route that allow pets. If your pets are not accustomed to traveling, get them ready for the trip by taking them for short rides, increasing the distance or duration to help them get used to the car, truck or recreation vehicle.

Talk with your veterinarian about vaccinations, medications and microchips.

"Certain vaccinations might be recommended, such as Bordetella if you are using a kennel service, vaccines for vector-borne illnesses from insects or preventative medications for fleas and ticks," Turek said. "Microchips can help identify and get your pet home to you if you become separated. For this same reason, make sure your pet has a collar and an identification tag."

Research veterinarians, kennels and boarding facilities in your travel areas. In case of a medical emergency, severe weather, vehicle issues or any other unforeseen problems, you will know who may be able to assist you and your pet ahead of time.

Get copies of medical and vaccination records from your veterinarian.

With a little extra planning and research, taking the family dog, cat, bird or even hamster or lizard to a Michigan state park this season can be easy and fun, while ensuring the whole family is present for those lifelong Dunstan said dogs are the pets most commonly taken to Van Riper State Park, but other animals enjoy the park too.

"I've seen cats out on leashes, just like dogs," she said. "Last year, someone even had a pot-bellied pig."

She said kids staying at the park enjoy visiting with her dogs.

Dunstan hopes state parks will one day have a pet play area where animals can be off their leashes. For now, she's happy to bring her dogs to the park to help her enjoy her role as a campground host, meeting lots of people from all over.

Whether lounging by a campfire, running along a beach, taking a long hike on a secluded trail or a kayaking at sunset, your family pets will love that you brought them with you on your adventures.
