On the 10th the Escanaba Mirror, published by Paul J. Mackenzie, will begin a daily issue. It will be a lively sheet and should be well patronized.
It will be the first attempt for the establishment of a daily paper at Escanaba, and we earnestly hope for its success.

There is a great deal of superstitious belief in the minds of the people of this village, and it is not surprising that they will do this winter. Judging from what they did for a year past we are ready to conclude that they will continue until the end, March 4th, in doing nothing. Then it will end its childish existence.

During next week or the week following two representatives of the Majestic Manufacturing Co., of St. Louis, Mo., will be glad to make money through the magnanimous offer therein made.

Thanks for a friendly call Thursday from Mr. Ed. Wright of Menasha, Wis. Mr. Wright will be remembered as being here several years ago connected with the W. L. Co. store and last a host of friends in this village. He is now traveling for a Duluth shoe house. He fully understands his business.

Kolb took the oath of office Saturday as governor of Alabama, but failed to go to office as that is held by Mr. Oates, who also took the oath before, and is recognized by the legislature of that state. Kolb did not attempt to enter the official building, and his inauguration speech to the people is from an open wagon.

Collections are now taken up for almost any and every object that can be suggested. At one time you could recently see one man soliciting relief for the Armenians, another for the Turkish soldiers, and still another to secure funds for the purchase of buying his "best girl" a pair of skates. So we go.

The jury in the Marvin case of Detroit, after being out 18 hours, failed to agree, came into court and so resulted of the jury stood from first to last six for acquittal and six for conviction. Three of the counts were stricken out and the plea of not guilty entered before the jury retired to consider the balance.

There will be a grand display of magpie stock during the hardware store of the C. L. Co. The Majestic Mfg Co., St. Louis, make a specialty of steel rings which have been proven second to none in the market. A ring will be in use at the store to show its baking qualities, etc. The ladies have an invitation to call and see the stoves, and partake of hot biscuits and coffee.

The message of President Cleveland is a very tame affair, further than the reference to the war department which was accompanied it. He is evidently discouraged and has lost his fighting temper and while theodoni-anism is long it cannot be said to be aggressive, as was his "My Polity" message of 1887. He does, however, want iron and coal put on the free list. He refers to the recent bond in-surrender, but does not state the fact that there is a change of policy other issue must soon follow. Many will read that message through carefully, if for nothing more than to ascertain in just what particular the "old man" facts the cover. That mesage will hardly furnish us new text for congress to work on.

Miss Cox, having rented the Kinball studio, will be pleased to receive any visiting instructions in hand painting or retouching. She will also do decorative work under at reasonable prices, and will take orders for photo and platinum copies and enlargements, portraits in crayon, ink and water colors, pastel and oil.
There are several thousand very fine negatives, left by Mr. Kinball and Mr. Howard, from which duplicates may be had of superior quality and at reduced prices.

Attempt to Break Jail.
On Thursday, Hugh Hayden, turkey plut at the jail, discovered a plot, which he successfully carried out, would exclude him from the jail for inmates.
The plans were to saw off some of the bars with saws imported from two escapees that they had secured from the jail. Hayden was in the cell, and was held in a sick bed, and taken from him the keys, unlock the doors of the cells and thus insure a general jail delivery. When discovered by the warden and his warden nearly so, and in a short time the hole for Fluette would have been completed. Mr. Hayden watched the progress of events until satisfied of their intention and then, with others, exploded the whole scheme, searched every prisoner and made such arrangements as will keep the birds until needed in court next week.
It was a bold attempt and backed up by numerous intentions but thanks to the brave turkey it proved a defect and a failure. There has been been hard cases in that jail for some years, but at no time has there been more careful watching than the company in there at the present time. As reported to us Fluette has his headquarters in the persons of Cristian and Sutton, the gladiators out laws, but no proof that other prisons were assisting.

Fluette, since his sawing business turned out to be a failure, has employed himself first by making bed quilts and making rope to hang himself and letting his lead against the walls of his cell for the purpose of escaping by means of a hole. A general slaughter of Manistique has been planned, but has failed on account of the watchfulness and bravery of the jailer—Mr. Huby Hayden.

At Rest.
NORTH STAR, Mich., Dec. 5, 1894.
DEAR FRIENDS—To-day we have endured the funeral of my father, Wm.
Y. Brown, who died at his home Monday morning at 5:30 o'clock, after a painful illness of nearly seventeen months. Father was born in the state of Massachusetts on April 23, 1815 and therefore was nearly 80 years old. He came to this country and settled on the farm, where he died, in March, 1893, then an unbroken forest, was always a very strong robust man and very fond of hunting and fishing which sports helped greatly to lighten his pioneer life. When the call for troops was made his two oldest sons responded; one, young Cox, did not return, but sleeps in a soldier's grave in the south. This was a hard blow, but father bore it bravely and called on until four years ago two of his younger sons were sent to him to return and settled to death, by the explosion of a steam boiler in a stove factory. Since that time he has been filling in healthily and vigor. He was buried in the Hataca lodge of F. & A. M., of which he was a member. I expect to return home to Manistique as soon as his affairs are settled; probably about March 15th. Our best wishes to all our friends.

Yours in P. C. & L.
E. W. Brown.

Ledette's "No Limit" cigars was a winner and it is really very popular with smokers.

Obituary.
Michael S. Madden died early in this village on November 22, 1894. He retired Sunday evening, feeling quite unwell, and a few days later he died at 2 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Madden was born in Frisville, Pa., and his age was 58 years and 29 days. At the breaking out of the war, on Aug. 31, 1862 he enlisted in the 107 Reg. U. S. Vol as a private. He served his country nearly three years and was mustered out June 5th, 1865. After discharge he moved to Harrisville, Mich; where he resided for over 20 years; he was a member of Harrisville Lodge No. 218, I. O. of F., of which organization he belonged some sixteen years. Mr. Madden was a first-class millwright as well as a skillful engineer.
He was a handy man with any kind of tools and his handiwork can be seen on every hand in this village. He worked for the Corbels for many years in Harrisville, and when they came to Skanooka he followed them and he followed them here, where he has resided continually, with the exception of a short time he was employed in a sawmill in Oregon. Mr. Madden was married June 12, 1859, and they had seven children, three of whom, Mr.
Frank J., of Manistique, Mich., Mr.
Eugene J., and Mrs. Allison Haney, of this village, are now living.

The funeral took place from the family residence, Tuesday morning.
Mr. Madden had many friends and the house could not hold the many who assembled to pay a last farewell to their old friend. Rev.
John Tonking, of the M. E. church, preached an impressive funeral sermon, and three beautiful songs were sung by the choir. The local brothers of the I. O. of F. then took charge of the funeral and the remains were interred in the Middle Valley cemetery. The pall bearers were Elias Cornell, P. J. Burnham, David Cady, I. N. Lott, A. T. Johnson, J. W. Gilmore. A number of beautiful floral pieces were presented by the ladies.
Mrs. Madden and her children bore the sincere sympathy of the people of this village in their bereavement.— Skanooka Eagle.

If you smoke at all, buy no other but the "No Limit" Ledette's brand.

Failure as a Butcher.
At Clemons, Klagstad & Co.'s lunching camp, a very laughable incident occurred on the 4th. The cook took the job of a butcher, but for some-son or another, I guess he could not see straight and hit one blow too high and the other too low when the poor ox thought it was time to go home to the "country." Ox was so much surprised that the ox did not drop, he could not run until the ox got about ten rods the start of him. He took after him and if he did not have the muscle he has the lungs. Anyway the man worked about two miles from camp, and they thought Cox's "stop" was coming—some hollow "stop" was by the camp. It took a crew of seven men to get him back, and the "pud" —William Clemons, thought he would get his hand with a new rifle he had bought him the first crack, and there was Nels right on top with the knife ready to finish him, for fear that he might run again. Nevertheless, Nels has preserved the ox which he used to bindhold the ox with, for at least one year. He is still and we hope very much that Nels will have better luck.

One of the inevitable and dire fruits of "hard times" is the increasing boldness and number of robberies and highway crimes.

Rio Janeiro advices state that cholera has appeared in various parts of the state of Rio Janeiro and Paulo. The disease causes death in a few hours and doctors are undecided whether it is cholera or a new type of yellow fever.

Stand by home-made industries. (In the United States.) Purchase home-made goods in preference to all others. If your regular dealer does not keep the home-made article in stock, go to some merchant who does. Boycott all foreign made goods of every description.

This is to be a terribly sleazy season. The bigger sleeves are the better, and yet one dreads to think of the smashing they will get in crowds not considerate of their symmetrical proportions. But don't say anything! Be thankful the dear girls who give the cold shake to the muck-dusted crinoline. You can sit down to her in spite of her big sleeves, while with that other-gravating freak of fashion you never could.

Miss Frances E. Willard hastens to assure the public through the Boston Journal, that the recent W. C. T. U. convention did not condemn Mrs. Grover Cleveland for breaking a bottle of wine over the bows of the St. Louis in christening that splendid ship. The convention, in fact, took no official action in regard to it, nor was it mentioned in any public address, although some of the delegates may have alluded to it in private conversation. This explanation is to the credit of the W. C. T. U.

A stranger comes to town, and one person gives him a bad account of one prominent citizen; another abuses some another resident; another speaks ill of one church; somebody else slanders another; and so on until there is some one to abuse and deery everything and everybody in the village. Did you ever think about how much harm is done your town in this way? The next coming must die, or conclude that his informants are untruthful or that he has come to a very bad place. Let's have charity, and see if we can't discover some good qualities in our neighbors to recite when occasion offers.—Ex.

Two features of Postmaster General Blood's report are his opposition to the postal telegraph scheme and his recommendation for a revision of the law relating to second-class matter. Under this law newspapers and periodicals of general circulation register as second-class matter and thereby secure a postage rate of 1 cent per pound. But the postmaster general thinks that advantage is taken of the provision by many pretended publications, and says that if proper rules were enforced and the periodicals not improperly enjoying the low postal rate cut off, the receipt of the department would equal the expenditures and the legitimate newspaper and magazines might be transmitted through the mails from the publishers in the hands of subscribers free of cost.

A Sailor's Complaint. A man-of-war was lying off Gibraltar and permission was given to the men to go ashore for the day. The sailors landed themselves in various ways, among others by riding about on donkeys and their want of experience in this line caused much merriment. An officer observing one of the men sitting far back on the animal, instead of in the usual position, called out: "Levy, Jack, got up more amideh!"

With an injured air he replied: "Well, sir, this is the first craft that I ever commanded in my life, and its hard, indeed, if I can't ride on the quarter-deck if I like."—Tid-bits.

A married man wails thus: "Nothing maddens me more than to attempt to read the paper to my wife. 'I'll sit down and begin—it's always something interesting—and she'll scold for a minute or two. Then she will raise and say: 'Go right ahead, dear. I can hear every word.' 'Then she'll prance into the next room and tinkle and tinkle with thing on the mantel or the bureau while I raise my voice and have to roar out some earnest discourse in a moral condition of the blood. Lactic acid, caused by the decomposition of the ptomaines and albuminous tissues, circulates with the blood and attacks the fine nerve tissues, particularly in the joints, and thus causes the local manifestations of the disease. The back and shoulders are the parts usually affected by rheumatism, and the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists are also sometimes attacked. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism.' It has had a remarkable success in curing the most severe cases. The secret of its success lies in the fact that it attacks at once the cause of the disease by neutralizing the lactic acid and purifying the blood, as well as strengthening every function of the body.

The National Grange adopted a resolution protesting against class legislation. The next meeting will be held in New England. When Others Fall Hood's Sarsaparilla binds up the shattered system by giving vigorous action to the digestive organs, creating appetite and purifying the blood. It is prepared by modern methods, possesses the greatest curative powers, and has the most wonderful record of actual cures of any medicine in existence. Take only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25c. The largest family in the world is that of the King of Siam: His majesty has two official wives, eighty-eight wives of minor order and seventy-two children. Salt rheum with its intense itching, dry, hot skin is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it purifies the blood.

Test cases have been commenced against the United States by cut grass growers, whose property was cut off by the new tariff bill.

Marrowless Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the result was almost marvellous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding a gripe. Terrible symptoms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in its results. Little bottles for sale at A. S. Putnam & Co's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.

The new $5 silver certificate is to have a picture of an angel on it. Money files sufficiently fast, however, without giving it additional wings.

The Pains of Rheumatism. According to the best authorities, one of the most morbid conditions of the blood. Lactic acid, caused by the decomposition of the ptomaines and albuminous tissues, circulates with the blood and attacks the fine nerve tissues, particularly in the joints, and thus causes the local manifestations of the disease. The back and shoulders are the parts usually affected by rheumatism, and the joints at the knees, ankles, hips and wrists are also sometimes attacked. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism. It has had a remarkable success in curing the most severe cases.

The secret of its success lies in the fact that it attacks at once the cause of the disease by neutralizing the lactic acid and purifying the blood, as well as strengthening every function of the body.

When Others Fall Hood's Sarsaparilla binds up the shattered system by giving vigorous action to the digestive organs, creating appetite and purifying the blood. It is prepared by modern methods, possesses the greatest curative powers, and has the most wonderful record of actual cures of any medicine in existence. Take only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or gripe. 25c. The largest family in the world is that of the King of Siam: His majesty has two official wives, eighty-eight wives of minor order and seventy-two children. Salt rheum with its intense itching, dry, hot skin is cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it purifies the blood.

Marrowless Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding a gripe. Terrible symptoms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. Poor Health No Appetite Neuralgia - Very Miserable Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Cough Health.

"C. J. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'About one year ago I was in very poor health and had no appetite. I could not work for I did not have any energy. I was suffering with neuralgia and the pain was intensified by my being kicked by a horse. At length I was very miserable and had taken every medicine, but it did me no good. Finally I found an advertisement of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the Christian Science Monitor, and I bought a bottle of the medicine. When I had emptied the bottle my appetite was quite good and I was a Good Deal Stronger. I therefore kept on until I had taken three bottles. By that time I was well, and my weight had increased to 150 pounds. Mrs. SARAH B. YOUNG, White, Michigan. Hood's Pills can constitute by reason of their purgative action of the alimentary canal."

It has been previously announced, we are here, as a result of the fact that you would hardly recognize him. The American people are never slow to crowd their clannishness, which fact we are pleased to note, but there is always some one to spring in between the real hero and an admiring public and point to the fallen enemy and shout: "Look at me! Just see what I have done. Can't you see it was I, I, I who did this?" Morris do not be deceived, he stand by your true friends, Semi-Weekly Pioneer.

A business trip called H. DeWitt to Manistowic, Mich. W. Gray advances more content of mind since he finished the tax rolls.

A resolution building without a master found its way to N. M. Donald's clubhouse. The "Pioneer" and the "Pioneer" for the sake of the "Pioneer".

A friend of the "Pioneer" brings a peculiar direction from our own citizens concerning a desire for being a real railroad official. Being a general manager of a passenger line requires considerable study, though as a while being a real railroad official would certainly be good.

As a monarch, A. C. Yoder is a day by day found in his temple of learning enlightening the "Pioneer" with his many people which may some day advance the people to useful avenues in life, but we are pleased to say that he occasionally visits our neighboring city to furnish assistance to our people.

Dr. J. E. Hartman was seriously hurt Thanksgiving night, while riding a rapidly moving freight train. A leg was broken. Dr. J. E. Hartman to the aid of the sufferer. Upon examination the doctor found seven wounds in his leg. The leg was washed to be kept in each wound. He is also hurt internally. Although the doctor's skill made the patient feel as comfortable as possible, his fears were not overdone. The leg was washed, but at this writing he is doing well.

Thanksgiving night an assembly of friends gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gorman, and celebrated the day. The evening was spent at a very pleasant time until the eleventh hour, announced that a heavy deluge had fallen in the adjoining town was in readiness, which demanded attention. After a few moments of the morning knives all seemed to be busily engaged. After supper was served a few moments were taken up in extending compliments to the host and hostess. Then to the singing was added and under the leadership of the merry minstrel, the evening was brought to a happy and successful close.

When will a man weigh more on Standard scales than on the Bull Scales?

When will the road to the model farm sign?

When will people believe a pump pulling can be made of raisins?

When will our citizens congregate to disperse as friends should?

When will Paul learn to know "his net all gold that glitter?"

When a crank can lay an idea, a matter of powder and powder can hatch 'em out.

To the Public: Having long experienced the credit system a bad way of doing business both for the buyer and seller, we the undersigned butchers of Manistowic will adopt the cash system on Jan. 1, 1895, and beginning with that date will sell strictly for cash. By so doing we can sell our meats as usually profit as we will have no bad accounts or large balance on our books. We thank our many customers for the liberal patronage they have given us in the past and kindly ask for a continuance in the future under our new system. Cash only.

The church is a voluntary association of private individuals, and however important the existence of such voluntary associations to the public good and the progress of the state should not lead the church to any other aid save that which it provides for all other private associations, protection to do its work as long as its course enables it to do this. Exemplifying church property from taxation amounts to aid extended. The sum thus remitted is a burden upon all citizens alike, church-goers and un-church-goers, theists and infidels. It is but a disguised expedient to force the irreligious (in the formal sense of the word) to help support religion. That this is an injustice in itself and an anomaly under our system of government is patent. The religious are vitally concerned in discountenancing that snafu of an alliance or union between church and state.

There be those who are of the opinion that the jagged, gaping hole they will be made in the treasury never can be filled; but, if they are ever able to look back from the "other shore," they will need glasses to find the hole. Handsome is as handsome behaves itself. C.C.

ONE PRICE STORE. Until Christmas we make a perfect crusade on the prices of every article in our mammoth store. Our stock must be peremptorily reduced. We take the loss now rather than wait until stock taking.

This is indeed the buyers golden opportunity. Those who have held back from buying until now will be well rewarded by learning our low prices.
