OFFICIAL COUNTY AND CITY PAPER

FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1910

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

An angel is able to fly without the aid of a gasoline engine.

These "hottest days in the history of Manistique" come with such frequency now that the oldest inhabitant is becoming bewildered.

Congressman Young opened his campaign in Menominee county last week where he addressed the thousands assembled at a grand picnic. He was enthusiastically greeted and made a very favorable impression.

How little we know about one another. A Manistique man who is supposed to be a chronic tightwad gave away the aggregate incomes of a half dozen men to worthy objects and made no fuss about it either last year.

The public drinking fountain has become such a valuable convenience to horses that it is hoped that some person or society will make a more toward installing two more. The west side needs one and another should be placed on Oak street.

Baldwin of the Escanaba Journal, has embarked on more than one thankless job in his newspaper career, but the one he is at present engaged in is the most hopeful of all. He is touring the upper peninsula in behalf of Musselman's candidacy.

There will come a time when Manistique will be compelled to dispose of its sewerage in some other manner than by dumping it into the lake. The government is becoming interested in the matter and in the end the pollution of the waters of Lake Michigan will no longer be permitted.

Many places where Chase S. Osborn speaks in the lower peninsula, the halls become so overcrowded and so many are unable to hear him that he is compelled to speak in the open air. No candidate for the high honor has ever received the ovation thus far accorded Chase by the inhabitants below the straits.

Manistique citizens will have an opportunity of celebrating the Fourth of July either with the Grangers at the Gun Club grounds, or at Hiawatha this year. If one day is not sufficient, they can go to Cooks tomorrow where celebration and ball game is scheduled. This is the first time in many years that Manistique has not celebrated the Fourth.

It will be keenly regretted by this community that Mr. Sam Winkelman has decided to leave Manistique. He was considered one of the city's foremost business men. He had modern ideas and the ability to carry them out. Wherever he goes he will carry with him a wealth of good wishes from friends that will be ever pleased to learn of his success.

No section of the globe can boast as its pleasant nights as those the citizens along the northern shore of Lake Michigan are enjoying at the present time. The temperature is perfect for comfort and the air invigorating. The person that would leave Manistique at the present time for the shores of the Mediterranean and enthuse over the beauties of a night on the bay of Naples is the sort of person that would prefer a German carp or a chubb to a whitefish or a speckled trout. If you really desire to enjoy a climate that cannot be surpassed anywhere on the face of the globe, you must come to Manistique, in the good old summer time.

Beware of the politician that promises much, when he is campaigning. He wants the job and the honor that goes with it, and he is willing to exhaust an extensive vocabulary in order to impress the hearer with his worth. In such a case, study well the record of the official he claims to support. A study of Congressman Young's record in congress will lead the voter to but one conclusion, viz: that he should not be appointed by a hot air artist who is long on promises, and whose record for faithfulness looks like the attendance card of a chronic truant. A man that proves recreant in little responsibilities should never be entrusted with graver ones. Young has been tried and not found wanting and until this district brings out better number than Kay, it is safe to say that Young will hold the political position for an indefinite period.

If you are it arranges, pay up.

A new fashionable shade in coffee. Ideal. Salt or haker powder?

Half the girls miss getting the man they love, but they get the one that loves them, and that is the best thing.

One third of the entire Jewish population of the world is in New York City. Every fourth person you meet is a Jew.

If you are not a Pioneer-Tribune subscriber send in 50 cents and you will receive it until January 1st, 1911. At less than two cents per week, you cannot afford to be without it.

One of the local veterans of the Rebellion stated Monday that no veteran in Schoolcraft county would be so ungrateful as to vote against Congressman Young at the primaries. He has proven himself the true friend of the soldier.

A drunken lunk that refused to accede to the request of the chief of police to leave the city, was compelled to work on the streets for several days and in consequence the city is ahead several dollars. Why not compel all city prisoners to do the same thing?

That some sections of the world are not enlightened to the extent that they should be, it is only necessary to state that a number of Baptist ministers in Italy were set up and narrowly escaped hanging because the populace believed that they were responsible for an earthquake.

Auditor General Fuller will have no opposition for a renomination. Rarely it is that a public official does his work so satisfactorily that he is honored in such a manner. Fuller has injected business methods into the conduct of the office, and has made the best auditor general in the history of the state.

The average citizen is wiser than he does not care to think. He knows whether the nigger whips Jeffries or whether Jeffries knocks the nigger's block off, but nevertheless, he will want the bulletin boards July 4th, just to ascertain how it did out for his neighbor and him to ascertain the result and inform him on his way home.

A resume of work accomplished by congress, the session of which closed Saturday, shows that Taft accomplished more than any president has been able to accomplish in years, and no fuss was kicked up either. Taft will go down in history as a good president—one that has redeemed the party pledges to a remarkable degree.

The river and harbor bill has been signed by the president and Manistique may soon expect activity about the docks. The citizens of Manistique will ever forget that it was mainly through Congressman Young's efforts that a liberal appropriation was secured for Manistique's harbor and will give him their endorsement at the primaries in September.

That the bonds of fraternity are strong, it is only necessary for us to cite a case that occurred at Milwaukee, this week. Two members of the Masonic fraternity were working in the vicinity of a vat of liquor carbon. One accidentally fell in. The other leaped in after him and after three trials he brought the lifeless body of his brother out, but was in such a state that his life almost paid the forfeit of his devotion to his brother.

In our news columns appears a lengthy account of the marriage of Mr. Geo. J. Nicholson and Miss Blanche Mahar, clipped from a Ft. Dodge, Iowa, newspaper. The groom is one of Manistique's best young business men. He is a native of Manistique and is identified with one of our leading business enterprises in a position of responsibility. After leaving college, he decided to enter upon a business career and began at the bottom. He has proven his worth and ability and has made good. The article is well known in local society circles, having spent the past few summers at the resort of friends at Oronokumack resort. That she will be a decided acquisition to Manistique's social circles, goes without saying. The newly wedded couple have the best wishes of a host of friends.

After an absence of a few years, Mr. Moss Blumrosen has decided to again become a resident of Manistique and will reengage in the mercantile business at his old stand in the Blumrosen block and will take over the business that has been so ably conducted by Mr. Sam Winkelman for the past few years. Mr. Blumrosen was Manistique's first merchant, outside of the company's store and was in business continuously for more than a quarter century, prior to his removal to Detroit. He is a powerful factor in Manistique's commercial life in the past, and has always believed in Manistique and its future. He owns a number of brick blocks on Cedar street, and his determination to again become a permanent resident of the city, emphasizes the fact that he thinks Manistique the equal if not the superior of other cities, as a place for a permanent location. His determination to again become a resident of the city will be hailed with delight in all circles.

Manistique needs a public park. The city has reached the stage that it has residents that have reached the sun-bleached life and that are no longer able to engage in its activities. They need a place to while away the hours. Then, too, the children need a play ground, and the hard working citizen really would enjoy taking his family out to a park on Sunday afternoon, and there spend the time storing up energy for the week's work ahead. A city without a park is really a back number. The "driving park" should be begged, borrowed or stolen from the present owners and converted into a breathing spa for the citizens of Manistique. Its location is ideal and it really horses when it could be easily converted into a play ground for human beings. Manistique is gradually realizing the fact that it is a permanent proposition. The large number of shade trees, shrubbery and well kept lawns silently attest to that. Its citizens, in years gone by were not so firmly impressed with that idea as the present generation of Manistique would have been a city beautiful two decades ago. Future generations will regret the sheer thoughtlessness of those who are living today, for not providing a park. There is an opportunity for some one that has made his fortune in Manistique to immortalize his name by donating a desirable tract to the city for park purposes.

IT'S WELL KNOWN

It is well known fact that now a day to have that home free from disease germs, the source of which is the lavatory and bathroom, you must have absolutely sanitary fittings in the rooms.

Modern plumbing has reduced to nil the chances of breeding dangerous disease germs such as typhoid, typhus, etc., where approved apparatus is installed.

The cost of installation is not large, the both, inconspicuous, etc. practically insignificant. Secure our Figures.

THE 1910 CLASS POEM

BY

DOROTHY K. MIDDLEBROOK

Should you ask me, whence these stories
When these jokes and revelations
Telling of our class so true,
Of our private doings,
Of our happy school life,
Of our funny reputations,
Caused by well known occupations,
And of habits formed by each one,
I should answer, I should tell you—
From the school and from the school ground,
From our joys and from our sorrows,
From vacations, short and longed for,
From too late and gymnasium,
Where all of us spent in school,
I repeat them as I heard them
From the lips of Gossip, Henshaw,
Who oft wounds tho' never meaning,
Should you ask where these same Gossips
Found these stories strange and varied,
Found these queer and many fancies,
I should answer, I should tell you,
From the notes oft thrown in school hours,
In each slight of hand performance,
In the whispering voice and muffled,
In the hushed walk then later,
At this time of graduation,
Of the class of 1910
I will introduce my classmates,
Introduce their faults and virtues,
Introduce them as they are,
To my sympathetic hearers,
Gladly then we turn and scan them—
First of us attract attention
Gilbert Aronson, tho' slightly,
Leader of our class we made him,
Fine in foot ball, great gum-chewer,
Acting up and quite unable
To conceal his guilt from teachers
Quickly blushing in confusion,
Blushing red o'er deeds detected,
Knowing tho' his lessons studied—
Such a boy is great, tall Gilbert,
Eats cones Hanzel, nicknamed Wickwiro,
Speaking words so low and tender
Sweet and gentle in this maiden,
Sweet and quiet in the school room,
Sweet and noisy at the ball game;
You can see her wearing pennant,
Always rooting for the home team,
Waving, cheering or deploring
As she looks on gain or failure,
While we introduce sports athletic
Let me introduce Leonard,
Let me introduce our champion;
Dread of Gladstone thro' her powers
In the game of basket ball,
When we lose we never blame her—
Never blame Leonard's teacher,
Herman next appears before us,
May I call him Romeo?
Handsome as that ancient lover,
Skilled in saying famous nothings,
He is welcomed everywhere,
He now plays upon our ball team,
Plays upon our noble ball team,
Dressed in all his foot ball splendour,
Bravely facing foot ball warriors,
Gladly jumping on their faces
Stamping out their manly beauty,
Breaking noses, arms and fingers,
Bill "Comel" is tender,
Anna Danielson the faithful,
Follows Herman on my list;
Need I speak of all her virtues?
Can you tell at once perceive them?
I would take quite all my poem
Should I try to mention all,
Beda, business-like but modest,
Now will make the Highlands famous,
Has she not in three years' period
Done the work we have in four years,
Done it so she gets but praise?
I could tell of ball games also,
But alas, she is so modest,
Blanche the fair and Blanche the charming,
Grests us ever with a smile,
Grests us with a witty greeting,
Next year far off Smith will claim her
To his joy and to our sorrow;
Would she could divide with us then—
Send on but her brains to claim them,
Leave the rest to make us happy,
Who would think that Edith Johnson
Edith ever gay and happy,
Edith ever bright and cheerful,
Ever had a trial or trouble,
Ever had a serious illness?
We admire her for her bravery
During that and in school later,
But it makes us truly sorry
When we think about an instance
When she grew quite too ambitious,
When she changed her name to suit her
Changed to E. J. J. to suit her,
In the forest in the summer, in the city in the winter
Expert swimmer in the summer, expert student
In the winter,
Now we come to Gertrud Johnson
He is it who seems so cheerful
Yet with all his gloomy aspects,
For despite his glad expression
He does love the margin to frequent
If he keeps up this strange fancy
I for one won't make the motion,
That when death doth claim this gathering—
Gathering of this class of wonders,
We do each remember the
Bodies that we need no longer,
As a starter for a business,
Business that will bring him profit,
Ellen now claims our attention,
Ellen, blessed by all the Muse,
She will go to college next year,
When again to home returning
Will she teach the heavy youngsters?
If she does I sometimes wonder
With what word she will chastise them,
Will she use the olive branch,
Or the stern hand, or the
Or the steady military stick?
Now at last I've reached conviction
On that subject so common one,
She will surely use the Birch rod

Long so trusty, tried and supple,
Now we come to William Gulman;
He the source of funny speeches,
He the diplomat lawyer,
He the actor of distinction
When he made his first appearance
At the school house years ago
He did haste into his teacher's
Pushed aside his waiting comrades,
Said "My name is William Gulman"
And I've come to school, by jumpin'
Ah how true was his statement
He has come by jumpin' o'er since,
Let me speak a word of Mary,
Of our merry, cheery Mary
Once she was so plump and luscious
That all marvelled who beheld her,
That all came again to view her,
Now dear people please believe me
I'm forced to show a picture
Of our slender "beauties" Mary
E're she grew so very Rozealike,
Alfred fits his surname too
Quite as well as happy Mary
He's Lallole in face and nature
And the fates smile on him too,
In his distant, happy childhood
Not so very distant either,
He did find a can of powder,
Can of such excellent powder
No fire cracker would come from it,
So he made a fuse of leather,
Lit it then and near it squatted,
When his comrades four or five
Then at last the powder went off,
Went off with a mighty clamor,
No'er was seen by Lallole Alfred,
Lallole Alfred o'er so lucky
Let me here introduce you
To a girl who's wit and humor—
Evelyn Ross I now refer to,
She, it is who oft in letting
Loose, then dash and the winner
Divy up his box of candy
From a gathering of her school friends
Comes such laughter, sweet and singing,
Comes such sharp and clever anding,
That we know at once 'tis Evelyn,
Who has such a great an' upsur,
Mostest is our Alton Norton
Modest as a flower of spring time,
Modest as a lark in melody,
One would never think that Alton
Had a powerful tone voice,
Yet 'tis true and all do adore,
Who with us is always smiling,
Always smiling and contented,
No'er from Alton can be parted
Joseph Weber, nicknamed Joe,
He's the one who has class spirit;
He's the one who shows it proudly;
Even in his own and modesty,
Does he flaunt our shrewd colors
Flaunt our colors, brave and gay,
Who with us is always smiling,
Always smiling and contented,
Who, in truth, but Argus Olsen
Could deserve such praise as this?
He has faults but also virtues
And the latter bent the former
What if he does win and sing?
What if he play catch in school hours?
Surely these sins cannot balance
His eternal smile and wisdom,
Look and marvel at our Oscar
Nicknamed now Prof. Peterson,
He's the one who knows his lessons;
He's the one who thus wins honors;
He's the teacher's pride and joy,
Oscar never thinks of blushing,
He inspires us all with awe;
But despite this, he's not haughty,
Could not, would not o'er be haughty
Scarcely a mile from Seal Chalk Lighthouse
Lives our Gladys Gundersen, dear
Selschwa as she weak pronounce it
Means last wish, she oft declares,
Let me ask of you kind listeners,
Let me ask you grave and earnest,
If our Gladys likes her island
Would not satisfy our fancies,
Would not fill us all with pride;
Let us turn from sports athletic,
Let us turn from wisdom deep
And find still another virtue,
Still another one worth praising,
If you look at Alva Sandberg
You will find this trait in her
True she always knows her lessons
But she cooks almost as well
And she sets great store by sewing—
Fifteen is she for good housewives
For good housewives is a rare trait
Jack MacNaughton, once a sailor,
Sailor on the Big-Sea-water,
Brave and gay and always cheerful,
Is the one whom each one thinks of
When they sing that ancient code,
Sing that ancient time worn code
When Jack comes home again,
He is great in dancing also,
Calls a reel quite with the best,
Dances two steps with great gusto,
Is a witty brilliant talker,
Let me speak in fond remembrance
Of one whom we once held dear,
Once held dear for many reasons,
Shy and modest Esther Knudsen,
She was liked by all her classmates
And she always did her best;
Did her best e'en till death claimed her,
Claimed her for her final rest,
We are told that we are leaving
All this happy life behind us;
That our class is sadly parting
On this glorious June day,
But we simply won't be gloomy
As 'tis quite the style to be,
For we think we've done our duty
To the people yet to come,
Have we not trained up a brilliant
Staff of teachers proper?
We have taught their skills and methods
Which they've never known before,
So we've surely done our duty,
As we think it is at least;
We've often in the future
You shall hear of us still gaining,
Maybe you will think it greater—
Think the 1910 class greater—
Than you ever did before,
But when ever the future calls us
We will try to go right gladly,
Gladly the our lots be humble;
Gladly the our place be higher;
We reach the goal we strive for
Till success shall crown our efforts
Crown our efforts one and all.

COPPER COUNTRY IS SOLID

Osborn Will Receive a Tremendous Majority in the Copper Country.

A Hancock dispatch says: The voters of the copper country of Michigan appear to be taking much more interest in the coming gubernatorial campaign than they have in any similar contest for years. This fact is largely due to the candidacy of Hon. Chas. S. Osborn, of Sault Ste. Marie for the office of chief executive of the state. For a long time the citizens of this important part of the state have felt it necessary to droop by the state in its political affairs. But few men of the upper peninsula have been given the recognition desired. Although Mr. Osborn is not from the copper country he is an upper peninsula man and people here feel that he will work for the best interests of the whole peninsula if elected. This is one reason why Mr. Osborn is wanted in the governor's chair.

The copper country known as the copper country comprises the counties of Houghton, Keweenaw, Benoni and Ontonagon. Throughout all a district the sentiment of the republicans is for Osborn. In fact the majority of the voters do not know what to support. Mr. Osborn in his other men are in the race. Every town of these four counties have organized clubs known as Osborn clubs, composed of republicans who have sworn to support Mr. Osborn in his candidacy. The members of these clubs make it their business to tell all the voters of the work of Mr. Osborn, explain his platform, which is known to be the best. Every instance for enrollment and voting at the primary elections. With hundreds of men working for him Mr. Osborn will have the greatest majority in the copper country any Michigan gubernatorial candidate ever secured. The district is solid for the Osborn man.

The republican party in the copper country is continually growing stronger and the increase in the strength of this party means the increase in the support of Mr. Osborn. Nationalities have taken it upon themselves to instruct aliens in proceedings to secure citizenship papers. When made a citizen the man is immediately made republican.

KERR'S RECORD

Shows that He is Not and Never Has Been the Peoples' Friend. IS MAKING MANY PROMISES.

Part Record in the Legislature is One His

Gen. H. O. Young having given to the people of the 12th congressional district a full history of his official acts during his legislative career, it is but fair that the legislative record of his opponent, Hon. Angus Kerr, should be reviewed that the official acts of the two men may be compared and the people be thus put in position to judge which has been the representative of the people.

Mr. Kerr was elected to the legislature in the fall of 1898 and took his seat in that body that convened at Lansing, Jan. 1, 1899.

Mr. Kerr's Attitude on Railroad Taxation.

"It was at the time that Hazen S. Pingree was carrying on his great battle for equal taxation of railroads. The average rate of taxation on the general property of the state was not far from 2 1/2 cents on the dollar, and corporations that were taxed on their earnings were paying about 6-10 of 1 per cent.

A bill known as the Atkinson bill was introduced in the legislature in 1897 to remedy this injustice but failed to pass the senate. A similar bill was introduced in the 1899 legislature (of which Mr. Kerr was a member) the first session providing for a state tax commission and other sections of the bill providing for an ad valorem assessment of railroad, express, telephone and telegraph companies.

The regular railroad committee was known to be adverse to the bill and to refer it to that committee meant to kill it.

Mr. Kerr, on Jan. 12, voted to refer the bill to the railroad committee and voted against referring it to a special committee which would be favorable to it.

On Feb. 28, 1899, a motion was made to take the said bill from the table.

MR. KERR VOTED AGAINST THE MOTION.

The bill was then placed upon its second reading.

MR. KERR VOTED AGAINST THE BILL.

To test the constitutionality of the bill, Mr. Pingree had a bill brought in the next session and the law was declared unconstitutional. Governor Pingree called the attention of the legislature to the decision and asked that a law along the lines of the Atkinson bill be provided, the unconstitutional features of the latter being removed.

Mr. Kerr's Attitude on Primary Elections.

submitting to the people an amendment to the constitution permitting the enactment of a law providing for equal taxation of railroad property.

The resolution came before the house on Dec. 20, 1899 and but eight members voted against allowing the people to express their opinion in the matter.

MR. KERR WAS ONE OF THOSE EIGHT MEMBERS.

The senate refused to pass the resolution and the session ended.

Governor Pingree immediately afterwards sent in a special message asking the legislature to increase the specific tax so that railroads would be made to pay a fair share of the taxes. A bill to that end was immediately introduced and passed the house by a vote of 72 to 15.

MR. KERR WAS ONE OF THE 15 THAT VOTED AGAINST THE BILL.

Governor Pingree called the legislature together a second time in special session in October, 1900 and the joint resolution, rejected by the senate at the first special session, was passed by both houses. But three votes were recorded against it at this session, MR. KERR BEING ONE OF THE THREE.

The amendment was adopted by the people by a majority of 383,672 votes.

Governor Pingree again called a special session for the purpose of passing a law in conformity with the constitutional provision which the people had just adopted.

A bill designed for such purpose passed the house, only 13 voting against its passage; MR. KERR WAS ONE OF THE 13. The bill was passed on MAY 2.

Mr. Kerr was re-elected to the 1901 legislature. Shortly after the legislature convened the Chandler bill, practically the same as the Atkinson bill, was introduced and passed both houses.

MR. KERR WAS ABSENT FROM THE HOUSE OF MARCH 20 TO THE 6th OF MAY, the time when the bill was voted on in the house and did not vote.

Mr. Kerr's Attitude on Special Charters.

Special charters had been granted railroad companies in the early days of the state giving the companies special privileges in regard to taxation and to the rates they might charge for freight and passenger business. No thorough taxation reform could be had until these charters were repealed.

The matter came up at the special sessions of the legislature in 1899 and 1900.

On March 30, 1899, Mr. Kerr voted to indefinitely postpone a resolution looking to a repeal of the Michigan Central charter. On Jan. 4, 1900 he voted against repealing the Michigan Central charter. On the same day he voted against repealing the D. & C. charter. On the same day he voted against repealing the charter of the Michigan Southern.

On March 23, 1900 Mr. Kerr voted against a bill providing for primary elections in Wayne county.

On Jan. 31, 1901 a bill to provide for primary elections in Wayne county was passed. MR. KERR WAS NOT PRESENT FROM THE 24th OF JAN. TO THE 5th OF FEBRUARY so did not vote.

On April 11, 1901 the house passed a bill providing for a state primary election. MR. KERR WAS NOT PRESENT AND DID NOT VOTE.

On March 21 a bill to provide for primary elections in Wayne and Washtenaw counties passed the house, only 7 members voted against it.

MR. KERR WAS ONE OF THE 7. On May 27, 1901 he failed to vote on the bill providing for primary elections in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Kerr's Attitude on Other Questions.

On April 6, 1899 a bill to prevent deception in the manufacture of oleomargarine, process butter, imitation butter or lard came up in the House.

Mr. Kerr voted to exempt the entire upper peninsula from the provisions of the act. Failing to carry the amendment he then voted against the bill which was designed to protect the farmers and curtail the hold of the beef trust on the business.

Again in 1901 Mr. Kerr voted against a bill to prevent deception in the manufacture and sale of imitation butter.

At the special session of 1899-1900 Mr. Kerr voted against the resolution to amend the constitution so as to allow cities to own electric light plants and street railways.

On Feb. 27, 1901 Mr. Kerr voted for the bill to increase the pay of the members of the legislature to $1,000.

On May 22, 1901 Mr. Kerr voted against a bill taxing the Pullman company.

On Feb. 6, 1901, Mr. Kerr was absent when the important bill regulating the employment of women and children was passed.

Mr. Kerr was absent on April 24 when the bill for the protection of coal miners was passed, so did not vote.

There were 106 days in the session of 1901. Mr. Kerr was present 27 days.

Mr. Kerr drew pay for that session as follows: per diem, $780.00; mileage, $106.80; stationery, $5.00—total, $891.80 for 27 days attendance.

room, were another interesting attraction to callers at the Mahar home and were eloquent testimony of the love and regard the young bride has among many friends. In the dining room guests centered again, when invited by Mrs. Maurice O'Connor who presided as dining room hostess. Here delicate pink roses were arranged as the central decoration on the table from which the bonbons and nuts were served. Festoons of amethyst hung from the chandelier and added to the beauty of the table arrangement. Other flowers were found about the room, all emphasizing the pink color or note.

Here the guests were served a wedding supper by Misses Marjorie Mitchell, Elizabeth Meloy, May Barton, Jean Marquette, Elizabeth Wright, Hazel Clark and Mildred Marquette.

The social prominence of the bride and the fact that her parents are among the earliest pioneer settlers of Webster county, make this wedding of special interest. Miss Blanche Mahar, who becomes Mrs. Nicholson Tuesday evening, is the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mahar who has made this county their home since the days when Mr. Mahar says "there wasn't a fence between our sister, Mrs. W. B. Thomas, wore a blue Arabian silk over gold cloth, and Miss Myrtle and Hazel Nicholson wore imported covers of white chiffon, one embroidered in arabesque, and the other in chrysanthemums. Miss Martha France of Swanbald, Pennsylvania, wore a French gown of white silk with a beautiful girdle of dark Persian ribbon. Miss Lora Molyneux of Cherokee wore white net. Miss Beulah of Corner of Mission Valley was dressed in a gown of yellow tulle and Mrs. W. B. Murray of Des Moines wore a white embroidered gown.

CELEBRATION AT HIWATHA

Big Time Guaranteed and Special Trains Leave Manistique in the Morning.

Hiwatha Grange will hold a big Fourth of July celebration next Monday and a special train has been secured over the Manistique & L. S. railroad to give all Manistiquians an opportunity of participating in the celebration. The spur to the mill of the South Side Lumber Co. has been completed and passengers will be taken to the vicinity of the ground where the celebration will be held.

On the program are scheduled a ball game between the South Side and Gernsick teams, foot races, running races, long distance sprints, horse races, three-legged race, sack race, married men's race, fat men's race, ladies' race, straining and running jump. Liberal prizes are being offered for the various events. Dancing at new arthouse ball afternoon and evening until 3 o'clock July fifth. A speaker from the state senate will be present. The ladies will serve dinner and supper. Plans to spend the day at Hiwatha.

Amateur Night.

The Star theatre will set aside Friday evening of each week as amateur night. Manager White desires anyone in the city possessing talent of any kind to participate. All that is necessary is to notify him prior to the time in question. This is usually the most popular feature of theatres of this class and Mr. White will endeavor to make it a success here.

A Useful Invention.

Henry Brussel has invented a nut and bolt, that bids fair to revolutionize the use of bolts in the future. The invention is so cut, that the nut when fastened forms a perfect lock, and the more a bolt is jarred the tighter it becomes. With the use of his invention there will never be any danger from nuts becoming loosened as is the case at the present time. The invention is being patented and local capitalists have taken an interest in the matter and a factory may be established here. Its utility so thoroughly appeals to anyone conversant with machinery that it looks as though Henry would, in the near future, be kept busy in taking care of the royalties on the invention.

COOKS TO CELEBRATE

The Village of Cooks Will Celebrate Independence Day Tomorrow.

Cooks is to hold its Fourth of July celebration tomorrow, July 2nd, and the business men of the city have contributed liberally for the event. Included in the events of the day are Gullthumping parade, foot races for men and children, running and broad jumps, stone throwing, wheelbarrow races, potato race, three-legged race, sack race, dancing afternoon and evening, ball game between Manistique and Cooks teams and a big display of fireworks in the evening.

The ladies of the township will serve dinner and supper in the hall. Everybody is guaranteed a good time.

Three Features at Princess.

Three of the most recent and notable films released by the manufacturers are on at the Princess Friday and Saturday. While there are three numbers which are each one feature in the strict sense of the word the most prominent and one probably is "The Gold Seekers," a story of California in the days of '49. The picture "His darkest just before the dawn" is certainly rivaled in the case of this despairing prospector who is the subject of this biography story. "The stolen fortune," the second number of this feature bill is an interesting comedy, designed wholly for the purpose of amusing, fairly bubbling over with ludicrous and humorous situations. "A vein of gold in a western drama fully up to the standard of the famous S & A western pictures and completes a picture program of a class not often gathered together.

The illustrated duet from "Brown of Harvard," "Cupid's L. O. U.," will be a prominent feature as will an illustrated solo, "He wasn't such a bad chap." An added feature Saturday evening.

For Board of Education.

Messrs. Wm. B. Thomas and H. J. Neville are the only candidates that have announced their intention to make the race for election as members of the board of education and it is safe to say that owing to the high esteem of these gentlemen in the community that they will have no opposition at the polls on July 11th.

Mr. Shinar of Manistique who succeeded Mr. Ewila as cashier at the State Savings Bank for the last two weeks, returned to his home last Saturday. Mr. Shinar made quite a number of close friends during his stay here.—Garden corner Morning Press.

MRS. HARRY HAWKINS DEAD

Died at Saginaw Hospital After Operation. Wednesday of Last Week.

Mrs. Harry Hawkins of this city died at a hospital at Saginaw Wednesday of last week as the result of an operation for the removal of cancer and tumors. The remains were taken to Harbor Beach for burial where the funeral was held Friday of last week.

The deceased was a native of Canada and was born forty-four years ago. She became the wife of Mr. Harry Hawkins at Alpena in 1887 and became a resident of Manistique nineteen years ago.

The deceased was highly esteemed by those knowing her and the bereaved husband has the sympathy of his friends.

Created Much Interest.

The habitues of the local docks were treated to an exhibition of rapid canoe discharge last evening, when the steel steamer Wyandotte left for Chicago for the first time since she left the C. L. Co., in less than four hours, doing the work that heretofore required the employment of twenty-eight men for four days. The boat is equipped with convoyers operated by steam, and there was a constant stream of coal from the hold of the vessel to the bins. The boat had aboard about 12,000 tons. The visit of the steamer is an innovation in the coal handling and the method of transportation. The boat is divided into compartments and the consignments for the various cities is kept separate. Orders are secured for the capacity of the vessel and then a trip is made to the various ports where coal has been sold. In this manner coal can be brought to Manistique and unloaded very much cheaper than it can be brought in the C. L. Co.'s own vessels.

INTEREST TO VESSEL OWNERS

Officers to Visit North Shores to Measure Small Boats.

Mr. E. W. Miller, customs officer of this port, has been notified that by order of Manistique July 6th, a special survey of customers for the customs district of Michigan, and Col. L. Marquette, collector of Customs, stationed at Cholevoyn, will be at Manistique July 6th, at Northway July 7th, and at St. Ignace on July 8th for the purpose of measuring all unmeasured vessels which in their opinion are too large to be navigated by Great Lakes waters without proper documents abroad and also for the purpose of explaining the requirements of the new motor laws and regulations to owners and operators of motor vessels desiring information. The officers are making the necessary expense of the visit of the vessels to be measured. This will save the owners the expense of taking their vessels to Grand Haven for measurement. The actual necessary expense of the visit of the vessels to be measured is increased. Owing to the fact that there are a number of fishing vessels in this area, the cost will be very slight. Any boat of five or more net tons, and not operated for profit must be documented. It requires less than thirty minutes to measure a boat. This is not an optional matter with the owners, and owners knowing the provisions of the law may be put to expense all out of proportion to the cost and slight inconvenience of measurement and documentation.

Remember the dates and be on hand with your vessel.

Presiding Elder Collins will deliver an address at the M. E. church on Friday evening of next week on his experience in a California winter and his address will be full of interest. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged and that same will include refreshments. The proceeds will be devoted toward paying for the expense of making alterations to the church building. Everyone is cordially invited to be present.

The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. D. J. West next Wednesday afternoon.
