O. B. FULLER FOR STATE SENATOR.

Mr. Fuller is a well-known and respected citizen of Manistique. He has served in the Michigan National Guard and is a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

It is a matter of course that the senatorial district of Manistique is a large one, and it is not surprising that it is one of the most important in the state.

The president of Harvard college says that the United States does not know what it is fighting for. A professor in the same college, however, says that the United States is fighting for the principles of democracy.

upon these two Harvard gentlemen. If they should desire to emigrate to the land which now comes in for a major part of their support.

MANY Americans labor under the delusion that the leaders of the Cuban patriots are a mixture of Spanish, native and negro blood but such is not the case. With hardly an exception they are all of the purest Spanish or French descent.

Several upper peninsula papers continue to assert that Dr. McNaughton of the Fifth Regiment was not rejected on account of physical disabilities but for political reasons.

It appears that the unfairness of the French government toward the United States only had existence in the columns of the "yellow" journals.

It is a wonder that some one of the brilliant minds who edit the "yellow" journals has not secured

All Druggists Keep It. Gen. Blanco as their Cuban correspondent. His kaleidoscopic brain perfectly fits him for just such a position.

OVER at San Juan last week the Spanish won another "glorious" victory according to Madrid dispatches. Of course Admiral Sampson only burned half the city with shells from his fleet and smashed the fortifications into a mass of rubbish.

The first instructions to the American fleet to maintain a peaceful blockade of the Cuban ports has been rescinded and orders have gone forth to Admiral Sampson to batter down every fortification that offers the least resistance.

BLANCO is still busily engaged in editing windy dispatches in which the "Yankoo japs" are moved down in vast numbers in imaginary battles fought in his "gigantic" brain.

GEN. MORRIS declines the position of commander of the army of invasion of the Philippine Islands if only 10,000 troops are to be sent.

The danger of the formation of an Anglo-American alliance is causing much uneasiness among the non-English speaking countries of Europe.

MICHAEL J. SCHAEK, Chicago's famous Inspector of Police, died Wednesday evening at the age of 55.

It has been stated on apparently reliable authority that the president will shortly issue another call for volunteers and that not less than 100,000 men will be needed.

MOORE is the first county in the state to hold its county convention. Although the anti-Pingree sentiment is reported to every known scheme to secure control of the convention, they were overwhelmingly defeated.

The bicycle is not apt to be so popular with young men who are proud of their physical perfection in the future. The U. S. examining surgeons state that the defects in a majority of the recruits rejected by them are attributable to the wheel.

The water in Lake Superior is reported to be forty inches lower than it has been before in years, and the fact is viewed with alarm by vessel interests. The big lake carriers are unable to load their capacity, and as the existing freight rates will be considerable more. In Lake Huron the water is high, and the old theory of a subterranean passage between the lakes is revived.

The referendum, or the submission of legislation to the popular vote for ratification, is practiced in Switzerland, not always with the most satisfactory results. Not long ago a vote was taken in the Canton of Solothurn on the question of a parish church organ. One man only took the trouble to go to the polls. Finding himself there alone, he remarked: "Was popul, vox Dei! I am thy vox populi and I elect myself to the place." And it was so! That may be socialism, but it looks a good deal more like monarchy.

A most hopeful sign of the times is the growing respect for what are called "the bread and butter sentences." Modern methods of education look more and more toward inspiring our boys and girls with respect for work and preparing them for honest industry by putting them in possession of all the facilities. The field of skilled labor is constantly widening; the artisans of the twentieth century will claim closer kinship with the artist; but will guide and reinforce music in field and kitchen, toll will be lightened by invention, and in good time by shorter hours.

The man in the engine room has little of the fun or glory of a modern sea fight. He hears the booming of the main and distant guns, but he does not know how the lights in gold and red, the ship may be a hopeless wreck, and the next minute his life is lost, but that is none of his affair. The engineers must keep moving, and they must respond instantly to the will of the ship's brain in the conning tower or the battle is lost. The whole ship is one immense complication of machinery. In the engine room, its turbines are turned by steam directly or indirectly through electric, pneumatic or hydraulic power, its dynamos are headed by steam. It is lighted by electricity which is supplied by great runs of steam; it is ventilated by steam—steam is the source of all its activities. Let the engines cease to work and the ship would die.

The agricultural department has just issued an interesting pamphlet on the subject of forest growth and sheep grazing in the Cascade mountains of Oregon, prepared by Frederick V. Coville. Discussing the question of forest fires in the Cascade range, it says those of the present period are by no means confined to the sheep grazing areas. Parts of the southern Cascade range, in which sheep have never grazed, have been found to be ridged by fire, and in general forest fires increase in the reserved region proportionately to the increase of heavy occupancy of the game classes. It is clear as a result of careful inquiry, the pamphlet says that at the present time most sheep herders and packers are extremely careful not to allow their camp fires to spread and not to set fire intentionally, though it is unquestionably true that in the early days of sheep raising there was a widespread belief among sheep men that burning of the forest was a positive benefit to the industry.

The Seventh of New York, which is entirely "composed of members of the avow gift" would do well hereafter to keep within its territory. The Legislature upon fifth avenue, even amid the homes of the wealthy, would be a no-man's land for derivative salutation, for no man, even if it covered the country, would ever who would play at soldier until war came and then not play at all. This is the kind of patriot that attend banquets in times of peace, then make a parade and prate about their "devotion to the flag" and "national honor." They ought to be shipped back to England.

THE HAPPENINGS IN MICHIGAN BRIEFLY RELATED.

Michigan National Guard Officers Find Physical Examinations Very Serious—New Officers for First Regiment—Eight New Companies Ordered.

The physical examination of officers and sergeants of the Michigan National Guard at Camp Eaton is very severe and many fail to pass. The first to be examined were the sergeants of the regiments, and it was desired that they should assist in the examination of the men. Of the 10 sergeants six passed and four were rejected for physical disability. The latter are: Maj. McNaughton, of the Fifth; Maj. Harvey, of the Fourth; Maj. Hume, of the Third, and Capt. Bailey, of the First. Maj. McNaughton is a magnificent specimen of physical manhood and an excellent athlete, but Examining Surgeon Mundy would not pass him on account of his height. Maj. Harvey has a magnificently good eye, but Examining Surgeon Mundy would not pass him on account of his height. Maj. The promotion of the line officers to field officers leaves a good many vacancies in the lower ranks. Pending the ordering in of the regiment Col. Gardner will be detailed to command it, so that he will assume immediate command of the 1st S. S. regiment. It is announced that the troops will leave Camp Eaton as soon as the regiments are mustered and equipped. The troops will probably be sent to the front where they will rendezvous. Equipments of all kinds are on the road now and it is probable that the first regiment will leave soon after the 1st of July, and other regiments will follow as rapidly as possible.

Gov. A. Van Arbor, First Infantry, Capt. Ross Gardner had the honor of being the first company mustered in, and the soldier boys were given a moving reception as they lined up to take the oath of allegiance to their country.

Michigan Regiment to be Separated. It is stated that when the Michigan State troops are mustered into the U. S. service each regiment will be sent into a different brigade. This is in accordance with the policy of nationalizing the army and as far as possible breaking up existing state military organizations. It is intended to break regiments, and here state pride will have full sway. But the Michigan regiments will be widely separated in the service. It is also announced that there will be one regiment of regulars in each brigade of the army. This is important for the expansion of the discipline and the experience of the regular army drill masters.

DEWEY'S REPORT.

UTTERLY DESTROYED SPAIN'S FLEET AT MANILA.

Sole of the U. S. Warships Boldly Damaged and an American Sailor Killed and Only Eight Wounded—Manila is in His Mercy.

Just one week from the day the great battle at Manila bay was fought, the first official report of the victory has been received from the Commodore Dewey, the latest naval hero. The report was carried from Manila to Hong Kong by the U. S. steamer, and then transmitted to the navy department at Washington. The distance from Manila to Hong Kong prevented an earlier report from being received from Dewey. The portion of the first report made public by the navy department is as follows: "The Spanish Squadron arrived at Manila at daylight. Immediately engaged the enemy and destroyed the following Spanish vessels: Reina Christina, Isla de Cuba, General Lezo, Marquis de Puerto Real, Alvaro, Isla de Luzon, and six torpedo boats. The Spanish fleet was annihilated, and only a few men are slightly wounded. Only means telegraphing to American consul at Hong Kong, I shall communicate with him."

The second report given is in its fullness: "I have taken possession of the main station at Cavite, Philippine Islands, and destroyed the Spanish warships and the steamships which were there. I have destroyed the Spanish fleet, including the main station at Cavite, Philippine Islands, and destroyed the Spanish warships and the steamships which were there. Spanish Surrender Important Town. Don Danilo the commander of the Spanish forces in eastern Cuba, withdrew the Spanish garrison from Bayamo, one of the important towns of the province of Santiago de Cuba, Gen. Valdez Garcia, the insurgent commander, occupied the town next day. The Spanish merchants and residents of Bayamo were in great fear of pillage and massacre, but Gen. Garcia issued a proclamation declaring that the property of Spaniards and their civil rights would be respected. The Spaniards personally assured the leader of Spaniards of the place that they would not be molested, and that they would be treated as usual, and tranquility prevailed there. The people began bringing their property and their families to the town, and the peace of the province is restored. No trace of a Spanish has been seen.

The War Situation. On hearing of the Spanish loss at Manila the pope was almost overcome and said he wished he could have died before his war was begun. Secretary Lodge says that Dewey will be made an admiral and that he will have his nomination to be read admiral sent to the Senate.

TO HOLD THE PHILIPPINES.

Cable San Will Send 2,000 Troops and Plenty of Supplies at Once.

Washington: The cabinet has decided to send to Commodore Dewey the additional force of troops he deems necessary to secure our control of the Philippines.

The administration has practically decided to occupy the Philippines with a regular military force as soon as possible. For this purpose Pacific slope troops will be used and it is expected that at least 2,000 will be en route within the next ten days. The report of Gen. Nelson A. Miles telegraphed to the president and Secretary of War is on the point of flight. The War Dept. has decided that the Fifth and Seventh Cavalry and Fourteenth Infantry should be sent to Manila to join the regular troops at the present moment. The distance from Manila to San Francisco immediately enough will be taken from volunteer troops of extreme western states to the possession of the islands. The President has announced that it will be dangerous to delay. It is afraid that Dewey will have serious need for all the soldiers sent. When his mission in the Philippines they may make trouble, and another cause for alarm is that there are a large number of Spanish officers fully equipped already at Manila, and it will be impossible to restrain them.

There does not seem to be any doubt as to government's purpose to hold those islands pending a final settlement with Spain, when they will be used as a collateral to secure the payment of the debt to the United States. High officials are of the opinion that none of the powers will seriously dispute our right to make the disposal of the islands. The United States has its own purpose in the enforcement of our claims against Spain, and in any event this government will be prepared to contest any point which may be raised.

Cuban Invasion Delayed.

The Spanish fleet was annihilated at Manila bay, and only a few men are slightly wounded. The Spanish fleet was annihilated at Manila bay, and only a few men are slightly wounded. The Spanish fleet was annihilated at Manila bay, and only a few men are slightly wounded.

It is asserted that Gen. Miles is now in command of the Insular Army in Cuba. The Washington government is now in close touch with the Insular government, and has established communication with three army corps commanders of the Insular forces. Every move made by Gen. Garcia, Garcia and Rodriguez is known to the Insular government. The Insular government has been a concentration of troops in accordance with orders from Gen. Miles. The Cuban army is now in the hands of the Insular government, and the army of the Insular government is now in the hands of the Insular government.

The government is aware that it does not rely upon the army. It has long had a secret society; it has been long with its rank; to put an end to it, Spain has been a great misfortune. It has been a great misfortune. It has been a great misfortune.
