

We had intended to end the discussion of the Communist question in these columns for a few weeks, but believe that people probably were reading first of all, and it is so interesting to us nearly all of the newspapers are publishing the subject in one way or another.

However, here appeared a continuation in the L'Anse au Loup of a couple of weeks ago signed by a township office seeker by the name of Charles Danter. Danter gave space to write that he was ever associated or in sympathy with the Red Fascist cause; but he also went at length to develop a line of which we are getting mighty tired.

Danter's argument was that we should not spend our time and money in concentrating our attention on making democracy work, if we make democracy work, we won't need to fear the Communists.

Arguing it, democracy does work, and it has worked in the United States for over 150 years. What do these pseudo liberals make democracy work if we want to foil the evil designs of Moscow?

The Baraga county man is merely pursuing an argument offered by a lot of so-called liberals in the country, many of them in high places, who have spouted about making democracy work when some of their previous statements or some of the people they have associated with.

It is our contention that democracy, even admitting its imperfections, does work, and has worked for many decades both in this country and in Great Britain. Naturally we should endeavor to make it work better, but that is not the way that Communism will be stopped.

One might as well say that we can combat and neutralize evil by making virtue work. Virtue does work, but the trouble is there are too many people willing to give evil a fling, just the same as there are too many persons who somehow or other are willing and eager for a try with Communism.

Why then, do we have Communism? Some are frustrated individuals who seek the limelight in this way. Others are greedy for power or money. Still others hate the people who live decently and may be made good, and they would like to destroy them. We are not even better than it does now, it would have little effect on this greedy and neurotic fringe of society.

We heard this story the other day and thought it was good. A little boy, starting to ask those youngsters usually ask as they grow up, said to his mother: "Mama, do people come from that?" "Yes, yes, that's what the Bible says," his mother answered. "And do people return to dust when they die," he asked. "Yes, the Bible tells us that," she replied.

There had been a little boy, "you had better look under the bed up stairs, somebody under it is either crying or going."

COUNCIL HEARS GROUP PROTEST ON METERING

Karpark Corporation To Be Asked About Possibility Of Contract Release

Unless the Karpark Motor Corporation is willing to release the city from its meter contract as a result of a possible unfavorable vote at the special election, the city council will go ahead with its plan to install 200 or more parking meters on a year's trial basis in Manistique.

This decision was made at the recent council meeting Monday night after a group of local businessmen appeared before the council to protest against the meter program.

Acting as spokesman for the group, Fred H. Hines asked the council to submit the matter to a vote of the people at the spring election on April 4. The group contended that Manistique was too small a city for parking meters, that meters would drive business away from the community and, in fact, no parking problem existed here because not too many cars were parked in the city and by rigid enforcement of the present parking ordinance.

Council Appears Miffed

Members of the council appeared somewhat miffed at the request for cancellation of the meter contract. Mayor Walter Burns said it seems a little late to raise a protest now, inasmuch as a contract has been let for the purchase of the meters. "This matter has been discussed here for over a year, and no group like this appeared before us prior to the time we let the contract. It would seem that you are now trying to put the council on the spot."

Went Informative Vote

The group of businessmen insisted, however, that they were principally interested in getting the matter before the people, even if the vote was merely informative.

Proposed Restrictive Clause In New Milk Ordinance Gets Support At Council Meeting

Many Speak In Favor Of 15-Mile Radius As Processing Limitation

One clause accompanying the proposed new milk ordinance—one which the special committee refused to submit itself on before tossing the entire ordinance to the council for decision—provided a lot of comment at the regular meeting of the council Monday night.

This is the clause which would provide that all milk distributed in Manistique must be processed within a 15-mile radius of the city. A 15-mile city attorney, who was chairman of the special committee, reported on the committee's action to the council, stating that the group agreed on all proposed changes except the all-siding up on the processing limits. This part, he said, the committee was divided on and was leaving it to the council for decision.

A group composed of dairy farmers and interested local citizens appeared at the council meeting to support the clause setting up the limits on milk processing. A petition signed by several dairy farmers was presented to the council, asking that the city give every consideration to the thought of protecting the market of Schoolcraft county dairymen.

Clayton T. Reid, Schoolcraft county agricultural agent, said that the city should consider several factors in providing for a local milk supply, including an assurance of good milk, enforcement of ordinance regulations, and its inspectable by local officials. This last would mean, he said, that processing plants should be within a relatively close proximity to the city.

Another thing you should consider, he said, is that every dollar spent for locally processed and produced milk is spent again and again in local country. The dollar that goes to Wisconsin is gone for good.

Speaking on behalf of dairy farmers, William S. Sling, Sr., of Manistique, pointed to the important part the dairy farmers play in the economy of Manistique. He pointed out the improvement in local dairy herds during the past few years.

Several members of the council, in rebuttal to sentiment expressed by the group present, said that they had had numerous calls during the week from housewives asking that nothing be done to bar outside milk and cream from the community.

After hearing all the talk, the council agreed to defer action on the proposed new milk ordinance until another meeting.

HIRING OF NEW CITY MANAGER COUNCIL TOPIC

City Clerk Instructed To Contact Several Michigan Applicants

The matter of hiring a city manager was again brought up at the regular meeting of the city council Monday night by Councilman William A. Berger.

"I think it is about time that we were giving thought to hiring a new manager," he said.

The city clerk was instructed to contact several Michigan applicants for the job to ascertain if any are still available.

Manistique has been without a city manager since last June when James Dickson resigned after the council slashed his salary from $5,000 to $3,200 a year.

Things dramatic capture the imagination, sometimes to the point of distorting the perspective. This is as true in medicine as in other fields. The sensational results with sulfas drugs and penicillin are examples. Less dramatic, but responsible for saving uncounted lives, are the broader public health measures. Sewage disposal, swamp clearance, water, milk, and food inspection are but a few of these. The physician and the pharmacist have always been leaders in the field of preventive medicine. This fact led James Beal to observe, "Medicine is the only profession that labor incessantly to destroy the reason for its own existence." The fight, however, is far from won. Diagnosis and treatment of disease are still the primary functions of the physician. The accurate filling of prescriptions is our responsibility as pharmacists.

Governor Williams plans to appoint eight study commissions to investigate such state problems as higher education, state services and expenditures, aid to local governments, state and local tax structures, youth guidance, legislative reapportionment and medical services.
Several veteran Lansing observers report a growing opposition among legislators to Governor Williams' proposed four per cent tax on corporate profits. Here is the reasoning: Michigan leads all states today in per capita income as suggested by former Lieutenant Governor Vernon J. Brown. Brown would abolish the retail sales tax and adopt, as its substitute, a one per cent levy on the gross value of all manufactured products to be dustrial wages at home.

The resolutions committee of the Republican state convention, by majority decision, sidestepped any move to stir up the membership of the C. I. O. prior to the spring election by attacking the C. I. O. "domination" of the Democratic state convention. Political strategy will be to get out the rural vote. Legislative enactment of the colored oleomargarine bill was in line with this thinking. Legislators feared an impending referendum would cause city voters to flock to the polls.
The Michigan dairy industry which has opposed sale of colored to resemble butter puts a valuation of $187,128,000 on Michigan's 988,000 milk cows which produced 1,057,000,000 quarts of milk in 1947. Production per cow was 2,679 quarts, a new record. Dairy farmers' income totaled $208 millions.

The state legislature is asked to appropriate $1,000,000 for the proposed Detroit International airport below Windsor. Airports in Michigan would get $1,880,000. Another illustration why cost of government is increasing.
Congressman Dingell (D., Detroit), member of the House ways and means committee with Rep. Woodruff (R., Bay City), believes Congress will pare down the $150 maximum monthly insurance pension to retired workers as proposed by President Truman. This amount would be paid to workers whose average monthly wage had been $300 or more for 12 years. The $100-per-month worker would get an insured pension of $80 instead of $49, $200 monthly wage, $128 instead of $68. These pensions are financed by payroll deductions.
Records of campaign contributions and expenditures should be kept on file for a minimum of six years, so recommends Circuit Judge Herman H. Dehnke, Harrisville. Dehnke served as a one-man grand jury in Macomb county to investigate Macomb gambling alliances with law enforcement officials. He said testimony showed payment of money to public officials and that campaign records were missing.
Michigan municipalities received $2,750,000 last year from liquor license fees for the sole use of liquor law enforcement. The enforcement staff of the state liquor control commission was cut recently in a move to force municipalities to assume responsibility.

English Doctor Claims Magic Charms Will Remove Warts
LONDON—Magic charms really are a good cure for warts, Dr. W. S. human said.
Inman, a Portsmouth physician, wrote to British medical publication, that he had found a little honest spirit or a piece of raw potato could do more to remove some warts than all the chemicals at his disposal.
He cited several cases in an effort to prove his contention that old-time medicine men may not have been such quacks after all. The case histories included:
A boy of 13, who had 50 warts on one hand. Chemicals were used without success. The doctor swore the boy to secrecy and then told him to touch each wart with the tip of his tongue every morning before breakfast. Within a month the warts were all gone.
A small boy who broke his pledge to secrecy did not get rid of his warts this way. But he did secretly take a potato from his mother's pantry, cut it in half, touched each wart with the raw surface and then put the potato in the back yard by the light of a full moon. The warts vanished.
Lancet published Inman's report without comment.

He hates to see those children's television programs going to waste in his place.
"These kids," he says, "don't get to see television. They're too young to drink."
The idea occurred to him when he turned the lights up one day after a baseball television broadcast. The dark corners were filled with youngsters, who had sneaked in to watch.
So Parly perused the television schedules and picked out some children's shows.
The customers may have been startled at first but they made no protest when—as the children's program started—Parly closed the bar and called in the kids playing in the street out front.
The kids loved it.
For the older boys, Parly plans an afternoon a week of baseball. Dry, of course.

Production of Industry Boosts Living Standards
While productivity depends more upon technological development than upon manpower, no machine, no matter how productive—is any good unless it is operated, and for that reason the manpower part of the production equation is of particular importance, L. C. Morrow, Madison, N. J., told members of the Society for the Advancement of Management.
Asserting that technological development "can make or break America," he urged management men to alert themselves to the history of technological development and to the opportunities that they have of acquainting workers in industry with the importance of technological development to themselves as individuals, as well as to the nation at large.
As technological development has increased in terms of power consumed by industry, the value of products turned out by American factories has greatly raised the living standard of the country's entire population, Morrow declared.

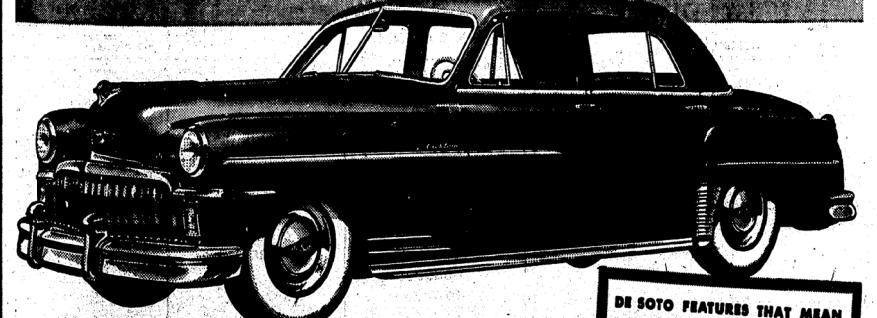

Milk Test Will Determine Fault in Bee Colonies
A small vial, a few drops of milk, and some water are all that are needed for a test that shows in 15 minutes whether a bee colony is infected with American foulbrood. This is a serious bee disease caused by a bacterium, Bacillus larvae.
To make the test requires no technical training. It is based on the findings of a bacteriologist of the bureau of entomology and plant quarantine that when a bee larva which had died from American foulbrood is dropped into a vial of milk water, the body of the diseased larva causes the liquid to become clear within 15 minutes. This is because the bacteria causing the disease produce enzymes which decompose milk. When the bee larva has died from some other cause, there is no clearing of the milk.
Skim-milk powder is just as satisfactory for the test as fresh milk, and enough milk powder to run 100 tests costs only a few cents. Dead larvae from several parts of the colony should be tested to make sure the presence of the disease is detected as early as possible.

Let us show you all the new features of this great car
Here is what thoughtful people everywhere have been looking for and hoping for!
Here, at last, is a car that gives you all the best features of modern design without demanding sacrifices of your family's comfort, safety or convenience. It was designed to fit YOU... instead of you having to fit into it.
You don't have to wriggle into the new De Soto. You walk in... and you keep your hat on. The steering wheel doesn't hit your knees. There's more leg room for all passengers, front and back. And only are the windows and windshields bigger.
You can see out of them... because you're sitting on luxurious chair-high seats.
Yes, it's a thrill to look at. But you won't have to rebuild your garage to get it in. A dented fender doesn't mean an expensive body job. And you can still change a tire, if you have to.
Ride? The smoothest you ever had. Drive? DeSoto you drive without shifting. New features? Come in and see them all. No matter what car you thought you were going to buy, compare it with this brilliant new De Soto. Then decide.

News of 4-H CLUBS

By Fred C. Bernhardt, District 4-H Club Agent

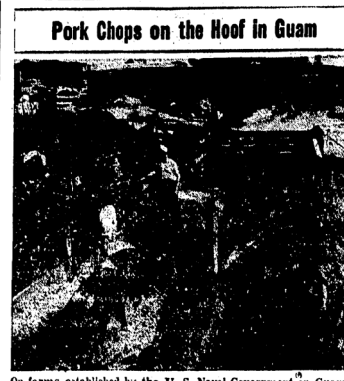

The Rotary Club is sponsoring two of the delegates to the Junior Leaders Training School at Marquette, March 10-12. Delegates this year are: Carol Wolfe, Cooke; Jerome Allen, Route 2, Manistique; Shirley Lawrence and Lorne Lastila, Germantown.

David Lony at the Palmer School has made a bread mold from very nice red oak lumber.

Although it still looks like winter, now is the time to plan that garden. It is important that varieties best suited to this area be selected. A list of varieties recommended for the upper peninsula is available at the County Extension office and will be distributed to all summer club leaders. Some of the local stores are cooperating in this.

The March 14 meeting of the Tractor Maintenance Club will be held in Linderoth's garage in Manistique. It will cover care of air cleaners, points, spark plugs, and carburetors.

Tom Smith from Thompson was in to join the Artificial Breeding Association. He said he figured it was a lot safer to have Lawrence Sablack come to his place once in a while than to keep a bull.

On farms established by the U. S. Naval Government in Guam, American sailors instruct natives in modern agricultural methods. The produce from the farms is used for Naval personnel and the rehabilitation of the natives. In photo above, a seaman, first class drives some pigs to feed. (Official Navy Photograph)

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fugere and four ones, born Sunday at the parents of a daughter, Ca. the Shaw hospital. Mrs. Fugere and Ann, weighing seven pounds was formerly Cecelia Weber.

Review Feature Of Women's Club Meeting Tuesday

An interesting review of Charles O'Connell's "The Other Side of the Record" was presented by Mrs. A. L. Swinton, of Marquette, before the Manistique Women's club Tuesday afternoon at Lakeside school. This meeting also observed the annual guest day.

Mrs. Swinton, who is a music teacher in Marquette, read excerpts from Mr. O'Connell's book, and told of incidents and contacts which he had had with familiar figures in the concert world while serving as musical director in the production of recordings first for 20 years for Victor, and more recently for Columbia. The review gave an intimate glimpse into the life and characters of the great and near-great of the musical world. O'Connell knew these artists intimately and portrayed in an acidly humorous, fearless and impartial manner their temperamental as well as admirable character traits.

Among the notables Mrs. Swinton covered in her review were Lily Pons, Lauritz Melchior, Pierre Montoux, Leopold Stokowski, and Arthur Robinson.

Music for the day, which followed the theme of the program, was a piano duet presented by Mrs. A. F. Hall and Mrs. Scott Creighton. They played the Second Movement of Beethoven's Symphony, No. 5, a duet which they had also played for the Women's club a number of years ago.

written on the periodicals and magazines available at the local library, which was heard with interest by the club.

Ten were served from an attractive table with a white toy lamb depicting the March weather theme, serving as the centerpiece. Lighted white tapers were placed at each end of the table, and lamb shaped white cakes followed the decorative scheme.

Mrs. Charles Shining, Jr., was chairman of the hostess committee. Assisting her were Mrs. Donald McNally, Mrs. Howard Graff, Mrs. E. T. King, Mrs. Willard Baltheo, Mrs. Arthur Graham, Mrs. George Harton, Mrs. Theodora Richards, Mrs. Carl Carlson, and Mrs. George Wood.

5 reasons why a telephone rate increase is necessary

Since 1941 our cost of furnishing telephone service has increased over 126% due mainly to these reasons:

1. 82% more workers added
2. 49.2% increase in average monthly wage
3. 35% average increase in cost of telephone instruments
4. Over 125% increase in cost of cable
5. Over 90% increase in cost of telephone poles

True, our income has increased through expansion of service—and we are making every effort to serve everyone as quickly as possible. But the income from new telephone does not meet the cost of furnishing service. This is due to the fact that the majority of Michigan Associated Telephone exchanges are furnishing service at rates which haven't changed in 20 years.

Therefore, in order to operate on a sound financial basis, we must seek a rate adjustment to keep pace with the increased cost of operation.
