

NEW DEAL FOES ARE 'COPPERHEADS'

TOTAL QUOTED STOCK VALUES UP 4 BILLIONS

UPTURN STRONGEST SINCE SPRING OF 1933

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER (Associated Press Financial Editor)

New York, June 24 (AP)—When the closing gong resounded through the big trading hall of the New York stock exchange today, the total quoted value of securities dealt in there was some $4,000,000,000 higher than at the beginning of the week.

Not since the spring of 1933, when prices surged upward after the banking holiday, has the market place seen such a sudden and rapid swelling of the prices of the shares of the nation's leading corporations.

Orders Pile Up The buying wave which has been sweeping through the market since Monday subsided somewhat today, after the biggest overnight accumulation of orders since last October were executed in the first hour.

The rapidity of the upswing prompted many traders to sell and cash in their profits this afternoon, and leading issues finished around $1 under the day's best prices, although the close saw numerous net gains of $1 to $5.

Wall Street analysts with few exceptions expressed surprise over the abrupt turnabout, some even "mystification." But the change in Wall Street morale—after weeks of the dulllest trading since the early post war years—was striking. One market letter writer said it had been lifted from "moribidity" to "ecstasy."

Brokers Advise Caution The steepness of the ascent prompted some brokers to send out precautionary advice, which played a part in the afternoon slackening. The market would need time to "digest" and "consolidate" such a jump, they thought.

But there was a wide inclination in financial circles to believe the market might be sounding the knell of the business slump which began a year ago.

Most financial circles seemed doubtful that there was any "mystery" underlying the situation. They turned to the unexciting explanation that the market had become all sold out. Slightly better business statistics and hopes that the government pump priming program would take hold, brought a little buying, and that sent prices up easily and attracted more buying.

Industry on Gain Typical of the improvement shown in business indicators, the Associated Press weekly index of industrial activity has moved up a little each week for the past four weeks. Today it touched 67.9 percent of the 1929-30 average, up 2.1 points in the four weeks. At this time last year, it was 104.5.

One possibility which Wall Streeters have been discussing as a potential spur to recovery has been readjustments in steel prices

Senators Investigate Political 'Endorsing'

Washington, June 24 (AP)—The senate campaign expenditures committee delivered a sharp-edged warning today to federal officials to be careful about endorsing candidates for the United States senate.

Conceding all such endorsements might not be classified as unethical, Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex.) said the committee nevertheless would investigate the circumstances surrounding the issuance of the statements.

Sheppard avoided discussion of a possibility that Harry Hopkins, WPA administrator, would be questioned about his statement concerning the Iowa Democratic primary election.

Hopkins told newspaper men that if he were a resident of Iowa he would vote for Representative Wearin (D-Iowa), later defeated for the senatorial nomination by Senator Gillette (D-Iowa), the incumbent.

Mr. Hopkins' statement has not been brought before the committee and I don't want to be put in the position of prejudicing any issue," Sheppard said.

Sheppard said the committee definitely is on record against political use of relief funds. He said he believed a WPA foreman should not publicly announce to the workers whose jobs he controlled that he favored any particular senate candidate.

Whether this should extend to the highest WPA officials was a matter to be decided by the circumstances of each incident, he indicated.

Mermaids Practice for Fishing Rodeo Tomorrow

Getting in a little practice for the fishing rodeo tomorrow, to be held near Masonville from 5 to 8 o'clock, are Madelyn Ward (left) and Jeanne Mickelson, who prefer bathing suits as fishing costumes. Jeanne, who reigned as queen during Escanaba's smelt jamboree this spring, has taken up hook and line to replace her dipnet until the silvery smelt begin their runs again.

MICHIGAN PWA PLANS PUSHED

Lack of Contributions By Sponsors Will Not Hold Up Projects

Washington, June 24 (AP)—Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan predicted here today that contracts for new PWA projects in Michigan would be awarded by Aug. 1, and that the projects, "in many instances," would be under way later in the same month.

Murphy said he had been assured that PWA projects in industrial cities would not be halted by the lack of sponsors' contributions. He declined to disclose the source of his information.

The governor also announced that the surplus commodities corporation would ship from 20 to 30 million pounds of foodstuffs into Michigan for relief clients within 60 days.

The food will be distributed in such industrial centers as Detroit, Grand Rapids, Flint, Saginaw, Pontiac and Port Huron through the state relief commission offices, he added.

"This is only a small portion of what we have promised for the future," Murphy said.

Before boarding a train for New York tonight the governor declined to discuss his conferences with Ben Cohen and Thomas Corcoran, government attorneys and White House advisers.

The subject of the conferences, he said, "never will be made public."

DAMAGES AWARDED Detroit (AP)—A circuit court jury before Judge Clyde L. Webster returned a verdict of $37,500 damages Friday for Gust Drafitz, administrator of the estate of his son, Victor, who was fatally injured in an accident at Flat Rock, Mich., two years ago.

The suit was against the Ace Motor Transport company, of Sandusky, Ohio, and Edward Nautel, also of Sandusky, employed as a truck driver by the company.

Japanese Land 5,000 For Drive on Hankow

Hankow, China, June 24 (AP)—Japanese forces driving up the Yangtze river toward this provincial Chinese capital landed more than 5,000 men on the river's south shore near Anking today under cover of a heavy coordinated warship and airplane barrage.

With the ships blasting at Chinese defenses and the planes alternately bombing and strafing, the invading infantrymen were put ashore 35 miles north of Anking, at a point 180 miles by river from Hankow.

Three hundred miles to the north, on the Honan province front along the Langhai railway, the Chinese consolidated gains made in following up retreat of Japanese who were forced back by the great Yellow river floods.

Hankow received details of conditions there in advices today from missionaries at Chengchow. Chinese military strategists, they reported, paid off farmers and townfolk along the Yellow river at the rate of ten Chinese dollars ($1.77) an adult before deliberately flooding the region to drive back the invaders.

Following up the retreat of the highly mechanized Japanese armies, the comparatively light Chinese units have recaptured important areas previously won by the Japanese. The Chinese earlier reported recapture of Chungow, on the Lunghai 25 miles east of Chengchow, and Hushih, 30 miles south of Chungow.

Encouraged by these successes as a result of the otherwise costly flood east of Chengchow, the Chinese today were believed planning to smash the Yellow's dikes west of the city, upstream.

LABOR DISPUTE TIES UP CIRCUS

Ringlings at Scranton; Two Newsmen Killed Taking Pictures

Scranton, Pa., June 24 (AP)—Officials of the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey circus sought a way tonight to leave town, and studied where to take the big show that has been tied up for two days by a wage dispute.

As conferences were held with striking employes and Mayor Fred J. Huester, who ordered the circus to move, two newspaper (Scranton Tribune) photographers were killed in the crash of an airplane from which they were taking pictures of the almost deserted circus ground.

They were Bob Raine, 25, and Arthur Young, 30, who was piloting the plane. It crashed within a few feet of the big top.

The mayor, who threatened to attach the property of the show, said conditions were becoming unsanitary on the circus grounds where the animals have been kept and in a nearby baseball grandstand where the show's 1,600 employes have sought shelter.

A vote was put to the workers whether they would take down the equipment, fold the great tents and load the trains so the circus could return to its winter quarters at Sarasota, Florida.

Two Men Are Held In Cottage Thefts At Coldwater, Mich.

Coldwater, Mich., June 24 (AP)—Michigan and Indiana state police today questioned two men detained in Indiana jails for investigation in the theft of several thousand dollars worth of farm and cottage equipment.

Held at LaGrange, Ind., was Jay Crow, 42, who was arrested at his farm home in Ovid township, Branch county, Thursday night. Lyle Hutchins, 41, of Angola, Ind., was held in the Angola jail.

State Republican Chairman Coming To Upper Peninsula

Lansing, June 24 (AP)—James F. Thomson, chairman of the Republican state central committee, today announced he would meet with county committees and party workers in the Upper Peninsula, next week.

Thomson planned to meet Monday at Baraga with party members from Baraga, Houghton and Keweenaw counties, on Tuesday at Bessemer with members from Ontonagon and Gogebic counties, and on Wednesday at Crystal Falls with workers in Iron and Dickinson counties.

DROWNINGS MAR FINNISH PICNIC

Four of Eight Children Meet Death When Boat Overturns

Covington, Mich., June 24 (AP)—Tragedy marred the picnic of about 300 Finnish residents of the township in the drowning Thursday night in Big lake of four of eight children. They were riding in a flat-bottomed boat, powered by an outboard motor, which overturned when, it is said, the driver, to give the children a thrill, made a sharp turn.

The bodies were recovered about 6 o'clock this morning in 40 feet of water.

Those drowned were: Melyin Salo, 8, and his sister, Helen, 12, children of Mr. and Mrs. George Salo.

Violet Rengo, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rengo. Viola Leaf, 11.

All resided in Covington township. Funeral services for the four will be held Sunday afternoon in Covington.

Those saved were Ruth and Robert Vanerva, Dorothy Leaf, sister of one of the victims; Bernice Coyanus, and Glen Theide, who operated the boat.

The boat upset about 9 o'clock about 500 feet from shore while parents were watching the children. They were unable to assist in a rescue. William Helberg, seeing the boat turn over, took the only other boat available and picked up Ruth Kanerva, Bernice Coyanus, Dorothy Leaf and Theide. Victor Ranta swam out and rescued the Kanerva boy.

Michigan state police from the L'Anse post assisted Captain Solman, of the Portage Canal coast guard station, recover the bodies.

Shakedown Charged On Federal Rosters

Washington, June 24 (AP)—The Republican national committee issued a statement today saying the Democratic national committee "is again shaking down federal employes in the lower income brackets for campaign contributions."

The statement quoted Oliver A. Quale, Jr., acting Democratic treasurer, as telling the workers by letter to "make your usual voluntary contribution of $5 or $10, or pledge $25 payable in two monthly installments, to help in this emergency."

ARMY AND NAVY TO FIGHT SPIES

More Cash Is Requested In Hunt to Plug Up Military Leaks

Washington, June 24 (AP)—The army and navy may intensify and expand their counter-espionage activities to prevent foreign spies from getting vital military secrets. This was indicated today when President Roosevelt came out in favor of more cash to detect and apprehend spies.

The chief executive, at his press conference, replied in the affirmative when he was asked whether recent charges of spying in this country would make it desirable to provide additional funds for army and navy counter-espionage.

The subject was brought up as a result of the recent indictment of 18 persons, 14 of whom are now in Germany, by a federal grand jury sitting in New York.

The president expressed belief that appropriations for army and navy intelligence services had been held down pretty low.

The question of publishing a series of newspaper articles on the New York spy investigation, saying printing of the stories involved patriotism and ethics.

PUBLIC ASKED TO CAST VOTE FOR LIBERALS

Washington, June 24 (AP)—President Roosevelt tagged opponents of his policies with another name tonight—"copperheads."

As he did when he applied the word "torians" to his critics, Mr. Roosevelt turned to history for the appellation he used in his prepared address tonight. He said "copperheads" were carrying on a "concerted campaign" to defeat reform.

"It was the copperheads," he explained, "who, in the days of the war between the states, tried their best to make Lincoln and his congress give up the fight, let the nation remain split in two and return to peace—peace at any price."

Washington, June 24 (AP)—President Roosevelt strongly indicated tonight that he would personally take up the election fight for congressional candidates who support his administration.

By implication, but nevertheless plainly, he asked the people, in a radio address, to vote for "liberal" candidates and thereby help him achieve his objectives.

"In simple frankness and in simple honesty," he said, "I need all the help I can get." He emphasized the last phrase.

Vigorously, he claimed the right, as head of the Democratic party, to intervene in party primaries on behalf of candidates who support "the definitely liberal declaration of principles" embodied in the party's 1938 platform.

Talks in Basement Wiping away the perspiration at frequent intervals, the chief executive spoke from a stuffy, scarcely ventilated basement room of the White House. The room was tightly closed so no extraneous noises would reach the microphone.

The big, bright lights of the movie cameramen intensified the heat. Mr. Roosevelt could not resist a departure from his prepared text.

"The American public and the American newspapers are certainly creatures of habit," he said. "It is the warmest night I have ever seen in Washington. And yet this talk will be referred to as a 'fire-side talk.'"

His address, too, contained another deviation from the speech he had prepared, of a more serious nature.

"This afternoon, only a few hours ago," he said, "I was told that a great steel company announced a reduction in prices with a view to stimulating recovery. And I am told that this x x x involved no wage cut."

Such moves, he said, were "to be encouraged."

Sleeps At Hague His claim to a right to enter primary elections he based upon a statement that as "head of the Democratic party" it was his responsibility to "speak in those few instances" where there was a clear-cut contest between liberal and conservative.

In addition, Mr. Roosevelt, without mentioning the name of Frank Hague, mayor of Jersey City and vice chairman of the Democratic national committee, said the people would not be "deceived by anyone who attempts to suppress individual liberty under the pretense of patriotism." Hague is involved in a court fight with the CIO, in which the latter seeks permission to send its organizers into Jersey City without interference from the mayor.

Traffic Toll

Flint, Mich., June 24 (AP)—Walter Grey, 55, was fatally injured today when he was struck by a hit and run driver. He was found lying in the street.

Detroit, June 24 (AP)—Mary Varnes, 18, died today of injuries suffered Thursday night when she was struck by an automobile on Eight Mile Road. Francis Edward, 42, who police said was the driver of the car, pleaded innocent to a charge of negligent homicide in justice court and was released on bond.

Selfridge Officers Want Gin Returned; Larceny Is Alleged

Mt. Clemens, Mich., June 24 (AP)—Return of 10 cases of gin seized while in transit to the officers' mess at Selfridge Field was demanded of the state liquor control commission today by Prosecutor Vincent L. Fitzgerald of Macomb county.

Fitzgerald addressed a letter to Edward McFarland, commission chairman, in which he suggested a peaceful settlement of the dispute which arose after the attorney-general's office had ruled the commission had no jurisdiction over liquor purchases by army posts.

The Macomb prosecutor said that if his advice was not followed, he would consider issuing warrants charging larceny. Under the attorney-general's opinion, the commission is unable to collect the 40 percent markup it places on liquor sold through state stores and specially designated distributors.

Bay City Republican Is Candidate Again

Bay City, Mich., June 24 (AP)—Announcement that he would again be a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress from the 10th district was made by Representative Roy O. Woodruff (R-Mich.), upon his return here from Washington Friday. He has represented the 10th district in the lower house for 10 terms. Woodruff predicted President Roosevelt would seek a third term in 1940 "if he can cut down potential candidates arising within his own party."

Fitzgerald To Visit Peninsula In July; In Escanaba On 14th

Lansing, June 24 (AP)—Former Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald announced today his campaign for a second term as governor would take him on two trips to the Upper Peninsula within three weeks.

The first expedition will start July 11, with speeches at Rogers City and Alpena enroute. The second is planned for the week of July 25, to cover the west side of the peninsula.

He planned the following Upper Peninsula appearances on the first trip: July 12, St. Ignace in the afternoon; Sault Ste. Marie, evening; July 13, Newberry, afternoon; Marquette, evening.

July 14, Munising, afternoon; Escanaba, evening. July 15, Manistiquic, afternoon. He said he would announce the second itinerary later.

Mountain Climbers Missing; Car Found

Albuquerque, N. M., June 24 (AP)—Apprehensive searchers worked through rocky canyons under 7,000-foot Sandia peak late today hunting for 21-year-old Merrill McCormick, heir to the McCormick publishing fortune, lost three days on a mountain climbing trek with a youthful companion.

The youth, son of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms and the late Senator Medill McCormick of Chicago, left early Wednesday with Richard Whitmer of Albuquerque, to scale the peak of the rugged mountains.

Late today forest rangers discovered young McCormick's light car parked deep in Pussycat canyon under the sheer face of the peak, northernmost in the Sandia range.

Mrs. Ickes, the former Jane Dahlgren of Milwaukee, and one-time employe in her husband's department, said she was looking forward to being a Cabinet wife.

PUBLIC ASKED TO CAST VOTE FOR LIBERALS

(Continued from Page One) speech was devoted to a summary of the actions of the congress which just adjourned. Although he expressed belief there had been some legislative failures, he said the session "achieved more for the future good of the country than any congress between the end of the World War and the spring of 1933."

He listed, among other things, the crop control bill, the wage-hour bill, the monopoly investigation and the lending-banking bill, as the session's outstanding achievements, and then, reviving the great controversy of a year ago, he termed the struggle over his proposal for reorganizing the supreme court "a lost battle which won a war."

For, he said, "in one way or another, during the sessions of this congress, the ends—the real objectives—sought in the message (proposing the court bill) have been substantially obtained." The supreme court's attitude toward constitutional questions has "entirely changed," he said, and "several lesser goals of the court reorganization bill have been reached."

Primarily, it was the president's utterances on the coming elections which attracted attention. For months Washington and students of politics throughout the nation have been discussing a "Democratic purge," an effort by administration men to beat Democratic members of congress who have opposed certain administration policies, particularly the court bill.

Issues, Not Parties Invariably in the past, the president has said that his was a position of neutrality. Tonight, he said: "As president of the United States, I am not asking the voters of the country to vote for Democrats next November as opposed to Republicans or members of any other party. Nor am I, as president, taking part in Democratic primaries."

"As the head of the Democratic party, however, charged with the responsibility of carrying out the definitely liberal declaration of principles set forth in the 1936 Democratic platform, I feel that I have every right to speak in those few instances where there may be a clear issue between candidates for a Democratic nomination involving these principles or involving a clear misuse of my own name.

"Do not misunderstand me. I certainly would not indicate a preference in a state primary merely because a candidate, otherwise liberal in outlook, had conscientiously differed with me on any single issue. I should be far more concerned about the general attitude of a candidate toward present-day problems and his own inward desire to get practical needs attended to in a practical way.

"We all know that progress may be blocked by outspoken reactionaries and also by those who say 'Yes' to a progressive objective, but who always find some reason to oppose any specific pro-

Firemen Overcome By Acid Fumes In Blaze At Detroit

Detroit, June 24 (AP)—Two Detroit firemen were confined to a hospital and three others were ill at their homes today suffering from the effects of acid fumes inhaled while battling a factory fire Thursday night.

The men became ill 12 hours after the fire at the Revere Copper & Brass Co. plant. A fire department rescue squad worked over the men for two hours.

Thomas J. Reardon and Ray Pender were confined to a hospital. Others stricken were Lieut. Edward Cook, Jerome Belanger and Albert Ratliff.

Direct Relief Aid Decreased In May

Lansing, June 24 (AP)—Increased Works Progress Administration activity was reflected today, George F. Granger, acting emergency relief administrator, said, in a 10 per cent drop in direct relief aid in Michigan during May.

He said the relief load was 144,243 cases as compared with 160,422 in April, and 183,158 in March, high point of the current recession. Relief costs declined 13 per cent to $2,810,569 from April's $4,131,105.

Of the May relief load, Granger said, 123,561 received general relief, 11,939 were dependent children, 570 were blind, and 8,183 were in need of shelter.

New Highway Signs Warn Motorists of Fire Hazard Areas

Lansing—Distribution throughout the fire zones in the northern part of the state of 70 new highway warning signs has begun and is expected to be completed before the end of the month.

The new signs, measuring four feet wide by 10 feet high, warn motorists that they are in or are entering a forest fire zone. They are being located at important highway intersections throughout the northern region.

The signs are being made by CCC enrollees at Camp Escanaba River.

Event for Escanaba and Gladstone Boys at Pioneer Trail

The second annual Scout Camporee will be held at Pioneer Trail park Saturday and Sunday. Seventeen patrols from Escanaba and Gladstone have entered to date. Entries from Escanaba in this Camporee are: Troops 50, 52, 53, 54, 55 and 57. Troops from Gladstone are: 56, 58 and 66.

The Camporee will begin at 8 a. m. Patrols will enter the park on the south side of US-2 from Escanaba and line up for their first inspection before entering the Camporee. They will be graded upon their appearance, which includes methods of packing into camp, neatness, and water-proofing.

The ability of the patrol to erect and maintain a neat and orderly camp at all times will receive special attention. The organization of the patrol with stress upon each boy having a specific duty and leadership of the patrol leader will count in the scoring. Events that will be conducted during the day are: signaling, water boiling, fire building, nature trail, first aid, and compass. Other events will be games and contests between the various patrols.

There will be a campfire program and Court of Honor held during the evening. Members of the district committee, parents, and all troop officers are invited to attend the evening program.

Escanaba Scouts To Cooperate In Christening Rites

All Scouts of Escanaba have been asked to cooperate with the Escanaba police department in the "City of Munsing" dedication Sunday. Art Aronson, city chairman of civic service, has asked the cooperation of all Scouts and leaders in uniforms or parts of uniforms to be at the city garage office at 12 o'clock noon to receive instructions for the day. They will meet Mr. Phillips at the city garage who will explain the details.

Summerweight Sweaters

Smart for a week-end at the beach or in the country are these summerweight wool sweaters in light green rabbit and zephyr knit. The girl just a bit tired of her plain, classic pullovers and cardigans will like the neckline tabs of this pullover and the short sleeves, crocheted buttons and stitched bandings that simulate pockets on the cardigan. The new high-waisted line is an important feature of both.

FARMERS' DAY IS AUGUST 6

Annual Round-Up Will Be Held at Chatham State Farm

Farm families are asked to mark August 6 as the date to visit the annual farmers' Round-Up at the Upper Peninsula Agricultural Experiment Station, Chatham. According to Superintendent J. G. Wells, Jr., that day is set aside for visits of farm families to see experimental work being conducted with animals and plants; to see demonstrations; to listen to one or more short speaking programs, and to renew acquaintances.

One new addition at the station that will draw the attention of visitors is the permanent buildings for Camp Shaw, the annual 4H club camp. The buildings will be completed early in July and will be used by the camp August 1-5. Another addition will be irrigation equipment for the gardens, truck crops and small fruits. Plentiful rainfall so far this season has made the use of the irrigation equipment unnecessary, but it might be needed before August.

Plans call for a plowing demonstration with special emphasis on equipment for breaking and fitting new ground. Increased activity in land clearing with the bull-dozer has made such a demonstration timely. A bull-dozer will also be in operation clearing and leveling stump land. Owners of home-made tractors will be invited to bring their machines to demonstrate them to their neighbors.

Women visitors will find programs of special interest in home economics, gardening and poultry. Lower prices of farm products this year has caused an increased interest in the vegetable garden and the use of other farm products in the home. An extensive home garden will be one of the features of the 1938 Round-Up.

BODY OF YOUTH IS RECOVERED

Grappling Hooks Bring Lawrence Valois to Surface

The body of Lawrence Valois, 18, Newhall youth who drowned in the Ford River near the Newhall bridge early Thursday evening, was recovered early yesterday morning just a short distance from the spot he was last seen.

Willard and Ronald Severinsen, who were members of a large crew of searchers working under the direction of Sheriff William Miron, brought the youth to the surface with the aid of grappling hooks.

Lawrence Valois was born in Schaffer, October 26, 1919, and attended the public schools there. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Valois and by the following brothers and sisters: Joseph, Eva, Harry, Albert, Charles and Louis, all of Chicago, and Lordie and Mrs. Clarence LaMarche of Schaffer.

The body was taken to the Allo Funeral Home to be prepared for burial and will be removed to the family home this afternoon at three o'clock. Services will be held Monday morning at nine o'clock at Sacred Heart church, Schaffer, Rev. Fr. Joseph Remillard officiating, and burial will be in Schaffer cemetery.

ENROLLMENT IS AT CAPACITY

No More Applicants for CMTC Appointments Are Accepted

Although the Citizens' Military Training Camps do not open until July 7th, all enrollment has been stopped because the quotas for the Michigan camps at Fort Brady at the Saulte, and Camp Custer, near Battle Creek, have been oversubscribed for the first time in several years, and with an alternate list numbering seven or eight hundred. The state allotment was 1300 for this year.

With the successful termination of the campaign to secure young men to attend these camps, comes the announcement of an additional scholarship to the three customarily awarded each year. Wayne University is offering one year's free tuition to an outstanding trainee from Wayne County, enrolled at Camp Custer. The conditions governing this award and others will be promulgated by the Commanding Officer of Camp Custer, Colonel James M. Churchill, 2d U. S. Infantry.

May Win Scholarships Boys in training at Camp Custer will have opportunity to win scholarships presented by Western State Teachers College, and the Detroit Institute of Technology. These two awards have been offered each year.

The Michigan College of Mines and Technology is again extending a scholarship to be competed for by those trainees attending the camp at Fort Brady.

All four awards are the same on year's free tuition, but the qualifications vary. Contestants will learn the details at the camps.

Colonel Phelps Newberry, Civilian Aide to the Secretary of War, in releasing the announcement concerning these scholarships, expressed himself as especially gratified with the response by the people of Michigan to the appeal for enrollment in the C. M. T. C. camps.

"It is regretted that so many young men had to be disappointed in their wish to go to camp this year," said Colonel Ralph M. Parker, U. S. Cavalry, Commanding Officer of the Michigan Military Area, "but perhaps next year we will receive additional funds and be able to increase not only the enrollments but the facilities and capacities of the C. M. T. C. Camps."

When John Adams

Chose Revolution

BRILLIANT young attorney, with every prospect of advancement, John Adams faced a grave decision on the eve of the American Revolution. In 1768 he moved to Boston and soon after was offered the position of advocate-general in the Court of Admiralty, an office which would have lent great professional prestige but which would have placed him definitely with the Royalists.

So young Adams declined it without hesitation, plunged instead into active politics on behalf of the colonists. He first aided in presenting to the British government a memorial against the Stamp Act. Next he took the bold stand that the Act was void because Parliament had passed it without the consent of the colonists. Thereafter, he became increasingly active in colonial affairs.

From political leadership in Massachusetts Adams moved to a seat in the Continental Congress. He was successful here in the first moves toward permanent American independence. Adams seconded the original motion for the formal Declaration and was at once named to the committee which drafted it. Subsequently he became second President of the United States. He is shown above on a stamp of the new U. S. regular issue, enlarged more than two times actual size.

Here and There

THE dangers of swimming in insulated, unpurified waters were again shown when a Newhall boy was drowned in the Ford river Friday evening.

Motorists are again falling to stop at the "through" streets in the city, according to complaints received by the Escanaba traffic commission.

The bass fishing season opens in Michigan today, and it is expected that more than 120,000 devoted followers of the angling sport will be out to the lakes and streams over the week-end in this state.

The christening of the "City of Munising," new Straits of Mackinac car ferry, and the staging of the Escanaba-Gladstone Fishing Rodeo promises to bring a lot of valuable publicity to this region.

News dispatches tell of fires destroying a rich timber country in the province of Alberta in Canada.

Think Now About July 4th LAST July, 10,200 Americans were killed in accidents, and each year the July tragedy toll tops every other month.

"Let's Be Alive on the Fifth" is the slogan that has been adopted by the National Safety Council for its campaign this year.

Air Corps Vacancies THE authorization by the War department for the immediate filling of about 200 vacancies for officers in the flying branch of the regular Army gives an excellent opportunity for young men who are air-minded.

Candidates for appointment must: (a) be graduates of the Air Corps Training Center, San Antonio, Texas; (b) be male citizens of the United States; (c) be physically qualified for flying duty in military aircraft; and (d) have not reached the age of twenty-nine years and ten months on August 1, 1938.

Detailed information may be secured from the Adjutant, Selfridge Field, Michigan, or other stations of the regular Army Air Corps.

This is one of the rare instances in recent years when civilians have been granted an opportunity of securing commissions in the Regular Army.

It now appears that another one of those changes may be on the way. The classroom blackboard is being seriously threatened.

Sombody claims that the blackboard absorbs enough of the light in a room to cut down on the student's vision.

Trans-Atlantic Job Hunt DISTRESS is touching, but hoopla seems to be irresistible.

Whether Helen Borsoos of New York got her job wholly by accident the other day is probably debatable.

When the ship docked at the end of her return voyage from Europe, Miss Borsoos attracted attention with her story.

Other Editors' Comments

MOTOR TAX DIVERSION?

Rumors have been heard in Lansing to the effect that the legislature may be asked to add another cent to the gasoline tax in order to raise funds for relief purposes.

Entirely aside from the diversion question there are several reasons for frowning on any attempt to tax motorists for relief purposes.

It should be remembered also that the state faced a struggle only a short time ago over the question of limiting gas taxes to 2 cents a gallon.

Once diversion was begun, whether for emergency purposes such as relief or for any other reason, it would be difficult ever to revoke the action.

New York Column

BY GEORGE ROSS

New York—The sobby say there is a broken heart for every electric light on Broadway, but in Douglas Leigh's case, every other incandescent glow represents another bank deposit.

For Douglas Leigh is the Sign King of Broadway, and in a short while the monument to his genius will be a Times Square sign with the biggest electric letters in the world.

Leigh's new sign will illuminate the virtues of a certain whiskey. Across the street, another Leigh sign casts light upon the qualities of a rival alcoholic drink, by means of an ingenious animated cartoon.

Twenty-eight years old, the slim, active Mr. Leigh reigns, with a maza sceptre, over the Great White Way. Five years ago, he surveyed the illuminated blurb along Broadway and decided that there was considerable room for improvement.

And within three years he had obtained command of the electric lights that shine down on the Main Stem. The big advertising agencies that deal in sign space are baffled by his success when they fail. The space for his newest "spectacular" trade-talk by a monster sign was peddled by 40 competitors to big firms, in vain.

Probably Still Blushing In flush moods, we are lured to a Fifth Avenue haberdashery every now and then. And the last time we dissolved our financial resources at this fashionable men's shop, the proprietor was boasting of his newest famous customer—Marlene Dietrich.

The last time La Dietrich was in town, she dropped in and ordered some "hacking" scarves, to be worn Ascot-style with lounge suits. It seems when they were delivered to her suite at the Waldorf, she discovered she didn't know how to tie them and phoned the shop for help.

So our friend, the proprietor, picked out the best looking juvenile from among his sales staff and sent him post-haste to Marlene's apartment to help with a demonstration. He found her togged in negligee, and for a half hour or so, the blushing youngster around the comely throat of his favorite movie star, while he stammered out instructions. He never knew that life could be so pleasant in a men's haberdashery.

I've been driving for 30 miles along this river looking for a bridge. Unidentified tourist, to a policeman, just before learning he was on the shore of Lake Michigan.

The Capital Parade

BY ALFOND AND KINTNER

Washington, June 25.—In New York, as elsewhere these days, the organization Democrats are paying rather dearly for the left-wing political alliances contracted by the President.

It is a trifle brutal to say so, but the death of Senator Royal S. Copeland caused ill-concealed joy among the Democratic leaders. With the extra senate seat to play with, it seemed that every problem plaguing the party might be simply solved.

Governor Herbert H. Lehman could be bought off with the new senate place, leaving the field clear for Senator Robert F. Wagner to be drafted, at an appropriate time, for the gubernatorial race.

Everything working according to schedule until the leaders of the American Labor Party and their powerful friend, Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, suddenly asserted themselves.

On the face of the situation, the outbursts on the left seem unreasonable. A Wagner-Lehman-Mead ticket should be pleasing to the Labor Party and La Guardia, for all three men have excellent labor records, and two of them, Wagner and Mead, have always expounded the same political theories adhered to by the mayor and Sidney Hillman.

But there is more to it than that. Word comes from New York that what the mayor, Hillman and other Labor Party leaders want now is a definite commitment that their views shall prevail in charting the future course of the democracy.

Concretely, the laborites-La Guardia group desire two things. First, they would like a major place on the ticket for someone from their own ranks. If they cannot get the governorship or other senate place, they insist they must have the lieutenant governorship.

But second—and here is where the Democratic kibes are galled—they would like a promise that the New York delegates to the Democratic convention in 1940 will be men of their own sort. La Guardia is an ex-Republican; Sidney Hillman and David Dubinsky are Labor leaders of socialist background, and yet they hope to tell the Democratic bosses what position to take in the great 1940 bargaining match.

To demand promises for 1940 is the present determined intention of the mayor and his friends. They may abandon it. But if they carry it out, they could not cause more pain to Postmaster General James A. Farley and his cronies, Flynn of the Bronx and Kelly of Brooklyn, by knocking them flat and dancing the big apple on their prostrate forms.

Farley's one desire is to preserve the unity of the Democratic party, which is dearer to his heart than anything but his country and his church. To keep the party united, a middle-of-the-road Democrat must be chosen in 1940, and to choose a middle-of-the-road Democrat, the all important New York delegation must be composed of middle-of-the-roads. If left to themselves, the postmaster-general and his New York cronies will undoubtedly send just such a delegation to the convention. Even the President is powerless to interfere.

But the Labor Party leaders and La Guardia do not share the presidential impotence. They have behind them a loosely knit following of union workers, liberal intellectuals, and mugwump La Guardia voters, amounting in all to about 500,000 votes. Since the Republicans are sure to run well in up-state New York, this block of votes is vitally necessary to Democratic victory.

Of course, the self-assertion of the left may come to nothing in New York, either by accident, or mismanagement, or because the left is not so strong as it seems. But for the present, the pattern of forces displayed in New York appears to foreshadow strange events in the future.

The Epsom Derby has been televised. Bettors were able to stay at home and at the same time be right on the scene of the tragedy.

A combination coat and shirt has just been invented. It gets the agony over with quicker in strip poker.

Miss Cronlund
of DeKalb Bride
of Rev. Hultman

A wedding ceremony of June, beautifully appointed, at which the father of the bridegroom read the impressive service, took place last evening in DeKalb, Illinois, the marriage of Miss Helen Katherine Marie Cronlund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Axel F. Cronlund of DeKalb, and Rev. William L. Hultman, pastor of the Swedish Mission church of Escanaba, a son of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Hultman of Smolan, Kansas.

The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the Swedish Mission church. Rev. Mr. Hultman, officiating clergyman, was assisted by Rev. John Paulson, pastor of the DeKalb church.

Palms, Boston ferns and baskets of garden flowers decorated the church, forming an effective setting for the service. As the guests were assembling Mrs. Ellen Rensjuff sang "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me." The traditional Wagner's "Bridal Chorus," and Mendelssohn's Wedding March were used.

Bride in White
The bride wore a gown of white mousseline de sole and lace over white tulle with long length veil of white tulle with lace insertions. Her arm bouquets and baby breath. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Vera McAllister of DeKalb, wore pale green satin, with a matching head dress of coronet style and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses and baby breath.

Arnold Cronlund of DeKalb, brother of the bride, was best man, and Harold and Howard Noreen, the bride's cousins, ushered.

A reception for fifty guests was held at the Cronlund home following the service, the decorations of garden flowers in pink and white, with the same colors used in the three tiered wedding cake and the table appointments.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white georgette ensemble with a corsage of roses and sweet peas.

Salem Church
Re-Dedication
Service Sunday

Sunday, June 26, will be a festive day at Salem Lutheran church in Bark River of which Rev. Frank E. Peterson is pastor.

The church recently was completely remodeled and an addition built to accommodate the growing congregation.

Re-dedication services will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, E.S.T., with Rev. Mr. Peterson, who now resides in Norway, officiating.

At noon the Ladies' Aid society will serve its annual mid-summer dinner.

Sunday afternoon Salem Lutheran League will host for the mid-summer rally of the Green Bay District Lutheran League, of which officers are: president, Rev. Carl F. Johnson of Dargett; vice, president, J. Milton Bloomquist, Escanaba; secretary, Norma Nygren, Rapid River; treasurer, Esther Solten, Menominee; Pocket Testament secretary, Betty Skogberg, Marinette. Rally speakers will be Rev. Lawrence J. Sodergren, pastor of Bethel Lutheran church, Menominee, and Roy Benson, student assistant of Bethany Lutheran church, Escanaba.

A special meeting of the League will be held after the rally session, to consider several matters, including confirmation of an appointment to the Superior Conference Lutheran League executive council; the district drive for Rosander Auditorium to be built this summer at Fortune Lake Bible Encampment site near Iron River; and dates for the annual convention and district rally.

Consecration Service
Salem League will serve refreshments to the visitors in the late afternoon.

The first annual consecration service of the district, of which Rev. Carl F. Johnson, district president, will be in charge, will be held at 7 o'clock in the evening, bringing the day's activities to a close.

The remodeling and rededication of the church was made possible through the Berquist bequest and the gift of Ole Harstad, and the entire membership of the parish and friends of members donated the labor and funds needed to build the annex to the church which serves as sacristy, choir room and class room. Others who contributed to the furnishing and modernizing of the church included Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, who donated the wiring and lighting fixtures; Mrs. Ole Harstad, whose gift was a beautiful pulpit, and the church organizations, the Ladies' Aid Society, the Luther League, and the Men's Club, Helmer Bruce of the last named, landscaping and seeding the church grounds.

Class Reunion
Dinner Tonight

The class of 1918 of Escanaba high school will hold a reunion at an informal dinner this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Delta hotel. Mrs. John J. Walsh, the former Mary Nee, president of the class, is chairman of the committee in charge of the reunion, which will be attended by a large representation of the class, as well as members of the faculty of the school at that time.

Rev. C. A. Lund
Is Honored at Synod Meeting

(Special to the Press)
New York, June 24—Rev. Dr. C. Albert Lund and Werner N. Olson of Escanaba are in Brooklyn attending the seventy-ninth annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod of North America, which will continue all week at the Bethlehem Lutheran church. More than 400 pastors and lay delegates from thirty states and Canada are present. Dr. Lund is a member of the convention council and has been elected a delegate to the biennial convention of the American Lutheran Conference to be held in Racine, Wis., in November. Mr. Olson has been named an alternate to the Racine meeting.

A serious note was struck by Dr. P. O. Bersell, president of the Synod, in his opening address last night. Totalitarian governments, the forces of atheism and organized purveyors of immorality present the greatest challenge the church has faced since the first century, he declared. It will have to discover its very reason for existence in the ensuing fight, forecast Dr. Bersell.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Tourist Guide Training Center To Be Established In Escanaba

WPA PROJECT TO BEGIN SOON

Various Phases of Work Will Be Taught By Trained Leader

The first tourist guide training center in the Upper Peninsula will be established in Escanaba, next week, according to Dexter A. MacSwain, Lansing, state director of the tourist guide training project, and Harriett Koglin, Iron Mountain, district supervisor of women's and professional projects, who were here yesterday making arrangements for the new vocational training program.

The first class will consist of from 25 to 30 men, either on the WPA or eligible for WPA employment. They will receive the usual WPA scale of wages while taking the three month training course. A leader or instructor will be appointed in the near future. He will be a well qualified person, and need not be on the WPA rolls. The general public also will be allowed to enroll for some of the training courses, without remuneration.

Courses to be taught will include: Rustic furniture building, emergency overnight structure building, art of fly tying, art of rod repairing, the compass and its uses, stream control work, art of camp cooking and sewing, dietary and buying needs for various camps, choosing the camp locations, art of gun repair, art of living off the land if necessary, and general knowledge, including safety rules, game and fish laws and so forth.

"This training course is designed to provide a number of residents of this section with a trade that may be helpful in earning a livelihood," Mr. MacSwain said. "It is felt that trained guides will be able to serve tourists so well that they will tell their friends about the splendid service offered here and also will return to Michigan for future vacations. The training course, it is hoped, will fit in with the efforts that are being made to develop the recreational industry in the Upper Peninsula."

Training centers will be opened later at Marquette, Crystal Falls and a few other points in the Upper Peninsula.

Theatres

AT THE MICHIGAN

"Mr. Motto Takes a Chance," opened at the Michigan theatre with Peter Lorre in the starring role, and Rochelle Hudson, Robert Kent and J. Edward Bromberg.

Into a weird wilderness of mystic temples, wells of death, and other nameless terrors, ventures the screen's most amazing sleuth to face the most sensational adventure of his perilous career as he seeks to solve his most baffling mystery.

AT THE DELFT

A walloping story of war between gold rustlers and ranchers in the cattle country of the Old Southwest is told in the latest "Hopalong Cassidy" outdoor action romance, "Bar 20 Justice," which opened last night at the Delft theatre with William Boyd again cast as the gallant, hard-riding hero of the range.

"The Safety Girls," the first screen musical of the distinguished Alexander Kroda, came to the Delft theatre last night. Patricia Ellis, the charming Hollywood star, and Jack Hulbert, that jovial gentleman of the jutting chin and the flying feet, are the dancing and singing stars of the film and the whole occasion is a gloriously happy one.

Vacation Trips To Badger State Resorts Offered

BY BERT CLAPLIN
Whoever wins the prize of free accommodations at Stimpson's Sunrise Camp, on the Lac du Flambeau Indian reservation, northern Wisconsin, and takes advantage of it, will not be disappointed.

Not only is this a fine place to spend a couple of days, but the waters on which the resort is located, and those immediately about it are outstanding for their fish population. Gunlock and Twin lake, which form the peninsula upon which the resort stands, have muskies, large northern pike, walleyes and bass in goodly numbers. Fence lake, a short distance away, and which can be reached by boat, contains great numbers of really large walleyes. They are taken from forty to sixty feet of water. One need never worry about getting a limit of fish at Sunrise Camp.

Mr. Stimpson is an expert of the first water. His cottages are meticulously clean; the table in the main dining room, presided over by Mrs. Stimpson, is unsurpassed for fine food. Great trees shade the entire place. There is no brush and no insects to bother one. All in all, Stimpson's Sunrise Camp is a place for real fishermen, and yet it is also "homey," very comfortable and a place that will leave in the mind of the visitor a lasting impression of keen pleasure and good camaraderie.

Chance For Muskies
Art Schmidt's Muskellunge Camp is located on the famous Flambeau and Turtle river flowages, in Iron county, northern Wisconsin. Art has donated a few days accommodations at his place as a prize for the Fishermen's Party. His resort consists of neat little log cottages and a main lodge in which meals are served, if preferred by the guest. He has very good boats, very skilled guides, motors and baits. The flowages embrace 18,000 acres of water caused by the Turtle dam on the Flambeau, a half mile from Art's place. These waters, while they contain big northern pike, walleyes, crappies and other species of fish, are best known for their great muskie fishing. I speak from experience, for I have caught the great fighters there weighing up to thirty pounds. Black bass, too, are plentiful. They can be taken at almost any time in the Turtle flowage. But it is the tiger muskies that most fishermen go after at Art Schmidt's place.

I thought so much of the waters that I purchased a piece of land on them and built myself a cottage there. It stands in heavy virgin timber, almost entirely free from all civilization. I say frankly that whoever wins the prize of accommodations at Art Schmidt's place may go there almost with the assurance that he will land a tiger muskie. And he will enjoy to the utmost his stay on these unexcelled waters.

Ham Stuffed Tomatoes
6 firm tomatoes

3 tablespoons minced green peppers
4 tablespoons minced celery
1-2 cups diced mushrooms
4 tablespoons flour
1-2 teaspoon salt
2 cups tomato juice
3 cups boiled rice
Melt butter in a frying pan. Add onions, peppers and celery. Cook for five minutes. Add mushrooms. Cover and cook slowly for ten minutes. Add flour and salt. When blended add tomato juice and cook for three minutes—until thick and creamy. Serve hot poured over rice. Sprinkle with paprika and garnish with parsley.

"City of Munising" Will Be Christened Here at 1 P.M. Sunday

PROGRAM WILL BE BROADCAST

Sen. Brown, Osborn and Kennedy Will Speak at Exercises

The "City of Munising", large, streamlined ferry boat of the Straits of Mackinac fleet, will be christened at impressive ceremonies to be held at the Merchants dock in Escanaba Sunday afternoon, beginning at one o'clock. The christening ceremonies will be preceded by a huge parade, in which floats entered by civic organizations and business concerns of Munising, Escanaba, Crystal Falls and other communities will take part.

Mayor John W. Hannah of Munising will present the ship's colors to Captain E. H. Doner, superintendent of the state ferries, at the exercises, and Mrs. Hannah, wife of the mayor, will smash the bottle of champagne on the ship's prow.

Wood Will Preside
H. A. Wood, superintendent of the Munising township schools, will preside at the ceremonies. G. Donald Kennedy, business manager of the state highway department, will give the principal address. Also appearing on the speaking program will be United States Senator Prentiss M. Brown of St. Ignace and Former Governor Chase S. Osborn. The Mather high school band also will appear on the program. Mayor Peter N. Logan of Escanaba will deliver the address of welcome. Station WJR will broadcast the proceedings.

Following the christening, the public will be allowed to inspect the boat. The next event on the day's program will be the Fishermen's Party, which will start at 2:30 p. m. at the U. P. State Fairgrounds.

The "City of Munising" will leave the Manitowoc shipyards on Saturday and will stay overnight at Menominee, where various Munising officials and others will board the boat for the trip the following morning to Escanaba. Yachts of Escanaba and Gladstone will escort the ferry boat into the harbor here.

The "City of Munising" will go into the Straits service on Monday, June 27.

Statistics on Boat
Originally costing the state $60,000, the remodeling expenditures totalled $123,000. The valuation of the craft was set at $425,000 by the United States Salvage association. In two efforts to obtain a satisfactory bid on the construction of a new boat last year, the state highway department was unable to obtain a figure below a million dollars.

Some of the principal changes in the vessel are its coat of white paint, the official color of all state boats at the Straits; removal of railroad tracks; gangways had to be cut into the sides to permit side-loading as well as end-loading; overhead machinery was installed and boilers reconditioned. A passenger cabin was built and crew quarters re-built.

"The City of Munising" has a cruising speed of 12 miles an hour which is two miles an hour faster than the average of the other state-owned boats. It will handle 120 vehicles, compared to 85 on the "City of Cheboygan," the second largest boat of the state fleet.

Primitive Vacation Has Greatest Lure For Average Man

Most men have enough of the primitive in their makeup that the prospect of the ordinary vacation, loafing around some comfortable rustic resort, does not always satisfy. After all, they are not so far removed from a wilderness anarchy that they can easily forget the thrill of unsettled country.

Way back in their subconscious they feel that muscles should be pitted against packs and portages, wind and waves, that bodies should know the difficulties of primitive means of travel, that once in a while in their well-regulated lives there should be some uncertainty, some adventure, some opportunity for reckless living.

HAS MANY MAMMALS

More than 1,300 species and geographic races of mammals are known to exist in that part of North America lying north of Mexico.

U. S. Senator To Be Here Sunday

PRENTISS M. BROWN

United States Senator Prentiss M. Brown of St. Ignace will board the "City of Munising" at Menominee Sunday morning and will ride to Escanaba for the christening ceremonies to be held shortly after noon.

Former Governor To Attend Fete

Chase S. Osborn, Sault Ste. Marie, former governor of Michigan, will participate in the christening of the "City of Munising," new state ferry boat, at the Merchants dock in Escanaba 1 p. m. Sunday. Mr. Osborn has been an enthusiastic booster for the building of a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac.

To test the hooking power of a fly rod hold it in front of you and make a downward movement. The tip should come to rest almost instantly. If it vibrates for two or three seconds the rod lacks hooking power.

YACHTS TO BE BUSY SUNDAY

Will Hold Regatta and Participate in Christening

Escanaba Yachtsmen will have a full program on Sunday. At 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon the local yachts will leave the Yacht Basin to form an escort for the converted ferry which is to be christened "The City of Munising" at the Merchants Dock at one o'clock.

At three o'clock the five local Seagulls will run the first heat of their race for the Vinette trophy, which will be followed at three thirty by the start of the class B regatta.

As soon as these races are over and with weather permitting, the local yachts will sail up to the head of the bay to form a background for the Fishing Rodeo.

The boats entered in the seagull class are as follows: Fred Kibby's Carefree, William Jacobs' Ah-Mie, Francis Boyce' Melody, William Stoll's Lu, Ed. Erickson's Nautical. Those entered in the class B regatta are: Jacobson Bros' Charlann, Anthony's Vagabond and Thatcher's Onaway.

MIMIC FLYING INSECT

If there is a fair breeze blowing while you are on your favorite trout stream tie a bushy fly such as a bumblebee to your leader, hold your rod tip high and let the breeze toss the fly about above the water. Often trout will clear the water in their attempts to get what looks like a flying insect. After letting it flutter in the air for a minute drop it on the water and let it float downstream. This trick works best with a long, fine leader.

In Germany, insects are responsible for the loss of one-thirtieth of the potato crop, one-tenth of the wheat crop and one-fifth of the apple crop.

Minnesota Claims Biggest US Forest

The largest national forest in the continental United States is the Superior, in the Minnesota arrowhead country, covering 3,730,910 acres. Within its borders are 980 named lakes and scores of unnamed lakes.

Fourteen varieties of game fish are found in the lakes and streams of the forest, ranging from landlocked salmon in deep glacial bodies of water to panfish in the shallow sand-bottom lakes.

The Florida Everglades extend approximately 110 miles.

Fishermen's Party at Escanaba Fairgrounds 2:30 P.M. Sunday

LARGE CROWD WILL ATTEND

Trick Casting, Birling and Other Entertainment Features

More than three thousand persons—young and old—are expected to attend the Fishermen's Party to be held at the Upper Peninsula State Fairgrounds 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the Lions clubs of Escanaba and Gladstone.

The Fishermen's Party will present a novel entertainment program, which will be of interest to both fishermen and non-fishermen. It will include the first exhibition of trick casting ever offered in the Upper Peninsula by Clare Bryan, world's champion trick caster, who has appeared on the stage throughout the country.

Birling Exhibition

The four Girards—William, and his three sons, Lowell, Adolph and Edmund—will come from Gladstone to give a pre-view of the World's Championship Log Rolling Tournament to be held at the state fair in August.

The Escanaba Municipal Band will play during the afternoon, and there also will be songs by the Knights of Columbus Chorus, under the direction of Willard Clark.

Bert Claffin, outdoors editor of the Chicago Herald & Examiner, will give a brief talk on fishing. Addresses of welcome will be given by Gust Asp, president of the Escanaba Lions club, and Vincent Johnson, president of the Gladstone Lions club. James J. Frenn, chairman of the entertainment committee, will serve as master of ceremonies.

Over 100 Prizes

More than a hundred awards will be given to the fishermen who participate in the Fishermen's Party. The prizes include a $500 lot, comprising two and a half acres, on beautiful Garth Shores; a Thompson rowboat, Evinrude motor, about a dozen vacations at Upper Peninsula and Wisconsin resorts, and many items of fishing tackle. Announcements in connection with the awarding of the prizes will be made by L. A. Danielson, Escanaba, and W. S. Skelenger, Gladstone.

Trees if partly covered by sand, will change their covered branches to roots; if uncovered again, they go back to branches.

Trick Casters to Perform Here

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Bryan of Chicago will give a sensational exhibition of trick casting at the Fishermen's Party to be held at the Upper Peninsula State Fairgrounds 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 26.

Among the stunts that Mr. Bryan will perform with a fishing rod and reel are the following: Flick the ashes from a cigarette held by Mrs. Bryan on the far side of the stage; flip a cigarette from her lips, then one half of a cigarette; break a china plate held in her hand; flip a dime from her fingers; hit a small target on her head while she faces the caster, the weight coming very close to her eyes; burst a punching bag balloon which is moving at the same speed as a standard punching bag; twirl the weight around her finger standing backwards, making a reverse turn during the cast; slice a banana in one-quarter pieces when held by his assistant; and cast the weight into a hat or a man's pocket.

ANGLERS CAN'T AGREE ON FLIES

Every Fisherman Has His Favorite Patterns and Swears by Them

By KENNETH A. REID
If you want to get a dozen different opinions, just ask that many fly fishers their advice on trout flies. Probably no subject in the angling is so controversial. Trout are undoubtedly fickle and exacting at times, but I doubt if they are as much so as the fishermen. The novice seeking information is apt to be so hopelessly confused by the wide variety of information that he is likely in desperation to repair to the back lot with spade and tin can.

Big Wets Good

The number of patterns is legion, and each has its staunch advocates. Then there is the question of size with a range from 6 to 16 or more. A little simple multiplication will run a single fly assortment easily into four figures. But no such wide assortment is needed or even desirable. I am guilty of carrying a rather large assortment of patterns and sizes "just in case," but at the end of each season it is fairly intact except for the conspicuous absence of Royal Coachman and Quill Gordon, and the scarcity of Light Cahill and a few other patterns like blue, red and ginger quills, and brown and white bi-visible in dry flies. I have always maintained that one can only catch trout when his fly is on the water, and the fellow who is always changing flies in a meticulous attempt to match the natural, misses a lot of good fishing.

The importance of color or pattern has been greatly exaggerated by most writers. One's confidence in his own wares has a great deal to do with his success, and it is much better to have a goodly number of flies in several sizes of a few patterns than a wide assortment. The size will vary somewhat with the size and type of water as well as the season and condition of water, but No. 12 and No. 14 might be considered as the standard sizes for most dry flies, with perhaps a few No. 10, 16 and 18. In wet flies, you will hardly need the smaller sizes, and for larger flies the bucktails and streamers have their excellent uses—particularly on bigger waters. Very satisfactory nymphs can be made by a judicious trimming

By O. Warren Smith
Dad Jones, Mom Jones, Johnnie Jones and Jenny Jones were up betimes, and the old flivver was coughing away out in the driveway, anxious to be off. With hamper of grub and outfit, they piled in and disappeared down the road. Their destination was soon reached, a nearby pond or lakelet, noted for yellow perch and bullheads. Soon the flivver was parked and the old scow, broad of beam and as stable as Noah's ark, urged out from shore, close enough to a weed-bed so that the flies could tease lurking fish from the refuge.

Now the Jones family, if not expert, are at least adept with the fuzzy-wuzzies. Jennie insists that Scarlet Ibis is the best fly. Johnnie knows the Silver Doctor is better. Mom prefers a Montreal, while Dad uses a Brown Hackle, tied Palmer. Watch 'em! They cast toward the weed-bed, allowing the flies to settle beneath the surface, then with teasing, tantalizing jerks, begin to retrieve. They cast rather close together, for they know that if one gets a fish, other perch will gather 'round. A habit old Isaac Walton noticed, you remember. A squeal from Jenny announced a strike, and the quick turn of her wrist sends the steel home.

Use Eyed Flies

There are plenty of good wet flies on the market, although they are commonly tied too heavily. Dry flies are a different story, and many of them are dry only as far as the label on the box. In selecting dry flies, examine the hackle carefully. If they have soft, lustreless hackles that curl or slant backward, you can rest assured that they will remain dry for only a few casts before the hackles mat against the body and the contraction drowns. Select those with stiff glossy hackles that stand out perpendicular to the shank of the hook or even slant slightly forward, and see that these hackles are evenly distributed when you examine the fly head on. A good dry fly should be supported on its hackles and tail and not have to be kept from drowning by its body and wings.

If you have been using scented flies, either dry or wet, the sooner you discard them for the eyed variety the better. Not only is a scented fly undependable after it has been once used and put away, but the unsightly double loop attachment is much more visible to wary trout.
(Copyright, 1938, North American Sportsman's Bureau)

able" so, I guess maybe she's right, at that. Dinner over, they sprawl about the embers of the fire, talk, while if the truth must be told Dad snores.
Now, folks, I submit that the Jones family have the right idea about this fishing business. It is a family co-operative affair. Lots better to have Billy and Jenny with Mom and Dad, than chasing around with the other kids. Thus a new respect is born in youth for age, and age secures an understanding of youth. Maybe if we did as the Jones family does, we wouldn't be having so much trouble with the children, and the home would once again be something other than the building in front of the garage. Maybe Mom is right when she says, "A fish line is stronger than a razor strap".
Copyright 1938, North American Sportsman's Bureau.
If your gut leader does not sink readily rub it well with soap and you will have no further trouble. Mud is also good but in some rivers is hard to find. It is also a good plan to wash your hands after oiling your fly or greasing your line to keep oil from getting on the leader.

REIMAN BUILDS NEW COTTAGES

Fine Resort Established Along Shores of Fortune Lake

William Reiman, Iron River, well known Standard Oil company representative, is completing the construction of about a dozen attractive tourist cottages on US-2, at the entrance of Bi-Wa-Bik park, between Crystal Falls and Iron River.

The cottages are equipped with modern facilities. There is splendid fishing in Fortune lake just a few feet away and in the various streams in the vicinity. There is also a fine swimming beach.
A week's rental of one of the cottages is offered as a prize to be given away at the Fishermen's Party at the state fair grounds in Escanaba at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.
Mr. Reiman has named his resort the Chippewa Cottages.

FOLLOW SAFETY WATER RULES

Don't Rock the Boat Or Overload It; Use Care at All Times

BY DILLON WALLACE
Fear of the water has spoiled so much enjoyment for so many people that it's too bad the public schools don't institute a course in how to get over that fear. All of us know somebody who has sustained loss or injury because of the water. This kind of trouble doesn't have to happen at all.

There are plenty of ways to get into trouble on the water, but 99 per cent of that trouble is of a man's own making. For one thing, I don't know of any boat that ever tipped itself over.

Somebody has to tip it. And then, when that somebody actually has tipped the boat over he makes the second mistake of trying to swim to shore. Most any boat will stay afloat even if it's filled full of water, and it's a far better plan to hang on to the upset craft until somebody comes along in a rescue boat. You might overestimate your swimming ability if you strike out for shore.

Don't Jump In
One other way of getting into trouble is to get into a boat with your arms full of bundles. There's a fine chance to stumble over a seat or fall into the water or bash up your face. You should have your hands free for grabbing. Going to the other extreme, jumping into a boat often results in shoving the boat away from the pier. You land in the water or maybe you go right through the bottom planking. Either way, the results are no fun. The way to get into any small boat is to step into the center, hold onto the sides and sit down. Be sure to step all the way in, too, because a straddle between boat and dock isn't comfortable and it looks silly even if it doesn't hurt you.

There's a leather medal available for all those bright folk who stand up to push the boat off the shallows with an oar. The medal, etched from life, shows a man frantically twining his arms and legs around the oar that got itself stuck in the mud while the boat drifted away.

The fellow who rocks the boat is in exactly the same category as the lad with a mask who steps out from a dark alley to confront you with a gun. Both of them are threatening your life and both ought to have the same treatment. Call a cop or swing a club.

Hang Onto Stern
A good stunt for helping an upset mariner to shore is to have him hang onto the stern of the rescue boat. There's trouble ahead if you try to help the fellow in over the side. If you do think it necessary to bring him into the boat help him in over the stern. If anybody else is with you in the rescue craft have him go to the bow and help balance the boat.

Changing seats in deep water, overloading the boat, going boating in a badly leaking craft and a few other fool ideas all come in the same class.

The people who don't get into trouble on the water are those who don't try the show-off stuff. Water is safe enough if a man is sensible about handling himself in a boat.

Fishermen To Receive High Grade Equipment At Lions Party Sunday

BY BERT CLAFLIN
Every prize awarded at the Escanaba Fishermen's Party has been carefully selected with a view of putting into the hands of the fishermen something of practical value that can be used to the best possible advantage in the great sport of angling and other forms of play in the big outdoors. It has not been our aim merely to offer prizes as an inducement to attend the affair. We know that is not necessary. You would come anyhow to enjoy the program we are going to put on for your entertainment. The party is yours, not ours. The prizes have been donated by us simply to enhance the fun and, as I have stated, to give you the best obtainable fishing tackle, boats, motors, free accommodations at resorts etc. which will enable you to get more out of your vacation and fishing trips this year and in the years to come.

Good Rods Essential
Rods, of course, are essential in the sport of fishing. It has been my pleasure to select for prizes the very best to be had on the market. Because of my experience in using them, I turned to James Heddon's Sons, South Bend Bait Company, Shakespeare and the American Fork and Hoe Company for these important factors in the sport of fishing. Their rods are standard equipment, very durable and a credit to anyone using them.

The lines secured from the Ashaway Line and Twine Mfg. Co. and the B. F. Gladding Company are unexcelled. Experienced anglers use them extensively because of their great durability. Pfluger reels, made by the Enterprize Mfg. Co., are too well known among anglers to require specific comment. They also are standard and smooth working.

Various Lures Used
Lures used by anglers vary greatly. There are hundreds of different types on the market. I have used practically all of them and have learned which are really most effective as fish getters. With that in mind, I have not selected at random those to be awarded you as prizes, but have chosen such as have been on the market for years and stood the test. For example, the products

STATE'S PARKS ARE IMPROVED

WPA and CCC Projects in Recreation Areas Add Conveniences
Lansing, June 25—In addition to their annual spring grooming, several of Michigan's 57 state parks will offer major improvements to visitors this season.

Included among the larger jobs which have been completed is the widening and extension of the parking oval at the Grand Haven state park. Here a revamped electrical system for supplying trailers is also being installed.

At Ludington, the camping grounds has been enlarged while at the Indian lake state park in the upper peninsula, a picnic grounds has been laid out and a shelter building and sanitary facilities are under construction. A camp grounds was available at this park last summer.

Work on a number of other projects, undertaken largely through the WPA and CCC, will be continued this season, including the building of a combined bath house, shelter and sanitary facility building at the Burt lake park, and a variety of improvements at several other parks.

Virtually all of the painting, repairing and cleaning up work which is done each spring at all of the parks is completed, with everything in order for the annual influx of visitors who last year numbered approximately 9,000,000.

Will Attend Fishing Rodeo

Fred Bradley, Rogers City, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman, will be a visitor in Escanaba during the Fishing Rodeo Sunday, June 26.

Rank Ouananiche At Head Of List As Game Fighter

Indians called it "ouananiche" (wanna-nish) 400 years ago, when they told Explorer Cartier about the fabulous wealth of the mysterious "Kingdom of the Saguenay." The fish is caught in Lake St. John in Quebec and in the hundreds of swirling white rivers that feed the lake from all compass points.

Scientists say the ouananiche is a variety of landlocked salmon that is just content to "stay put" in the area even though its path to the sea, 1,000 miles distant via the Saguenay and St. Lawrence rivers, lies open before it.

But on one point all hands agree, that one of these speckled beauties with the great dorsal fin line is piscatorial dynamite once the hook hits home. Four-foot leaps clear of the water, tall dancing, sudden dives, lunges and exhausting runs are all part of his repertoire.

Even blasé Indians and French-Canadian trappers, accustomed as they are to the wonders of the wilderness, come to a tention when this game fish is mentioned. These fellows each year have first crack at the fighter on their trips from trap lines to trading posts with their winter's haul of valuable pelts. And sportsmen who go for the thrill follow along as soon as they can.

According to experienced guides no ouananiche ever quit fighting until he was dead. Ten-pounders battle a half hour or more and during that period try the wrists and wiles of the strongest and canniest sportsman.

Each female cod has more than 9,000,000 eggs, but the numbers of the offspring are kept down by a host of enemies.

thing about them? I have selected them because I use one personally. It starts when I want it to. They are prizes worthwhile.

WELL HANDLED CANOE IS SAFE

Learn Proper Stroke and Take No Chances While Getting Into Craft

Teaching some people how to handle a canoe is a mighty hard task, particularly if they have learned in parks that long stroke in vogue in such places. A canoe is a tricky customer when you do not treat it kindly. Give it the right attention and it is a safe craft for fishing. With it you can travel efficiently, quietly, getting in and out of likely spots without creating any disturbance.

A good canoeist can paddle effectively on either side without ever having to change. Down goes the blade with a short draw, then the twist, and up comes the paddle, cutting the water almost flat.

Learn to guide the canoe with a slight shifting of your body. This will help wonderfully.

Paddle From Center
With an empty canoe always paddle from the center; otherwise, the bow will be so high the least wind will change its course. If you must paddle from the stern, balance the bow with rocks but be sure you do not get it bow-heavy. A bow-heavy canoe is mighty dangerous.

Learn to step into a canoe lightly, always with the feet in the center, facing the bow. Do not be stiff-legged.

Most rowboats capsize from being loaded improperly or dipping one or deeper than the other and exerting too much force on one side. Anglers also are inclined to take too many risks in a row boat. The most dangerous of all is standing up or not sitting in the middle of the seat.

Around 70,000 elephants are killed annually in Africa for the ivory trade.

Fishing Rodeo Will Be Staged At Masonville 5 P.M. Sunday

CASTING MEET ALSO PLANNED

Attractive Prizes To Be Awarded Winners of Lions' Derby

The Escanaba-Gladstone Fishing Rodeo, sponsored jointly by the Lions clubs of these two neighboring communities, will be held at the head of Little Bay de Noc.

REGISTER BOATS EARLY
All boats competing in the Fishing Rodeo should be registered at the William Nelson dock at Masonville before 5 p. m. so that the Rodeo will start on time. Since it will take almost an hour to register the names of the contestants and to give a number to each boat, it is urged that the fishermen report about 4:15 p. m. The Fishing Rodeo committee will be on hand at that time. A placard, bearing a number, will be pasted on each boat.

near Masonville, on Sunday afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock. The Great Lakes region biggest fishing festival since the smelt jamboree, the annual Fishing

Rodeo is staged to celebrate the opening of the bass season. Judging from the interest being shown and the number of entries already received, there will be at least two hundred rowboats competing in the fishing derby for the fun and prizes that will be offered. The firing of a bombshell will be the signal for the eager fishermen to shove off to the fishing waters opposite William Nelson's dock at Masonville. The contestants will fish in sight of the spectators on shore, where parking space will be provided for several hundred automobiles.

Finish About 8 P. M.
About 8 o'clock, another bombshell will be discharged as the signal for the fishermen to start rowing full speed to shore. Prizes will be awarded to the fishermen getting the largest and most fish. There also will be a prize given to the boat reaching shore first.

While the fishermen are engaged in fishing, the crowd on shore will be entertained by the WPA orchestra and a bait casting tournament to be conducted by Clare Bryan, Chicago, world's champion trick caster.

List of Prizes
Points will be awarded to the winners in the dash to the dock as follows: First, 50 points; second, 40; third, 30; and fourth, 10.

Points will also be given to the fishermen catching various species of fish. For each fish, the point awards will be as follows:

Large and small mouth bass, 50; rock bass, 15; northern pike, 25; walleyed pike, 30; perch, 15; sunfish, 40; silver bass, 100; bullhead, 20; steelhead or rainbow trout, 100; bluegill, 30; mullet, 10; smelt, 25.

To the fishing boat scoring the highest number of points, the following prizes will be awarded:

First Prize—One Evinrude motor.
Second Prize—One casting rod, made by American Fork and Hoe company.

Third Prize—One Martin Automatic Reel.

Prizes will be awarded to fishermen catching the biggest fish in each species as follows:

Large and small mouth bass—One No. 10 Eppinger insect hook.
Rock bass—One A-B-C spoon.
Northern Pike—One Weasner's Weasel.

Walleyed Pike—One Pflueger Chum Spoon.
Perch—One Bottle of Oil of Indian Mosquito Repellent.

Sunfish—One tube Kimball's Fly Oil.
Silver Bass—One Creek Club Bait.

Bullhead—One tube Kimball's Fly Oil.
Steelhead or Rainbow Trout—One Weasner's Baby Weasel.

Bluegill—One day rental of William Nelson's boat at Masonville.
Mullet—One Heilm Flatfish Lure.
Smelt—One Pflueger Mustang Minnow.

First place winner in race to shore at end of rodeo—Two-One year's subscription to Sports Afield magazine.

All fishermen, no matter where they hail from, will be eligible to compete in the bait casting contest to be held as a feature of the Fishing Rodeo. No entry fee will be charged.

Three fine prizes, consisting of fishing equipment, will be awarded to winners as follows:

First Prize—One No. 305 Marble's Gift Set.
Second Prize—One H. 50 yard Ashway Fish Line.
Third Prize—One tube Kimball's Fly Oil.

STRIKE DOWNWARD

When fly fishing learn to strike rising fish by snapping the rod downward instead of jerking it upward. Because of the length and suppleness of a fly rod the first movement of its tip is directly opposite to that of the lower end. The downward movement lifts the tip sufficiently to set the hook. It is faster than the more common method of lifting the rod and is less likely to break a fine leader.

When a Big One Battles for Life

The thrill that comes when a big one, securely hooked, makes his desperate bid for life and freedom. Here an angler with bent rod is hooked onto a tackle busting big fellow while his guide manipulates the canoe.

TO USE RADIO AT FISH RODEO

Progress of Derby Will Be Described for Shore Crowds

Short wave radio broadcasting sets used by the U. S. Forest Service for communication purposes while fighting woods fires will be utilized to tell spectators on shore what the fishermen are doing out on the bay during the Escanaba-Gladstone Fishing Rodeo Sunday evening, beginning at 5 p. m.

R. O. Klemmitt, Marquette, radio operator of the Michigan conservation department, will operate the Forest Service radio set aboard John Bissell's Chriscraft, which will cruise about the fishing waters with Rodeo judges aboard. Klemmitt is the husband of the former "Ve" Johnson, with whom he carried on a courtship over the air waves while she was living on Isle Royale. Mrs. Klemmitt and her sister "Vi" have been amateur radio operators for several years.

Harry Creighton, sports announcer of Station WAAF, L. A. Danielson, Escanaba, and W. S. Skellenger will share the announcing duties. A loud speaker will be installed on shore to amplify the announcements from the cruising boat.

THESE LIMITS

Following are the size and possession limits in effect for Michigan fishermen this summer:

Black bass, 10 inches, 5 in possession.
Pike, 14 inches, 5 in possession.
Walleyes, 14 inches, 5 in possession.
White bass, 7 inches, 10 in possession.

Black bass, calico bass, crappies, perch, bluegills and sunfish, 6 in.; warmouth bass, no length limit. Possession limit or daily limit, 25 of these kinds combined.
Muskellunge, 30 inches, no possession limit.
Bullheads, carp, catfish, ciscoes, lake trout, suckers, redhorse, whitefish, sheepshead and smelt, no limits as to size or numbers.

Among China's distinctive fishes is the Yangtze beaked sturgeon, found only in the Yangtze and its tributaries. Its nearest relation is the spoonbill sturgeon of the Mississippi.

LAKE FISHING SEASON OPENS

Today Marks the Opening of Legal Angling for Bass and Panfish

A last minute glance at a digest of the state's fishing laws, as the 1938 season opens this morning, shows a number of points which sporting fishermen always keep in mind.

Six inches is the minimum legal size for perch, bluegills and sunfish, among the most popular of the "pan-fish" species. Keeper size for both large and small mouth bass is 10 inches; 14 inches for pike; and, seven inches for all three species of trout—brook, brown and rainbow.

The maximum number of perch which a fisherman can take in one day or have in his possession at one time is 25 for inland waters and 50 for the Great Lakes and certain inland lakes designated by law. This is the first year a limit in number has been applied to this species on the Great Lakes.

The legal maximum for pike is five, as well as for black bass. There is a limit of 25 on bluegills, sunfish, warmouth bass, calico, rock and strawberry bass, crappies and perch, which may be figured for any one of the species or for a combination of them so long as the grand total does not exceed 25.

Under the new regulations, resident anglers who purchased licenses for trout season, this permit being good for all species which are lawful take. Other anglers who do not intend to try for trout may obtain the "resident non-trout license" for 50 cents, which with an identification will entitle his wife to fish without additional charge. Provisions for wives was not included with the trout license.

Out of state fishermen are offered two kinds of licenses. One is a "non-resident annual fishing" permit which costs two dollars and permits the licensee to take all authorized species. The other license, costing one dollar, is the "non-resident 10-day" permit which entitles the licensee to take all legal species for 10 days from date of issue.

In both cases, wives may obtain the licenses for 50 cents. All persons over 17 years of age must have licenses this year, the minimum having been reduced from 18.

Sea ducks can dive 15 feet for their food.

WBA Convention Was Well Attended

Many attended the U. P. state convention of the Women's Benefit association held Wednesday at Marquette. Delegates from Gladstone, Escanaba, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Newberry, Crystal Falls, Iron River, Ontonagon, Ishpeming, Ne-gaunee, Munising, Hancock, Manistiquie and Marquette were present.

Mrs. J. P. Carlson was sent as delegate from the local lodge and Mrs. Roy Brown alternate.

Among others from Gladstone attending were Mesdames John Cowell, N. J. Smith, D. D. Stewart, Ole Peterson and George Peoples.

The convention opened with a conference and school of instruction in the morning. The "Junior Court of the Rose" was put on by the Juniors of Ne-gaunee in the afternoon and a program of dancing and singing presented. The Marquette review presented the march and a flag service by the guards and color bearers.

During the evening a banquet was held at the Northland hotel with 300 members in attendance.

Mrs. Beatrice Micin served as toast mistress. Mrs. Ethel Hayford, state supervisor, and E. Jacques, mayor of Marquette, were the principal speakers at the banquet.

Funeral Services For Wm. Oak On Sunday Afternoon

The body of William Oak, who died suddenly at Augustana hospital in Chicago Thursday, will arrive here this morning and be taken to Swenson Brothers funeral parlors.

While arrangements have not been completed, plans are to hold funeral services on Sunday afternoon.

Outsiders Trim Gladstone Teams

Rapid River defeated Gladstone, 10-6, in a WPA recreation league game yesterday afternoon. Thursday the Gladstone Midgets were defeated by Perkins, 34-13, at the local diamond. Next Friday the Perkins crew will play here.

STOVE EXPLOSION

Bad Axe (AP)—Donald Strrett, 11, of Lincoln township, died Wednesday night in Bad Axe hospital of burns suffered when an explosion followed his attempt to build a fire in a kitchen stove in his home.

Gorillas were given their name in 1847 by a tropical missionary.

MANY TO SEE CHRISTENING

"City of Munising" Name of State's New Ferry

The latest and largest of the state's fleet of ferries will be formally christened "City of Munising" at Escanaba Sunday afternoon.

A large number of local residents are expected to see the ceremonies. A number of persons, city officials and heads of local civic or service organizations, have been invited to board the boat as guests of Munising for a portion of the trip from Manitowish to the Straits. In some instances they will ride from Menominee to Escanaba Sunday morning while others will board the ferry at Escanaba for the trip to Manistiquie.

Invitations to be guests on the trip were sent out by John W. Hannah, mayor of the City of Munising.

G. Donald Kennedy, deputy state highway commissioner, will give the christening address during ceremonies at Escanaba. The event is to be broadcast over radio station WJR.

sleeves with wide satin cuffs. Tulle cuttings trimmed the gown in front and also the cuffs. The tulle veil, floor length, was held in place by a white satin halo.

She carried a shower bouquet of white Easter lilies and sweetpeas.

"Miss Ludwig wore peach mar-quisette over peach satin and carried Johanna Hill roses. Mrs. Gaskell wore blue net over blue satin, made redingote style, and carried Biarcelife roses. Satin halos matching their gowns were worn in their hair."

Mrs. Ludwig wore green georgette over green satin and Mrs. Cargo wore a blue and white print gown. Each wore a shoulder corsage.

"A reception for forty guests, mostly members of the immediate families, was held following the ceremony. Refreshments were served from the lace-covered dining table which was centered with a tiered wedding cake flanked by lighted tapers in candelabra.

Those assisting in serving were Marjorie Ludwig and Jean Robinson of Lansing and Barbara and Janice Ludwig.

"Following a two weeks' stay at a summer resort, Mr. and Mrs. Cargo will be at home at 1119 Wisconsin avenue, Gladstone, for the summer, taking up their residence in September in Ann Arbor, where Mr. Cargo will continue his studies at the University of Michigan."

"The bride was graduated from Albion college this month and is affiliated with two honor societies, Delta Sigma Rho and Phi Gamma. Mr. Cargo was graduated from Albion college in 1937 and received his master's degree from the University of Michigan Saturday. He is also a member of Delta Sigma Rho and Phi Gamma."

"Guests included Rev. and Mrs. Ira W. Cargo and son Paul, Gladstone; Miss Ruth Cargo, Adrian; B. E. Ludwig and daughter Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ludwig and son Claude Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson, daughter Jean and sons Richard and Robert, Lansing; Mrs. Frank Casey and daughter Alice, Sheridan, Wyo.; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shepard, Miss Neva Shepard and Mrs. Louise Lathrop, Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lathrop, Detroit; Henry Bos, Ellsworth; Mrs. Lucinda Ludwig, Lake Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wilcox and Mrs. Hugh Whitney, Leslie."

"Preceding the ceremony Paul Cargo sang "At Dawning" by Cadman and "Sylvia" by Speaks, accompanied on the piano by Miss Ruth Bacon who also played the Mendelssohn wedding march from "Midsummer Night's Dream." An aisle of white satin ribbons was formed from the stairway to the fireplace by Barbara and Janice Ludwig, sisters of the bride, who were dressed in yellow and aquamarine blue marquisette dresses. Another little sister, Virginia Marie Ludwig, dressed daintily in pink chiffon trimmed in pink satin, was the flower girl. John Robert Ludwig, a brother, carried the rings on a pink satin pillow.

"The bride wore a lovely white tulle wedding gown, made redingote style with a white satin slip. It was fashioned with a Queen Anne collar and long

Mrs. Emil Stock Is Laid To Rest

Last rites were held yesterday morning for Mrs. Emil Stock, 59, who died suddenly here Tuesday at the family home, 1327 Dakota avenue.

Services were held during a solemn high mass celebrated at All Saints church, by the Rev. Fr. Sebastian Mader, Menominee, Joseph Schaul, Gladstone, and Francis Scheringer, Rapid River.

Bearing the body to its final resting place in Fernwood cemetery were John Matzgeb, Paul DeMenter, August Brassick, Alphonse DeMenter, Ed Lancret and August Boden. There was also an honorary escort selected from members of All Saints' Guild.

Swenson Brothers were in charge of directing.

THEATRES

Blazing new trails to new thrills from Arizona's hills, roaring outdoor adventure goes West with a capital F as it sweeps to a great new locale in "Hawaiian Buckaroo," which opened yesterday at the Rialto Theatre.

Smith Ballow, popular singing cowboy, stars in the title role. Used in a Western for the first time, the exotic setting of the paradise isle of the Pacific proves a "natural" for the vivid action of the story and the romantic singing of Ballow.

Second Feature Action, international intrigue and romance in generous portions keep "The Girl From Scotland Yard," which opened at the Rialto Theatre as the second feature, moving at a swift pace. The picture has plenty of thrills and chills, some excellent comedy, and a flavoring of music.

Scouts To Attend Camporee Today At Pioneer Trail

Members of Gladstone Boy Scout troops led by Keith Campbell, Walter Van De Weghe and John Norton will attend a big camporee to be held today and Sunday at Pioneer Trail Park.

The event will start this morning and continue until Sunday noon. Scouting events will be held and the boys' work judged on a point basis.

Boys will gather at the H. J. Norton garage this morning at 7:30 o'clock before leaving for the camporee. Transportation will be provided.

Mailmen Trample Coalheavers Here

Getting trimmed by the clerks apparently did something to the postoffice crew for Tuesday night they did a "Joe Louis" and took it out on the coal heavers to the tune of 36-18.

In one of the innings the mailmen batted around three times. Just how the side was finally retired was not explained.

Now new worlds to conquer are being sought. Managers of soft ball teams desiring games may communicate with Cleve Krout, in care of the Gladstone post-office.

About 20,000,000 Germans carry insurance against sickness.

HOLDUP HONEYMOON

BY EDWIN RUTT Copyright 1938, NEA Service Inc.

CAST OF CHARACTERS
JOSEPH SANDHAM—hero; he thought he was on top of the world until he smacked into KELLY ARCHER—heroine; she thought she was headed for the altar until she smacked into ED, the WEASEL—gangster; he thought he was headed somewhere, too, but affairs somehow got mixed up.

Yesterday, Joe wakes up after his wreck, finds himself facing a red-headed girl who tells him she is on her way to Boston to be married.

CHAPTER II

Despite the riveting operations that were going on in his head, Mr. Joseph Sandham bounced to a sitting position. For some minutes now a great truth had been slowly dawning upon him. With Kelly's words it crystallized in his brain. This red-headed girl with the trick eyes was a cold knock-out. He was a chump not to have perceived it right at the start. She had everything it takes and enough left over for a rainy day. And he, Joseph Sandham, was nuts about her. Completely nuts. Knocked for a loop in the first few minutes of play. Yes, realized Mr. Sandham, he was all wrapped up, tied with red ribbon and labeled "Property of Miss Kelly Archer." And unless he could steer her into a church ere many moons were passed, life was going to be a total flop. And here she sat calmly informing him that she intended to marry some wren named Gilbert.

"Hey!" he shouted. "Say that again."

Kelly said it. Joe shook his head.

"Wrong," he said. "All wrong. What do you mean, wrong?"

"Wrong, that's all. You can't marry this Gilbert for the simple reason that you're going to marry me. I won't have my wife going around committing bigamy."

Kelly looked at him as if he were an escaped lunatic.

"Marry you?" she repeated incredulously.

"You've got it," said Joe. She uttered a laugh of pure merriment. "Why on earth would I marry you? I tell you, I'm engaged to Gilbert Mallow."

Joe took a breath. "I guess we've got to plump the ABCs. Listen, Miss Archer, don't you honestly see that the gods have been building up for this since two weeks before time began?"

"Afraid I don't," said Kelly.

"Well, what did you think that smashup last night was?"

"Just a plain ordinary garden variety of automobile accident."

"You're off your rocker. Why, gal, that was Kismet, Allah, Fate, Predestination and a couple of other guys. Ain't you got no perception?"

"I perceive," said Kelly, "that you're an imbecile."

"Imbecile? Ha! Hard names won't get you anywhere. What you've got to do, young lady, is disengage yourself from this tramp Gilbert."

"He's no tramp. He's a darling."

"That's what you think now. But wait'll you bask in my society a while. Gilbert will appear laughable to you."

"I don't intend to bask in your society. For any longer than it takes you to drive me to Boston."

Joe jumped. "Boston?"

"Quite so. If it hadn't been for you and that crackpot car of yours I'd have been in Boston by now. And married to Gilbert."

"Married to Gilbert?" roared Joe. "Do you mean to say you were on your way to marry the tomato? Lord, this is terrible."

Kelly waved her hand. "Listen," she said. "See if you can get this straight. Last evening I had a horrible fight with my family. They said things to me and about—well, about Gilbert that I can never forgive or forget. So I simply up and walked out. I wired Gilbert that I was ready to elope with him now. He's—he's been deviling me to for a year. And I got into my car and started for Cambridge just as fast as I could go. And everything would have gone according to Hoyle if you hadn't been woolgathering on the wrong side of the road. Well, you make me break my car. And if you've got even a symptom of decency, you'll drive me to Boston just as soon as you feel better. Because—I haven't enough money to take the train. And there's no other car except yours. And Gilbert expected me this morning and he'll be worried sick."

"You say," said Joe, "that your family made remarks about Gilbert? They don't like him, then?"

"They don't know him," said Kelly scornfully. "They don't realize what a lamb he is. They're narrow-minded, bigoted, sanctimonious and self-righteous. They say Gilbert's a waster."

"Your family," said Joe enthusiastically, "are the smartest people I've ever met. Trouble is, they don't develop their philosophies far enough. Gilbert is more than a waster. He's an idle no-account worthless good-for-nothing young scapegrace with sawdust between his ears. Not a person to marry. Definitely not."

"That's all you know about it. Gilbert is studying to be an archeologist."

Joe snapped his fingers. "I'd have bet money on it. Just an inquisitive guy going around excavating things that don't belong to him. Why in Heaven's name is it that the world's most wonderful girls fall for fellows who crawl underground like moles? Besides, the last one I knew strangled his grandmother in a catacomb."

"What utter bilge. I suppose your profession, whatever it is, is on a far higher and nobler plane than archeology."

"You're darn tootin'," barked Joe. "It's a nice clean business with a future in it. No rats, no rot, no rust. We do things and go places, us guys."

"Well, what is your business? If I may be no presumptuous as to inquire?"

"I'm a candy salesman," said Joe.

Kelly wrinkled the charming end of a charmingly tip-tilted nose. "Candy salesman? Good grief. It sounds too horrible."

"What is horrible about candy? Think of the joy it brings to little children and old ladies and church socials and . . ."

"Oh, for Heaven's sake, you think of it. I'm only interested in knowing whether or not you are going to be gentlemanly enough to drive me to Boston?"

"So that you can marry that gamboll Gilbert? Well, I don't know. Of course, I might be able to persuade you to see reason before we get there."

"You can try," said Kelly. "For all the good it'll do you."

Joe thumped the pillow. "By gosh," he roared, "I will drive you. And I'll pound sense into that red head of yours every mile of the way. I ought to be over in Meriden or somewhere selling a guy a load of Chandler & Sandham's Triple-Flavored Black Walnut Crunchies, but that can wait. Everything can wait till I avert this disaster to flowering womanhood. Where are my clothes?"

"Neatly folded on the chair by your bed. Excellency."

"Who folded them?"

"I did, Mr. Spanish Inquisition Sandham. Who did you think?"

Joe heaved himself up, keeping under the protection of the bed-covers.

"Attababy," he said. "You'll make a wonderful wife. Beat it now, while I dress."

Twenty minutes later Mr. Joseph Sandham stood in the driveway belonging to Mr. Tyler Archer and surveyed his car. He was pleased to note that it had come through the collision practically unscathed. The radiator was dented a little and the front left fender looked like a discouraged doughnut. Otherwise it seemed sound in wind and limb. Joe got in and drove it a few feet down the driveway. It steered well and the tires were okay. Satisfied he descended from the driver's seat and stood looking pensively at the starboard side of the car which bore, in gilt and black, the legend:

Chocolates
CHANDLER & SANDHAM
 Caramels

Without going around to port Joseph knew that the inscription there read:

Bonbons
CHANDLER & SANDHAM
 Confections

From the house came the appetizing aroma of bacon, crisping in a fryingpan. Joseph lifted his head and sniffed, like a hound. And at this point Kelly popped her head out of a kitchen window.

"First and last call for breakfast," she said.

Mr. Sandham leaped like a speared grampus and the leap carried him all the way into the kitchen. Kelly was investing this place, charming in a sea-green apron.

"In here," she said, indicating a breakfast-nook which held forth beyond the open door of the pantry. "Go make a beast of yourself."

"Geo," said Mr. Sandham, "you can cook? Fancy that."

"Of course I can cook," said Kelly scornfully. "What do you think I am, an orchid?"

No suitable comeback occurring to him, Mr. Sandham went into the breakfast nook and overpowered a double orange juice. Just as it said "Uncle" Kelly appeared, bearing shredded wheat. He crumpled this, buried it under sugar, drowned it in cream and took it in his stride. Followed bacon and eggs, the eggs scrambled to a beautiful pale-yellow consistency. Mr. Sandham went to work, swooshing this concoction down with coffee which would have drawn commendation from a pernickety Arab. Kelly stood over him, refilling the cup.

"The guy Gilbert," said Joe, "with his mouth full of bacon and eggs, 'would have lived high if I hadn't come along.'"

Homecoming Edition Issued Next Week

A special Manistique homecoming edition of the Daily Press will be issued as a supplement to the regular edition early next week.

Approximately 10,000 copies of the special edition will be printed, extra copies will be on sale at Manistique after the edition is issued.

Local subscribers who desire additional copies of the special edition to mail to friends and former residents in other cities or for their own use are urged to place their orders with the carrier boys this morning when the boys make their usual Saturday collection calls.

The special edition will be 40 pages, printed on attractive colored stock. It will be well illustrated with old scenes, familiar to pioneer residents of the community, and all the modern scenic spots of interest as well. It will be a souvenir issue covering many phases of the history of the city of Manistique and Schoolcraft county.

Its wide circulation will provide an effective advertising medium for the homecoming celebration to the 50,000 residents of this trading area who regularly read the Daily Press.

All of the preparations for this special edition were made by the regular staff of the Daily Press, including the photography and engravings, excepting, of course, the scenes of years ago. These old pictures were secured through the cooperation of Manistique residents and former residents now living in other cities.

All of the editorial copy in the special edition is confined to Manistique and Schoolcraft county.

In addition to pictures profusely illustrating the individual pages, there will be complete picture pages.

The cover page will include a beautiful picture of the new Cedar street, with the new concrete pavement and sidewalks and boulevard lighting system.

Clean Glassware Is Essential For Community Health

Attention is directed to the increasing need for better glassware sterilization in restaurants, beverage dispensing establishments, and roadside stands.

It has been proved that such diseases as mumps, diphtheria, scarlet fever, common colds, measles, lobar pneumonia, influenza, tuberculosis, whooping cough, cerebrospinal fever and Vincent's infection or trench mouth, are contracted by direct personal contact, by droplet infection in food and drink, and by the so-called hand to mouth method of infection.

Vincent's infection is widespread today and in most every instance starts in the lower anterior portion of the mouth where the rim of the glass or utensil rests against the lip or teeth.

A survey made not long ago by health officials demonstrated great numbers of bacteria could be found on the rims of supposedly clean glasses used in a number of beverage dispensing establishments. The quick dip and rinse method of cleaning is not sufficient to sterilize glasses.

On twenty per cent of the glasses examined in these places the spirochetes associated with Vincent's infection were found. While it can not be stated definitely that there is a one to five chance that the individual using such a drinking glass will contract this disease, for such things as individual immunity, cleanliness of the mouth, etc., are contributing factors, the chance does exist and many individuals are not interested enough in prevention of communicable diseases and mouth infection to demand adequate protection in every instance.

Summer travel leads the public to roadside stands, many of which do not attempt proper cleaning of utensils or have adequate sanitation facilities because they are outside of municipal health authority districts. Avoid places that do not have the proper facilities for cleanliness, for it is unpleasant to pay for the vacation with a newly acquired disease.

Pure silver is too soft for sterling silver use, so 7 1/2 per cent copper is added to make it harder.

PROFIT SELLING HAMPERS RALLY

STOCK MARKET AVERAGES table with columns for Net change, High, Low, and various market indices.

BY FREDERICK GARDNER New York, June 24 (AP)—The stock market put on its fifth consecutive rally today but it was forced to override an exceptionally heavy buying from all parts of the country swamped boardrooms in the forenoon, sweeping leaders up 1 to 5 points.

The turnover of $20,000 shares from 10 to 11 o'clock was the largest for this period since last October.

Volume dwindled substantially as selling seeped into the list and transfers for the day totalled 2,290,540 shares compared with 2,402,370 yesterday.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks emerged with a net advance of .5 of a point at 44.5, a new peak for this composite since March 5.

After the close the Carnegie Illinois Corp., chief subsidiary of U. S. Steel, announced a cut in prices of its products to levels obtaining before 1928.

Market sentiment seemed more cheerful than for months, but the rapidity of the recovery brought thoughts of at least a correctional reaction.

There were few outstanding bullish news items although signs of betterment in business and industry were to be seen here and there.

Stocks prominent on the continuation of the upswing included U. S. Steel at 52 1/2, Bethlehem 54 3/8, International Harvester 61 1/2, Deere 20 5/8, Chrysler 54 1/8, Kennecott 36 1/2, American Smelting 45 7/8, Westinghouse 89 1/2, Du Pont 113 1/2, Union Carbide 77 7/8, Dow Chemical 115, Santa Fe 31 5/8, Union Pacific 77 1/2, Homestake Mining 58 1/2 and McIntyre 42.

Farm implements and gold mines were given a buying whirl in the final hour when most other issues were slipping.

On the losing end were American Telephone at 140 1/2, North American 20 5/8 and Consolidated Edison 25 1/2.

Conspicuous gainers on the curb were Aluminum of America at 84, Jones & Laughlin 33 1/2, Pittsburgh Plate Glass 86 3/4, Lake Shore Mines 45 5/8, Acme Wire 2 1/2 and Pennsylvania Salt Mfg. 135.

Curb transfers amounted to 318,000 shares against 299,000 yesterday.

CARRIER LOANS MOVE UP AGAIN

BOND MARKET AVERAGES table showing Net change, High, Low, and various bond indices.

New York, June 24 (AP)—Rail loans in the bond market recorded a fifth consecutive rise today with gains running to around 5 points.

Traders, calculating the cumulative advance since Monday, marked the movement as one of the best in years.

Other divisions of the list were irregular. Up 1 to 5 at the close were Northern Pacific "D" 5s of 2047 at 99 1/2, Southern Railway 6s of '94 at 99 1/2, Illinois Central (Louisville) 3 1/2s of '53 at 94, Baltimore & Ohio first 5s of '48 at 94 1/2, Union Pacific 3 1/2s of '71 at 94 1/2, New Haven 6s of '40 at 93 1/2, Big Four General 4s at 85, United Light & Traction 5s at 85, and American International 5 1/2s at 95.

Moderately on the loss side were Western Union 5s of '60, Southern Railway 4s, International Telephone 5s and American Typefounders convertibles.

Foreign loans recorded a fair number of gains under the lead of Polish, Italian and South American groups.

Transactions totalled $5,083,600, a fair value, compared with $10,703,900 Thursday.

STORIES IN STAMPS How Andrew Jackson Was Marked for Life WILD, quick-tempered, independent, young Andrew Jackson found a call most appealing to his spirit in resisting the British invasion of the late 1770s. While scarcely 13, he fought in the battle of Hanging Rock, Aug. 1, 1780, and the next year he and his brother joined their neighbors in a brush attempt to capture a body of British troops at Waxhaw Church near his home in Lancaster, S. C. The attack failed and the two Jackson boys were taken prisoners. Andrew was put to work for the officers, and was ordered one day to black the commander's boots. Instantly, fiery young Andrew rebelled, whereupon the officer struck him a vicious saber blow, marking the future president for life. Moreover, that blow was to instill in Jackson an eternal hatred for the British, an antipathy which played no little part in the shaping of his dramatic career. He gained full revenge as the hero of New Orleans 34 years later. Jackson is shown here on the 2-cent brown stamp of the U. S. issue of 1870. The stamp is reproduced slightly more than one and one-half times actual size. (Copyright, 1938, NEA Service, Inc.)

World Champs Lose To Tigers; Giants Beat Cubs

TWO 4-BAGGERS FOR GREENBERG

Yanks Get Early Lead But Can't Hold It; Score, 12 to 8

Detroit, June 24 (AP)—Hank Greenberg found a couple of "cousins" on the New York Yankees pitching staff today, clouted his 19th and 20th homers of the year and paced the Tigers to a 12 to 8 victory over the world champions.

His first four-bagger came with two aboard off Spud Chandler in the third, and his second came off Steve Sundra with one on in the eighth to put the game on ice.

Jake Wade, who relieved Harry Eisenstat in the sixth, allowed just two hits and one run over the last four frames in taking credit for the win.

Drop Behind Indians
Homers by Lou Gehrig, Joe Gordon and Joe DiMaggio gave the Yankees an early lead, but they couldn't hold it. The defeat dropped the Yanks 4 1/2 games behind the pace-setting Cleveland Indians.

The Tigers started their heavy hitting in the first for three runs on four singles, a walk and a fielder's choice. Gehrig doubled to open the second for the Yanks and advanced on Dickey's single. Hoag hit into a double play, Ross, Gehrigger to Greenberg, and Gehrig scored. Chandler's double, two singles, and Gehrig's homer put the Yanks ahead, 5 to 3, in the third.

The Tigers came back with three more in their half. Gehrigger was on with a pass and Fox with a single when Greenberg hit his first home run, a long blow into the center field bleachers.

Gordon's home run gave the Yankees another in the fourth, and Di Maggio's did the same in the fifth.

Greenberg walked in the fifth. Ross singled, and Hank scored when Birdie Tebbetts, sent in to hit for Eisenstat, singled to right.

Lawson Throws Next
In the sixth a double and single scored a Yank run off Wade, but the same inning saw three more Tiger runs. Walker and York singled, and Greenberg walked, filling the bases. Walker scored when Crossett fumbled Laabs' grounder. Ross singled to right, scoring York and Greenberg.

In the eighth, York singled into center. He was forced by Fox, but Greenberg homered into the left field stands.

Greenberg's work today placed him in a three-way tie with York and Jimmy Fox of the Red Sox for major league home run honors.

Red Ruffing and Roxy Lawson are scheduled to pitch the second of the series tomorrow.

A return game between the Munising and Escanaba bartenders softball teams has been booked for 4 p. m. Sunday at the diamond, near the state fairgrounds. Murray Boyle will officiate as umpire for Escanaba, and Con Mahoney, another oldtimer in Upper Peninsula baseball circles, will be in the local lineup.

Brown Bomber Gives No Quarter

A tigerish relentless Joe Louis prances over his fallen foe, as Max Schmeling, sprawled helplessly on his back with eyes almost closed, collapsed before the champion's heavy flats in the first round of their title fight in New York. Referee Arthur Donovan is shown pushing Louis aside to declare him the victor by a technical knockout after two minutes and four seconds of fighting.

It Ain't So, Says Joe; He Will Not Quit Fight Game

Chicago, June 24 (AP)—Joe Louis said today that any reports he was planning to retire from his position as world's heavyweight boxing champion "just ain't so."

The 24-year-old negro heavyweight king, arriving today from New York, asked, "why should I retire?" when queried about reports he might quit after one more bout, which may see Max Baer as his opponent.

"I'm the undisputed heavyweight champion now because I've evened up that knockout by Max Schmeling two years ago," Louis said, "but I'm young and there'll be lots of guys to fight."

Louis said, "that's fine" when told improvement was noted today in the condition of Schmeling, in a New York hospital with a back injury incurred during the title bout Wednesday night. Louis paid tribute to the German as a "brave" fighter.

Plans For Baer-Louis Battle Moving Ahead

BY EDDIE BRIETZ
New York, June 24 (AP)—As Max Schmeling showed distinct improvement from his back injury, Promoter Mike Jacobs today went ahead with plans to match Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis against Max Baer in September, probably in New York.

Arnold Hoffman, Baer's manager, has a date with Promoter Jacobs tomorrow at which time he expects to sign a three-year contract giving Jacobs exclusive control of Baer's ring activities. New York was favored for the fight although a delegation from San Francisco spent an hour in a huddle with Jacobs, trying to get the championship tilt for the San Francisco Exposition sometime in 1939.

At the same time a bid came from London and guaranteed Louis $200,000 in American currency or the privilege of 40 percent of the gate for a late September meeting with Tommy Farr, British Empire champion whom the Brown Bomber outpointed last year. The offer was cabled by Armand Vincent, former Montreal promoter now in London.

Armand would stage the fight at Wembley Stadium, which has a seating capacity of 100,000. He also promised to cut Jacobs in on the promotion end.

Jacobs, himself, was a bit mysterious about the matter but said he would issue an announcement tomorrow dealing with the heavy-weight division. All along, Mike has said he intended pitting Baer against the Schmeling-Louis winner if he could gain control of Baer's services for an extended period.

While there has been some skepticism whether Louis would fight again in 1938 because a substantial part of his purse would have to be turned over to the government in view of his big earnings so far this year, both the champion and his managers said he would be glad to meet Baer or any other contender chosen by Jacobs when asked to do so by Jacobs.

Schmeling spent a comfortable day in the Polyclinic hospital.

An official statement, made by Dr. Robert Emery Brennan, chief surgeon at the hospital, indicated that in addition to the fracture of the left lateral transverse of the third lumbar vertebra, Max was suffering from a slightly swelled left kidney.

Schmeling, for the first time, was allowed to receive visitors. Promoter Jacobs spent an hour with the stricken fighter and, during the day, Dr. Hans Dieckhoff, German ambassador to the United States, also paid his respects.

Max Machon, trainer and confidant of Schmeling's, said the Teuton still is anxious to get a return match with Louis.

Machon said physicians at the hospital told him a man in the world could stand up under the blow to the kidney area as suffered by Schmeling.

"There is a small unprotected area there," said Machon, pointing to the X-ray plate, "which seems to be alive. Chances are Schmeling wouldn't be hit there again in a hundred years. We don't blame Louis. He was just in there firing away. I never once exclaimed foul and if Max said anything about a foul it was because he was added and didn't know what he was saying."

Former Heavyweight Champion Gene Tunney was the spokesman for the San Francisco delegation, which included Charles M. Kraug, San Francisco police commissioner; Jim Howell, of the California fair commission, and Robert Taylor, the movie star whom all the tough guys around the Hippodrome later voted as "a regular he-man guy."

The Oasis ball team added another scalp to its trophy belt on Friday evening when the St. Jacques team took a 20 to 16 beating on the Oasis diamond. It was a free hitting contest with the winners collecting 21 safe bingles and the St. Jacques crew pasting out 14 good blows.

Batteries were: Oasis, Sebeck and Hansen; St. Jacques, Groleau and Pomeroy.

McMILLAN NEWS

Miss Margaret Wood has returned to her home here following a visit with friends in Grand Rapids.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heidebrecht arrived home Tuesday after spending the past two weeks in Mt. Morris where they were the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Heidebrecht.

Harry Smathers and son Wayne accompanied the former's sister, Mrs. Ernest Tovey of Seney to Mackinac City Saturday to meet their sister, Miss Pearl Smathers who is returning from an extended stay with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ball and family of Battle Creek.

George Wood, student at the Marquette university, Milwaukee, has returned to his home here to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wood. Enroute home George spent some time in Ann Arbor receiving medical attention at the university hospital for leg injuries which did not become bothersome until recently.

Mrs. Jay Tanner was hostess to a few friends at her home on Tuesday evening. Five hundred provided the diversion. Mrs. H. J. Skinner received high honors, Mrs. Harry Smathers second, Mrs. A. J. Mainville low and Miss Hilma Wallsteadt the guest prize. Tasty refreshments followed the cards.

Miss Virginia, who has been the guest of Miss Virginia Wood the past few weeks has returned to her home in Grand Rapids.

TERRYMEN TAKE 5 TO 3 VICTORY

Ott Slams Homer in 8th To Put Game on Ice; Coffman on Relief

New York, June 24 (AP)—Mel Ott's 18th homer of the year and Dick Coffman's third relief pitching job in as many days saved the Giants' game-and-a-half National league lead today.

Between them they gave Terrible Terry's Terriers a 5 to 3 victory over the Chicago Cubs in the first game of the current series.

Ott slammed his four-bagger with a mate on base in the eighth inning to break a tie and put the decision on ice.

Coffman was hurried into the contest in the eighth, when Cliff Melton, who had relieved Clyde Castleman in the third, began to come apart.

Engadine Women Defeat Men, 6-0

Engadine, Mich., June 24—The Engadine women's softball team defeated the men's softball team in a softball game Wednesday. The score was 6-0.

The game was for the baseball suits, which were given to the women. The baseball team has won one game so far this year.

SPILLING the DOPE

The world is full of interesting people . . . and none is quite so interesting as those who feel that the world owes them a living . . . it is a sad state of affairs to find someone who, because of something he or she has accomplished in the past, sits back and waits for the world to disclose the golden pathway strewn with roses . . . only to find that illusion shattered.

This condition exists so often—in fact, too often—in the sport world . . . all too frequently athletes who, in their younger days, were household words, still are mentally riding the crest and believing themselves lions long after their deeds have faded into comparative obscurity . . . newspaper offices frequently, largely because of their love of publicity, having once tasted the sizzle of fame, they are loathe to make their way in the rest of the world without it and they often haunt the sports departments, trying to get their names into the news on some pretext or other . . . usually they are soured on the world, disappointed because the glories once they knew have disappeared.

Wimbledon Tennis Play Gets Serious

BY SCOTTY RESTON
Wimbledon, Eng., June 24 (AP)—Wimbledon completed its garden party stage today and got down to the serious business of deciding the tennis champions of the world.

Helen Willis Moody tomorrow meets Mrs. Bobbie Heine-Miller of South Africa in the first real crisis of the week. Don Budge must face Ronald Shays, No. 1 singles player of the youthful 1938 British Davis Cup team.

Though Mrs. Moody had to scramble to beat Mrs. P. F. Glover of England, 6-4, 7-5, the United States in general had a pretty good day. Out of eleven matches in which Americans took part, they won ten.

New Champion

Defeating Helen Hofmann of Salt Lake City, 6 and 4, in the 25-hole final, Beatrice Barrett, above, 21-year-old Minneapolis star, won the Women's Western Open golf title at Broadmoor, Colorado Springs, succeeding Helen Hicks Harb, whom she conquered in second-round play.

Ladies Day Throng Sees Reds Defeat Phillies, 6 and 4

Philadelphia, June 24 (AP)—The second place Cincinnati Reds kept pace with the leading New York Giants and pulled away from the Chicago Cubs by defeating the Phillies, 6 to 4, there today before a Ladies Day throng of 52,000.

Although outlit, 13 to 12, the Reds took an early lead and were never headed after Ernie Lombardi cleaned the bases with a long single in the first inning. The big catcher had a field day at bat with two other blows.

LEGION PLANS FIVE AWARDS

Scholarship to Michigan Tech Is Included in Present Plans

Houghton, June 24.—In anticipation of favorable action by the Battle Creek American Legion convention in August, the Detroit department of the Legion has prepared application blanks for five college scholarships of $300 each, to which sons of members of the American Legion of Michigan, sons of service men who were deceased during the World War, and sons of deceased Michigan Legionnaires are eligible. The only other proviso is that such young men must be graduates of accredited high schools.

Candidates will be selected on the basis of character, academic accomplishment, general promise of success, and need of assistance. Scholarships are granted for one year only, but applications for renewal may be received if the holder's college work so justifies.

If awarded, the scholarships will be known as the Guy M. Wilson Memorial scholarships. General Wilson had an outstanding record as soldier, scholar, and public-minded citizen.

Tech On List
The committee appointed by Carl H. Smith, Department commander, to prepare the scholarship proposal for submission to the Battle Creek convention is composed of the Rev. Father John R. Day, Three Rivers, chairman; ex-Governor Wilber M. Brucker, Detroit; Harold D. Bradshaw, Flint; and Dr. Walter C. Sadler, Ann Arbor, secretary.

The scholarships will be allocated on the basis of zones, one to each one. The successful candidate may enter any accredited college or university in Michigan.

However, as the Legion's official announcement emphasizes, five institutions have generously agreed to remit tuition fees to Guy M. Wilson scholars.

Four of these institutions are in the lower peninsula. The other is the Michigan College of Mining and Technology at Houghton.

The registrar of this last named college has on hand a supply of application blanks for young men interested in obtaining a scholarship. In accordance with announcements from the Michigan department of the American Legion, he stresses the fact that because of the expense involved, the Battle Creek convention may reject the scholarship plan. In this event there would of course be no allowance of scholarships to the applicants.

Nevertheless, in order to put the plan into operation this fall if it is approved, all possible candidates are urged to get application blanks immediately. Upper Peninsula candidates may do so through their local Legion posts or by writing to the registrar, the Michigan College of Mining and Technology, Houghton.

Applications must be filed with Department headquarters, the American Legion, 602 Barlum Tower, Detroit, by July 15, 1938, at the latest.

MEET TODAY AT IRON MOUNTAIN

Local Plumbers Attend Annual Association Convention

Several local master plumbers are attending the annual convention of the Upper Peninsula Master Plumbers' association which is being held at the Elks club rooms at Iron Mountain.

The committee in charge is comprised of M. C. Branz, of the Branz Brothers Plumbing and Heating company, chairman, and Walter D. Firme, of the Firme company, Iron Mountain.

The business meeting is to be held at two o'clock, and a banquet, which will also be attended by the ladies, is to follow at six. The gathering will close with a dance.

It is expected that more than 100 persons will be present, including the following members of the state plumbing board: Edward L. Gibbons, chairman; Albert Schwartz, secretary; Robert E. Coulton; John M. Helper, member of the department of health, and E. J. Dowsett, director. Dr. D. W. Gudakunst, state commissioner of health, may also attend.

The association was formed in Marquette last July and the officers are Samuel Robinson, of Marquette, president, and Hilmer Levine, of Marquette, secretary and treasurer.

Supervisors Meet Here On Monday

A regular June meeting of the Delta county board of supervisors will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Delta county courthouse.

Unless something unexpected appears, only routine business will be on the docket for the day. One new member of the board will serve for the first time. He is Charles Gallagher, new city councilman of Escanaba who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late R. B. Stack.

Chairman Carl B. Johnson of this city will preside.

Hughitt Grandson One Of Youngest Of Eagle Scouts

The honor of being one of the youngest Boy Scouts in the United States to receive the Eagle Scout badge has been won by David Wright, of Barkow, Florida, son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Wright, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Hughitt of this city.

An account of the presentation of the badge to David, who with his mother, is now spending the summer here with Mr. and Mrs. Hughitt, appeared as follows in a recent issue of the Polk County Record, Bartow daily newspaper: "An interesting feature of the meeting today was the presentation of an Eagle Scout medal to David Wright, the presentation being made by Judge W. J. Barker, a member of the Boy Scout Court of Honor.

"David is just 13 years of age and has the distinction of being the youngest Eagle Scout in Barkow and in the United States. He finished the requirements for becoming an Eagle Scout in eight months, but according to Scout regulations that a Boy Scout cannot be awarded an Eagle Scout medal under a year, it was necessary for him to wait until today for the presentation. He is a member of Troop 48."

THOUSAND GOING TO CHRISTENING

Munising Residents Will Take Part In Naming of State Ferry

Munising, Mich., June 24.—Munising residents and residents from many spots in the Upper Peninsula will go to Escanaba on Sunday where the "City of Munising," new Straits of Mackinac ferry, will be christened. It was expected here today that at least a thousand residents would go to the Delta county metropolis for the event.

A full program of events has been planned for the day and those attending the christening will not suffer a lack of things to do. The parade to the Northwestern docks, where the christening will take place, will be formed at the Escanaba junior high school at 11:30 on Sunday morning and is scheduled to start moving at 12 o'clock. Included in the parade will be the Mather high school band, the Roderick Prato polo color guard and the firing squad, members of the Polish Union of Munising, the Munising bartenders softball squad, and Munising residents in their automobiles. Escanaba will also have a large representation in the parade. The "City of Munising" is scheduled to dock at 1 o'clock and the christening ceremony will be broadcast over WJR and a network of Michigan stations. Following the christening ceremony the boat will be open to public inspection and at three o'clock will start a series of inspection cruises around Bay de Noc. At five o'clock the boat will leave for Manistique where it will be up for the night, proceeding Monday morning to the Straits where it will go into service on Monday.

The second annual Fisherman's Party of the Delta Lions' clubs will start at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and many will be attracted to that. Fly and bait-casting and talks by outdoor sports writers will be a part of the program. At four o'clock the Escanaba and Munising bartenders will clash in a return engagement. Both events will be held at the Upper Peninsula State Fairgrounds.

A fisherman's rodeo will start at Masonville at 5 o'clock.

Local Paper Mill Open To Tourists

Munising, Mich., June 24.—With the tourist season now in its opening stage, arrangements have been made by the Munising Paper company for tours of inspection of its plant by tourists and other summer visitors. During the last few seasons the number of visitors to the mill has been increasing annually, and the inspection of the paper production plant has become one of the prime interests of tourists. During July and August of last year more than 800 visitors were escorted through the plant and many more than that during the entire season.

The company provides a guide for visiting parties, who also explain the production processes along the route of the trip. At the present time two tours are made daily except Sunday. These are at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. When the season reaches its height, during the next two months, four trips will be made, 9:15 a. m., 10:30 a. m., 1:30 p. m. and 3:15 p. m. All parties to the mill are visited on the tours. The parties are limited to 10 persons and permits may be obtained at the main office of the paper company.
