School Term Depends On Delinquent Taxes

Whether or not the public schools of Escanaba will finish out their regularly scheduled 39 week term now depends upon the speed with which residents of the city pay their delinquent taxes.

The first phase of uncertainty as to the length of the school year was wiped out yesterday with word from Lansing that Governor Luren Dickinson had signed the emergency appropriation bill for schools and that Escanaba would receive about $9,000 from it.

Schools will remain open as scheduled until June 9 provided that delinquent taxes are paid in sufficient amount to make up the remaining deficit.

Penalties Reduced An optimistic note was injected into the situation with regard to delinquent taxes with the announcement that heavy penalties on taxes past due have been drastically reduced by a recent act of legislature. Penalty on 1939 taxes was 73 1/2 per cent; on 1930 taxes was 64 per cent; and on 1931 taxes was 55 1/2 per cent.

Under the new act of the legislature, these penalties have been reduced to but six per cent, provided that the taxes are paid before September 30 of this year.

The board of education believes that the general public is sufficiently interested in the education of the children of Escanaba to make an extra effort to pay up their delinquent taxes at this time in order that the school term may be finished according to schedule.

Conditions under which the emergency appropriation bill was signed by the governor this week made local school officials somewhat disturbed over possibilities for next year. In signing the bill, the governor indicated that the emergency appropriation must come out of next year's total appropriation for schools. Should this be the case, it is quite likely that schools next year may be forced to shorten their terms.

No prediction is being made by local authorities on that point, however, they being more interested in keeping the schools open this year.

Amateur Contest Tonight At 8:00

The second annual city amateur contest will be held at the city recreation center tonight beginning at 8 o'clock. Entries will be received up to five o'clock this afternoon but any coming later will have to be refused. Anyone wishing to participate may register at either of the recreation centers or at the city recreation office.

As a special entertainment feature, the WPA Entertainers from Flat Rock will present several novelty and orchestra numbers. This group has traveled almost five thousand miles since their organization, have put on almost one hundred shows, and performed before thousands of people. They have appeared at the center before and were enthusiastically received by packed crowds. There will be about fifteen in the group and the novelty numbers include tap dancing, accordion numbers, solos, duets, and comedy numbers. In order to help defray the cost of the two cups which will be presented and in order that there will be seating accommodations for the large crowd expected, there will be a small admission charge.

Chemurgy and Future

How Science Has Gone to Work to Bring Back Prosperity to the Farmer

This is the first of six stories on Chemurgy, science's contribution to the task of restoring prosperity to the farmer.

Consider how it would work. Iowa farmers, facing a recurring surplus in corn, would truck their excess bushels not to the local elevator but to the nearest "argol" plant where the corn would become a 10 per cent motor fuel blend.

Consider that the Iowa corn farmer and the Mississippi cotton planter still found a surplus after utilization of their crops in these new industrial purposes.

Chemurgy, as a matter of fact, is already doing some of these things after four years' intensive experimentation that began with Dearborn, Mich., in May, 1935.

MARKET FALLS TO LOW LEVEL

STOCK MARKET AVERAGES. Table with columns for Net change, D.I., D.4, D.1, D.7, etc.

BY FREDERICK GARDNER. New York, April 18 (AP)—Stock market prices slipped lower today as buyers, attempting to assess the European picture...

Losses among pivotal shares ranged from fractions to 2 points more. Selling pressure was not evident, however, and the day's volume was the smallest for a full session since February 14.

Transfers totaled only 441,770 shares compared with 524,000 yesterday. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was down 7.4 of a point at 43.1.

While first quarter earnings statements of many companies reported today showed moderate to sharp increases over the like period of last year, traders preferred to await the session of the German Reichstag April 28 when Helmschuehrer Hitler is expected to make his reply to President Roosevelt's peace proposals before making commitments.

The tone of European markets was much the same, with little activity and a tendency to mixed price changes.

Steels and some of the higher priced specialties led in the quiet retreat, which was marked by a mild selling flurry that changed many fractional losses into declines of more than a point or so.

Aircrafts, as a group, were resistant to the downward tendency, but failed to nose ahead at any time. Losses among the rails were held, on the most part, to fractions.

Utility shares fluctuated in a narrow range and some finished unchanged.

In the bond market domestic corporate and foreign dollar loans dipped but U. S. treasury direct and guaranteed issues pointed upward.

Commodities were mixed. At Chicago wheat finished unchanged to down 1/4 cent a bushel, corn was up 1/4 to 1/2 cent while at New York cotton was unchanged to 45 cents a bale higher.

In the foreign exchange market sterling dropped a little and the French franc was a trifle higher. The 90-day forward discount on sterling narrowed considerably.

VOLUME LIGHT; BONDS TUMBLE

BOND MARKET AVERAGES. Table with columns for Net change, D.2, D.1, D.1, D.2, etc.

New York, April 18 (AP)—The bond market as a whole ignored the leadership of U. S. government loans today and fell back fractions to over 2 points.

Investors and traders operating cautiously, accounted for a turnover of only $4,089,300, face value, in the smallest trading session since September 19. Yesterday's volume was $4,945,900.

Prices fell steadily through the day, except for U. S. treasuries which engaged in another of their frequent upward surges.

At the closing bell, the latter had advanced as much as 10-32 point, directly opposite to the market trend.

Metals showed virtually the only corporate strength. Anaconda Copper 4 3/8 advanced 3-8 point to 10 1/2.

Rails declined heavily on the whole. Foreign governments continued in general on the downgrade, with strength shown in the main only by Argentine, Polish, Belgian and French issues.

Traders were interested in State Comptroller Tremaine's statement that the $10,000,000 New York bond issues sold today at a net interest rate to the state of 1.7395 percent, the lowest for a comparable issue in the history of the state.

Michigan In Washington

By Esther Van Wagener Tufty. "The D. A. R. in the capital" one hears it on all sides as 4,000 from every state assemble for the 48th annual Congress.

Perhaps the powerful Resolution Committee, on which Mrs. Omond D. Havenrich of Jackson and Mrs. Henry Burns Joy of Grosse Pointe serve, will propose a neutrality policy. Also, if the D. A. R. see fit to take any action on the Marion Anderson controversy, caused by the refusal to rent Constitution Hall to a Negro artist, it will be announced in a resolution.

Mrs. William Carl Geagley of Lansing is the State Regent, and Mrs. Havenrich of Jackson is Vice-Regent. The Good Citizenship Pilgrim is Anne Everts of Ann Arbor. Mrs. George D. Schermerhorn of Reading is the only national officer. As Organizing Secretary-General she has a personal page, Marion L. Brooke of Detroit.

Michigan members will have several parties limited to their own group. On the program is a supper party to be given by Mrs. Geagley on Sunday evening, a tea by Mrs. Arthur H. Vandenberg on Monday, and the Michigan luncheon on Tuesday.

On Friday is the usual White House reception. As a protest against Mrs. Roosevelt's resignation from the D. A. R. some members may refuse to attend. Mrs. Roosevelt is out of the city and will not return in time to receive them. The cabinet ladies will substitute.

To keep modernized the warning signs at railroad crossings to protect fast-moving, ever-increasing traffic, in the special problem of Alvie R. Merrick, Michigan Public Utilities Commissioner, Mr. Merrick came to Washington a few days ago to confer with W. J. Patterson and other Interstate Commerce Commission officials. To keep abreast of new traffic needs, major railroad crossings in Michigan now have reflectorized signs and flashing lights, says Merrick. While recognizing the crossing dangers and working always for more care at those danger spots on city streets and highways, Mr. Merrick reminds worried motorists that, of the total number of fatalities, only 5 per cent happen at railroad-highway intersections.

of spring wheat, bore the brunt of the selling, some of which represented spreading against purchases of May contracts. September futures were off as much as 3-4 cent at one time while May and July showed losses no greater than 3-8 cent.

Helping to restrain selling of wheat, wheat closed unchanged to 1/2 cent lower compared with yesterday. May 69 1-8 to 69 7/8; 75 1/8 to 75 1/2; 80 1/4 to 80 1/2; 85 1/4 to 85 1/2; 90 1/4 to 90 1/2; 95 1/4 to 95 1/2.

Some purchasing was the result of shipping sales of 50,000 bushels of red and yellow hard to outside mills. Spot wheat was quoted 1/8 higher. Exporters sold more than 800,000 bushels of Canadian wheat, mostly from Vancouver to the United Kingdom.

COUNTY FARM HANDS LISTED

Extra Help Available At Employment Service Office Here

Delta county farmers may obtain extra help for planting and other spring farm work through the Michigan State Employment service, 1323 Ludington street. Whitney R. Dixon, office manager, announced yesterday. A list of qualified farmhands has been compiled at the local office, and about 300 are ready for work.

"The function of this office," he stated, "is to bring workers and employers together, so as to save them both time and expense. No employer needs to hire any of the workers we refer to him unless they suit his needs."

"We make a practice of sending only the type of workers who will fit the jobs to be filled, and thus save the employer the time and bother of interviewing a number of men who may or may not have the experience he requires. At present we have about 300 applicants registered for various kinds of farm work. These men and women are qualified for positions as farm hands or agricultural laborers, as shown by their past records. No fee is charged either the worker or the employer."

Placements Increase

Private placements are increasing daily, the local office manager stated. During March there were 15 workers placed in private jobs, while 5 were placed in public jobs which include PWA.

General improvement in business conditions throughout the nation, with a resulting demand for workers, has been reported by the employment service. The federal service reports widespread gains in the country, with improvement in employment in 36 states.

"The Michigan State Employment service is making increasing efforts to serve the employer-employee portion of the public," Dixon said. "Record forms have been approved so that they now give a detailed picture of the qualifications of applicants and just what employers expect of workers on particular jobs."

The Michigan Unemployment Compensation commission, which holds the local offices jointly with the employment service, has distributed 11,450 checks up to March 25 since the start of payments on July 1, 1938. The value of checks distributed through the local office is $127,567.13, with an average check of $11.08 being paid to each recipient each week. Checks for partial unemployment since March 1 have totaled $1,024, with an average monthly check of $26.14.

The commission's Manistique office distributed 2,475 checks during the same period, with a total value of $28,162.15. Average value of the checks for total unemployment was $11.28. Partial unemployment payments totaled $1,024, with an average monthly check of $26.14.

For the Upper Peninsula as a whole, $1,808,585.61 has been distributed since July 1, 1938. There were 150,099 checks with an average of $12.03. $7,304.67 was paid out in partial unemployment benefit payments, which averaged $23.26 per month.

Dixon yesterday advised local unemployed persons who have any experience or ability to do domestic work to take it up now, if only temporarily. He pointed out that there is a scarcity of domestic workers in Escanaba, and that a number of jobs are now open. "The field is not overcrowded nationally," he said, "and here in Escanaba there is a definite shortage."

The employment service, he explained, is available to anyone, employed or unemployed, who is seeking work. Employers are encouraged to use the service as a means of contacting prospective employees, and files on each person registered are kept up to date to facilitate the work of providing applicants who have experience in different lines of work.

Youth Hostel Plan Discussed At Local Committee Session

Members of a local committee investigating the possibility of establishing a youth hostel at Escanaba met at the Chamber of Commerce offices yesterday afternoon to discuss the youth hostel plan. Beverly Butts, head of the city department of parks and recreation and chairman of the local youth hostel committee, appointed a committee to investigate facilities and management in or near the city which are available.

Those named to the committee are: Mrs. R. P. Bowers, chairman, Mrs. L. L. Farrell, Mrs. E. J. MacMartin, H. P. Lindsay and B. W. Phillips.

Justin Cline, regional director for American Youth Hostels, Inc., presented the youth hostel plan before a group of interested local persons at a meeting about two weeks ago, and asked that Escanaba provide a hostel as a part of a projected chain through the Upper Peninsula from Menominee to Marquette. Menominee and Marquette are now working jointly to set up a hostel on the shore of Green Bay south of Marquette.

Hostels on the proposed chain would be spaced at about every thirty miles, to enable cyclists to make the trip between stops in one day. Where hostel trails are set up for hiking, the limit is about 15 miles.

Open to Anyone

Anyone who "travels under his own steam" is eligible to make use of the youth hostels. Most hostellers travel by bicycle or by foot, though some groups go by horseback, canoe, snowshoes or skis. They do not go by automobile, train or bus except to the starting point of their hostelling trail. They do their own cooking, and travel economically.

A question raised at yesterday's meeting was, "Will tourist camps and hotels suffer a loss of business if a hostel is created here?" Those present agreed that local business would not suffer, and might gain on a long time basis through more people being introduced to the Upper Peninsula by means of the hostellers. "It would not take away from the present trade," one member stated, "because there are no hikers or cyclists coming through here now in any numbers."

The Youth Hostels came to America in 1924, when the first hostel was established at Northfield, Mass., by Isabel and Monroe Smith. The American Youth Hostel organization has been recognized as the nineteenth member to be included in the International Youth Hostel association.

ANOTHER NAME
Gladstone, Mich.,
April 17, 1939

Editor, Daily Press,
Escanaba, Michigan.
Dear Mr. Editor:

Pardon my umbrage to the word Jamboree as a name for Escanaba's late national gala day.

The term is ambiguous and belittles the spirit of the occasion. Jamboree, defined in the dictionary, is a spree, a debauch, and a debauch, as a bout of sensual indulgence. Hitler, Stalin, the Mikado of Japan and Mussolini are engaged in magnifying the term jamboree and its perverse derivations in acts contrary to every instinct of divine indulgence and generosity.

Jamboree seems a misnomer when applied to anything connected with the smelt run that touches and appeals to high and low in the U. S. A. from ocean to ocean and from Gulf to the British possessions in America.

Therefore I suggest as a permanent appellation, Escanaba's Annual Festival Smelt Feast and Frolic—festal, a gay holiday; feast, a lavish meal.

Respectfully yours,
Ben P. Pollock,
Gladstone, Mich.

ICE MOVES OUT OF SOUTH BAY

Brisk Wind Starts Field In Motion; Break-Up Begins to North

Pushed by a fairly brisk wind of from 18 to 24 miles per hour, the ice field to the south of Sand Point moved out of Little Bay de Noc yesterday morning. It left a roughly diagonal line extending out from the point to the other side of the bay, and ice in the north bay began to break up as the wind shifted to northwest late yesterday afternoon.

The break-up is 10 days later than that of the spring of 1938, when the ice went out of the bay on April 8. Most recent ice measurements, made a week ago last Saturday, disclosed that the ice field was 17 inches thick. Recent rains were a factor in softening the ice, which was without honey-combing or pocketing up to the time of the last measurements.

The earliest date of the opening of navigation at the local port was in 1878, when vessels reached the ore docks on March 5. There have been five March openings of navigation in the history of the local harbor since 1871.

The latest opening on record was May 5, 1885, following the coldest March on record here.

What Makes a Nation Great?

Land? Timber? Minerals? Other nations have them—but of what value are raw materials without human resourcefulness?

Because our pioneering forefathers had the courage to match their dreams, America became great. Their stout spirit was the plow that broke the plains. Their staunch faith sharpened the edge of their thundering axes. Their high hope harnessed the waters. Their will to win probed the earth below.

You and you and you are America's pioneers, for Today is always Yesterday's frontier for the American spirit. The true measure of a nation's resources is the ability of its people to face life with the spirit of youth.
