Miss

Dear Brother I receive your letter last night was glad to hear from you and glad to hear that Dixon is all wr ight on the Union quest ion although I am ne niger man I have been said of for two months only whitch is 26 dollars there is four months pay now I see me when I shall get it the Lord onlys knows but what I have drawed wont buy a horse but what little money I have I had rath er

have in stock than mon ey if you are willing to buy Josephine & Ella to young heffers with calfs or going to have calves this spring I will send you thirty dollars to buy them with and you keep them
for the use of the milk untill next spring if the heffers are something extra I would pay a couple dollars more I w ill send ten dollars
at a time by mail untill you get the whole as soon as you answer this letter I wi ll know what to do
I have know news
to write you from her inth I went yestaday ab out 1/2 a mile from our camp to the 10 Mo souri Sawyer's curry is Capt. of one company and williams of another Co Joe Old or all and

try and get transfred
to his Reg. & Co I wish
dollars whare I make
one Reg. to another but
now so I will try and
Propost marshal went
thare clothes home try and
anough to keep Josephine

At Colba this Spring for his boys have been paid of and he can pay if they have sent and to him betwixt old Taylor and the town you can raise money enough to keep Josephine & Colba until I can draw some more more money from government from your Brother
