

Nashville Feb 28/64

Dear Brother, I have got so far towards my destination my regiment will start for Pulaski as soon as we can get transportation we like to have had a smash up on the cars coming down the car that I was in run off the track and all most made a tipover but as fortune would have it know one was hurt if there is any letters for me at Dixon forward them on direct them the same as you have done before I am now writing in the office where George is he seems to have a good berth here I have had so little sleep that I dont feel mut oh like writing I call to see Marion 123 fourth evening and call to see Juldy Kelly on Clark

St I forgot the number she says she is a going to answer your letter she wants you to get her a good husband she will come to Dixon if you will the Book Store is on Clark St between Monroe and Madison Sts she told me she had bought her a house in Lowell and paid four hundred dollars on it the rest of the payment on time I do not think of anything more so good bye for the present

C H Hatco