

Somewhere in Italy
June 14. 1944.

Dear Sis.

Received the package you
sent me about a week ago.
That cheese sure was good.
and thanks a lot.

Send me some more of that cheese
whenever you get a chance.

But next time you go home ask ma for some of my money I don't want you to pay for all that.
Well I suppose Norman is in France
by now that's what I think anyway.

Not long ago I received a letter
from Dad's Dad.

Does he write them letters
himself?

Its some pretty good written letters who ever is writing them.

In this part of the country
the farmers are harvesting to beat hell.

The weather out here is fair.
Its something like Africa here
its awful dry during the summer months.

Havent much news this time
so will have to ping off.

S. J. J.
Blauvelt