A few evenings previous Andrew Stevenson was entertaining a few friends at the Harbor. After much wassail, he went to the cellar to knock the head out of another keg of nails. He returned to the saloon, and later his guests departed. At this time he discovered that they had taken with them two cases of his best bug juice; he followed hot on their trail and soon came up with them, resting on the boxes in the pale moonlight. Andrew is a large and persuasive man, and the words that he uttered soon caused the pilferers to carry back the stolen goods. Like Sören, he realizes that some temptations are too great for weak man to resist. Having recovered the mountain dew, he dismissed the culprits with a touching reproof and permitted them to slink home.

cement is now a matter of course. Long ago it ceased to be an item of news when a citizen got tired of patching his old hemlock walk. There are two cement block houses here, and there have been a large number of the blocks used in partial construction. The township of Escanaba has just built the Chaison schoolhouse of them. There seems, however, a tendency to fear this style of work, as there was a dread of ting out the simple facts-facts, just the single piece construction, until its plain facts. If you will revise your intricacies were mastered. But elsewhere remarkable things are being done. Near here a society has decided to build a solid concrete fence around its park, instead of using boards, as before. The cost is little more than check by return mail, as I need the wood. announced in Omaha, where it was reported at night that Edward A. Cudahy of the Cudahy Packing company had reduced the prices of all meats 10 per cent. and that a still further reduction was expected.

In explanation Mr. Cudahy said he be-lieved the time had come for a general and substantial reduction in the cost of living if the average citizen is to share in the country's prosperity. "I believe," he said, "there will be an immediate decline all along the line of produce and staple supplies necessary to human life. For some time we have been buying cheaper and we think we are justified in selling cheaper. The con-more will get the henefit as the retailsumer will get the benefit, as the retailers have promised to pass the reduction along. It will mean a saving to every man, woman, and child in the country."

Sioux Falls Follows Suit.

Following the Omaha example, Sioux City dropped into line with the same cut, though the order has not been received officially in the packing plants there. St. Joseph was not so confident of a decline. The general manager of one of the plants there said if there was decline it would come without any radical eut.

Representative retail dealers in this city said the cut had not been felt in Chicago yet, but the consumers would feel it in various ways soon. The situ-ation at present appears to be that much of the meat used by the consumers is taken from the "coolers" and is not subtaken from the "coolers" and is not sub-ject to the fluctuating daily market price of undressed beef. When that stock is gone the benefits of the low trend will Substantial cuts have been made in the prices of pork and ham.

Retail Prices to Be Reduced.

Local packers said that the low trend of the price of live stock probably would continue for some time, and necessarily would cause a reduction of retail prices.

"The price of live stock has been go-ing down for some time," said Max J. Sulzberger, vice president of the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger, "and the price to the retailer has been less for beef within the last few days. In hogs there was a cut of 75 cents a hundred last week. Of course, the retailer will not get the advantage of this cut for sixty days or so, as the finished product will not be ready until that time. "The price to the retailer is based al-

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 .- Because of the decrease in birds, the United States is losing yearly without protest a sum larger than the capitalization of all the According to the news from Tashkend not one of the townspeople escaped the avalanche of earth. How the governor and his mother escaped is not known, but it is most probable that they were not in the city at the time of the disas-ter. national banks in the country, was the statement made by President William Dutcher of the National Association of Audobon societies at the annual meeting of the association here.

The public, declared Mr. Dutcher, placidly allows agricultural crops valued at $800,000,000 to be annually destroyed by insects, which destruction is entirely due to the rapid decrease in the number of insectiverous birds in the country.

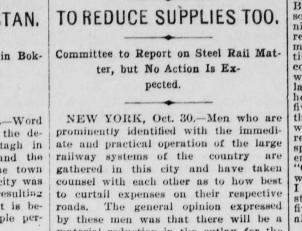

"If a million or more dollars are lost through the management of a bank or other fiduciary institution," he said, "it creates a wave of protest throughout the entire country, yet a yearly loss equal to the entire capitalization of the nationloss equal al banks of the country creates no com-ment whatever, simply because the pub-lic does not realize what is going on." Mr. Dutcher said that the association was in position to do good work along the line of the protection of birds, but that in order to successfully carry on its work it should have a larger endow-ment fund and a far larger membership.

MINERS ACCEPT PAY CUT.

Stand by Contract of Sliding Scale with Copper Companies. BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 30 .- The miners' union and the smeltermen's union have received notices from the Amalgamated Copper and other mining companies that the old scale of wages, in force before the agreement on the sliding scale was made, will be restored on November 1. The reduction will be from $4 a day to $3.50, the scale before the raise. The mines might have reduced the wages to the old scale a month ago, copper already then being below 18 cents, but the companies preferred to leave the wages untouched until it would be evident that copper would stay below 18 cents for a while. The reduction to the lower scale will ap-ply to all men at the mines except the machinists' union whose members been on strike for months, and which or ganization never signed the contract for a sliding scale. After Becoming Convert to Christianity He Makes Extravagant Reparations.

Strange and wonderful tales of the cannibals of the Southern Pacific were cannibals of the Southern Fachic were told by Rev. John Hopkins Denison, pastor of the Central Congregational church who has recently returned from the Island of New Britain, off the coast of New Guinea, says the Boston Tranor New Guinea, says the Boston Tran-script. Mr. Denison gave an illustrated stereopticon talk in his church at East Boston, during which he told of his per-sonal observations of the habits of can-nibals, and especially those who had nibals, and especially those who had recently been converted. The most re-markable case was that of Tobogo, a namarkable case was that of 1000go, a ha-tive chieftain, who, according to the ac-count given by Mr. Denison, had gone with his sling into a neighboring vil-lage and killed five men against whom he cherished a grudge. He carried all five bodies back to his own hut and ate them one be carried for the heat them one by one. Shortly after this he wan converted to Christianity. He then returned to the village and made a speech. Mounting a stump in the presspeech. Mounting a stump in the pres-ence of a vast assemblage, he said: "Once I came here with five stones, with which I killed my enemies. Again I come with five stones, but they are stones of love." He then read them five verses out of the Bible and returned out the menory he had stolen all the money he had stolen. No one, said Mr. Denison, has ever dared to cross the Island of New Britain, even at its narrowest point, where it is only eight miles wide. It is one of the most active seats of cannibalism, and most active seats of cannibalism, and has never been explored ten miles from shore. The lecturer was told by reliable witnesses on the island that the chief-tains often killed as many as two hun-dred persons at a time and hung them dred persons at a time and hung them up to keep, cutting them down one by one as they were wanted. Tobogo's ex-ploit of five bodies was one of the milder cases. And after his conversion he became so sensible of the error of his ways that he sent a message of good will to the American people, telling of his gratitude to the missionaries who had caused him to give up his barbarous diet. Mr. Denison also exhibited a skull obtained from the top of one of the poles which are known among the natives as tapu signs. He was told that it had once been the property of a boy who had come down from the mountains and had been knocked on the head for decorative purposes.

Miss Barbara, who is 18 years old, was visiting London with her younger sister in charge of an English governess, Miss Russell. The trio went to the Aldwych theater last Thursday and on coming out Barbara became separated in the crowd from her companions and has not since been seen Since Miss Laponkhin disappeared the governess has received a note in a handwriting which she recognizes as Barbara's, saying that she had been kidnaped outside the theater and is now a prisoner in the cellar of a house in the northwest part of London, the address of which she was unable to ascertain The girl added that she was wounded and suffering so severely that she in-tended to poison herself.

M. Laponkhin has been director of the police department in Russia and Miss Russell suggests that the revolu-tionists planned the kidnaping of Barbara with the object of bringing her fa-ther within their reach. He is now on his way to London. The Russian officials here are inclined to the belief that the girl was carried off for purposes of blackmail. The police are nonpulsed. They say they are unable to imagine how a woman 18 years old could be carried off against her will in the crowded precincts of a theater.

National Tobacco Growers' Association Would Prevent Planting of 1908 Crop.

SHELBYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 30 .- The annual convention of the National Tobacco Growers' association is in session here today. All of the tobacco raising states from Wisconsin to the Carolinas are included in the organization.

The growers are assured by their leaders that if no crop is grown in 1908 they will receive as much for the two unwould for three crops should they grow one next year. It is of vital importance to the grower that the two pooled crops now on hand be sold before another crop is started, otherwise many small pro-ducers will, it is said, be bankrupt.

Dream Proves Russian Museum Exhibits Are Bogus.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 30.-The remarkable substitution of certain his-toric relics of considerable intrinsic value in the Hermitage museum in this city has been revealed, according to a current story, by means of a dream, and the matter has attracted much attention from superstitious lower classes of the capital.

A subscriber of the Russkoe Znamva wrote a letter to the paper saying that for three nights in succession he was visited by the "phantom" of the early custodian of the treasures, who com-plained of their disappearance.

The publication of this dream was fol-lowed at once by semi-official denials, but today it was admitted that the medals and coins had been substituted because of the danger of their being carried away during some extreme rev-olutionary disorder olutionary disorder.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30.-Orders, said to have come directly from Chairman Roswell Miller, of the executive board of the Milwaukee road in New York and given to the company' in New York and given to the company's officials and department heads by Presi-dent A. J. Earling, will result in the immediate laying-off of all traveling and soliciting freight representatives of the company throughout the United States. This move, which is in the direction of retrenchment, is declared to be only temporary. It may continue in force for a month or two, or until better general financial conditions exist. In connection with this order, which will affect directly about 200 freight rep-resentatives of the road wherever the company maintains agencies, it is stated that the company has been receiving all the freight it has been able to take care of and upon the supposition that its full amount of traffic will come to it with out personal solicitation, the order of retrenchment and laying off has gone forth. Outside of this general order, there is no move on the part of the Milwaukee road to lay off any of its forces further than is usually done with the track and other laborers about this time of the year.

CHARLES H. DEERE IS DEAD.

Head of Great Moline Plow Works Succumbs to Long Illness. CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 30 .- Charles H Deere, head of the great plow works at Moline, Ill., who had been in Chicago several months receiving medical treat-ment, died yesterday at the Lakota ho-tel. The funeral was held at Moline this afternoon. Mr. Deere had been ill for over a year with pernicious anaemia. Mr. Deere left no sons, and therefore the greatest plow factory in the world passes forever from the direction of a person with the family name, which it has borne since 1847. Mr. Deere was the father of two daughters. One is dead and the other is the wife of Wil-liam Butterworth. It is thought that Mr. Butterworth, who is treasurer of the company, may succeed Mr. Deere as president pres

"My little daughter broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away. Her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. ### THE CRIME OF LOBBYING.

By Governor J. W. Folk.

There should be a law making it a crime for any one for compensation to lobby with the members of the Legislature. All persons, of course, should be permitted to appear before committees and make arguments for or against measures in the regular and open way. Any person should also be permitted to file printed arguments or briefs with members of the Legislature. But in order that publicity may be given to what is going on it should be provided that copies of the printed arguments or briefs be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and subject to public inspection.

The sunlight of publicity is the greatest preventive of corruption. This measure would not prevent the average citizen from talking to members of the Legislature about measures of public interest. It is only paid lobbying that it is intended to prohibit. It has been urged that such a law would violate the right of free speech in preventing any person, even though a professional lobbyist, from talking to members of the General Assembly. The right of free speech is a sacred right, but the right of the people to have their laws untainted by venal influences is also sacred.

A man cannot talk to a juror trying a case to influence him about the case. The right of free speech has its limitations. This is one of them, and interfering with legislation is another. The right of free speech cannot extend to obstructing the administration of justice or the courts of legislation.

NEW EMERGENCY CURRENCY PLAN.

By United States Treasurer Treat.

I submit a plan for the issue of an emergency bank currency as follows: Any national bank that has 50 per cent or more of its capital invested in United States bonds shall have the privilege to apply for the issue of national bank emergency currency under the following conditions: That amendments be made to the present national bank act permitting any national bank that has not less than 50 per cent of its capital invested in United States bonds to take out emergency bank-note currency to an extent not exceeding 50 per cent of the amount invested in United States bonds; that these emergency notes be similar in form and design to the present national bank notes; that the form that now reads: "This note is secured by United States bonds deposited with the treasurer of the United States," shall be changed to "This note is secured by bonds and guaranteed by the United States;" that the issue shall be made on five, six and nine months dating from Aug. 1. or Sept. 1, or any other date, according to the needs of the crop-moving period; that the collateral or security for this emergency bank-note issue shall be, if desired, in other than United States bonds, which means that the issue shall be secured by state or municipal bonds, according to the standard of the states of New York and Massachusetts for savings bank investments. These securities to be accepted at 70 per cent of their market value and the United States government to guarantee the payment and redemption of all notes so used at a charge of 1 per cent.

HEALTHFULNESS OF ROLLER SKATING.

By C. R. Williams, Expert. Roller skating is either a pleasure or it is not. It is a pleasure for those who have learned to skate. It is not for the few just beginning. To the experienced, no more pleasing pastime can be imagined than to glide along a glass-like surface at varying speeds. making wide swoops to right or left, turning, gliding backward, every movement the essence of grace.

I have been skating for six years, summer and winter, and it has made a new man of me. When I took up roller skates I was sick and miserable. Had any one told me I would become well and strong from skating I would have laughed. But I liked the exhilaration. Within three months the lassitude had passed away and in six months I was in good physical condition, without a trace of illness. Nor have I been sick since. Roller skating opens a wide field to the person who likes fancy skating. The figures and tricks are almost without number, and what makes it so enticing is that it is much easier to learn than ice skating. As a physical culture act, roller skating works wonders. It develops every muscle in the body. It soothes the nerves and brings repose. The one fault with beginners is that they want to skate too long. They do not stop when tired, and wear themselves out. If the average skater devoted an hour and a half two or three times a week to skating, the benefits would be a surprise.

British Want Chicago Boy on Charge of Killing Friend at Wake in Old Country.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 30 .- Patrick Cox, described in a ponderous brief to President Roosevelt and the state department as "a peasant boy whose only fault was that he once got drunk at a wake in a 'sheebeen' in County Mayo, Ireland, and then became involved in a shindy that resulted in one death," finds himself in a sad plight. He is a prisoner in the Cook county jail, and the British consu-late in Chicago is seeking to get him ex-tradited for trial in Ireland on a charge of murder of Edward Murry, a com panion.

Cox's case, which is more pathetic be-cause his mother is insane and his relatives in Ireland are too poor to aid in his defense, has attracted the attention of the Irish Nationalist societies of Chicago, whose leaders have begun a fight against his extradition. President Elbridge Hanecy of the Irish Fellowship club and Attorney William Dillon went to Washington to make for-mal protest with President Roosevelt against the extradition.

"The British authorities are seeking to leave on Sunday, but recently changed his plans so as to permit of a longer stay so as to clear up important busiextradite Cox on the charge of murder in order to convict him on the charge of manslaughter," said Attorney P. H. O'Donnell. "That is forbidden under the ness. The summons he has received from President Roosevelt will cut short Webster and Blaine treaties. Cox al-ready has been in jeopardy. Educated in San Antonio. Ten carloads of school children from Mexico have arrived in this city since Hunt. the influx began about two weeks ago, says the San Antonio Express.

MEXICANS IN TEXAS SCHOOLS.

Children of Many Wealthy Families

Scoers of them were accompanied by their parents, and the hotels of the city have been indebted, in no small degree, to this class of visitors for the brisk conditions which have been experienced by them during the last several weeks.

Many of the children traveled from their distant homes alone or in pairs or trios, while it was no uncommon sight to see parties of nine or ten from the same localities across the Rio Grande at the various hotels.

Nearly all the school equipment and wearing apparel for the entire year is purchased for these children here in San Antonio before they enter their respective schools, and the commercial importance of their annual visit can easily be imagined.

Their parents, too, before returning home, spend several days in the city, purchasing large quantities of American goods to take back to Mexico with them, and as the majority of them arpersons of great wealth and socia. position at home, their expenditures amount to thousands of dollars.

Of all the children from Mexico who are educated in the United States the schools of San Antonio secure over 70 per cent. Not only on account of the proximity of the city to the border, but also because of the general excellence of the schools and the healthful climate and surroundings experienced here. San Antonio has always been the favorite place with the Mexicans for their children to obtain an English education.

First Protestant Worship by Colonists in 1607 Under Sailcloth.

The settlement of Jamestown, Va., by English colonists in 1607 has been fittingly commemorated by the Jamestown Tercentenary Exposition. Recently the Episcopal Church of the United States celebrated at Richmond, Va., the 300th anniversary of the Church of England on American soil. The settlement of Jamestown and the establishing of the Church of England were synonymous as to date, for of the 105 men sent over by the London Company in the expedition of 1607 nearly all were members of the Established Church, and almost the first thing they did aftr selecting what is now known at the old Bruton Church in Williamsas Jamestown as the site for a colony was to hold the first regular service toration of this venerable edifice King of the Protestant religion in America. King's Train Is Derailed on Entering Cherbourg, but Monarch and Consort Are Not Injured.

CHERBOURG, France, Oct. 29.-The King and Queen of Spain had another close escape from injury or death early today. Their majesties are en route to England, where they are to visit King Edward. They entrained at Paris at midnight last night, bound for this place, where they are to board the British bat-tleship Renown, which is to carry them England.

They entrained at Paris at midnight. The journey was made in safety until just as the train was entering Cherbourg when it ran off the rails. The royal party escaped injury.

A powder was found in a jar near him which supports the suicide theory.

Joseph Turner Invents Propeller Which Works Up and Down and May Revolutionize Navigation.

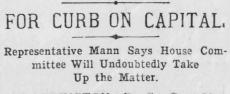

NEW YORK, Oct. 30 .- The mile minute boat may soon be a reality, ac-cording to the opinions expressed yesterday by a party of naval engineers, yachtsmen, and others who were afforded a private view of the vertebrate proinvented by Joseph Turner.

Set in motion by belt gear, and driven by four piston rods, which pass through stuffing boxes in the bottom of the boat and are connected to hinges, the triple horizontal plates which form the pro-peller, work up and down with the sin-uous motion of a fish. Many of the spectators predicted that the propeller would soon become a subject for serious con-sideration by engineers. Mr. Turner also intends to apply his system to aerial navigation.

UMPIRE IN ROUGHOUSE.

Jack Sheridan Badly Beaten as Result of Scrap in a Saloon at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 30 .- "Jack" Sheridan. an umpire of the American Baseball league, L. M. Olson, a gatemanager at the American league baseball park in this city, E. O. Glenn, a wealthy broker of Denver, and M. J. Meyer, a cattleman of Cheyenne, Wyo., were ar-rested today after a fight in a saloon in which Sheridan and Olson were badly beaten. The men had been together throughout the night, when Meyer dis-covered that he had lost $120, he accused Olson of the theft. A fight followed. When the men were searched at the station $2700 was found on Sheridan.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30 .-Representative Mann of Illinois who was at the white house today, stated that there was little doubt that the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce would take up the question of regulating the capitalization of railways at the coming session of Congress.

CUDAHY GIRL IS HEROINE.

Niece of Milwaukee Packer Saves Chicago Flat Residents' Lives.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 30 .- Miss Fran ces Cudahy, a niece of Patrick Cudahy, the wealthy Milwaukee packer, proved herself a heroine yesterday when fire broke out in the fashionable Cummings Tower court apartment-house, 6210-6216 Madison avenue, by hastily donning an automobile coat over her night robe and rushing into the smoke filled halls, arousing the sleeping occupants.

Having awakened the sleepers on the top floer, she suddenly thought of the fire engines, and, forgetful of her own peril, turned and groped her way through the stifling smoke that by this time filled the halls almost to suffocation, and, reaching the telephone in her apartments, turned in a general fire alarm.

A Rare Revelation.

A Rare Revelation. Mrs. Alice Freeman Palmer, president of Wellesley college, and a favorite writer and lecturer, left many sad hearts when she passed away. Her spiendid personality, her rare sympathy, her intuitive knowledge of girls, made her foremost among successful educators. She had retired from Wellesley some years before her death, but she never lost her deep interest in that institution, nor in colleges for women. The Congrega-tionalist quotes from her husband an inci-dent of her last illness, which is touchingly suggestive and comforting. Mathematical states of the states dent of her last illness, which is touchingly suggestive and comforting. As she lay ill in Boxford, lightning struck the house and destroyed the chamber ad-joining her own. She seemed much inter-ested in the novel event, as if it were some-thing contrived for her entertainment. It did not, apparently, disturb her. No one knew that she had written about it, or in-deed that she was in the practice of writing verse. After her death this hymn was found. found.

Havemeyer, who, with his brother, Wil-Havemeyer, came to America liam F. in 1802 from Germany. Soon after their arrival in New York the brothers began the sugar refining business, laying the foundation for the great American Sugar Refining company of today. Their two sons, who bore the same names as their fathers, carried on the business after they had gone. Their two broth-ers, Edward and Frederick, succeeded to the business in 1842. After them came Theodore A. Havemeyer, son of Frederick, who remained the head of the concern until his death in 1896. In that year Henry O. Havemeyer succeed-ed to the presidency of the company. Henry received a liberal education in both public and private schools, and im-mediately became associated with the great business of his ancestors. He was chiefly instrumental in organizing the present company in 1887 and was the recognized head of the gigantic concern for some years before the death of his brother Theodore, though the latter held the title of president until he died.

The Right Kind of a Bed and Bedroom. Dr. Woods Hutchinson, who writes entertainingly of Sleep in the September American Magazine, gives the fol-lowing advice about one bed and bedroom:

"It goes without saying that the bedroom should be well ventilated, especially in view of the heavy storing up of oxygen in the tissues which goes on dur-ing sleep. All windows should be open ing sleep. All windows should be open from the top at least one, and better two to three feet, so that a gentle current of air can be felt blowing across the face. 'Night air,' as Florence Nightingale pithily remarked, is all the air there is to breathe at night. It is just as pure and as wholesome as day air. Night fogs and rain are only injurious in so far as they frighten you into shutting your windows. No air that ever blew out doors is so dangerous, or poisonous, that inside a bedroom with closed windows.

"The temperature of the room should be about 55 degrees to 60 degrees F., if possible. If markedly below this the amount of covering required is apt to become so great as to interfere with the respiration of the skin. The clothing should be as light as is consistent with warmth, the mattress elastic but firm, the pillow as high as the breadth of the shoulder. so as to keep the neck and head horizontal or slightly above, when lying on the side. There may be but a small allowance of sense the easy-coming laughter, but it sakes up the diaphragm and awakes the solar plexus, so a jolly family have al-ways an admiring fringe of neighbor's children who love to "laugh, toc." The family of laughers have always good health, and even when living is plain, are plump and rosy. Among all the aids to digestion, and the solemn ways of to digestion, and the solemn ways of hunting health, it is strange that some one has not made a serious attempt to bring the "Culture of the Risibles" into the foreground and charge a fee for a course of lessons

Co-education?

The idea of co-education is a peculiar-ly American idea. Perhaps nowhere else in the world do such large bodies of young men and young women meet to gether for purposes of study and, at the same time, enjoy together such social freedom as is the case in the co-educational institutions of the United States. One may question the wisdom of the co-educational idea, but as to its popular-ity there can be no doubt. Many young men and young women start to college without social experience. They may belong to good families whose essential ideals of conduct are stanch and fine. but to families in which hard work and financial stress have crowded out the knowledge and practice of social ameni-ties. The youth of the students con-cerned, the inexperience of many, the variety in previous training and inherit ance, make the questions of social rela tions much more complicated than would be in the towns or cities from which the various students come, and where each one belongs by custom and birth to a well-defined circle of friends. A golden piece of advice for those entering college, though one not easy to fol-low, is: "Be slow in forming your friendshir

Each college, co-educational or otherwise, has its local etiquette that has risen out of its history. Certain things can be done by seniors, for instance, that would not be tolerated in freshmen: cer-tain other things that have no reference the general rules of society are barred because of a collegiate caprice that has been transformed into law. With this unwritten but binding etiquette the stu-dent soon becomes acquainted. If he unwritten but binding etiquette the stu-dent soon becomes acquainted. If he runs counter to it, he is brought up sharply and made to realize the penalty. The etiquette of common sense, that which should guide the relations between young men and women, is of another sort, and, owing to the exigencies of the case, must largely be expressed by nega-tive admonitions tive admonitions

The young girl must be educated at home as well as away from home. The foundation for such accomplishments as she has a preference for must be laid there, and she must prepare there, in however slight a way, for the responsibil-ities that may rest upon her shoulders when she has a house of her own. For her own training, as well as the relief of her mother, every girl should assume some household duty or duties. But these, unless necessity commands, should these, unless necessity commands, should not be severe, and occasional laxity in performance should not be dealt with harshly. Young girlhood is a growing time and a dreaming time, and a too stern insistence upon household duties sometimes blights important capabilities of mind and body. It was an old-fashioned idea that every girl should be equipped with an accom-plishment, should cultivate some definite plishment, should cultivate some definite ability to please. The idea was much abused, and resulted in the torture of many innocent persons who were com-

Feeding Zoo Animals.

There is a part of the zoo that the public is not allowed to visit. It may surprise many to know that there exists in an out-of-the-way corner of the gardens an enclosed space where horses are examined, and often kept for some little time previous to being slaughtered. Disease cannot be detected so easily in the cascass as in the live animal, and were carcasses bought the possibility of the carrivora becoming infected would not be nearly so remote as it is now. The only case in which the zoo receives a carcass is where a horse, having met with an accident in the street, has to be slaughtered at once. If it has a healthy

Not only in this way is much care ex-ercised in the choice of horseflesh, but when a carcass is cut up it is divided in such a way as to insure that in each piece given to the animals there is a bone. Otherwise the lions, tigers and other big carnivora would swallow the piece whole, which would be bad even for their iron digestions. The presence of the bone compels them to take bites of flesh, which they pick from the bone with their claws and teeth, licking the bone afterward with their sand-papery tongues until the surface shines. For the small carnivora, such as polecats and weasels, and for the raptorial birds, horseflesh is somewhat too coarse and pungent, so that they are fed for the most part on the heads and necks of chickens. These parts are selected also because of the bone in them.-London Daily Graphic.

Digging usually begins in October, and is done by peasants, who at the end of each day deliver the root to the various depots and receive payment according to the quantity they bring. The root is piled up and exposed to the air until about May and June. It then weighs only half as much as originally, owing to the thorough drying process to which it has been subjected. The root is sorted to obtain the qualities known as "debris" and "bagette," both of which are highly valued.

Licorice root is shipped in bales weighing about 220 pounds each, pressed by hydraulic machinery and strapped with iron bands. The United States is the principal consumer of this class of lico-rice, which is shipped there in its natural state as raw material, being admitted free of duty. It is converted into licorice paste for medicinal purposes, and is especially used for flavoring plug tobacco. Licorice root in its original state can also be found in any drug store in America. Annual ex-ports to the United States amount to ports to the United States amount about 14,210 tons, valued at $550,000.

How the Artist's Model "Happens."

Most of our models are not made; they just happen. Girls, in most cases of breeding and intelligence, want to make a little money for some special occasion. Some acquaintance recognizes that they have distinction and style, and gives them, the address of an illustrator who hap-pens to need just such a person. They pose once in this way, more or less from necessity, find they can make an independent living in a congenial manner, and so come again. In consequence, the women who pose for a livelihood in New York are exceedingly nice as a class. The prevalent idea that the words "art-ist's model" necessarily means a highly paid, greatly petted and utterly depraved individual is ridiculous in the extreme. A first class artist's model in New York city receives $3 a day for six hours' hard work. photographic model has, A course, a different proposition. Building of New Shops in Omaha, Extensions of All Sorts Are Suddenly Dropped.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 29.-The Union Pacific railway today discharged between 4000 and 8000 workmen. This is official and is authenticated by General Superintendent Park, assistant to Vice down to 96. President Orr.

The discharged men are from the construction department and every piece of construction work on the entire system is abandoned. The Lane cutoff, west of Omaha, which has cost $5,000,000 and three years work, and which would have been finished in fifteen days, has been abandoned. Work has been stopped on all work in Kansas City and along the Kansas division, including the new line between Topeka and Lincoln, Neb. The work on the new shops in Omaha has been temporarily abandoned.

More to Go Later.

None of the operating force has been discharged and probably will not be for some time.

On this point, General Superintendent Park says: "We expect a cutailment of business and as fast as this occurs we will lay off train crews. For the present this will not be done; our orders are to dispense with every available man and to stop every piece of construction work on the system. We are ordered to cut expenses in every possible way." These orders came from New York, but the officials would not say who issued them. E. H. Herriman is the only of-ficial on the Union Pacific higher than Omaha officials.

Other Roads Too Busy.

The Burlington and the North-Western roads which have headquarters in the city are proceeding with their work. When asked if the North-Western would follow the Union Pacific action, General Manager Walters of the lines west of the Missouri river said: "No, we are too busy to quit work and lie idle." General Manager Soldrege of the Bur-lington lines west of the Missouri river, said no more men would be laid off by of winter. The financial situation was cutting no figure whatever in the affairs.

HONEY BEES.

After Them the Indian Met the White Man.

All the honey bees in this country having originally been imported from Europe or Asia, there is no racial difference between the wild ones and the domesticated; those that live in trees are simply the descendants of those that from time to time have taken "French leave" from their owners' hives and reverted to a state of nature. The vast bulk of the wild bees are of the German or black race, while the standard domesticated bee is the Italian, but that, however, is only because the Germans were the first to be introduced here. Just when the Germans came is in doubt, but it was some time in the Seventeenth century; certainly it was not until near the close of the Eighteenth century that any bees were found west of the Mississippi.

The Indians used to say they could mark the advance of the white man by the appearance of bees in the woods. The Italian bees were first imported in 1860. Better tempered and more industrious than the Germans, they have be-come very popular with apiarists, but as many still keep the German bee, and others have the hybrid formed by the crossing of the two races, while count-less Italians now have taken to the woods, there to breed more hybrids, it is clear that there is no sure way of dis-

Physicians Recommend Castoria

ASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First-The indisputable evidence that it is harmless: second-That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food : Third-It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system-not by stupefying it-and our readers are entitled to the information.-Hall's Journal of Health.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. B. Halstead Scott, of Chicago, Ills., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria often for infants during my practice, and find it very satisfactory." Dr. William Belmont, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "Your Castoria stands first in its class. In my thirty years of practice I can say I never have found anything that so filled the place."

Dr. J. H. Taft, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria and found it an excellent remedy in my household and private practice for many years. The formula is excellent."

Dr. R. J. Hamlen, of Detroit, Mich., says: "I prescribe your Castoria extensively, as I have never found anything to equal it for children's troubles. I am aware that there are imitations in the field, but I always see that my patients get Fletcher's."

Dr. Wm. J McCrann, of Omaha, Neb., says: "As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine, and aside from my own family experience I have in my years of practice found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Dr. J. R. Clausen, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "The name that your Castoria has made for itself in the tens of thousands of homes blessed by the presence of children, scarcely needs to be supplemented by the endorsement of the medical profession, but I, for one, most heartily endorse it and believe it an excellent remedy."

Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Castoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physician who has raised a family, as I have, will join me in heartiest recom-

WORDS OF WISDOM.

Women recall past pleasures with a positive sense of satisfaction. Nothing wounds a woman so keenly as to neglect to answer her letters.

The slang usually adopted by men has the merit of being full of force.

A woman's religion has little in the way of denominational prejudice.

It is difficult for some men to be entirely straight in their statements. Men have a way of making promises which leave a loop hole of escape.

Men admit that women have ideas, but regard them as lacking in originality.

The man with a fad very soon become a nuisance of the most pronounced sort. Women first grumble about the dictates

THE TERROR'S DINNER

"Rattlesnakes on Toast" Was the Cowboy's Order.

BUT HE MET WITH HIS MATCH

The Tough Waiter Served the Dish Took the Terror's Nerve Away-The Repast and the Final Request.

Away back in 1876 a man named Turpin established a restaurant in Friday, the 27th day of December, 1907. Yuma, and among Turpin's original employees was a waiter named Job Straight, who could shoot with great precision, play draw poker with unvarying success and pack eighteen plates of miscellaneous grub upon one bare arm at one time. He could execute all the prevailing melodies either on piano or guitar, and he possessed the most tremendous baritone voice ever heard in Arizona. Why, men sometimes went to Turpin's just to hear Joe deliver gastronomic orders. No perfect description can be given of that voice, however, except to say that at times it really did make things clatter. Once a fresh young cowboy from near Gila Bend entered Turpin's for a Christmas dinner who took a startling concoction as an appetizer and then dropped thud-like at a table and roughly shouted to Straight:

"Say, there, Baldy! Bring me some grub!

Job was at first appalled; but, recovering his reserve limit of equanimity. he brushed an imaginary breadcrumb from the frescoed tablecloth and whisked a bill of fare from the varlegated castor and placed it before the new young terror of the Bend. "Take it away!" cried the latter in tones that could give Straight's ordinary, everyday baritone a castle and checkmate it in five moves. "I don't

It is astonishing how much weight must be placed upon a sheet of writing paper floating on water before it can be made to sink. It will sustain the weight of articles as heavy as penknives. Try it for yourself.

In McIntosh county, Ga., there was a lawsuit about a cow. The cow was dead, but the lawsuit went on. It was decided by the justice of the peace, appealed, remanded, decided again and once more appealed and remanded. This went on until the case came back to the squire for the eleventh time. It was a jury case, and when the last trial was on the squire astonished the attorney by announcing an indefinite postponement, saying:

"This case has exhausted the whole jury venire of the county, and you will have to wait until the coming generation gets old enough for jury duty." Then the litigants compromised .-New York Sun.

A Dogs' Academy.

There is an academy for canines in a certain South London borough which is known to all the prominent circus people of Europe, and which is the "old school" of many of the performing dogs in Great Britain at the present time. The interior is fitted up with trapezes, etc., and day by day all sorts of performing canines are taught their clever tricks.
