Cabot Lodge Accepts Post With Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Let no one doubt that politics makes strange bedfellows: Henry Cabot Lodge is going to work for John F. Kennedy.

A family rivalry that dates back 47 years has been stored in the attic with announcement by the President Thursday that he has picked Lodge as ambassador to South Viet Nam.

Eleven years ago Kennedy vaulted into national prominence by taking Lodge's Senate seat. Three years ago they were exchanging political pot shots; Kennedy as the Democratic candidate for president, Lodge as the GOP's vice presidential choice.

A year ago, the battling branched farther out on the family tree as the President's youngest brother, Edward, defeated Lodge's son, George, for the same Senate seat from Massachusetts.

The feuding and fussing between the Lodges and the Kennedys began in 1916 when Lodge's aristocratic grandfather and namesake, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, beat back the challenge of John F. Fitzgerald, Kennedy's maternal grandfather.

Although he bears the same name and party label as his grandfather, Henry Cabot Lodge is cut from entirely different political cloth. The elder Lodge was an isolationist and a conservative; the younger is international-minded and a member of the GOP's liberal wing.

Lodge has been a general consultant to Time, Inc., and has served as director general of the Atlantic Institute, a private organization dedicated to strengthening democracy in Western Europe.

Naval Secretary Defends Decision On TFX Warplane

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Fred Korth gave Senate investigators a denial today that the Pentagon has settled for an inferior, costlier version of the TFX warplane.

His testimony before the Senate Investigations subcommittee was direct conflict with that given previously by witnesses for the uniformed Air Force and Navy. The plane is intended for use by both services.

Korth pictured the General Dynamics version as 320 miles an hour faster than Boeing's at high altitude, 150 miles an hour faster at low altitude. The top speed has been described in testimony as about two and a half times the speed of sound.

He said the General Dynamics plane could stay aloft longer than Boeing's—50 per cent longer over an assault area at extreme long range.

He said Boeing's design had unacceptable maneuvering restrictions, and that at extreme altitudes and speeds the General Dynamics version would be twice as maneuverable.

Boeing, he said, had a not-highly-significant advantage of lighter weight, but the General Dynamics version had an advantage of being smaller.

The subcommittee is seeking to establish whether favoritism figured in award of the potentially huge contract to the General Dynamics Corp. of Fort Worth, Tex., over the Boeing Co. of Seattle.

On Merit Korth insisted that General Dynamics won the contract on merit. TFX (Tactical Fighter, experimental) still is in the design and development stage, years away from its first test flight.

Hancock Boys Found Dead

HANCOCK (AP) — Sheriff's department skin divers today recovered the bodies of two boys from the Portage Canal.

Police said the boys apparently drowned while swimming in the canal.

SOUTH VIET NAM:

Terrorist Bombs Kill 10, Injure 38

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Bombs planted apparently by Communist terrorists exploded in the U.S. Military Advisory Assistance Group Compound today. The explosions killed 10 Vietnamese civilians and wounded 38 other persons, including three American soldiers.

One American suffered leg and foot wounds, another high wounds, and the third lacerations of the chin and forehead. None was identified. The condition of all three was described as good.

One explosion ripped a huge hole in a concrete wall around the sprawling compound and demolished houses just outside.

A grenade exploded, apparently by accident, in a movie theater Thursday night, killing one man and injuring 53 Vietnamese, mostly children. The dead man was a government civil guard. It was believed the grenade slipped from his belt.

Clark, Auto Union Settle Grievances

BUCHANAN (AP)—Negotiators for Clark Equipment Co. and the United Auto Workers Union announced settlement today of grievances that prompted a walk-out June 13 of 1,600 members of UAW Local 468.

Union members will vote Saturday on whether to accept the settlement. Operations will resume Monday if it is ratified, said Bert Walter, Clark vice president for industrial relations.

Walter said both parties compromised, but declined to say what the issues were before the union's vote.

After the private audience, the Pope also received Mrs. Nixon and the Nixon's daughters, Patricia, 17, and Julie, 14.

7 Persons Die Attempting To Flee Rio Fire

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Fire swept through the top floors of a 20-story commercial building today. At least seven persons fell to their deaths trying to escape and others were feared dead in the building.

Two helicopters plucked survivors from the roof as all the fire fighting equipment of this city was summoned to the scene.

A shortage of water hampered efforts to check the flames, which raged through the top 10 floors of the building in the Rio Candelaria area.

Thousands of spectators saw two women and three men fall to their death. The victims had tried to escape from the 14th floor and were making their way down when a rope broke.

Another woman leaped to her death from the 18th floor when a fireman's ladder was only five feet away.

A man emerging hysterically from the building said at least three were dead in his office.

Sgt. Barney Barnett said he met the bear during a guard tour. "He reared up on his hind legs and let out a growl," Barnett said. "We left in opposite directions."

Watkins says "as long as he doesn't give us any real trouble our plans are to live and let live."

Joint Session Of Irish Dail Hears JFK

DUBLIN (AP)—To great applause and cheers, President Kennedy told members of the Irish Parliament today they represent a free country—and that is why he feels at home in Ireland.

The Dail, formed out of centuries of struggle, opened its doors—and its heart—to the U.S. President in a decade to play role of Nevada Smith in "The Carpetbaggers." (AP Wirephoto).

Kennedy came here after a second barnstorming tour around the Irish countryside during which he received the freedom of Cork and another mighty welcome from Irishmen.

A roar of applause and cheering burst out as the President strode into the Dail chamber to address a joint session.

Dail Speaker Patrick Hogan declared: "It is an occasion unique as an event in Irish history—it is an international gesture of kindness and goodwill."

Kennedy told the Dail that the free Ireland of today has a future "as promising as your past is proud" in the role of "a maker and shaper of world peace."

He said he feels "at home" in Ireland—"no longer a country of persecution, political or religious."

"It is a free country and that, too, is why I feel at home."

Kennedy called on other nations to imitate the way the Irish won their independence.

"New nations can build with their former governing powers the same kind of fruitful relationship that Ireland has established with Great Britain," the President said, "a relationship founded on equality and mutual interests."

He told his audience that "the heroic deeds," the most enduring literature have emerged from the small nations of the world.

"Ireland has already set a standard for other small nations to follow," he declared.

Republicans Hear Barry Rap Demos

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Democratic party leaders are linked in a "cynical alliance" with "corrupt city machines," Sen. Barry Goldwater has told warring Young Republicans at their national convention.

Goldwater, obviously the favorite of the majority at the convention for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, got a rousing ovation—complete with trim young girls clad in Goldwater sweat shirts.

Goldwater again insisted that he isn't running for anything except the U.S. Senate. Most of his talk was devoted to castigating modern liberals, whom he called "soft-shelled creatures."

These, he said, "are the reactionaries. They haven't had a new idea in 30 years."

Republicans, he said to applause, must bring the liberals "kicking and screaming into the 1960's."

Frauding the liberals of 50 years ago, Goldwater contended "The politicians who have inherited the traditions of liberalism . . . are not liberals at all, but merely ambitious men who have become the captives of the big city machines."

He cited Chicago, Philadelphia and New York.

He said the narrowness of "the modern liberal view has been that all problems are . . . essentially economic in character. This is the Marxist view and it has had a deep effect on the modern liberals in this country."

President Kennedy's European trip also came under fire. Referring to the Ireland stop, Goldwater said, "I don't know what trouble they have . . . but we have a hell of a lot here and he ought to be here taking care of them."

Dangerous Defeat Goldwater called Cuba " . . . in all probability a greater and more dangerous defeat than any we have suffered in any war. How many more defeats can we take?"

Romney Nixes State Lottery

ST. CLAIR (AP)—Gov. George Romney concluded his citizens' fiscal reform meetings Thursday night—declaring himself flatly opposed to any lottery in Michigan to provide tax revenue.

"If you want a state lottery in Michigan you can get yourself a new governor," he said.

The Governor made the statement in answer to a theoretical question from the floor whether a lottery could be of financial help to Michigan.

Romney said he did not regard a lottery as a sound method for a state to raise money.

Thursday night's meeting was the last of 16 of a statewide series at which Romney has sought grass roots sentiment on proposals to overhaul Michigan's tax structure. The 15th was held Thursday at Alpena. Romney flew here from Alpena.

Public Welfare Only in public welfare did the audience favor reduced appropriations. For education and mental health the group favored the status quo on taxes. These three divisions of taxes take about $400 million of the $560 million that is raised by general taxation.

GOV. GEORGE ROMNEY

Kennedy Trip Called Bid To Incite People

BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev arrived in East Berlin today and was told that President Kennedy's trip to West Berlin was made for the purpose of creating enmity among Germans. Khrushchev said he agreed.

He came for a summit meeting with leaders of Soviet bloc countries.

Greeted With A Kiss Walter Ulbricht, the spade-banded East German Communist leader, greeted Khrushchev with a kiss and declared in a welcoming speech:

"Kennedy came to West Berlin to stir up the West German people against the people of East Germany in the interests of the American monopolists."

In reply Khrushchev said he agreed completely with Ulbricht's analysis of the Kennedy visit to West Berlin on Wednesday.

Khrushchev stepped out of his plane accompanied by his wife, Nina.

Valentina Absent Contrary to speculation Khrushchev did not bring along Valentina Tereshkova, the Soviet spacewoman. Some thought he might do so in an effort to whip up public excitement similar to that which greeted Kennedy in West Berlin.

Officially the purpose of the visit—announced only four days ago to help Ulbricht celebrate his 70th birthday Sunday.

Following Khrushchev into Berlin were Polish party chief Wladyslaw Gomułka and Czechoslovak President Antonin Novotny.

Other satellite leaders are expected to assemble in East Berlin by Sunday, the 70th birthday of East German Communist party boss Walter Ulbricht.

Ulbricht's birthday is the official pretext for the gathering. But it is the first time Khrushchev has left home to attend a birthday party for a satellite leader.

Pope To Help Catholics In Red Nations

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI is understood to be studying ways of arranging with Communist governments to improve the lot of the 60 million Roman Catholics behind the Iron Curtain.

In his week-old reign, the pontiff has set the stage publicly for re-establishing Vatican ties with Communist nations. He has served notice that he has no intention of involving the Vatican in the internal affairs of nations, but he has indicated that he wants Catholics behind the Iron Curtain to regain the opportunity to practice their faith freely.

Persuasion His approach, revealed in messages received Thursday in Moscow and Warsaw, is persuasion. The messages, addressed to Premier Khrushchev and Aleksander Zawadzki titular head of the Polish government, acknowledged congratulations on the Pope's election. They expressed a wish for world peace.

They also reminded the Communist leaders that Christians live in their lands, especially in Poland, which has a 1,000-year history of Catholicism.

The Pope's message to Zawadzki—the first known communication from a Pope to the Communist government of Poland—noted that the Pope's greetings came from "a country with which we have been tied for a long time with old and dear remembrances and for which we desire with all our heart divine care."

Khrushchev's message, the pontiff wrote, "awakens in our soul the memory of the Russian people, their secular and Christian history. . . ."

Pope Paul reportedly is more interested in repairing bonds disrupted after World War II than in keeping alive old conflicts with Communists.

Vehicle Fatalities Hit Record High

EAST LANSING (AP)—State police have issued their final report on traffic accidents, injuries and deaths in May—and Michigan was worse in all three compared with last year.

Police said 135 died in accidents in May—12 more than in 1962. They reported 9,959 were injured—1,720 more than last year. And there were 18,928 accidents, police said—2,505 more than last year.

Accumulated totals for the first five months show Michigan had 20 per cent more deaths, 22 per cent more injuries and 12 per cent more accidents than in 1962.

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council reported today that motor vehicle fatalities numbered 15,190 in the January-May period this year—a record for the first five months of any year.

"While the number of deaths increased 6 per cent in the five months," the council reported, "the amount of travel increased only 4 per cent. The resulting death rate for the period was 4.8 fatalities per 100 million miles, up 2 per cent."

May's toll of 3,650 soared 13 per cent above the tally in May 1962. Increases have been marked up in 17 of the last 19 months. Deaths averaged 100 per day between Jan. 1 and May 31.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Dick Headlee assumed the presidency of the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce today on the heels of a Jaycee award winner's charge that its leadership was "gutless" on the civil rights question.

Headlee, 32, a quiet-spoken man from Bountiful, Utah, won the presidency early today after a tumultuous and wearying election.

A stormy note created by the Rev. Robert Castle Jr., on the rights question, continued in the mood of the convention which went through five ballots before Headlee won.

They noted that the possibility of residential expansion in the Lakeside School area or the possibility of a future overflow enrollment at Whitman School might result in an increased enrollment at Lakeside School.

Secretary Paul J. Kinville commented that the Lakeside School is a community gathering place which produces a "unique spirit of unity" for that area of the city.

Change Order Approved At its regular meeting this week, the board also:

Approved a change order in specifications for new high school cafeteria equipment, for a cost reduction of $8,959. Included are elimination of a bake oven, hot food cart, mixer and cooling unit.

It's going to be nip and tuck and have funds to complete the new school and these are changes which the high school staff and administration say they can get along without," President Herman E. Olson said.

Superintendent of Schools Henry J. Bothwell pointed out that the new school will have a capacity for 1,500 students but will be occupied by 1,200 students in the fall of 1964, so that the board will be able to purchase equipment later as needed.

Approved a change order in electrical specifications for the new high school for a synchronized heating control system at a cost increase of $10,900.

Approved three change orders in construction specifications for the six-room addition to Sandy Knoll School, including an increase of $201 for a roof expansion joint which should not leak or crack in cold temperatures, a $749.57 increase to lower wall footing in the foundation because of wood planks found during digging, and a $290 increase for ceramic tile (rather than painted concrete blocks) behind two hall wash fountains.

Directed Superintendent Bothwell to correct water runoff problems at the rear of Fisher School, with the intention of building a fence and retaining wall.

'Erosion On Property' Frank Tonella, 106 W. College Ave., appeared before the board to request the retaining wall. He said the runoff from the black-topped playground at Fisher School results in erosion on property he has purchased at 702-04 Champion St.

Bothwell reported that a trench has been dug to alleviate the runoff problem, but final action has been delayed pending the completion of grading for the U.S. 41 and M-28 bypass.

Selected the firm of Ernst and Ernst, Marquette, certified public accountants, for the annual school audit.

Heard a budget comparison report from Bothwell, who said the school system is entering the final month of the fiscal year in excellent financial condition.

Approved for payment invoices totaling $15,589.

City Accepts Two Proposals On Gasoline

Contracts for the fiscal year's supply of gasoline for the city's automobile fleet were awarded to Dahlike Oil Co., Marquette, for premium gasoline, at a special meeting of the city commission yesterday afternoon.

Bids opened at Monday night's regular meeting. Bids were requested on 81,000 gallons of regular gasoline and 8,900 gallons of premium gasoline for the coming fiscal year.

Dahlike bid 14.25 cents per gallon, with a one-cent per gallon discount on all gasoline delivered in transport quantities, for regular gasoline and Sinclair was low bidder for premium gasoline at 17.1 cents per gallon.

Clayton Dahlike appeared before the commission to explain that the one-cent discount will apply to all gasoline delivered to the 10,000-gallon tank at the public works department on Wright St., but not to gasoline delivered to the 1,000-gallon tank at the light and power department warehouse on Spring St., he said.

City Clerk Everett H. Kent said that about 80 per cent of the regular gasoline used by the city fleet is taken from the pump at the public works department warehouse.

The one-cent discount would apply to about 65,000 gallons of gasoline to be used in the coming year, Kent said, and the discount would result in a "saving" of $680 for the year. On this basis, Kent said, he was recommending the Dahlike bid of 14.25 cents per gallon over the low bid from Sinclair Refining Co. at 14.1 cents per gallon.

Kent is acting city manager in the absence of City Manager Thomas Moore, who will be in Chicago until July 1 discussing the planned steam electric generating plant with Consulting Engineer J. Bryan Sims of Grand Haven.

County's Relief Costs Climb; Surplus Food Distribution To 5,602

Relief costs for Marquette County went up again last month. James B. Scanlon, Negrauner, director of the county's social welfare department, reports.

Relief costs totaled $75,248.26, about nine per cent more than, or $6,531.19 over, the corresponding figure for May 1962.

Direct relief commitments last month dropped by $2,038.34, to $16,157.67, but social welfare expenses went up to $59,090.59, an increase of $5,317.17, over the previous month.

Direct relief costs, such as surplus food and clothing, etc., for those under 65 and determined to be in need, are shared with the state on a 70-30 cost-sharing basis, but the county must pay for all of the expenses of the social welfare program, primarily hospitalization, which takes about two-thirds of the entire budget.

Surplus commodities last month were issued to 280 public assistance families and 1,173 non-relief families, with the 1,553 total representing 6,602 persons, Scanlon stated.

Commodities consisting of beans, butter, peanut butter, white flour, cheese, dried milk, rice, chopped meat, rolled wheat, shortening and lard, totaling 73,463 pounds and bearing a total retail value of $20,878.59, were distributed.

The following charges were incurred in the program: Trucking $1,620.75, and outlets stores, $310.60 for a total of $1,931.34. Thirty per cent of that amount will be reimbursed to the county by the state.

Principal Expenses Given

Principal expenses of the relief department last month were food, $4,070.89; shelter, $808.27; fuel, $524.50; nursing, medical, dental, $1,050.56; hospitalization, $53,369.17; cash aid, $1,338.88, and miscellaneous, burial and transportation $6,148.40.

Per capita costs of relief in the townships ranged from lows of 12 cents, for Forsyth Township, and 17 cents, for Sands Township, to highs of $3.90, for Ely Township, and $3.10 for Champion Township.

The cities' per capita costs for relief in May were: Ishpeming, $1.33; Negaunee, $1.42; and Marquette, $1.05.

A drop was reported in the number of persons at the County Citizens Home, which last month had only 16 residents. Cost of the upkeep of the institution for the month was $1,931.34.

The case load for the county dropped to 332, down six, last month. The year's average is 343, compared to 335 last year at this time.

Relief costs this year have averaged $71,619.04 per month, an increase of almost $4,000 from last year up to June.

Air Refueling Wing To Join 40th Division

K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base officials today announced that the 500th Air Refueling Wing stationed at Selfridge AFB, Mt. Clemens, will join 40th Air Division July 1.

The change has been announced by Second Air Force, parent unit of 40th Air Division. The 410th Bombardment Wing at Sawyer is one of the Strategic Air Command wings included in the division.

The addition of the air refueling wing will continue 40th Air Division at the largest unit of its kind in Second Air Force. It was announced in March that the 17th Bombardment Wing at Wright-Patterson AFB, Dayton, Ohio, will leave the division on July 1 and will fall under control of Eighth Air Force.

The 500th is currently under command jurisdiction of the 17th Strategic Aerospace Division at Whiteman AFB, Sedalia, Mo. However, the division headquartered there will also join Eighth Air Force under the new SAC concept of alignment, effective the start of the coming month.

The Selfridge based wing is composed of two KC-97 tanker units — the 44th and the 307th Air Refueling Squadrons — as well as maintenance and support units. It has a complement of 40 of the propeller-driven aircraft and approximately 1,500 personnel.

It is the only air refueling wing in Second Air Force.

With the activation of a KC-135 equipped air refueling squadron at Kincheloe AFB, Sault Ste. Marie, also on July 1, all units of the division will be equipped with tanker-type aircraft used to refuel bombers of the command.

Wurtsmith Headquarters

Also, early next month, Brig. Gen. John Roberts will take over as division commander. He is currently commander of the Fourth Air Division, Barksdale AFB, La. General Roberts replaces Maj. Gen. Harold E. Humfeld who has been reassigned to SAC headquarters, Offutt AFB, Neb.

As of the beginning of next month, the four wings in the division will be located at Kincheloe, Selfridge, Wurtsmith and Sawyer. Wurtsmith is also headquarters for the division.

Evaluation Of Sediment Cores From Superior Sheds Light On History Of Great Lakes

Evaluation of sediment cores drilled from the bottom of Lake Superior by University of Michigan scientists is shedding light on the history of the Great Lakes basin. Core samples under study were recovered last summer from the bottom of Lake Superior in water depths of 500 to 1,100 feet by a party from the university's Great Lakes Research Division, part of the Institute of Science and Technology.

Patrolman William G. Lasich opens the door of a 1948 sedan for Donald Holmquist, 20, Cadillac, after Holmquist's car, which had no brakes, came down the N. Front St. hill, went into the intersection at Washington St. without stopping and started a chain reaction wreck, which resulted in his and five other automobiles being damaged, two of them so extensively they had to be hauled from the scene by wrecker. Photo also shows station wagon owned by Danny Zini, 114 W. Prospect St., which was shoved into the sidewalk by Holmquist's car, and vehicle owned by Winifred Mahan, 212 W. Crescent St., which was damaged when Zini's was pushed into it. Traffic (background) was temporarily halted due to the wreck. Holmquist suffered minor injuries and received two tickets from city police.—(Howard C. Treado Jr. photo).

Driver Hurt, Given Tickets In Six-Car Collision In City

Six automobiles were damaged, a motorist was injured and two drivers were ticketed in a chain reaction traffic smashup at the corner of Front and Washington Sts. City police said the wrecked collision took place when Donald Holmquist, Cadillac, drove down the N. Front St. hill in a 1948 two-door sedan which had no brakes. As he approached the Washington St. intersection, officers said, he was in the right turn lane, but his car traveled straight ahead, setting off the rapid-fire mishaps. Holmquist, 20, suffered a bloody nose and a skinned knee and was taken in the city patrol car to St. Mary's Hospital for treatment. After going into the intersection, city police said, Holmquist's car sideswiped an automobile also being driven south on Front St. by Mary Dollar, 321 Hampton St., and then sideswiped a car owned by Edward Beaudry Jr., 350 Alger St., which was parked on the west side of the street, facing south, just south of the intersection. Three Parked Cars Hit Holmquist's car continued southward and smashed into the rear end of a vehicle owned by Danny Zini, 114 W. Prospect St., which also was parked on the west side of the street, facing south, and caused Zini's vehicle to move forward, striking a third parked automobile, owned by Winifred Mahan, 112 W. Crescent St., also on the west side of the street. Zini's car was shoved onto the sidewalk in the middle of the block. In the meantime, city police said, the Dollar car went out of control and collided with an automobile operated by Margaret Kampe, 331 E. Ohio St., who also was traveling south on Front St. Two Cars Towed Away Extensive damage resulted to the front end and both sides of Holmquist's car, which had to be hauled from the scene by a wrecker. Considerable damage occurred to the front and rear ends of Zini's automobile, a 1960 station wagon, which also had to be removed by a wrecker. The right side of the Dollar car, a 1954 two-door sedan, the left side of Beaudry's automobile, a 1938 four-door sedan, the rear end of the Mahan vehicle, a 1936 two-door sedan, and the right side of the Kampe car, a 1955 four-door sedan, were damaged. All four of these automobiles were able to be driven from the scene under their own power. City police issued Holmquist two summonses, one for driving an automobile with defective equipment — no brakes, and the other for having improper registration — no license plates. Mrs. Dollar was ticketed for not having an operator's license on her person.

40 Et 8 Unit Reviews U.P. Meeting Here

Voiture 599, La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux, Marquette County, held a very successful Upper Peninsula convention in Marquette over the weekend, in affiliation with the U. P. American Legion Convention, being held here at that time. The 40 Et 8 Marquette County Voiture today stated that many of the events held during the convention in Marquette were successful due to the county voiture's active participation. Grand Chef Attends Many 40 et 8ers attended from all over Upper Michigan as well as a few from the Lower Peninsula, including the 40 et 8ers grand (state) chef de gare, Paul Howard from Jackson. Gravelot High School was the scene of initiation for 22 candidates into the order by the Flint Wrecking Crew of Flint. This initiation team is well known all over the State of Michigan for its superior initiation work, according to 40 et 8 officers. Following initiation, a dinner was held in the Northside Hotel, which was attended by well over 100 persons.

15 Years Ago Tito Said No To Joe Stalin

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Fifteen years ago today Joseph Stalin read Yugoslavia out of the Communist bloc because Marshal Tito said "no" to Soviet meddling in Yugoslav affairs. Tito's defiance produced the first crack in the monolithic Communist world. Yugoslavia thinks it also brought on de-Stalinization, a process which altered the course of Soviet communism and developed deep divisions in the Communist world. Russia, its East European satellites and Yugoslavia are locked in an ideological war with China and Albania over the question. Historic Date June 28 also is a historic Yugoslav date for other reasons. On that day in 1389 the Turks defeated Serbia in the battle of Kosovo Polje and established Turkish rule that lasted 500 years. On June 28, 1914, in Sarajevo, a young Serbian nationalist named Gavrilo Princip killed Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne. His bullets triggered World War I. Expulsion But Yugoslavs prefer to remember June 28, 1948. On that day Yugoslavia was expelled from the Cominform (Communist Information Bureau), the Soviet-dominated organization which ruled world communism. Stalin ordered the expulsion after Tito rebuffed his dictation of Yugoslavia's internal and Communist party affairs. Stalin also ordered all Communist states to impose an economic blockade on Yugoslavia. He Was Wrong "It's enough to wiggle my little finger and Tito will go," the Soviet dictator reportedly said. He was wrong. ### Johnson Gets Equitable Post In Marquette

Warren E. Johnson Jr. has been appointed district manager of Equitable Life Assurance Society's new office at Marquette, Dale V. Gant, agency manager, announced today. Johnson will assume his new position July 8. Following graduation from Central Michigan University, he joined the staff of E. P. O'Brien and Co. in Bay City as assistant manager, remaining until September of 1960, at which time he was appointed a representative for the Equitable in Bay City. After a year and a half of underwriting in the Bay City area, he was appointed assistant district manager in November 1962, encausing in the hiring and training of personnel, which has prepared him for the appointment in Marquette, Gant said. Johnson will reside with his wife, JoAnn, and two children at 1913 Fifth Ave. and will be joined by them in Marquette in the near future.

State May Drop Policy In Schools

LANSING (AP)—A state policy against keeping records of racial makeup of public schools may be abandoned in a search for facts about discrimination, racial imbalance and unequal opportunity in education. The need for facts on the number and distribution of racial minority members — teachers and students — was a key point as some school officials agreed informally Thursday to a statewide study of these issues. Dr. Lynn Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction, called the school administrators from more than 40 communities together as the first step in a plan to implement President Kennedy's call for "action on all levels" in racial matters. Complaints Registered Bartlett said the policy on racial data was set up a decade ago when minority group leaders complained that to list racial or religious information in application forms and other records was a form of discrimination. "But the question now is whether we have all the information we need in order to deal with these issues in our system of public education," Bartlett said. An investigative committee of some 10 to 15 administrators is to be named by Bartlett. "But the question now is whether records which indicate race is still very strong," said Bartlett, "but we are dealing with a total problem of larger scale." Same Persons Dr. Samuel Brownel, Detroit superintendent of schools, said he believed the people who 10 years ago thought a policy of no records on race would help eliminate discrimination "are the same ones who now want to know what the facts are." Supt. Paul Emerich, of Ypsilanti, said he was asked recently by an official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) how many Negro teachers were in his system. "I told him I didn't really know because we didn't keep track of such information," said Emerich. ### Bill To Help Lake Shipping Introduced

Relief for the hard-pressed Great Lakes and domestic coastwise vessel industries, whose existence is threatened by operations of low-cost Canadian and other foreign-flag ships, is sought in a bill introduced in Washington by Sen. E. L. Bartlett of Alaska. The proposed legislation would amend the merchant marine act of 1936 so as to stimulate construction of vessels for Great Lakes and domestic trades and provide incentives for restoring these industries to their former strong positions. Building Agreements The bill provides for the setting up of building agreements between vessel operators and the secretary of commerce which would grant operators one or more of the following benefits: An allowance of credit for obsolete vessels to be applied toward the cost of new construction or reconstruction. A construction differential subsidy equal to the difference in the United States and the cost of having similar work done in a foreign shipyard. Would Extend Eligibility Creation of construction reserve funds by owners in which they would deposit a part of earnings before taxes from specific vessels; depreciation and certain other monies for use in defraying purchase indebtedness. The merchant marine act of 1936 now provides construction and operating differential subsidies only for certain vessels engaged in foreign trade. The legislation introduced by Sen. Bartlett is designed to aid those segments of the merchant marine which are not eligible for such subsidies. Backed By Lake Carriers "The outcome of Sen. Bartlett's bill is of vital importance to the United States portion of the Great Lakes vessel industry, and we hope early hearings will be held on it," said Vice Admiral James A. Hirschfield, president of the Lake Carriers' Association, which is supporting it. "The future of the industry lies in the steadily increasing international trade between Canada and the United States now dominated by the Canadians," he asserted. "Using the 40 per cent construction subsidy provided by their government, Canadian operators in the last three years have built 17 large, modern carriers for this trade, seven of which are being commissioned this year. As for the United States, not a single ship has been built for a U.S. lake operator in more than two years, and none is building." Six Companies Liquidated U. S. Companies have built larger ships, disposed of more uneconomical units and resorted to every possible means of cutting costs and increasing efficiency, but still have been hard-put to compete with the subsidized foreign operators. Hirschfield said. Six U.S. companies have been liquidated in the last three years. "If the United States fleet is to be kept from withering away, its owners must obtain financial assistance from the federal government," the admiral said. "We believe passage of this bill will provide the impetus for restoring the fleet to a position where it will be more able to cope with its foreign competitors, and at the same time be ready to meet emergencies."

Kiwanis Club Represented At Convention 10th Year In Row

Melvin N. Nyquist, president of the Marquette Kiwanis Club, will attend the 48th annual convention of Kiwanis International, to be held in Atlantic City, N. J., Sunday through Thursday. This will be the 10th consecutive year that the Marquette Kiwanis Club has been represented by at least one delegate to the international conventions of the organization. The record is regarded as the best in the entire Wisconsin-Tippoo Michigan District of Kiwanis. Last year Dr. David Engstrom, then president, and Leo F. Carlson and Leslie J. Roberts went as delegates to the convention in Denver. Previous Delegates Recalled In 1961 Carlson attended the Kiwanis International convention in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Previous delegates and sites were: 1960, Glen H. Yoder, Miami, Fla.; 1959, Joseph D. Mason, Dallas, Texas; 1958, Alfred A. Camilli, Roberts and George T. Kendrick, Chicago; 1957, Paul J. Kinville, Atlantic City; 1956, Thomas F. Kearney (now of Minneapolis), Los Angeles; 1955, Kendrick, Cleveland; and 1954, the late Louis J. Fezatt, then president. Nyquist, who will be accompanied to the convention by his wife, Shirley, and son, David, noted there are few, if any, clubs of the size of Marquette in the entire Kiwanis International organization which have had delegates to the international convention for 10 straight years. Over 16,000 To Attend More than 16,000 Kiwanians and their families from the United States, Canada, Mexico, and the Bahamas are expected to gather in Atlantic City for the four and a half day event. Convention sessions will be held in Atlantic City's Convention Hall, the largest of its type in the world. Mrs. James E. Pendleton, 5719 Wilson Ave., Portsmouth, Ohio; his wife is the former Diane L. Carlson, 163 Cliff St., Ishpeming.

Work to be accomplished at the convention will include the election of officers for 1963-64 — a president, president-elect, treasurer, and six trustees; recognition of the top clubs and Kiwanis districts, based on community service activities; and the adoption of resolutions upon which the organization's 1963-64 community service program will be based. Merle H. Tucker, Gallup, N. M., radio station owner and president of Kiwanis International, will preside. Principal speakers, in addition to Tucker, will be Dean Rusk, U. S. secretary of state; Max Freedman, syndicated Washington columnist; Ward L. Quaal, a native of Ishpeming, who is executive vice president and general manager of WGN, Inc., Chicago; and the leaders of Kiwanis' two sponsored youth organizations, H. Pettus Randall III, president of Key Club International, the high school service organization for boys and James S. Mathews, president of Circle K International, the college men's service group.

Demo Chairman Raps Romney Sessions As 'Publicity Moves'

Zolton A. Ferency, Detroit, Democratic state chairman, accused Gov. George Romney here yesterday of being "a stunt man who moves from one publicity gimmick to another" and "only talks of getting Michigan moving again."

could be $250,000 in debt and have so much life." He said that by the end of the year, Democrats expect to "have our house in order, financially."

He stated that the Democratic party has offered stands on major issues, not fly-speck criticism, in its new role as the opposition party.

Concerning the party's stand on Romney's fiscal reform program, he said, "We'll support it if it provides relief and is a fair plan, but if it's another attempt to say Michigan is rolling we'll offer criticism."

Ferency said Democrats would not settle for "paper reform—something that sounds good and makes headlines but which does no real, long range service to the state."

Tax Structure Need Overhauling "Michigan's tax structure needs an overhauling for two major reasons — to bring about equity and to develop new sources of revenue to meet the larger needs of the 60s."

"Too much of the legislative program enacted so far under the Romney banner has been in the form of headline accomplishments which look good and sound better."

"But when the chips are down on some of the legislation, the people are going to find too little substance."

Referred To Staff Members "Most of the people who see the Governor on Thursdays are only seeking publicity. The people with real problems are referred to staff members nine times out of ten."

Congressmen Hail Success Of JFK Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—The acclaim given President Kennedy in Europe was welcomed by congressional leaders today, but Republicans cautioned against weighing the lasting success of the trip until all the results are in—particularly from France.

House Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., voiced the general Democratic feeling that the President's tour had made "a profound impression conducive to furthering the national interests of our country and those of Europe."

Vindicates Doubts The assistant Democratic leader of the Senate, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, saw the President's trip as "vindicating all the doubts and dire predictions that assailed him before his departure."

Humphrey said he considered the Kennedy restatements of U.S. policy "direct answers to the most damaging arguments" of President Charles de Gaulle of France.

Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois agreed that the President had been "welcomed with open arms and listened to in Germany as the President of the United States should have been."

Warning Dirksen said he hoped that "good results will flow" from the trip, but warned against speculating on the President's success in "trying to patch up certain situations."

Ex-Resident Heads College Science Series

Edward A. Dionne, former Marquette resident, now an assistant professor in the engineering department at San Jose State College, San Jose, Calif., is chairman of the second in a new program of science seminars at the college.

Dionne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dionne, Box 18, Deerton, is married to the former Charlene Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pollard of San Jose, formerly of Marquette.

Dionne is a graduate of Michigan College of Mining and Technology, Houghton.

Helps 'Under-Achievers' Stimulation of 48 high school sophomore boys considered "under-achievers" is the purpose of the seminar.

The boys have been selected by their counselors at schools throughout San Jose County on the basis of their low achievement despite a high potential indicated by tests.

"These boys were not being challenged in class or else they were staging emotional rebellions," said Dionne.

The seminar, which Dionne conducted last summer for the first time, aims to combat the problem faced by many entering college who have not yet decided on a field of study. Dionne's seminar suggests the fields of science and mathematics.

Although it is similar in some ways to summer seminars at other colleges, Dionne calls it unique in that it is not designed for the better students.

The session consists of such topics as astronomy, mathematics, physics, geology, metallurgy, electronics, rocket-testing and vehicle design. Last summer's program was focused on a theme of space.

Dionne went on to say that he recommends the same program for other college divisions, especially in technological fields. According to an Engineering Manpower Commission report, he said, "five technicians are required in industry today for every engineer."

Time For Choice "Further academic progress of these students will be studied and analyzed after the school year and each year for the next five years."

The fact that all the boys are sophomores "gives them two years to straighten up and get into the groove" before high school graduation, Dionne said. "I've indoctrinated the boys. They'll be emissaries for the college; I have no doubt about it," he said.

2 From City Accept Jobs As Teachers

Two Marquette residents, both graduates this month of Northern Michigan University, have accepted teaching positions in Lower Michigan, the NMU placement office reports.

Miss Judy Marie Parent, Marquette, has taken the position of second grade teacher at Utica Community Schools.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Parent, she received the bachelor of science degree at Northern with a major in elementary education.

While at Northern, she was a member of the Alpha Xi Delta National Sorority, Michigan Association for Childhood Education and the Kappa Delta Pi National Honor Society in Education (Delta Zeta Chapter).

Majored In Mathematics Alfred Peter Christensen Jr. has taken the position of mathematics teacher at Berkley.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Christensen, 323 W. Crescent St., Christensen received the bachelor of science degree at Northern with a major in mathematics.

He and his wife, Karen, have three children, Cathy Jean, Lisa Marie and Carl Joseph.

Not Guards' Responsibility "The life guards can't be expected to watch the clothing and valuables of bathers," Engle pointed out, "as they have to keep their eyes on persons in the water."

Engle said that if it is necessary to take valuables or cash along on swimming trips, the bathers should have someone watch their clothes or keep them in an automobile which is locked.

Of thefts do occur, however, he said, the report should be made immediately to the police department, with a description of the article stolen.

Harden Talks At Opening Convocation

Dr. Edgar L. Harden, president of Northern Michigan University, told students and faculty members at the opening summer convocation yesterday here that "success is what we do with what we have."

Discussing the value of individual differences within our society, Harden said "we must recognize these differences and encourage youngsters to think for themselves as they develop their individual talents and intelligence. In the final analysis success is what we do with what we have."

He deplored excessive reliance on testing in gauging student potential. He said he believes education in America has placed "too much emphasis" on tests.

"Other factors must be taken into consideration when trying to evaluate a student's potential," he said.

He quoted the Rockefeller report on "The Pursuit of Excellence" which states that "excellence is a product of ability and motivation and character. And the more one observes high performance in the dust and heat of daily life, the more one is likely to be impressed with the contribution made by the latter two ingredients."

Speaking to present and prospective teachers, he urged them to attain a mastery of their subject matter along with teaching ability and emotional maturity.

Harden traced the rich heritage of higher education in Michigan and pointed out that Michigan's famous sons included Thomas A. Edison, Dr. Jonas Salk and Dr. Charles Mayo among others.

Others Introduced Members of Northern's Administrative Council introduced at the convocation included:

Dr. Milton Byrd, vice president in charge of academic affairs; Dr. Claud A. Bosworth, vice president of public services; Dr. Clarence M. Bjork, dean of admissions and graduate studies; Leo Van Tassel, comptroller; Clair M. Hekhuis, director of information services; Associate Prof. Charles Pappas, head of Northern's business department, and Dr. Luther S. West, dean of arts and science.

Thefts Noted At Beaches, Pools Here

Persons going swimming at Marquette area beaches and pools should leave valuables at home or locked in automobiles.

James C. Engle, superintendent of the parks and recreation department, said a number of reports of thefts at the various beaches and pools has been received.

Not Guards' Responsibility "The life guards can't be expected to watch the clothing and valuables of bathers," Engle pointed out, "as they have to keep their eyes on persons in the water."

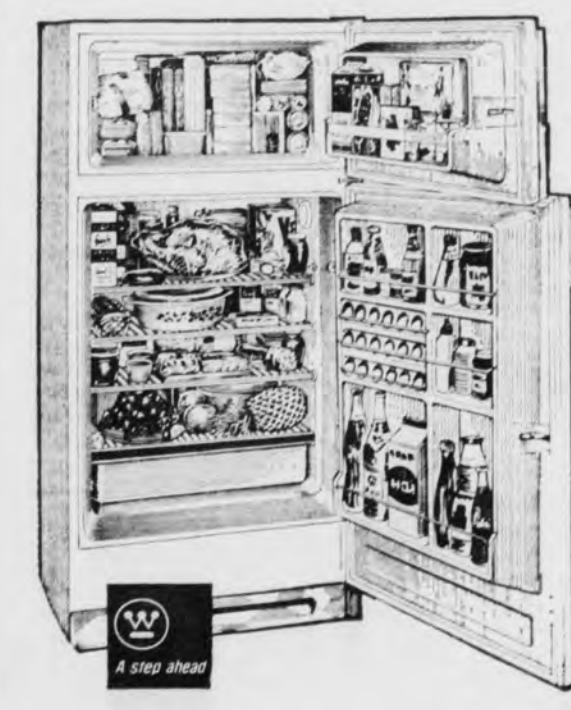

Engle said that if it is necessary to take valuables or cash along on swimming trips, the bathers should have someone watch their clothes or keep them in an automobile which is locked.

Of thefts do occur, however, he said, the report should be made immediately to the police department, with a description of the article stolen.

Confidence In Ourselves

"One of the real problems of the Upper Peninsula," President John Hannah of Michigan State University told Operation Action-U. P.'s Council at Northern Michigan University, "is to get the people to believe that their future is going to be better than their past. What we need is more people with confidence in themselves and in the area."

This comes from a great man who is a friend of the Upper Peninsula, and it is truthful, but taken as a prescription it will not by itself solve the Peninsula's problems. It would certainly help to solve them, though, and this clearly is what President Hannah has in mind.

He cited as an example for the people of the Upper Peninsula what is being done in Canada's far west province of British Columbia, where a huge electric power development program has been undertaken.

President Harlan Hatcher of the University of Michigan cited what the Russian government did in a wilderness area for its development by the creation of the University of Urukutsk.

The Upper Peninsula can be charged fairly with not having given economic development our maximum local effort, but it is not reasonable to proceed from this admission to the assumption that if it had done everything possible things would be jolly economically here.

The concepts of the roles of the public, the government and private industry in Canada and Russia are different from those in Michigan. Operation Action's Council, of which Presidents Hannah and Hatcher are distinguished members, is certainly mindful that the largest industrial ownerships in the Upper Peninsula are absentee; that the state and federal governments own 40 per cent of the area; that Grand Rapids has only a third fewer people than the entire U. P.

That the council is acting to seek more adequate state financing of Michigan Tech's wood and mineral industry research and development is a bright hope for the Peninsula. This effort has been made ardently by the Upper Peninsula for years. It knew what was needed but lacked the means to accomplish it in competition with Lower Peninsula claims.

Operation Action is in a very favored position, being headed by so many of the state's leaders in industry and education, to overcome the Lower Michigan view of the Upper Peninsula as a depressed area without much promise. The revolutionary trend to urbanization in America has accentuated the Peninsula's problems seriously and tended to obscure its huge natural resources and opportunities for industrialization.

The average individual's quest in economic development is for a job. There must be leadership on a broad front to create jobs. This is the Upper Peninsula's No. 1 need. That the U. P. is not alone in this problem was stressed by Dr. Hatcher, who said that only 4 of 20 top Michigan graduates can find jobs in their skills in the state and the other 16 have to go elsewhere.

The unprecedented review of U. P. problems and resources by state leadership of Operation Action and by Upper Peninsula leadership of the Upper Committee on Area Problems (UPCAP) gives the area the best hope yet for the economic breakthrough which Gov. George Romney sees imminent.

Peninsula Perambulator

A 25-year-old Mt. Clemens man, Eldon L. Whyly, was apprehended by state police when he drove through the Mackinac Bridge toll gate without paying the crossing fee. Trooper Kenneth Wallin led the chase for Whyly at speeds reported at 90 miles an hour. He finally was stopped about 16 miles north of St. Ignace at a road block set up by Trooper Shelby Rayburn. Whyly was assessed a fine of $10 and costs of $4.30 when he appeared in justice court on a charge of reckless driving, but the Mackinac Bridge Authority dropped its charges against him following payment of the bridge toll by Whyly.

One of Hancock's most distinguished native daughters, Mrs. Carl Sandburg, wife of the noted Pulitzer Prize winner, author and historian, sends centennial greetings to Hancock from her Blue Ridge Mountain farm in North Carolina. She said she would like to be in Hancock for the celebration, but that she would be unable to do so. Mrs. Sandburg, the former Lillian Paula Steichen, lived in Hancock as a child. Her father was employed in the mines, later taking a job as a bookkeeper in a department store, while her mother, Mrs. Jean Pierre Steichen, operated a millinery store in the business district. The family left Hancock for Milwaukee 75 years ago.

A proposal for millage to build a new armory in Manistique was approved in a special election by a substantial majority of voters. Specifically approved was the levying of a one-mill tax for three years to pay Manistique's share of a $400,000 National Guard armory. The armory proposal had been defeated twice as a Schoolcraft County project, but each time it had received a majority of "Yes" votes in Manistique.

The common council met in special session last evening to consider the matter of the removal of the poles and posts from Front and Washington Sts. in the business section and the question of paving Washington St. between Front and Third Sts., but in neither case did it take definite action, both issues going over for future deliberations. The proposed removal of the poles was first discussed. The only poles in the district affected are those of the electric light commission and the street railway. Mr. Koepcke, a representative of the traction line, estimated that to replace the present trolley poles with iron posts would cost between $2,500 and $3,000.

4-H Club Transportation

Dear Sir:—The question our 4-H Club put to Gov. Romney concerning the cost of transportation to the summer camp for 4-H boys and girls at Sawyer Lake, near Republic, had to do with the expense of making the trip by bus. At present, the parents are transporting the children to and from camp by car. In the interests of time saved, and also of safety, a group of parents investigated the possibility of renting a bus for this purpose.

We wish to correct the mistake we made when we mentioned a dollar-a-mile-per-per-mile cost. The least expensive rate for taking a group to Sawyer Lake by bus at the beginning of the camping period and returning them to Marquette at the end of the camping period was about $220. This would be transportation costs for a group of about 40 children. Sawyer Lake is approximately 55 miles from Marquette.

Although we are sure the rates are fair, we still think this is expensive transportation for the average camper. We feel it would be a public service if some type of bus facility could be rented by parents at a more nominal fee to transport children to the type of excellent program available at the 4-H camp.

Great Lakes Iron Ore Shipping Seen Continuing For Generations

Instead of dying, the movement of iron ore over the Great Lakes, upward and downward, will continue in ever-increasing amounts for generations to come.

This was the prediction made by Hugo E. Johnson, president of the American Iron Ore Association, before the joint conference of the Lake Carriers' Association and the Dominion Marine Association in Montebello, Quebec.

International Operation
Johnson reviewed the recent history of iron ore development, discussed the industry's present pattern and looked into its future.

He emphasized the international aspect of the ore.

"The success of these research studies is well known to all of us," Johnson said. "We have already seen one billion dollars expended in putting the results of these investigations into operating mines and beneficiating plants. This has resulted in making a previously useless iron-bearing material into a premium-grade blast furnace feed material."

"The success of the exploration efforts is also well known. Today we have known deposits of iron ore in over 60 countries, and are mining iron ore commercially in over 40 countries with new properties coming into production each year."

"As a result of these efforts, we will have 17,500,000 gross tons of high-grade concentrates with over 62 per cent Fe from Minnesota alone. Similar operations will be employed in Michigan to produce about 9,000,000 gross tons of concentrates; 3,000,000 gross tons will be coming from Missouri, from a property not previously known; another 1,600,000 gross tons from Wyoming, and we will have about 19,000,000 gross tons from Labrador in the very near future."

Nearly Ideal Material
"From these new operations we can expect 80,000,000 gross tons of iron ore and iron ore concentrates with an iron content upward of 60 per cent and a silicon content below 5 per cent in most cases."

Johnson cited as another important development recognition by blast furnace operators that the new high-grade iron ores and iron ore concentrates closely approximate the ideal raw material for the huge furnaces.

Demanding Better Ore
"They found they could produce 3,000 net tons of pig iron per day from a furnace designed to produce 2,000 net tons per day; and the cost per ton of pig iron was lower, since the new ores required less coke and less limestone per ton of pig iron produced. It also gave them a way of increasing production of much-needed iron without providing a new blast furnace, estimated to cost in the range of 40 to 50 million dollars."

"Once the blast furnace operator fully realized this, he was reluctant to go back to the conventional iron ores. Today, instead of accepting a convention iron ore with 51.50 per cent Fe and 8-10 per cent silicon, he is demanding and is getting iron ores or iron ore concentrates with 10:1 iron-silica ratio."

Competitive Problems
Johnson referred to competitive problems of the iron and steel industry and the importance the companies place upon costs and quality of raw materials. He cited the importance of business climate, particularly regarding taxes on natural resources.

"It is safe to predict that iron ore in the future will come from those areas of the world where total costs of mining and shipping the ore to market can result in the best 'price-quality' ratio," he said. "This indicates that all pertinent costs of mining, beneficiation, materials handling, transportation and taxes will be reviewed periodically to give the lowest possible costs per ton of iron units delivered to the iron and steel industry. With this as background, what is the present and future state of the iron ore mining industry?"

Huge New Carriers
He noted increased activity related to future iron ore operations had been reported in the U. S., Canada and 34 other countries and referred to announcement of new ocean-going vessels capable of carrying 70,000 gross tons.

"It is now evident, as Mr. Beukema predicted, that as a source of iron ore loses markets in one area of the world it can quickly move into markets in other areas of the world as long as its 'price-quality' ratio is competitive."

"Does this mean that the lake movement of iron ore is a thing of the past? No, the future instead will see an ever-increasing movement of iron ore on the Great Lakes. Iron ore and iron ore agglomerates will move both up-bound and down-bound on the lakes for many generations to come."

Leaf Beetle Quarantine Extended

LANSING (AP) — The quarantine on European cereal leaf beetles will be extended to 15 new counties effective July 1. Agriculture Director George McIntyre announced here.

The department's list added parts of four counties that had not been announced previously—Ingham, Jackson, Muskegon and Ottawa.

Besides Berrien and Cass counties, where the quarantine went into effect last October in an attempt to check the spread of the beetle, the quarantine will cover all of Allegan, Branch, Calhoun, Kalamazoo, St. Joseph and Van Buren counties.

Parts of Barry, Eaton, Hillsdale, Ionia and Kent counties also will be covered. The department said the pest had also penetrated into 21 Indiana counties and two in Ohio.

The beetle was subjected to a pesticide spraying program, using malathion, in Berrien and Cass counties this Spring.

The head of the cereal leaf beetle research program, Dr. Robert Ruppel of Michigan State University, now has recommended using the pesticide sevin in ear worm sprays on sweet corn.

The insect, whose presence was first reported in the U. S. last summer when found in Michigan, destroys cereal grains—oats, barley, rye, wheat—and eats corn leaves and grasses as well.

Articles that may not be moved out of regulated areas without an inspection certificate include the insect itself, barley, oats, wheat and other small grain, corn, uncultivated grass and forage crop seed, hay, straw, fodder, plant litter, sod, harvesting machinery.

Any other conveyance articles, such as trucks or railway cars, or other products that may present a hazard, may require inspection, the department said.

The President In Germany

By WALTER LIPPMANN

Before the President left Washington, Gen. de Gaulle withdrew the rest of the French navy from the NATO command. The timing of the action and the blunt and curt manner in which it was done have to be taken as notice to the President that France will not refuse to help the revival of NATO, but will act positively to obstruct the revival.

There is little question but that Gen. de Gaulle has the power to force the issue if he chooses to do so. Strategically, the NATO command and the core of its communications and supply are on French territory, and there is no telling how long France, which has withdrawn its navy and most of its army, will leave the arrangements as they are. Certainly, Gen. de Gaulle has very strong bargaining power in any discussion about the future of NATO.

None Ready To Risk Dissolution
He has also a very powerful leverage on the other five members of the Common Market. By withdrawing from it, he can destroy it, and the career of the general shows most efficiently and is most likely to use it to abstain and withdraw. None of his fellow members in the Common Market is prepared to risk a dissolution. That is one of the compelling reasons why we can afford no illusion about the chances of West Germany challenging Gen. de Gaulle effectively for the leadership of Europe.

In his welcoming speech at the airport near Cologne, Chancellor Adenauer wasted little time on the diplomatic niceties. He read the President a lecture which was sharp notice that while the United States must guarantee the military security of Western Europe, the President must not challenge the primacy of the Paris-Bonn combination in making the policies for dealing with the Soviet Union.

He went so far as to quote to the President sentences taken out of context of what the President said at American University. The President will be making several speeches in Germany, and it will be important to see if and how he extricates himself from the position to which Dr. Adenauer nailed him on his arrival at the airport.

In any event, the chancellor's speech may be taken to mean that, unless his successor makes a sharp break with present German policy, West Germany will remain completely dependent on Paris. For only Paris will support Bonn on an absolutely hard line about East Germany and Berlin. In all the other allied countries, including the United States, there is an inclination to explore the possibility of reunification to be brought about by dealing with the two German states. This is what Dr. Adenauer had in mind when he lectured the President at the airport. As long as he continues to speak for West Germany, Bonn is inescapably tied to Gen. de Gaulle.

Promise Not Entirely Credible
We must not let ourselves be misled by the plea that the Germans and the other Europeans need to be reassured once more that the United States will wage a thermonuclear war to defend them. The real situation is not nearly so simple as that. The French, who are more frank and lucid than most, say that in the nuclear age no ally can be counted upon to risk its own overwhelming destruction in order to protect the national interests of another ally. Therefore, no matter how often the President pledges the country to do or die, the French, and a growing number of Europeans, will not believe him. For a promise to commit national suicide is not, say the annoying French, entirely credible.

At the same time, the French are a very long way from having a nuclear deterrent of their own capable of dealing with the Soviet Union without the help of the United States. They are fastidious. Why do they treat us so scornfully? The answer is that they are entirely certain that there is no real danger of Soviet military aggression against Western Europe. That is the missing key to the Gaullist policy which seems so destructive and so reckless. The French do not believe that NATO will be needed. That is why they are pulling it apart. They do not think that the American alliance is really necessary. In the French view, even if it were necessary, the United States could not be counted upon as a result of promises and oaths.

TIME FOR THE PSYCHIATRIST?

The government, it seems, has offered to lend money to German and Japanese firms willing to establish factories in the United States, in areas of high unemployment.

This disclosure by the House Appropriations Committee so aroused Rep. Lipscomb, a California Republican, that he asked William L. Batt Jr., head of the Area Redevelopment Administration, to explain why taxpayers money was being offered to foreign firms to bring them into the United States to compete against American firms.

"These (foreign) firms," Mr. Batt replied, "have ideas for new business. Sometimes they are in competition and sometimes they manufacture products not manufactured in this country. The rationale is that these areas suffer a terrible shortage of entrepreneurship."

Is it possible that with all of the young people being turned out by our colleges and will all of the experienced businessmen looking for new opportunities there is really a "terrible shortage of entrepreneurship"? We doubt it. If there is a shortage in some areas, it is probably because business men have determined that the prospects for profits do not warrant the necessary investment, or would not be as great as elsewhere.

Unless American business men are losing their initiative which has always distinguished them (and if this happens, it will be largely the government's fault), they are just as able to detect and exploit an opportunity as foreign business men. A German or Japanese factory owner would have to pay just as much in wages and other costs as an American factory owner—unless the government is considering additional concessions to the foreigner. The normal level of profits in this country is lower than in either Germany or Japan. This the government seems to think that a foreign business man will be willing to undertake what an American business man is not, and to accept, in the process, a lower profit than he might expect to make at home.

This simply doesn't make sense. If there are foreign business men so reckless that they will borrow money for such a venture, we would prefer that they did their borrowing from somebody else.

The ARA has had notoriously poor success in recruiting American business men to operate in the depressed areas. It looks as if its frustration is leading to hallucinations, and perhaps it is time to call the psychiatrist.—Chicago Tribune.

Who Threw Concrete On Barnyard?

DUNGANSTOWN, Ireland (AP)—Who threw the concrete topping on Mrs. Ryan's barnyard?

"It's an American trick," most Irish newspapers said today. They blamed the U. S. government for the startling changes at the ancestral homeland President Kennedy will visit Thursday.

The Americans are denying everything and shifting the accusing finger toward the Irish government.

Whoever is responsible for the changes, the old homestead won't be the same place Kennedy visited in 1947 when he was a congressman.

Resembles Parking Lot
The tidy but dirty barnyard, where the widow Ryan's 70 chickens and three cows once held sway, has been covered with concrete and now resembles a parking lot.

A huge manure heap has disappeared from the adjoining field, where the President's helicopter will land.

All the farm animals have been shunted out of sight. There are no pigs in the pasture.

A concrete porch and an indoor tiled toilet—known locally as John's john—have been added to the comfortable Ryan cottage.

Third Cousin
The cottage is a few yards from the humble tin-roofed hut that Patrick Kennedy, the President's great-grandfather, occupied before emigrating to the United States. The hut is now a storage shed.

Mary Ryan, a Kennedy before her marriage, is the President's third cousin and his best-known relative in Ireland.

Despite the changes that have been made about the place, Mrs. Ryan is absolutely determined to give her illustrious kinsman a simple Irish welcome.

The National Whirligig News Behind The News

BY ANDREW TULLY
WASHINGTON — Sen. Barry Goldwater's states' rights posture on the civil rights question, always applauded in the South, is winning him new and unexpected support in certain areas of the vote-rich

North. He is fast becoming the hero of the suburbs, which are almost as populous these days as the apartment houses and tenements of the cities.

His appeal to the backyard barbecue set is economic. Because Goldwater would walk more slowly down the path to integration, he is seen by many suburbanites as a protector of their pocketbooks against a Negro invasion that they fear would destroy the value of their ranch houses and clapboard Cape Cod cottages.

Fear Loss of Status
This fear may be unfounded and perhaps unworthy of Americans, but it is very real. For today the Negro is seeking not only his basic rights in the South but additional rights in the North, and these include living in suburbs where he is now banned by convenient and unwritten, unspoken agreement. Moreover, suburbanites generally do not want to share their leafy communities with Negro because they feel it would rob them of status as well.

This situation is privately troubling many Northern members of Congress who otherwise would be inclined to go down the line for President Kennedy's civil rights program.

But for Barry Goldwater, it is all pure gold. His supporters have been included to write off the big industrial states such as New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Michigan and California, but now some of them are taking a second look. And although it is too early to set down a boxscore, they like what they are seeing and hearing.

Some of them are already gleefully predicting a "revolt of the suburbs" that could sweep their man into the presidency.

As Attorney General Bobby Kennedy admitted the other day, the President's popularity is sure to suffer as a consequence of his civil rights program. Privately, some Democrats already agree with Goldwater that the Arizona could carry the Solid South in 1964. But it is also probable that Kennedy will lose strength in the North, where "the pocketbook philosophy" prevails.

Thanks to his big Negro vote, Kennedy managed to squeak out a victory over Dick Nixon in 1960. But if he loses the South and also is deserted by large numbers of Northern suburbanites who supported him last time, he will be in serious trouble. Goldwater has attracted support among the well-to-do in the North because of his conservatism; now he has a good chance of successfully wooing the commuters who don't want to live next to Negroes.

Counts 311 Votes
Kennedy carried Texas in 1960; Goldwater, with Texas' Sen. John Tower in his corner, has allotted a chance to carry the state in 1964. Kennedy carried Illinois by a whisker; he could lose it next year if the suburbs go after his political scalp.

Privately, some Goldwater people admit they might be too optimistic in claiming 311 electoral votes—41 more than needed to win—from the Old South, five border States, 10 Midwestern states and seven Mountain states. But if some of these states don't deliver as expected, they hope for a little help from the man with the lawnmower whose problems now include the Negro as well as crabgrass and the high cost of charcoal.

R. W. Fredrikson, 36, Named Superintendent At L'Anse

L'ANSE — Robert W. Fredrikson, 36, superintendent of Inland Lakes High School at Indian River, Mich., was named to fill the superintendent's post at L'Anse High School at Wednesday night's special meeting of the board of education.

Fredrikson was selected by unanimous vote from a field of 14 applicants to fill the position being vacated by C. J. Sullivan, who will retire July 1 after serving 26 years in that capacity. All applications were from Michigan educators, and 10 of the 14 were interviewed by the board during three closed sessions earlier this month.

During Fredrikson's term as superintendent at Indian River, a successful millage issue to bond the school district for a $320,000 addition to the school (which is already being occupied) was passed. In addition, he has been involved in annexation of primary districts to the Inland Lakes district and in implementation of a special education program for county students, which is to be taught at Inland Lakes School. In his interview with the board, Fredrikson provided details of improvements made in the high school curriculum and an upgrading of staff qualifications instituted while he was at Indian River.

Fredrikson, a native of the Upper Peninsula, is a graduate of Roger Clark High School in Rockland and received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Northern Michigan University in 1964. He holds a master's degree in school administration from Michigan State University and is presently working toward an educational specialist degree from that university.

He began his academic career as a commercial instructor at the Kingsley Area Schools, where he taught all the business education courses in 1954 and 1955. He was named secondary principal at Kingsley the following year, and remained in that post until 1960. Fredrikson accepted the post of secondary principal at Inland Lakes High School at Indian River in 1960 and was elevated to the post of assistant superintendent and secondary principal the following year. In 1962 he was named superintendent.

Fredrikson's work as a principal entailed curricula development, guidance and counseling work, and he has had experience in the fields of school finance and building programs.

Fredrikson has been an active member of the Michigan Education Association for seven years and is a member of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals and the Northern Association of Secondary School Principals, of which he was secretary this year.

He is married and the father of two sons. Both Fredrikson and his wife have been active in community-sponsored activities in Indian River. He has worked in his church as a lay speaker and is an active member of the Indian River Lions Club. Mrs. Fredrikson has been active in various women's organizations, as a Girl Scout leader and a Sunday school teacher, and also has served as a newspaper correspondent.

Congolese Attempt To Block Comeback By Moise Tshombe

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — In an attempt to block former secessionist leader Moise Tshombe's hopes for a political comeback, the Congolese Parliament has carved a new province out of his Katanga stronghold.

The Senate on Tuesday approved creation of East Katanga, consisting of three territories of North Katanga and part of Tshombe's old power base, South Katanga. Earlier parliament had cut off the western part of South Katanga to form the province of Lualaba.

Observers believe Tshombe, now in exile in Europe, cannot muster enough support to be elected president in any of the provinces.

Yes, honestly, most accidents happen to people just like you!

Contrary to popular opinion, the record shows that all types of people are involved in highway accidents. It isn't just a drinking driver or joy-riding teenager . . . even though they cause more than their share.

A thoughtless moment, by good solid citizens like you and neighbors on your street, is the heaviest contributor to the increasing toll of deaths, injuries, and damaged cars.

Don't count yourself out. Making Michigan's streets and highways safer is a job for all drivers. Drive even more carefully . . . for your own sake, and to help make motoring safer for everyone.

U. P. Champion Blue Notes, Queen Kathleen Greeted By Large Crowd At Homecoming

ISHPEMING — One of the largest crowds seen here in years lined Ishpeming streets yesterday to extend a welcome to the Blue Notes Drum and Bugle Corps for winning the Upper Peninsula American Legion championship and to salute Miss Kathleen McLaughlin for being named Miss Upper Peninsula.

Parading through the streets of Ishpeming, the Blue Notes and their feeder corps were applauded all along the route, then performed on Main St. Miss McLaughlin viewed the proceedings from an elevated platform overlooking the crowd.

Miss Mary McGuire and Miss Marsha Williams, both of Marquette, runners-up in the Miss U.P. contest, also were on hand.

Robert Sturm, chairman of the event, introduced the young ladies and presented Miss McLaughlin with a tape recorder from the Retail Division of the Ishpeming Chamber of Commerce.

The brunette beauty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaughlin spoke briefly in thanking spectators.

The Ishpeming Co-op Store parking lot was the scene of a dance sponsored by the Ishpeming-Negaunee Junior Chamber of Commerce during the evening.

Yesterday's program was regarded as a "kick-off" for the 1964 campaign to select a Miss Ishpeming. The Ishpeming-Negaunee Jaycees will conduct such a contest on Sept. 13 and 14.

Special Education Services For Alger Made Possible By Merger Of School District

MUNISING — Marquette and Alger Counties will become Michigan's first bi-county school district Monday.

They have joined forces under a new state law aimed at spurring "special educational services" for handicapped children. It also helps beef up lean budgets of smaller, poorer school districts, allowing them to provide services they might not otherwise be able to afford.

Merger OK'd By Voters

Alger voters approved the merger two weeks ago, 822-141.

Alger will get the special services funds to finance them from the state as a result of the merger.

Elsewhere in the Upper Peninsula, Baraga County recently rejected annexation to neighboring Houghton County. Similar elections are planned in other parts of the state, including Grand Traverse County.

and local budgets are adopted and local school taxes levied.

William T. MacNeil, superintendent of Munising's public schools and president of the Alger County Board of Education, describes the new setup as a "service area."

Under the program, each county involved in the merger will receive $3,500 in state funds to aid in transition and the new districts can receive up to $5,100 for each special program initiated involving 5,000 pupils.

The Alger County school enrollment of just over 2,300 and Marquette's enrollment of more than 14,000 make a total of more than 16,300.

Using these figures, the new arrangement will allow three special teachers to be hired for special programs in the two counties with the state paying up to $15,300 of the cost.

MacNeil said the system will enable Alger County to have instruction which has not been possible in the past due to the county's tight financial situation.

Marquette's district already has three speech therapists on its teaching staff and other special education teachers can be added under the new program and can be shared with Alger County schools.

The high-stepping and talented Blue Notes Drum and Bugle Corps, Upper Peninsula American Legion champions, received a tremendous ovation from hundreds of spectators who lined Ishpeming's downtown streets to give them and U. P. Queen Kathleen McLaughlin an official "Welcome home."

Intermediate Districts

The program was made possible by the intermediate to school district act, passed by the Legislature last fall and approved by the Marquette County Board of Education and the State Department of Education.

Under the bill, present county school districts will be changed to intermediate school districts. Any intermediate district having fewer than 5,000 pupils after 1964 will not receive state aid.

Financial burdens in the under-5,000 districts must be carried by county funds beginning in 1965, but if one intermediate district combines with another—as Alger and Marquette have—to bring enrollment above 5,000, the present state allocation of $4,800 toward the superintendent's salary will be continued and more money will be provided for additional services.

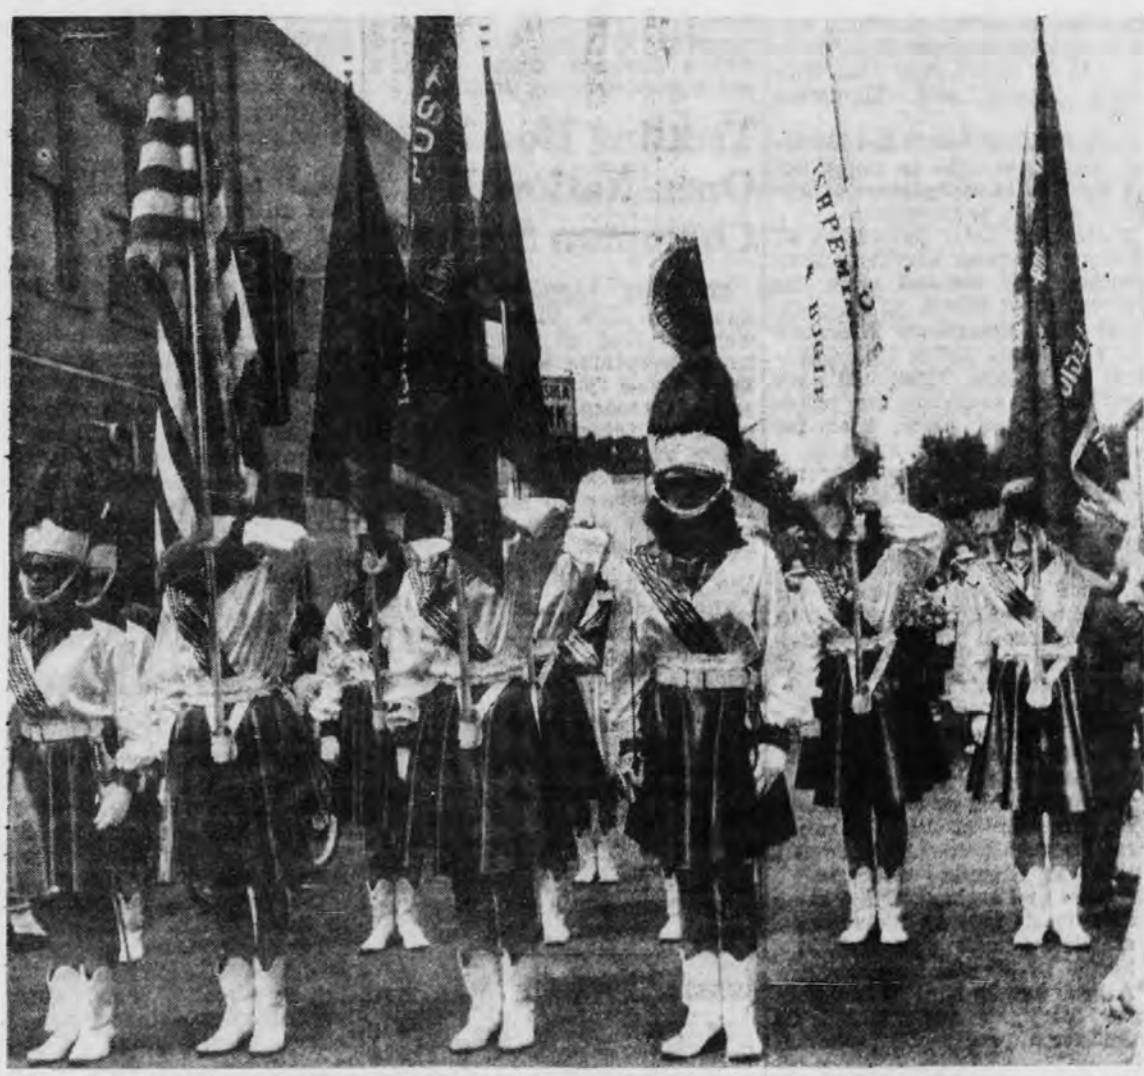

Under the new arrangement, no school district gives up any of its authority or local privileges.

Local school boards still are elected, teachers are engaged as usual

Hope For Change In Act

In Baraga County, voters have expressed fears they would lose local control of their schools. They have appealed to Sen. Charles O. McManiman and Rep. Gilbert L. Wales to push for an amendment to the act which would provide for representation from constituent counties on the new intermediate boards.

"People forget that county lines are broken down under the intermediate school district act," said MacNeil. "In any event the Department of Public Instruction would check to see that the smaller county received the share of special services it would be entitled to."

The Blue Notes' color guard, decked out in their flashing uniforms, performed in an excellent manner and were one of the highlights in the homecoming parade held in Ishpeming Thursday. Robert Sturm, American Legion post commander, was chairman for the celebration.

TRENARY — A parade, races, contests, midway, baseball games, movies and fireworks have been planned by the Trenary Lions Club for its annual Fourth of July celebration to be staged here next Thursday.

In connection with the event, the Lions are planning a homecoming for former Trenary residents.

The program will begin at 10 a. m. with opening announcements, followed at 10:15 by a "bigger than ever" parade, King Lion Joseph Ostanek, general chairman, reported. The parade will feature a marching unit from K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, Eben High School band and floats.

Races, games and other competitive events for persons of all ages will follow.

The Lions will set up their big "midway" across from the high school again. There visitors will find tents, shade trees, benches and restrooms. Ample parking space is available there, as well as a safe place where children can play. A lunch stand, popular games, children's ferris wheel, chair swing ride (which the club recently purchased), pony rides and a cotton candy machine will be found there.

Midlet League baseball games, in which teams from Chatham, Trenary, Skandia and Eben will compete, will be offered during the afternoon. Movies will be shown at the Forest Theater at 2 and 7:30 p. m., with the fireworks display starting at 9:45. A dance at Herb's Place will follow.

Assault Case Defendant Asks Hearing

NEGAUNEE — Graham Hopper, 600 Water St., Negaunee, arrested on a felonious assault charge, demanded preliminary examination at his arraignment Thursday afternoon in Negaunee Municipal Court.

Hopper, according to police, ordered Officers Howard G. Nease and Ralph Carlson off his property at gun point when they went to his home early Thursday morning to investigate a complaint of family trouble after a call was received at the police department office from Mrs. Hopper.

The officers left and when they returned with other members of the local force, plus state police reinforcements, Hopper voluntarily surrendered.

Judge William E. Haupt tentatively set Friday, July 5, as the date for the preliminary examination. Hopper, who was represented at the arraignment by Attorney E. Nicholas Bridges of Negaunee, was released after posting bond of $250.

GABELGRAM

Gary Silc, Northern's basketball center, has received an inquiry about playing semi-pro basketball for Goodyear of Akron, in addition to his bid to try out for the professional Detroit Pistons.

Speaking of the semipro, Bob Willis from Ishpeming, is picking up a couple of bucks this summer in East West Coast softball.

While it certainly would be a hardship on the coaching staff, it seems a shame that Bishop Baraga Central couldn't sponsor a baseball team for its upper classmen next fall.

Likely future for Northern teams: growing little Northwoods Institute at Midland, has shown it aims for better than average sports program.

Playing the percentages Dennis (DJ) Erickson had some figures in won-lost column as a pitcher and in the batting averages, as sophomore letter winner with the Michigan State baseball team.

More items from the coaching ranks: Ray Johnson, who was a student assistant during the final years of Pierce High basketball, is to go to Denmark, Wis., this fall.

Tom Rainier is slated to coach at Suomi College; Don Gorsuch is to be the basketball coach of the Bad Axe High School Hatchets, down in the Thumb.

Lee Savoring is the new "B" team basketball coach at Negaunee St. Paul; Bill Popp reportedly will handle basketball at L'Anse, and assist Jim Mattson in football.

Need bullpen help, Charles? George Thomas, recently acquired by Tigers from LA, pitched three no-hit innings in Angels' exhibition game at Davenport.

Co-captain Dan Underwood of Michigan State is one of Spartans' most rugged players. The 6-0, 190-pound end got little notice, playing behind big Matt Spontone for two years, so few spotted some odd statistics.

Comment continues mixed on the new strike zone rule for major league baseball. Some contend the ump's started calling the high strike, but have tended to return to the old zone.

Don't hang up your spikes yet! Mother, the dash events are next! Stella Walsh Olson, 52, who once held 20 track records, will return to national competition July 4, in the Women's AAU at Dayton, Ohio.

Who atop 'A' list: EAST LANSING — Jon Aho, a sophomore football player from Tecumseh, headed the list of 51 Michigan State University varsity athletes with a grade of "B" or better during the spring quarter.

Terrible Tiger Trek Ends; Detroit 3-11 In Past Two Weeks

DETROIT (AP) — The terrible ordeal on the road is over and the Detroit Tigers are safely back home with a bunch of strangers.

The Tigers lost 11 games and won only three in the series of misadventures that began two weeks ago tonight. They were winless in New York, Boston and Minnesota and bunched all three victories into a four-game series at Kansas City.

Maz No Big Spender; Pirate 2b Uses Same Old Glove PITTSBURGH (AP) — Because of his adroit fielding, Bill Mazeroski, the patient second baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is known throughout the National League as the "Golden Glove."

Part of His Hand "It just feels like part of my hand," Mazeroski says, a smile crossing his face. "It looks like a couple of pieces of worn-out leather. It's thin, there's no padding. And it's ripped in the web. I have to get my wife to sew it."

When I came up to the majors," Mazeroski says, "I was using the same glove I had used all through high school and in the minors. It was just a worn-out piece of leather. I had to hold it together with wire."

His Big Year Of course, as all Yankee chauvinists tearfully recall, 1960 was the year of the Mazeroski. Who—especially Ralph Terry—can ever forget a jubilant Mazeroski galloping around third in the ninth inning of the seventh World Series game, a mob surging toward him, after he had blasted a home run that gave the Pirates the world championship.

Golf Here are the pairings for the Monday Twilight League, Marquette Golf & Country Club, 7:30 p.m. July 1st special event. The first round will be 18 holes.

Luplow Catch AL Highlight; Chisox Belt NY

Luplow, Cleveland outfielder, made a spectacular diving catch of Dick Williams' bid for a three-run homer in the eighth inning and preserved a 6-4 triumph over third-place Boston Thursday.

Three Games Out Power, Minnesota first baseman, threw a punch at Detroit pitcher Phil Regan and was ejected from the game during a 10-6 triumph over the Tigers that moved the Twins to within three games of first-place New York.

Senators Homer In the only other game scheduled, Washington used home runs by Jim King, Don Zimmer and Hobie Landrith to top Kansas City 4-2.

Trenary HRs Top Harvey In Legion Play

HARVEY — Trenary home runs — four of them — spelled the difference as they downed Harvey, 9-4, in a County Legion League game.

Harvey, held to four hits by Roy Aho, built a 4-1 lead in the first four innings, only to have Trenary tie the score, then pound out five runs in the sixth inning to clinch it.

Wayne Lucardi and Alan Rukila each had a homer and two other hits for the victors, while Ullinen and Blair also homered.

Bonus Baby Wins 10th For Phillies

RAY CULP Philadelphia's $100,000 bonus right-hander who had a losing minor league record, is halfway home in his bid to become the first rookie pitcher since 1947 to enter the 20-victory circle in the National League.

Culp, 21, won No. 10 Thursday night as the Phillies pounded 18 hits and clobbered Pittsburgh 13-4 in the only game on the NL schedule.

Could Be 1st Since Jansen If Culp continues at his present pace, he will have an excellent chance to become the first rookie 20-game winner since Larry Jansen of the New York Giants posted a 21-5 record in 1947.

Biggest Production The Phillies piled up 18 hits and their biggest run production of the season. The 18 hits tied the NL high.

U.S. Housing Officials Eye Integration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal housing officials are studying how to step up pressure on home builders to voluntarily end discrimination against Negroes.

If no answer can be found, it may lead to a broadening of President Kennedy's anti-bias housing order to include conventionally-financed as well as federally financed housing.

In early test cases, officials have had little luck in persuading builders who don't come under the order to sell to Negroes.

Gradually, however, more and more builders will come under the order and officials feel that in some extent, time is on their side. No Mood To Wait.

But recent mass protests, in both the North and the South, indicate that the Negroes are in no mood to wait. Although the disturbances haven't directly involved housing so far, there is a feeling that this will come before long.

New regulations will be issued early next week affecting some phases of urban renewal.

The over-all question of how to work more effectively under section 102 of the housing order, which calls on federal agencies,
