

Who Is Who IN MANISTIQUE

JOHN N. FORSHAR

County Clerk John N. Forshar is a real Wolverine. Born in Escanaba, of Irish descent, his parents taught him early the lessons of thrift and industry. His education beginning in Escanaba was completed in Thompson, where his parents had moved in 1884. His father was an old railroad man and John rode in the engine cab during vacation and after school and at an early age became efficient in the art of making steam. His first work, however, was for the Chicago & North-western Railway Co. A number of cruisers were employed to look over some of the properties of that road and Forshar spent the winter of 1901 roughing it with the outfit; he decided that he preferred to spend the winter months in an engine cab rather than by a 6x9 tent and so began qualifying himself for a locomotive engineer. He first pulled the throttle on one of the Thompson Lumber Co.'s engines and after four years of service, removed to this city and went to work on the Soo Line. He later occupied a position, as engine driver with the Furnace Co. and held this down until operated upon at Ann Arbor for appendicitis in 1907. After the operation his health was such that he decided upon a change of occupation after considering several offers bought an interest in the insurance business of R. H. Teeple. The firm name being Teeple & Forshar. In the fall of 1908 he was prevailed upon to run for county treasurer. There were four candidates in the field in this campaign but Forshar was elected by a majority of ninety-four. He held this office four years when he suddenly announced his candidacy for county clerk. After a hot campaign he was elected. Since 1912 he has held this office continuously although both elections found good men in the field against him. Mr. Forshar, by close attention to business has achieved for himself an enviable reputation for efficiency and ability. He is a member of the draft board and has been called upon to help make some important decisions. He is recognized as a responsible official and is qualified for any position of trust that the people of the city and county may see fit to impose upon him.

He married in 1909, Miss Winnifred Linderman, a popular school teacher and a former resident of Watertown, Conn. The ceremony was performed by Mrs. Forshar's uncle, the Rev. Owen R. Lovejoy at his home at Tarrytown, N. Y. Rev. Lovejoy is of national prominence in his connection with the National League of Child Welfare Work. After an extended trip through the east Mr. Forshar returned with his bride to Manistique. Four children furnish light and sunshine in the Forshar home on River St. Hartman, aged 6; Mary Elizabeth, aged 5; Evelyn, aged 3, and Rosalind, 18 months.

MORE POTATO, LESS FLOUR

According to the department of home economics of Michigan Agricultural college, housewives can render double service to the state and nation if they will use potatoes as a partial substitute for wheat flour.

"We are confronted with necessity for conserving our wheat supply, of which we have too little, and of making use of our potatoes, of which we have a surplus. We can do both by making less use of one and more of the other.

"Bread we must have, it is true, and at least a small portion of wheat flour seems to be necessary if we are to have a light palatable loaf, but we can still achieve this if we will use potatoes for a part of the flour.

"These recipes, which have been thoroughly tested, are suggested as two ways in which potatoes can be satisfactorily used;

"Potato Muffins—4 tablespoons shortening, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1 egg, 2-3 cup mashed potato, 2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1 cup milk. Cream shortening and sugar, add the well beaten egg and then the potatoes. Mix thoroughly, add milk and then the flour and baking powder which have been sifted together. Bake in well greased muffin pans for about 20 minutes.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

THE STORM PARADE.

"Are you ready?" asked old Mr. North Wind.
 "We are ready," said all the little breezes.
 "How about you, hail drops?"
 "We're ready," they said.
 "And Prince Sleet, how about you?"
 "All ready, Mr. North Wind."
 "Then set—Go!" said the north wind. And such a storm as there was. But it was quite the funniest kind of a storm for it seemed to be clear in one place and then all of a sudden the storm continued.
 "Well start," said old Mr. North Wind, "at one end of the city, and we'll give a parade."
 The others did not know at first that a storm parade meant, but old Mr. North Wind explained.
 "You see," he said, "we'll start to blow and pour and storm at one end of the city. The other end will be perfectly free from the storm, but gradually, little by little, we will work our way right through the city. Ah, won't we have a joke on the earth people! They will say:
 "'See the storm! Isn't it strange? It's hailing here, and down the street

FRANK GOTCH, UNDEFEATED WRESTLING CHAMPION, MADE THE TOE HOLD FAMOUS

Frank Gotch, the undefeated heavyweight wrestling champion, who died recently at his home near Humboldt, Ia., was the man who made the toe hold and the crotch hold famous. He was the first man to use the former punishing grip effectively, and became famous for his ability to apply it and to make opponents quit when he used it. When Gotch was in the zenith of his career the toe hold was as much talked of as the scissors has been since Joe Stecher and Earl Caddock have brought the latter into frequent use.
 Gotch built up a fortune in wrestling and by investing his earnings in Iowa farm lands. His estate is variously estimated at between $200,000 and $400,000, all of which represents money made through his ability as a grappler.

Play Lacrosse in Army.
 Lacrosse may be played in the army, if the suggestion of the U. S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse league is followed. It has been pointed out that American, Canadian, Australian and many Englishmen know the game, and French soldiers have been taking it up. At a recent game in Salonica, Greece, at least five nationalities were represented, each with expert players.

White Sox Sign Catcher.
 George Lees, a college catcher, has been signed for a trial with the Chicago White Sox. Some of the experts say he was the best college catcher in the country last season, and several major league managers sought his services.

Allison in Meade Squad.
 Edgar Allison, a well-known Baltimore athlete, who had a trial with the Detroit Tigers, is now at Camp Meade. He is also a good swimmer and football player.

Skate Once in a While.
 War department proposes to provide skating ponds for soldiers. A little skate on, now and then, is relished by the best of men.

U. S. Favors Trap Shooting.
 The government has made arrangements to have trapshooting taken up at the various cantonments and aviation schools.

Success and Failure.
 Success is generally due to holding on, and failure to letting go. It depends upon how much pluck and perseverance that word "Decide" contains. "With time and patience the mulberry leaf becomes satin."—Babcock.

ROLL OF HONOR GROWS

Nothing in Talk About Ball Players Hanging Back.

Many Stars Have Enrolled Their Names and Departed for Training Quarters—List Given is Worthy of Attention.

Desist from the talk about big league ball players hanging back from the fire, and dodging their duty in the trenches! That sort of stuff was first heard early last summer, when the boys didn't hurl themselves forward en masse and demand enlistment in a body. It doesn't go any more. Not for anyone who has kept track of the quiet fashion in which the players have been stepping up to the enrollment offices, getting their names upon the papers, and heading for the training camps. Count them up; take note of the number of players carried by big league teams, and then see what sort of dodgers these young fellows are!

The roll here offered is doubtless incomplete, for not a day passes without some player hurrying his name to headquarters. Moreover, lots of them have signed up with the colors at little, out-of-the-way hamlets, and it may be weeks before all the names are known. But the list, as it is, tells its own story, and deserves attention. Here's how the roll of honor stands:

- National League.
 Boston—Gowdy, Maraville, Schreiber, Barnes, Rico.
 Brooklyn—Cadore, Sherrad, Smith, Miljus, Pfeffer and probably Johnston.
 Chicago—Mann, Schlick.

 New York—Kelly, Anderson, Robertson, Baird, J. P. Jones.
Philadelphia—Rixey.

 St. Louis—Miller.
American League.
 Athletics—Noyes, Bates, Sharman, Seibold, Naylor, Haley, Lawton Witt, Johnson, McInnis.
 Boston—Barry, Lewis, Shore, McNally, Shorten, Gainer, Hoblitel, Bentley.

Special Class.

JO LOOMIS ENLISTS AS PRIVATE IN ARTILLERY

Jo G. Loomis, Chicago Athletic Association champion, who formerly was national champion in the sprint events and high jump, has enlisted in the Three Hundred and Thirty-third field artillery at Camp Grant.

Loomis returned to Chicago recently after completing a period of six months' service as driver of an ambulance in the Verdun sector.

The former sprinter weighed 158 pounds when he started for France. At his physical examination at Rockford, which he passed with flying colors, he tipped the scale as 178 pounds.

"If this war continues long enough, Jo," remarked one of his friends among the officers, "and you continue to gain weight, you will become a shotputter instead of a runner."

BRITISH TANK ON A RECRUITING TOUR OF THE UNITED STATES

The British tank Britannia, which recently demonstrated various interesting phases of tank warfare as waged by the British army in France, before the officers and men of Brig. Gen. Evan M. Johnson's division of the National Army at Camp Upton, Yaphank, N. Y., has started on a recruiting tour of the United States for the British and Canadian recruiting mission, which is headed by Brig. Gen. W. A. White. The Britannia, known as a female tank, weighs 30 tons, travels over rough country, hills, banks, and trenches at the rate of about four miles an hour, and is armed with Lewis machine guns. She fought in the battle of the Somme and has been "over the top" three times.

They are (1) Edward Chambers, former traffic director of the food administration; (2) Hale Holden, president of the Burlington; (3) Henry Walters, chairman of the board of directors of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Louisville & Nashville; (4) John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, and (5) Walker D. Hines, railroad attorney.

IN A NUTSHELL

There are probably more natural bridges in America than in any other country. Rainbow, the largest in existence, is 308 feet high. Its span is six times as great as that of the Natural Bridge of Virginia. Utah has three of these natural bridges that are of higher and greater span than any other natural bridges in the world.

The government is reported to have reached a decision that three nails, or wooden pins, used in shipbuilding must be of locust or encalyptus. The lack of locust will be the particular species used.

It is announced that the Baltimore & Ohio railroad has begun to install electric headlights on all of its locomotives. The improvement will be made at the rate of from 75 to 100 engines a month.

ANTI-ZEPPELIN BULLET MAN

J. Putney of Hammersmith, England, the inventor of the Pomeroy bullet which has been used with great success in combating Zeppelins. Heretofore one difficulty in fighting the giant German airships was the impossibility of penetrating and destroying the huge gas bags with the projectiles in use. Mr. Pomeroy's new bullet is of an entirely different type and was put to an actual test during a recent air raid on London. The bullet proved to be highly successful and the big air raider fell, a flaming mass, to the ground. This photograph shows the inventor and his little daughter Mary, who is holding a model of an airplane on which Mr. Pomeroy is working.

Laying It on Thick.
 Beryl had been told many times that she was pretty, but she wanted to find out just how pretty the man who married thought her.

"Do you think any of the other girls in the office are as pretty as I am?" she questioned.
 "No," he answered judiciously, "and I don't think one could assemble enough features from the entire crowd to make a girl as pretty as you are." That satisfied her.
